Seaman	LE	Hendrix
Henderson	LT	LeBlanc
Moore	LG	Kahlden
Henry	C	Skinner
Strickland	RG	Cassidy
Williams	RT	Aucoin
Hartsfield	RE	Smith
Dellinger	QB	Turner
Rice	LB	Cannon
Barron	RB	Brodus
Beutley	FB	Taylor

Texas Tech, still looking for its first victory and first score of the year, squares off against the LSU Tigers tonight at 8 p.m. in the first meeting between the two in Lubbock.

Both ball clubs will rely mainly on youth. LSU has a dozen sophomores from an unbeaten 1956 freshman team while the Raiders will call on 18 of their own.

NEW ADDITIONS in the Raider line-up tonight are both sophomores—halfbacks Ronnie Rice and Mickey Barron. These two boys, Rice especially, had good nights against Texas A&M last week and were promoted at the first of this week. Rice is the leading Tech ball-carrier with an average of seven yards per try with 91 yards in 13 tries.

LSU, fresh from a 28-0 drubbing of Alabama last week, will counter against Rice with their own sophomore, halfback Billy Cannon. Cannon racked up 141 yards rushing against the Tide to raise his two-game total to 211 in 14 carries for a 15.1 average, tops for the team.

COACH PAUL DIETZEL has been pleased with the offensive showing of his team and was especially pleased with their strong defensive showing last week. His second unit came along after a slow start to give added drive to the attack.

Dietzel is expected to stick to the same lineup that has opened for the Tigers in the first two games.

Billy Hendrix (187) and Bill Smith (210) will be at end. Hendrix is one of last year's returning lettermen while Smith saw only limited action. Hendrix is a junior; Smith, a senior.

AT TACKLE WILL be Al Aucoin (215) and Lynn LeBlanc (197). Aucoin, a senior, has been a second team performer the past two years. LeBlanc, a sophomore, was named one of the most improved linemen in spring drills.

Junior Larry Kahlden (204) and senior Ed Cassidy (200) will be at guards. Kahlden was No. 2 guard in 1956 and Cassidy was a letterman and one of LSU's top defenders last season.

The center is a sophomore, Doug Skinner (195), who is considered one of the best competitors on the team.

Russia Launches Earth Satellite

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. LONDON—Moscow radio said tonight the Soviet Union has launched an earth satellite.

The announcement was made in an English-language broadcast. The Moscow broadcast quoted the official Tass news agency as saying:

"As a result of the intensive work by research institutes and designing bureaus the first artificial earth satellite in the world has now been created.

"This first satellite was successfully launched in the U.S.S.R. on Oct. 4."

The broadcast said the satellite is revolving around the earth now on an elliptical trajectory at an estimated height of 900 kilometers about 560 miles.

Teamsters Elect Hoffa

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Team-rejecting corruption charges against James R. Hoffa today overwhelmingly voted him president of the giant truckers' union.

Hoffa won by nearly a 3-1 margin, receiving 1-208 delegates' votes against 313 for William A. Lee and 140 for Thomas J. Haggerty.

Hoffa immediately pledged to make the Teamsters "a model of trade unionism" and fight a threatened ouster of the Teamsters from the AFL-CIO.

Students Riot In Poland

WARSAW, Poland—Combined forces of Polish Red police, security troops and militia men from worker ranks fought down a new student uprising for freedom here tonight.

The students, still apparently untamed, t a u n t e d the anti-riot forces with shouts of: "Gestapo, gestapo." Poland was one of the first and worst sufferers at the hands of Hitler's gestapo more than a decade ago.

The forces used clubs and tear-gas and noise bombs as the violence spread beyond the student sphere to Poles of other ranks.

AFL-CIO Say No Go

CHICAGO—Secretary of Labor Mitchell today asserted there is a strong possibility that the election of James R. Hoffa as president of the Teamsters' Union will lead to "repressive labor legislation."

Mitchell said Hoffa's election will result in the expulsion of the Teamster's Union from the AFL-CIO.

Judge Blasts Integration

SAN FRANCISCO—A Mississippi circuit judge, a leader of the White Southern Citizens' Councils said today "we in the South do not intend to obey men, however exalted their seats or black their robes or hearts" on the segregation issue.

