Seven Fires in Two Days

Seven fires in two days kept the Spearman fire department on the move Tuesday and Wednesday.

The most spectacular of the six fires demolished a large warehouse building at the corner of Brandt and Seventh streets at noon Wednesday.

The building belonged to J. D. McCoy. An old car and some tools were lost in the blaze that consumed the large wood and tin building in about 30 minutes.

Firemen said there were some old tires and some oil and grease in the building that helped feed the flames.

Mrs. McCoy said the building was afire all over when it was discovered. She added that no one was working around the building and she had no idea how the blaze started.

The sheet iron covering on the building made battling the fire difficult. One fireman, Marion Ciose, had to throw down his hose and run when one of the walls came tumbling down almost on top of him.

Tuesday was one of the biggest days in Spearman fire history as to number of fires. Firemen answered five alarms and had to make a second trip to one fire.

A small building burned at the Lee Phillips home on Hazelwood. The house is owned by Louise Mackie. Firemen had to return to this fire later in the day when the high winds fanned sparks back to life.

A grass fire on the Mathews ranch five miles northwest of Spearman Tuesday evening, destroyed about 75 acres of grass leased by Jake and Jimmy Vernon.

Firemen were able to control this fire in the high wind when they trapped it against a dry creek. Vernon said if it had fire difficult. One fireman,

Nobody Paid Paul Revere

Tom Martin, comparing the so-called "midnight ride" of Billy Hargis and former General Walker with that of Paul Revere, gave his KFDD-TV listeners some food for thought.

Among other things, he said that Paul Revere did not stop during his frantic ride to take up a collection.

Ignoring the political implications, our mind wandered back to other apparently worthy projects that have come to our attention from time to time. And we wondered how many of them were truly labors of love.

Now, there's nothing wrong with asking and receiving remuneration for work. We live in a world that demands pay for almost everything it gives. Everybody must have an income of some kind if he is to exist. If he doesn't have an income, someone must provide one for him.

There's nothing wrong for a professional speaker, such as Hargis to ask a fee for his services, to charge admission. There's nothing wrong for a legitimate radio preacher to ask for contributions from those who benefit from his ministry. After all, radio stations don't give him their time. There is much expense to broadcasting.

But people object to the commercialization of labors of love? Paul Revere's ride was a labor of love. He didn't stop to ask, "Who is going to pay my mileage?"

The person who does nothing for which he is not paid, regardless of the worthiness of his work, has paid nothing on his debt to society. Even the preacher who is paid for all he does cannot be considered more than a secular laborer.

When the books are closed and man's stewardship on this earth is totaled, the only thing counted will be his contributions--those things he did without remuneration.

We wonder sometimes if even those contributions made with one eye on the Department of Internal Revenue will count.

All of which causes us to wonder how much real giving, with no expectation of return even in the form of goodwill to our business, really takes place.

In Defense of the P-TA

The controversial ballot that the National Parent-Teachers Association sent out to local units all over the country has raised a storm of protest in these parts because the ballot was obviously loaded in favor of federal aid to education.

An answer to the first two questions of the ballot could not be given as a vote against federal aid. Instead, the ballot merely asks how the unit would like its federal aid.

And the reaction has been violent. Some pretestations have gone so far as to advocate pulling out of the PTA or even to abolish the PTA as an organization.

Perhaps we have a different view out here than they do back East. Apparently federal aid is taken for granted in other parts of the country. We doubt if the PTA will be abolished.

And why should a local unit pull out of it as long as there is local control of PTA activities? Certainly there would have to be a substitute for it.

While attendance at Perryton PTA meetings has been far from what it ought to be, the fact remains that a great deal of good is done by the organization, outside of the monthly membership meeting.

The Parent-Teachers Association remains the coordinating unit that gets parents and teachers working together and knowing each other for the better education of the youngsters.

The Parent-Teachers Association has done a lot of good. Safety committee work has resulted in the stationing of school patrol officers at the two elementary school in Perryton. It was the PTA that worked toward this safety program and secured the cooperation of the school and city in seeing that it was accomplished.

The PTA is not a political organization, but it is intensely partisan on the side of better school, better teachers, healthier and safer children.

