VOLUME VII., NUMBER 82

SPEARMAN, HANSFORD COUNTY, TEXAS, 79081

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4, 1966

Where are all the outstanding West Texas and Panhandle area football players who were going to make Texas Tech into a powerhouse in the Southwest Conference.

We received the beautiful football information booklet from Tech this week and it was rather a blow to our area pride when we went over the roster of 68 players and found only 26 from West Texas and we had to go all the way to Wichita Falls to get that many. There were only two or three from the Panhandle.

We remember back in the days when Tech was battling to gain admission to the Southwest Conference, people said the other schools did not want Tech in the conference because they would get all the West Texas boys.

Years ago there were lots of people from towns that never heard of playing southwest conference football, but today the small town boys are scarce.

On the 68 member squad at Tech there are only 17 who played on AA or lower classification teams. One or two of these are now AAA schools.

Just from looking at the hometowns, it would seem that boys from AAA and AAAA schools are the ones playing southwest conference football. The boys who played eight-man and on class B and A teams are few and far between.

It appears the plans for a mall on the Main Street of Spearman are going to have to be put on the shelf. They will be put there if there is room among all the other plans for improvement which have been shelved.

Everyone cut all of their weeds along Main street so there is nothing to use for shade. Some people will do about anything to hold back progress.

The whole mall idea, this time, was started by us just to promote a little bit of weed cutting on Main Street. It apparently did that, but not since the battle over the Palo Duro dam have we had as much comment on any one subject.

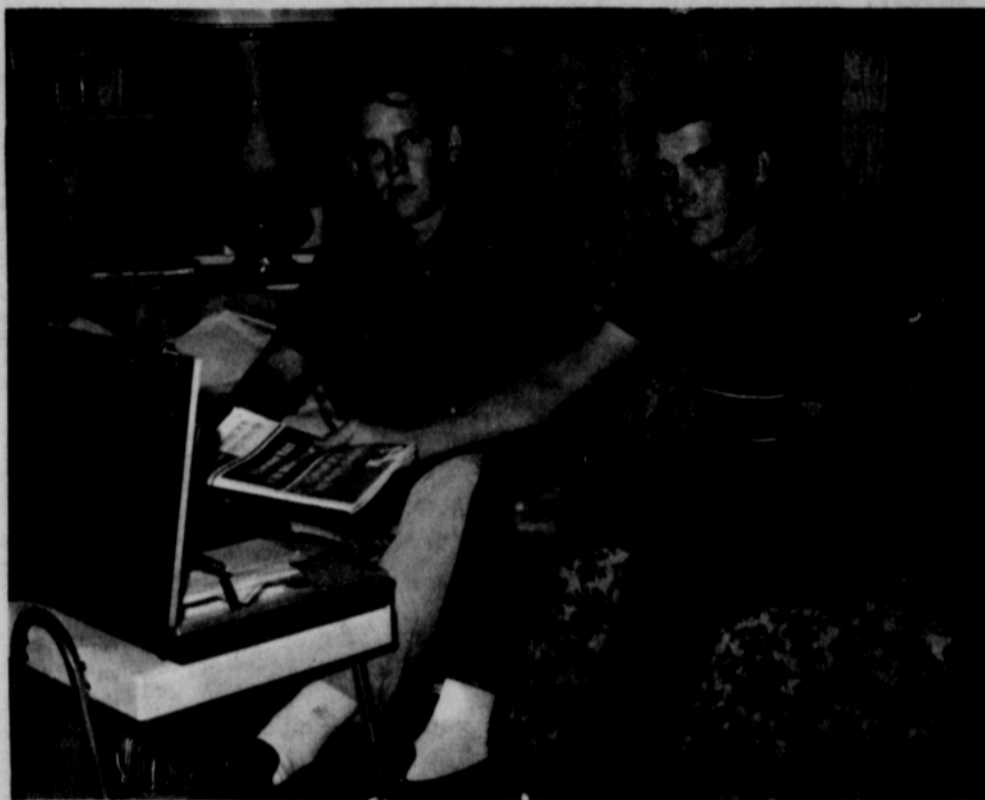

We found out there is a plan drawn for a mall of Main street. Also, there are some people who believe that completely remodeling the street into a village effect would be good.