"The main objection to social integration of the races by Southerners is for moral reasons," Judge Brady said.

BenJack Cage Not Broke

AUSTIN—A Dallas attorney who formerly worked for BenJack Cage testified today that he was sure that Cage was not broke as the promoter of the now-defunct ICT Insurance Co. contends.

TEN PRETTY GIRLS were named Army ROTC Sweethearts Thursday. They are, left to right, Suzanne Ratisseau, Lubbock, 1st Battle Group; Karen Key, Lubbock, A Company; Cam Murray, Dallas, B Company; Janet Hopkins, Fort Worth, 2nd Battle Group; Ann Seelman, Amarillo, C Company; Barbara Quintanilla, Dallas, Brigade; Betty Hargrove, Brownfield, D Company; Madalyn Maddox, Fort Worth, 3rd Battle Group; Susie Eastwood, Fort Worth, E Company; and Winn Sherrill, Lubbock, F Company. (Staff Photo)

Elections of Ten Co-eds Announced by ROTC

Texas Tech's Army ROTC A SPOKESMAN for the ROTC Sweethearts were announced to units stated the elections were held at Tech as an annual affair and were one of the highlights of the ROTC year. It serves to build morale among the units and add color to ROTC units.

To ten Tech coeds went the honor of representing the Army ROTC units as sweetheart of the group. Barbara Quintanilla, a Dallas freshman received the most votes and was named Brigade sweetheart. The other sweethearts are Suzanne Ratisseau, 1st Battle group, freshman, Lubbock; Janet Hopkins, 2nd Battle Group, freshman, Fort Worth, Madalyn Maddox, 3rd Battle Group, freshman, Fort Worth;

KAREN KEY, A Company, sophomore, Lubbock; Cam Murray, B Company, freshman, Dallas; Ann Seelman, C Company, freshman, Amarillo; Betty Hargrove, D Company, freshman, Brownfield; Susie Eastwood, E Company, freshman, Fort Worth; Winn Sherrill, F Company, freshman, Lubbock.

Each candidate was escorted and introduced at the election by the cadet who nominated her. After the introduction, ballots were presented to the corps. Each man had a vote for three candidates of his choice.

Men's Fashion Show Scheduled Monday

How will Tech men students dress this year? Men, this is the chance to see what your competition will be wearing.

For the answer to this question, attend the Men's Fashion Show Monday night at seven in the old Rec Hall.

Theme for the show, sponsored by The Toreador and the La Ventana, is "Dress Right".

WOMEN STUDENTS will have a chance to see the suits, sport coats, slacks, sweaters, waist jackets, car coats and stadium coats that their male companions will be wearing.

There will be a total of 16 models, representing various fraternities and independent clubs, working in the show.

More Than 600 Attend Pep Rally

More than 600 students gathered in the Science Building parking lot last night at the pep rally sponsored by the Tech Army and Air Force ROTC units.

Glen Cary, 1956 graduate student of Texas Tech was the guest speaker. "I hope the response and encouragement shown tomorrow night at the game will go as great as it is here tonight," he remarked.

Furnishing the entertainment for the rally were the Triangles, a trio composed of Glenda Kirk, Pat Holley and Mayme McDonald. They introduced a new song, "Red Raider's to the Rescue," a parody on recent hit tune.

Rely on Friends But Not Too Much

Friends are wonderful, but even friends make mistakes. Tech student Richard Perkins found this statement to be true Tuesday.

Perkins and a friend were standing by the Chemistry building at about noon when Perkins remembered a chore that needed to be done.

He gave his friend his books, a structural geology, beginning German and Theban plays, and clipboard to hold an left. The friend strolled over to Perkins' car, a red 1956 Ford, and placed the books in it.

It's surprising how many red 1956 Fords there are on the campus. If there is, contact Richard Perkins at 2117-B 35th, or call SH4-0623.

Pre-Med Society Elects Officers

The Pre-Medical Society had its first meeting Wednesday and elected officers for this year.

