Thursday morning, during the opening exercises of the Grassland school, the building was discovered to be on fire, starting from a defective fuse. The structure was a total loss, but the teachers and pupils had ample time to remove most of the desks, piano and library.

An additional room and other extensive improvements were recently made to the building and the loss will be keenly felt by the citizens of this community.

It is not known just what arrangements have been made for the remainder of the term, or how much insurance was carried on the building.

LUBBOCK MAN SAYS LYNN HAS SPLENDID ROADS

J. O. Jones made a business trip to Jones county recently and is well pleased with conditions in that section of the country.

The roads of Lynn county have received special comment from Mr. Jones who declares they have been kept in such splendid shape that motoring through that section is indeed a pleasure.

"They drain the roads of that county immediately after each rain, and have obtained great results from minimum effort," Mr. Jones said, declaring that the roads of that county are a great asset to the business men of Tahoka.

Dawson County people are doing a great deal of road building, and at this time work on the road leading from Lamesa to the north border of the county is being pushed to completion," Mr. Jones said.

With the counties adjacent to Lubbock carrying on gigantic road building and maintenance programs it is gratifying to know that the Lubbock county commissioners are putting extra stress on bettering the roads here.—Lubbock Morning Avalanche.

HORRIBLE MURDER COMMITTED NEAR CANADIAN

He first struck Samples with knuckles and then with a jack that was in the car and then tied his hands, threw him in the rear of the car, carried him to the place where Samples' body was found, he said. Here he beat Samples to death with an old spade and buried the body, he declared.

Mohler agreed to make the full confession if the officers would take him to Amarillo, which was done on an early morning train. He was later moved to a county south of Amarillo for safe keeping owing to the tense feeling at Canadian.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

That the city that gets the publicity gets the business. That the city that gets the advertising grows.

That advertising a city is a business, not a child's play. That people who go miles to get to a good live town to trace.

That your property will increase in value when the outside world knows that your town is wide-awake. That people from neighboring cities will come where there is something doing.

That the city that does not seek something better than it now has is going to lose out. That now is the time your city and business need advertising more than ever before.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

E. M. SWAN, President DON BRADLEY, Vice-Pres. Office With Sheriff and Tax Collector. OFFICE PHONE 157. PLENTY OF $ PER CT. MONEY TO LOAN ON SCHOOL LAND

The first County Federation of Women's Clubs in America grew from a small study club of six members in Armstrong County, Texas. Those members were Miss Laura V. Hammer, president; Mrs. L. A. Wells, secretary; both now of Amarillo; Mrs. E. R. Haynes, now of Lubbock; Miss Katherine Hooks, at that time music teacher in the Claude school, and Mrs. Bacus and the writer, who were mere mothers by profession.

Not one of these women had ever seen or known each other until we found ourselves and each other in the little village of Claude, which at that time numbered about 200 souls, counting men and all. Neither had any of them ever belonged to a woman's club. Mrs. Haynes, Miss Hammer and Miss Hooks were all teachers in the Claude school at that time. Mrs. Wells was the wife of the superintendent of the school and a Denton Normal College woman. Mrs. Bacus and myself were next door neighbors, with our hands and homes full of little children. We could not think of such a thing as going to a club, but as we lived next door to each other volunteered to let the children range in our yards together if the other women would come to our homes for the meetings. The plan was unanimously adopted and the club was organized.

That was twenty years ago, in the winter of 1903. We remember it all correctly because we remember just how old the babies were when that club was organized. We named our club the Wednesday Afternoon Club, because we did not know anything else to call it and we met after school every Wednesday afternoon. Most of us had never gone to school in Texas, so we knew little of the history of our adopted State. For this reason we voted to study Texas history the first year. The next year we studied United States History. The third year we studied English history. And the fourth year we studied the World's Work magazine. By that time most of our club had moved away and only a few members had dared to join our band. Clubs were not the least bit popular in the small town at that time. But something better had happened in our county.

