HERE FOR WEEKEND

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Gehring and daughters of San Angelo were in Santa Anna for the weekend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allison.

FIRE DESTROYS CRUGER HOME WEDNESDAY

The first major fire in many months occurred in Santa Anna last Wednesday when the home of Mrs. Mary Cruger was destroyed. Mrs. Cruger was working in her yard when she saw the smoke and notified the Fire Department. They arrived at the home, located at the corner of South Santa Fe and South 6th Street, about 10:45 a. m. The fire apparently started from electrical wiring in the attic and the flames were contained in the attic and roof of the home. However extensive damage was done by smoke and water and the structure was considered a total loss. Most of the furniture and other contents were salvaged, and the loss is covered by insurance, according to reports.

The fire department had another fire on Thursday, a grass fire at the Delmer Crye place in the Shields community. An old house and barn, both filled with hay, were destroyed by the fire. The blaze started from a burning fence row and got out of control, according to VFD reports.

IT CAN RAIN!

The Santa Anna community and entire area is already feeling some relief from the long drought as good rains fell throughout the area last Friday and Saturday. Rain of about one inch fell in most of the surrounding communities on Friday morning and another one-half to one inch was added on Saturday.

Additional rain of one-half inch or more was reported on Monday night. The Friday rain was a slow-falling rain with very little run-off but some hard showers Saturday put a little water in stock tanks and creeks in parts of the area.

A hard hail storm near Trickham at the Jesse York place was reported Saturday afternoon but with no great damage. Light hail also fell in that area and heavy hail fell at Brookesmith which was reported to be up to golf ball size.

The largest rainfall reported was 3.1 inches in the Leedy community where a hard rain left a one inch measurement in just a few minutes Saturday afternoon.

Community reports for the two-day period included the following:

- Rockwood—1.5
- Shields—1.6
- Liberty—1.5
- Plainview 1.4
- Trickham—1.35
- Whon—1.4
- Leedy—2.5
- Cleveland—1.9
- Santa Anna—1.5

Attila Galamb Musical Prodigy To Appear Here

Attila Galamb, whose tour of U. S. school audiences brings him to the Santa Anna schools on Wednesday, April 28, is a teenage boy who has been thrilling school children, their teachers and parents throughout America with his musical genius.

Son of Joseph Galamb, accordionist and teacher, young Attila has achieved great acclaim for his accomplishments with several instruments.

Born in Hungary, he soon showed extraordinary aptitude for music study. He was only two when he learned to play the drums by listening outside the door during one of his father's classes. Today he plays drums, clarinet, saxophone, accordion, piano, tarogato, organ, guitar and harmonica with equal ease and especially enjoys his newest instrument, the Hohner Melodica.

Attila has appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show, on TV, at Radio City Music Hall, at the Hollywood Palladium and Hollywood Bowl, and with the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra. He has traveled and played throughout most of the United States, always keeping up with his school work, in which he is something of a prodigy as well. He is in his second year of college correspondence work, having graduated from high school at age 10½.

He passed college entrance examinations with a general average of 86 per cent, points higher than national average for high school seniors.

Not content with performing alone, Attila has copyrighted many compositions and made many recordings. He is also a composer. He has recorded his own song "A Lonely Day," on the Attila label, on which he also performs instrumentally. He has scored and directed the music for a film to be released early next year, "Aimless People," produced by Tom McGowan of "Born Free." Arrangements for Attila's appearance here were made by the Southern School Assembly Agency. The public is invited to attend the program.

Mountain Echoes

By Barbara Kingsbery

The fine rain that fell during the weekend brought smiles to more faces than most anything could have. The month of March had passed without even a trace of moisture, and the total for 1971 had only been only 1.35 inches.

As someone said, the drought is not broken, but it is bent!

Advertising in the NEWS really pays. It took only eight days and two issues with the "rain wanted" ad before results came. We're just sorry we didn't have that ad in the NEWS weeks before!

Someone has figured that the average American during his lifetime eats 150 cows, 24,000 chickens, 225 lambs, 28 sheep, 310 hogs, 26 acres of grain, 50 acres of fruit and vegetables, and drinks 9,450 quarts of milk. That's quite a lot of food!

It has also been estimated that the twine used to bale hay in the United States and Canada last year would reach to the moon 72 times. That report is from farm machinery engineers.

