Like Two Frogs in a Fiery Pool

THESE two members of the "Co-2" squad of the Los Angeles fire department, clad in asbestos pajamas, have walked right into a mass of flames to demonstrate how their carbon dioxide extinguishers work. Once the gas comes into contact with the air it turns to "snow" and literally freezes out the toughest blaze. It is especially efficient in gasoline, oil and most chemical fires.

HANSFORD MEN WIN PRIZES ON CATTLE AT GUYMON FAIR

Two Hansford county men were winners in fine cattle class at the Guymon Panhandle free fair held in that city two weeks ago. They were Robert Shapley and Elmo McClellan.

Competition in the fair at Guymon this year was unusually strong, county agent Frank Wendt said. Fine milk stock from all over the North Plains of Texas and Oklahoma were entered in the contests. The grand champion award was for a fine milk cow. Shapley won nine first places, 4 second places, 1 third place and two championships and one grand champion prize.

McClellan won a grand champion award on one of his blooded bulls. "Interest in better dairy cattle in Hansford county is picking up," Frank Wendt, county agent said, who has been working with farmers since his arrival here more than two months ago.

New Office Is Being Remodeled This Week In Spearman City Hall

A new office for the city manager and also for the city water department, was being remodeled this week. Since the removal of a number of county officials to the new courthouse a number of improvements are being made at the city hall.

The new office of the city manager will be where District Clerk J. E. Womble formerly was. It will be much more convenient for taking care of the city's affairs and will require less heating facilities this winter. The space that has been used heretofore by the city manager will, in a few weeks, be made into a city commissioners chamber. It will have a good sized seating capacity and when completed, citizens will be privileged to attend all city commission meetings.

Twenty-Cent Increase Is Due To $36,000 Improvement Program of Street Paving, Water System

VALUATION OF PROPERTY IS EXPECTED TO REACH $1,650,000; OVER $100,000 INCREASE; NO SPECIAL LEVY TO BE MADE

The city of Spearman's tax rate was set today at $1.20 on the $100 valuation, according to a formal statement issued from the office of city Manager R. C. Sampson. This is an increase of 20c per $100 over last year's tax rate. The hike came due to the unusual city improvement which included almost 15 additional blocks of street paving and a new water system, Sampson said. The two projects were completed at a cost of $36,000, which has been a part of the cities building program since March 1. Of this sum $20,000 was used on paving and $16,000 on the new water system.

No special levy, however, will be made this year, Sampson said, which would amount to 25c on the $100 valuation, due to the self-supporting condition of the city government. Revenue from the city water department is taking care of all operating expenses of the city, which includes salaries for city manager, mayor, city commissioners, water department, fire department, police and street maintenance.

Valuations Are Up Property valuations are expected to be slightly increased. The checking roll has not yet been completed, but an estimate at this time indicates that valuation figures for city property will run about $1,650,000 or about $133,000 more than 1930. Last year city property valuation amounted to $1,517,000.

MAYOR ISSUES STOCK WARNING TO CITIZENS OF THE CITY

Citizens who are careless about permitting their milk cows to run loose in the city are warned by Mayor W. D. Cooke, that there is an ordinance imposing a fine and also a likelihood for damages for such an offense. This week a number of cows were reported loose in the city and some residents reported damages to their lawns and trees.

Mayor Cooke declared today that the stock law in the city would be rigidly enforced and warned all citizens to keep their stock up. One unfortunate cow roaming about town Tuesday found her way to the city hall. She was forthwith tied up. So far, her owner has not claimed her.

Entomologist Studies Worm Condition Here

That many fields of this section are infested with what is known as false wire worms that causes serious damage to wheat every year in Hansford county, S. E. Jones, entomologist of the Texas experiment agricultural station, who made a survey in the county last week to determine the amount of these pests found here, declared that he hoped investigations being made in this portion of the state might lead to some measure of control.

In scattered localities Jones unearthed beds of the worms. Some fields, he said, were free of them. In explaining the origin of the false wire worm, Jones said it was the infant of the small beetle found in great quantities in this country during harvest time. Where grain is sowed in the dust, the worm eats the seed before it germinates and also gnaws off the young plant in the fall and spring, particularly when the ground is dry.

"As yet," he said, "we have found no way to exterminate these serious pests. We are working hard now upon a measure of control for there is a great danger of their spreading which would result in Millions of Dollars lost to farmers of this section each year."

FARMERS WILL MEET TO DISCUSS ROTATION

The discussion of crop rotation and a plan to determine if it will prove profitable to farmers of this section will be brought out at the regular meeting of the agricultural committee of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce in Spearman at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It was announced by R. V. Converse head committee man.

Converse said that a move will be started to get farmers to set aside a certain tract of land and devote it to a different crop each year. "All we are asking farmers to do," Converse said, "is try out the plan so that they might find out for themselves what crop rotation will do."

All farmers of the county are invited to attend the meeting.

Ditch Sparks who runs a modern dairy west of Spearman, producer of grade "A" milk declares today that he had one cow in his herd that weighs out 12 gallons of milk per day.

