ARKHURST SAYS NEW GOVT. STAMPS GOOD BUY

Postmaster Don A. Parkhurst, of Tahoka urges that every person who is possible can exchange War Savings stamps, which are soon to fall due, for Treasury Saving Certificates. Postmaster Parkhurst stated further that the large number of persons who purchased war savings stamps during the world war showed that the people of the United States could save money when it became really necessary. And now if they will take the money they saved when they bought stamps to aid the government in the war with Germany and buy Treasury Saving Certificates, they will then demonstrate that the real lessons of the war have not been without effect. Holders of war savings stamps have seen their investments grow from $20.50 to $25.15 in a period of five years, and larger amounts in the same proportion. They can see the same thing repeated if they invest in Treasury Saving Certificates.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM OF TAHOKA HIGH SCHOOL

The Primary and Intermediate departments and a few visiting parents were very agreeably entertained Wednesday afternoon before Thanksgiving with a Thanksgiving program rendered by the first and fourth grades.

After a motion song and appropriate Thanksgiving recitations by the first grade pupils, a play representing the Plymouth Colony observing the first Thanksgiving was presented by the fourth grade. The stage was very artistically dressed to represent the pioneer home. The big open fire place filled with logs, the guns and horns, the furs and skins of animals on floor and walls; the old time spinning wheel, made for the occasion by the fourth grade pupils, and the pupils dressed in the early Puritan costumes, all combined to give the play truly historical presentation.

The program closed with an Indian and Puritan drill by first grade pupils dressed to represent Indians and Puritans.

Following is the cast of characters for the Puritan Play:
William Brewster—Earl Goodrich
Mary Brewster—Juanelle Windham
Jonathan Brewster—Paul Miller
Pastor Robinson—Everton Nevils
John Carver—Frank Fenton
Mrs. Carver—Rosa Maud Wood
Edward Winslow—Reid Townes
Thomas Hopkin—Jack Alley Robinson
Spies—Robert Draper, Ernest Drager and Fred Richards
Wm. Bradford—Kathryn Poer
James Bradford—Darrel Roye
Miles Standish—Samuel King
Rose Standish—Modell Sanders
Precilla Mullens—Mabel Lee
Mrs. Winthrop—Eva Shroyer
John Alden—Sumner Clayton
Samoset (Indian)—Clemens Swan
Massasoit (Chief)—Cecil Hickerson

After the program the visitors were invited to examine the work of the various grades that had been placed on exhibit. This work consisted mainly of sand table projects, clay work, maps of various kinds, written work, manual training work and geometrical figures. —CONTRIBUTED.

Several citizens of the Union community, including the pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. Morrison, were in Tahoka Friday of last week soliciting funds for the erection of the Union Baptist Church on the north line of Lynn county. They succeeded in raising a handsome sum for the edifice from the business men here.

G. E. Thommarson and family have moved to Lynn county from Baylor county and are located ten miles southeast in the Redwine community.

He will most likely become a permanent citizen in the near future.

A free-will offering was taken to finish the church building at that place Sunday morning and a sufficient sum was realized to erect a $50,000 structure, the basement of which has been completed for more than two years.

Judge Lockhart Building Houses

Judge G. E. Lockhart, of this city is opening up another section of land for agricultural purposes southeast of Tahoka, and has under construction four new tenant houses.

Judge Lockhart is one of the real builders of this section of the great South Plains section, and we need many more of his kind to develop Lynn county.

Infant Child Dies

CHRISTIAN MINISTER POUNDED THANKSGIVING

The members and friends of the Church of Christ gave their preacher W. A. Kirckville a very generous pounding Thanksgiving. Most everything in the way of edibles, tow sacks and bushel basket quantities.

Bro. Kirckville tenders his thanks for the many nice things so graciously given, and appreciate the kind spirit that prompts the act more than anything else.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith returned to their home in Fort Worth after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Redwine.

SKELETON OF MAN IDENTIFIED NEAR SEMINOLE

Seminole, Texas, Dec. 1.—The skeleton of the man found about 15 miles west of Seminole in Gaines county, on last Friday, has been identified as that of Jim Urban, of Artesia, N. M., Brothers of the dead man left today with the remains for their home.

This body was found last week by some cowboys, and evidence showed that the man had been shot, placed in a shallow grave, some inflammable substance poured over his body and burned. Most of the clothing had been burned, but enough was found to identify him.

