A near blizzard struck the Spearman-Gruver-Morse area Wednesday morning, and some 3 to 5 inches of snow fell during the night. With a 12 to 13 degree temperature and the high winds, the chill factor was reported 45 to 50 mile per hour winds.

The storm seemed to be the heaviest in the Canadian, Shamrock, area. Official temperature for Wednesday morning was a low of 13 degrees, with a fall of 2 1/2 inches of snow, and .22 moisture.

Spearman's fine Jynxing Lynxettes were upset at Panhandle Tuesday night, by a determined Pantherette team from Panhandle. The Panhandle team handed Spearman's District Champions, their first loss of the season in District competition.

Panhandle led the Lynx the entire game, jumping into a 14-7 lead, early in the game, and ending with a 55 to 45 win over the Spearman team.

This had no bearing on the district standings, as the Lynxettes had already won the district championship.

The Spearman girls will play the Claude girls at the local gymnasium Friday night. The Spearman boys are trying to find an opponent, but at press time, the Lynx had not found anyone to play here Friday night.

The Spearman boys finished their conference season, with a perfect record, by beating the Panhandle boys, by a 74-34 score. Mike Davis paced the Spearman boys with 17 points. Marsha Shield-knight scored 29 points for the Lynxettes, in their first district loss of the year.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Weese over the weekend were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Weese of Higgins.

IT'S OFFICIAL NOW, WE HAVE WON A DOUBLE-HEADER DISTRICT CROWN

Yes, the Spearman boys and girls have won a District Championship for Spearman, that is certainly appreciated by the entire town.

The Spearman girls, as usual, waltzed easily thru the district. We all took this for granted, but really, the girls will be playing under terrific pressure, from now on. Coach Weese has done a fine job, and we all forget that his team had to go into over-time last year in their bi-district clash.

Actually, his fine team was having to play super human basketball to even get to the regional tournament, and then, what happened at the regional was a continuous one-point affair. And, as soon as the girls started playing in Austin, it was the same story. It just seems that everyone expects Dean and his girls to win all of their games. But, we mustn't forget our wonderful Lynxettes. This paper wants to rank both the boys and girls on equal terms, and although we have just about "flipped" over this fine boys team, we still want the girls to know we are equally proud of them.

In fact, we want to brag about our girls a little more. This is the 8th straight time for the Spearman girls to win the District championship. They have gone to Austin so many times, we just expect them to be there when they call roll at Gregory gym; and we think when the roll is called up there this year, coach Weese and his fine team will be there.

The bi-district foe of the Lynx is not yet determined. This is another of those situations, where Wellington lost a play-off game to Electra, when Wellington was supposed to have the game all sewed up. Anyway, we don't know for sure who the Spearman girls bi-district foe will be, but we think it will be the Wellington girls; but they must beat Electra, before they can meet the Lynxettes in a play-off game. The game will be played on a Monday or Tuesday night. Last year, the Wellington Spearman girls played in an Amarillo gym, and maybe they will do the same this year; but, remember, it could be Electra that the girls have to play in their bi-district clash. Either team will be tough, and we must play championship ball to win, even the bi-district game. It usually is tougher than either Regional or State for us.

The Spearman boys have already picked a real team, to beat in their bi-district affair, against Quanah. The Indians wrapped up their district last week, with an 88-57 win over Olney, led by Gary Williams, their all state candidate, with 20 points. Williams has been instrumental in all of the wins for Quanah. Quanah also gets lots of mileage out of a pair of quick guards, Ira Murchison and Monty Ford.

The game-site, which we reported in the Sunday paper to be at Panhandle, has not yet been determined. Official of both the Quanah schools and the Spearman schools will meet at Clarendon Wednesday at 11:00 a. m. to determine the play-off site.

We hope that we can get the information on the play-off game in this weeks paper; however, sometime it takes hours to arrive at an agreement over where to play the game, and we certainly hope that it will be played at a neutral site, agreeable by both coaches and schools.

We will have the official information on both the girls and boys bi-district games as soon as possible.

Draft Call Largest In Two Years

State draft boards are being called upon in March to furnish the largest monthly quota of men for the armed forces in nearly two years.

Local board quotas for March call for six men for induction from the four county area. Mrs. Shockley, clerk of local selective service board, said Monday that the quota for pre-induction physical exams had been doubled. Her first request was for twenty men and a second notice required the board to increase this 20%. Twenty-four men will report March 5 for physical exams. The following 12 received their notification this week. Twelve more (who are in the process of being reclassified) will receive orders next week.

Six men from this area to be inducted March 5 are: Willis Smith, Wesley Jarvis, Larry Lester, Richard Adkinson, Vernon Buchanan and Eddie Doiel.

The twelve named (this week) to report for physical exams are: Jimmy Stumpf, Perry Washington, Gerald Born, Danin Rook, Dennis Babitzke, Randall Redman, John Hale, Robert Wade, Gayland Kraft, Michael Krienke, Phil Appleton and Clifford Hornsby.

