TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

It is ironic that some of the unpleasant aspects associated with greed often appear out of the woodwork around the portal between affluence and destitution.

Society is lavish in the disdain it brings to the empty hands of those who find a morbid satisfaction in keeping surveillance on its trivial activity.

When an unkind word is spoken against a friend its sound continues to echo until it sinks into his heart.

Some people not only put all their eggs in one basket, they run madly over unfamiliar ground.

Humor has stood by the cowboy and pioneer as a frequently unrecognized resource capable of relieving many a distressing situation. A classic story is told by an old cowboy on himself, during the days when the fence cutters were causing a great amount of trouble. The old cowboy was young then and had established himself as a small rancher. His greatest problem was a belligerent neighbor who cut his fences at his pleasure and convenience. The cowboy knew the neighbor by name only, but he vowed to whip him the first time they met. One morning he saw a man walking across his pasture and promptly overtook him horseback. With equal promptness he challenged the man to fight and the challenge was promptly accepted. They fought until the cowboy was near collapse and asked the man to quit. He had had enough. "I can't whip you," the cowboy said, "but since we are neighbors, we might as well be friends. I am going to ask you as a neighbor not to cut my fence." The other man was brushing the dirt and grass from his sleeve. "I am not your neighbor," he said, "I am a stranger passing through. My team got away this morning and I was hunting them. I was so mad I couldn't see and was just wishing somebody would come along who wanted to fight, when you rode up."

Hightower Wants Floor For Farm Product Prices

Jack Hightower, congressman from the 19th congressional district said last Thursday that unless action is taken immediately to provide a floor for farm prices.

"It does not provide a level which will meet the cost of production but is a major effort on the part of the majority of the committee to meet a compelling need in the agricultural market today.

Even though it received minority support in the committee there were those who took the position that the prices were too high and that the president would veto the bill. "I hope that a majority of both houses of Congress, as well as the President, can be persuaded that there is a crisis in the agricultural economy," said Hightower.

BURLESON Junior Class RITES ARE HELD HERE Play Tuesday

A comedy, "Off The Track" will be presented Tuesday, March 23 by the Junior Class of Motley County High School. Curtain time is 8:00 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Wayne (Jimmie) Hunter is directing the production.

The scene is laid in the waiting room of a small wayside railroad station on a dark and stormy night. There is a strange mixture of people thrown together when a fast train is derailed.

Some of the passengers wait inside the station for a relief train. Among them are three peppy and attractive college girls on their way back to school, a fat, middle-aged, good-natured Italian woman and her four children, the wealthy and haughty Mrs. Reginald Vanderventer, a nosy old maid, a peculiar looking deaf man who has a mysterious suitcase; an engaged couple, with the girl being the dominating type; the station manager and his employee.

Tickets will be on sale starting today. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 25 cents for students.

The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Day returned home March 8 from a nine-day trip which included visits in the Los Angeles area, north to San Francisco. They flew from Lubbock to join friends, Mr. and Mrs. Don Finkner of Lubbock, in Los Angeles. They toured the J. Paul Getty Museum in that vicinity, and San Simeon, the castle home of the late William Randolph Hearst. They also went to Lake Tahoe, and en route home, spent one night in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Welling and son, Gary, visited in Amarillo, Saturday with another son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Welling.

Elections Are April 5

Elections for the District School Board, County School Board, County Hospital Board, and City Council will be April 5. There will be polls in Matador, Roaring Springs, Northfield, and Flomot.

Candidates for three places on the County School Board are incumbent Bundy Hal Campbell and Charles Renfro.

Candidates for three places on the County Hospital Board are Glenn Woodruff, Wayne Hunter, and Raby Webb, all incumbents.

Candidates for two places on the County Hospital Board are John M. Russell and Leon K. Cloyd.

Candidates for three City Council places are Joe Smith, Lewis Bostick, and L. B. Campbell, all incumbents.

The 35th annual Motley County Junior Livestock Show will be held at the old Matador FFA building on Monday March 24th. Lawrence Winkler, County Agent from Albany will serve as judge, according to John McCandless, President of the Motley County Livestock Association, sponsor of the show for 4H and FFA members under the supervision of local advisors.

In addition to the Junior Show, there will be a heifer show for anyone living in Motley County, or juniors eligible for the Junior Livestock Show. Heifers must be from 12 to 18 months of age, with a limit of two per owner. Classes will be provided for purebred animals and crossbreeds. Heifers will not be shown at halter, and judged in a pen, after being identified by number.

4-H and FFA members will exhibit steers, market hogs weighing from 190 to 250 pounds, gilts and sows, and rabbits. A sale of the top six steers in each of the three classes, and the top six market hogs in each of the three classes will be held after the show.