This was the most brutal murder ever committed in this part of the country, and the officers are running down every known clue, but so far as is known there is nothing now to indicate the guilty party.

YOUNG MAN SHOT AND KILLED AT SLATON TUES.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche: Shelton S. Forrest, son of S. S. Forrest, a prominent merchant and lumberman of Slaton, was shot and killed at a house which is reported now under construction for his father, at Slaton. The shooting occurred at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday.

Deputy Sheriff McCulloch was called to the scene, and took charge of Jay Lee Jordan, who is well known throughout Lubbock county.

Owing to the fact that the young men are both well known and popular in Slaton the tragedy was a great shock to Slaton, according to reports. No reasons have been given for the affair and Jordan made no statements after being taken over by the officers. He was brought to Lubbock and placed in jail to await the orders of the grand jury which convenes, Monday, Dec. 11th.

A pump shot gun was used, it is reported, two shots having taken effect, one in the neck and the other in the breast, penetrating the heart.

Jordan was at one time owner of a cafe at Slaton and has been a resident of that town for some time. Reports reaching here are to the effect that the two men have been involved in a personal difficulty for the past several weeks, evidences of which are alleged to have been shown recently when they disputed with one another and are reported to have engaged in a street fight. Domestic trouble is reported to have been the source of the trouble.

Forrest, a young man of about twenty-one years, was working on his father's building at the time of the killing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lowe visited with their daughter, Mrs. J. C. May, in Post City Saturday and Sunday.

SECOND UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO FIRE BROWNFIELD

Two Men Have Been Arrested and Confessed to Crime.

Brownfield, Texas, December 1.—A second attempt to burn the town was made here last night and the corn mill of Hamilton & Son was fired about 11 o'clock. The town was being heavily guarded by officers and business men and the blaze was soon this was being done the post office was robbed of several dollars in silver and some currency. The burglars, however, were trailed to a hotel and arrested within a few moments afterwards and most of the loot recovered. One of the parties in in jail and the other under guard on the outside. This being done for the reason that our jail is so small and there is no way to separate the parties and the officers do not want them to frame up any evidence. One of the parties has confessed to the crime and also stated that they were the ones who robbed the bakery a few weeks ago, which cleared up a case that the officers had been working on since it occurred.

BROWNFIELD NOW HAS SUNDAY TRAIN SERVICE???

Page the Lynn County News. Let them know that we are now enjoying (?) Sunday train service. That is, the train left here last Saturday night at 11:55 and of course part of Terry county had Sunday service at least. The old rattle trap engine lay down on the crew and gave up the ghost at Ropesville.

It is due here about 2:30 in the afternoon.

Some may think it is the fault of the crew, but the Herald has it the other way round. In fact the Herald believes that the crew is overworked. They are doing just about the work of two crews. They have to load the cattle and do the turn of a switching crew at Lubbock.

Besides all this they are furnished with an old engine that should have been junked twenty years ago. We do not know of a third class road in east Texas that has as sorry engine as is used on the western branch lines of the great Santa Fe system.—Terry County Herald.

Tahoka cannot boast of any trains running through the city or county on the Holy Sabbath day. The "Blue-Weed Special" is never over three or four hours late running on this branch. The old engine never "balks" that we know of, in fact it seems to be a pretty good puller. The News naturally believes that the Santa Fe would place a wee bit better engines on the older roads. Then, too the Tahoka train runs out of Slaton, while the Brownfield train is made up at Lubbock. There being more switching crews at Slaton, the Tahoka train is enabled to depart on time. Locate in Tahoka.

Mr. Merchant You Need the Newspaper

The newspaper of today is the most powerful medium of advertising on earth. In the old days the merchant may have thought he was a benefactor and that he was contributing his bit "as a public-spirited citizen" when he carried a two-inch space in the village paper every week in the year and generally without change of copy. Possibly he was.

But that is changed now. A new order has arrived. People read advertisements. Many find their greatest interest in looking over the advertising pages to get news that will save the money, and take it from John D. Rockefeller, the way to save your pennies.

Advertisements today are right up to the minute. They are as fresh as the news of the world or the latest baseball score. Live merchants cater to live people and they know they must not alone be up to the minute, but they must be some distance ahead. They must anticipate the wants of their customers.

And they do. Turn to the advertisements in this paper right now. Just read what each one is offering. Notice the invitations for you to do business with them.

