Lynn Co. Loan Quota $18,600.00

Victory Loan Drive Started Monday, April 21. Citizens are Expected to Subscribe.

The quota for Lynn County in the Victory Liberty Loan, which began Monday, April 21st is $18,600.00. This information was received by the County Chairman, C. H. Cain, last Monday. Lynn County is expected to raise her quota within three weeks from the time the drive started, and every citizen in the county who can possibly do so is expected to subscribe to the loan. We should be willing to give our Government our whole-hearted support in this our Victory loan. Don't be a tight-wad but give all you think you are able to give, and then give a little more. We are not asked to give the Government one penny but just loan it a small amount at a good rate of interest.

The Secretary of the Treasury Department says this will be last Liberty Loan to be raised by popular campaigns.

The payments on purchases are:

- 10 per cent on or before May 10th.
- 10 per cent on July 15th.
- 20 per cent on August 12.
- 20 per cent on September 9.
- 20 per cent on October 7.
- 20 per cent on November 11.

It is fully realized that difficulties will be encountered in raising our quota, due not only to the great loss that some of our people who have heretofore been the most liberal and best bond buyers, have experienced, but also the fact that the excitement of war enthusiasm and desire to win has subsided, and for these reasons every citizen in Lynn county should lend their wholehearted support to the Chairman and his corps of assistants in helping raise the amount asked by the government.

The young men of our county went over the top in furnishing soldiers by a greater percentage than our people have in any of the other war activities (though in each and all of these activities our people have made an enviable record by, always doing more than they were called upon to, in assisting in the prosecution of the war.)

This loan is being made for the purpose of paying debts we have incurred, which were necessary to the winning of the war, and we are called upon now, not through fear of punishment or hope of reward—loss or victory to our armies—but for an expression of appreciation and gratitude to our soldiers whose gallantry and valor brought us victory, and it is necessary now, in order to show our appreciation and gratitude, that we not default in this campaign. Not to respond would be emphasized disregard of past incurred obligations and ingratitude to the soldiers who made victory certain and achieved it.

Don't wait for someone to call on you to subscribe to this loan, but go to one of the local banks as soon as possible and attend to this matter. Uncle Sam needs your assistance. Do your bit.

Wedding at Baptist Parsonage Sunday

Last Sunday afternoon the Baptist minister of Tahoka, executed the ceremony that made two young hearts happy. Mr. Ollie White and Miss Esther Young, of near Lubbock, drove up to the Pastorium in their little Dodge and after a pleasant chat in the parlor of the pastor's home, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

After the wedding they motored back to the bride's father's, where they will make their future home.

Mr. White has recently arrived home from overseas, where for more than a year he had fought the Huns. He was in the Thirty-sixth Division and did some desperate fighting in the last days of the struggle. This noble young soldier is going to make his home on the farm and fight the blue weeds as faithfully as he did the Huns. They were a bright, handsome couple, and we wish them the very greatest blessings in our power to wish.

H. M. Larkin, one among Tahoka's enterprising merchants, brought to this office yesterday a peach limb containing several small peaches, and was quite a curiosity, in that the peaches were growing on the limb by two's, three's and four's. The tree from which the limb was cut grows in Mr. Larkin's orchard in the heart of Tahoka, and only goes to show that Lynn county will produce fruit this year double and thruple over what it has in former years. Chairmen For Pro Campaign

Chairmen Appointed for Sixteen
Communities in Lynn County.
Election, May 24, 1919.

Two important amendments to be voted on May the 24th—These are: The Woman Suffrage and the Prohibition Amendments. No citizen who is interested in ridding our state of the curse of the liquor traffic, can afford to be indifferent to the issues involved in that election.

Hence, the names of the chairmen for the different communities of the county prohibition campaign:

1. Tahoka—D. T. Rogers.
2. New Home—J. H. Smith.
3. Lakeview—Mr. Nettles.
4. Joe Stokes—Mr. Stone.
5. Grassland—W. J. Burkhardt.
6. Edith—Irvin Shattuck.
7. Lynn—Mr. Slater.
8. Needmore—Shorty Bartlett.

COUNTY COMMITTEE.

Guy Robinson arrived home the latter part of the week from overseas. Mr. Robinson was on the battle front six days before the armistice was signed, and had some hair raising experiences during this time. He was among the troop of American soldiers who were cut off and surrounded by the Huns for four days and nights without food, except the leaves on the trees, and stood the Germans off till help came. The friends and acquaintances of this young man welcome his safe return home.