From the very first year the Wednesday afternoon Club had felt the urge of DOING something for somebody besides themselves. Our motto was "Not for OURSELVES Alone." So we studied history to help ourselves and decided on working for the schools in the county for our social service work. We had all noticed that the only shade the school children had on the school grounds in our county was that cast by the friendly posts of a barb wire fence. Most of those women had come from a wooded country. And they missed the trees more than any other of Nature's gifts. So the first year of the club decided to furnish trees for every school that would set them out. Mr. E. R. Haynes, husband of one of our members, was at that time teaching the Lakeview school in the county and he accepted the offer. The trees were set out but they all died in due time. The Claude school accepted the challenge and the trees were planted on the Claude school grounds. But about the time the trees got a good start the trustees decided to build a new school house so they left the trees standing, but they tore the school house down and moved everything to another location.

But during these years of experimenting many new people had moved into our county. One of the most enthusiastic of these new women was Mrs. W. H. Branson, of Iowa, who had moved into the Worthy community. Mrs. Branson was a college woman, a teacher of years of experience and a childhood playmate and schoolmate of the famous Dwight Hillis, one of the greatest preachers of Chicago and New York. The first rural club organized in the county was organized by Mrs. Branson for the purpose of working for a new school in the Worthy community. Mrs. Branson was the mother of rural club work in Texas and the Worthy Club of Armstrong County still lives as a monument to her ideals. A little later, Mrs. D. L. Kerrick, a college graduate from Fairfield, Iowa, moved to the Plains and formed a group of workers in the Lakeview community. Miss Bessie Sneed of Dallas, teacher of the Llano school organized the women in her school district. And Mrs. Laycock, who had moved to the Plains from Illinois and Mrs. Ethel Davis Curry, a Texas grown girl and Clarendon College student, decided they would have a club in their part of the county. And by this time Mrs. Viola Martin and Mrs. A. V. Warner had organized the Cemetery Association. But one by one the members of the Wednesday afternoon Club had moved away or entered into some other form of work until only a few remained to tell the story.

One day the remnants of this little group got together and decided to invite every organization in the county to meet to organize a County Federation. None of us had ever heard of a County Federation but we knew the city clubs had city federations where all the clubs worked together for the bigger and broader needs of their city. So why not have a County Federation and all work together for our county? We had no city. We had no city clubs. Ours was a big open country and ours were country problems. The plan was put over and the Armstrong County Federation became a reality.

In the spring of 1913, just ten years from the time the first club was organized the Armstrong County Federation applied for membership in the State Federation of Women's Clubs. It was accepted and then the discovery made that it was the only county organization of women in the State. The same year the County Federation applied for membership in the General Federation and discovered it was the only County Federation in the United States. Until this time the club work of the nation had kept so close to the cities that not much had been done for the country women.

The following year the Bee County women decided they would try a County Federation. And the same year Mrs. E. R. Haynes, who was then and is now a member of the faculty of the Lubbock city schools, helped the women of Lubbock county to organize a Lubbock County Federation. But the county work grew slowly because many of the club leaders had their doubts as to whether the country women could or would become interested in the same things. But the State Federation of Texas decided they would test it and a Rural Life Department was created and added to the State working machinery.

It would make the story too long to tell all the steps in the development of the County Federation idea. The results for the past ten years since the first one was admitted into any State Federation will speak for themselves. Today Mrs. Maggie Barry of College Station, Texas, is chairman of Home Economics in the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Recently she sent out a questionnaire to every state in the Union to learn what was being done in the way of rural life work throughout the nation. The answers received gave the following facts:

Alabama has forty County Federations in her 67 counties. California has 26, Florida 12, Iowa 15, Maine 3, Michigan 24, Maryland 3, Montana 3, North Carolina 10, New Mexico 2, New York 3, Ohio 3, Wisconsin 1, Texas 20. Indiana says: "The County Federation is the one thing that can be depended on to do local work in a big way. Indiana is specializing in County Federation work." Oklahoma has for her goal a County Federation in every county in the State. A conference on the advisability of the organization of County Federations was a feature of the director's meeting in Washington. Beside the County Federation many counties are doing club work on their heads. Has YOUR county a COUNTY FEDERATION to work for everything good for your COUNTY?

