Sing Contest Wednesday To Match Greek Groups

The first annual Tech Fraternity-Sorority Sing will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Union Ballroom.

The event is under the sponsorship of the department of music student executive council, of which Dick McCollum is chairman.

All social fraternities and sororities at Tech will be represented. Each group will sing two numbers. One will be a fraternity song; the other, one of the group's own choice. An accompanying piano may be used, although a cappella groups are preferred.

Minimum Number Required

A minimum of 16 persons is necessary to participate, unless the organization has less than 20 members, in which case a minimum of 12 persons has been set.

"A meeting for the song leaders of each group has been planned for 7 p.m. tonight, to draw for the musical groups' place in the program and for the purpose of final definition and clarification of the rules," said McCollum.

Two rotating trophies will be presented to the winning men's and women's organizations by T. W. Bridges, Tech English instructor. He will also award plaques to the annual winners.

The singing groups must be student-directed, although professional help may be used at two rehearsals. Costuming is optional. Judges for the Sing will be local musicians.

Sponsoring Organization

The sponsoring council was organized last fall as a coordinating body for all music students. The organization is composed of one representative selected at large among the music students, one voting representative, and one reporter from each of the music fraternities on the campus.

Music fraternities include: Phi Mu Alpha, honorary men's choral group; Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary women's choral group; Tau Beta Sigma, honorary women's band organization; and Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary men's band organization.

In addition to the major project for the Inter-Fraternity Sing, the council also plans to distribute a booklet for entering freshmen music students. The council is the governing body for the Association of Music Students, which includes all students in the Tech music department.

Elmer Wilson, Pampa junior, was leading Tech's nine "ugliest" men Wednesday in Alpha Phi Omega's annual Ugly Man Contest, according to Don Harris, president.

Notes for favorite candidates

CHEERLEADERS CHOSEN

Phyllis Martin, Rodger Line, and Tom Nash will serve as assistant cheerleaders for next year. Virginia Carr, head girl cheerleader, and Joe Jack Reynolds, head boy cheerleader, made the appointments last week.

Phyllis, Lamesa junior, and Rodger, O'Donnell junior, were opposing candidates in the cheerleader race. Tom, Dallas sophomore, withdrew from the race before the elections started.

cost one cent apiece. Booths are in the Student Union, Administration Rotunda, East Engineering, Agriculture, and Science Buildings, and the Library.

"Voting has been rather light during the first two days," Harris said. "If the contest is to be a success, the students will have to back their candidates with more votes today and tomorrow," he concluded.

Proceeds will go to replace the loud-speaker system and chime clock in the west tower of the Administration Building. The present system and clock have been ruined by sand and weather. The clock, when replaced, will ring the chimes each hour during the day. Cost of the project is estimated to be $1,000, according to the chairman of the contest, Alan Conley.

Last year's title of UMOG (Ugliest Man On Campus) was won by Moody Alexander, Amarillo senior, in a race that netted almost $600 for the Cancer Fund.

Candidates this year and their sponsors are: Wilson, Alpha Chi Omega; Wayne Davis, Tech Veterans Club; E. J. Tarbox, Pi Beta Phi; Bobbie Rains, Kappa Sigma; Ken Kummer, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Raymond Mires, Sigma Nu; Phil McGee, Zeta Tau Alpha; Joel Lackey, Phi Kappa Psi; and Melvin Deardorff, Disciples Student Fellowship.

The Rushing Award for "outstanding contribution to the Union program" was presented to Dick McCollum by W. B. Rushing, donor of the award and alumni member of the Student Union Board. McCollum served as president of the Union Council this year.

The council's trophy award for leadership also went to McCollum. It was presented by Bill Scott, Union director.

YEARBOOK EDITOR CHOSEN

Linda Hudson, junior journalism major, was selected editor of next year's La Ventana by the Student Publications Committee Tuesday afternoon.