However, when it takes a major movement each year just to keep the weeds below head high, we doubt if many of us will generate enough interest in the old town to want to improve it.

It is real amusing how the prospective football race gets predicted by those who look in the future about such things. The men who should know it best, the coaches, picked district 1-AA different to the Texas Football magazine.

One can pick all day, but a big part of the final standings will depend on the kind of attitude the teams put on with their uniforms, come Aug. 15.

Coaching, size and speed have a lot to do with winning, but the team that puts on a championship attitude with a willingness to pay the prices will have a big advantage come game time.

PACKING -- Hal Sanders, left, and Gary Bengé pack just a part of their research material as they prepare to leave for a two-week debate workshop in Michigan. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter.

Gruver's Tipton Plays In All-Star Contest

Sam Tipton of Gruver was one of the 12 basketball players from the North half of Texas to perform in the annual All-Star basketball game in Houston Wednesday night.

Wednesday Tipton was not listed as a starter for the North, but the Hardin-Simmons bound shooter was listed as the number one reserve.

The north was picked as the underdog, but Tipton told reporters the north would give the favored South all they could handle.

Tipton led the Gruver Greyhounds to the state tournament

Spearman Boys Going To National Workshop

Phillips Is New Deputy

A city policeman has resigned to take a job as deputy sheriff of Hansford County. Lee Phillips submitted his resignation this week to Spearman City Manager Darce Foshee to take the job as deputy sheriff for Sheriff J.B. Cooke.

Phillips' resignation is effective Aug. 15. He has been a city policeman for approximately one year.

His resignation makes a complete cycle for the turn over in police officers in Spearman. Recently deputy sheriff Leland Wood resigned from the county sheriff's department to become Chief of Police of Spearman.

City Manager Darce Foshee said another patrolman will be hired to give the city a complete police force.

Two Spearman High School debaters will be the only Texas students at the two-week workshop for high school debaters on the campus of Northern Michigan University at Marquette, Mich., beginning Monday.

Gary Bengé and Hal Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter will leave tomorrow for Marquette. Mrs. Porter is the high school speech teacher.

Some 160 students from 37 different states will be at the workshop. After two weeks of study, there will be a debate tournament with six rounds of debate.

Mrs. Porter said each student will have one of his debates put on video tape, so he can see and hear himself.

Bengé, who attended the state meet in debate this past spring, will be a junior in high school this fall. Sanders is a senior this year.

John Monstma, director of forensics at the University, is in charge of the workshop.

Six Coaches At School

Six members of the Spearman Public Schools coaching staff have been at the Texas High School Coaching School in Houston this week.

Coaches going to the school are George Wright, Allen Simpson, Jim Allen, Jerry King, Larry Anthony and Eddie Clemmons.

The coaches attended the lectures and also the all-star basketball and football games.

Football season will get its first boost this coming week, Aug. 10, when players draw their shoes and socks and can begin running on their own to get in shape.

There will be a parents' meeting Aug. 11, in the High School auditorium for all athletes and their parents.

1-AA Coaches Pick Lynx in Third Place

Coaches of district 1-AA see the strength of the teams different than did the Texas Football magazine earlier in the summer.

At coaching school this week the coaches of the eight schools in the district kept Phillips in the hot spot by picking them to take the title, but then things were shaken up.

Dalhart is rated number two and Spearman three. Stinnett is picked fourth and Panhandle and Shamrock are picked to battle for the next two places. Sanford-Fritch was placed in the cellar below Boys Ranch.

Past reputations seemed to have a lot to do with the coaches pickings. Phillips got the nod for the title on the basis of seven regulars returning from a team that had a 6-4 season.

