Wilson as Seen By The Scribe

County Judge And The Weilder of the "Mightier than the Sword"
Make Visit to Wilson

The News man in company with County Judge J. L. Stokes, made a business trip to our neighboring town of Wilson; we say "town" advisedly, for while Wilson has only two mercantile buildings and one residence, it does more business than many towns, so called, in Central Texas that have several business houses and forty or fifty residences. Wilson draws its trade from more than half way to Slaton, eleven miles to the north; nearly half way to Tahoka, the same distance to the south; ten miles to the east, and clear from New Mexico, eighty miles west. So while the houses are not very numerous, yet the trade territory is so vast that it does a business many small town might well boast about.

When we arrived in Wilson at 9:50 o'clock we found Mr. Fertsch, manager of the Wilson Lumber Co., busy loading out a wagon with lumber and wind mill material that was going to Knowles, N. M. Mr. Fertsch informed us that it was nothing unusual for them to load out wagons for Terry and Yoakum counties and even across the line into New Mexico. Of course this wagon had to carry more or less of a load of groceries and dry goods also.

Mr. Fertsch being busy, we went over to the Wilson Mercantile Co.'s building, which is on the other side of the railroad from the lumber yard, stopping to chat a few minutes with Mr. and Mrs. Lumsden, who had just returned the day before from quite an extended trip to New Mexico in their auto. The car was not only muddy all over the body but even the top was almost covered with mud. Arriving at the store we met our old friend J. E. Porter, well known as a salesman for the Plainview Nursery, which he still represents. He is also clerking for the Mercantile Co., their business having increased so as to require additional help.

We then made a call at the public school; Miss Emma Nicholson, of Post, teacher. The weather being pleasant and farm work rushing, the majority of the pupils were conspicuous by their absence, only eleven being present, most of them being among the smaller children. This building is one of the best in Lynn county, a bungalow, well built, painted inside and out, having eighteen windows giving excellent light and ventilation, with shades at every window. The desks are all new and of the most approved style and finish. A nice large globe hung from the ceiling and a number of nice lithographs adorned the walls. What took our eye the most of all however was a large sized American flag draped in the north-west corner. We think every American school room should have "Old Glory" conspicuously displayed, or what is better, every school should have a good tall pole and raise the flag each morning and taking it down and into the house each evening. The citizens of Wilson are and they have a right to be, proud of their school building and equipment.

We will say for Miss Nicholson that we have never seen better order maintained in a school room than we witnessed on this occasion. The children as well as the teacher were very quiet and low spoken. Every movement was made with as little noise as possible.

We took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fertsch, who have one of the ideal homes of the Plains, the country of ideal homes. A large, handsomly finished and very comfortably arranged house, with many of the conveniences that go to make a residence a home, presided over by a housewife who is evidently a home builder, and one who has the faculty of making the stranger feel his welcome.

We also met J. F. Standefer and S. W. Joplin and learned that Mr. Joplin had sold a car of maize to Ben King, of Tahoka, to be shipped out this week.

Taking the day all around it was profitably and very pleasantly spent by both the Judge and ourself, and we disembarked from the south bound train at Tahoka well pleased with our trip.

November 5 and 6 Good Roads Days

Governor Sets Above Dates As Time
For All Patriotic Citizens To Lift Texas Out of the Mud

Governor O. B. Colquitt has designated Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 5th and 6th, as "Good Road Days" all over Texas. He very aptly says, "An adequate system of improved public roads is one of the great needs of our state, and good roads lend powerful aid to every thing good in modern life, while bad roads form an obstacle in the path of progress.

This call of the Governor is to every practical citizen of Lynn county, no matter who you are or what you are, if you have one spark of patriotism you will respond to this call, not simply because the governor has issued a call, but because the roads of Lynn county need the work and your livelihood depends on the roads being in good condition. If you can't possibly come and work the road you are most interested in, the proper thing for you to do is to send $5.00 to the commissioner to be applied to the betterment of the road designated by you.

Do you realize that every road in Lynn county is in a wretched condition, that they would be a disgrace to a drouth stricken county, and what do you think of Lynn county, the most prosperous county in Texas this year, having roads that would be disgraceful if we were in a starving condition. There are some who are criticising our county officials for the condition of some of our roads; what does it matter

Death Sentence for Durfee.

Negro is Convicted of Murdering
Mrs. J. M. Seitz in Angleton on July 9th.

Angleton, Texas, Sept. 27.—"Guilty of murder and the death sentence" was the verdict this morning of the jury before which was tried the case of Jim Durfee, negro, charged with the murder of Mrs. J. M. Seitz in this city on July 9th, after trial lasting two days.