Officers are president, John Taylor; vice president, Gerald Woolam; secretary, Barbara McDougal; treasurer, Aretta Jennings; and publicity chairman, Max Goodson.

Other business included deciding upon a place and a time to meet.

Tech Co-eds May Compete In National Queen Contest

Coeds from sororities and dormitories from coast to coast will soon vie with one another to be represented in a nationwide college beauty contest.

Invitations to compete for local and national honors are already in the mail to Tech sororities and dormitories. From the resultant entries, one "Queen" will be selected by the student body. Tech's "Queen" will then contest her charms against queens of rival colleges in this area for the selection of a regional college beauty queen.

If the Tech "Queen" wins, she will be featured in such magazines as Glamour, Charm and Mademoiselle and then the public, in addition to the students, will choose the national winner.

The winner will receive an all-expense paid ten-day trip to one of the world's luxury vacation spots, compliments of Campana, makers of Solitaire Make-up.

Persons wishing more information on the contest should write Elizabeth Haines, Beauty Consultant for Campana Sales Company in Batavia, Illinois.

Faculty Recital Slates McCarty

A faculty recital featuring D. Keith McCarty of the Tech Music Department will be tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the Music Building Recital Hall.

McCarty, on woodwinds, will be assisted by Mary Helen McCarty, piano; Helen Taylor, piano; and Robert Taylor, French horn.

The program will consist of "Concerto in C Minor for Bassoon," Handel; "Incantation," Vautatz; "Dance," Milhaud; "Premiere Rhapsodie for Clarinet," Debussy; and "Trio, Opus 40," Brahms.

Sigma Kappa Elects Pledge Executive's

A faculty recital featuring D. Keith McCarty of the Tech Music Department will be tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the Music Building Recital Hall.

Officers include president, Polly Green; vice president, Jane Adamson; secretary, Ann Hillgard; treasurer, Jeanette Dewes; social chairman, Carol Hanks.

Also, activities chairman, Kay Kessinger; philanthropy, Martha Edwards; standards committee, Brenda Keeton; scholarship chairman, Nancy Sanders; song leader, Carol Williams; communication chairman, Joyce Tallman; reporter, Jane Sinclair; and Panhellenic representative, Kay Davenport.

BSO To Begin Year At Buffet Supper

The Board of Student Organizations kicks off its second annual activities with an Inaugural Buffet at 6 p.m. Oct. 17, in the Tech Union Ballroom.

President of each campus organization is eligible for membership in BSO, according to the organization's constitution. If this is not possible some other club official may be appointed as representative.

Organizational dues of $2.50 are payable to Lem Miller, treasurer, Box 4405, Tech Station, by Oct. 17. Dues may be paid, however, at the buffet. A penalty of 50 cents will be assessed for dues paid after the deadline.

Tickets for the buffet are on sale at $1.25. Reservations may be made by signing the list at the Union magazine stand by noon of the 17th.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

THAT'S MR. HAYWICK—HE'S IN CHARGE OF FRESHMAN ORIENTATION!

Do you like Bibler's "Little Man on Campus"? Then here's your chance to get a whole collection.

Tonight at Jones Stadium there will be two stands on the east side of the stadium and one stand on the west side selling copies of "Little Man On Campus", second edition. It is a book of the cartoons, "completely new and much more laughable."

The second edition is completely different from the first edition of "Little Man On Campus".

The Saddle Tramps are selling the books to help finance the construction of the Tramp Circle between East Engineering building and the new gym. The Circle will be dedicated to the Southwest Conference with the emblem and name of each SWC school arranged around it, including Tech's Red Raider.

The remainder of the books will be sold Monday and Tuesday in the Student Union.

Double T Sets Homecoming Queen Election

The third annual all-school election for a Homecoming Queen will be sponsored this year by Tech's Double T Association. The election will take place November 7.

Any recognized campus student organization is welcomed to sponsor a candidate.

The Double T Association will be assisted by one representative from each organization sponsoring a candidate in eliminating all but ten of the candidates. These elimination ceremonies will take place November 3.

The ten remaining candidates will take part in the coronation ceremonies, November 8, and will also ride in the Homecoming parade.

