TRADES DAY LOOMS UP ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED

FINISHING TOUCHES HAVE BEEN GIVEN THE PROGRAM FREE FOR ALL AUTO RACE TO FURNISH THRILLS FOR THE BIG CROWDS EXPECTED THAT DAY. FOUR-MILERS SHOW SPEED

Tahoka's Trades Day, to be held the Second Monday in May, same being the 12th day of the month, looms up like a count-down, and it is the intention of merchants and business men, progressive citizens to make it a bigger and brighter each year than the preceding Second Monday. The Second Monday Trades Day is to be a fixed institution in Tahoka from now on. Those who are not here May 12th will be guilty of being absent from Tahoka on another Second Monday Trades Day. There is a farmer in Lynn county who can not compete for one or more of the many prizes offered for the day. The are competitors to cover every branch, dairy and ranching and some of the prizes are: best team, bull, best ten twenty heads etc. Full list next week's issue.

have put on for that day, getting the price of goods in half, others discount on every one of these bargains will be made in next weeks issue. And every bargain is worth the trip to town. The two issues of The News May 2nd and 9th will have the main details of the Trades Day, and we expect them to fill at least two pages, or more if we can squeeze out time enough to set the matter and print them. If you don't get one of these papers read it carefully you will be a loser by considerably more than several times the price of the paper.

Tahoka has grown steadily every since its birth, something over ten years ago. At times during its existence it has slowed down until its growth was barely perceptible; at such time a few mossbacks and knockers would spring up and one might see the dim image of the first and here the incessant knock of the latter, but things have changed. If the year '13 is unlucky for some parts of the country, it is exceptionally favorable to Lynn county. Tahoka is rising again and she is gathering momentum as she goes, and not only is Tahoka moving, but Lynn county and the whole South Plains. The mossback can not be seen nor can the ring of the knocker's hammer be heard on the streets of Tahoka. The motto of Tahoka is "progress" and the counter-slogan is "Tahoka—a City".

With such conditions as these existing it can plainly be seen that the time is ripe for a trades day and that it is a foregone conclusion that it will be a success. The merchants of Tahoka want to enlarge our already large trade territory and by their actions, in doing their utmost to make the Tahoka Second Monday Trades Day a success and a permanent institution of the town, they prove themselves firm believers in the axiom: "What's worth having is worth going after."

tions between themselves and the people, and between the people and their neighbors; our merchants have not lost sight of the fact that "all business and no pleasure makes a dull day." One chief event that was added to the amusement part of the day was a free for all auto race. Bob Majors, the progressive proprietor of The Tahoka Machine Shop, suggested the event to Manager P. Miller and informed him that he would see to having a track laid off and securing a purse large enough to make it interesting to car owners. His latest report was to the effect that he was succeeding beyond his most sanguine expectations; that he had secured land for the track and would be in a position to offer in the list of events a purse that will bring cars from neighboring counties. While we have no Dare Devil Dicks or Dans the Demon here, we have some car owners who are not afraid to "pull them open" and we predict that who ever wins this purse will earn his money. For particulars as to entrance etc., call on or address Bob Majors, Tahoka, Texas.

The four-mile boys have shown considerable form since they commenced working out. Saturday evening of last week the boys met down town and decided to run a mile heat for the amusement of the the visitors and for what practice they could get out of it. The boys lined up at the corner of the court yard on the north street and trotted west to Dr. S. H. Windhams residence where they turned and came back the same street, finishing at the starting line. The boys started on the jump at a good swinging trot which they held steady for the first lap with a slight distance between the runners which varied at times as first one and another struck a bad stretch of road giving first one and then another the lead. Several dropped out soon after the start. Those who finished the first lap were: Joe Barnes, Raymond Weather, O. F. Crouch, Omer Vinson, Urban Coughran, James Crie and Ross Ketner, turning in the order named. On the home lap Barnes and Weathers took the lead, followed close by Crouch; Vinson, Crie, Coughran and Ketner followed Crouch by from ten to twenty yards, which positions were held by the runner to within 200 yards of the finish, where Coughran and Ketner dropped out. From here in the struggle was between Barnes and Weathers for first place; Crouch, Vinson and Crie battling for third place with Crouch leading by ten paces. Within a hundred yards of the line every man jumped forward and put on his last bit of reserve speed. Weathers passed Barnes, who was leading, and finished first by ten paces; Vinson and Crie evened with Crouch, then Vinson took the lead, Crie dropped back and they finished in the order named: Vinson third, Crouch fourth, and Crie fifth. The winners finished in 5 1/2 minutes, the last man in 5 3/4.