A deal was consummated this week whereby Sheriff S. W. Sanford purchased the residence property belonging to D. W. Rogers, in the north part of town. Mr. Sanford and family expect to occupy the newly acquired property about the first of May.

Summery Afternoon Frocks

Old-fashioned patterns in cottons have come back. The crepes and today, which are on display in the shops, and have for some time foreshadowing summer, remind one of the lawn shillies and the popular calico of 1910, in their colorings. They are more sheer than their predecessors and the resemblance is not texture, but in the printed patterns. These inexpensive dress fabrics are interesting. The prices on them appear to be settling to something like normal again.

There are printed voiles very much like printed georgette in pattern and color that are copied after gingham, and these, plain colored voiles, are in white or in contrasting colors. Manufacturers in dress patterns in flouncings, promise a summer dress which everyone will wear this cool, attractive and very durable material.

Designers who understand how to select styles to fabrics are responsible for the two delightfully simple dresses that are shown here. At the top is a blue and white color combination shows a leaf pattern scattered over a very small check as a background. The bodice in this unpretentious dress is almost plain, with collar and cuffs of white organdie edged with narrow lace. There is a plain little bow with long ends, made of narrow ribbon placed at the throat. It is in the same shade of blue as that in the voile. The skirt is full with plaits that form a drapery on the hips and it joins the bodice with a soft, crushed girdle of the voile.

Tiny white buttons, set close together, extend from bodice to skirt at each side. The low canvas shoes and thin white stockings look so well worn with this frock that they make any other kind a second choice.

The other dress pictured is made of voile, printed in a small, all-over pattern, in light brown. Its bodice opens in surplice fashion and fastens with two buttons. Collar and cuffs of white organdie add their indispensable finish to it. The skirt is plaited and has a long tunic about the sides and back, ending in a hem with two tucks above it. A cording is let in the material to define the top of the tunic.

"Comrades in Service"

Great Organization, to Be Composed of American Veterans of Great War, Is Being Formed in France.

By LLOYD ALLEN, Special Staff Correspondent.
(Copyright, 1919, by Western Newspaper Union.)

PARIS.—"Comrades in Service" has been adopted as the official name for the two and a half million strong organization that will take its place in American affairs as the ultimate successor to the Grand Army of the Republic, and the United Confederate Veterans.

"Comrades in Service," in brief, will be the name of the soldier's organization that is being formed here in France by the American boys of the expeditionary forces, the democratic army that put pep into the great war, the American lads that turned the tide at Chateau Thierry and the Forest of the Argonne, to say nothing of the St. Mihiel salient, and thereby gave the Hunns their knockout blow.

Throughout the length and breadth of France the first chapters of the new society have been organized by members of the American expeditionary force, with assistance of the chaplain's bureau of general headquarters. Four welfare organizations have aided the work, the Young Men's Christian association, the Jewish Welfare board, the Knights of Columbus and the Salvation Army. In principle, Comrades in Service is strictly nonpolitical and nonsectarian. Its program now taking shape is altruistic. The leaders, as well as the men enrolled, are taking the attitude that service to the American government or humanity will not end with demobilization, but that each and every man who wore the uniform during the war days will find in America, or wherever he happens to be located, plenty of opportunity to serve his fellow man in the days of peace.

As a name "Comrades in Service" received its first official recognition when President Wilson, here in Paris for the peace conference, attended the first meeting of the organization held in the Palace de Glace early in January. The palace is a big amusement pavilion operated for the special benefit of American soldiers on leave, or stationed in Paris. Thousands of Americans in uniform visit the place every night. Entertainments are held with programs resembling the old-fashioned home talent productions, featuring American performers, either professional or amateur. Audiences of 5,000 turn out for the boxing exhibitions.

It was Dr. O. D. Foster of the Y. M. C. A., who first suggested the name of the order. He got the idea one day in America while riding through Gary, Ind., on a train. On one of the sidetracks a squad of soldiers was unloading ammunition from a box car into an army truck.

In the squad was a negro driver, several white men of strictly American ancestry and a couple of foreigners. "Here are comrades in the service of America," Doctor Foster thought. The best part of the phrase stuck in his mind because it fitted perfectly the plans he had been considering for forming an after-the-war soldiers' organization.

Every Company to Organize.

By the time the last regiments leave France, it is believed that every company will have the skeleton of an organization affiliated with the society. Much organization work has already been accomplished by the soldiers themselves and by the welfare workers who are earnestly pushing the idea.