The girl elected queen will be crowned at coronation ceremonies, November 7, at the Saddle Tramp

Circle. The queen will take part in all Tech's Homecoming activities and will also represent Tech in all Southwest Conference activities at the Cotton Bowl January 1.

Cry of the Off-Campus Parker

Everett Groseclose

From the far-flung corners of the Hub City comes the wild cry of the off-campus student, "Please light, don't change before I get there. I'm going to be late for government anyway."

"Lady, for Pete's sake don't pull out in front of me that way. You're someone's daughter, and I sure would hate to plaster you. Come on car, run right just until I get to class. That's it Mister, just step back up on the curb. I don't care to hit you either."

"IF I HURRY I can make it. Whew, that was close! On campus at last. Why doesn't someone up there move — Please. The parking lot is going to be full by the time I get there. It is only three blocks, but it'll take me at least ten minutes. Isn't that light ever going to change. At least the line is moving. Boy, that was a great advance. Three whole car-lengths. I could make better time walking. Why don't they make four lane streets and shoot out all of the street lights? I can see the Ad building lot now. Perhaps the space won't all be gone. Guess what? It is."

"I THINK I WILL try the lot south of the Speech building. I'll just head toward that cloud of dust. That's got to be a parking lot. Nothing else could possibly be that dusty. They should name the lot the dust bowl. No parking space here either. I'll try the big lot behind the Science building. I can see a space way down yonder. If I give the old V-8 everything she's got maybe I can get there before someone else does. Hope my springs hold up to jumping these ditches. Uh-oh, this is going to be close. Where did you come from anyway? Oh, I see. From out of the dust. "WELL YOU'VE BEAT ME to it anyway. I'll just go on down yonder to the end of the line.

For the benefit of the many boys who may wonder why it takes so long for some girls to come down in answer to a lounge buzz and also, because it's asked to be explained by some of the female gender, we shall endeavor to show what could have happened.

As an example, let's say that the date has been made for 7:30. During the afternoon some thought has been given to the BIG question as what to wear, but no organized or outlined plan has been made.

At approximately 6:15, after the girl has eaten, she will start to her room to begin deep thought on the BIG question, but usually one of several things can happen — one of her girlfriends living close to her has bought some Spanish fandango music or such that our girl is crazy about, another girl may want to play double solitaire about which our girl is a fiend, or she may have a sudden desire to count the spots in the marble of the hall floor.

SO AT 6:40 our girl enters her room after a stimulating time fandangoing or such, playing double solitaire, or if mathematically inclined, counting spots. After standing in front of the closetful of clothes for some time, she decides on an outfit; but discovers this was the dress she: 1) wore last date with the boy, 2) spilled her chocolate 7-Up on or 3) she's saving to wear to the library.

At 7 she returns to her room, after a shower and again faces her closet and after finding what she wants to wear, she realizes her nails need to be done again, because her pink nail polish will not go with her red dress. After polishing her nails and dressing at 7:25, the girl begins putting on makeup and combing her hair and at 7:30 she gets her buzz.

NOW: 1) SHE may immediately go down, but because she feels this may shock the boy too much, she puts on another coat of polish or 2) she may just curl up in the chair to finish the latest article on the physical properties of the amorphous crystal or such. So at 7:35 to 7:40 as she descends the stairs with her date waiting and doing double-time foot tapping, we say farewell to the girl and only hope that she will decide to read condensed articles on the physical properties of amorphous crystals and not wear nail polish or just forget it and take up tating.

Dunlap's

If's about time!

Yep, Tech men, we think it's about time that the masculine gender on campus asserts itself in this matter of fashion.

That's why we're enthusiastic about the Men's Style Show to be held Monday night in the Rec Hall. Don't miss it...

We're sure you'll enjoy it!

Class will be over by the time I get there anyway."

So goes the greater part of the day for the off-campus student. I read somewhere that the average person spends one year of his life on the telephone. I wonder how much of a lifetime the off-campus student spends trying to get on campus.

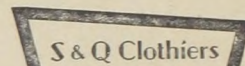

(Note that I was courteous enough to avoid mention of the half-mile walk to class, to say nothing of the tramp over Sahara Desert II. That shall be dealt with another time.)