The Ranger Loan Fund, which in time will be the means of sending a lot of deserving youngsters through college, came into being as a result of a PTA committee project.

The PTA has given an annual scholarship to a deserving boy or girl of Perryton high school for the past several years and has made an initial contribution to the student loan fund.

Critics of the PTA, are, for the most part, those who have not taken an active part in it. Certainly the organization has its faults, but it has a lot of virtues.

We believe wholeheartedly in the PTA.

A Lot Of Noise ?

Do the conservatives want to win state and national elections, or, are they just making with a lot of noise?

We are approaching the middle of 1963 and 1964 is election year. To date, there has been little organizational or financial stockpiling work done to prepare for the gigantic push that will be necessary for any conservative victories next year.

If this great groundswell of conservatism is going to accomplish more than just make the ground uneven, then the conservatives are going to have to quit being conservative. We are not referring to their ideals, but to their political actions. It takes more than "Red under the bed" charges and many unproven charges against office holders and hangers-on to get votes. It takes organization, it takes work, and most of all it takes money. That is where the conservatives run into trouble.

A big majority of the conservatives are conservative because they are the people with the income. They are the ones who are hit the hardest with taxes. This motive may be wrapped in many other ideas, words and thoughts, but it is the tax bite that causes many to go to worrying about the "loss of freedoms" and expanding government intervention into private enterprise. These people would not object to government guaranteed farming and business, if they were not made aware each year of who pays this guarantee.

A large percentage of the conservatives made their money through hard work, sound management and not taking too many big, unpredictable risks. This philosophy of money management is going to seriously hamper the conservatives in conducting winning political campaigns. In political races today vast sums of money must be available at all times to be used on many unpredictable risks. Much money will be spent for little apparent return on the investment. Many other demands will be made on the conservative finances that will scare and dishearten those with a genuine respect for money.

However, until the conservatives learn to gather money, and use it like the real "Texas Wheeler-Dealers" to build a political machine, then their political effectiveness will be confined to "windstorms".

In 1960 a political machine built on money left the powerful Texas pair of LBJ and Mr. Sam wondering what hit them in Los Angeles. The same thing will happen to the conservatives in 1964 if they are not ready to "Put-up or Shut-up".

THANK YOU

We wish to thank everyone who helped fight the grass fire on our place Tuesday afternoon. Had it not been for the good work of the fire department and all the volunteers the damage would have been much greater. Again, we say, Thank You.

Clean-Up Campaign Set

It's Clean-Up Time Again!

The Annual Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up week, sponsored by the City of Spearman and the local Chamber of Commerce will get underway April 26 and last until May 4.

While it is good to have a special week of emphasis on getting the town clean, it usually takes more than seven days in which to do it. So, those in charge of the campaign urge local citizens to begin now to get yards and alleys cleaned up, weeds cut and trash removed from their property.

EVERYTHING placed in alleys will be picked up Friday, April 26, Saturday, April 27, Friday, May 3 and Saturday, May 4 when the campaign comes to a climax.

The Chamber of Commerce and City of Spearman urge everyone to join hands with them in this effort to make Spearman a more attractive and healthy city in which to live.

Ever wonder how much elephants cost by the pound?

Last weekend at the Panhandle Press Convention I thought we had surely found out. One of our hosts was "Freddie the Fireman" of Channel 10 in Amarillo who has begun a campaign to begin a zoo in Amarillo. His pet project is collecting funds for the zoo's first animal, an elephant. I don't know how much the average elephant weighs, but it's supposed to cost $2500 and he's collecting it in nickles and dimes.

Since I don't watch many children's shows on television, I'd never seen Freddie before. But, I still was surprised to see another television personality who is even shorter than Dan True.

I guess I wasn't any more surprised than he was through. When I stood up (in high heels) after talking to him awhile, and he came just to the top of my elbow!

David Knox Performs At Convention

David Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Knox of Spearman, was guest soloist recently in the Junior Concert presented at the Texas Federation of Music Clubs annual convention in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Knox were in Dallas to hear their son perform.

A number of area residents were present for the convention with State President Mrs. C. E. Bock of Austin, presiding. The convention theme was "To Know Is To Grow" and was carried out in a number of panel discussions.