Sparks also said that the lowest producing cow in his herd gave 4 gallons of milk a day. The dairy is operated in a modern way and meets the requirements of the standard dairy ordinance.

IF YOU THINK ANYTHING OF YOUR TOWN

By J. D. C. If you have any fight, if you have any zeal; If you have any love for your town in your heart, You'll smile and stand pat and you'll not turn and squeal. When you get the cards stacked and you draw a bad deal. You'll want to build up and never tear down, If you think anything of your town.

So, its all up to you if there's good you can do. And you have any love for your town in your heart; You'll give and you'll work for the good that you see, To make it a place that you want it to be. When there's work to be done, you can always be found, If you think anything of your town.

Light rains, varying from mist to light showers fell over Hansford county early this week. Sunday a cold wave from the north sent the temperature down to 57 degrees.

Cloudy weather continued up until Tuesday with little change in temperature. Wednesday the thermometer again climbed back and warmer weather was reported general over the county with clearing skies.

Farmers declare that wheat sowing is at a standstill. However some report having sowed their grain in for moisture. Ranges and pastures are also on the wane and stockmen say that livestock are beginning to suffer.

PAVING HIGHWAY 117

Another high light of Spearman and Hansford county, which is news of interest to everyone, was the announcement last week in the Reporter of the paving contract for Highway 117 across Hansford county, which will be let October 19.

This means that work will be started in November on the project. There will be something like $180,000 spent on the paving across the county, a distance of a little less than 19 miles. It is a state aid proposition with only half of the cost being defrayed by Hansford county.

Much of this money spent will go to laborers in constructing the highway, Resident engineer Dyatt said that there would be between 50 and 85 men employed. In every instance possible, local labor will be used.

Again we say, Hansford county steps out and takes the lead in progress. While our neighboring counties who have already voted bonds are tied up with their disposal, Hansford county does not wait. She goes ahead. County officials are to be congratulated for this good piece of work. It will be an economic God-send throughout the winter months for Hansford county and Spearman.

THREE CHEERS FOR THE BAND

Spearman's band is going over to Perryton Friday to play during the Spearman-Perryton Football battle. And we ought to give them three cheers. They've been practicing hard and its simply a public spirited move on the part of director Snider and his musicians to render this service for Spearman and her public schools.

A lot of credit ought to go to the band. They have worked with little encouragement and they certainly deserve more than they are getting.

TAKE OFF THE LOCK

The individual who locks up his pocketbook with a feeling of fear and declares that he is not going to spend any more until good times come again isn't helping himself or anybody else. The merchant who shakes his head and says I'm not going to stock any more merchandise because folks won't buy it and puts a padlock on his orders is standing in the way of his own progress and everybody else's.

Of course, this is no time to spend thoughtlessly. Economical buying is always a good practice at all times. But, we should buy NOW the things we need for the coming winter. Every commodity is lower now than it will be six months from now.

Let's take the locks off our pocketbooks and bank accounts, buy something from the other fellow so he can buy something from the other fellow and help things along. Every indication is that we've reached bottom and that we're slowly coming back up. Let's all do our part in making the lift easier.

Improvement to Aid Employment

A recent conference on unemployment, attended by official representatives of cities and states, urged the speeding up of public improvement of a permanent nature, with local communities assuming the task as much as possible. About three-fourths of the cost of such work, it is said, goes into the pockets of labor.

These recommendations are in line with those of other and similar committees which have been studying the employment problem and are seeking to solve it as far as possible this winter. Many communities are going ahead and following the suggestions. Public buildings, streets and bridges are being built, along with the most important of all public works—roads.

For the last few years there has been renewed agitation for year-round roads in rural sections to connect with main highways. Modern developments have made it possible to build such roads, with

EQUALITY

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

AS TENDERLY the starlight falls
On cottage roofs as castle walls,
And we, with all our contending,
Our much of making, much of spending,
Our holding high, and walking proud,
A little better than the crowd,
Find nothing in God's scheme, my brothers,
That makes us better than the others.

The workman passing by your door
May be a laborer, no more,
But who have so much wealth of beauty
They have no destiny or duty?
You are a laborer, I guess,
Or, if not that, then something less.
A weed beside the road of living,
Talking and taking, nothing giving.

There is but one nobility:
You may be better, friend, than I
But only if you better labor
For God and world and land and neighbor.
If I were idle, I would ask,
Or find myself, some sort of task,
For men are only equal, brothers,
Who labor somehow with the others

ONCE-TOLD TALES

By J. D. C.

A GROUCH GERMINATOR

I persue around every a. m. to my work and always feel putty fine so long as I can meet a feller now and then with a large grin saturated all over his mug. It just makes me grin and everything is knocking on four. But take it from my holster, Old Chumpies, when I meet a guy with his food cave all screwed into a half moon with the corners turned down, lookin like he'd been slapped in the peepers with a hot muffin, it knocks all the smile I got plumb down in my boots and I feel all creepy, nearly the same as if a hearse or a bill collector had passed. And I go about the rest of the day chewing my tongue and lookin just like my wife had arrived from her week-end visit and I lays it all to the Grouch-head that I met who has gone about spreadin a germ that's too mean to be labled.