High School Press Association Concludes Workshop at Tech

Closing a two-day workshop, the West Texas High School Press Association will elect officers this morning.

At the 10:15 business meeting, both faculty and student officers will be chosen.

Opening the workshop Friday, 144 students representing 18 schools gathered at Tech to discuss high school newspapers and yearbooks.

Proceeding the action is a session on financing yearbooks led by Robert Lynch, Chester Sullivan and David White of Taylor Publishing Co., Dallas.

Lynch graduated from North Texas State College and has been in the yearbook publishing field for the past eight years. While in college Lynch was for two years assistant editor of the college yearbook.

A session on newspaper advertising problems will be led by members of the Tech journalism faculty and Toreador advertising staff.

The Friday session opened with registration followed by a discussion on planning the yearbook led by Lynch, Sullivan and White. Also at that time Mrs. Erna Stewart of Big Spring led a discussion on newspaper organization.

A special feature of the Friday session was the distribution of analyses of West Texas high school yearbooks by the Tech journalism department.

The analyses were confidential and no public announcement of rating were made according to Wallace E. Garets, journalism department head.

Flu Stricken Iowa Battles Washington St. College

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
College football's titan's, led by mighty Oklahoma, should mow down the opposition today. Unless the flu bug bites hard, the top ten ranking teams appear in for a picnic with the possible exception of Iowa's defending Big Ten Conference champions.

On form and manpower and home fields, the Hawkeyes 1-0 figure to have too much of everything for the Washington State Cougars 2-0 from the Pacific Coast Conference. But Iowa's deep squad has been hurt by the flu and that could be the leveller.

The Hawkeyes Walloped Utah State 70-14 in their opener. Washington State, however, displayed possibilities in beating Nebraska 34-12 and California 13-7.

Oklahoma No. 1, Michigan State 2, Minnesota 3, Duke 4, Texas A&M 5, Navy 6, Auburn 7, Oregon State 9 and Michigan 10 all are heavy favorites.

The Sooners 1-0 from Oklahoma, also weakened by flu, had two weeks to prepare for Iowa State 1-0-1 and should roll on to their 42nd straight victory. The pre-nial Big Eight champ formerly Big Seven are aiming to increase their conference unbeaten streak under Coach Bud Wilkinson to 60, including two ties.

Michigan State's Spartans, 54-0 victors over Indiana, journey to Berkeley, Calif., for a joust with winless California 0-2. This will be served up to television fans across the nation by NBC after the World Series game at Milwaukee.

Minnesota 1-0, looking like one of the Gopher juggernauts of old in humbling Washington, 46-7, entertains Purdue 0-1 which was tripped by Notre Dame, 12-0. It's the Big Ten conference opener for both.

Duke 2-0, led by high scoring Wray Carlton, has nothing but overconfidence to worry about in its home game with slipping Maryland 0-2.

Texas A&M 2-0, conquerors of Maryland and Texas Tech, should pick up momentum against Missouri 1-0 on the Big Eight teams home grounds.

Navy's 2-0 Eastern leaders, loaded with talent and ably piloted by Tom Forrestal, a fine ballhandler and crack passer, should finally give Coach Eddie Erdeltaz a victory over Jim Tatum of North Carolina. Tatum at Maryland, whipped the Navy three straight times.

Auburn 1-0 surprised by upending Tennessee 7-0 and Chattanooga 1-0-1 hasn't got enough to give the Tigers trouble at home.

Oregon State 2-0 visits Evanston, Ill., for an intersectional joust with Northwestern 0-1. The Big Tenners have had three players sidelined with the flu but were rated underdogs even before the disease struck.

Michigan 1-0 is a three-touchdown choice over the fangless Georgia Bulldogs 0-2 at Ann Arbor.

Notre Dame 1-0, conquerors of Purdue, should ease the pressure on Coach Terry Brennan with a win over Indiana 0-1, crushed by Michigan State 54-0 a week ago.

The big game in the East sends Army 1-0 against Penn State 1-0.

LETTERMAN tackle Jim Henderson will get a chance to see plenty of action in tonight's game against tough L.S.U.