Appearing on the "To Know Your Executives" panel were Mmes. John R. Yows of Borger, First District President; and State Recording Secretary. Mrs. Sam L. Seay of Amarillo State Yearbooks Chairman, appeared on a panel of the Education Department.

First District clubs and individuals received recognition and awards for special achievements among the Federation's goals. Mrs. Don Spencer, First District Vice-President, Dalhart, was recognized for her organization of a new music club at Stratford. Mrs. D. L. Darken, Borger, District Junior Counselor, organized more new ing portraits of adults, but somehow it seems more of an art to capture the personality of a little child in a photograph. No matter how they twist and turn, Crickett is always patient and waits for that "Special" expression and gesture before she snaps the shutter.

In reading one of our exchange papers, I noticed the qualifications a town must have to be eligible for a foreign exchange student. The American Field Service requires that a town have a branch of the organization with a president, home placement and adjustment chairman, and a finance chairman. A Scholarship of $700 must be provided for the student $14 a month of which is a personal allowance for the student.

The American Field Service program began in 1948 with German students and it has grown until in 1963 there are 2500 exchange students from different countries in the US under this program.

Some time back the Spearman High School student council sponsored a ballgame to raise funds to bring a foreign exchange student to Spearman. I think this is an admirable effort on the part of high school students and one that probably does as much as anything to promote international understanding.

Proper Grazing Important To Producing More Grass

Beef sold off pastures is actually grass which is harvested by cattle and sold as beef. This being true, the main principle of pasture management is to produce more grass economically, which in turn can mean more beef sold.

Irrigated native grasses produced over 9,000 pounds more green herbage per acre under a rotational grazing system with 4-week recovery periods than produced by the same grasses under heavy continuous grazing. Equally important, proper grazing, regardless of the management system resulted in considerably higher yields than heavy grazing.

These findings were shown on irrigated pastures of switchgrass, sideoats grama and Indiangrass located near Muleshoe and Levelland. These three native grasses had been established for seed production 2 years earlier and were planted in 40-inch rows.

The average amount of fertilizer received by the grass plots was 60 pounds of N and 40 pounds of P₂O₅ per acre, either broadcast or chiseled into the soil at a 6 inch depth during February. The average moisture received by the plots amounted to nearly 11 inches of irrigation water and more than 15 inches of rainfall, before and during the growing season. Also, the average "grazing" period was from the first week in June to the early part of September.

Plots of each grass were clipped to simulate grazing under the following types of management: (1) Continuous heavy use (clipped each week); (2) continuous proper use (clipped each week); (3) rotational heavy use (clipped once every 4 weeks); and (4) rotational proper use (clipped once every 4 weeks).

The three grass species produced similar results under each type of grazing management, but yields as obtained from the various use schedules varied greatly.

The optimum grazing and recovery periods for a rotational system has not been established, but the time to begin grazing appears to be best judged by vegetative growth stages of the plant.

Cattle should be removed, and these grasses should be allowed to recover from grazing when 40 to 50 percent of the forages have been taken.

Proper management of pastures means more grass, and more grass means more beef.

Highway Director

Larry Kelly, pantomimist, who will entertain while the judges confer.

Parade chairman Jaycee Frank Cockrell said this week that several organizations have entered floats in the parade. The theme of the parade will be "Fiesta Time".

Cockrell said any group wishing to build a float should contact him as soon as possible so a sponsor can be located.

Work has begun on the rodeo bleachers and arena, according to Rodeo Chairmen Zack Fisher and Lloyd Buzzard. The Jaycees and the Riding Club are working together on this project.

Tickets for the barbeque will go on sale Thursday, April 18, according to Wayne Chapman, barbeque chairman. Tickets will be $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for children under 12.

"The Jaycees solicit the cooperation of businessmen and individuals in helping sell the barbeque tickets. It is hoped that everyone will also cooperate in the sale of shaving permits and celebration hats, Chapman stated.

Fifty area towns and Flying Clubs have been invited to the Fly-In Breakfast, which is slated for Saturday morning, May 11, Chairman Edward Dear said.

"There will be from six to nine skydivers who will jump at scheduled times during the day on Saturday, Dear stated, and many other attractions that promise to make this the biggest celebration ever."