This is the largest monthly quota for the state since November 1966. The national call is for 39,000 men, all for the Army.

Draft boards are being called upon in March to send 4,200 men for the armed forces pre-induction physical and mental examinations to fill future calls.

SIX MEN DECLARED DELINQUENT

AUSTIN, Texas. --Six men registered with local draft boards in Texas were declared delinquent under the draft's delinquency regulations during January for abandoning or mutilating draft cards.

This was revealed Friday by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, based on an enforcement procedures report to Lieutenant General Lewis B. Hershey, national director of Selective Service.

"There was a total of nine cases involving receipt by local boards of registration certificates or current notices of classification," Colonel Schwartz said. "The registrants were declared delinquent in six of these cases," he said in his report, "four of which are pending further action by local boards, one is pending appeal, and one is pending induction into the armed forces."

He said three of the nine cases were considered by local boards, but were not declared delinquent, as one merely protested his classification in class I-Y, which represents disqualification for armed forces service under applicable physical, mental, or moral standards.

"In the case of the remaining two," the state Selective Service Director said, "one removed his delinquency and the other enlisted in the Marine Corps after returning his draft card."

Colonel Schwartz said he had been directed to make this enforcement procedures report monthly.

THE PEABODY LETTER HIWAY CAFE CHESTER L. PEABODY III SERVING PEABODY RANCH ROOSTERBURGERS, GRUVER COUNTY

DeRe Boh and John: The other day, me and Mag decided to put us up a new television antennal, but we run in to some things we never figured on. First off, I took the top of the antennal and pulled it up to the top of that big cotton wood tree that hangs over the top of the house. I put a slip not in the rope at the trunk of the tree so that, when I got the center pole up and in place, I could unloosen the slip not and let the top of the antennal come down on the pole. I got the center pole up to the roof level and Mag held it in place while I clumb up on the roof where I could find it down to the eaves of the house. I seen the old Red Rooster comia around the side of the house when I clumb up but I never paid him no mind at the time. When I looked down to see if Mag wuz holden the pole strate, I seen Old Red wuz headin for that slip not and I knowed he had mistook it for a worm. He grabbed a hold of it before I could stop him and the antennal top come down on top of my head. This caused me to fall off the roof where I landed on a pile of bricks which sort of broke my fall. When I got that antennal top back up in the tree, I nailed the rope to the trunk of the tree. I figured this wood keep any more axedents from taken place. I got back up on the roof and Mag passed me up two ten foot peaces of pipe which I screwed in to the pipe which wuz flush with the top of the house. I figured twenty foot above the roof wuz a pretty good hite. I shinnied up to pole and reached out to see if I could pull the antennal top over to fit it on the pole but I seen that it was too far out. Mag hollered up for me to hang loose while she throwed me up a rope which I could tie to the top of the pole and she wood then git a hold of the other end of the rope and pull the base pipe over to the antennal top. This made good sense, so that is what we done. Mag pulled the base pipe out to where I wuz rite underneath of the antennal top and I hollered down for her to hold steady while I fastened them together. I wuz just about to fasten the connection when Mag hollered up that the fone wuz ringin and she would be rite back. When she let go of the rope, that pipe whiplashed me plumb accross the top of the house and I wood have been kilt for shore if I hadn't landed in the hawg pen which broke my fall. I'm still feelin kind of potely.

Chester L. Peabody The Third, Antennal Spert.

Oven Cleaning?
make it easy on yourself with an electric range . . . with a self-cleaning oven

Just close and latch the oven door. Set the controls.

. . . and relax while electricity does the work. End forever the tiresome, messy job of oven scouring and scrubbing. Now, it's so easy with the self-cleaning oven of a modern electric range. And, so thorough. Hard-to-reach corners come sparkling clean. Baked-on spill-overs and grease end up as just a trace of powdery waste to be simply whisked away. COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE
 Your Electric Light & Power Company

Hold out on the phone company.

After 7 p.m., you can call anywhere in the country for a dollar.

All long distance callers worth their salt know that calling in the daytime is more expensive than calling in the evening hours. (Actually, most people call during the day, when we charge our regular rates.) But long distance callers aren't interested in explanations. The only thing they care about is calling for the cheapest possible price. So to get more for their money, they devised a scheme you might call The Waiting Game. The idea is to do just what the name implies: Wait and wait and wait and wait. Because they know if they can hold out till after 7 p.m. or any time of the day on Saturday or Sunday, they can call anywhere in the country for a dollar or less. Which just goes to prove that anybody can afford to call long distance. Provided they know how to play The Game.