The case was given to the jury last night shortly after 11 o'clock with instructions from the judge that no verdict was to be rendered before morning. When court was convened this morning the foreman announced through the sheriff that a verdict was ready. When the jury filed into the court room the large number of spectators present became instantly interested. After the verdict had been read every glance was cast toward the defendant, who maintained a stoisicism that was surprising. The prisoner was taken to jail and will remain there until such time as the judge thinks it advisable to remove him to Houston.

whose fault it is or whether it is any ones fault or not; the thing to do is to remedy the great evil of our bad roads, and is there any way better than the one proposed by the governor? If there is let's hear it. In every county judges, lawyers, doctors, ministers, merchants and men in all the walks of life are pledging themselves to get out and do manual labor on that day. The millionaire and the day laborer will work side by side all over

CAIN-RYMER

When Judge Stokes and The News man boarded the south bound B. W. Special Tuesday evening at Wilson, they were pleased to meet Hon. C. H. Cain and his bride and extend them a welcome to Lynn county and Tahoka.

Hon. C. H. Cain, of Tahoka, Texas, County Attorney for Lynn county and Miss Sue A. Rymer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Rymer, of Traverse, Michigan, formerly of Iradell, Texas, were married in Traverse, October 1st, 1913.

His wedding day was also Mr. Cain's birthday and marked the culmination of a romance begun in Bosque county, Texas, ten years ago.

the state on those two days. Let the men of Lynn county, who consider themselves as such, prove themselves on November 5th and 6th by getting right out in public and doing two good days work once more before you die. There is great need for this work to be done, and to be done now. Let your commissioner know in time, whether you will work or pay, so he can make arrangements to work to the best advantage. Let each commissioner go over each road in his district, see where the work is most needed, and appoint men who know something about working a road and apportion the hands so as to accomplish the greatest amount of good possible.

There is not a single farmer or stockman in Lynn county but what is deeply interested in some public road in the county. Work it and work it on the days set by the governor when your neighbor is working the road he is most vitally interested in. There is not a road entering Tahoka that every man living in the town is not vitally interested in. If you are a business or a professional man you are interested in having roads that are in a condition that will allow business to come to town, the better the roads the more business for the merchant, professional or laboring man. You all know it is so, and know you owe this work to your county, your neighbor and to your self and family.

Therefore let each and every man pledge himself to put in two good days hard work in response to this call of duty and the governor. Let us show the rest of the state that Lynn county has more patriotism to the population than any other county in Texas. Who will be the first to volunteer?

The public schools should all turn out on these days, the merchants should close their doors, for there should be no one to trade with them, the professional man should not even open up on these days, and the entire town and county should get out and put Lynn county roads in such a shape that every one could travel them for a while at least. Let the country men fix the county roads and let the townsmen fix the streets which are in an impassable condition now and are not likely to be much better by that time.

Rev. J. W. Saffle, of Plainview, Financial Agent for Wayland Baptist College, went through Tahoka from Lamesa Tuesday morning.

Call For Volunteers Is Issued

County Judge Raies Standard and Shouts, "Who'll Follow Old
Joe Stokes."

Governor O. B. Colquitt has designated Nov. 5th and 6th as good road days: Believing that the citizens of Lynn county are as patriotic as any citizens in Texas, I appeal to you to join my standard on those days. Of course there will be those who can not possibly get to the roads on those days; then your duty as a good citizen will be to send enough money to pay for to days work. Probably there has not been a greater truth expressed than by our governor when he said "an adequate system of improved public roads lends powerful aid to every thing good in modern life, while bad roads form an obstacle to the path of progress."

In order that we may work with some system and each road get its part of the work needed, I suggest that you inform your commissioner as to what you can do and that he arrange for each squad and will in this case know what is most needed. Let's do this and quit "cussing" the commissioner on account of bad roads and deep lakes and see if our roads are not in better condition after giving them a chance.

This call is to all patriotic citizens of Lynn county no matter if you are a minister or merchant. We need the roads and you need to travel them.

Good roads benefit all alike. They aid the farmer, the merchant, the doctor, the minister, the banker, the real estate man, the professional man.—ALL.

There is probably nothing that means more to Lynn county than good roads. Good roads invite travelers; bad roads disgust them. Bad roads indicate poverty; good roads show prosperity.

All ready, I have my shovel and mattock, where is yours? Let's talk with our commissioner and he'll tell us what to do. LET'S DO IT.