Linda is president of Casa Linda cooperative house this year, and is secretary-treasurer of the Press Club.

Earl Dietering, business manager of the year book this year, was re-elected to that position for next year by the committee several weeks ago.

Budget May Give KTTCC More Aid

An increase in budget allotment for KTTCC, campus radio station, and a decrease for the Tech Chamber of Commerce are involved in a proposed budget which the Student Council will consider at Monday night's meeting.

The Council will have $2.86 per semester from each student's activity fee next year to allot to student organizational activities. Under the proposed budget, presented last week by Business Manager Max Preston, there would be an exchange of amounts appropriated to KTTCC and Tech Chamber of Commerce. This year the radio station received 1 1/2 cents, and the Chamber 2 1/2 cents. Next year, under the budget proposal, the amounts would be reversed.

Although next year's members of the Student Council have been invited to sit in on meetings for the remainder of this year, they will not vote on adoption of the budget, it was decided at the last Council meeting.

Casa Linda Residents Lead Fall Grade-Point Averages

1,500 Students Here for Interscholastic Competition

More than 1,500 students representing 24 schools competed here Friday and Saturday in the University Interscholastic League instrumental music contests for Region I.

Orchestra competition in the Music Building at Tech opened the meet. Orchestra, solo and ensemble competition was held that evening, also in the Music Building.

Lubbock, Plainview, Levelland, Brownfield, Abernathy, and Sundown High Schools and J. T. Hutchinson Junior High School of Lubbock were among the sweepstakes winners in the Region I meet.

Excellent ratings in each of three events, concert, sight-reading and marching, determine sweepstakes winners. Students competed against standards and not each other.

Other contests during the meet were held at Chapman Field, Lubbock High School and O. L. Slaton Junior High School. Thirty-two bands participated in Saturday's contests.

Prof. D. O. Wiley, Tech director of bands, was co-chairman of the regional executive committee for the competition.

Federal Inspection Slated For May 13

Tech's Army ROTC will receive its annual federal inspection by a six-man team May 13, according to Col. Hampton Green, professor of military science and tactics.

Members of the team, headed by Col. Thomas C. Green, deputy chief of the Texas Military District for ROTC at Austin, will check all functions of the Tech units. Inspection will include phases from supply and armament to classroom techniques. A formal review and individual inspection will be held Thursday afternoon.

Members of the group include Col. Green, Maj. Edward E. Saxby, Arlington State College; Maj. Louis J. Scheiter Jr., Hardin-Simmons University; and Maj. H. G. Thompson, in charge of ROTC affairs of the Texas Military District.

Col. Noel H. Ellis, chief of the troops division, Fourth Army Engineers, and Lt. Col. J. H. Cole, chief of plans and training division of the Fourth Army Signal Corps section, are special inspectors in the team.

Exes Will Observe First 'Texas Tech Day' May 8

The long arm of Texas Tech will extend all the way to New York City May 8. Hundreds of Tech's former students will gather in centers over the United States for banquets, speeches, dances, picnics, and parties.

The first annual "Texas Tech Day" for exes was set by the Ex-Students' Association Council at Homecoming last November. The executive board voted to hold the meeting each year on the Saturday following the first Monday in May.

"The purpose of a Tech Day is to bring exes together each year at central points over the United States to stimulate interest and for the common enjoyment of tradition and heritage of the big school on the South Plains," Executive Secretary L. C. Walker said.

Among the towns indicating they will hold special functions May 8 are New York City; Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, Midland, and Amarillo in Texas; Tulsa, Okla.; Roswell, Hobbs, and Albuquerque in New Mexico.

The Lubbock chapter has scheduled a free dance on the campus, reports from coaches, and a short talk by Academic Vice President G. E. Geisecke, Tech President E. N. Jones will be at the Houston chapter meeting.

Fiesta Will Close Union Calendar

Fiesta, an informal dance sponsored by the Student Union at 8 o'clock Friday, will close this season's Union dance calendar. Bernie Howell will play. There will be no admission charge.