the Reporter's PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

Our personality of the week may be short on stature, but he's long on many other suits. Bryan Jones is a young man you're liable to see anywhere around Spearman, but you'll find him mostly around Spearman's Equity Elevator, where he is employed. Probably one of his greatest attributes is his ever present smile, which is constantly on display. He enjoys life and enjoys, most of all, a good joke whether it's on himself, a fellow worker or even the boss. Bryan is a graduate of Panhandle A & M College. He is interested in agriculture and he enjoys talking with farmers and ranchers. He, very quickly learned the stock and operational procedure at Equity, until he has become a vital part of the operation. Although Bryan doesn't stand six feet tall physically, he takes second place to no one, when it comes to performing his share of the work load. It's a pleasure to watch him work during harvest time as he hops up and down the truck beds getting setting grain samples. His efforts, during this season are tireless and when bigger men are ready to drop in a chair for a moment's rest, our personality of the week is moving those trucks across the scales. A visit to Equity isn't complete anymore without, at least, a short visit with the little man on the go. Once in a while, if there's not too much to be done around the elevator, he'll treat you to a demonstration of indoor putting. He claims his putts would be a lot more accurate if the floor wasn't uneven in places. Give him your order for some sacks of feed or grain and he'll have the truck loaded before you've finished with your coffee and he'll enjoy heaving those big sacks on your truck, as much as you enjoy your break. He's just another young man on the Spearman scene, but we think he's destined to be an outstanding young man. You'll surely like the hefty heaver of Equity... Bryan Jones.

Let Me See ... by Sybil

I think I have finally found out what's wrong with most of the adults in the world... especially those who live in Spearman. We all have coffee tremors! Our cells are all gone! Don't despair! This terrible ailment can be cured by drinking stuff made from wheat. Now there you are wheat farmers... you can get rid of everything that ails you and at the same time boost the price of wheat by drinking Postum.

I ran across the following full-page advertisement in the 1907 edition of the Good Housekeeping magazine: (It is printed below verbatim) COFFEE TREMORS

One of the sources of nervous tremors that annoy so many persons may be found in the use of coffee as a beverage.

A well known medical authority says:—"It would be no easy task for me to indicate all the maladies, that, under the names of debility, nervous affections, tremors and chronic disease, prevail among the coffee-drinking set, enervating humanity, and causing degeneration of MIND AND BODY."

How many business men know what it is to feel cold, cheerless and apathetic on "going down to business," and how many appreciate the fact that the bad heart and worse nerves are, in most cases, caused by coffee or its contained alkaloid—caffeine.

Men of clear brains—men who are wide awake, alert, energetic, are sought to fill the best positions and put in line for promotion.

The man who KNOWS he must depend upon a clear brain to get up in the world, is far better off without coffee—because it contains a TREACHEROUS NERVE RACKING DRUG!

There is a CERTAIN FRAGTICABLE way to get rid of the bad effects of, and the craving for coffee; that is to quit short off and drink well-made POSTUM FOOD COFFEE

This contains no poisonous drugs--is made from whole wheat, including the outer coat which contains the valuable Phosphate of Potash that combines in the blood with albumen to rebuild the nerve cells!

Postum (when boiled properly) has a delicious flavor and coffee snap of its own.

It works both ways when you quit coffee and take on Postum: The old nervous tremors, headaches, indigestion, etc. disappear with the coffee and Postum builds up new energy so that life is a joy and work an appreciation! (end)

Now all of us I am sure remember Postum... we drank it as a child, but I never knew until now just why we did! I always thought mother bought it because coffee wasn't available or just because Postum was cheaper! I never like it I know that.

Wynne and Bob Payne recently paid a visit to his brother who ranches in Arkansas and Wynne found this 1907 magazine in one of the old ranch houses there. She was kind enough to lend it to me for a while and I intend to print some of the articles such as the one above from time to time. Some of the ads make me wonder how many law suits one would be involved in if you were brave enough to print such today! They all tend to run down one article, to sell another.

The pure food and drug act, false advertisement act, or some such agency would be knocking at your door the next day no doubt!

Anyway, I'm real glad to know what is wrong with me when I feel "cold, cheerless and apathetic on going down to business" each day!

ARMY ROTC IS AVAILABLE FOR COLLEGE JR-SR

College students in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico with two years' study remaining can still receive commissions as second lieutenants through the college ROTC program, according to Maj. Gen. Francis J. Murdoch, deputy commanding general for reserve forces at Fourth U.S. Army, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex.

The traditional Reserve Officers' Training Corps program requires four years of on-campus training. The two-year program enables students who have not taken ROTC during their first two years in college to qualify for a commission. Although designed specifically for junior college graduates, many students beyond their sophomore year have qualified for the program.