DID YOU EVER STOP AND THINK, FRIENDS, WHAT A GRAND THING THE TAHOKA SPIRIT IS? How contagious it is and how proud we are of our city? Do you realize if we would back up this Pride by our Loyalty That we would be just twice as proud when we got through? AND THAT IS WHAT WE SHOULD ALL DO.

If Jack, the little scamp, has worn out those shoes you bought him we are going to suggest that you buy your next pair in Tahoka. If you are contemplating building or improving, SECURE YOUR MATERIALS IN TAHOKA AND CONTRACT TAHOKA LABOR. If you are not confining all your purchases in this city, START TODAY. Try this awhile and see how good it feels to look yourself in the glass each morning and be able to say, "Howdy, Old Booster!"

To tell you the truth, friends, if you could buy merchandise at 50 cents on the dollar away from Tahoka you still cannot afford—either as a property owner or as a working person—to REMOVE THAT 50c FROM THE COMMUNITY.

When you do, you are knocking the props from under your own property values, undermining the financial structure that forms our industrial existence and thus remove from the working homes of our community JUST THAT MUCH SUSTENANCE, COMFORT AND HAPPINESS.

WE WANT TO BURN THIS IN DEEP. You cannot measure so-called money saving against the tearing-down process that involves the community from whence it comes. THEREFORE KEEP YOUR MONEY AT HOME BY SPENDING IT AT HOME.

And to make times good, property values high and employment for all—let normal business transactions prevail without doubts or misgivings. BUY WHAT YOU NEED FREELY. Money put in circulation comes back in wages, crop receipts, investments and in PROSPERITY.

HOARDING DOLLARS IS A GAME WE SHOULD ALL DISCOURAGE. Spending them foolishly is another matter. But purchasing the requirements of living, indulging in reasonable amusement and sane investments SPELLS PROGRESS AND FINANCIAL SUCCESS FOR ALL. "Setting Tight" is a pastime of the Doubter who contributes nothing to the prosperous conditions which can be made to always prevail.

HARD TIMES EXIST MOST IN THE MINDS OF PESSIMISTS. Take yourself from this class. Wear the smile of optimism, show commercial courage and faith AND KEEP BOOSTING TAHOKA. By so doing we will have Civic Success Personal Success and a City to be proud of.

According to the Post City Post, work has begun on the construction of Garza county's new court house.

It has been suggested that the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce employ a paid secretary for full time, or employ a combination county agent and secretary. The county commissioners and chamber of commerce could well afford to secure the services of some good man to fill the job. We need the county demonstration agent and also a paid secretary to look closely after the affairs of the city and welfare of the farmer. Why not put it over?

It was called to our attention by several of our appreciated readers the past week that this paper failed to mention the reported organization of a Ku Klux Klan in Tahoka one night last week. It is the rule of this sheet not to place in print any item of news that of a "hearsay" nature, and since the organization of Knich's of the Ku Klux Klan did not send a representative around to report the organization of a Klan in Tahoka, we did not feel authorized to "air" it to our subscribers, not knowing the facts in the case. It is the desire of this paper to publish all the news that comes to our attention and will do so where we know such to be of a reliable nature.

The Brownfield Herald made light of a certain local item appearing in the News columns of week before last, when we made mention of a certain family in Brownfield were stopping over here enroute to points in California on a visit. The Herald editor gets cute and says: "They surely made a flying trip to that state as they have been home all week." We all make 'em, Stricklin, even the Herald is not immune. In last week's issue of the Lamesa Reporter, in a personal mention in which it was stated that Prof. Haynes, (father of the News Ed.) was superintendent of the Lubbock schools, when as a matter of fact he has not taught school for a number of years, and is now holding the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction Lubbock county. Every other paper coming to our exchange table, pulls a bonehead now and then. Another instance that comes into our mind was an error made last week by the Hereford Brand, when the maker-up man transposed the big double deck heads on the front page. This mistake is often made by the big daily papers.