The Union Building is coming to the close of a busy year of planned dances, movies, tournaments, and regular coffee sessions. The semester started with the Woody Herman dance in the old Rec Hall and was followed by the Sweetheart Dance on Feb. 12. Square dances have been held every Thursday night for those interested in brushing up on their do-si-do. Henry Scott, pianist and comedian, visited Tech in February. March found students attending a Soe Hop, and the Mid-Semester Blues. Polgar, the hypnotist, entertained students in April before Easter holidays. A Western dance was held last Friday night in honor of Rodeo Week.

NEW CATALOGS OUT

Texas Tech's 1954-55 catalog is off the press. It has two major changes. The course descriptions will appear in the five divisional sections instead of in the back as in the previous catalog, and a section entitled "All-College Programs" has been added to describe programs of study for students taking courses in more than one division.

The new drawing for the cover was made by Prof. Arne Randall, head of the applied arts department in the Division of Home Economics. The first few copies of the new catalog were delivered to the Registrar's office Friday.

In an exclusive showing, Reggie Van Snaz, frat president, displayed the new formal wear for next Fall. "The well-dressed greek will show for next Fall's formal functions in black tuxedo, black tie, white shirting and carrying Dr. Pepper" says Van Snaz.

"Van Snaz was asked: 'Why Dr. Pepper?'" "Obviously," answered Van Snaz, "you haven't taken the Dr. Pepper 8 day test!" Van Snaz went on to explain the 8 day test was drinking Dr. Pepper at 10, 2 and 4 for 8 days.

"Thereafter one could not think of turning out for any function without his Dr. Pepper," concluded Van Snaz.

Floydada Freshman Gives 'Highlight' Performance in Final Speech Play

By BARBARA ANN KNOTT
Toreador Staff Writer

An outstanding performance by Jean Porter, Floydada freshman, highlighted the third night in the run of "Goodbye, My Fancy."

The play, a timely satiric comedy by Fay Kanin, is being presented through Saturday night by the Tech speech department under the direction of Ronald Schulz, associate professor of speech.

At last night's performance, the curtain rose to reveal a cluttered girl's dormitory room with typical college girls providing the humorous dialogue and setting the pace for the rapid motivation which characterized the three acts of the play.

Miss Porter's diction and bodily actions were near perfect for the sophisticated Agatha Reed, congresswoman, whom she portrayed. Betty Doris Hamilton, Lubbock sophomore in the role of Grace Woods, Agatha Reed's firm, business-like secretary, gave a brilliant performance with her stern manner and dry humor. The audience's approval of Miss Hamilton was evidenced in unceasing chuckles each time she spoke.

Nancy Alexander, Canadian sophomore appearing in her first Tech play, was well-suited to her role as Mary Nell, typical college girl. She spoke her lines well and her actions were good.

Arch March, also appearing in his first Tech production, turned in a fine performance as Matt Cole, photographer. He is a senior student from Floydada. March's tense dramatic scenes added a touch of variety.

Bob Hawley, playing the part of Dr. Pitt, is appearing in his first Tech production. Hawley, junior from Spur, gave a heartfelt dramatic performance as a professor deprived of his desire to teach students the realities of a world faced with disaster.

Cal Foster, portraying James Merrill, college president, was stately and mature and at the same time meek. His performance as Merrill made the audience pity the man who doesn't have the courage, even when he is in a high position, to voice his opinions.

Others in the play who turned in good performances both in diction and action were Susanne Burnett, Winona Richards, Rita Danenberg, Joan Terry, Virginia Carr, Layoy Berry, Harriet Henderson, Joyce Selman, Josie Peterson, Ralph Parish, and Hardy McNew. Ralph Parish, David Larson, and Jack Cloude had very few lines, but their actions as janitors and telephone man were well done. The play, last of the speech department's presentations this season, was of a versatile character. A touch of sadness and drama combined with a great deal of humor provided a play that was touching and reminiscent and at the same time humorously typical of college life today.