Monday night the word came to Tahoka that Uncle Dan McDonald, of the Pride community, was dying at the hotel in O'Donnell. Geo. Small, Jr. took John Burleson, of Lamesa, who was up here at the bedside of his sister-in-law Mrs. J. B. Burleson, down to O'Donnell in his auto. When Mr. Small left Uncle Dan was resting easy and was instructing Mr. Burleson how to settle up his affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Samford, of the T-Bar ranche, returned on the Tuesday morning train from Lamesa. They went down Saturday to visit friends in Dawson and Borden counties. Mr. Samford in speaking of the trip to the News man said he could hardly spare the time for the trip, but Mrs. Samford wished to visit their friend Mrs. Gray, of the Cross Bar C. ranch, whose husband died a few months ago and who is going to move away shortly.

Only a few of the Jap Art Squares 9x12 left—$3.00 each.—The Fair. 33-11

W. J. Crouch called at the Tahoka printing office Wednesday afternoon and gave us an order for 500 note heads and 250 envelopes printed for the V Bar Ranch. W. J. Crouch & Sons, Proprietors. A. L. Lockwood, Breeder of Full Blooded Hereford Cattle, has also placed an order with us for 500 note heads. Mr. Lockwood has used News stationery for several years and expresses himself a highly gratified with results obtained by it. The farmer who uses printed stationery is looked upon as the successful farmer and if there is any thing good coming it comes his way.

W. G. Sidwell, of St. Clairsville, Ohio, left for his home on the Tuesday morning train. Mr. Sidwell is a real estate agent and was down here looking at the country. He told the representative of The News that he is going to bring down a party of Ohio home seekers in the near future with every expectation of settling them in Lynn county. Mr. Sidwell was out in Western Kansas when that country was in the state of development our country is in at this time and he said land that could have been bought at from six to twelve dollars is now selling for one hundred dollars per acre. He said Lynn county will advance in the same way, "in fact" he said "Lynn county has better soil than Kansas."

Silos--Don't That Interest You--Silos

Thousands were built last year and no man who has one would do without it.

If you buy a manufactured silo, I know how to erect it. If you decide on a homo built one, I know how to build it.

S. S. RAMSEY.

J. W. Luttrell, of 12 miles south of Tahoka, came in on the Monday evening train from a visit to relatives in Coke county.

The Ohio General Assembly has passed a law requiring every person having an orchard of ten or more fruit trees to spray the orchard sometime between the first of November and the last of April each year or pay a fine of from $25 to $100.

NOTICE.—No hunting allowed with guns or dogs in the Brownfield ranch. 11-11
RAY BROWNFIELD.

J. H. Franklin, of 17 miles south-east of Tahoka, came to town with D. H. Bass and family Tuesday. Mr. Franklin had H. C. Crie & Co., the Tahoko printers, to put up some dodgers for him advertising his fine station. He says he will have this horse in Tahoka the second Monday in May if nothing happens to prevent. When we told Mr. Franklin about our trades day, he said "put me down on your subscription list for six months, I must keep posted about things this summer anyway."

The Industrial Congress, of Dallas, has only three entries from Lynn county, all of whom have entered the class "D," for unirrigated forage crops as follows: J. O. King, Jno. T. Curb, all having Tahoka as their post-office. Perhaps none of these men will be able to pull down a prize this year, but they will all receive considerable helpful literature on growing good crops that will more than pay them for their extra trouble to say nothing of the increased yield they will get from the crops themselves. We wish more of our farmers had seen fit to enter this contest as it is not only of great educational value to the farmers themselves but is also of benefit to the entire county through the publicity received.

LYNN COUNTY GETS GOOD RAIN--FARMERS OPTOMISTIC

DURING THE WEEK OF APRIL 21ST LYNN COUNTY IS WATERED FROM END TO END BY TWO INCH RAIN. PLENTY MOISTURE FALLEN TO MAKE SILAGE SAYS PROGRESSIVE FARMER

Beginning Monday morning about five o'clock it rained gently but steadily until about nine a. m., at which time, something over one-half an inch of rain had fallen. Monday night, Tuesday and Wednesday at different time received several showers of from a quarter of an inch of precipitation to a mere sprinkle, until Wednesday evening the rain gauge registered one and one-half inches of rain. The rain was brought to an end and the clouds driven away by a norther which blew up about six p. m. Wednesday.