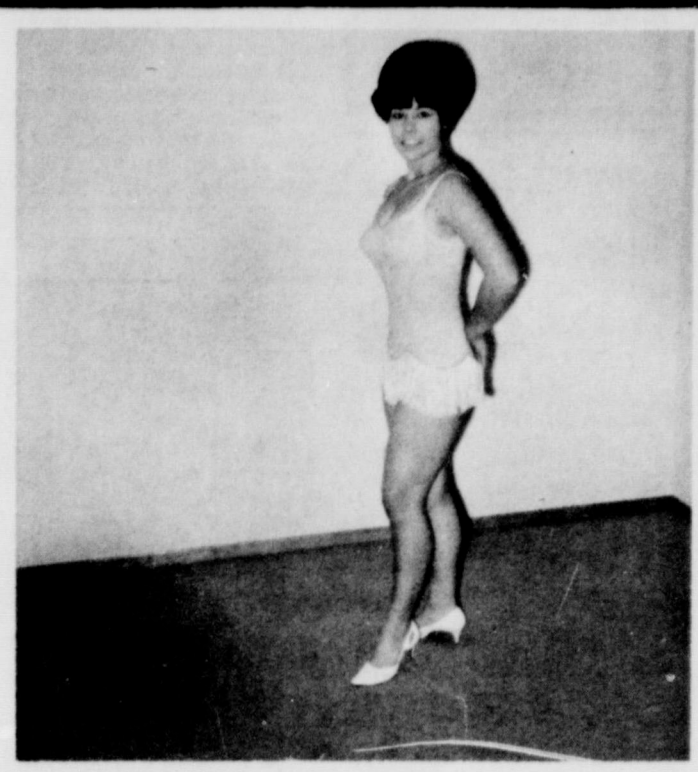

To qualify for the program applicants must complete six weeks of summer training at Fort Benning, Ga., during June and July. This training substitutes for the on-campus training given to four-year ROTC students during their first two years of college. In addition to meeting physical, moral and mental standards, candidates must be at least 17 years of age and cannot be older than 28 years when commissioned as second lieutenants.

Students are paid at the rate of $95.70 a month during the summer training period plus travel pay to and from Fort Benning. Those who qualify for the program enter the ROTC advanced course and receive $50 a month during their last two years of college. An additional six-week period of summer training is mandatory for all ROTC students, (at Fort Sill, Okla., for those in the Fourth Army area) usually between the junior and senior years; the pay for this session is $160.46 a month.

ROTC cadets study for degrees in the fields of their choice. The military portion of their college training provides instruction and experience in organizing, motivating and leading others. It helps to develop qualities of self-discipline, physical stamina and bearing.

Students interested in the program may obtain an application questionnaire from the professors of military science at any of the 259 colleges and universities throughout the nation offering Army ROTC training, or any of the 38 within the five-state Fourth Army area. Applications must be submitted before March 31. They will be reviewed during April and the names of students selected for summer training will be announced in May.

Army ROTC is offered at: Texas: Hardin-Simmons University, Prairie View A&M College, Rice University, Sam Houston State College, Stephen F. Austin State College, St. Mary's University of San Antonio, Tarleton State College, Texas A&I University, Texas Christian University, Texas Technological College, Trinity University, University of Houston, University of Texas at Arlington, University of Texas at Austin, University of Texas at El Paso and West Texas State University.

MISS FLIPPER CONTESTANT... Miss Kay Huse, 18-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Huse of Spearman, is the JC's entry in the "Miss Flipper" contest.

The annual International Pancake day contest is staged each year in Liberal, Kansas. The Miss Flipper beauty contest will be held February 26.

Miss Huse, who is currently attending Beauty School in Houston, is the current Miss Hansford County.

THIS IS SPEARMAN

through the eyes of chet wise

Listening to an armed services radio broadcast, the other morning, I received some enlightening information and I thought I'd pass it along. The focal point of the interview was a dog fancier and he brought up some interesting points about our canine friends. According to the expert, the most popular dog in America is the poodle of which there are more than just a piddlin' few varieties. His most interesting statement was that the third biggest business in this country is that of selling dogs, dog food and accessories for dogs. These accessories include such things as mink coats that run as high as fifteen hundred dollars. Diamond studded collars were some of the other things he mentioned. He went on to say that the German Shepherd was the second most popular dog in the United States and the top five most popular dogs included the beagle, dachshund and the chihuahua. I wasn't too surprised to learn that the sale of dog food is really big business, however there are still millions of dogs that live on table scraps and thrive nicely thereby. We happen to be a couple who never buy prepared dog food in any shape or form... even the TV commercials have failed to brainwash us into running to the nearest market for a can of Yuppy Puppy food or a box of "All You Add Is Love" dog chow. However, we do spend a lot of money on cat food. The whole interview led me to conclusion, every dog should have a small boy. Since boys are people, I'd like to tell you about some of the people I saw during the past few days around Spearman: Bill Hopper dealing out hamburgers, Jane Meek mixing business talk with coffee, Robert Adamson heading for the court house, Don Maize looking for a part, Mary Fern Terry busy at work, Martha Latham doing a soft shoe, Freeman Barkley talking business, Irene Kuehl taking a break, Buch Behne trucking along, Bob Kiser watching him, Vera Campbell talking on the two way, Joyce Jones hard at work, Tommy Bruce checking a car, Mabel Jameson delivering some pills, Vester Hill making a bank deposit, Vera Beth flicks over early morning coffee, Bob Hall checking a tire, Floyd Hayes talking cattie. Flattery: is soft soap and soft soap in ninety percent lye.

Helpful Hints From Me To Thee . . .