Now I'm not proposin to be a perpetual smile shark advocator, but I'm sayin if a feller half tries he can push his lip up and make it look grinnish, even if he has to take both hands to do it and aint feelin well at all, instead of lookin like one of the lost tribe. The old Burd that got it into his bean that a little grin is better than a big frown, spoke a purty good piece, I assert frankly and so-forthly, I'd rather walk 9 blocks around and meet a mug with a good grin hangin on it than cut straight thru and come in contact with a cock-eared Grouch Germinator.

I aint never seen anything but women fallin in love with one of these Hyena-faced chumps and that's because she could allege cruel treatment when she got ready to have a chat with one of these Bar Babie who lables himself an Atty at the Law. Be it as it may and have it placed in your garm cap as you choose, but personally and publicly, I'm a shore nuff maniac about these smile-spreadin boys. In short speech I like em, same as I do sunshine, sleepin and apple pie. But, when it come to the grouch-portrayer, I'm leavin it blank, for one of em might think that I'm not jokin—and I'm not.

ADVICE—A Grouch is more to be feared than an income tax collector.

Story Telling Contest For School Children

Austin, Texas, October 15.—Story telling for little children of the first three grades has become one of the most entertaining and popular contests sponsored by the Interscholastic League in a number of counties during the last several years, according to Roy Bedichek, chief of the University of Texas League Bureau. The contest is open to sub-juniors, and the children may tell stories ranging from five to eight minutes, according to rules prevailing in the various counties. The stories may be selected from the school basic and supplementary readers, must be in good English and may be told in monologue style. The purpose of the contest, Mr. Bedichek, added, is to add to the mental enrichment of the pupils and to enable them to give a sincere, intelligent and effective oral interpretation of their conceptions to the audience.

International Sunday School Lesson
By DR. J. E. NUNN

OCTOBER 18, 1931

Topic:—Paul in Thessalonica and Berea.
Lesson:—Acts 17:1, 5-17:31.

Now when they had through Amphipolis and Thessalonica, they came to Thessalonica where was a synagogue of Jews.

But the Jews, being moved by jealousy, took unto them certain of the rabble, setting on a crowd, and assaulting them, they sought to kill them forth to the people. And when they found them dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are here also;

Whom Jason hath received: these all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

And they troubled the multitude and assaulted them; and the rulers of the city, when they had taken money from Jason and the rest, let them go.

And the brethren immediately went away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who when they came thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether the things were so.

Text:—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.—119:18.

A. D. 51.

Thessalonica and Berea.

Introduction

The name of Amphipolis, and the City," is derived from the fact that it is almost surrounded by the river Strymon. The journey from Philippi to Amphipolis is said by Renan to be of the most beautiful days of Paul's life.

Paul says he remained in Amphipolis over night. Both Amphipolis and Apollonia were too near the sea to be safe places for Paul and they could later be seized from Philippi. So Paul pressed on to Thessalonica, one hundred miles south of Philippi.

"As St. Paul approached Thessalonica, he must have wondered at its beauty, for it was then, as now, built in the form of an amphitheatre, sloping towards the sea and with snow-clad heights of Olympus in the distance behind it."

"Thessalonica" means "Thessalian City," a name given by Cassander who rebuilt the city and named it after his wife. She was the half-sister of Alexander the Great, and was so named by her father, Philip of Macedon, because she won a great victory over the Persians on the day he received her birth. The modern name of the city is condensed to Salonica, and under that name it has long been a great center of American missions.

The greater part of the city was accidentally burned during the World War, when Salonica was the base of the Allied Balkan front. Even while the new and modern buildings are rapidly rising, a part of Greece's great era of prosperity, one still hears tales of the fire.

Paul in Thessalonica. v. 1

Following his rule to make the synagogues the bases of operation, because the Jews were best prepared to receive Christianity, Paul spoke for three Sabbaths in the synagogue of Thessalonica, reasoning the Scriptures to his hearers, and especially unfolding the Old Testament prophecies of the Messiah's sufferings on the cross, his resurrection, and drawing an inevitable conclusion that Nazareth was the long-expected Messiah. The result of Paul's powerful preaching was the conversion of some of the Jews, who were in their lot with the missionaries, and also many of the proselytes to Judaism.

A number of the leading women were in their lot with the heretics of the new faith. Luke makes it plain to notice how far the influence of Paul reached the women in the circumstances of their life had not such ready access to the public lectures of the apostle. In the Christian churches these women found a place to give public expression to their views, and thus strengthen their religious convictions and to affect the opinions of others.

"World Upside Down." v. 6.

These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also. "There is nothing new under the sun. The fact is that the world is now on its wrong side up, and that it may be right side up again."