The rain was probably lighter in town than any other part of the county. We have heard from practically every part of the county and the reports give from one and a half to two inches of rain. Some localities reported two inches of rain up to Tuesday noon, and as several light showers passed over those sections Tuesday night and Wednesday, we believe they received enough rainfall to bring the general average for the county up to two inches.

This rain is of inestimable value to Lynn county. It was not only a slow rain, but it did not long enough at a time for the water to run. Only in the roads did the water collect in puddles.

UNCLE DAN McDONALD DEAD

Uncle Dan McDonald died at O'Donnell about midnight Monday night April the 21st, after an illness of only a few days duration. Uncle Dan was well known to many of our readers, he having been in the butcher business for several months at one time.

Don't worry about those clothes of yours that needs cleaning and pressing. Let Vinson do it. Phone 62. 33-36

Barbecue, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at the Cash Meat Market. 31-11

We have just received and placed upon our shelves one of the best and most complete line of up-to-date dry goods ever brought to Lynn county. And before putting these new goods upon our shelves we carefully marked them DOWN. So you can get very highest quality of goods at the lowest possible price if you trade with J. B. Keever, the north side dry goods and grocery merchant. 34-11

Stanton held a Trades Day last Saturday the 19th, which was the day the Dallas Chamber of Commerce stopped there. The merchants all advertised bargains and all had a big time.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the extreme kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother. Our neighbors were especially kind and attentive and saw that our dear one lacked for nothing that loving hearts could devise and tender hands perform. May Heavens richest blessings rest upon them is our prayer.

J. B. BURLESON,
LAURA BELLE BURLESON.

As a consequence of this slowness, every drop that fell soaked in where it struck and the earth is wet down nearly two feet.

One progressive farmer talking of the rain said, "We have had enough rain all ready to make silage and it is my opinion that there will be several built in Lynn county this year, especially if we get a few more rains like this soon."

If a farmer doesn't intend to plant immediately, he should take a harrow and go over his field as soon as it is dry enough to get into it with a team. This treatment will prevent evaporation and hold the moisture in the ground until he is ready to plant, thus giving him a moist seed bed and assuring him a good stand.

All the farmers, to which we have talked since the rain, are very optimistic. They say that with the exception of a few places it had not been to dry to plow and nearly every one was through plowing and this rain just before planting time put Lynn county in prime condition for a good crop. Their advice to those of their friends back east, who are dissatisfied with their present condition, to "keep their eye peeled" on Lynn county. She's after "a bunch of blue ribbon" this year.

Mrs. J. B. Burleson

After a protracted illness of several weeks duration Mrs. J. B. Burleson answered the call of the Death Angel Thursday April the 24th at two o'clock in the afternoon at her home on Porterfield street. Every that skill and loving hearts could do was done to prolong her life but to no avail.

The burrial took place at the Tahoka cemetery Friday afternoon at two o'clock; Rev. J. P. Callaway officiating.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

We will give the obituary next week.

Must Register Brand

In his charge to the grand jury at Seminole, District Judge Spencer called their attention to a law that he said is commonly violated. "It is a violation of the law," Judge Spencer stated, "for any person to run a brand that is not properly recorded. It makes no difference if a person is the owner of one or a thousand cows, his brand must be recorded." He served fair warning that at the next term of court all violators of this law will be vigorously prosecuted. A violation of this law is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500. Better look after things in Lynn county also; it would hardly pay for a man having a brand and only one milk cow to have to pay a hundred dollar fine.

W. S. Swan, the North Tahoka truck farmer, says he had no idea grape vines grew as fast as they do in this country. He tied a string around a grape vine one day and went back four days later and the vine had grown twelve inches in that time. Grapes are perhaps the surest crop that can be grown in Lynn county.

T. C. Leedy presented The News man with a fine mess of fresh, home grown asparagus Monday that was extra large and fine. A bed of one or two hundred asparagus roots well set out will give an ordinary family many good meals each spring, and well cared for will be productive for several years.

If there is one thing that looks nicer than a cherry tree in full bloom, it is two cherry trees when covered with blooms, and our neighbor, G. W. Snider had several beauties this year in the fine young orchard at his residence in the east part of town. Mr. Leedy, of the Tahoka Nursery, tells us that he will likely have cherries by the bushel to sell this year.