Stage settings were so realistic they brought the audience right into the play. The tolling bells provided by the sound equipment for scenes in the play seemed to be ringing right on the Tech campus.

SCABBARD, BLADE ELECTS

Gayle Erickson, Midland junior, was elected captain (president) of Scabbard and Blade, national honorary military society, Monday night.

Other new officers are Walter Greenwood, Calallen junior, first lieutenant (vice president); Larry Marks, Amarillo junior, second lieutenant (secretary); and DeWitt Ward, Midlothian junior, first sergeant (treasurer).

The last meeting of the group this semester will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday in M-2.

The Red Raiders can win championships and be good sports while doing so, it was demonstrated at a fencing meet in El Paso Sunday.

At the Border International, which Tech won for the second year in a row, the Chihuahua team captain presented, a complimentary pennant to the raiders. The pennant displays the insignia of the Mexican team and the name of the dramatic school which it represents. General Fellers To Speak Here

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's secretary and personal observer in the field during World War II will conclude the present series of Americanism lectures with two talks Thursday, May 13.

West Pointer and retired general, Gen. Bonner Fellers will speak at 5 p.m. to ROTC units in the Texas Tech gym on "Was There a Hidden Hand in the Military?" and again at 8 p.m. in the O. L. Slaton Junior High School auditorium on "The Strategy of Defense."

Gen. Fellers is an advocate of change in military tactics from mass land armies to reliance on air. He is author of the currently popular "Wings for Peace," a strong argument for a dominant air power. The general is an opponent of Universal Military Training.

Two other lecturers of national reputation were included in finale of the current American history lecture series under the sponsorship of the Institute of Americanism. The finale is entitled "Grass Roots of Liberty Forum," according to J. Evetts Haley, director of the Institute.

Clarence Manion spoke on "State Rights vs. Communism" Tuesday in the O. L. Slaton Junior High School auditorium and Frazier Hunt spoke on "The Tragedy of the Pacific" Wednesday night in the Student Union Building.

At his second speech on "The Strategy of Defense," Gen. Fellers will show films on the actual bombing of Japan. He was present at the signing of the articles of capitulation in Tokyo Bay.

The concluding two talks are open to students, faculty and general public and are free as have been each of the Americanism lectures.

In every industry engineers need specialized measuring equipment—that is why Lufkin, worldwide specialist in measuring devices, makes nearly 8,000 different tapes, rules, and precision tools.

In highway, railroad, oil, mining, surveying, forestry, and construction work, engineers specify Lufkin "Chrome Clad" steel measuring tapes to get the most on-the-job durability. In swamp, brush, desert, gravel pits, and wherever a tough dependable tape is an absolute must, Lufkin "Michigan" babbit metal chain tapes are preferred.

City engineers and construction engineers use the Lufkin "Wolverine." The line in the Lufkin "Western" is the same weight as chain tapes, but subdivided throughout, making it ideal for heavy field work. Lufkin "Lucas" mine tapes resist rust and corrosion—they are used for gaging, tank strapping, and measuring standing coaling.

Spanish Lessons Presented on TV

Tech, for the second time in two years, is presenting an educational program on TV. The title of this year's series, which is to run five weeks, 15 minutes a week, is "Brush Up Your Spanish." The purpose of the graphically-presented teaching program is to improve communication between the natives and the Spanish-speaking visitors and inhabitants of the KDUB-TV viewing area.

The programs are introduced by Dr. John C. Dowling, chairman of the Tech foreign language department. A common situation through Spanish dialogue is presented by students from foreign language classes, and then Dr. Dowling, using lettered strips on a flannel board, goes over the dialogue slowly, inviting the audience to participate and repeat after him. At the end of the program the actors repeat the skit.