We hear much about labor-saving devices which provide more leisure time for everyone, but did you know some fish have more leisure time than in previous years?

Male channel catfish at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's San Marcos fish hatchery don't have to "egg sit" anymore. The whole process has been automated.

Until the new machines were installed it was the practice of male catfish to tend the fertilized eggs during the seven-day incubation period, fanning the nest with his tail to keep the water agitated and the silt off the eggs.

A machine does the job better than the catfish, since some male catfish have been known to shuck the whole thing and leave the eggs unattended.

Now almost immediately after the eggs are hatched and fertilized the eggs are removed and placed in baskets in a long trough where water is agitated by fans driven by electric motors. The survival rate in the hatching trough has been tremendous, according to hatchery personnel.

Wonder what a catfish does during his leisure time? Go fishing?

The local Boy Scouts are selling mud scrapers throughout the community to raise funds for their summer camp. The boys will be calling on local residents, or anyone interested in purchasing a nice wrought iron foot scraper may contact Allen Early.

The youngsters chose a good time to make their sales. A mud scraper might have been hard to sell a few days ago!

VFD Entries Among Winners At Brady Firemen's Meeting

The Santa Anna VFD Auxiliary was winner at the Brady Hill Country Firemen's Association convention in Brady last Saturday, receiving a cash prize for placing first in the six-woman pumper contest. Linda Pierce was captain of the team and others who took part were Edith Dodson, Fay Owen, Judy Hartman, Lometa Williams, and Joyce Early. The Santa Anna entries did not win any other contests during the day.

DRAFT BOARD MOVE HALTED

Word was received last week from Congressman Omar Burleson that directives have gone out from the office of Director of Selective Service to halt any move toward collocation of administrative services for inter-county local boards.

It had been announced recently that local Board 21, located in Coleman and serving Coleman and Runnels Counties, would be merged with the Brownwood office. The move is halted for the present time. The House of Representatives recently passed an amendment to the draft laws to require the office of the clerk of the draft board as well as the records to stay within the county served.

Cong. Burleson's correspondence was in reply to a letter from Mayor Thomas Wristen in which the proposed merge was protested.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burton, was elected sponsor of the association, and Joe Dean Early, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Early, was chosen mascot. It was announced that the next meeting of the organization will be held in Coleman in October with the Santa Anna VFD and Auxiliary to be co-hosts.

Attending the all-day meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Early and boys, and Messrs. and Mmes. W. B. Griffin, Jackie Pierce, Ray Owen, Donald Strickland, Ed Hartman, Freddy Dodson, Lee Ray Huggins, Stanley Hartman and Bill Williams.

S. A. Girl Helps Set New Record At Track Meet

Willie Lee Terrell, a member of the Ranger Junior College Rangeans track team, was anchor for the sprint relay team which set a new woman's collegiate record at the district collegiate track meet at Texas Tech last Saturday. The relay team covered the quarter mile in 50.9 for the national record.

The same relay team won the 880 yard medley relay in 1:56.2. All eight of the Ranger Jr. College track team members qualified for the state track meet to be held in Denton on May 1.

Willie Lee, a 1970 graduate of Santa Anna High School, is a freshman student at RJC, attending on a basketball and track scholarship. She is the daughter of Mrs. Rosa Terrell.

In Our Opinion

By W. T. HAYS

KERR PAPER COMPANY, one of our supply houses, publishes a small "house organ" each month. We don't know who does the writing, but it is always worth reading. This month they gave the story of "The Little Red Hen." We think it is a gem, and want to pass it on to you. Here it is:

Once upon a time there was a little red hen who scratched about and uncovered some grains of wheat. She called her barn-yard neighbors and said, "If we work together and plant this wheat, we will have some fine bread to eat. Who will help me plant the wheat?" "Not I," said the cow. "Not I," said the duck. "Not I," said the pig. "Not I," said the goose. "Then I will," said the little red hen, and she did.

The wheat grew tall and ripened into golden grain. "Who will help me reap my wheat?" asked the little red hen. "Not I," said the duck. "Out of my classification," said the pig. "I'd lose my unemployment insurance," said the cow. "I'd lose my seniority," said the goose. "Then I will," said the little red hen, and she did.