Investigation that one female fly will produce half a ton of offspring in two months, says an exchange. This is a whole lot of flies, and if the figures are anywhere near correct, one female fly killed now will do more good than 12,000,000 killed two months from now. Let's get busy and kill them now while it pays to count them, for two months from now what will be the use in keeping count of a million flies more or less than we kill. Swat the fly at 12,000,000 flies per swat.

The Lockney had the following to say about their first Saturday trades day:

Saturday's Trade's Day in Lockney was a success in every particular. The crowd was large and the entries for prizes were numerous. The program was carried out as published in the Beacon, and prizes were awarded as advertised.

There was more good stock exhibited here on this occasion than ever seen together in Floyd county. The poultry exhibit was exceptionally fine, and embraced every strain raised on the Plains.

Next month The News expects to say as much and more about our Second Monday Trades Day which we will hold in Tahoka on the 12th day of May.

Since hiring a man to look after the court house and grounds, not only the trees are kept in order, but the ground looks clean and smooth, the fence is kept up, the windmills are kept in repair and running, the troughs are kept clean and sweet; in fact the whole place looks like it's found instead of lost. The Commissioners know we have the prettiest court yard on the Plains, and aim to keep it thus.—Terry County Herald.

Terry has a beautiful court yard and it is work and care that has made so. However, there are other counties on the Plains that are beautifying their court yards. Several counties on the Plains have secured the services of an expert landscape gardener; Dimmit county paying him $212 to put their court yard in proper shape. This appeals to us as a splendid proposition. If the Commissioners will only have a concrete gutter and curb and a good iron fence put around our court yard this spring we won't have to take a back seat for any one. Mr. and Mrs. citizen it is up to you; if you favor such action on the part of our Commissioners, speak to them about it and it will be done.

A gambling bill has been passed by the Oklahoma legislature and signed by the governor that will become operative 90 days after the legislature adjourns. The bill makes the person running a gambling house subject on conviction to a fine of from $500 to $1,000 and from one to five years in the penitentiary. Throwing dice for the cigars has a maximum penalty of $100 fine and thirty days in jail. New Mexico has just passed a similar law that goes even further and puts all manner of punch boards under the ban.

SHE HAS A GRIEVANCE

By MARY BAILEY.

"Wouldn't I like to get my hands on that landlord, though!" ejaculated Mrs. Regan, with deep yearning. She stood conversing across the low railing that divided her back porch from the next one in the Garibaldi flats. "Wouldn't I, just! Him talking so smooth and pleasant and nodding his head: 'Yes, Mrs. Regan.' Certainly, Mrs. Regan!" as though his mouth was full of butter!

"I was just going through the basement of the laundry, when I saw him talking to the janitor and the janitor a-calling him Mr. Phelps as polite as could be. It flashed over me here was my chance.

"I went right up to him when I heard the name. 'Are you the Mr. Phelps that owns the building?' says I. 'Are you the landlord?' 'Yes, madam,' says he, kind of startled like. 'Mr. Kelly, the agent being sick, I thought I'd come around myself and have a look at things.' 'Well,' says I, 'I'm glad to have a few words with you. Not wanting to say anything against any one when he's not here, I won't tell you how that man Kelly has deceived and brow-beaten me and said 'yes' and acted 'no' to a few simple little requests I had to make. If that man Kelly was to be asked his own name point blank he'd say it was Jones just because he hates to tell the truth!

"Look at my gas stove!" I says. 'No,' I says impatient, for Mr. Phelps looked around the basement kind of wild, as though he expected to see the stove there among the laundry tubs. 'It ain't here, but I'll be glad to show it to you! Here am I, working myself to skin and bone trying to keep the nickel on that stove bright and it looks like old junk.' And he up and says he won't furnish a new one because this was new last year. And me asking him polite and gentle for new shelves in the pantry every time I've laid eyes on him, and him saying he'd see about it and he hasn't! These shelves are two inches too wide for any shelf paper and I'm a neat woman and I don't like dust over next the wall, even if it doesn't show!