T. De Witt Talmage.

It is our profession, as we have denied the faith of the world, we intend not to let it remain just as they are in our life and human society, but to step on altering them for the better into which Christ came was hard and terribly cruel, little regard was paid to human life, the most brutal slavery was everywhere, no care was taken of the sick, the infirm, and the aged, and the most abominable impurity was flaunted without shame. "The world is still very far from being a kingdom of God, but it is immensely nearer than it was when Christ came into our midst. We date our years from the time of his advent."

"One truth is true for all: 'Except ye be born again, ye cannot see the kingdom of heaven.' Except ye be thoroughly renewed, turned upside down, ye cannot be saved."—C. H. Spurgeon.

Paul in Berea. Acts 17:10-15

"And the brethren immediately went away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea."

Berea is about fifty miles west of Thessalonica. "Berea is beautiful, a wholly charming spot, worth visiting for its present attractiveness. Flowing streams do abound in and about this town of many waters, and the trees and cotton and other vegetation are luxuriant. The people are pleasant, prosperous, and distinctively dressed. The smiling, friendly children would win the hearts of any occidental Sunday school."

William T. Ellis, L. L. D. "The city was founded a thousand years before any of the great cities of Europe were built, saving perhaps Athens and Rome."—Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D.

The Noble Bible Searchers. v. 11

"Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica." The word translated "noble" has been taken over in our English word "eugenics." They were better born and so of better character.

"Examining the scriptures daily. Every day, and not simply on the Sabbath, these noble Bereans compared the Old Testament prophecies of the Messiah with what the apostles told them of Jesus Christ."

"Whether these things were so." "True nobility of soul consists in willingness to receive the Word, combined with diligent testing of it. Christ asks for no blind adhesion. The true Christian teacher wishes for no renunciation, on the part of his hearers, of their own judgments. Open your mouth and shut your eyes, and swallow what I give you, is not the language of Christianity. If professing Christians today were better acquainted with the Scriptures, and more in the habit of bringing every new doctrine to them as its touchstone, there would be less currency of errors and firmer grip of truth."

Alexander Maclaren.

Trouble in Berea

"Besides the Jews, the converts included many Gentiles, not only Greek men, but 'Greek women of honorable estate,' women of wealth, position and influence, like the 'chief women' of Thessalonica and Lydia of Philippi. But the Jewish foes of Christianity were once more on the war-path, coming from Thessalonica in their mad bigotry, and once more arousing the crowd against the missionaries, doubtless with the same old charges of sedition and treason which they had found so effective before. Warned by past experience not to allow these hostilities to get to the point of riot and compel the intervention of cowardly authorities, at once the Berean converts decided to send Paul away, as the most prominent missionary, keeping Silas and Timothy in Berea to instruct them further."

On To Athens

men's money or men's applause. He had been simple, sincere, and courageous in his desire to win souls to Jesus Christ.

Reduced Expenditures Imperative Move

The American Legion, at its recent convention in Detroit, gained public good will on the bonus question when it voted to make no financial demand on the next Congress, which faces the task of either greatly increasing taxes during depressed times or reducing expenses to meet the government income.

President Hoover, in a public statement thanking the Legion for its action, said that it had set an example to all political or private agencies seeking funds from the Federal treasury. He said there should be a moratorium on demands for public funds until times improve and that sectional interests should become secondary to the common welfare.

As an example of the attempted raids on the public treasury, he cited 721 bills introduced in the last Congress, all of which were rejected, which asked for appropriations over a ten-year period of nearly $17,000,000,000. While rejecting these amounts, the last Congress appropriated some $10,200,000,000, the largest peace-time assessment ever levied against the people by a single session of Congress.

The people should demand that political or private interests, groups or associations, should refrain from asking taxpayers for unusual expenditures at this time. Furthermore, the people should demand that Congress cut appropriations to the bone before considering tax increases which, in the last analysis, all come out of the pocket of the ultimate consumer.

Menard County's sixty year old jail is to be preserved as a public library and community house after being remodeled.

On account of his physical infirmities, it was not safe for Paul to travel alone, so that a delegation from Berea conducted the apostle to the sea, a distance of about twenty miles, and thence, either by the road along the seacoast, as some think, or by ship, to the great historic city of Athens. There they left the apostle and returned to Berea, bearing Paul's injunctions that Silas and Timothy should join him in Athens as speedily as possible.

Bold Preaching 1. Thes. 2:1-5

It is very likely that Paul's enemies, the Jewish opponents of Christianity, had in the apostle's absence slandered him, impugning his motives, and declaring his object to be self-seeking. Such slanders Paul refutes by reminding his readers of his sufferings in Philippi, in spite of which, and in spite of the persecutions in Thessalonica, the apostle continued bold in his preaching of the gospel. He had not sought to please men, but God. He had not flattered men, he had not sought

Lynx Prepared For Perryton Grid Battle

Another victory was chalked up for the Lynx last Friday, when they defeated the Startford gridsters to the tune of 38-0. The game started with a high wind blowing, and as Startford had the advantage of this wind they held the locals scoreless throughout the first quarter. But in the second quarter the Lynx unleashed a series of drives that brought counters in all the rest of the quarters. The local line showed fight, and in every way played by far the best game they have played this season. The light fast Lynx backfield worked with precision, reeling off yard after yard like a well oiled machine. Startford's best work was done on the defense by their line and their defensive fullbacks. Scoring was as follows: Touchdowns, Vernon, three; Gamble two; Cator, one. Try for points, Gamble, one; Cator, one.