Dalhart was put in the second place on the basis of "past performances" since they have only three lettermen returning from last year's championship team.

Spearman is picked third, but the coaches say the Lynx have the horses to take the title, if everything goes right.

The Lynx are going to have their biggest team since the fall of 1959. There is beef up front and beef and speed in the backfield with a quarterback who can throw.

District coaches see big fullback Jerry Holton and quarterback Charles Shieldknight as the horses in the backfield.

Stinnett has four starters back with halfback Bobby Hopper and fullback Keeton Johnson rated as the best returnees.

The most surprising pick was Sanford-Fritch in the cellar. The Eagles have nine regulars returning with four linemen at 200 pounds or heavier. Eagle boss Al Hamra is boasting tackle Al Packebush as an all-stater.

The Eagles have never really jelled on the football field, but there is a feeling among some of the coaches that Fritch should be in the middle of the pack.

No matter who wins the local race, they are expected to face Iowa Park in the bi-district battle.

Burglar Gets Motel TV

A burglar was interested in summer reruns when he forced his way into Edwards Motel in Gruver the night of June 28.

Sheriff J.B. Cooke said the motel found Saturday morning that a room had been broken into and a television set taken during the night.

Sheriff Cooke also said that a pair of chaps were taken from Buddy Murrell's car while it was parked on the shopping center parking lot on July 15. The theft was reported Tuesday.

Police Hunting Bottle Thrower

City police are looking for someone who has an odd way of returning soft drink bottles to the grocery store.

Chief of Police Leland Wood said someone threw a soft drink bottle through the glass door of M&M grocery sometime early Friday morning.

The door is all glass in a metal frame.

ENTRY -- Miss Judy Bayless of Gruver and the Hansford County Farm Bureau Queen will be in the Miss Grain Sorghum contest in Dimmitt this week. She is a former Miss Hansford County.

County Agent's Report

by Robert Adamson

TEST YOUR HAY

Have you tested your hay to find out for certain if you're buying, selling or feeding good quality hay?

Hay testing is done by chemical analysis, and provides a valuable guide to the nutritive value of hay. The most commonly used guide to hay quality is percentage crude protein.

Forage testing services which determine crude protein, crude fiber and moisture and then estimate total digestible nutrients and net energy are available at Texas A&M University through my office.

However, hay testing is not the only guide to hay quality. Color, expressed in terms of "percent green color," is another indicator of hay quality. Color relates to nutrient content, especially carotene.

Since grass hays lose color rapidly in storage, color is not as good a quality indicator for grasses as it is for legumes.

Foreign material, such as injurious weeds, lower hay value. Watch out for an excess of bullnettle, briars, headed sandburs, mature Texas wintergrass, needlegrass or poisonous plants.

The stage of maturity at which the hay is cut is one of the most important factors influencing the quality of grass hay. Feed value drops sharply as most grasses mature--so it's important to cut hay at the right time.

Leafiness is more important with legumes than with grasses. If legumes aren't cured and handled with care, large leaf losses result.

A final note: Stay clear of hay which is undercured, musty, moldy, wet, hot or very dusty.

PESTICIDE SAFETY
Don't relax your guard when using agricultural chemicals. They can enter the body by ingestion, through the respiratory system and in many cases through the skin.

A person would not knowingly eat a chemical such as a pesticide; however, failure to remove contaminated clothing and to wash thoroughly prior to eating can result in the ingestion of the chemical of food handled by the individual.

Absorption of the chemical through the respiratory tract can occur by smoking cigarettes that have contacted the chemical on the hands of the individual. Absorption through the respiratory tract can also occur when one is exposed to chemicals in the form of dusts, sprays or vapors. Adequate ventilation will serve to reduce the degree of exposure and the used hazards are to be minimized.

Protective clothing should be worn at all times when chemicals are being used. Their use will help prevent contact of the chemical with the skin, either directly or indirectly, or as a result of spillage, exposure to sprays or dust or indirectly through contacts with surfaces, equipment and utensils exposed to chemicals.