"Now, I put it to you, Mr. Phelps, I says, 'Is that any way to treat a tenant as pays prompt each month?' "No, no, indeed!" Mr. Phelps answered, breathless like. "If you'll excuse me—"

"Just a minute," I says, taking him by the arm. "While you're here I want you to come upstairs and look at the wall paper in my parlor. I've had Mr. Kelly look at it every time I've seen him and he's agreed that I should have it done over and then he doesn't do it! Of course, I picked it out when I came in and that was all right, but how did I know my daughter Mamie was going to get a craze to have her hair dyed that reddish tint? You can see for yourself, Mr. Phelps, how red her hair won't go at all with this pinkish paper. Mamie has an artistic temperament and she says every time she has to come into this room it makes her feel faint and she is neglecting her piano practice something shocking just because she can't stand her hair next to this paper.

"Henry Dilbeck, the plumber around the corner, I says, 'is paying particular attention to Mamie and, goodness knows, she may lose him, feeling so awful about the paper and not being able to concentrate her attention on him as she ought, men being so keen on being made a fuss over!' Any man with a heart, Mr. Phelps, I says, 'would feel sorry for Mamie and not let the price of a few rolls of paper spoil her life, poor girl! Though I don't see why she picked out that shade of red for her hair, even if it is stylish. When will you send the paperhangers, Mr. Phelps?"

"He said at once that he'd see and started to go, but I stopped him. I said that besides the gas stove and the paper and the pantry shelves I wanted the floors done over and new window shades and new gas fixtures in the dining room like they have at Mrs. Casey's in the next street, and that there ought to be a new carpet down the front stairs. All he did was and said say 'yes' and agree with me and I told him that he was a gentleman with sense and Kelly might well take a lesson from him.

"When I was opening a closet door to show him where I needed new books he opened the front door and slid out.

"I waited and waited a week for the paperhangers and the new stove and things and nothing happened, and then I looked in the telephone book and called up Mr. Phelps' office. No dealing with that Kelly for me when I can get the owner!

Joe Lowe and Joe Hickerson visited relatives at Tohoka Sunday.

Miss Inez Porter of Tohoka is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. S. W. Joplin.

BRAVER.

The question has been asked why the claim is made that the Alamo Heroes Monument, which will be erected 802 feet in height, will be the highest building in the world, when it is known that the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France, is 985 ft. high. The answer is that the Eiffel Tower is merely an iron framework, or skeleton tower within which elevators are operated to carry passengers to and from the various landings up to the top, and the Alamo Heroes Monument will be an actual building, containing upwards of 300 rooms, several immense auditoriums, art galleries and museums, and it will be several hundred feet higher than the highest building now in existence. The Eiffel Tower cost about $1,000,000; the Alamo Heroes Monument will cost $2,000,000 and will represent the highest development of engineering skill. It will be a new world wonder and nothing could more forcefully depict the appreciation of loyal Texans for the men who died in the Alamo.

This week Wm. McGehee closed a deal with the McClure Silo Co., of Fort Worth for four 275 ton, California Red Wood silos, to be shipped this summer. Mr. McGehee will build these silos on his place near town, and will raise his own silage.

Mr. McGehee is the first man in the Lockney country to go into the silo business, as he was the first to test out the irrigation proposition. We feel confident that this initial purchase of silos means a great deal for the Lockney country, and will induce others to buy silos, and put up their green feed instead of gathering it dry.

There is big money in the silo business in the Lockney country, both to the farmer and to the stock feeder.

Let others investigate the proposition, and get ready to install silos this summer. It will beat irrigation and other methods of farming in this, or any other country. —Lockney Beacon

FARMERS INSTITUTE MEETING RAINED OUT

The meeting of the Lynn County Farmer's Institute and Tahoka Commercial Club that was scheduled for Monday failed to materialize on account of the rainy weather. Several farmers came in town especially for the meeting and were greatly disappointed because so few showed up. The farmers who did come in spite of the weather, were all in favor of meeting on Trades Day; the second Monday in May.

DALLAS BOOSTERS ARRIVE WITH REAL NORTHER

The Dallas boosters have come and gone. They arrived promptly on schedule time; 7:35 p. m. Wednesday the 23rd; however, a very disagreeable norther came in several hours ahead of them and by the time they got here the temperature had dropped to 50 degrees. It being so late when the party arrived only a small crowd was at the depot to meet them and the weather was so cold only fifteen or twenty of the Dallasites even got off the train. Also it seemed to be just at their supper time, and although many of the home folks there without their supper the Dallas crowd were, many of them, too busy eating to spare any time visiting; in fact one plump brother must have eaten at least a six or seven course dinner, for he was getting well interested when the train arrived and had barely finished when they left.