April Dollar Day is Friday, the 19th.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS
AUSTIN, Tex. — Clean up the roadsides is a message being delivered by the Texas Good Roads Association and the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Project is described as an "important contribution to the pleas of Governor Connally and the Legislature to seriously and systematically promote tourist travel into and through Texas."

Texas Junior Chamber will encourage its members to join in a project to remove debris and litter from city streets, county roads, and state highways.

Texas Good Roads Association will give the junior chambers money prizes for the best local progress to make their areas more attractive to visitors of Texas.

WATER — Final legislative action is near on the bill by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas and Rep. Eligio de la Garza of McAllen to set up machinery for the state to help out financially on big water projects.

Both Houses have adopted the bill with a small difference.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall added an amendment to give county commissioners courts approval power on recreation facilities planned at reservoirs built under the program. Since no county money will be involved, the House took out this provision.

Voters approved the plan last November by which the Texas Water Development Board will be allowed to use up to half of its $100,000,000 borrowing power to pay for, or contract to pay for, the building of added height on dams to be built by local or federal agencies.

Highly complicated procedures were written into the bill to safeguard the money. Cash from future sales of water or storage space will repay the state bonds issued to finance the projects.

INDUSTRY PLAN — State loans would be available for building new, or expanding old, factories in Texas, if the House and the voters approve a plan by Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin.

Dies got the Senate to approve his plan for a $200,000,000 state bond issue from which loans would be made.

Theory is that the industries would repay the loans with interest, and this would repay the state's debt, also with interest. State's borrowing power is such that it would have lower interest rates, and the difference in interest would pay costs of administering the program.

TAX CUT — While legislators begin consideration of tax increase to help finance state government activities, mainly the growth in higher education, two industries are about to get tax cuts.

Both Houses of the Legislature passed a bill to reduce the tax on sulphur producers.

House also has passed, and favorable Senate action is expected, on a bill to exempt state banks from the sales tax and the corporation franchise tax.

Both groups are putting up persuasive arguments. Sulphur lobbyists say that Louisiana's tax on sulphur is only $1.03 a ton, so Texas should cut its rate to that level.

mention for our efforts at the Panhandle Press Convention in Amarillo last weekend. It did not get us any prizes of "dodads" to hang on the wall, but it made us feel good. This is the first prize, other than a pat on the back below the belt, we ever won for columns.

The most humorous thing about the convention, other than Day and Freddie the Fireman standing side-by-side, was their having us on a panel to discuss having an editorial page each week in the paper. We could not find enough locally produced editorials last year to enter the editorial contest. It takes three.

Needless to say, since we made such an inspiring lecture on the subject, you will find an editorial page in this week's paper and those to follow---we hope.

T-T

Friday, April 19, the Cancer Drive will be conducted here in Spearman. The women's clubs are hoping to wrap the drive up in one day. It will take everyone's cooperation if they are to accomplish the goal.

Right now, cancer seems to be our biggest problem in health and all the help that can be given to increase research will be money well spent.

We hope most of this money is going to research and not to the national fund raisers.

T-T

It is time for Spearman to get down to serious thinking about building a new library. We are not referring to a tax issue. We mean the town getting together and raising the money to build a library.

Our present library is stuffed in the basement of the courthouse and is literally spilling into the floor. The number of books so far exceeds the space, that many of them cannot be kept on the shelves. There is little room for research work in the reference books and no room for adding more facilities.

Because of the high educational level of this community, there is a great demand for books. Children and adults alike use the library far above the average for a small town. It would be used more if it were adequate.

This may not be the best time to talk about a new project, but there is no better time than now.

Our civic clubs, both men and women, have no big projects at the present time, other than the celebration. It will soon be over. Any club president will agree that clubs are better when they have a real project to work on.

We, also, still have enough people and firms in this town with tax problems that donations to a library building fund would help. It may be dry, but Spearman is not broke.

A little fund has been started, but it needs lots of pushing. We claim to want to take care of our own problems without government interference. We have a problem in our library, so now is the time to start taking care of it.

Cancer Drive Planned Friday

The American Cancer Drive which continues throughout the month of April, will really get underway this Friday, April 19, with a house to house contribution campaign according to Mrs. Carl Archer, campaign manager.