Yours for the best roads on the Plains.

CITY BUILDING NOTES

(By L. M. Ward, President Texas Commercial Builders Association)

Knockers are nothing but pessimic boosters. Every city builder is a master piece of creation. The man who isn't a booster should eradicate himself. Success is achieved only through co-operative efforts.

If you are not a city builder get ready for the dark ages.

A town knocker is a community parasite. Eliminate him. Every morning presents a new opportunity in city building. In city building all things come to him who meets them half way. Boosting costs but very little but it is priceless in its value. No city is financially able to support two commercial organizations. To be a success one must always stand for progress and development.

It is better to have boosted and busted than never to have boosted at all.

Are you patronizing your home factory as you pledged to do before it located in your town?

Charity begins at home. Patronize the home factory before reaching out for new enterprises.

The grouch is out of tune with God and man. The music of prosperity drowns his doleful strains.

The man who is busy building up the commercial fabric of his own city has no time to stop to blow his own horn.

Every citizen, by conforming to the slogan of the commercial organization, can become a booster and a city builder.

When you send out of your home town for an article, you buy without seeing and pay in advance. Live at home.

Great things can be accomplished by united effort. A team that is pulling together is never kicking; the team that is kicking is never pulling.

A HINT TO THE HOUSE WIFE ON AD READING.

(By W. Holt Harris, Chairman Mercantile Committee Commercial Secretaries Association.)

To arouse interest in the advertisements of his publication, an enterprising editor offered a cash prize to anyone finding a typographical error in the ads appearing in his paper. The plan being unique, aroused much interest among the readers, and men, women and children scanned the advertising pages closely for mistakes. The uniqueness of the idea caused comment and presented an opportunity. The editor, like most editors do, grasped the opportunity. An advertising campaign was inaugurated and every merchant in town was solicited for space and few refused.

Among those who did not come in on the campaign was a discrete merchant who maintained personal ideas as to how and when he should advertise. This merchant contended that advertising to be successful should be conducted regularly rather than spasmodically. He held that people who acquired the ad reading habit by being bribed never took advertising seriously, and those who pursued the ads for mistakes had no other object in view.

Prudence in purchasing is possible only when ads are read and mentally digested by the prospective purchaser.

FARMERS' DAY.

Low Rates and Interesting Program Have Been Arranged.

Mr. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union, will be one of the principal speakers at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas on Wednesday, October 22nd. Mr. L. M. Rhodes of Tennessee will also talk on the problems of the farmers. A program of unusual interest has been arranged and the lowest rates of the Fair will be on Farmers' Day.

The Fair is a good place for the farmers to meet, extend and renew acquaintances and to exchange experiences in agricultural work. The Farmers' Union and Texas Farm Life Commission will keep open-house during the Fair and all farmers are invited to make their headquarters home while attending the Fair.

The farmers can get more out of the Fair than any other class of people. The Fair has many educational advantages to the farmer, while to the city man it is largely an entertainment. The exhibits in the agricultural, implement and machinery departments will bring together in easy comparison the latest and most improved farm machinery and implements and points of merit will be demonstrated so that a farmer can select those best adapted to his needs. The Fair will also afford many facilities for economy as competitive prices can be secured and models

By Homer D. Wade, Secretary Texas Good Roads Association.

Road builders are not found on every corner. Wherever you find good roads you find good people.

Good roads decrease profanity and increase morality.

Of all the good roads arguments a good road is the best.

Of equal importance is their maintenance.

Improved highways mean increased traffic. Increased traffic a bigger bank roll.

The two greatest factors in civilization are good schools and good roads. Of the two good schools are most important, but they can never attain their full usefulness until good roads are a reality.

A commercial center is a certain locality that commands a large volume of business. This condition of affairs never exists unless adequate transportation facilities are available either by rail, road or waterway. Few cities possess sufficient waterways with which to insure proper handling of commerce; nor are conditions such that it is profitable for capital to invest in steam or electric lines, but the public highway is always available, and at a small expense can be transformed into an artery of commerce that will for years to come solve the transportation problem. This condition is especially peculiar to Texas communities and the sooner we commence work on our highways the quicker will our cities become commercial centers.

There is much to be learned from the livestock exhibits. The droves of blooded animals on exhibition remind us of the value of improving our livestock and bring us face to face with unanswerable arguments in favor of better grades. The farmer knows all this, but he needs to be reminded.