We could not help but notice the difference between this Dallas bunch and the Fort Worth bunch last spring. The weather was identical, but the Panthers were fullblooded sports. They all marched down town and got acquainted with our merchants, and turned considerable trade their way.

As far as trade relations with Tahoka go, the Dallas Chamber of Commerce might just as well spent Wednesday night at Slaton or done as they did Thursday morning, go through without stopping.

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourne, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution Authorizing the Issuance of Bonds for the Purpose of the Construction of the Necessary Buildings for the University of Texas and also for Buildings of Various Institutions, and Authorizing Improvement Bonds for the Purpose of Navigation, Irrigation, Construction of Bridges and the Maintenance and Operation of Public Warehouses.

(S. J. R. No. 18.) SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION.

To be entitled A Joint Resolution proposing and submitting to a vote of the people of Texas an amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds and the levying of a tax to pay the interest and sinking fund on same for public improvements.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows, to-wit:

Section 49. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repel invasion, suppress insurrection and defend the State in war or pay existing debts, and no debt created to supply deficiencies in current revenues shall ever exceed in the aggregate at any one time five hundred thousand dollars. The Legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds to be approved by the Governor for the purpose of purchasing additional ground and erect necessary buildings for the University of Texas, including a medical department, an Agricultural and Mechanical College and all departments and activities of a complete university of the first class. The revenue received from the permanent University fund shall be available for the payment of interest on these bonds and for the creation of a sinking fund for their redemption as maturity and the Legislature shall also have power to issue bonds for the construction of necessary buildings for State institutions. The Legislature shall also have the power to authorize the issuance of bonds secured by lien on the real property of the penitentiary system to be approved by the Governor for the purpose of constructing buildings and making permanent improvement.

Section 52. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of or to any individual association or corporation whatsoever or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company; provided, however, that under LEGISLATIVE provisions any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, or any political subdivision of the State or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas and which may or may not include towns, villages or municipal corporations upon a vote of a majority of the resident property tax payers voting thereon, who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be effected thereby in addition to all other debts may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory, except in case of improvement of rivers, creeks, and streams, in building of levees to prevent overflows, in which case the bonded indebtedness may be for an amount not to exceed one-half of the assessed valuation of the lands of the district to be reclaimed; and, except further, that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this Constitution, and levy and collect such taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof as the legislature may authorize and in such manner as it may authorize the same for the following purposes, to-wit:

(a) The improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof or irrigation therefrom or in aid of such purposes.

(b) The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purpose of irrigation, drainage or navigation or in aid thereof.

(c) The construction, maintenance and operation of bridges and macadamized, graveled, sandy clay, clayed sand or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof.

(d) The construction, maintenance and operation of public warehouses or in aid thereof.

SEC. 2. The foregoing amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection at a special election hereby ordered for the third Saturday in July, 1913, the same being the nineteenth day of said month. All voters on this proposed amendment at said election who favor its adoption shall have printed or written on their ballots the following:

For amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for the University of Texas, Agricultural and Mechanical College, State Penitentiary System, and other public improvements and building of warehouses for agricultural products. Those voting against its adoption shall have written or printed on their ballots the following:

Against amendment to Sections 49 and 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for the University of Texas, Agricultural and Mechanical College, State Penitentiary System, and other public improvements and building of warehouses for agricultural products.

Previous to the election the Secretary of State shall cause to be printed and forwarded to the County Judge of each county, for use in said election a sufficient number of ballots for the use of voters in each county on which he shall have printed the form of the ballot herein prescribed, for the convenient use of the voters.

SEC. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue his necessary proclamation ordering this election, and have same published as required by the Constitution and laws of the State. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any fund in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of publishing said proclamation and printing of tickets and necessary blanks to use in said election.

(S. J. R. No. 4.) JOINT RESOLUTION.

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution of this State:

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas, that Section 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 52. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State, to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of or to any individual, association or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company, provided, however, that under legislative provision any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, or any political subdivision of the State, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, and which may or may not include towns, villages, or municipal corporations, upon a vote of a majority of the resident taxpayers voting thereon, who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be effected thereby, in addition to all other debts may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such districts or territory, except that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this Constitution, and levy and collect taxes to pay the interest thereon, and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, as the Legislature may authorize, and in such manner as it may authorize the same, for the following purposes, to-wit:

(a) The improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof, or irrigation thereof, or in aid of such purposes.