By Vivian Warrinaki
Hansford Co. Home Demonstration Agent

With the appropriate hose, legs can be made to look more shapely, thinner, longer or shorter.

Several types of stockings, such as the "wet look", shiny and rounded, tend to de-emphasize the leg size. The eye sees the area the light strikes; the areas to either side of the shine fade in importance.

Vertical stripes and very small designs, generally in medium to dark colors tend to slim the leg.

Iridescent colors or lace hose change color from light to dark. The eye sees the light area, not the sides and the leg looks slimmer.

Short legs look longer if the color is continuous from the waistline to the shoe. Matching colors is difficult, and stockings are blended with hose and hose should be the lighter color.

Thin legs look more shapely or heavier in white stockings, opaque hose, fishnets, geometrics and pastel or bright colors, but the wearer should blend these in with their costume.

Textured hose, are best if worn with a chunky heeled, rounded or squared shoe.

If you are going to wear the new styles, you must present the total look. The stockings are all good if they are worn properly.

In the new total leggy look, the weight of the stockings should be slightly less than the weight of the dress fabric. Heavy wool fabrics call for heavy textured or opaque hose. Opaque crepe hose should be worn with lightweight wool crepe and lightweight nets or laces with cotton and linen.

The pany hose can solve the problem of exposing the tops of stockings when seated and buyers say panty hose sales are rocketing. A lightweight girdle may be worn over these stockings.

King's To Go Tane Studies At Baylor U.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry King, teachers at Spearman Junior High School, will be among 400 expected to attend the Tenth Annual School on Alcohol and Narcotics Studies at Baylor University Feb. 23-24.

The school is sponsored jointly by Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education, (TANE) and Baylor University.

Their attendance at the School on Alcohol Studies is sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Spearman.

Experts in field of alcohol, narcotics, other dangerous drugs, tobacco, and highway safety will conduct the school.

TANE is a non-profit organization, supported financially by Texas churches of several denominations and by individual contributions. Programs include a speakers bureau of more than 100 men, publications for student and teacher, and audio visual teaching aids, including films and film strips. New teaching aids and books will be introduced at the School at Baylor.

TANE's purpose is to prevent problems that arise from the use of alcohol, narcotics and other dangerous drugs. "In this field, an ounce of prevention is worthy many pounds of cure," said Rev. Tucker, who has headed TANE for the past 16 years.

Local Singers Are Members Of Oratoria Chorus

The rehearsal of the Pampa Oratorio Chorus which will present Brahms' REQUIEM April 21st in the Pampa High School Harvester Field house, has brought an excellent turnout of area singers.

Spearman singers who are practicing with the group are Mrs. Don Knox, Mrs. Dick Countiss and Mrs. L.L. Laws. These women say the REQUIEM is very beautiful and melodious. Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Countiss sang with the chorus last year when they presented THE MESSIAH.

The April 21 presentation will be under the direction of Dr. Richard P. Condie, Director of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. John Garcia, Mrs. Eldean Reed and Mr. Fred Watkins have been selected as soloists for the presentation of this sacred work. Accompanists are Mr. Jerry Whitten and Mrs. John Gill.

Dr. Condie's direction and the April presentation are under the sponsorship of the Pampa Fine Arts Association, and all area singers are invited to participate.

Joyce Dixon Chosen Among Nation's Best

The kindness and graciousness of the many people of Spearman who called and brought food and helped in so many ways at the time of the death of our beloved husband and father is deeply appreciated. Thank you all from the depths of our hearts, Mrs. Madeleine Parsons, John C. Parsons, Robert D. Parsons, Diana Parsons

Two Hutchinson County elementary school teachers have been named among 180 of the nation's outstanding early education teachers by Grade Teacher Magazine, a national publication.

National recognition was given the women, Mrs. Erica W. Johnson, who teaches first grade at Stinnett Elementary, and Mrs. Joyce Dixon, now retired, who taught first grade last year at Pringle. Mrs. Dixon, a Hansford County resident, is the wife of Perry Dixon, They live in Morse.

The award winners, according to Allen Raymond, publisher of the magazine, were chosen after a survey of school systems throughout the country. School superintendents made recommendations to the magazine editorial staff, who later chose the winners.

Mrs. Dixon, who retired from teaching this year so she could be a stay-at-home mother for her third grade son, has taught seven years. Only one of the seven was spent at Pringle with the other six in Borger. Last year, she was the only first grade teacher in the Pringle Independent School District.

"I'd only taught first grade two years," Mrs. Dixon said, "and that's one reason I was so surprised" by the award. "We're thrilled, as you can imagine," said Eugene Weeks, superintendent at Pringle, "that we would have a teacher of this caliber in our system."

Weeks said Mrs. Dixon was "very deserving, because of her effectiveness in the classroom."

Mrs. Johnson, a teacher for 23 years, has taught 10 years at Stinnett. She has taught first grade 16 years.

"I think it's a wonderful honor and I'm very pleased," she said. Stinnett superintendent of schools Harold Dalton called Mrs. Johnson "a very dedicated person."