Programs are scheduled for 6:25-6:40 p.m. May 7, 14, 21, and 28. The first performance was Friday, April 30.

Producer-director of the series is Assistant Professor of Speech W. Ferron Halvorson. Others participating in production of the series are faculty members and students of architecture, allied arts, applied arts, audio-visual education, speech and other sections and departments contributing specialized services and talents. Technical and consultant persons are being furnished by KDUB-TV for studio rehearsals and telecasting of programs.

Last year Tech presented one of the largest TV educational series of its kind, entitled "A Look At College." An estimated 8,000 man-hours went into the production of the five programs by 300 persons from both the college and Lubbock. Mr. Halvorson directed the entire series.

This year's programs are based on selected dialogues from the book "Spoken Spanish for Students and Travelers," by Charles Kanny. Permission was granted by the publishers, D. C. Heath and Company, to use the excerpts and also to supply listeners who write in to the Tech bookstore with mimeographed copies of the five dialogues.

Techsians Can Follow Dancers' Advice to Keep Out of Trouble

"Do you dance? If so, would you like to improve your dancing? If not, would you like to learn? The answer is one of Tech five dance classes.

Students interested in dancing may join the social dance class, which at present has about 60 students entered, according to Dr. Mary B. Dabney, head of the women's physical education department. Students also may take advantage of classes offered in modern, folk and tap dance and square dancing. A course in folk and square dancing is offered only to physical education majors.

"When kids don't have wholesome recreation like dancing, they get into trouble," said Marge and Gower, Champion Hollywood dance team, in a recently publicized statement. The Champions believe that people got out of the habit of dancing during the war; but, they say, "one great new band could bring enthusiasm back for dancing."

They believe that, if the young people of the nation had some instruction, they would spend more time dancing and less time with "hot rods and marijuana."

Music Department Banquet
The music departmental banquet, sponsored by the music student executive council, is set for 8 p.m. Friday, May 14, in the Student Union Ballroom.

Faculty selection of the most outstanding senior man and woman in the department will be announced at the banquet.

Music students who were named in the Texas Tech recognition service will also be honored.

More Students on Campus Indicated by Room Deposits

It's too early to start predicting the Tech enrollment next year, but trends are pointing to more students than last year. Paid-up room deposits in the women's dormitories have increased 100 per cent over this time last year. Deposits by men have increased by 29 per cent. Last year at this time, 74 girls had reserved rooms, whereas this year's total is 148. Men's dorm reservations have increased from 116 to 150.

According to Hubert L. Burgess, director of room reservations, most of the reservations seem to be from three Texas cities—Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston. Some, however, have come from as far away as Illinois and California.

Another important fact that might be indicated in these figures is that there will be more women students on the campus this fall.

CHOIR TO NAME OFFICERS

Tech Choir will announce officers for the coming year at its banquet at 7 p.m. Monday in the Skyline dining room.

Army Cadets Vie For New Positions

Fifteen junior Army ROTC students participated in drill competition Thursday for regimental and battalion command posts for next year, according to Maj. Dayton Caple, assistant professor of military science and tactics.

Results of the competition will be announced at the final regimental review Thursday, May 20. At that time graduating seniors will be honored by watching the review from the reviewing stand while juniors assume command positions.

The competing cadets were rated on over-all grade-point average, grade-point average last semester, military grades, participation and leadership in campus extracurricular activities, appearance, military bearing, and exercise of command.

Participants included Robbie Floyd, M. M. Belew, Gene Holden, Billie Little, and Veryl Brunton, of the signal corps; J. S. Utterback, Gayle Erickson, Jimmie Baggett, Larry Marks, and Jack Baggett, of the engineers corps; Jesse Newman, Cecil Barton, Durward Bolding, Garland Reese, and DeWitt Ward, of the infantry.

DR. TUCKER ELECTED

Dr. Scotti Mae Tucker, assistant professor of foreign languages at Texas Tech, was elected vice president of the Llano Estacado chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese at the annual spring meeting held in the Student Union Building Saturday.