Then it came time to bake the bread. "That's overtime for me," said the cow. "I'm a dropout, and never learned how," said the duck. "I'd lose my welfare benefits," said the pig. "If I'm the only one helping, that's discrimination," said the goose. "Then I will," said the little red hen, and she did.

She baked five loaves of fine bread and held them up for the neighbors to see. They all wanted some and demanded a share. But the little red hen said, "no, I can rest a while and eat the five loaves myself."

"Excess profits," cried the cow. "Capitalistic leech," screamed the duck. "Compant fink," grunted the pig. "Equal rights," yelled the goose. And they hurriedly painted picket signs and marched around the little red hen singing, "We Shall Overcome," and they did.

For when the farmer came, he said, "You must not be greedy, little red hen. Look at the oppressed cow. Look at the disadvantaged duck. Look at the underprivileged pig. Look at the less fortunate goose. You are guilty of making second-class citizens of them." "But . . . but," said the little red hen, "I earned the bread."

"Exactly," said the wise farmer. "That is the wonderful free enterprise system; anyone in the barnyard can earn as much as he wants. You should be happy to have this freedom. In other barnyards you would have to give all five loaves to the farmer. Here you give four loaves to your suffering neighbors." And they all lived happily ever after, including the little red hen who smiled and clucked, "I am Grateful, I am grateful."

But her neighbors wondered why she never baked any more bread.

STATE Capital NEWS
By VERN SANFORD

Austin — Steadily-rising welfare costs will "bankrupt" state government unless prompt braking is applied, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes has warned.

Barnes — acknowledging that a tax bill which may climb to nearly a billion dollars is necessary to balance the Senate's $6.99 billion version of the biennial state budget — named a special committee to recommend how to effect welfare economies.

Senate, meanwhile, approved the record budget while a sub-committee drafted a tax bill. The house is expected to move out this week with its appropriations bill.

Only one year of welfare financing is included in the Senate bill. With a half-way budget, about $668 million in new taxes will be needed this year. Appropriating for welfare in a later special session will require nearly $300 million more, unless the federal government steps in with additional aid.

Barnes' staff calculates Aid to Families with Dependent Children rolls are increasing by .10 per cent per month. Where 288,826 AFDC beneficiaries are anticipated by September 1 this year, 906,236 are seen by August 31, 1973. The latter figure would bring the AFDC cost to $76 million a year — $16 million above the proposed new $55 million annual ceiling to be voted on May 18.

The Lieutenant Governor also noted that Medicaid costs have increased from $22 million in 1968 to an estimated $144 million for next year. He said state medical services to the needy — financed through Blue Cross family insurance policies which will cost nearly $72 per family next year — are better than those received by all the very wealthy.

"I am convinced we are going to have to reduce the cost, or the state is going bankrupt," said Barnes.

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT — May oil production allowable will be cut to a maximum daily flow of 184,076 barrels. Railroad Commission cited reasons for the cut as substantial stocks of crude oil on hand, overall reduction in demand, and raising imports.

Commission's decision trimmed the allowable from 82.1 per cent in April to 77.2 per cent for next month.

May allowable, lowest in eight months, permits a maximum daily production of 3,362,000 barrels daily, approximated for.

Crude oil stocks on April 9 came to 108.3 million barrels, a million more than the week before and 2.4 million more than the year before. Ten of 14 big crude oil purchasers asked for the same allowable next month as in April. Three asked less, and one requested more.

INSURANCE CHANGES VOTED — The Legislature had some good news for insurance purchasers last week.

A bill to create a special pool to guarantee coverage to property owners in "catastrophic areas" (subject to hurricanes, tornadoes and other disasters) won final passage. The pool will be effective May 14. A pool arrangement may be ordered later for fire and explosion insurance if that is found difficult to obtain in some areas.

Another major bill passed by the Senate would create a statewide guaranty fund to assure payment of claims against insurance companies which go broke.

Hospital-medical insurance policyholders, under a House-passed bill, could be reimbursed for treatment by any licensed, qualified practitioner of the healing arts — physicians, osteopaths, dentists, chiropractors, optometrists and doctors of podiatry.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court on May 12 will review the case in which an oilman sued the petroleum corporation which fired him after 13 months on the job because he did not find new supplies of oil to buy.

High Court also will hear on May 12 Abilene's appeal from a lower court decision that it must pay $88,000 to an oil producer who claimed his oil recovery operations were interrupted by its airport extension.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the stiff prison sentences given two black militants for destroying merchandise in a Dallas supermarket.