When asked why he nominated her for the award, Dalton said, "I guess one of the main things is her enthusiasm and love for children. She seems to go out and get extra material, different teacher's aids to stimulate the children."

Both teachers will receive award plaques from the magazine in recognition of the honor.

Mrs. Susie J. Hand, manager of the Retail Credit Corporation has just returned from Southwest Management Institute held February 11 thru 16, at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Austin. Sponsored jointly by the University of Texas and the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, the institute is held annually to give credit bureau and collection service managers further professional training.

SECOND OF A THREE-PART SERIES

How To Safeguard Young Hearts

(Editor's note: This is the second of a three-part series of articles presented by your Heart Association to tell parents how they can safeguard their children's hearts, as well as their own.)

Good dietary habits are extremely important to children. In planning meals, mothers should go beyond the simple and obvious requirement of providing enough food to sustain growth and energy requirements.

Equally important is the need to encourage maintenance of normal weight, and to establish dietary habits which tend to lower cholesterol levels in the bloodstream. According to informed medical opinion, lower cholesterol levels retard the onset of atherosclerosis, or hardening of the arteries, a disorder which helps to set the stage for heart attack and stroke.

Anything the homemaker can do to get children started in the proper dietary habits can be of great advantage in the adult years when they become increasingly vulnerable to heart attack. But the degree of vulnerability can be changed by minimizing the risk factors. The sooner good dietary habits are begun, the better the youngster's chances of avoiding or delaying a heart attack in his or her adult years.

What mothers should remember in planning meals are these three simple rules:

1. Replace saturated fats in your diet with polyunsaturated fats as much as possible.

Polyunsaturated fats are largely liquid vegetable oils such as corn, cottonseed, soybean and safflower oils. Fish and poultry also contain polyunsaturates. This type of fat tends to lower blood cholesterol.

The goal in regulating fat in the diet is to raise the proportion of polyunsaturates to saturated fats. For example, one can eat more fish and poultry in place of meat. Use of skimmed milk in place of whole milk and cream is advisable as a valuable source of nutrients. In cooking, use vegetable oils instead of butter and lard.

2. Eat less food that is high in cholesterol.

Cholesterol is a substance which our bodies manufacture and which is also present in the foods we eat. It is found in large quantities in egg yolks, shellfish and organ meats (such as liver and kidney) contain high amounts of cholesterol. When we take in more cholesterol than our bodies need, the excess may be deposited in the arteries and may add to the build-up of atherosclerosis.

3. Count calories, remembering that obesity often begins early.

Regulate the quality and quantity of the food eaten by your children so that they will be neither overweight nor underweight, but rather at normal weight. Diet changes should never be drastic. A balanced diet is necessary for good health, and harm can result in cutting out essential foods. Your doctor can help you with diet planning.

While establishing good diet practices for your children, you will also be observing them for yourself and your husband. Thus, you will be reducing your own and your husband's risk of heart attack.

Next installment: Minimizing other risk factors.

AS NEW OWNERSHIP - NEW MANAGEMENT TAKE OVER

BIG EXCITEMENT AT CH. 7

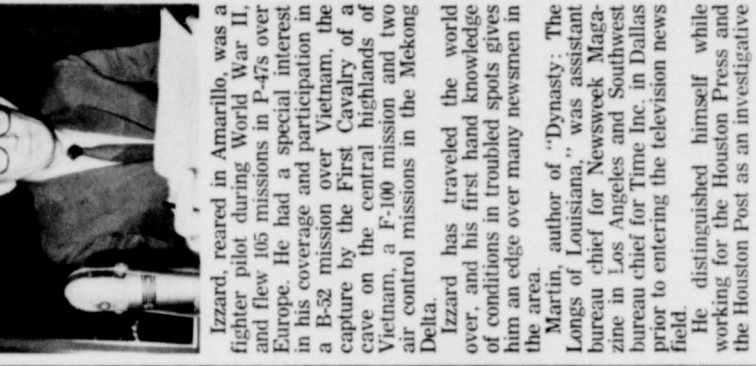

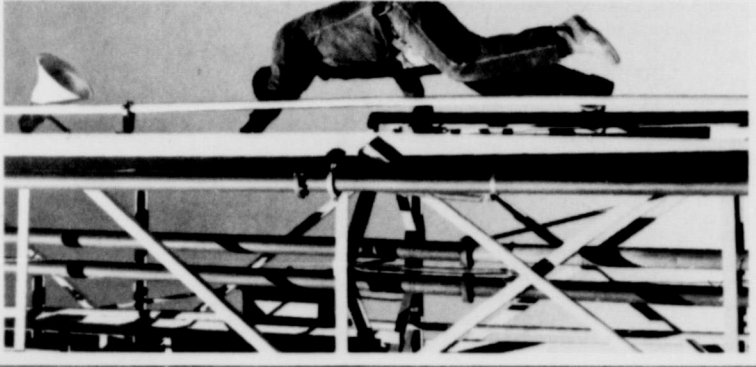

News Department Comes on Strong

Both Izzard, 44, and Martin, 42, are experienced reporters and editors. Izzard, a University of Illinois graduate, has worked in radio and television news since 1948. On the first television newscast in Amarillo, he coined the phrase "Golden Spread," a term now widely used by all media.