To prevent accidental poisoning, follow these suggestions. Read, understand and follow the container instructions; use protective clothing and respirators as directed on the labels; keep soap and water available at all times, they are valuable protective devices; if chemicals are spilled on the skin or clothing, remove the clothing and wash the affected area thoroughly with soap and water; remove contaminated clothing upon completion of the chemical use and scrub with soap and water; place contaminated clothing, equipment and unused chemicals in an area inaccessible to humans and animals and dispose of unused chemicals and empty chemical containers immediately and in the prescribed manner.

And always remember, the safe use of agricultural chemicals is largely in the hands of the person who uses them.

Desire Professions

If parents had their way, there would be only three vocations available to their children. Their offspring would be doctors, lawyers or engineers.

It's true, Any parent wants the best for his offspring. And most parents still believe the best professions to be one of these three. Anything less amounts to sort of a come-down, in the eyes of parents bent on having ambitious and successful children.

No parent can be blamed for this desire. If it weren't for this ambition to have their offspring do well in life, certainly students would lack the desire to meet the challenges of a career in the professional world.

Still, there are many lucrative and personally rewarding vocations awaiting today's student--in addition to being a lawyer, doctor or engineer.

Today's world is naturally becoming more complex. This complexity demands new and varied skills of the young men and women coming from our high schools and colleges. It is opening up new fields of work for those truly interested in learning any one of thousands of new vocations.

After the great depression, young men were obsessed with the thought of learning a trade. With the recollection of slight meals and flat pocketbooks still ringing in their minds, the men of the time knew well the importance of learning a skill that would give them an important role in a new America.

'Learning a trade' has since become kind of a laughing matter with some people. The often-used phrase has become outmoded in the view of many people. And yet, there is a larger market today for the skilled craftsman than ever before.

Good welders? They're hard to find. Good machinists? Hard to find. Good printers? Hard to come by. Good plumbers? Equally hard to find. Good electricians? Also hard to find.

And there are hundreds more similar job categories crying for good men. And at good money.

It seems to us that the stress after World War II was to get everybody into college, whether they belonged there or not. The devil with the trades. Now the experts have reversed themselves and said that college isn't for everybody--that some folks simply are better off not to go.

We are convinced there must be a middle ground somewhere between these two extremes. There definitely are students who will not make the most of their college training after they get it. And there are those--many of them--who, realizing they cannot make it in college, drift for years without any goals simply because they feel themselves a total failure in life.

Everyone needs a good sampling of the liberal arts, whether he's a welder, a truck driver or a dentist. But his vocation must come first, and this poses yet another challenge to our educators--to stress full college attendance to those students equipped to make the best use of it, and to direct the remaining students in the path best suited to them.

We simply can't all be doctors, lawyers or engineers. If it is any consolation, the automobile mechanic is now considered an engineer--as well he might be if he applies his natural talents to being the best car engineer there is!

Safety Is Victory Over Accidents

Accidents are caused. Since they are caused, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, they can be prevented.

Almost 2,300 persons died in non-transport accidents on United States farms in 1964. More than half of the deaths were caused by accidents involving machinery or drownings, reported the TFRSC.

In most cases, the cause of accidents involves both man and his environment. Man, explains the Council, sets the accident stage by things he does or does not do; at the same time, certain environmental conditions exist, then and there, that bring on the accident.

Human error, believes the Council, can be reduced through education and attention to accident prevention. Public acceptance of safety as a part of every activity in daily living could improve human performance and remove many environmental hazards often related to accidents, says the Council.

The farm and home accident rate in Texas can be reduced, emphasizes the Council, if rural families will make safety training a part of their daily operations. The big thing, explains the Council, is for every family to have a constant awareness of the accident hazards that exist and to be mentally and physically alert at all times. Hazards which are removable should be eliminated and practices initiated to make the farm surroundings equal in safety to those found in manufacturing plants.