And Now Perryton
The coming Friday, the sixteenth, the Lynx will meet one of the strongest class B teams in the Panhandle in their first conference game. This team is Perryton. For years this game has been the classic of the North Plains, and this year, as the Rangers have literally the same team that had last year, with the addition of new material, and also have a powerful team, sure that this game will be worth seeing. So go to Perryton and support the Lynx as you have never done before.

CHAPEL NOTES

Friday in chapel some of the grade children gave their declarations and the 5th grade sang two songs. After this the Pep Squad yelled and sang. Mr. Snider gave a talk on the football games. Monday in chapel, Rev. J. H. Richards gave a talk to the high school. This was enjoyed very much as it was about the Perryton football game to be played Friday.

SENIORS

The Seniors wish to thank Mr. Snider for advising his teachers to be lenient with us on our six-week examinations. Of course they were! But we all have high hopes of passing. The Senior class also wish to say that we will be at Perryton 100 per cent Friday, rooting for our team. Almost all of the Senior girls are pep squad members, and we intend to do our part in playing that game. Win or lose, we will continue to back our football squad.

We are indeed glad to have our lassmate, Mac Richards back with us again, and hope we won't have many more absentees this year.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

All of the Junior class are anxiously waiting for Friday to come, that we can go over and see Perryton get beat. We realize that exams are this week, but we are not dreading them much, as we now that whatever we do we can go over to Perryton Friday.

We are very glad to have our ck patients, Vivian Close back with us again. She is catching up with her work, and is doing fine. We will be glad when Harry comes can be with us again. We are also happy to hear that Mac Richards was back with the school. We sincerely hope that one of them will have to be out of school any more.

SOPHOMORE

We Sophomores are very eager to finish our six-week exams as the Lynx are to play the Rangers this Friday and we don't want to think about anything but "Beat Perryton!"

Even though we are dumb, we want to learn a little, so we are studying Mrs. Wendt's advice and studying.

We would have a real interesting report if Mrs. Wendt would tell us whose theme she was reading last Friday from 10:30 to

WHY OUR BOYS AND GIRLS ATTEND SCHOOL MORE REGULARLY THAN BEFORE

By R. L. Snider, Supt.

Every teacher who has made her profession a true study has come to the conclusion that an important index of school efficiency is the degree to which a school system brings the children of its community within its walls, holds them in school, and facilitates their progress through the successive grades.

May I deniate at this point by letting you know our percentage of attendance ranges from ninety to one hundred per cent. Miss Nell Allen, who teaches the A section of the second grade has the honor of the one hundred percent attendance.

The Freshman B section has the honor of the best attendance in the high school—98 1/2 percent.

We have an active P. T. A. that plays no small part in our school. This organization is ever ready and willing to do anything that will be a help to child welfare.

We have an active Lions Club that does things and keeps still too; see the outcome of a banquet given to our football boys Tuesday evening, to spur our boys forward, and help them win the Perryton football game Friday.

It was at this banquet that our citizenry, made up of both our city and country presented our football boys with new sweaters, and this too, helps to explain why our boys and girls like to go to school.

The school board has helped to make it possible whereby our boys and girls have a wide range of courses to select from—thirty affiliated units, and two of the best school plants in the Panhandle—also a teaching staff that is equal to a growing situation. Hence I see no reason why our school will not continue to move forward.

GUESS WHO

Tall, fair and handsome, with beautiful red freckles sprinkled generously over his countenance. His eyes express that longing for love, you read about. And we notice that these eyes are very often turned in the direction of Louise M. in Miss Morton's senior room. He's very much sought after and still he isn't conceited—Guess Who.

Joke

One Sunday Evelyn Mathews cooked dinner as her parents were at church. They were going to bring the preacher home for dinner. When they arrived and were seated at the table Evelyn said: "Mother, I couldn't find the tea strainer, so I used the fly swatter." Seeing that her mother was very embarrassed, she hastened to add: "It was only an old one, mother."

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Freshmen are certainly glad that their six weeks exams are over. And we feel that we all passed.

We, as well as the rest of the classes are looking forward to the big game Friday and we fully intend to boost the football club.

Lynx Mentor Goes Into Friday's Game With Confidence Knowing That His Men Will Fight Hard

Spearman Team in Fine Fettle After Light Workout Thurs.; Important Game

Confident that his men will fight until the last whistle blows, Coach Billy Jarvis had little to say Thursday about the important conference game with Perryton in that city at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, when two of the strongest rival teams of class B district of North Plains meet in the premier football battle of the season. Jarvis, thoughtful and calculating, said, "We're ready. The team is in good shape, with no serious injuries. We're going in the game to do our best. Whatever the outcome, you will find the Lynx unconquerable in spirit."

