Mr. Johnson and family spent several days with Mrs. Doak the latter part of the week.

Oh, mother, dear mother come home from the rink.

Poor father is waiting to dine. You said you would skate for a very short time.

But mother 'tis now nearly nine.

Poor father's had nothing to eat.

His hunger he cannot control.

He's boiling the biscuit and baking the tea.

And kneading some dough with a pole.

Oh, mother, dear mother pray do come home.

The baby's been howling all day.

The neighbors have sent for the police patrol.

To take the whole family away.

Oh, mother dear mother please take off those skates. Poor father has sent me to roam.

HERE TOO.

Judd Lewis says his only wish is just to sit and fish and fish. Too bad he's got to roam. A writin' for the Houston Post. If Judd will come to Lincoln quick. He'll find another fellow sick. To hear the singing line go 'swish'.

While doin' nothin' else but fish. So come up, Judd. I've got the bait. 'Twas dug in 1868—

And 'neath the fair Nebraska sky We'll "tamper" with some "Prifles;" you and I.

—Bryans' Commoner.

Oh, Will! Oh, Will!

A tinkling rill.

And you there, would be great!

And it would be

A joy to me

To mingle with that bait!

For I was born One autumn morn And felt my mother's hug.

And father's kiss.

The year, you wis,

On which that bait was dug.

So with my eyes

Turned to the skies,

I'd love to sit with you.

And fish our fish!

Where willows grow!

And gurgles just a few.

Mrs. Swan entertained the little folks at a party last Friday evening.

Mr. Weathers was unfortunate in the loss of his handsome black buggy horse last week.

Cotton of Garza brought a fine load of melons to Tahoka Wednesday. We have been feasting on melons for two or three weeks.

$2.50 reward for the return of a small Red Poll cow branded C on left side of neck and unmarked. When last heard from was with Dr. Windham's cattle on the Bartley place east of town. H. C. Crie Tahoka, Texas.

We hear that the material for the Gail gin is all on the ground and the construction work will begin soon. Gail says she will have her gin running first and will put out the first bale of cotton. She may do that but we will see who puts out the greatest number.

The Lynn County Bank building is finished except for the papering, and the work is a credit to the carpenters and the town. Nicely finished buildings help out in the upbuilding of a town and county, and Tahoka is filling up rapidly with well built, nicely papered and neatly painted houses.

A Very Sad, Sad Story.

With this issue I will discontinue the publication of the Enterprise. I feel that the circumstances surrounding the situation fully justifies me in this determination. I have given the people of Goree a newspaper for more than three months at a clear loss to me of more than $100 and a further loss I am unable to stand. While the paper has not been up to the standard which I would have desired to make it, I did the best I could under existing circumstances. I have no reflections to cast on any one and have the kindest feeling towards those who gave the paper their patronage and hope the time will come when they will find someone who will publish them a paper under more favorable circumstances. There have been a few subscriptions paid for the paper. These I will refund as soon as I get the books and ascertain the amount of each one.

'Twas Ever Thus.

We sympathize with Bro. Bigger and regret to lose his bright little paper from our exchange list. Yet it is the logical result of trying to run a paper too big for the size of the town. Had the Enterprise been a 5 column 4 page 5 column all home print paper instead of twice that size and half patent, it might have pulled through. The paper was simply too big for the town and so it (the paper of course) went busted for lack of finance.

Found!—A good mans coat six miles east of town owner can get coat by paying two bits for notice

Mrs. Jim. Cowan returned from Erath Thursday where she has been visiting relatives and friends for sometime. Miss Margurite Cowan of Colorado returned with her and will spend some weeks in Lynn County.

The only pills that are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction to every body or money refunded. Only 25c at Tahoka drug store.

Many men who pride themselves on the care they take of their families feel that in permitting their wives to "run bills" at certain stores, they have done all that is necessary. But a store account is not cash; it is not negotiable, you cannot buy tickets for a concert and have them charged on the coal bill or an extra trolley ride with children on a dry-goods store account. Some women rather than submit to the humiliation of "asking for money" from their husbands, do without little things that would add greatly to their happiness. Others, after studying their husbands moods, as a mariner watches the weather, by policy, flattery, wheedling, or other artifice, secure as a concession what should be given them as a right. Others stint on the house-keeping money, save at the expense of their own energy, health or strength in order to get a little money of their own.—The Delineator.

I'd be a country editor, and chase around for news before I'd be a millionaire, with wealth I'd be a country editor, and could not use. I'd rather be a printer with patches on my breeches, than be master of finance with my thoughts of riches. I'd rather eat my modest meals, digest the same with ease, than sit down to a royal feast with appetite like John D's. To romp and frolic with my kids around our cheerful hearth with their mother for the audience, to help enjoy the mirth, is better than to move in high society where dress and jewels, false display make life a mockery. It is true the printer's cash get short and duns come in a hurry, but the happy fellow does not fret, he lets the dinner worry. He always has conscience clear, a disposition sunny. He knows that life has other joys, beside the chase for money.