Turley, Buhl Hurl Third Series Game

by JACK HAND

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 4 (AP)—Bob Turley and Bob Buhl, a pair of bullet-throwing righthanders, will do the honors today when the World Series switches to this baseball-daffy city after a one day travel break.

All even at one game each after holding the proud New York Yankees to a split in their own stadium, the confident Milwaukee Braves return to their friendly "Home of the Braves" for three big games.

In sharp contrast to blase New York where a World Series is something that happens every October at Yankee Stadium, there is contagious excitement the brisk air of Wisconsin. The beer and cheese land never has hosted a series before and there is intense civic pride in "our Braves." Huge crowds cheered the Braves last night when they flew home on a pink cloud. Lew Burdette's pitching and Wes Covington's hitting and fielding blended into a heady tonic. The 4-2 victory that squared the Series came at the most opportune moment.

The Yankees, who seldom fly, rode into Milwaukee at noon on a special train and hustled to County Stadium for a workout. Only a few of the Yanks — Whitey Ford, Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra — had played in the park in the 1955 All-Star Game.

SOPHOMORE Q.B. Jerry Bell will probably see little action tonight due to a bruised hip received in last Saturday's game.

They start playing for the championship in Southwest Conference football today but the game that will be watched with the most interest is an intersectional affair in which Texas A&M will be called upon to show its real strength.

Several hours before anybody else starts playing, the Aggies will battle Missouri at Columbia in an afternoon fracas. It's a game matching unbeaten teams although Missouri has a tie on its record — a 7-7 draw with Vanderbilt. Last week the Tigers whipped Arizona 35-13.

A&M plays again without its star halfbacks, John Crow and Loyd Taylor, and the squad is riddled with injuries and illness. The Aggies will be in worse shape than last week when they sputtered and rallied for a 21-0 victory over battling Texas Tech.

Missouri looks like the strong-opposition of the season.

Five other conference members play tonight. Texas Christian battles Arkansas at Little Rock in the championship opener. It is a tradition that these two teams start the conference race and often it's the most significant game.

It appears more so than usual this time since Arkansas is one of the favored three—Texas A&M and Baylor are the others—and Texas Christian, supposed to be at its weakest in three years, has indicated it is one of the teams that has to be thrashed before anybody can expect a title.

Baylor will be in Miami to engage the once-beaten Hurricanes, Texas hosts South Carolina and Rice tackles a Stanford outfit, suddenly grown to awesome stature, at Houston.

Arkansas, Baylor, Texas and Rice are favored. The Bears are meeting the team beaten 7-0 by Houston — an outfit they sacked 14-6 last week.

Baylor rolled up twice as much yardage against Houston as Miami and all-in-all seems quite superior to the Florida school. Two massive lines and a passing attack that's hitting on all cylinders make the Bears tough for anybody.

Texas is mildly favored over South Carolina and rightfully so on the basis of what has happened thus far. The Gamecocks played mighty Duke a pretty good game, losing 26-14, and beat little Wofford 26-0 but that doesn't stack up with Texas' smasing triumphs over Georgia and Tulane.

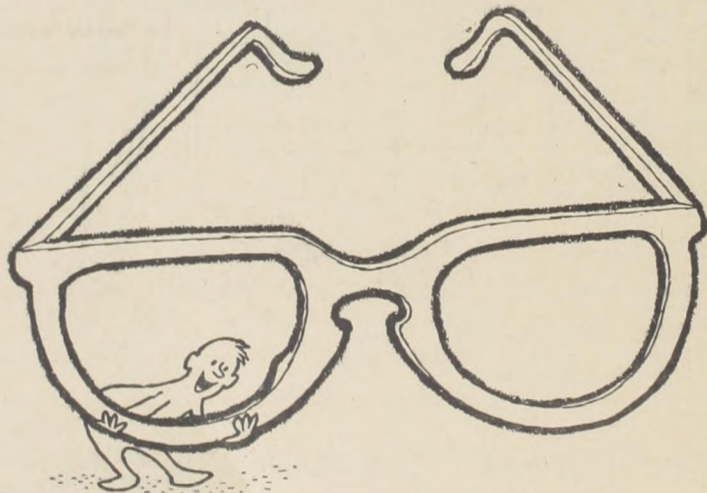

Rice could run into a hornet's nest with Stanford, the team that crushed Northwestern on television. PAGE 7, SWC...

spat will be senior Win Turner who has taken the job away from last year's top man M. C. Reynolds, another senior.