The Fair should be made to accurately reflect the agricultural achievements of the State and all farmers should co-operate in making the exhibits creditable and worthy of the reputation of the greatest agricultural state in the Union. An exhibition and comparison of the most perfect specimens of products profitably farmed for the market is educational and inspiring and excites interest and study and affords many practical lessons in agriculture by giving high ideals of practical value. Inquiry into the methods of production will reflect credit upon our colleges, universities and agricultural departments of state and nation.

Ira Doak, the west side barber, returned from a trip to San Francisco Monday evening. He said he had a splendid time; saw many wonderful sights and enjoyed himself immensely, but still he was well pleased to get back to old Lynn county and Tahoka.

Heavy Rains Retard Construction.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 1.—The opening to traffic of a hundred miles of interurban line, the issuance of one and one-half million dollars of building permits in the principal cities, the completion of three new railroads and the appropriation of half a million dollars for highway improvement by bond issue, constitutes the principal features of construction work in Texas during September, according to the monthly building report of the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association.

Heavy rains which fell every portion of the State retarded to some extent the construction of railroads, interurbans and highways, although the building activities in the principal cities, judging from the amount of permits issued, maintained the record established in recent previous months. Nearly all the railroads and interurbans that have been under construction for several months have been completed and the bulk of transportation improvement is being done on the Texas highways.

NINETEEN MILLION DOLLARS FOR BUILDINGS.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 1.—Notwithstanding the heavy rains which fell in practically every section of the State during the month-retarding all construction activities to a large extent, building permits aggregating $1,358,222 in value were issued in the principal cities of Texas during September, according to the Texas Progress Report compiled monthly by the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association. This amount practically maintains the record established in recent previous months.

Dallas led all other cities in total amount of permits issued, having granted building licenses to the amount of $469,925 in September. Houston is second with a total of $356,120 and San Antonio third with $165,518. Dallas also led in August, while Waco was second and San Antonio third. Since January 1st, this year, building permits with a total of approximately $19,500,000 have been issued in the nine principal cities of Texas. Dallas leads with a total of $6,800,000 and Houston takes second rank.

FIVE MILLION DOLLARS IN ROAD BONDS VOTED.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 1.—According to the monthly highway report of Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association, bonds aggregating in value $5,000,000 have been issued for highway improvement since January 1st, this year, to date. Elections which will probably be held before the close of the present year have been petitioned and the total amount involved is $3,500,000. It is probable that by the close of the year $7,500,000 will have been appropriated for highway maintenance and improvement in Texas. During the month of September, nine road bond elections were held in Texas and all but two were favorable. The amount of bonds issued during the month was $555,000. The elections that secured the necessary two-thirds majority vote were Calhoun, $5,000; Iron, $20,000; Galveston, $250,000; Maverick, $25,000; Nueces, $165,000; Trinity, $510,000; Waller, $15,000. A $250,000 issue was defeated in Montgomery county and the voters of Matagorda County vetoed an issue for $25,000.

WHIRLING BODIES
They Invariably Tend to Point to the Pole Star.
SCIENCE AND SPINNING A TOP.

That the Earth Revolves on Its Axis May Be Proved by a Simple Experiment With the Gyrostat—Phenomena of Rapidly Revolving Objects.

Spinning a top is not always child's play, although it has generally been regarded as a juvenile sport. Once in England top whipping was practically ordered by law. There was a huge top formerly provided in every village to be whipped in frosty weather that the peasants might be kept warm by the exercise and out of mischief while they could not work. Shakespeare in "Twelfth Night" says, "His brains turn like a parish top." Ben Jonson in "New Inn" writes, "He spins like a parish top." and Beaumont and Fletcher have "dances like a town top and reels and hobbles." Evelyn, the diarist, speaking of the uses of willow wood, says that it was ordered that "the great town tops should be made thereof."

Of late years, however, science has taken a hand in spinning tops with fruitful results. From spinning tops we can learn many interesting and valuable things. For example, we can prove that the earth revolves on its axis and calculate at what speed. The phenomena of spinning bodies are extremely interesting. If you throw your hat into the air, but without spinning it, it will fall perhaps on one side, perhaps on the other, but if you give it a spinning motion before sending it into the air it will always come down the same side down as it went up. The same thing is true of coins and in fact of all objects spun in this manner. A knife, if merely thrown into the air, may come down at any angle, but if held point down and sent spinning into the air it will on falling stick its point into the floor invariably.