Has Heavier Team

In going into the game Friday, Jarvis is aware of the fact that he is pitting his men against a strong, well coached team. He knows that the Perryton backs are heavier than the Lynx backs and he also knows that Perryton has a heavier line.

This year Perryton has not lost a game. Word comes from their stronghold that they have immense reserve power, that they have saved primarily for the battle with Spearman.

Last year, the Lynx on their home field trounced the Rangers. Still ranking in their hearts is that defeat. They have issued the determined ultimatum, "We've got to beat Spearman."

Lynx Have Good Record

The Spearman Lynx have also made an enviable record this season. They have so far this season chalked up 146 points to opposing teams 27 points in five games. Only four times has their goal line been crossed. In four of the games they have won by an overwhelming score, beating Startford in two games, 38 to 0 and 32 to 0; Dumas 45 to 7; Borger 24 to 7. The strong Miami Warrior team has given Spearman their only defeat so far, by a score of 13 to 7. The Lynx had a light workout Thursday and are in tip-top shape for their fight with the Rangers. The whole city is in high spirits. Spearman expects to turn out 100 per cent for the game Friday.

FIRST GRADE A

We have a happy band of little workers. We have our children divided into two groups, one we call the Aeroplanes, the other the automobiles. We have our books now and we are running a race to see who finishes the book first. Kenneth Carnes has been absent four weeks on account of an appendicitis operation. We will be so glad when he is able to come back to school.
For a health project this week we made a fruit man poster which we think is real pretty.

FIRST GRADE A

We are all still working hard and are very proud that we can read some now.
Some of the mothers who have visited our room since last writing are: Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Goodwin and mother Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Tindell and others.

flowers to school and we hope to have some beautiful pot plants in our windows.
For our health study we have made a fruit doll of which we are very proud.

SECOND GRADE A

We are busy and very interested in making Halloween decorations for our room this week. Also making invitations for the parents to attend P. T. A. this week.
We are glad to have had several of our mothers visit our room during the past two weeks. We want the parents to know what kind of work we are doing and hope to have more of them visit us in the near future.

THIRD GRADE A

The third grade have been working very hard on their Geography notebooks. This year we are making our own notebooks instead of buying them. We have been collecting some interesting pictures and making some good drawings to put in them. We are planning on these being the best booklets we have ever made.
Leaves in Autumn and Bob White are two poems we have memorized recently. We have written one of them and mounted it on construction paper.
Everyone is doing nice work and we are having very few absences and tardies.

"To Whom Shall We Go?" --- To Him Who is Greatest Problem Solver of all Times

MINISTER WRITES OF NATIONAL STRIFE AND UNIVERSAL TURMOIL

SAYS "BACK TO CHRIST" SHOULD BE SLOGAN TO CURE WORLD'S ILLS

By Felix W. Tarbet

On the eastern side of the sea of Galilee, called also the sea of Tiberias, Jesus had fed a multitude of people from five loaves of bread and two fishes. When He saw that the people were about to make him King by force, He retired into the mountains alone.

This miracle, the feeding of the multitude, is recorded by the four writers who have told us of the life of Jesus. The resurrection of Jesus is also recorded by the writers. This fact indicates to me the power of the Christ to take of both the temporal and spiritual needs of men.

On the next day the multitude found Jesus on the other side of the lake and expected to be fed again. But instead Jesus delivered a discourse in which He set forth the pre-eminence of spiritual over temporal needs. When He declared that "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink His blood, ye have not life in yourselves." They began to desert Him. Finally all were gone but the twelve and Jesus turned to them and said: "Would ye also go away?" Simon Peter answered him: "Lord to whom shall we go? Thou boasts the words of eternal life. (Jno. 6:68.)

This question, "To whom shall we go?" is the most vital of all questions that are before the world today. The world is restless, uneasy, unstable. There is an inward longing for someone who will arise and lead us to peace, quietude and tranquility.

In international problems this question is pressing for solution. The world war came on and each nation, crowding to front, was involved with the question "To whom shall we go?" After the waste of billions of dollars and the sacrifice of millions of lives, the Armistice was signed. Many began to cry "Peace! Peace!" But in the language of God's prophet they have cried "Peace! Peace!" when there is no peace.

The world is yet like a seething volcano. Why? Ah! When the nations asked the question: "To whom shall we go?" they looked in the wrong direction for leadership.

Every nation has virtually repudiated its wartime, since the signing of the armistice. To me the significance of this fact is simply this: "We looked in vain. You have not helped us out of this difficulty." May God help us to understand that there is one and only one Panacea for the world's illness and certainly the world is sick... and that is "Back to Christ." The League of Nations, World Court and all other schemes of men will prove to be "Cisterns that can hold no Water."

The world today needs the Christ. Let us get away from Churchianity and arise to the practice of Christianity. The Prince of Peace said: "For all they that take the sword shall perish by the sword." (Matt. 26:52) "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give unto you."—Jno. 14:27.