Showmanship prizes in the beef and swine classes will be provided by the Rolling Plains Production Credit Association. Ribbons, rosettes and extra prize money for the top three placing animals in classes will be furnished by the Motley County Farm Bureau. Trophies will be furnished by the V. F. W., American Legion, Eternas Study Club, Matador Auto Co., Stanley Pharmacy, Motley County Abstract Company, J. C. Cross, Occidental Chemical Company, Floyddada Seed & Delinting Company, and Wylie Petroleum, Floyddada. The new trophy offered is for the best steer bred in Motley County.

A rate-of-gain trophy will be presented in the steer classes by Farmers and Ranchers Commission Company, Lubbock.

Committee Plans Ambulance Service

A committee to work out details for Motley County ambulance service was formed Friday night at a meeting of the local hospital board, according to Pat Seigler, hospital board member.

Members of the committee are James Stanely, Forrest Campbell, Pat Seigler, and John M. Russell.

Board members met with Tom Beck, health planner with the South Plains Association of Governments, to discuss requirements for those who will be working with emergency ambulance service in Motley County.

After requirements have been set, the hospital board will subcontract the operation of ambulance service in Motley County, according to Seigler.

It is not known if the contract will go to a local person.

The hospital board is responsible for financing the ambulance service in Motley County.

Until final plans are made in the new ambulance service program, Kirby Campbell has primary responsibility for handling calls. Emergency calls will be handled through Seigler Funeral Home.

In addition to the president, other officers are H. A. Stephens, Vice president, Corky Marshall, Secretary, and Bill Hand, Recorder. Other directors are Vann Francis and Tom Ross. Directors whose terms expire are McCandless, Stephens and Marshall. Show advisors are Bill Moss and Bill Pallmeyer.

A concession stand will be operated by the 4-H clubs.

An exact count of entries is not available, but 22 steers, 45 hogs and 10 rabbits are expected from junior exhibitors.

Membership and donations to the Motley County Livestock Association provide the support for the show. Directors and others are currently selling these cards, and the support of the public will be appreciated.

Immunization Clinic To Be Held Monday

The Texas State Department of Health will hold an immunization clinic at the Motley County Schools in Matador on Monday, March 17, 1975, according to Perry L. Williams, health program specialist with Region 2 Public Health. Public health nurses from the regional office in Lubbock will be administering the immunizations for students from 10:00 a. m. until 12:00 p. m. and from 1:00 p. m. until 3:00 p. m.

In addition to the immunizations available to students, parents should also be aware of the fact that the clinic is open to preschool youngsters during the 1:00 p. m. to 3:00 p. m. session. During this afternoon clinic, immunizations, as well as tuberculin skin tests and coccidioidomycosis skin tests will be given to preschoolers ages 2 months to 6 years. This will be an excellent opportunity for parents to make sure that their children are up to date on immunizations and skin tests.

There will be no charge for the immunizations or skin tests administered at this clinic. This is a service provided by the Texas State Health Department in cooperation with the Motley County Schools.

STUDIES ABOUT THE BIBLE

Conscience is an un-~~en~~ part of the "inner man." Conscience plays a very definite part in salvation. But conscience cannot be trusted, unless it is first taught by the gospel of Christ. Let us take note of Paul's conscience before and after he surrendered to Christ.

"I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated under Gamaliel, strictly according to the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, just as you all are today. And I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and putting both men and women into prisons, as also the high priest and all the Council of the elders can testify. From them I also received letters to the brethren, and started off for Damascus in order to bring even those who were there to Jerusalem as prisoners to be punished." Acts 22:3-5

Besides these verses, Paul's heart was with those who killed God's faithful man, Stephen. Acts 22:20. Paul further states that he imprisoned and beat those who believed in Christ. Acts 22:19.

In spite of these vicious crimes against Christians, Paul states that he lived a life of "perfectly Good conscience . . . to this day." Acts 23:1. How could Paul make such a claim?

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our Matador friends for your many kind and thoughtful deeds at the passing of our loved one. We appreciated very much your words of sympathy, those who sent floral offerings, and the refreshments of cake and coffee served by the Baptist ladies following the funeral. May God bless each of you, is our prayer.

The Family of Thurman Fulkerson (1)

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to everyone who expressed sympathy by sending cards, flowers and food, and by sharing your homes, your thoughts and your prayers with us during our sorrow.

The H. G. Hunter Family;
The Lee Musgraves Family;
The J. C. Young Family; The Lonnie D. Young Family;
The L. B. Martin Family;
The J. A. Young Family.

IN APPRECIATION

Our thanks go out to all who did so much for us during B. F.'s stay and surgery in Methodist Hospital; for your concern and help now that we are home again.

Marian and B. F. Burt (1)

CARD OF THANKS

Your deeds of kindness shown us while we were in town for the graveside rites of Owen Thurman Fulkerson, were appreciated more than we can say. He made his home with us, and was like one of our own family. We especially thank the ladies of the First Baptist Church for the cake and coffee which they served following the funeral. May you each be blessed for your thoughtfulness.

Thurman and Beth Tooke and Children (1)

EXPRESS THANKS

The Flomot Cemetery Association wishes to thank the former Flomot Lions Club for assisting in the purchase of a riding lawn mower for the cemetery.