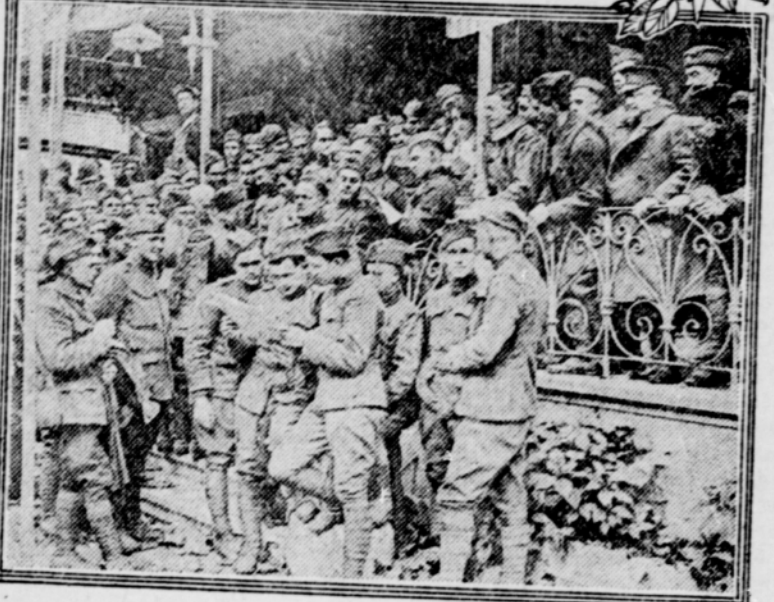

Overcoming sectional prejudices is one of the main aims of Comrades in Service. Taking up the patriotic work of the Grand Army of the Republic in the northern states, and the United Confederate Veterans in the South, is another plank in the platform.

In America we can expect to add one and possibly two national days of celebration to our calendar of festive days: November 11, which will probably be known as Armistice Day, and April 6, the anniversary of our declaration of war against Germany. On these days, as well as on July 4, Comrades in Service will be men who will take a prominent part in the general observances of the date. They are the men who made good in the business of crushing Prussian militarism; they are the men who suffered and who won glory at the task. It is on the slate for Comrades in Service to make Armistice Day and July Fourth, at least, two red letter days in their yearly program.

Plans are well under way for the establishment of a national American magazine devoted to the interests of Comrades in Service. Men in the group of welfare workers in Paris who are mapping out the magazine's program believe a large section of the publication should be devoted to a history of the various divisions that either came to France to form a part of the American expeditionary force, or remained in the American camps prevented from taking a more active part in the war by the sudden collapse of Germany.

"COMRADES IN SERVICE"—OFFICERS, PRIVATES AND "Y" MEN

ORGANIZING CHAPTER OF NEW SOCIETY IN FRENCH REST CAMP

Here in France, Comrades in Service is beginning its actual existence as a series of soldier's clubs, with the men electing their own officials and taking a large part in forming the program of their individual chapters.

General Convention Planned.

Delegates to a general convention, for instance, to be held in Paris for the purpose of completing organization on a large scale, are chosen from the various units scattered through France. By the time the convention is called it is the plan to have organization work completed in all of the army groups with the possible exception of the army of occupation along the German border.

In a great many ways the business of starting Comrades in Service as an active force in the American army can be considered as a kind of reconstruction activity. It is a kind of connecting link between active service and return to civilian life.

Incidentally a program of education has been launched here by the army officers and welfare workers as a stepping stone toward the time when the soldier bids the army good-by. During the war days the soldiers were concerned principally with training problems and adjusting themselves to living the army life. They were not able to keep abreast of the news of the day, partly because they had enough to do learning to become soldiers, and also because they had small opportunity to read the daily papers and current magazines.

Now that demobilization looms ahead as the next big milestone on the soldier's program he is acquiring information on such subjects as "The League of Nations," "Universal Military Training," and kindred important problems of the day. All of the welfare groups—the Y. M. C. A., the Salvation Army, the Jewish Welfare board and the Knights of Columbus—are assisting in whatever manner they can in this educational campaign.

Urged to Inform Themselves.

"You are about to return home" the welfare lecturers tell soldier audiences "and you are going to be questioned frequently by the people who have remained at home, about conditions in France, about universal military training, about half a hundred topics of this great era. Have you been gathering accurate information about these subjects? Are you going to be able to answer questions fully?" And the soldier is inclined to agree with the lecturer that he has not been able to keep up to the scratch on matters outside army life. And he agrees that it is up to him to learn all he can and tell it to his American friends when he returns to the United States.

Obviously as it may seem, this idea of getting information, of becoming acquainted with problems of the day, is welcomed by men cooped up in army camps thinking only of that day when they will get back to America.