(b) The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purposes of irrigation or in aid thereof.

(c) The construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof.

(d) The construction, maintenance and operation of public warehouses for storing, handling, classing, measuring, weighing, elevating and loading agricultural products. Provided the Legislature may establish such means and agencies as may be necessary for accomplishing the purposes of this amendment and if a State warehouse commission be provided for, their term of office shall be fixed by the Legislature.

SEC. 2. The Governor is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for submitting this amendment to the Constitution to the qualified electors of the State of Texas on the third Saturday in July, the same being the 19th day of said month, and the amendments proposed to Section 52 of Article 3, as above indicated, shall be voted upon separately.

Those favoring the amendment to authorize road or other public improvements by a majority vote, shall have written or printed on their ballot: For amendment to authorize road and other public improvements by a vote of a majority, and those opposed to said amendments shall have written or printed on their ballot: Against amendment to authorize road and other public improvements by a vote of a majority.

Those favoring the issuance of bonds for the construction of public warehouses shall have written or printed on their ballot: For the amendment authorizing the issuance of bonds for the construction of public warehouses for agricultural products. Those voting against said amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots: Against the amendment authorizing the issuance of bonds for the construction of public warehouses for agricultural products.

SEC. 3. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay expenses of such publication, proclamation and election.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution Prescribing Qualifications for District Judges of This State and Prescribing Their Tenure of Office.

(S. J. R. No. 11.) A JOINT RESOLUTION.

Amending Section 7, Article 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to the creation and formation of judicial districts, the terms of compensation and qualification of the judges of the district courts, and the times of holding court.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Section 7, Article 5, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 7. The State shall be divided into as many judicial districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. For each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, at a general election, one or more judges, each of whom shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State or a judge of a court in this State for six years next preceding his election; who shall have resided in the district in which he was elected for two years next preceding his election; who shall reside in his district during his term of office; who shall hold his office for a period of four years, and shall receive for his services an annual salary of three thousand dollars, until otherwise changed by law. Court shall be held by a district judge at the county seat in each of the several counties at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall provide for the holding of the district court when the judge thereof is absent, disabled or disqualified from acting. The district judges who may be in office when this amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment.

SEC. 2. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at an election to be held on the 19th day of July, 1913, at which election all voters favoring this amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "For the amendment of Section 7, Article 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to district judges and district courts," and voters opposed to said amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "Against the amendment of Section 7, Article 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to district judges and district courts."

SEC. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to pay expenses for carrying out the provisions of this resolution.

(A true copy.) JOHN L. WORTHAM, Secretary of State.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution Providing All State, District, County and Precinct Officers Within This State Shall be Compensated by the Payment of a Fixed Salary.

(H. J. R. No. 41.) A JOINT RESOLUTION.

Of the Legislature of the State of Texas, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State by adding to Article 16 thereof a new section to be known as Section 58, providing for the tenure and compensation of public officials.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That there be added to Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas a new section to be known as Section 58, which shall read as follows:

Section 58. All State, district, county and precinct officers within the State of Texas shall hereinafter be compensated by the payment of a salary to be fixed or provided for by the Legislature.

SEC. 2. The Governor of this State will, as directed by the Constitution, make publication of this proposed amendment in the manner and for the time as required by the Constitution, the amendment to be voted upon by the qualified electors for members of the Legislature of this State at the general election to be held for State officers on July 19, 1913, the returns of which shall, as provided for in the Constitution, be made to the Secretary of State, the result ascertained and proclamation made as provided for in Section 1 Article 17, of the Constitution. There shall be written or printed on the ballots to be used at such election "for the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution, providing a salary compensation for certain officers and fixing term of office at four years;" and also "against the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution for certain officers and fixing their term of office at four years;" and those favoring the adoption of said amendment shall erase the language "Against the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution, providing a salary compensation for certain officers and fixing their term of office at four years;" by running a pencil or pen through the same, and those opposing the adoption of said amendment shall erase the language "for the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution, providing a salary compensation for certain officers and fixing their term of office at four years by running a pencil or pen through the same."

SEC. 3. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to pay the expenses of carrying out the provisions of this resolution.