All workers in the campaign are to meet at the Spearman Steakhouse Friday morning at 9, receive their last minute instructions and proceed from there.

There will be contribution envelopes left on the doornobs of those people not at home.

This year's drive is being co-sponsored by the Jonquil Flower Club and both divisions of the Twentieth Century Club.

Students Go To Regional

Twenty-two Hansford County students will be competing in the Interscholastic League Regional meet in Lubbock Friday and Saturday.

Spearman entries in literary events are:

Marilyn Schubert, persuasive speaking; Wesley Jarvis, prose reading; Rennie Berry and Patsy Kingsley, poetry interpretation; Burton Williamson and Larry Sell, slide rule; and Darla Adkison, ready writing.

Phyllis Patterson, Sharon Cook and Sandra Miller will compete in tennis.

Gruver's literary events entries are Bill Pittman, Bob Gillispie, Wayne Perkins, Sammie Cluck, Jim Cooksey, Pam Cooksey, and Ray Kelly.

THE WAY I SEE IT

by Robert Cordes

An old weather worn fisherman was asked "How do you know that Christ is risen?"

Quickly and cheerfully the old fisherman replied, "Do you see those cottages near that high cliff by the sea shore? Well, sometimes, when I am far out at sea, I know that the sun is risen by the reflection in those windows. How do I know that dy and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Richie Fletcher of Waco were home for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mason, Kin and Chad are back home after a visit with his folks, the Leo Masons in Sacramento, Calif. They also visited his brother and sisters. They spent some time sight-seeing in Los Angeles and toured Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm.

Christ is risen? Because I see His light reflected from the faces of people. And I too know His light shines in my own life and I hope that I am reflecting that light to others, even to you.

A simple answer, but analyze it and discover it is historically true. That is the way it was with the disciples on the days after Easter--they were reflecting the light of the risen Christ so that wherever they went the people were filled with amazement.

Too often we live on the wrong side of Easter. Easter for many is only a day, not a life. We live as if Christ were not risen from the dead. We fear what the world may do to our body. We go about as if there were no eternal hope. Oh, as often as Easter comes, we put on our spring clothes, crowd our decorated churches, and sing our "Christ Is Risen" Hallelujah!

And then? Then our Easter is over. But as the wind tanned fisherman said, I know Christ is risen because I see His love reflected in other's faces. I know He is risen because I see people

No Restrictions On Sugar Beets

There will be no acreage restriction (proportionate shares) on the 1964 crop of sugarbeets.

The 1963 domestic beet sugar marketing quota is approximately 2.7 million tons. Stocks of beet sugar on hand the first of the year amounted to 1,386,000 tons, and it is anticipated the 616,000 tons will be produced from 1962-crop beets to be harvested in 1963. This provides a supply of 1,984,000 tons of beet sugar to meet requirements until new-crop sugar reaches the market next fall. Marketings of beet sugar in the last quarter, of the year will be heavy. Production of sugar from the 1962 crop of beets has been estimated at 2,580,000 tons by the best sugar industry. Even a large increase in 1963 production would not result in excessive reserve supplies.

The Department of Agriculture has indicated that it is too early to determine whether restrictions will be necessary on the 1965 crop. However, production would have to exceed marketings sufficiently to create safe and reasonable stocks before acreage restrictions would be reimposed.

It is assumed that the industry will try in 1963 to produce at the maximum capacity of its plants, and the announcement about no restrictions on the 1964 sugarbeet crop is expected to encourage plant expansion. First, it should encourage existing plants to modernize and expand their facilities since they can now be assured of at least 2 years of unrestricted operations. Second, new plants under construction for operation in 1963 and 1964 could be expanded immediately to their ultimate capacity so as to take advantage of this opportunity for full production and the building of production and marketing history in excess of the tonnage provided from the national acreage reserve.

The Department has suggested that, when acreage restrictions are reimposed, major consideration should be given to production history in the period immediately preceding the resumption of controls. That should provide fair treatment for those who increase production sufficiently to meet prospective marketing quotas and stock requirements.

Out WAKA Way

by Mrs. Carroll Ladd

Since it seems like summer outside and the thermometer has hit the eighties and nineties, citizens of Waka have taken to the outside and to their yard, those who have green thumbs, that is.

