Letter To The tizens

Dear Editor and Santa Anna Citizens.

I cannot think of a way to say some of the boys of our town are tyring to defraud our citizens, but it has been brought to my attention that some boys are using the name of the Boy

I would like to point out to all our citizens that the Boy Scouts DO NOT-HAVE NOT-NOR WILL NOT go door-to-door asking for cash donations.

Any fund raising event will appear in your paper and will be on the radio (KSTA) so that all will know about it.

If a boy comes to anyone-s door using the Boy Scouts name to collect money, please call the local law or at least your scout leader. Here in Santa Anna call "Tex" Wright at 348-3655 or James Pelton at 348-3104 or 348-3458. We would appreciate your help in this matter.

Presbyterian's Have Christmas Party

The December family night supper was turned into a Christmas party with 50 present at the Presbyterian Church. There was singing of Chrismtas Carols, an exchange of "White Elephant" gifts which created a lot of merriment, some gifts changing hands several times. The children were thrilled to see Santa Claus on his surprise visit. Mary Clifford presented the Church's Christmas present to Jasper McClellan, saying it was unusual for a person to grow up in a church and return years later as interim pastor.

Miscellaneous sandwiches, cookies, potato chips, pickles, coffee and punch were served.