Bill Washington, President (2)

IN APPRECIATION

I want to thank all of my wonderful friends for the visits, food, cards, prayers, and especially the joy you have given me since my illness. I also appreciate the use of the hospital bed furnished by the Matador V.F.W. I would like to tell the parents of Dodie Lane, Rondolyn Crump, Cherice Price, Connie Ferguson, Mitchie Lipscomb and Suzanne Lane how wonderful these girls were to take time out on the week end to come and sing for me. You should be proud of your girls!!

Thank you everyone and may you always walk in sunshine.
Love,

TEXAS TALK

CBS Television in their regular program called "60 Minutes" took some time last month to talk about grass-fed cattle. Charles E. Ball, executive V-P of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association told TEXAS TALK why he wrote a letter to CBS taking exception to some of the comments. Mr. Ball indicated the program implied that feeding grain to cattle was immoral. Saying that grain not fed to cattle would not prevent starvation in another part of the world, Mr. Ball pointed to the practical problems of transportation, storage and economics as factors which would prevent the grain from reaching starving people. Ball said the cattleman is already using grassland as effectively as possible without intensifying the energy problem (use of fertilizer). Other points were made by Mr. Ball including the fact that much of the grain fed to cattle is not suitable for human consumption. Many of us will be watching now to see if a reply to his letter is forthcoming from CBS.

1975 Is The Year To Plant GUAR

Production Contract

PRICE TO GROWER

Company agrees to pay Grower a minimum price of $10.00 per 100 pounds, clean beans, grade #1 basis. Lower quality beans, will be subject to price discounts based upon Company's published grade standards for the 1975 crop.

PAYMENT

It shall be the Grower's responsibility when making deliveries of guar beans harvested from the acreage of this contract to instruct Buyer to issue all weight and grade certificates clearly identifying Grower, ASCS Farm Number, and address as shown in this contract. On this basis, after Grower's deliveries are completed and upon demand for payment, the Buyer shall compute on Company's "Guar Recap and Settlement Sheet" the total payment due Grower and any interested person or persons who may hold claim to any interest to the crop. Buyer shall then make payment or payments in behalf of the Company.

Grower agrees to hold Buyer or Company harmless of any omission in respect to any such interest not known to Buyer at time of payment.

GUAR BUYER

TRANSCO, INC. ELEVATOR, ROARING SPRINGS,
MRS. PEARL PALMER, MGR.
Has agreed to purchase guar beans for General Mills during 1975.

Good moisture conditions, an uncertain commodity market and now a Guaranteed Contract Market for Guar are all pointing to more acres going into this soil building CASH CROP in 1975. Farmers all over the Rolling Plains, like yourself, are finding Guar provides not just an "alternate crop," but a CASH CROP, both in the Guaranteed $10.00 per hundredweight price, and in its excellent soil building properties that help offset the continuing high price of fertilizer. Perhaps the question may be: "Can I afford NOT to plant GUAR this year?"

You are already familiar with all of these factors, but as a matter of review, LET'S TAKE A CLOSER LOOK AT GUAR:

1. PRICE - $10.00 CWT GUARANTEED

2. GUAR YIELDS WELL:
Dry land yields often go from 1,00 to 1,400 pounds per acre, irrigated 2000 pounds.

3. GUAR "OUT OF POCKET" PRODUCTION COST IS LOW:

It costs considerably less to produce an acre of GUAR than most other summer crops. Seed costs about $1.00 per acre (including inoculant), no fertilizer required (it's a LEGUME), planted later in the summer than most other crops, thus requiring less cultivation, etc.

4. GUAR IS DROUGHT TOLERANT:

It has a strong, virorous tap root that penetrates the soil deeply. Should growing moisture become depleted the plants will cease growing and very soon after rains or irrigation the plants will start growing and flowering again.

5. GUAR IS TOPS FOR SOIL IMPROVEMENT:

When used in planned crop rotation systems GUAR supplements recommended fertilizer programs and it's possible to grow other crops following GUAR and get yield increases without adding fertilizer. The energy crisis has caused a short supply and higher prices of fertilizer. It is possible for you to grow some of your 1976 fertilizer by planting GUAR in 1975.

All conditions stated herein constitute the full contractual agreement between General Mills Chemicals, Inc., Box 179, Kenedy, Tx. 78119, hereinafter called Company, and hereinafter called Grower.

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

This contract is not valid unless Grower returns it to Company or a general Mills Guar Buying Agent, hereinafter called Buyer, by May 1, 1975.

ACREAGE CONTRACTED

Grower agrees to plant _____

acres to guar beans on ASCS Farm NO. _____

County, _____

Texas, by July 1, 1975, and notify Buyer or Company by August 1, 1975, if for any reason the total acreage of this contract is not to a stand.

BUYING AGENT

Grower agrees to deliver all the millable guar beans harvested from the acreage of this contract, in bulk, to Company's Buyer.