Sometimes it happens that a soldier gets his first definite idea of the responsibilities he is to assume as a citizen, directly from these lectures. He commences to realize that he is scheduled to become an important figure in American political affairs. He appreciates more fully that he is a man of broader vision than when he left America.

He had been too busy training and traveling to think a great deal about his remote future, during the period of war. Now he is getting his bearings again. And the welfare men are encouraging him to develop his ideas, to round them out by observation and reading and by study. And means are being provided for study. Here in France the welfare boards are building up big educational machines.

More than 200,000 men, during the first weeks of the peace conference in Paris, were enrolled in the hundreds of educational classes in the army camps of France. This work was going on all over the country. A list of the schools would be a report on the disposition of the American troops in France, because there was some kind of school in virtually every camp.

Officers Are Instructors.

Army officers—men trained in the various sciences and professions—acted as instructors. It was beyond the ability of the Y. M. C. A. or any other welfare organization to provide the necessary teachers from their own comparatively small personnels.

So while the American boys waited patiently for the ships that would take them back home, they studied by the hundred thousand, and began their preparation for return to civilian life where, if the ideals of Comrades in Service are realized, they will still maintain much of the fellowship of service that helped to defeat Germany.

There are many men in France who believe America's great and lasting benefit from the war will be a better realization of the duty each American owes to his government and his community, of a better understanding of the ideals of America, and of a wiping out of much class prejudice and sectionalism. And Comrades in Service, in addition to being a great after-the-war organization such as the G. A. R. and U. C. V., will perpetuate these results of war, which bring out the finest traits of character.

Headquarters for Comrades in Service was organized in France, but as soon as a goodly proportion of the American army is sent home, headquarters is to be moved to some large American city, probably Washington.

QUEER VALLEY IN ALASKA

Thousands of Small Volcanoes Send Steam Into the Air, Forming One Gigantic Cloud.

A wonderful valley, called the "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes," is in Alaska, but was not discovered until recently by an expedition sent out by the National Geographic society. The men were exploring part of the Katmai pass, when the leader, Robert F. Griggs, saw a puff of steam rising in the distance. Wondering what it could be, he climbed a rise of ground; and from there he saw a wonderful sight. Down the long valley were thousands of little volcanoes, sending their clouds of steam hundreds of feet into the air, which mingled into one great cloud, giving out the foulest of odors.

Some of the volcanoes observed had great round mouths, through which the gases poured; from others it seemed as though the gases escaped from every pore of the earth. A writer in the Youth's Companion, commenting on Mr. Griggs' description of the valley in the National Geographic Magazine, says it is evident that a great fissure runs northwest, under Katmai pass, and the steam seeps from this fissure up through the volcanoes of this queer valley of a thousand smokes, just as many small leaks show on the surface of an old bicycle tire when there is a single puncture of the inner layer of rubber.

BLACK-DRAUGHT GLEANS THE LIVER

Enthusiastic Texan Tells of Bad Fix He Was In and How He Got Out by Using Black-Draught Liver Medicine.

Holland, Texas.—Mr. J. N. Messer, who lives a short distance from here out in the country, says: "Black-Draught is without doubt the best liver medicine made. I do not hesitate to say it will do all it is recommended to do and more.

I am strong and healthy, but we all need a little active medicine once in a while, and Black-Draught is good enough for me. It does the work well and cleans the liver, carrying away bile, the easiest of any purgative I have ever seen.

Once, some years ago, I had slow fever and my stomach was in a bad fix, and Black-Draught gave me relief and helped me a wonderful sight. It cured me of indigestion, and the bad feeling after eating. I keep it for my family, they use it and have for years, and too, it saves doctor bills and is not expensive.

A stitch in time saves nine, and most sickness is caused by a bad liver. A few doses of Black-Draught fixes that, and I don't see why people don't use it, and they would see as I have, what a help it would be."

Ask your druggist for Theford's Black-Draught.—Adv.

HOW'S YOUR BLOOD?

Pimples and Eruptions Mean Bad Blood

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a temperance remedy made of wild roots and barks such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is and has been for nearly 50 years. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulation begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the eliminative organs.

In place of the impurities, the arteries and veins gradually get fresh vitalized blood and the action of this good blood on the skin means that pimples, boils, carbuncles, eczema, rash, acne and all skin blemishes will disappear. Then you must remember that when the blood is right, the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys become healthy, active and vigorous and you will have no more trouble with indigestion, backache, headache.

Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to-day at any medicine dealers, in tablet or liquid form, or send 10c for trial package to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

San Angelo, Texas.—"Dr. Pierce's proprietary remedies have been entirely satisfactory to me in the truest sense of the word. I consider them as being very high-class remedies and the safest that I know of on the market. Myself and family have used them as a tonic after the La Grippe, with good results. During the last score of years when we needed a tonic we have used the 'Golden Medical Discovery' always with satisfactory results, also the 'Pleasant Pellets.' My thanks to Dr. Pierce prompts me to write my truthful sentiments."—O. E. Wilson.

Brilliant Black Hats and Others

Brilliant, applied to millinery has a literal or a figurative meaning. Sometimes a handsome piece of millinery deserves the adjective in its senses. There is never a season when the transparent, picturesque black hat, made for more or less youthful wearers, does not appear in models that deserve to be called brilliant millinery. The big black hat is dear to the hearts of designers, especially so in a season when it flourishes in transparent fabrics. Such a hat appears in a group above, together with a hat black sequins, made for a matron middle life and a braid and georgette hat that might fit any age between 30 and 50.

Everything about the hat at the left speaks the elegant matron. The crown has a round crown and narrow, finely curving brim, covered with black sequins. The sequins are mounted on a net and one may infer that the net facing is of mullins. A tall, black beret bears itself proudly at the right without offense since it is not the other of the heron but the cleverest of imitation of it.

On a wire frame the lovely black hat, made of mullins, displays the resources of the milliner's art in hanging this airy fabric. Wires are covered with velvet which proves an asset summing up the beauties of the design. The top portion of the crown is mullins and there is a band of sequins about the side crown with a narrow ribbon above it. Almost the most important of its merits lies in the scant flounce of mullins about the edge wire. More than all, the shape is a thing of beauty.

A hat of braid and crepe georgette is one of those becoming non-committal bits of headwear that accommodate themselves to wearers young and otherwise. The top crown is soft, without foundation and of georgette, like the side crown, which is supported by a band under the georgette. An odd ornament which looks like embroidery work of straw braid trims it at the front.

For Large Pores.

Use no cold creams nor grease of any kind on the skin when the pores are large. Cleanse the face with hot water and pure soap—glycerin is best for this—and then rinse for several minutes with cold water, and, after drying gently with a soft towel, apply some of the following astringent on a puff of cotton several times a day and at bedtime: Camphor water, six ounces (not spirits of camphor); tannic acid, fifteen grains.

SILo CAMPAIGN TO BE MADE BY A. & M.

The United States department of agriculture joined by the State Food Administration, the State Council of Defense and the Extension Department of the A. and M. College have joined in a campaign to extend the use of ensilage for stock feeding.

This is done for several reasons: Much hay land has been put into cultivation, making hay scarce and high. Ensilage is its cheapest substitute which may be saved anywhere, saving all the crop at its best feed value, thereby enabling the farmer to feed his stock on about one-half the acreage required otherwise.

Feeding experiments show that a ton of good ensilage has a feeding value equal to 1200 lbs. of hay (Purdue University Extension). Corn making 40 bushels per acre will make about 8 tons of ensilage which compares reasonably well with cotton and much less expensive to produce and harvest.

At this time the thing of most importance is the planting of suitable crops for silage, that the dairyman and stock farmer have the cheapest and best forage possible at home.

Crops for Silage.

Harmon Benton, Agronomist recommends that the best crop to grow for silage is Indian corn in sections where the crop is reasonably certain. Corn is a doubtful crop except during unusual seasons and isolated areas in approximately the western two-thirds of Texas. Corn should be the principal silage crop in the eastern one-third of the state, supplemented by the sorghums; Red Top, Honey Drip and Texas Seeded Ribbon cane are the best silage sorghums for eastern Texas. Honey Drip and Seeded ribbon cane will usually produce the heaviest tonnage of the sorghums but owing to their rank growth they are difficult to handle in this section. Red Top is preferred by most farmers for silage when sorghum is grown instead of corn.

In the western two-thirds of the state, the sweet sorghums would rank first for silage purposes approximately in order named: 1st, Red Top; 2nd, Honey Drip; 3rd, Texas Seeded Ribbon Cane. The kafirs would come second to the sweet sorghums, followed by feterita and milo in the order named.

The silo offers a most satisfactory method of storing feed during years of abundant crop production to be used during years of crop failures or limited production. The only additional expense to the farmer would be interest on the silo, and silage stored, and the increased value of the silage during times of crop failures would more than offset the interest.

A bulletin is now in the press devoted to silo construction, and a card addressed to Mr. C. M. Evans, Silo Leader at College Station, Texas, will secure this bulletin, also literature on the making and feeding of silage.