He has covered several major stories in Amarillo and throughout the state, including the 1964 earthquake, Project Gnome, the atomic device blast near Carlsbad, N.M., to name a few.

Martin, 42, is the editorial director at KFDA-TV and won the National Sigma Delta Chi Award for his editorial work. He also freelances on several national magazines, notably among them The Saturday Evening Post.

He is married and has two children.

Izzard, reared in Amarillo, was a fighter pilot during World War II and flew 105 missions in P-47s over Europe. He had a special interest in his coverage and participation in a B-52 mission over Vietnam, the capture by the First Cavalry of a Vietnam, a F-100 mission and two air control missions in the Mekong Delta.

Izzard has traveled the world over, and his first hand knowledge of conditions in troubled spots gives him a depth over many newsmen in the area.

Martin, author of "Dynasty: The Long of Louisiana," was assistant bureau chief for Newsweek Magazine in Los Angeles and Southwest bureau chief for Time Inc. in Dallas prior to entering the television news field.

He distinguished himself while working for the Houston Press and the Houston Post as an investigative

High Powered Engineers Work on Picture Problems

"Fish in the Canadian River were getting better reception than most people were. You wouldn't think a few inches could make much difference in reception, but with the tower out of line by 10 inches, the station's donut-shaped beam was tilted viewers south, and standing nearby in the river." The tower wasn't, exactly the Leaning Tower of Pisa, but Cammady said that "being off just a little was enough to cause a blizzard on most screens to the south and poorer reception generally."

The engineers set up their transit on the east, north and south, taking sightings from the bottom of the tower to the tip of the antenna.

"We sent a man to the top, and he wrested the antenna in his collar, 15 feet above the tower. Then he started on the tower. It took us about three hours to straighten it," Cammady said.

With the adjustments, an increase in power and a plumbed tower, the KVII-TV transmission improved. Viewers noticed it as calls to the station indicated.

"If all should have been done a long time ago, Tyler observed.

used by companies such as Jet Propulsion Labs, one of the nation's firms that need the most accurate weather information available.

What about staff changes? "We're adding, not subtracting," he said. "We've got a good staff now, and we're beefing it up with some more competent talents."

Fingering the last sesame seed off the plate, he added: "You know, the guy on Madison Avenue as our sales manager. We want to know what our viewers want, and we're studying the programming now to design it for the people in our part of the country."

Another staff meeting ended the interview, but I checked John's credentials before I left. He's a director of the Texas CATV Association, and has been on the staffs of KTTA-TV, Shreveport, La., KTVT, Fort Worth, and KFDA-TV, Amarillo. Every location is better off for his having been there.

I walked out, not skeptical, but believing what I saw. KVII-TV ISN'T the same station, and I say Cheers to that!

Area Viewers see immediate improvement in K-7 picture quality. See back of this section for picture story of how it happened.

Reporter Sees Effect of Change watching the seconds tick away so it could go home and forget the whole day over happened.

So, I asked John why the sudden happiness in the atmosphere.