The program for the meeting was "Dances of Spain" performed by Dr. and Mrs. John C. Dowling. Dr. Dowling is head of the Tech foreign languages department.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held at Wayland College on Oct. 16.

JEWELRY ON DISPLAY

Abstract designs of various types of metals make up the 23-piece display of original jewelry made by 16 students in the Tuesday evening jewelry class of the applied arts department. Earrings, pins, rings and bracelets are being exhibited on the first floor, left of the south entrance of the Home Economics Building.

Miss Quepha Rawls is instructor of the class which is a part of the evening program at Tech and is sponsored by the South Plains Art Guild, City Recreation Department, and the applied arts department. The department plans to offer a similar course next fall.

Hardin-Simmons Cowboys Win Again; Kirkpatrick Downs Baugh In Roping

The Hardin-Simmons rodeo team repeated as champions in the fifth annual Texas Tech Interscholastic Rodeo held Thursday through Saturday. Gip Lovejoy, best all-around cowboy in the three-day event, led the team. Sam Houston State College and Texas A&M were runners-up.

Jack Kirkpatrick, Raider quarterback from Post, upset Sammy Baugh, former professional football star, now coach of the H-SU rodeo team, in their featured matched roping contest. Kirkpatrick won the match by roping six calves in 96.9 seconds, for an average of 16.1 seconds per calf. Baugh took 167.6 seconds for his six calves, averaging 27.9 each.

Lovejoy received a $350 saddle for being the top cowboy in the show. Beverly Thorn of Sul Ross, edging Mary Ann Parris of Tech, won the title of the best all-around cowgirl. Miss Thorn received a championship belt buckle for her victory.

Championship buckles and various smaller prizes were awarded to other winners in the events.

Franky Lynn Hadjick, El Paso freshman, was elected queen of the rodeo in a penny-a-vote contest. The queen was presented a silver coffee service and tray by Dean of Student Life James G. Allen. Zeta Tau Alpha received a plaque for sponsoring the queen. The other candidates were given bouquets from the rodeo sponsors.

Trackmen To Go To Border Meet

Texas Tech trackmen left Wednesday afternoon without Jerry Fairley, Border Conference sprint champion, for El Paso and Tucson where they will compete in the annual Border Conference meet.

Fairley is unable to participate because of a dislocated shoulder.

The nine-man squad includes Ronald "Buck" Johnson, Charles McMurray, Scotty Woodfin, Don Covey, Roy Bryant, Jim Whately, Ronnie Herr, James Burdette and Ray McDonald.

In a preliminary meet in El Paso, Coach Landon Westbrook's Red Raiders will meet New Mexico A&M, West Texas State College and Texas Western.

Herr, McMurray and Woodfin will run in the 100 and 200-yard dashes. Burdette and McMurray will run the 440 and Johnson will run the half mile, mile and two mile. Whately will run the hurdles and Covey will broad jump. Bryant will be in the shot put and discus. Meyer will also compete in the discus. McDonald will be high jumper and Meyer will throw the javelin. Covey, Burdette, and McMurray will run the mile relay.

Four Tech golfers will make the Border Conference trip. They will be selected from Coach Warren Cantrell's seven-man team which includes Bob Lapham, Jerry Thornton, Walter McKee, Charles Sanders, Jack Russell, Jim Green and Gary Cassell.

Zetas Win Softball Crown; Kappas Upset Thetas 15-11

Upset-minded Kappa Kappa Gamma taught Kappa Alpha Theta how to lose the sorority softball championship in one easy lesson Tuesday afternoon. The Zeta Tau Alpha came out on top.

With Zeta, Pi Phi, and Theta tied for the championship, with one loss and one game each remaining, the Kappa lassies swept over the ill-fated Theta squad 15-11 while Zeta Tau Alpha slapped Pi Beta Phi 13-8 for the championship trophy.