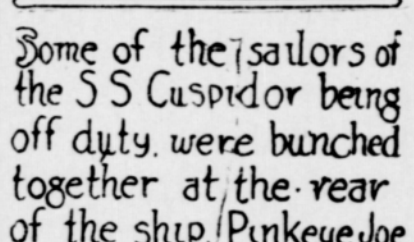

Other bodies acquire rigidity when spun rapidly. Thus a piece of chain if placed on a wheel and made to revolve rapidly will form a perfect circle and if thrown off the wheel suddenly will roll across the table or the floor just like a solid hoop until its speed is diminished, when it will fall into a huddled mass. It is a strange fact that spinning bodies always tend to point to the north star—the pole star. Gently, but firmly, they seem to tug at their moorings in an effort to assume the angle that will point them in that direction. Once they have attained it they do not vary.

If, now, you want to prove the rotation of the earth by means of a spinning top you can do so as follows: Provide yourself with a gyrostat capable of being driven by electricity so that it can run for twenty-four hours or more without stopping. Set this going and point it to the north or pole star. It will soon assume that direction. Now, as the axis of the top is pointed in a certain direction (say the north wall of the room) and stays there, without ever moving, this will be a guide to you to check off your observations. And as you watch you will notice that in six hours' time the top will point to the west and six hours later to the south, six hours later to the east, and at the conclusion of the twenty-four hours it will have completed the circle and will again be pointing due north. It will have completed the circuit of the four walls of the room.

What does this mean? It means that the room has revolved round the top, but as the room is fixed to the solid earth it implies that the whole earth has revolved round the top, which alone remained stationary. Consequently we have proved by this means that the earth has turned once round on its axis, and that it does so turn, and that the heavens remain still and stationary. Many interesting astronomical discoveries have been made by the aid of spinning tops, and the facts obtained by their study have been applied to the rotation of heavenly bodies, the earth included, and the "wobble" of its axis has been calculated by this means. In many ways, therefore, the spinning top is a valuable scientific instrument.—Hereward Carrington in New York World.

A Record of Progress Made by the Cattle Industry.

Like the Indian, the longhorn steer has been compelled to give way to civilization and he is now used principally in staging moving picture plays, as the star performer in wild west shows and posing before the camera for picture card souvenirs.

Our endless ranges have been cut up into innumerable small stock farms, the cattle barons have given way to farmers and quality has taken the place of quantity in the livestock industry of the state.

The market demands quality and the Texas steer has shown his ability to master the world's markets and his products fill the nation's larder.

Texas cattle have advanced more rapidly in value than those of any other state in the Union during the past twenty years. The federal census reports show that we had 8,011,195 head in 1890 valued at $75,227,582 or $9.40 per head, and in 1910 we had 7,139,400 head valued at $138,957,404 or a value of $19.46 each. We show a decrease of 871,795 in number and an increase in value of $10.06 per head. On January 1st, 1913, we had 12,527,000 head of livestock in the state classifying as follows: Cattle 6,056,000, horses 1,181,000, mules 724,000, hogs 2,493,000, sheep and goats 2,073,000. We have four head of livestock per capita. We have more cattle than any other state in the Union and take first rank in the number of mules. The value of our livestock production per annum approximates $148,000,000 and the value of meat consumed $150,000,000, leaving a net deficit of $2,000,000. The principal loss is on hogs. We consume $24,000,000 more of pork than we produce, and in leather we suffer a loss of $17,000,000, although we show a gain of $28,000,000 in cattle.

The cowboy has been pushed back across the plains. Royal blood has entered the veins of the Texas steer and a marvelous transformation has taken place in the cattle industry of the state. We now have the best grade of cattle in the world and select stock from our farms and ranches will be on exhibition at the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth, November 22-28.

POOL HALL MUST GO

Last Saturday was pool hall election day for Tahoka, and, as has been the case in every election we have heard of, the pool hall was voted out. The proportionate majority against the pool hall was the smallest here that we have heard of anywhere else in the State where such an election has been held. Did this prove that many people in Tahoka favor the public pool hall? No, it merely proved that C. J. Wasson, the proprietor, had made many friends, while the pool hall in the ten months it has been here has made none. Mr. Wasson himself said, "no one opposed the pool hall coming here." Yet after ten months trial, under the very best of management, the majority says "The pool hall must go." And it is a well known fact, that if the voting had been heavier, the majority against the pool hall would have been proportionately larger.

Otis Kaigler's car of household goods came in Monday evening. Mr. Kaigler himself and his car of work horses had to turn back at Sweetwater for Fort Worth where the horses will have to be dipped. Mrs. Kaigler and the children have been here about ten days but he is no here yet. They have only been away from Lynn county two or three months.

J. M. Williams passed through Tahoka Wednesday morning with two car loads of cattle from Lamesa to Fort Worth.