Business men—that is the successful ones—know advertising pays big returns. Unsuccessful men don't advertise because they are unsuccessful. That's the answer. Look over the town right now and pick out the big firms. Advertising is the tonic that puts dividends in the banks.

Everybody reads advertisements today. Mr. Merchant's is your advertisement in this paper?

The Judge's Christmas Sentence

By F. H. Sweet

Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

THE judge leaned forward a little, his face, which had been growing more severe through the trial, now very stern.

"Have you anything to say why I should not pronounce sentence—the severest under the law?" he shot out.

The prisoner moistened his lips. "You and I went to school together, Judge," he reminded, weakly.

The judge's face did not relax. He waited.

"And we—we—" The man quailed under the eyes fixed upon him, and did not end the sentence.

"You were about to say, loved the same girl," the judge finished. "You won her, and she died under your neglect and abuse. I think you started to say something without due thought. But we will let that pass, and the school. You are up for this crime now, and we will judge you by it alone, uninfluenced. Have you anything to say, beyond your lawyer's plea?"

"No," sullenly.

"You have defrauded women and children through the mail, changing your name and going from postoffice to postoffice. So it has been impossible to locate the victims. You could not do it yourself, I suppose."

He took off his glasses, wiped them with his handkerchief, placed the handkerchief in his pocket and the glasses on his nose. Then he looked down again at the prisoner.

But he was completely changed. The severity was gone from his face. There was a twinkle in his eyes. The judicial voice was laid aside. There were those who criticized some of the judge's judgments. They were not orthodox. They took no account of precedents. They ignored Blackstone.

"Jack," he said, "I believe I shall have to help you."

"What—what—let me go, you mean, Tom?" stammered the prisoner, looking dazed.

"No, indeed," laughed the judge. "That wouldn't help you a bit, Jack. I was just thinking of the time at school, when you stole Billy Bob's marbles. Accused of it, you grew sullen and abusive, ready to fight the whole school. Then Billy Bobs remembered it was near Christmas, and he told you it was all right about the marbles, as you would have won them from him anyway, and forced a whole handful more into your pocket and insisted on taking you over to his house for the Christmas dinner. Billy was a good sort."

"Well, it is Christmas time now, Jack—only three days ahead. And I was just thinking what a good chap you were for a whole year after the Billy Bobs episode—till your father got angry and beat you up."

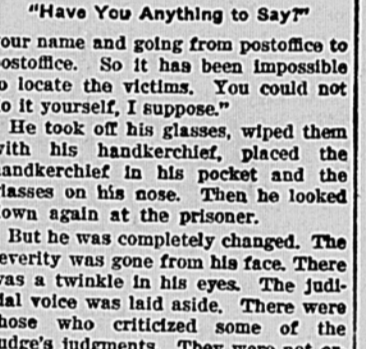

"Pretty tough life you've had, Jack. I was thinking. Good-for-nothing father and slattern mother and every kind of crooked teaching. Then you were a handsome boy, an exceedingly handsome young man, which is the worst kind of handicap one can start out with. And then, to cap the whole thing, an uncle left you $500 of badly tainted money. That sort of fixed you into a rut, for it riveted your energies into making more in the same way. Not many Billy Bobs have broken through the even tenor of your life, Jack."

"What are you driving at, Tom?" growled the prisoner. "Are you acting like Billy Bobs, or just stringing me?"

"Billy Bobs, but with a thought to the thirty years intervening between Jack the boy and Jack the man. Let me see, you have gathered together, by devious ways, about $50,000."

"No, no, Tom, you're crazy!" ejaculated the prisoner, in a startled voice. "I haven't a thing except maybe a thousand or two from—this last job."

The judge looked at a slip of paper. "Fifty thousand, four hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars," he read, "and it's pretty close to the exact figures, Jack. Maybe you've got some small change in your pockets that was overlooked. And we know in just what banks most of the money is deposited and under what names, and where the rest of it is hidden. We've had you under close surveillance for some time, Jack, and lucky for it shows me how I can be of real service."

"Have You Anything to Say?"

your name and going from postoffice to postoffice. So it has been impossible to locate the victims. You could not do it yourself, I suppose."

"Huh! I can guess how," snarled the prisoner. "The hoodie is going to be divided. What will be my share? I can't understand how you got track of it."

"Now, the first thing is to pronounce sentence," said the judge, rising slowly and putting on his judicial face. "After that we can talk."

