DEADLY WEAPON OF SAVAGES

African Tribes Use Poisoned Arrows Which Inflict Death That Is Instantaneous.

The most effective weapon of the Masai and Andorobo is the arrow which they poison with the Accanthera schimperi, a small tree, accordbulletin. They boil the leaves and branches until the mixture becomes thick and pitch-like in appearance, and place it on sheets of bark which they hide high on the branches of trees away from children until it is needed. When an animal is shot with an arrow dipped in the poison it dies almost immediately. The natives cut out the flesh around the wound as soon as possible and throw it away. The remainder is eaten and the blood is drunk. This love of blood as an article of food is common among many African tribes, several of them going so far as to hot or mix it with their porridge.

Treatment of Children's Colds

The fact that the child is taking cold or has developed one is in itself cause for alarm. It is proof that the organs of the human body are not functioning.

First a purgative; castor oil or a laxative advised by the doctor.

Put the child to bed and use Nash's Salve as for croup. Carefully apply wet, hot towels for possibly five minutes to throat and chest to open the pores. Then follow with Nash's Salve thickly. Cover this with warm white flannel and arrange bed clothes in a sort of a tunnel around neck to allow vapors to be breathed freely. Don't forget to apply a little of the salve up each nostril.

Morning will find the cold completely broken and the child in usual spirits. Convalescense will follow quickly and naturally. The same treatment is equally effective for adults.

It is a common thing to hear a man say after a violent sneeze, "I have taken cold." This is not so. He is taking cold.