Cecil Nichols, custodian of the school, was keeping busy watering last week since he seeded the front yard and the yard between the classrooms and cafetorium. Fall bulbs have also been planted. The church also seems to have green thumbs among their men-folk as they had a work day Tuesday. The day was spent leveling and seeding the yard. We hope to see sprigs of grass soon at the church and at the school.

The Yearbook Committee of the Twentieth Century Club of Spearman met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Stump, April 9 to formulate plans for the coming year's program. Those attending were Mmes. Marvin Jones, Dick Kilgore, Wesley Garnett, Carl Archer and the hostess.

The North Plains Grade School Interscholastic League was held at Plemons last Monday. The Waka School, along with five other schools with an enrollment under 100, Plemons, Pringle, Morse, Springcreek, and Bivins, were entered in the meet. Although the choir was the only event Waka received points for, they came home with several fourth and fifth places. We feel sure they did well as Waka was the smallest school there.

The New Hope school was host to the Panhandle Elementary Conference volleyball tournament Wednesday in which Waka was entered along with teams from Clearlake, Victory, Bethany and New Hope. The Waka fifth through eighth grade boys won first; the fifth grade through eighth grade girls won second; and the fifth through eighth grade mixed team (those not participating on the other teams) won a second. Trophies were given to the teams and will be displayed in the trophy case. Congratulations are in order for a job well done.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ladd and family spent the Easter weekend in Leadville, Colo. where they visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Moore and family.

Sunday visitors in the LeRoy Carter home of Perryton were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mosier and family. Saturday night guests in the Dean Leighnor home were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stump and Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Molesworth and Sandra of Pampa spent the Easter weekend at their home in Waka.

Fishing at Fairview, Okla. during the Easter holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Drake and Steven. They took as their guest, Nina Shelby.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols spent the holidays in Fairview, Okla. where they visited with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nichols and Mike.

Mrs. Virgie Reed spent the Easter holidays with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hendrix and daughters, Cynthia, Shannah and Renee of Hardesty.

The David Wilsons moved into their house here in Waka over the weekend. They have two boys and a girl. We welcome them to our town and community.

Thursday afternoon Easter parties were held at the school. The first and second grade room mothers were Mmes. Ray Grimmitt and LeRoy Thompson. At their party, a live bunny was awarded to Paul Sutherland as the grand prize. The third through sixth grades hunted eggs at the park. Room mothers were Mmes. David Burger, Eldon Gurley and Bob Mosier. At the seventh and eighth grade party, Mrs. Eldon Boese and Mrs. Herman Wiebe were room mothers. We understand they had a treasure hunt.

The Waka School annuals have come in and by the time you read this, they will be passed out. The annuals are dedicated to two very deserving people, Miss Maud Stump and her mother, Mrs. S. E. (Grandma) Stump. A very special thanks goes to Mrs. Bill Shelby who spent many a night burning the midnight oil working on the annuals.

The Morse Track meet will be held Thursday (today) and Friday. The Waka boys, fifth through eighth grades, will be entered. The preliminaries will be held Thursday and the finals Friday.

Waka P-TA Has Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Waka PTA executive board was called recently to discuss the local unit ballot. Mr. Bill Shelby, principal, explained the ballot to the group. Mrs. J. R. Stump made a motion to return it to the state congress of the PTA with a cover letter stating it was confusing as to whether they were for or against federal aid and was impossible to vote on it as it was stated. The motion was seconded. This movement was later approved by the entire association.

COOK COOL THIS SUMMER...

In summer heat, old-fashioned cooking methods mean one of two things . . . cold cuts for supper or a slightly parboiled cook. But with flameless electric cooking, your kitchen stays cool . . . lets you bake, roast, or even prepare complete oven meals in comfort. Since the electric oven is flameless and needs no flow of air through it, heat stays inside. Surface elements fit snugly against pan bottoms for direct, efficient heat transfer . . . less waste around the sides of utensils. And, electric cooking is fast, clean, and automatic, too. Firemen accidentally went to a grass fire on the McClellan pasture near the dump ground. They were sent to the dump ground to put out a fire on the trash truck and found the grass fire.