ENOUGH TO RUN A MAN CRAZY

A gentleman was one day visiting a lunatic asylum, and while walking through the grounds he met a patient to whom he said: "Well, my good man, how did you get here?" The lunatic replied as follows: "Well sir, you see, I married a widow with a grown daughter, and then my father married that same step-daughter, and that made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law and my father my step-son. Then my step-mother, the daughter of my wife, had a son, and that boy of course was my brother, because he was my father's son; but he was also the son of my wife's step-daughter, and therefore her grandson, and that made me grandnephew and I am my own grand father of my stepbrother. Then my wife had a son, so my mother-in-law, the step sister of my son, is also his grandmother, because he is her step-son's child, my father-in-law is the brother of my child, because his step-sister is my wife. I am a brother of my own son, who is also the son of my stepmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law, my wife is her own child's aunt, and my stepson is my father's father.—Ex.

The light plant at Tahoka burned out a baring one day last week and of course it happened on the day that Editor Haynes had to go to press with the last form, and no "juice" for his electric motor. He borrowed the services of nearly every strong armed guy in town, and hand cranked his press.—Terry County Herald.

Don't call the ladies "guys" please, Stricklin, for there were four that turned the crank on our news press that Friday when no "juice" was at hand. Next time we'll manage a little different when we find that we are up against it—we'll just load the forms into our fliver and call on some of our neighboring editors and proceed to grind out that particular edition in jam-up style. This method would probably suit our friends better at least, especially the fair sex. Never mind, Stricklin, your time is coming since Brownfield now has electric current. You probably have already "junked" that old gas engine.

Everybody is ready to advocate town improvement—and it is a good thing to do, too. But why not advocate country improvement also? the farmer is the backbone of every community. Without him there would be no cities or towns, nothing to eat or wear, nothing to do but do nothing. The farmer needs better schools. He needs better social and recreational diversions for his family and his employees. He needs to be more in contact with that large volume of life which he can alone sustain. Boosting our town is commendable, but let's boost the farmer, too, and make our act doubly commendable.—Paducah Post.

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE?

Sometimes we hear some thoughtless person make a disparaging remark about our town—and it hurts. This may not be the best town in the United States, but it is a certainty that there are hundreds of towns not as good in proportion to population and natural advantages. When you hear a person kicking his home town, ask him a few pertinent questions. Ask him why it is not to his liking. Ask him to think it over and see if he is not mistaken in his judgment. Ask him what he has done to correct the defects of which he complains. Ask him if he has ever done anything to make this a better town. Ask him why he continues to live and earn his money here. You may convert a pessimist into an optimist.—Clipped.

LO, THE POOR
SAFETY COMMISSIONER

The lot of a Commissioner of Safety is hard. Chosen by the people to draft and enforce ordinances and regulations in the interest of public safety, he finds that the very constituents who vested him with his authority are the hardest to save from themselves. Ask him if it is not in the violation of the rules it delegated him to promulgate and upon which it there by puts the seal of approval that the public suffers the greatest loss of life and limb. Inquire of him if the people do not expect of him to protect them and theirs, and at the same instant by their own acts wantonly make it impossible. Get his traffic officers to tell what they know about the inconsistency—the determined rock-lessness, of the selfsame public that hired them for protection. An illuminating instance has just come to light from figures recently compiled.

In the year 1921, the total casualties to persons, exclusive of employees, in railway collisions and derailments were 162 killed and 2758 injured. During the same period there were exclusive of railway employees, 3966 persons killed and 8684 injured in highway grade crossings accidents, by getting on or off cars or locomotives, and thru trespassing on railway property.

Thus it occurs in railway activity that when the public acts either wholly or partially on its own impulses there are nearly twenty-five times as many people killed, and three times as many injured as when yields to the judgment of railway employees. In other words, only about 18 per cent, or less than one-fifth, of the casualties are entirely beyond the control of the victim. To put it still another way, when a person exercises his own violation, he is four times as likely to incur disaster as when restrained by the well established regulations of railway operation. Accident statistics in every day life are still more illuminating in this respect. The mutual tendency of society, individually and collectively, to chafe under restraint for the common good of all is the greatest bar to the conservation of life and limb. The inexorable tolls fixed for the careless are paid by the masses. Guardians of public safety surely do have a charge with their charges."