He stood, looking down at the prisoner for some moments, and then said: "For the crimes of which you stand convicted, John Battey, I sentence you to twenty years in our state penitentiary."

He paused, and the prisoner collapsed in a ludicrous heap, his eyes bulging.

"Twenty—twenty years," he stammered.

"I—I thought—"

"But, in view of certain things in my mind," the judge went on, calmly, "I will suspend this sentence indefinitely, the length depending wholly on yourself. If you violate or fail to meet in any particular the terms I am about to propose, the sentence will immediately go into effect, and there will be no later mitigation. Now, I pronounce, as a provisional sentence, that you expend $1,000 of the money in doing Christmas work the coming week, commencing tomorrow. There are hundreds of ways of doing this, but, as you are new to the business, I might suggest going through department and other stores and studying the Christmas shoppers. There will be many with anxious faces, counting the few dimes or dollars they have to spend. Get in touch with the clerks so that, by a nod or look, you can make them understand they are to cut prices in half, or put in extra goods, and you meet the difference. Let the children shuffling through the stores, with eager, hungry eyes, who appear to have no money, select something and you pay for it. Do the same for those whose faces are pressed against the windows outside. Talk with market men and have them send turkeys to homes that can't afford one. It doesn't matter whether the father or mother may be unworthy. It is Christmas, and a taste of turkey and cranberry sauce would not hurt them. And, besides, there are the children! You can find ways enough, and each one you meet will open others."

"And after this week, Jack, you will expend $1,000 each month in such work, until the whole is gone. It will take you nearly four years. We will allow you $20 from it each week for your personal needs—no more. The very last $500—the dirty $500 left by your uncle and which may have started you into that way of money getting, you will give to some poor woman in memory of your wife. Because it is bad money, it should expiate itself in good work."

The prisoner had been straightening up. There was sullen defiance in his eyes.

"Suppose I don't do it to the letter, Judge?" he queried. "Suppose I save out some? You never could know. It's too much to ask me to give up every cent. How could I live afterwards?"

"There is the suspended twenty years' sentence, Jack," significantly.

"If you deviate a hair's breadth from this work the sentence will be enforced. It would take the rest of your life, and the money is not worth a thought in comparison. Besides, you must be purged of the money for your own good. As to not knowing, we shall keep close watch of all your money. If you draw more, or take more than the sum allowed each month, the original sentence will go into effect."

"Led Him to the Door."

I extend the clemency only a month at a time. At the end of each month you must bring me a report of your work, a record in detail, and I will extend the clemency another month. If you fail to appear or send a satisfactory reason why, an officer will be after you within twenty-four hours. It is the best way I can think of helping you, Jack, a Billy Bobs way, with the thirty years' hardening that must be broken through. I have faith that four years of such philanthropic work will not be without result. After the money is all gone, every dollar, come to me and I will give you steady employment at a living salary. You used to be exceptionally good at figures in school, and had a quick mind. All you need is to get the mind to working along in a straight line, Jack. Now you may go and draw the first $1,000 to be ready to commence work."

He nodded to an officer, who led the scowling, half-dazed prisoner to the door of the courtroom, and to another for the next case to be brought in.

12-YEAR-OLD BOY PICKED 404 LBS. COTTON IN ONE DAY

Another cotton picking record has been made on the Plains. J. N. Farr, the 12-year-old son of J. B. Farr, farmer living eighteen miles south of Lubbock, on last Wednesday picked 404 pounds of cotton. The little fellow is some gatherer of the fleecy staple, and wanted to make another big day's picking the following day, but his parents would not permit him to do so, knowing that it would be mighty hard for him, and fortunately they are more interested in the little fellow's general health than in gathering the fall crop, which is indeed commendable.—Lubbock Avalanche.

HOW DOES SANTA GET HIS MAIL?

(© 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)
I'll bet old Santa Claus is gettin' letters by the ton
From boys an' girls that's 'frail he will forget;
I don't see how he takes the time to open ev'ry one—
There's lots o' toys he hasn't finished yet.

But then, he knows how many kids will look for him to come,
An' all the year he's making something new;
An' that old shop o' his, I know he makes it hum,
An' Mr. Santa Claus, I bet, can hustle, too.

But how does Santa get his mail—that's what I'd like to know—
The postman couldn't carry it, I'm sure;
It's not so easy goin' miles an' miles an' miles in snow,
An' nothin' like a little pleasure tour!