A second truck was dispatched to the trash truck at Eleventh and Townsend and put that fire out.

Another grass fire was put out at the home of Mrs. J. D. Hester.

Budget Discussed With Oil Representatives

The preliminary budget for the 1963-64 Spearman school year and the reasons for the increase in school taxes were discussed Tuesday night by the school board.

The board met with tax representatives of the different oil companies with property on the tax rolls.

The many items of the estimated $683,000 in expenditures were discussed. The board told the companies that the budget contained no expenditures that were not necessary. A list of approximately $100,000 in needs that have been side-tracked because of lack of funds were pointed out to the tax people.

Supt. James Bramlett told the group that although many people felt there is a definite need for new band uniforms, a track, new tennis courts, and a field house, the items were placed in the future needs list because there is not money at the present time.

Different members of the visiting delegations pointed out to the board that they did not propose to tell a community how to run their schools, or what to spend. All they were looking for was unequal taxation and large amounts of unnecessary expenses.

The group was pleased to learn that all of the present bonds will be paid by 1977. Supt. Bramlett pointed out that the preliminary budget is the estimated maximum expenses, because the board and administration does not want to under-estimate the costs of operations.

Before the tax session the board discussed the ban on outside classes in the school with Mrs. Willis Sheets, Mrs. Bill Hutton and Mrs. Jimmie Hicks.

Mrs. Hicks, President of the Art Class, told the board they were not asking them to reverse its decision, but they did not feel they had abused the room.

She pointed out to the board that the class cleaned 30 chairs in the room one night. They were able to remove chewing gum and pencil marks, but could not remove ball point ink, and spray paint, two items the group does not use.

Twenty to 30 adults are studying art in the class. Mrs. Hicks pointed out that it was difficult to find room large enough and well lighted enough for painting classes. She added that the group would pay for utilities and janitor cost.

Board President Dr. D.E. Hackley told the group that some complaints of abuse had been made to the board and the afternoon children's art classes had interfered with afternoon school classes.

However, he went on, the board feels that if we provide places for outside art classes, then we must provide teaching spaces for all outside classes. Since this would make an impossible situation, we feel that at the present time we must exclude all outside classes conducted by individuals.

The board agreed to provide a place for a party for eighth grade students on the night of the eighth grade prom. The party is being planned by mothers of the class and will be conducted under school supervision and school rules for such activities.

Supt. Bramlett was instructed by the board to contact the Attorney General for a ruling on whether the school could refuse to accept a school bus that does not meet the mechanical specifications asked for by the board.

In the past the board has ordered school buses through the state board of control and board takes the lowest bid for their minimum specifications. The minimum specifications have been putting buses in this area that are too small for the distances and conditions that must be met in Panhandle travel.

The small engines must be replaced soon after the buses are put in service.

More Permits For Irrigation

At noon Wednesday Hansford County farmers had applied for 69 new irrigation wells since Jan. 1 according to Soil Conservation District office secretary Dallasene Reynolds more applications are coming all the time.

Applications for 15 new wells have been filed in Hutchinson County since the first of the year. The same number has been applied for in Ochiltree County.

With this rush for more irrigation in the county comes the information of a lower water table. According to measurements made in 63 wells

In an exchange of letters and telephone calls with the board of control, Supt. Bramlett has been informed that the local board can only request a certain size bus, then take what the state board buys.

This was one of the board's shorter meetings. It was over at 12:30.

in the county by the North Plains Water District, the water level has dropped 1.77 feet in the past year.

McClure, Dave Hand Jr., Beck, Omar Cotter, Waymon Edwards, Jan Brandvik, Burnt Sparks, Wilmeth Farms, G. Fletcher, E. D. Clement, Grover Wilson, S. T. Dozier, Robert Alexander, Carl Archer and A. R. BIGGEST COIN EVER

The biggest coin ever made was Sweden's 24-inch long, 66-pound copper "X-Daler" (1910) piece. Issued in 1644, it would buy one horse and 70 kilograms of butter. Of 26,000 coins struck, only three are known to survive, the National Geographic Magazine says.

The sea turtle, contrary to popular notion, does not weep while laying eggs during brief visits to land. The copious tears are a normal, salt-secreting function.