Court of Criminal Appeals also upheld the life sentence conviction of a man charged with leaving another to die in a North Dallas field after stripping and tying him.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin, has held that former Gov. Allan Shiver's commutation in 1953 of the death sentence of a San Antonio man to life imprisonment with the provision that he never be eligible for further clemency is not binding on future governors.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: Sabine River Authority can enter a deferred compensation and pension plan with its executive employees.

Texas Water Rights Commission should reject all claims from parties asserting right to use water from the Rio Grande in Starr, Hidalgo, Cameron and Willacy counties where claims have been adjudicated in courts.

Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches, may acquire joint ownership interest in or long-term lease of a football stadium owned by an independent school district.

A $10 month supervisory fee may be assessed a person granted probation after trial.

HOSPITAL CONSTRUCTION RUSHED — A multi-million dollar construction program due for completion this spring will provide more and better facilities for Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Other building by MH-MR will get underway in the next few weeks.

When completed, the current program will provide added bed space at four state schools to accommodate 600 new students. Three state hospitals will have modern quarters for 600 mentally ill patients, and centers for specialized treatment of adolescents are contemplated. San Antonio, Austin, Terrell, Lubbock, Richmond and Corpus Christi institutions will get the new facilities.

Are you going to let your gas heating sleep through another summer?

Why not put it to work as an air conditioner?

It's a simple matter to install a cooling unit to your gas heating system. You can probably use the furnace blower and ductwork you already have. You'll save up to half the installation costs of starting from scratch.

Temperature control in your home is a year-round proposition, but not an expensive one. We have special rates for gas air conditioning during the summer. And no matter what the season, you pay less for gas than electricity.

Another nice thing about gas central air conditioning is its simplicity. There are fewer moving parts. Fewer breakdowns. Fewer repairs.

Wake up your central gas heating to central gas cooling. You'll sleep better this summer.

APPOINTMENTS — Former Stephenville Mayor Jack Arthur was named by Gov. Preston Smith to Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

Smith designated W. E. Tinsley of Austin chairman of Texas Water Development Board.

DROUGHT AID SOUGHT — As drought-stricken areas awaited major federal assistance, the Legislature called on Governor Smith to declare the drought a "grave public calamity" and to set up a joint committee on a relief plan.

Lieutenant Governor Barnes and House Speaker Gus Muttscher named seven senators and seven representatives to a panel to work on the state program for purchasing and distributing hay and to serve as liaison with state and federal agencies.

Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville and Rep. Oscar Carrillo Sr. of Benavides head the Senate and House committee members. Governor, said the legislative resolution, can order a relief program administered by the Agriculture Commission.

Smith, meanwhile, said he expects to request emergency federal disaster relief benefits for 87 additional drought-hit counties, bringing the total number to 147.

SHORT SNORTS — All Texas school children (with religious and health exceptions) will have to have shots for six diseases under a new law.

Legislators are aiming for local option liquor-by-the-drink votes in all-wet areas on May 18, date of the constitutional amendments election.

Senate approved the four-year terms amendment for all statewide elective officials.

Fraud is no widespread problem in the Texas welfare program, according to Welfare Commissioner Burton G. Hackney.

Cigarette taxes increased from $13.2 million in February to $15.6 million in March.

Gory Story

Witness by witness, exhibit by exhibit, the prosecutor was building his case against a woman accused of slaying her husband. But when he tried to bring in the victim's blood-stained garments, the defense attorney raised a vigorous objection.

"Your Honor," he said "there is no question that the man was murdered. The only issue in this case is whether my client did it. I see no justification for bringing in all this gruesome clothing."

The court saw no justification either, and held the evidence not admissible. The judge said:

"These bloodstained garments could in no manner identify the murderer. We can conceive of no other purpose than to excite the passions and inflame the minds

Timber Troubles

Anyone that paid more for a Christmas tree this season than last—and grumbled a bit—can sympathize with lumber mill operators in the Pacific northwest who are forced to pay higher and higher prices for trees.

The lumber mills are passing this increase along to dealers and ultimately to the consumers, but the problem goes deeper than this inflationary push.