Jes' think of all the hundred thousand million million toys
That told old Santa what they want this year;
An' even in this town o' ours there's lots an' lots an' lots
O' kids that wrote an' mailed their letters here.

There's Johnny Jones that wants a bat,
An' Harold Brown an engine that will run;
An' Lucy Smith a doll that talks, an' Beas a parasol,
An' little Eddie Davis wants a gun.

There's Harry Green whose daddy's store has ev'rything there is,
But Harry thinks that nothin' there will do;
A baby sister's what he wants, an' one that's truly his—
An' maybe Santa Claus'll bring him two!

Then think o' all the other towns an' cities 'round the earth,
An' all the children sendin' Santa word
To make each little home a place o' gladness,
Joy and mirth,
Where Chris'mas noise an' laughter may be heard.

It may be Santa hitches up his reindeer to the sleigh
To get the mail that tells him what to do;
But anyway, I hope each kid will have on Chris'mas day
The present that he wanted most. Don't you?

LIMITED GENEROSITY
Tightwad told his wife to select her own Christmas present.
That was very generous of him.
And then, he gave her half a dollar to pay for it.

A CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION

By ELEANOR E. KING
(© 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)

TWO young girls were standing in front of one of the counters in a large department store. They were well dressed and gave the appearance of coming from wealthy, refined homes. "There is no use talking. Christmas is just a bore to me. I know before I open a present that everything I have mentioned as wanting, is here before me."

"Yes, I know," returned her friend. "You never do have much anxiety over what you are going to get for Christmas—or any time," she added. "A rather trim looking woman who had been standing near them, waiting for change, now stepped up. "Pardon me, but I couldn't help hearing part of your conversation." She handed the girls her card. "I think I am the possessor of the keys to your happiness—at Christmas time—and I just had to tell you."

"My name is Betty Wentworth, and this is my friend Janis Hamilton, Miss Harper. I have heard lots about your work here in the city. I would be only too glad to try the key you speak of and see if it would fit." "Good. Come to my office at ten tomorrow, and I will tell you more about it."

Betty went. She spent a pleasant hour or so talking with Miss Harper. She thought her suggestions splendid and left fifty dollars to cover the expenses involved. Instead of sleeping until noon Christmas morning as she usually did, Betty was up and dressed at eight o'clock. She called for the machine and drove to Miss Harper's office.

The room was piled high with baskets containing fruit, canned goods, candy and toys. Necessaries which Miss Harper knew only too well, her poor people needed.

They piled them in the machine. Then under Miss Harper's guidance, they were left at the homes of the most needy in her district. Betty had the time of her life. She couldn't believe that a little basket full of food and toys could create such joy. The recipients couldn't thank her enough. When they returned to the office, Betty said: "My, Miss Harper, your key surely fit. I have never had such a wonderful Christmas. If people wouldn't think I was ungrateful, I would go right home, take all my presents and give them away, too."

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardul and Took It, She Says, "Until I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Buena McFarland, of R. F. D. 2, Bostic, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand."

"I was very nervous, and could not rest. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything. "I had been trying other remedies . . . but did not get any better.

"Some one told us of Cardul, and what it was recommended for. I also took a Ladies Birthday Almanac and read of a case something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it.

"I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardul), so I kept it up until I was well. Now I am the picture of health." Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardul, and to recommend it to others.

Cardul has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it.

MAKING CHRISTMAS MONEY

BY PHEBE K. WARNER

Really the right time to begin to think about making Christmas money is the week after Christmas instead of the month before. But who does it? And suppose we did begin to make our Christmas money in January, June, July or even October, most of us would have it spent for something else long before Christmas. Right now is a good time to put on a red hot campaign for making Christmas money. Most of our BIG financial campaigns only last a week. So here goes! And we want this campaign that we are talking about to be put on by the boys and girls of Texas for their own Christmas cheer fund.

It has not been so many years since we were a girl or boy and we never, NEVER will forget how we longed for our OWN Christmas money to do with as we pleased. Our heart was just as big and just as kind as any of the other hearts in our family and we wanted to do the things for Christmas that we WANTED TO DO. But WE never had any Christmas money. Somebody else had all the money and got all the joy of buying and spending and hiding things around and bringing them out on Christmas morning for us. We never did in all our childhood know the joy of GIVING anyone a Christmas gift. All the fun we got out of Christmas was in what we received and sometimes there was as much disappointment as rejoicing in that. Santa Claus did it all and in return received all the credit and all the happiness that comes from GIVING and all the thrills that follow a happy surprise. The children were never taught to GIVE. They were only taught to expect and receive. Is it any wonder that we all grew up to be selfish.