In national problems the question is of no less importance than in problems that are international. But I am limited in space and cannot deal extensively with this theme. I am trying as a preacher of the Gospel to point out the one safe way out of all our perplexing difficulties in connection with our life as a nation. This does not require wisdom nor learning. If I did I should not take up my pen to write on the subject; for men renowned for erudition and learning have dealt with the problem to little purpose.

Capital and labor must be adjusted to one or the other or there will be a continuous state of virtual civil war. Legislation, councils, arbitration boards all have tried to settle this matter, but they have failed. Can it be settled? Yes, by whom? "To whom shall we go?" To Him who is the greatest problem solver of all ages.

"All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also to them, for this is the law and the prophets." (Matt. 7:12) Where is the man who believes otherwise that that the practice of this one passage of scripture would put an end to all strikes, to ever clash between employer and employee and the present depression? The hearts of men are all full of selfishness and selfishness is the very antipode to Christianity.

"Back to Christ" in our homes is the only hope. Men and women weep over the decay of the American home life. Juvenile courts have their dockets full, but crime continues. Let Christ dwell in the home, "Morning, noon and night."

"Back to Christ" in our religious life will stop the decreasing of church attendance. So long as men preach churchianity instead of Christianity, creeds instead of Christ, the doctrines of men instead of the Gospel—there will be religious division, and general disgust with religion, so "Back to Christ" should be our slogan. "And in him are ye made full, who is the head of all principality and power."—Col. 2:10.

One More Heston

Jack Heston, son of the famous Willie Heston who was regarded as the greatest football star ever developed at the University of Michigan, is a sophomore and a halfback at Ann Arbor, and of course he will have a load to carry in the matter of family tradition. His father was all-America selection in 1901-2-3, so Jack will have his work cut out for him. He is expected to play an important part in Michigan's 1931 campaign.

Lipscomb Farmer Reduces Dairy Cost With Clover

Lipscomb, October 15.—Dairy demonstration records show that by feeding a well balanced ration in proportion to the milk each cow gives, and by providing good succulent summer pasture and sweet clover, G. A. Robbins and Sons of Lipscomb county have reduced the feed cost of producing one pound of butterfat from 23.4 cents in January to 9 1/2 cents per pound in early summer. W. K. Cottingham, county agent, points out that nothing but home grown feeds are now used since the sweet clover furnishes the necessary protein formerly supplied by cottonseed meal. No roughage has been fed during the summer due to the abundant pasture. The herd is composed of pure bred Holsteins.

USES OF PIMENTO

ON YOUR emergency shelf where you keep the jars, cans and other containers of good things to use when unexpected guests arrive for Sunday night supper or for cards in the evening, you should be sure to have at least one can of pimiento. For the mixed vegetable and egg salad strips of pimiento give a bright touch of color that adds much to the attractiveness of the dish. A few strips of pimiento may be added to the dish of assorted hors d'oeuvre by way of a garnish, and there are many ways of using pimiento for the sake of the flavor.

Cream Cheese and Pimiento Salad. Mix a cupful of cream cheese with a half cupful of chopped nuts, three tablespoonfuls of cream, a half-cupful of chopped olives, and one piece of pimiento. Form into balls—with butter paddles if you like. Serve on lettuce or water creess with french dressing.

Pimiento Potatoes. In deep fat fry two cupfuls of potato cubes; drain and sprinkle with salt. In two tablespoonfuls of butter, brown to a light color one slice of onion; remove onion and add two canned pimientos, cut in small pieces, and stir until well blended; add potato cubes and mix thoroughly. Serve sprinkled with fine chopped parsley.

Chicken and Pimiento Sandwich. Drain one pimiento and put through a food chopper with one cupful chicken, one small pickle and two hard-boiled eggs. Moisten with the oil from the pimientos, then add three tablespoonfuls vinegar and one tablespoonful Worcestershire sauce. Mix and spread on thinly sliced buttered bread.

Cheese and Pimiento Sandwich. Cream butter, add an equal amount of grated cheese and chopped pimiento. Season with salt and cayenne. Spread on slices of thinly cut white bread. (WNU Service.)

Method Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. League at 7:30 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. The last quarterly conference was held last Sunday morning by the presiding elder, Rev. Wallace. A splendid report was given especially the Sunday school, W. M. S. and League. Rev. Wallace stated that if the church would go over the top on salary and conference collections, this would be the best report in the Panhandle this year at the coming annual conference. Do you want to see your church have such report? If you do it can and shall be done. Member, do your very best and then you will have a good conscience when it is all over—November 10. The board of stewards are very busy now. They meet each Monday night at the office of C. D. Foote. We had a hundred per cent attendance this week, and expect that per cent until November 10. The congregations are good most of the time—especially at the morning hour. Even last Sunday evening we had a good congregation, bad as the night was. About 20 leaguers came—we can always depend on them. Make this and next month "church going month" and see what the results will be. Attend the S. S. The classes are growing—especially the adult and young people's classes—join one of them.—H. A. Nichols, Pastor.