Pi Phi, Tri-Delta, and Theta all tied for second position.

Rounding out the lower division was Delta Gamma and Alpha Chi Omega.

Betty Jo Davis was the winning pitcher for the Zetas and Barbara Stice for the Kappas.

Tri-Delta won over Pi Phi in play-offs for championship last year.

Herman Hoffman, junior engineering student from LaFeria, reported to police that two tires and wheels and two boxes of tools were stolen from his automobile parked on the Tech campus Saturday night.

LAST BASEBALL GAME

Coach Beattie Feathers and the Tech baseball squad will go to West Texas State tomorrow for their final diamond engagement of the year.

The game will give the Raiders a chance to prove themselves to the Canyon nine, having tied in their last meeting 8-8. The game was called at the end of 11 innings.

The Tech seasonal baseball record now stands at one win, one tie, and seven losses.

Auditorium-Coliseum Contract Is Let; Construction Period to Cover 520 Days

Work will begin Monday, May 17, on a municipal auditorium-coliseum on the campus.

Contracts on the $1,742,925 structure, long desired by both the city and the college, were let

Three More High School Stars May Aid Raiders Next Season

Three more high school stars have been added to the list of prospective football players at Tech next season.

Douglas Duncan, considered one of the finest backs in the Panhandle last fall, has accepted an athletic scholarship with the Raiders. The Wellington fullback stands 5 feet 11 inches and weighs 185 pounds. He was named on the all-district squad and the honorable mention list of the Texas Sports Writers Association's official all-state roster.

Jerry Bell, 190-pound quarterback who led Ballinger to the Class AA state football finals last year, will also be among the new Raiders. Bell was picked on the Class AA all-state second team last fall.

Rounding out the latest group of new footballers for the Techsians is Paducah's Richard Crider. Six-foot-11-inch, 195-pound Crider was an all-district selection and was named on the TSWA's all-state honorable mention list.

TENNIS TEAM

Dave Clark, Van Hall, Harold Williams, Charles Riddle and Cliff Hand compose George Philbrick's tennis team which will go to Tucson.

by the Lubbock city commissioners. Announcement of starting date was made by H. A. Padgett Jr. of BMFP Construction Co., Lubbock, whose successful bid for the general contract was based on 520 calendar days.

The structure will be built west of Jones Stadium. Joint use by the city and by Texas Tech will provide the college a place for basketball games and large gatherings, adequate facilities for which are now lacking. The auditorium section will seat about 3,000 persons, and the coliseum can accommodate as many as 10,000 if necessary.

Basketball equipment and a sound control system are in the contract. Omitted, however, for reasons of keeping the contract within available funds, are a proposed ice rink and all sidewalks.

BMFP's successful general contract bid was $1,419,925. The mechanical contract went to R. M. Wells Co. of Quanah at $233,000, and the electrical contract to Traver Electric Co. of Lubbock at $90,000.

REBELS WIN

For the second straight year the Rebels walked off with the all-college intramural softball championship.

The Rebels defeated Kappa Sigma yesterday in the finals, 6-2, after knocking Sneed Hall from the play-off list on Monday, 5-4. The Rebels won the independent league, Sneed Hall the dormitory league, and Kappa Sigma the fraternity league.

Fencers Nab Win In Border Contest

The Tech fencing team scored one of the major triumphs of the year by winning the Border International Tournament last weekend. It was the fourth time in five years, and second year in a row, for the Raiders to win the trophy. Other teams in the tournament, played in El Paso, were Texas A&M, which placed second; Sala Windsor of El Paso, third; Chihuahua, Mexico, fourth; and Dallas Golden Blades.

Tech and Texas A&M took top honors in the preliminaries Saturday by posting first places in two weapons each. Tech won the foil and epee, with A&M taking the sabre and three-weapon pool. The Raiders won first place in foil, sabre, and three-weapon pool on Sunday.