For these reasons we resolved then and there if we ever did grow up and turn into a woman we were going to help the boys and girls to find ways to make their own Christmas money so that they might have some joy of giving along with the joy of receiving and thus be doubly happy on Christmas morning. Does not the Bible teach us that it is more blessed to give than to receive? Then why let our selfishness rob the children of the greater blessing? And Christmas will be a happier day for us all when we can all have a part in the GIVING as well as the receiving.

Now first of all there is a universal mistake in most of our hearts as to what a real Christmas gift is. Too many of us think it means something expensive from some store in some town. Something that we see to BUY in the many tempting windows at this particular time. But there are a lot of beautiful things that many of us would like to have that you do not find in town at all. For instance, we wish to know right now the name of some school boy to write to who could climb one of those grand old trees in South Texas and get us a box of that wonderful grey moss. And we wish we knew where to send to get a shoe-box full of holly and mistletoe for our own Christmas decorations. How much more beautiful it would be away out here in the Panhandle than red tissue paper shipped in from some foreign land or strings of cranberries from Wisconsin that do not bring a thought of the sunny, summer land of our own Texas to the snowy, Winter land of our own Texas. Boys, here is a chance for you to work up a Christmas business all your own, while the Panhandle boys might make their Christmas money getting Christmas trees out of the canyons for many homes in our part of the country. Of course, somebody will have something to say about CONSERVING the young cedar trees. But we are in favor of conserving the memories of HOME and the CHILDREN clustered that bright little tree on Christmas morning. The children, so reared, will do more to save our country when they grow up than the tree would.

And then boys, try to find something extra to do Saturdays this month, like picking cotton or oranges or shoveling snow as the needs may be in your part of the country. Clean up the garden for the Winter rains or give the hen house a good cleaning or chop some extra wood or do something to earn your own Christmas money.

And GIRLS, how many of you made things for bazaars and for various sales for church funds and school funds and a hundred other things. Now we want to suggest that the girls in every school district have a bazaar of your own. Let the boys in on it if they have something to sell. Have it at your school house. And invite everybody from the whole community and the city and the towns if you live near one to come to YOUR sale. Then just see how many things you can have at that bazaar that everybody needs to get ready for Christmas. Things that you have made and had rather have the cash to exchange for other things. Fresh eggs, butter, dressed chicken, cakes, pop corn, peanuts, and pecans and home made candies. Jars of jelly and preserved potted plants from your yard. There are so many things you can find around your home that somebody needs. Have a called meeting at recess at school and get your thinkers to work and see what you can do. And then when an article of any kind is sold let the money paid for it go to the boy or girl to whom it belonged. Just have a sale for yourselves for a change and see how interesting it will be.

And once upon a time we knew a group of little girls who lived in the country who had a market for three Saturdays before Christmas in one of the stores in town and everything they brought to that market was sold and the money returned to the girl who brought it. Did it pay for the trouble? Some of these girls made as much as $10 for their Christmas money with the market and most of it was spent in the store that gave them a place for their business. The canning club girls should have a lot of things to exchange for Christmas money and when we have sewing in every rural school, then the girls will make hundreds of articles for their own Christmas Bazaar. But this year lets do our best with what we have.

You will get a lot of fun out of making your own money. You will get more out of spending it and you will get the most fun from having your own gifts to GIVE that you have earned yourself, for there is no greater joy in life than the joy that comes by making others happy. And now let's set a goal to reach.

We are hoping that at least 1000 Texas boys and girls who read this will plan a way to make from $1.00 to $5.00 for their Christmas money and more if you can. And when it comes to spending it, if it is not too much trouble, we want you to spend the last cent of your fund for a plain post card and send it to us (Claude, Texas, telling us how much you made and how you made it. And in this way we might all together help another thousand boys and girls next year, to have a happier Christmas. Will you do it? Are you ready?

JOSHES TOWN IN ANOTHER STATE

A clerk in a enterville (la.) shoe store, whose head was almost bald, was trying on a pair for one of the female species. She was paying more attention to those around her than she was to her foot. When she happened to look down she spied the clerk's bald head and thinking it was her bare knee she quickly gathered her skirt and covered it. Timely assistance on the part of fellow clerks saved the bald one from suffocation. —Greencastle (Mo.) Journal.