A Michigan lumber and supply company told the National Federation of Independent Business about the problem: "The largest increase in the cost of materials has been in lumber and plywood items. This increase has been proven to have been caused by the inordinate increase in sales of timber to Japan at unjustifiably high prices."

"This has forced many U.S. lumber and plywood mills out of business, raised the prices of building materials to the U.S. consumer, slowed the rate of home building in our country, and is depleting the supply of timber, one of our greatest natural resources."

In auctions of timber on state and Federal lands, the Japanese have been outbidding U.S. lumber mills—leaving American firms empty-handed. If they cannot buy timber, they must close down.

A Washington state lumber...

mill operator complained, "We have a hard time getting raw materials to manufacture." He said that he was an unsuccessful bidder for hemlock in a state sale, exporters bidding nearly $80 per thousand feet whereas he could not afford to pay more than $50.

One hardware dealer estimated that foreign log sales have brought a 33 per cent increase in finished lumber prices during an eight-month period.

Before Congress adjourned last year, Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon brought the log export issue into debate over the Foreign Aid Bill, insisting that a limit be put on how much timber from U.S. public lands would be sold to Japan. His idea was that if the U.S. is going to continue to hand money out to that country, restrictions should be imposed to protect a major industry in return.

Congress failed to include that amendment in the Foreign Aid Bill, but it seems likely that this year, when the facts become generally known, that Congress will be under pressure to act.

One suggestion, from a Colorado businessman, is that the U.S. stop selling trees to all foreign nations because the U.S. and Canada are the only ones that do. The rest sell finished lumber only, thereby protecting their domestic mills.

of the jury."

It is on this ground that courts generally take a dim view of gruesome evidence. Nevertheless, the fact remains that trials often must deal with dreadful events. Evidence is not disqualified by gruesomeness if it is really useful.

Another case involved manslaughter by automobile. Here the prosecutor wanted to show the jury a battered shoe—its laces torn—that had been ripped from the victim's foot when he was struck by the car.

This time, one of the issues was how fast the car had been traveling when it hit the victim. Since the shoe did cast light on this issue, it was held to be admissible evidence. Even if it was inflammatory, said the court, it could still help the jury reach a verdict.

A similar rule applies to photographs. In another murder case, the prosecutor wanted to show the jury a picture of the victim's body, lying on a table at the mortuary. Over defense objections, the court allowed the prosecutor to go ahead—because the picture gave valuable assistance in showing the location of the fatal wound.

As one judge put it: "Courts and juries cannot be too squeamish about looking at unpleasant things, especially if truth is on trial."

BROWNWOOD VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Taylor and Timmy of Brownwood were Sunday visitors in the Tom Kingsbery home.

Whon News

By MRS. TOM RUTHERFORD

We were blessed with a good rain Friday and Saturday. We never caught any water in our water tanks, but every drop that fell was good, measuring 1.3 inches. But Monday we had a norther.

C. W. Brown of Brownwood spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleburn Stanley. C. W. returned to Brownwood Monday night. He is attending kindergarten there.

Mrs. Stanley talked with her little granddaughter, Marsha Brown, Monday afternoon, who is a patient in a Fort Worth hospital, where she is again scheduled to undergo heart surgery Tuesday morning. Marsha talked with her grandparents and her brother, C. W.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Rutherford and children, Rocky and Dena of Coleman, were guests with his parents, the Tom Rutherfords, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bean Radle of Santa Anna, Mr. Douglas Avants and son, Dougy of Brady, and Mr. John X. Steward of Rockwood visited with Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Haloman of Arlington spent the weekend with Mrs. Haloman's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Grehm Fitzpatrick and boys, Don who was home from Tarleton and Neil.

Mr. Wimpy Watson of Lubbock was on his farm here over the weekend. Wimpy

"CLEAN" LUNGS HARD TO FIND

Finding a "clean" pair of lungs in anyone past the age of 12 is almost impossible.

One pathologist at the University of California School of Medicine, Dr. Russell Sherwin, has examined thousands of lungs. He thinks nobody over 12 has clean lungs. But, said he was living where they really had one of those old dust storms there in Lubbock last week. He was told it was the worst dust storm in 40 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cozart of Odessa spent last Tuesday night in their home here. I enjoyed a short visit with Ida. They are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Etoile Cozart spent most of last week on their farm here, returning to San Angelo over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Snowden of Lohn spent Sunday with their daughter and family and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Grehm Fitzpatrick. Also Mr. Fitzpatrick's stepfather, Mr. Norris Wright of Brady enjoyed the day here in the Fitzpatrick home.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Avants are proud to report the new tank they had built recently caught several feet of water. The Avants were having to have water hauled to their farm.

much more chilling, he speculates that everyone above this age also has some degree of emphysema. Because of pervasive air pollution.