Growth of Denominational Activities In Every Direction Is Indicated as Result of Forward Program

LARGE ADVANCES ARE MADE

REPORT ON CONTRIBUTIONS TO 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN ISSUED BY HEADQUARTERS OFFICE

DR. EVERETT GILL
European Representative Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

Up to January 1, 1923, Southern Baptists had paid in cash on the 75 Million Campaign, their five-year program for the advancement of the general missionary, educational and benevolent activities of the denomination the sum of $38,918,191.10, according to a report issued by the general headquarters office.

These contributions have come from the various states and other sources as follows: Alabama, $1,653,739.40; Arkansas, $1,165,153.35; District of Columbia, $143,564.79; Florida, $699,016.92; Georgia, $3,669,516.79; Illinois, $2,240,482.95; Kentucky, $1,122,039.73; Louisiana, $1,035,640.23; Maryland, $489,494.29; Mississippi, $1,591,011.34; Missouri, $1,537,067.49; New Mexico, $170,998.36; North Carolina, $2,365,320.21; Oklahoma, $1,052,438.20; South Carolina, $3,309,252.60; Tennessee, $2,340,766.77; Texas, $5,002,785.32; Virginia, $4,102,802.12. Special designated funds, Texas, $1,221,640.55; New Mexico, $403,072.68; Louisiana, $105,160; Illinois, $148,591.11; Tennessee, $192,853.25; Oklahoma, $59,000; received direct by Home Mission Board, $65,340; received from special sources by Foreign Mission Board, $86,103; contributed by native churches on foreign field and expended by them directly on their work there, $1,003,356.63.

Indicating something of the progress which the impetus of the Campaign has brought to various phases of denominational effort in the South. It is reported that during the three years of the Campaign period that have expired, Southern Baptists have had 150,000 more baptisms than they did for the three years immediately preceding the Campaign; organized 3,000 more new Sunday schools with 400,000 new pupils; enhanced the value of their local church property by $2,000,000; increased their contributions to local causes by $22,000,000; gave $18,938,862 more to missions and benevolences, and advanced their contributions to all causes by $43,480,496 during the three years of the Campaign over what they gave to all causes for the three years immediately preceding the Campaign.

Gains in Special Fields.
The Campaign has enabled the various state mission boards to greatly enlarge their programs of state and denominational missions within their respective boundaries. It is pointed out; made it possible for the Home Mission Board to complete its $1,000,000 Church Building Loan Fund, extend its work among the foreigners, Indians and Negroes, administer 134,332 baptisms, secure 218,371 additions to the local churches, provide larger equipment for its system of 35 mountain missions schools, establish the Southern Baptist Tuberculosis Sanatorium, and greatly increase its work in other directions.

Some other gains in the homeland include the better equipment and maintenance of the more than 86 academies, colleges and seminaries other than the mountain schools; increasing the number of Baptist hospitals from 18 to 20, and providing better equipment and maintenance for all of them; increasing the number of Baptist hospitals from 12 to 20 and beginning the erection of three others, at the same time all the older ones have been better equipped; while the number of aged ministers helped has been doubled and the stipend given each has been greatly increased.

Mission Work Extended.
In the realm of foreign missions the Foreign Mission Board has been enabled to send out about 250 new missionaries, employ over 500 additional native workers, greatly increase the equipment in the way of church buildings, chapels, schools, hospitals, publishing houses and mission residences in the older fields of China, Japan, Africa, Italy, Brazil, Argentina, Paraguay, Uruguay, Chile, and Mexico, and open up new work in Spain, Jugoslavia, Hungary, Roumania, Russia, Palestine and Siberia. In the territory now occupied by the Foreign Mission Board there is a total population of 900,000,000, or more than half the people of the world.
Due to the enlargement of the missionary program in Europe the board has been compelled to station a general representative there in the person of Dr. Everett Gill, who has general oversight of the work on the continent and maintains his headquarters at Lausanne, Switzerland.

REAL - LIFE SHEIKH

Unlike Fascinating Figure in Novels, Traveler Says.

Almost Universal Type Ragged Gluttons With a Remarkable Lack of Romantic Trappings.