Because of the complications of modern farming, the Council believes, training in safety methods and procedures will pay good dividends on every farm.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIFTEEN ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 33 proposing an Amendment to Section 6, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, to authorize state participation in programs financed with funds from private or federal sources and conducted by local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations for establishing and equipping facilities for assisting the blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, for their rehabilitation or restoration, or for providing other services essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped.

"(b) State agencies charged with the responsibility of providing services to those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped may accept money from private or federal sources, designated by the private or federal source as money to be used in and establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handicapped, and in providing other services determined by the state agency to be essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped. Money accepted under this subsection is state money. State agencies may spend money accepted under this subsection, and no other money, for specific programs and projects to be conducted by local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations, in establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handicapped, and in providing other services determined by the state agency to be essential for the better care or treatment of the handicapped.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWELVE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 48 proposing an Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts created under Article IX of the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 9, Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 9. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of hospital districts composed of one or more counties or all or any part of one or more counties with power to issue bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping same, for hospital purposes; providing for the transfer to the hospital district of the title to any land, buildings, improvements and equipment located wholly within the district which may be jointly or separately owned by any city, town or county, providing that any district so created shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants and assume the outstanding indebtedness incurred by cities, towns and counties for hospital purposes prior to the creation of the district, if same are located wholly within its boundaries, and a pro rata portion of such indebtedness based upon the then last approved tax assessment rolls of the included cities, towns and counties if less than all the territory thereof is included within the district boundaries; providing that after its creation no other municipality or political subdivision shall have the power to levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations for hospital purposes or for providing medical care within the boundaries of the district; providing for the levy of annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75c) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation of all taxable property within such district for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the district's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, providing that such district shall not be created or such tax authorized unless approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors thereof voting at an election called for the purpose; and providing further that the support and maintenance of the district's hospital system shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such district.

Provided, however, that no district shall be created except by act of the Legislature and then only after thirty (30) days' public notice to the district affected, and in no event may the Legislature provide for a district to be created without the affirmative vote of a majority of the taxpaying voters in the district concerned.

The Legislature may also provide for the dissolution of hospital districts provided that a process is afforded by statute for:

(1) determining the desire of a majority of the qualified voters within the district to dissolve it;

(2) disposing of or transferring the assets, if any, of the district; and

(3) satisfying the debts and bond obligations, if any, of the district, in such manner as to protect the interest of the citizens within the district, including their collective property rights in the assets and property of the district, provided, however, that any grant from federal funds, however dispensed, shall be considered an obligation to be repaid in satisfaction and provided that no election to dissolve shall be held more often than once each year. In such connection, the statute shall provide against disposal or transfer of the assets of the district except for due compensation unless such assets are transferred to another governmental agency, such as a county, embracing such district and using such transferred assets in such a way as to benefit citizens formerly within the district.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts.

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Miss Dorothy Smith Is Bride of Bill Cator

The Rev. Luther Berry, pastor, officiated at the ceremony which was read before an archway covered with lemon leaves highlighted with white satin ribbons and wedding bells.

Miss Maylyn Cator, cousin of the bridegroom, presented traditional wedding selections and the processional and recessional.

Miss Janice Elaine Lewis of Silverton was the bride's only attendant. She wore a two-piece suit of pink designed with a low, scooped neckline and white lace sleeves. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A3/c Loyd D. Carroll of Spearman served the bridegroom as best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a two-piece white suit designed with scooped neckline and flared eyelet embroidery sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a large white hybrid orchid with yellow throat atop a white Bible. Streamers of stephanotis surrounded the bouquet.

The bride's mother wore a pink crepe dress with a pink tweed, sleeveless coat and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a brown and white dress with tan accessories. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Home Demonstration building. Amy Cator, sister of the bridegroom, Anita Smith, sister of the bride and Bennie Beeson, presided at the refreshment table.

Men are always teasing about the way we write up weddings. They're supposed to fell left out with all the descriptions of what the women wore and just the slightest mention that they were there.

