VOL. 3, NO. 1.

With this issue, the Lynn County News begins on Volume 3, or in other words the second volume under the present management.

When we resurrected and started the News again, some said we would either sell out or just quit, before the year was out and many showed their distrust by only subscribing for three, or six months at a time; however, nearly every one has since shown their confidence by renewing for a year and many have encouraged us by sending one or more subscriptions to friends or relatives who are interested in this country or whom they wish to interest here. Understand we don't take all the credit to ourselves by any means for we realize that we have done many things we should not have done, and left undone many things that we should have done. Another thing that has enabled us to continue publishing the News has been the universal patronage that our Job Work department has received from all the citizens of Lynn county who have had any work done during the past year. We wish to thank our many friends for their support, encouragement and forbearance during the past year and to assure them that we will furnish them a better news service and a more prompt delivery both in the newspaper and job work, and we will enlarge the paper just as soon as the business will justify us to do so. We have added three new fonts of type to our job type and we have a large and complete stock of paper on hand with more coming.

A Painful Accident.

Sunday morning Mr. Coughran happened to a very painful accident. While working with some mules in the lot one of the mules pulled back and a half hitch in the rope caught Mr. Coughran around his middle finger on his right hand and pulled it off at the first joint. Dr. McCoy was sent for and found that it was impossible to save the first joint of his finger as it was hanging only by a small strip of muscle, so he cut it off and dressed his finger and beyond the painfulness of it he is but little the worse for the experience.

Wilkison, was because there was a strip of the Lynn County News in the sweat band with that address on it." It proved Mr. Thomas to have Mr. Wilkison a subscriber of the News, how much more will it pay him when he becomes one himself.