"Cheap" Insurance

Cheapness is relative. Adulterated food, even if bought at a "bargain," may impair health. Inferior medicine, irrespective of the price, is a poor investment. Insurance which does not insure is one of the most costly things on earth, though its promoters claim to sell it "at cost". Stock insurance may be more expensive to buy but it is much cheaper to hold. Mushrooms are good to eat while toadstools are poisonous, yet they look so much alike that it takes an expert to tell the difference.

STOCK INSURANCE IS THE ONLY SOUND INSURANCE. I SELL NO OTHER KIND.

Dependable and Durable

The Oliver Nos. 16 and 17 listers have proved by years of field performance that they are dependable and durable and that they completely meet the requirements of the farmer who needs a one row lister.

The Oliver Nos. 16 and 17 are two wheel listers equipped to plant corn, cotton, peanuts and other row crops. True running bottoms characterize these Oliver listers insuring smooth and even furrows. The frame is sufficiently strong to withstand all stresses to which a lister is subjected.

Accuracy of planting is obtained by use of a seeding attachment that will not skip or bunch the seed. The seeding mechanism is driven by a chain operating from the main axle.

Dependable, accurate listing is assured with Oliver equipment.

There is No "Water" in Santa Fe Stock

President Storey issues another Statement, of Interest to Santa Fe Patrons

The charge is still made that the railroads are asking returns on "watered stock."

Congress undertook to ascertain the facts through the Valuation Act, which was introduced by Senator LaFollette. The Interstate Commerce Commission has been conducting this valuation for nine years, and the following elements are considered: Cost of reproduction in the years 1913 to 1916, cost of reproduction less depreciation, original cost, other values and elements of value. Stocks and bonds or earning capacity have not been considered.

From all the data available the Interstate Commerce Commission has found—

Valuation of all the railroads in 1920. $18,900,000,000
Net capitalization of all the railroads
December 31, 1919. 16,939,515,522
Value above capitalization. $ 1,960,484,478

Otherwise stated, the value of the railroads is TWO BILLION DOLLARS in excess of the net face of all stocks and bonds. If present day unit prices had been used, the excess would be far greater.

This should dispose of the question of "watered stocks."

But recently reference has been made to the "valuation that the railroads have succeeded in putting over on the Interstate Commerce Commission." The valuation work on the Santa Fe is nearly completed and we know that we have not "put anything over" on the Interstate Commerce Commission. On the contrary, we believe that the Interstate Commerce Commission has been over-strict in its rules and methods of valuation, and that as a consequence it has greatly undervalued our railroad.

When the work is completed, no "water" will be found in Santa Fe stock.

W. B. STOREY, President,
The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway System.

THE LOWER THE PRICES OF FARM PRODUCTS—THE GREATER THE NEED FOR REDUCING COST OF PRODUCING THEM. THIS IS A SELF-EVIDENT FACT. AND IT IS FOR THIS REASON YOU NEED THE CULTI-PACKER NOW MORE THAN EVER BEFORE. THE DUNHAM CULTI-PACKER MAKES PROFITS MORE CERTAIN IN TWO DISTINCT WAYS. FIRST, IT GREATLY REDUCES THE COST OF PREPARING THE SEED BED WHICH HAS ALWAYS BEEN A BIG FACTOR IN THE TOTAL COST OF GROWING CROPS. AND SECOND, IT HAS BEEN PROVED BEYOND DOUBT BY CULTI-PACKER USERS IN THIS LOCALITY THAT CULTI-PACKING GROWING CROPS ALWAYS SHOW A MARKED INCREASE IN THE YIELD PER ACRE. NO FARMER IS PROPERLY EQUIPPED FOR LOW-COST PRODUCTION OR FOR MAXIMUM YIELD IF HE DOES NOT USE A CULTI-PACKER. THERE ARE TIMES WHEN A DUNHAM CULTI-PACKER MAY EASILY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A FAIR PROFIT OR NO PROFIT AT ALL.

COME IN AND LET US SHOW YOU WHY THE DUNHAM CULTI-PACKER IS SO ESSENTIAL NOT ONLY ON SEED BED WORK, BUT FOR CULTIVATING SUCH CROPS AS WHEAT, OATS, WHICH CANNOT BE SUCCESSFULLY CULTIVATED WITH ANY OTHER MACHINE.