Randy Matson won't ever be able to say that though. In the account to his wedding last weekend the bride took a "back seat," to be sure.

Even the lead paragraph of the story mentioned that he was a world champion shot-putter and a little later, there was quite a descriptive account of his accomplishments.

I'm sure his bride was delighted and I just mention it to say, if the bridegroom has done something really spectacular, he'll probably get his share of the space in the wedding account.

Otherwise, I'm afraid people who read about weddings would probably rather know what the bride wore, who her attendants were, her chosen colors, and incidental information of that nature.

I've done my share of complaining the past few weeks about the terrific heat and how pitifully inadequate our air-conditioners have been. Then Tuesday, for some reason it cooled off about 10 degrees and the air-conditioners are doing an excellent job of keeping us comfortable again.

Maybe it even gets too hot for an air-conditioner to feel like working. I wouldn't be a bit surprised.

As we're working against deadlines trying to get numerous club yearbooks and the 1-AA, District Football Book out, I'm reminded that summer is entering the "stretch" at least in relation to school and club years.

Football workouts begin Monday, August 15, and that always means school opening can't be far behind.

Better slip off for those last few days of summer vacation pretty soon, if you're going to this year.

If you've seen the August show calendar already, I think you'll agree there are many good movies coming to the Lyric and Holiday Theatres. Two, in particular, I've been most anxious to see, "Mary Poppins" which will be on the 17 through the 20 and "My Fair Lady" which will run the 25 through the 31. Both will be at the downtown theatre.

Try these lemon-coconut squares. They're good and I think you'll like them because they're easy to make.

LEMON COCONUT SQUARES

- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup margarine (or butter)

FILLING

- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
- 1 1/2 cup flaked or shredded coconut
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

FROSTING

- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 tablespoon melted butter
- Juice of one lemon

Mix together first part (flour, sugar and margarine). Pack down well in buttered 9" x 13" pan. Bake in very slow oven at 275 degrees, 10 minutes. Then combine filling and spread on top of baked mixture. Bake 20 minutes at 350 degrees. While warm, frost with frosting mixture which has been combined.

Womble Will Attend Meet

One high school student from Hansford County will attend the fourth annual Texas Farm Bureau Citizen ship Seminar Aug. 9-13 on the Baylor University campus in Waco, according to William McCloy, president of the Hansford Farm Bureau.

Attending the four-day Farm Bureau sponsored school will be Bob Womble of Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Womble.

Hansford Farm Bureau is sponsoring the attendance of the student going from here.

Four nationally-known educators and lecturers will address the more than 350 high school juniors and seniors from Texas who will attend.

They are Dr. C.L. Kay, vice-president, Public Affairs, Lubbock Christian College and winner of many awards including a special citation by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower; Dr. Clifton L. Ganus Jr., president and head of the Department of History and Social Sciences of Harding Colleges at Searcy, Ark.; Herbert A. Philbrick, noted author, lecturer and former county agent for the FBI; and W. Cleon Skousen, author of The Naked Communist and former FBI agent and chief of police of Salt Lake City.

Purpose of the seminar is to convey to students a better understanding of the American system and way of life. Emphasis will be placed on the economic, moral and social aspects of the society in which we live—aspects that were envisioned by our forefathers in our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

Freeman Will Speak at Foundation

Frank Moore, President of the High Plains Research Foundation, has announced the acceptance of Secretary of Agriculture, Orville Freeman, as guest speaker at the Foundation's Tenth Annual Field Day. Moore revealed that he had been contacted by Congressman George Mahon, Chairman of the House of Appropriations Committee, of Mr. Freeman's acceptance.

The Field Day, to be held on Thursday, September 8, is expected to be the largest in the history of the High Plains Research Foundation. Last year, a stand-out crowd of over 6,500 attended. Officials at the Foundation are expecting an even larger turnout this year.