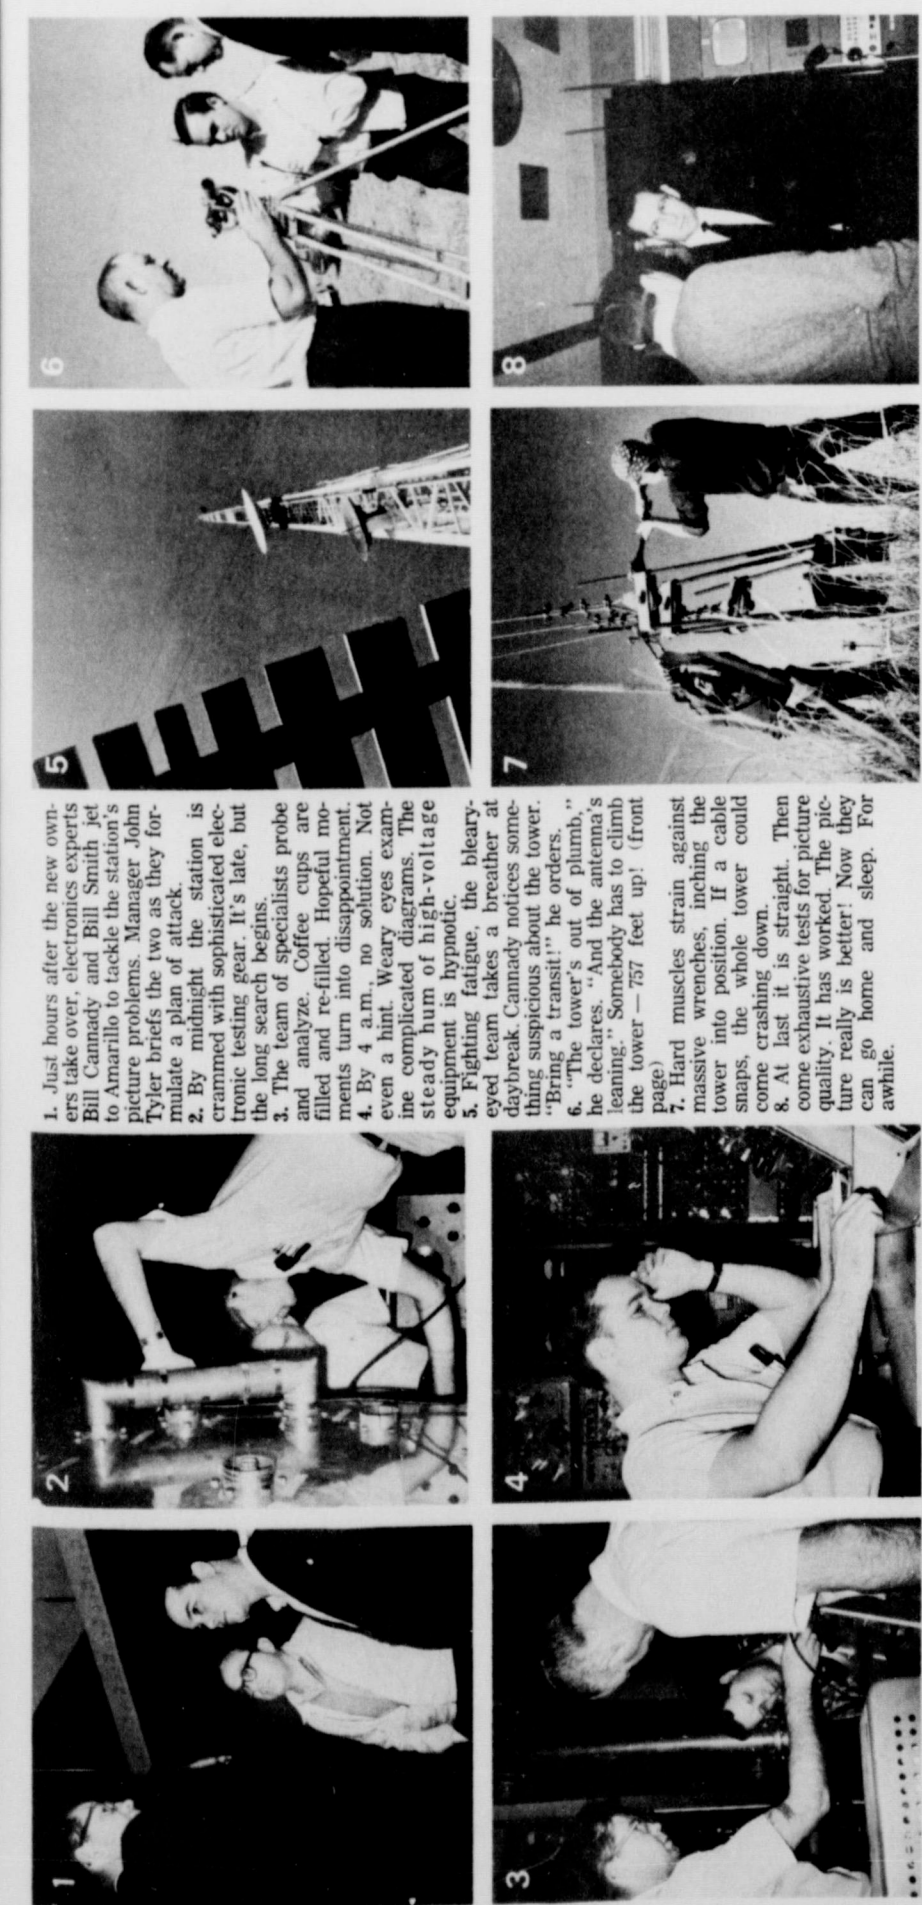

The change of management and the sale of the station to local ownership has resulted in a spark of optimism throughout the area, and I know it," he emphasized.

KVII-TV now is owned by Mrs. Estelle Marsh, Stanley Marsh III, Tom Marsh and Michael Marsh, all of Amarillo.

"The Marsh family has been associated with successful Amarillo and area businesses for many years, and they want to see KVII-TV succeed, and they're doing those things necessary to see that it does. I know, figuring a put-on-shut-up attitude here would get the best results."

John pointed the half eaten hamburger my way, and said: "You know that if anything happens on the High Plains, the switchboard here lights up like a pinball machine gone berserk, and that's been happening ever since the Marshes bought the station."

"One viewer summed up all the calls when he asked what we did to the picture. We didn't know whether to jump, pull the plug on him or to just let him go. I'd been in the station when a leathargic staff was walking on its lower lip, again, he told us. So we did."