Baptist Church

Despite threatening weather, we had good attendance at Sunday school and both the morning and evening services last Sunday. Interest in church worship seems to be steadily growing. Next Sunday we will have the usual morning and evening services and Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. All visitors are cordially invited to come and worship with us.

At eight o'clock the Union will go to the First Methodist Church where they will have charge of a special Devotional Service. Each town represented will have part on the program. A great time is planned and everyone has a special invitation to come.

Mrs. Marvin Lee Hostess To Le Jeudi Club

A green and white motif was attractively carried out in the appointments of the lovely bridge party given by Mrs. Marvin Lee, at her country home, October 8, when she was hostess to the Le Jeudi Club. Guests for the meeting were: Mesdames W. W. Merritt, Lynn Pack and Roy Maples. Members in attendance were: Mesdames Max Lackey, D. W. Holland, R. H. Prewitt, E. C. Womble, J. M. Thompson, S. B. Hale, W. L. Russell, Merle Jackson, R. E. Lee, Delon Kirk, J. L. Hays, Bill Whitson and C. D. Foote. Score awards in the games went to Mrs. Bill Whitson for high and to Mrs. E. C. Womble for low. Interesting P. T. A. Meeting

More than one hundred parents and teachers attended the P. T. A. meeting Tuesday afternoon at the high school auditorium. A group of "pep" songs given by Miss Morton, chairman of the music committee, and the "Special Entertainment" given by the third grade and others, were greatly enjoyed. "What Schools do to Improve Home Life," discussed by Mrs. Frank Wendt, and "What Homes do for Worthy Home Membership," by Mrs. Fred Hoskins, were the high points of the meeting. If the home and the school work together we will achieve greater results in character building, and the P. T. A. is the one organization that has for its one aim "Child Welfare." If you are interested in your child, your school and the community why not join the P. T. A.—Reporter.

Waka P. T. A.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Waka gave one of the most interesting programs of the year Friday evening, October 9, at the school building. The topic of the evening was "Training our Children" which was led by Mr. H. F. Collins. Mrs. Arthur Jackson in her talk on "The Modern Parent and Problems of Discipline," said: "There is too much punishment in the modern home today; we shouldn't use the word 'no' so much—it discourages the child." A very interesting talk, "Standards of Discipline" was given by Mrs. Mamie Powers. Mr. D. B. Stump in his talk on "Securing the Confidence and respect of the Child" stated that too much punishment will make the child afraid of you, and you must gain the confidence of the child before he respects you in the way he should. Intermingling with these discussions was music. Harly Stump sang two songs in Spanish, and a quartet was rendered by Oliver Stump, Maud Stump and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Becker. Following the program a social hour was enjoyed, also refreshments were served. We are very proud of the progress our Parent-Teacher Association has made. We have seventy-two members; attendance is good. If you are interested in the promotion of child welfare, whether you are a member or not, you are welcome to come at all times.

A very hilarious evening of Bunco was enjoyed. High score was awarded Mrs. Marvin Chambers. Low score was given to Mrs. J. P. Richards. Those attending were: Juanita Wilmet, Reba Barkley, Willie Brooks, Plonnie Mae Cecil, Olivett Hancock, Mrs. J. P. Richards and Mrs. Marvin Chambers; Wesley Hancock, Wesley Jenkins, Thad McMurry, Bill Burran, Clyde Wildom, J. P. Richards and Marvin Chambers.

CAT'S EYE

The Spearman Band will leave tomorrow at 1:15 o'clock for the Spearman-Perryton Game. We will probably toot-em-up a bit in Waka and also Farnsworth as we go through, but if you want to hear us toot as we have never tooted before, just be at the game Friday.

The Reporter got a letter from Jim Goad, and he wanted all the copies of the Reporter that he has missed and also wanted his paper sent to his address in Oklahoma City in the future.

The clean-up week that Spearman had a few weeks ago surely got results in many places. Jasper Bogue and assistants surely did make a showing in the tall weeds that surrounded the Christian Church. There isn't a weed in sight now on that whole side of the block. The Cat's Eye may have it wrong about the assistants, for Rev. Bogue didn't mention any, but I just naturally figured there were some after seeing how much work was done in cleaning up the church grounds.

The Cat's Eye was given the Bronx cheer by three of his friends, right out in the open and on the busiest side of the street in Spearman Saturday. Mrs. John Douglas, Mrs. Lulu Douglas and Ida Douglas came tripping up the street, and one of them said there goes that silly Cat's Eye and then all three of them sniggered out loud and gave the Cat's Eye the royal raspberry. The Cat's Eye wishes he hadn't heard it, but since he did all he can do is to publish it, letting the public know just what the Cat's Eye has to endure from day to day.

Marvin Lee came very near getting into serious trouble last week with his wife, whose name is Lulu. He told his wife that he wanted to get up real early next morning so he could sow a piece of land in wheat. They arose about 4 a. m., hurriedly ate breakfast and Marvin had his wife to fix a lunch for him to take to the field. Something led Marvin a stray, for he never did get to the field, but did Lulu know it? No.