Tours of the Research Farm will begin at 1:00 p.m. and will continue throughout the afternoon until approximately 4:30 p.m. Secretary of Agriculture Freeman's address will be delivered at 5:00 p.m. following an introduction by Congressman Mahon.

Moore states that this year, in case of inclement weather, provisions have been made to hold the evening program in the Plainview High School Auditorium and Cafeteria. The High Plains Research Foundation is located fifteen (15) miles West of Plainview, Texas on Highway 70 in the community of Halfway.

Mrs. Nellie Payne and son, Preston spent last week in Carnie, Okla. visiting Mr. and Mrs. Newt Gile.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Womble visited last Sunday evening in the home of his aunt, Mrs. Faye Lynch.

Hill May Be New Pastor

The Rev. William Hill will possibly be the new pastor of the Faith Lutheran Church of Spearman.

It was learned this week that the Rev. Hill will probably be called to the Spearman Church. The board was meeting Wednesday night to make the final decision.

The Rev. Robert Cordes, the pastor of the church since it was only a mission meeting in the Farm Bureau building a few short years ago, is going to Yorktown.

The pastor of the Spearman church has also been pastor of the Oslo Lutheran Church for eight years.

The Rev. Ed Swanson will assume the duties as pastor of the Oslo church on Sept. 1.

Although the Rev. Cordes' church is 18 miles north of Gruver, he has been active in civic affairs. He has been active in the PTA, Gruver Lions Club, and has been a church leader in soil conservation. He has also served on many district and conference offices of the American Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Cordes has been active in the Gruver Music Club.

During his pastorate he has written a weekly column for the county newspapers and the last one will appear next week.

He said that he and his family appreciated everyone's support for the work of the Lord in the church and communities while they served in the county.

Their new address will be Box 245, Yorktown, Texas, 78164.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb
Home Demonstration Agent

Pickles made now from garden-fresh produce promise taste-treats when cold weather comes this winter.

Pick the top quality vegetables and fruits for pickles and relishes. Preserve the taste, color and texture or freshness with the best possible pickling method.

Heat process all pickle products with the boiling water bath.

Pickles require heat treatment to destroy organisms that cause spoilage. Another reason is to halt the action of enzymes that may affect the flavor, texture and color. This adequate heating is best achieved by processing the filled jars of pickles in a boiling water bath.

There is always danger of spoilage organisms entering the food when it is transferred from kettle to jar; this is true even when you are extremely careful, and it is the reason open-kettle canning is not recommended.

Here are some especially good pickle recipes I have copied from the latest issue of "Southern Living" magazine.

Pickled Okra
garlic (1 clove each jar)
hot pepper (1 for each jar) okra
dill seed (1 teaspoon each jar)
1 quart white vinegar
1 cup water
1/2 cup salt

Place the garlic and hot pepper in the bottom of clean, hot pint jars. Pack firmly with clean, young okra pods from which only part of the stem has been removed. Stem end must be open. Add dill seed.

After packing jars, bring vinegar, water, and salt to a boil. Simmer about 5 minutes and pour, while boiling hot, over the okra. Seal immediately. The above amount of pickling solution will fill from 5 to 7 pint jars.

Sweet Pickled Peaches
1 cup vinegar
2 cups sugar
8 cups water
3 teaspoons cloves and allspice
2 sticks cinnamon (if desired)
8 pounds peaches (clingstone are best)

Mix vinegar, water, sugar, and spices. Bring to a boil. Drop in whole, fresh peaches which have been peeled. Simmer peaches in syrup for about 5 minutes; then pack in warm, clean jars and pour syrup over them.

Cucumber Pickles
8 pounds cucumbers
2 cups household lime
2 gallons water
2 quarts vinegar
9 cups sugar
2 tablespoons salt
Slice cucumbers crosswise. Put them in a mixture of lime and water in enameled or pottery container; let stand overnight. Remove from lime-water. Wash cucumbers through three changes of fresh, cold water.