In starting the Rice (14-20) and Alabama games Turner has attempted five passes and completed three for 86 yards and one touchdown. His rushing total is a minus seven.

Reynolds, who rolled up 509 yards on 127 plays in total offense, will probably see some action.

AT LEFT HALF is Cannon who is lighting up the eyes of LSU supporters with his terrific speed this year.

Junior J. W. Brodnax, other starter last campaign, will be at right half. He played more time than any LSU varsity player in '56.

At full is senior Jimmy Taylor who is right behind Cannon in rushing with a 3.4 average, having carried 25 times for 85 yards. TAYLOR WAS the South eastern Conference's leading scorer last season playing with the 11th place ball club.

He is well ahead of the pace he set in winning the title last year. After two games this year, he's scored 24 points.

Tech's line-up will not be changed except for the addition of Rice and Barron. It will include Gerald Seeman (185) and Pat Hartsfield (200) at ends, Jim Henderson (200) and Phil Williams (215) sion last week and previously had whammed San Jone State 46-7. This should be an offensive game worth going to see. Each team features adept passing and each has strong running. A crowd of 60,000 is anticipated as the Owls, victors in their opening game with Louisiana State but idle last week, play their first time at home. A throng of 35,000 — capacity — is predicted for War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock for the TCU-Arkansas clash. The Horned Frogs will put a 220-pound line on the field against an Arkansas wall that is outweighed about 25 pounds to the man. But Arkansas has probably the finest backfield in the league, a veteran outfit with quick striking power and looks up to a solid victory over the Frogs.

Southern Methodist, still elated over its scoreless tie with highly ranked Georgia Tech, takes the week off to get its injured and ill back in shape.

at tackles, Charlie Moore (220) and Ed Strickland (180) at guards, Jack Henry (190) at center, Floyd Dellinger at quarterback, Rice and Barron at the halves and Gene Bentley at full.

BOTH TEAMS have been bitten by the flu bug but apparently it will keep no one out of the starting eleven.

Child Study Class Planned By Home Economics School

A new class in child study has been announced by the child development and family relations department of the School of Home Economics.

Organized under the direction of Mrs. Winnifred Gifford, the class will observe and study children from the first through the sixth grades.

Students will help conduct what is to be called The Adventure Club. This club will consist of two boys and two girls from each grade level.

Separated in two groups, first grade through the third, and fourth through sixth, the children will meet on alternate afternoons.

Projects or adventures to be undertaken by the club will be trips to the local fire station, airport, post office, planetarium and various other places of interest.

The first meeting of the younger group will be Monday, Oct. 14 from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m. The older group will meet for the first time on Monday, Oct. 21, from 4 p.m.

Both groups will meet in Home Economics building 105 at their appointed time.

Mrs. Winnifred Gifford, teacher and head of the club, has announced that there are still a few openings for children in age groups six to twelve.

Anyone interested in this club may contact Mrs. Gifford at Ext 416 in the School of Home Economics.

Pre-Law Club Sets Unusual Meeting

"Yes, Johnny, I quite agree that the person who murders J. Evretts stands a very good chance of going free at the trial, but J. Evretts would certainly not... well, you know how he... why don't we slay a beautiful girl like, oh, Charlotte Pepper for instance?"

This may be the conversation in the next meeting of the Pre-Law Club, Tuesday in the Tech Union.

Members attending are urged by President Jim Shearer to bring a list of people that deserve to be "rubbed out" and he warns members to be ready to defend themselves against anything which may come up at the meeting.

DON'T TRIM ID CARDS

"ID cards should not be trimmed to fit billfolds, because whole cards are necessary for admittance to football games," says Dr. James Allen, dean of student life.

Students who have already trimmed ID cards should take the defaced cards to Herald Photo, 1405 College, where they will be replaced.