A new light is shed on the so-called fascinating sheiks as described by numerous authors in recent novels, by Dalrymple Belgrave, a former member of the frontier districts administration of Egypt, in an interesting article written in the London Daily Mail.

"I have just returned to England after spending seven years in Egypt, Palestine and the Sudan, where sheiks are frequently found," he writes. "During that time I met and was well acquainted with more sheiks than I can easily remember, but not one among them all was like the typical 'sheik' of the modern novel.

"Certainly some of them were handsome enough. I remember one in particular who ruled a district on the borders of Egypt and the Sudan. He was as fine a man as I ever have seen, but he was practically black, and the 'sheiks' of fiction are usually 'faintly tanned' and 'scarcely darker than an Italian.'

"Perhaps Mahdi Aboul Nebl, whose home was an oasis in the Libyan desert, was in appearance more the required type, but then his manners left much to be desired, and his behavior at a meal, which would consist probably of the larger half of a sheep, was neither romantic nor attractive."
"In my experience the usual Arab sheik was elderly, a pronounced 'beaver' and only moderately clean."
"His surroundings, too, would appear very disappointing to the reader of the 'sheik' type of story. One would expect wonderful camps in the desert, huge silken-hung tents furnished with priceless rugs and sumptuous divans heaped with fur-lined cushions."
"I have camped in the desert with real sheiks from whose wealth one would expect every luxury, but their camps were very like those of the ordinary Bedouin, and one met just as many objectionable insects as in the tents of the common Arabs."
"I think the nearest approach to the sheik of fiction among my acquaintance was a certain Hassan, a very splendid individual who called himself 'Sheik Hassan,' and lived in the neighborhood of Shepherd's hotel, in Cairo. He spoke English perfectly, wore wonderful Eastern robes, and I really believe he took as his model the hero of one of the stories I read."
"But, unfortunately, Hassan had no experience of the desert; he was born and bred in Cairo, and his occupation was that of a guide who showed tourists round the pyramids and took them out to see the Sphinx by moonlight."

It was Tommy's turn to read aloud. He came to the sentence, "Silence reigned in the house."
"Now," said the teacher, "can you describe silence?"
Tommy thought for a minute, and then said, eagerly: "Yes, teacher. I know: it's what you don't hear when you listen."

A new law has been passed by the legislature increasing the tax on automobiles.

THE 1923 COTTON CROP

The "Size" VS The "Price"

If Texas had made one million more bales of cotton in 1922 it would have lowered the price perhaps five cents per pound, and if the entire South had increased its cotton crop in proportion the entire cotton crop would in all probability, have brought approximately one hundred million dollars less than it did.

Sifting it down to brass tacks it amounts to this—that if we had raised one million more bales we would have been one million dollars POORER, than we are.

This is not saying "don't raise cotton", but it is a plea for more stock and poultry—for more feed and more "LIVING AT HOME"

MY OBJECTIONS TO THE KU KLUX KLAN

Editor's Note:—The columns of the News are open for the free use of any individual in the discussion of the Ku Klux Klan, both for and against. It is our belief that the free open discussion of the Klan organization will be of interest to all fair-minded readers of this paper, therefore we invite contributions both for and against in this column.

We herewith produce an article from the pen of Rev. J. T. Howell, pastor of the Methodist Church in Tahoka, expressing his views against the Ku Klux Klan.

It is necessary that all communications be properly signed if same receives space in this paper.

In the first place, I object to the Klan on the grounds that it is un-Christian, both in its principles and methods. If Christ is our example, then we, as Christians, dare not use force to overcome evil. As citizens, loyal to our government, we are obligated to see to the enforcement of laws for the protection of society, and to that extent use force, put under no conditions are we authorized to use force for the propagation of Christianity. Then, can you imagine Jesus Christ sending an anonymous epistle to the money changers in the temple, warning them of punishment, and then, He and his twelve, with masks over their faces, on some dark night, taking these same money changers over to Gethsemane, whipping them until the blood ran down, and charging them to leave the city, on pain of further visitation? No, you cannot even imagine such, without slandering the Christ. His plan was to do his utmost to same men, and then if they were beyond the appeals of love, to punish them in the open.