Mix vinegar, sugar, and salt and place drained cucumber slices in mixture. Let stand in sugar mixture for 3 hours. Bring to a boil and boil for 30 minutes. Place in hot sterilized jars and seal.

County home demonstration agents can furnish additional information on making pickles and relishes. Visit your county Extension office, and request a copy of the USDA bulletin "Making Pickles Relishes at Home," Home and Gardens Bulletin No. 92.

PROPER INSULATION WILL ASSURE MAXIMUM ECONOMY OF OPERATION

Adequate home insulation reduces the amount of cooling or heating needed by keeping heat out in summer, keeping heat in during winter. This, of course, means lower operating cost for electric central air conditioning and heating equipment. For maximum cooling and heating economy, your home should be provided with the equivalent insulating effect of four to six inches of mineral wool in sidewalls. Ordinary building materials do not provide sufficient insulation. For example, it would take a twelve-foot thickness of brick or a nine-foot thickness of concrete blocks to equal the insulation provided by a four-inch thickness of mineral wool. For more information on the value of insulation, contact your electric air conditioning contractor . . . or call

Little Attention Given to The Teen-Age Groom

Although volumes have been written about the teen-age marriage and the teen-age bride, little attention is given to the teen-age groom.

"It takes two to make a marriage, and many young couples discover that there is more to marriage than they had realized," says Mrs. Patsy Yates, Texas A&M University Extension specialist in family life education.

She points out that a West Coast counselor, Professor Ben Ard who teaches at San Francisco State College, advises the teen-age groom: "Now that you have married the girl, try to make friends with her."

Due to the youth of the couple and the speed of courtship, it isn't surprising that many young couples discover shortly after marriage that they love each other but they really don't like each other, Mrs. Yates says.

Friendships don't just happen. They are built over a period of time. Dr. Erich Fromm insists that mature love is built on respect, understanding, knowledge and caring for the other person.

"Knowledge and understanding, even of one's self, is difficult. The teen-age groom will do well to begin making friends with his wife by seeking knowledge and understanding of her as a person," Mrs. Yates says.

The Way I See It

"THERE IS ANOTHER WAY" - "award of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves." (Math. 7:15)

"I believe religion is a good thing. If my bother wants to go to church, I'll surely encourage him." So spoke a father in a left-handed compliment to the church. He believed two wrong things. First, he thought the church was to be simply a "good influence" on his boy to help keep him in line, and second, he believed the church was for someone other than himself.

The devil hates God; he does not hate all religion. The devil knows that one of his best weapons is to get people to think and believe the wrong things about God and the church and life.

This is why Jesus gave His warning in Matthew 7. He knew that those who followed Him would be tempted to follow strange gods and other teachers. He knew that the path of error and sin is often appealing and popular and easy.

Life is a continuing series of choices. We do not decide for Christ only once. There are forks in the road. There are false gods and fake masters. Each time we meet them, we face the possibility of making the wrong choice. But by God's grace and power we need not.

So let us beware lest the devil get us to be religious. Religious is not Christian. And not Christian means we are not saved by the sacrifice of Christ and thus not heirs of eternal life in heaven.

The devil will do his best to get you to be religious, and to believe that the church is an organization that is to simply have a good influence on us or our children. The church and Jesus never claim this. They claim that when we give our life to be under the Lord, we have yielded to the power of the Holy Spirit and Christ's holiness. Beware of false prophets who will try to slyly deceive you. Cling to Christ and the Bible revelation of Him.

the Word

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet; and a light unto my path." — Psalm 119:105

If you are a Christian, you are blessed with a great heritage. It is a heritage of truth and has nothing to do with imagination or myths. It is a truth that remains unchanged, no matter how many times someone attempts a rewrite or offers a "studied" translation.

This truth is the word of God. It is found in the Holy Bible. It is found in Ten Commandments, which form a guidepost for Christian living.

Accept this truth; it is useless to argue against it. Conscience and common sense will not permit you to be unaware. You fool no one, not even yourself, if you pretend to ignore or disbelieve.