MINISTER FOUND THE REMEDY AT LAST

While the editor of a certain newspaper was away from home for awhile he left the paper in charge of a minister of the gospel. During the minister's stay in the office the following letter came from a subscriber: "I know very well that I paid my subscription to your paper the last time I was in your office. If I get any more letters from you as I received last week I will come in and maul h—ll out of you." The minister answered the note like this: "I have been trying to get that out of the editor for ten years, and if you will come down and maul it out of him then, my dear sir, I have twenty members of my church I will let you operate on."—Ex.

H. C. CRIE HAS STARTED A BIG RABBITRY

H. C. Crie of this city has under headway one of the largest rabbitries ever carried on in Lynn County. He has several different sizes and breeds of these animals.

The black and white are Dutch and grow to weigh about four or five pounds; the white are albinos, and grow to weigh five or six pounds; the red or buff ones are New Zealand and attain a weight of from seven to nine pounds; the large white ones are angoras and are kept only for pets making the nicest and cleanest pets a child can have. Mr. Crie also has some fifty Belgian hares, but had none that were of a size to show in a window as an Easter decoration. Altogether he has one hundred and twenty or thirty rabbits and hares, the breeding stock of which cost from five to ten dollars apiece, when only half grown.

REDISTRICTING OF TEXAS SHOULD BE DONE NOW

Governor Hobby has promised a committee from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that he will submit to the special session the question of senatorial redistricting of Texas.

We anticipate at the outset that we shall now hear from certain quarters that inasmuch as the matter has gone over this long the State should not be redistricted until after the 1920 census. It will be pointed out that this may necessitate another change.

The answer to this is that it is precisely because there is to be a census in 1920 that the Senate should be reorganized on the basis of the present population figures. For Texas may be given new representation in Congress on the basis of the 1920 census and the question of Congressional redistricting may come up again. West Texas does not propose to have the present State Senate redistrict the State congressionally or to permit any new inequalities of representation to continue longer than it takes to change them. West Texas had to wait six years for justice in the matter of Congressional representation and to this good day it has not obtained its proper representation in the State Senate. West Texas should not permit the present State Senate to have anything to do with reapportioning the State on the basis of the next census, and unless we misjudge the temper of the people of West Texas, it is going to be insisted that full representation in the Senate be given to that section before the figures of the 1920 census are touched by that body.

This is only one aspect of the injustice which should be corrected, but it is an absolute reply to the plea for further delay on the ground that another census is to be taken. Such a plea is adding insult to the injury which the State Legislature has permitted to continue against West Texas for more than eight years already. West Texas now has an organization through which to speak. Such injustice will not be permitted to continue without vigorous and constant protest in the future. And from now on, not only State officials, but the West Texas members of the Legislature themselves are going to be made aware of the fact that the studied neglect of the fundamental interests of that rapidly developing and constantly growing section will not be tolerated in silence. We are not suggesting that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is going to become a political organization. That is precisely what it will never become. But it is going to see to it that those who make politics their business give due and proper consideration to the valid and just claims of West Texas at all times. It will not ask more than justice to the people and taxpayers and the various legitimate interests of West Texas. But upon that it will insist.—Star-Telegram.

Tonight! Take Dodson's Liver Tone!
Better Than Calomel For Liver
Calomel sickens! If bilious, constipated and headachy read my guarantee.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver, which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not sally vate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Adv.

Another book, dated 1640, written in Spanish, and called "Recapilation," is a collection of laws effective throughout the Spanish dominions during the reign of Philip IV.

The attorney general's department of Texas rendered an opinion holding that the law does not require the commissioners court to let the contract for preparing plans, specifications, etc., for road work on competitive bids. The commissioners court may, if it chooses to do so, employ the county surveyor to do this work on a percentage basis.

The secretary of state has completed the form of the official ballot for the constitutional amendments election to be held May 24. Copies have been sent to every county in the state. The order of the ballot shows prohibition first, woman suffrage second, increase in governor's salary third and state credit system for providing land for the landless fourth.

Complete returns have been received from the counties of Texas, showing the number of poll tax receipts issued up to and including January 31. The reports total 564,287, a decrease of 46,557 as compared with the previous year. The decrease is charged to the number of men of voting age being in the service of the government. Adding 15 per cent to the total number of poll tax payments for exemptions, makes the total voting strength of the state 649,045.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1919, by Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 27

THE HOLY SPIRIT OUR HELPER.