My second objection to the Ku Klux Klan is that it is un-democratic. Our government is founded upon the formerly expressed will of the majority of its citizens, and any assumption of authority upon the part of a minor portion of its constituency is derogatory to the very primary foundations of American democracy.

My third objection is that, it is contrary to the elementary principles of our federal and state constitutions. Under both federal and state constitutions every citizen has the guaranteed right, when accused of crime to face his accusers in open court before twelve of his peers, sitting as a jury of trial, and to present rebutting evidence in his defense. And no sane man will dare say that the methods and practices of the Klan do not contravene the legal guarantees above enumerated.

And to the above objection is the one that, it has nothing but mob-rule to offer in the place of our legally constituted courts, which is unquestionably, to some extent, contrary to Human passion is a dangerous thing under any and all conditions, and has no more dangerous tendency in human society, than under the legally unrestrained secret mob. You cannot reasonably deny that passion enters less into our court procedure, than it is likely to enter into, even the councils of the hooded Klan. But, you answer that, our courts have failed. If so, you are responsible for their failure. And, do you think that trial by the Klan can succeed better than our courts, with the same men in its councils who are the constituency of our courts? If you Klansmen are failures as jurors in our open courts, do you mean to tell me that you will be better agents of justice under the mask and robe? If so, God help us.

My fifth objection is that, the Klan is endeavoring to use Church in its propaganda. Of course, it is following out the practice of every other propaganda with an axe to grind. But this writer will not permit his church to be so used. I am a Mason, but I would, under no sort of conditions, permit a delegation of my brethren to file into my church and present me with a purse and a letter of commendation. Neither shall I permit sheeted and masked members of the Klan to do so. The church has a message to every class of men, Klansmen as well as non-Klansmen, and must not be compromised by any one class, to the detriment of another.

I object, also, to the mask, which has become the badge of the Klan. In a democracy that which won't permit the light of day on all of its governmental functions is not democratic. Yes, I know the stock reply to that is, "Free Masonry is secret, and you endorse it, why not the secret method of the Klan?" Listen, there is not a principle of Free Masonry that you may not know. Only its ritual is secret. But, Masonry does not attempt to arrogate to itself the least function of civil government, but, instead, inculcates in its members the highest respect for, and unqualified observance of, all civil laws. If there was the least assumption of civil authority in the Masonic Fraternity, I am one Mason who would immediately repudiate it forever.

My last objection to the Klan is its unsavory reputation. Its name has become the synonym for tar-buckets, feather bags, and clanderstine murder. O yes, I know that you deny that the Klan has ever been guilty of such a catalogue of crimes, and I know some who deny that the Klan has ever blackened its hands with the traditional tar-bucket. But, hold, you never heard of these things, until about four years ago, when the Klan began its operations. How becomes it that such has become so frequent? You say: "Others have done these things, and laid it to the door of the Klan." How am I to know the truth of what you state? I know such things have been done, and by masked mobs. Have you any way of clearing your name of this foul slander, if it is slander? Will you not pardon me for steering clear of your organization, until you clear your name of your unsavory reputation? If I, as a Methodist Pastor, had your reputation, do you think that any true man would risk himself in my fold and company?

If the members of the Ku Klux Klan will unmask, and organize themselves into a Law Enforcement League, I will be the first to enroll, but I shall never join hands with any organization in which I cannot be known for what I am by all my neighbors, and all my conduct, which affects their interests, be done in the blazing light of the high moon.

J. T. HOWELL,
Tahoka, Texas.

"Strong and Well"

"I WISH you could know how much I am improved since taking the Cardui," writes Mrs. Nannie Brown, of Black Rock, Ark. "You wouldn't know me for the same weak invalid I was before I took it. At my... I had to keep off my feet or I would fall. I couldn't do my housework, and just got where I'd most as lief be dead as living. Some one told my husband of Cardui. He got it for me and I took three bottles before I stopped—then off and on for the last three years just as a tonic. I saw a decided improvement after my first bottle. I used the three, and was able to do my work with ease, and now I sew for my family and for others. I am feeling fine, and strong and well."