LESSON TEXT—John 16:7-15; Acts 2:1-18. GOLDEN TEXT—If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?—Luke 11:13. DEVOTIONAL READING—Romans 8:27, 28, 27.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Helper at all Times.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Unseen Teacher and Helper.

INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—The Fruits of the Spirit—Gal. 5:22-23.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—What the Holy Spirit Does for Us.

1. The Holy Spirit Promised (John 16:7-15).

1. Who he is. He is a divine personality, one in nature with the Father and the Son.

2. What is his mission? (vv. 7-15).

(1) The Christian's comforter, (v. 7). The Holy Spirit is Christ's representative who stands by the side of the believer to strengthen, encourage, defend from the enemy and plead his cause before God the Father. Jesus knew and told the disciples of the bitter persecutions which awaited them as soon as he had taken his departure. What a blessed privilege to have the Holy Spirit in and upon us to give wisdom to discern God's will, and power to overcome temptation!

(2) The world's judge (vv. 8-11). Victory is to be achieved by the Spirit working in and through the disciples. (a) He will convict the world of sin (v. 8). The root of all sin is unbelief in Christ (v. 9). This unbelief is not primarily intellectual, but moral. It is an unwillingness to surrender to the divine will (John 3:18, 19). The way the Holy Spirit convicts the world is through the testimony of those who are filled with him. (b) He will convict the world of righteousness (v. 8). This is done through the resurrection and ascension of Christ (v. 10). His coming forth from the grave and ascension into heaven was an indisputable proof that he was what he claimed to be. He is thus shown to be the righteous one whose merit may be appropriated by faith in him. This is ever the way of salvation—conviction of sin and appropriation of the righteousness of Christ. (c) He will convict the world of judgment to come (v. 8). Christ told of a judgment to come. The guarantee of this judgment is that Satan, the prince of the world, was judged at the cross (v. 11; cf. John 12:31).

(3) The Christian's guide into all truth (vv. 12, 13). The Bible is a spiritual book, therefore if one would know its meaning he must have the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 2:14).

(4) He glorifies Christ (vv. 14, 15). He does not speak of himself, but in all things reveals Christ. The only way to know the glory of the Son of God is to have the Holy Spirit make it known. He reveals all the divine riches and grace that are in Christ. He makes real unto them the person and work of Christ.

II. The Holy Spirit Given (Acts 2:1-18).

1. Time—Pentecost (v. 1). This was fifty days after the Passover Sabbath (Lev. 23:15).

2. The marks of the Spirit (vv. 2-4). These are external and internal:

(1) External. (a) Sound of a mighty wind; no wind, but merely the sound of wind. For this sound to be heard in the early morn attracted attention and caused the people to gather. The reference to wind suggests the all-pervasive life-giving influence of the Spirit. (b) Tongues of flame. Each of the disciples was crowned with such a tongue. The tongues indicate the practical possession of the Spirit's gifts, and the fire the purifying energy which removes the dross, thus making effective the testimony. (c) Speaking in foreign tongues. For these bumble Galileans thus to speak caused great amazement.

(2) Internal. This is seen in the transformation wrought in the disciples. Instead of covering before a Jewish maid, Peter now boldly stood before the chief rulers of the city and declared them to be guilty of murdering the Son of God.

3. The effect (vv. 5-13). (1) The multitude assembled in amazement and confusion. They heard the gospel in their native tongues and inquired its meaning. (2) Some mocked and foolishly attempted to account for this remarkable occurrence by accusing the disciples of being drunk.

4. Fulfillment of prophecy (vv. 14-18). Wonderful things had occurred, but Peter knew where to get an explanation. He went to God's Word (Joel 2:28, 29). God had predicted just such marvelous occurrences to take place in the last days.

The Mute and the Smile.

Some men envelop themselves in such an impenetrable cloak of silence that the tongue will afford us no symptoms of the mind. Such taciturnity, indeed, is wise if they are fools, but foolish if they are wise; and the only method to form a judgment of these mutes, is narrowly to observe when, where and how they smile.

Need of Churches.

What some churches need is less broad-cloth and more sack-cloth.

ITCH

A WAR-TIME ILL THAT'S SPREADING HUNT'S SALVE CURE IT!

BRED in the war trenches of Europe, a warty, itchy, sore disease, history shows, has always prevailed in wars and the concentration of armies. It was during the Civil War and following that conflict was an epidemic of the Itch after the Spanish War. Now history is repeating itself after the European struggle.

Returned soldiers and those with whom they come in contact will find a recognized remedy for the Itch, Hunt's Salve, commonly known as "Hunt's Salve". Many a veteran of the late '90's will testify to having proved a never failing cure for all forms of the Itch. Your druggist will tell you so. He sells HUNT'S SALVE under a strict guarantee to refund the purchase price if any dissatisfied user.

A Medford, Oklahoma man, among thousands who praise HUNT'S SALVE, says: "I had it badly. Your Hunt's Salve, however, cured me after many remedies had totally failed. One box completed the cure—the first application afforded wonderful relief. My advice to those who have to scratch, is to use Hunt's Salve."

Hunt's Salve is especially compounded for the treatment of Itch, Ringworm, Tetter and other itching skin diseases and is sold on our continent by all reliable drug stores, or it will be sent direct by mail if your local drug store cannot supply. Price 75c per box.

EASY TO CURE "NAUGHTINESS" TRIBUTE TO YANKEE FEELINGS

Common-Sense Methods of Dealing With Children Will Always Be Found Effective. Magazine Writer Describes "Doughboy" as All the Boys Has Come to Know Now.

A morbid exaggeration and perversion of the natural desire which all children feel for notice by their elders, is held by Thomson to be the cause of abnormal naughtiness in children. These cases are of essentially the same nature as those of "moral imbecility" in children who are in some degree mentally defective. The proper lines of treatment are clear enough, and when carried out consistently and thoroughly are rapidly and completely successful. They may be summarized as follows: (1) All severe corporal punishment must be stopped—it never does any good. (2) Nobody must ever appear shocked, amused or even surprised at anything a child does. (3) His misdeeds are never to be alluded to, much less described, in his presence; and, lastly, he should be noticed and encouraged in every way when he is good and altogether ignored when he is naughty. —British Journal of Children's Diseases.

Every man intends to have his own way after marriage, but sometimes his wife relieves him of a false impression. If the meek shall inherit the earth, where shall the scornful wander? We all have our opportunities, but most of us manage to dodge them.

CONQUEST OF THE AIR

AERIAL SERVICE FOR PASSENGERS MAIL AND MERCHANDISE.

BIRDMEN MEET NEXT MONTH

Big Convention of Pan-American Aeronauts Will Stimulate Enlistments in the U. S. Air Service.

Atlantic City, New Jersey, will be the Mecca for a large gathering of American men, and representatives of foreign countries, who will be attracted by the first Pan-American Aeronautic Convention, which meets there in May.

Captain Charles J. Glidden, of the U. S. Air Service, Military Aeronautics, now stationed in the administrative department of the United States Flying School, Southerfield, Georgia, says:

"The Pan-American Aeronautics Convention and exhibition to be held at Atlantic City during the month of May will bring to the attention of the American people the wonderful progress of aviation. The work of aircraft during the war establishes its practicability for commercial uses and insures the creation in this country of a complete aerial service, connecting all cities and towns for the transportation of persons, mail and merchandise.

"Before the close of 1920 I confidently predict this service will be in full operation, with extension to all countries on this hemisphere. In the United States trunk lines will be established across the country which will place every city and town within six hours from some twenty-four distributing points. Once created and in operation our extensive coast line could be put under complete protection from any possible invasion. Thousands of college trained aviators in and out of the service are now waiting to join in the operation of an aerial service.

"The government calls for fifteen thousand men to enlist in air service for one or three year's time. This is bound to receive a quick response, as here is an opportunity for men to be immediately assigned to duty in the service and of the number who enlist those who pass certain examinations will be given flying and balloon pilot instruction. This liberal offer is equivalent to a one or three years' college course in aeronautics, and one may become expert in all branches of aviation, and if qualified, a non-commissioned or even a commissioned officer. In addition to regular pay, clothing, quarters and rations, extra pay begins with instructions to operate the aircraft. As the number of men wanted is limited to fifteen thousand for the entire country, quick application to the nearest recruiting officer will be necessary before the privilege is withdrawn.

"Everybody directly and indirectly interested in aviation should attend the Atlantic City convention and exhibition in order to keep abreast with the times and become familiar with the development of aircraft for defense and commercial uses and witness the demonstrations of the world's greatest airplane aviators, who will fly, and balloon pilots sail to the Atlantic air port from all over the country."

275,000 to Return During April.

Paris—American troops to the number of 275,000 are returning during the present month. Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, said on his arrival in Paris from Brest. In May, he added, the number will fall to 250,000, because of lack of transportation, but in June the number probably will rise to 300,000, which will be maintained as the monthly rate until all of the 1,400,000 men still here are returned.

Suppose that for one cent you could insure the quality of your cake, biscuits, etc., wouldn't that be real economy?