Speaking about emphysema, Dr. Sherwin says, "It's just a question of when it becomes clinically significant. I believe everyone over 12 has it. I know I can't find a normal lung in anyone over that age."

Not all doctors agree with the pathologist's statement. But many chest specialists are concerned about the effects of air pollution on the lungs. A recent study shows that illness and death from respiratory disease would be reduced by 25 per cent if air pollution in big cities could be cut in half. The combination of air pollution and cigarette smoking also drastically increases the incidence of emphysema.

Emphysema is a chronic disease that develops gradually and causes damage to the air sacs of the lungs that cannot be reversed. But the lungs must be heavily damaged before abnormalities appear in routine lung function testing. "The real problem in air pollution, as I see it," Dr. Sherwin says, "is what's going on before disease becomes clinically manifest."

To find out more about diseases of the lungs—as well as air pollution—check with your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. It's a matter of life and breath.

While you're saving money for college, make sure there's a college to save money for.

There are all kinds of ways to save money for a college education.

A good savings account. Life insurance. Or U.S. Savings Bonds. You see, U.S. Savings Bonds will not only save you money, but they'll insure your country's future at the same time.

It's one way of making sure there's a college whenever you're ready to send somebody to college.

But back to the money part. Let's say you buy your one-year-old son a $25.00 Bond every month. When he's 18 and ready for college, he'll have $5,506.00.

A $50.00 Bond every month would give him $11,012.00 when he's ready to enroll.

And the beauty is, you never have to worry about this investment.

You simply sign up through a Payroll Savings Plan where you work and then sit back and let the money pile up.

Savings Bonds now pay a new higher rate—4 1/4%—when held to maturity of 7 years.

And if they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, the Treasury Department will replace them free.

Also, with each Series E Bond you buy, you're entitled to buy the same or lower denomination Freedom Share.

Which pays 5% when held to maturity of 4 1/2 years and is redeemable after one year.

Any way you look at it, buying U.S. Savings Bonds makes sense.

They not only get the kids ready for college. They keep the colleges ready for the kids.

Hospital Stays Made Shorter

Hospital stays are getting even shorter.

At least one major surgeon says most surgical patients should be discharged on the first or second day after their operation. As soon as they recover from the anesthetic, in fact.

Dr. Paul T. Lahti of the William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Mich., based his conclusions on a study he made of more than 1,000 surgical patients, many of them in major surgery. According to him, long hospital stays in the past have led to high mortality because of pneumonia, lung disorders, and other complications.

Prolonged periods of inactivity and bed rest after the operations, Dr. Lahti says, make patients recover slowly. Getting patients up and walking soon—and out of the hospital—decreases the period of postoperative disability.

"The patient who knows that he will be up and about the afternoon of surgery and home the day after surgery," says Dr. Lahti, "is relaxed, not fearful, and requires much less postoperative medication." Not all physicians recommend such a swift discharge, though.

Long periods of bed rest were once standard procedure after most serious operations. They were also the accepted treatment for TB—once. Today many people who have TB do not even have to go to a hospital for treatment. Most TB patients can receive the major part and sometimes all of their treatment as outpatients—either in a clinic, health center, or doctor's office. When hospitalization is necessary, it is usually for short stays in general hospitals. A patient who has active TB can become non-infectious within a short time—on drug therapy.

For more information contact your local TB and respiratory disease association.

Mostly Texans Now Enrolled At UT-Austin

An official count at the University of Texas at Austin showed that 34,211 of the 39,089 students enrolled were from Texas. Thus the University of Texas remains decidedly Texan.

All but eight counties of Texas' 254 have students enrolled in the University. Coleman County has a total of 20 attending the large school.

The largest number from one county are from Austin's own Travis County with 7,460, Harris County has 5,492, Bexar County has 3,246, and Dallas County has 3,083.

The University of Texas is the State's largest public university. Second largest is the University of Houston and third is Texas Tech.

Paying it Again, Sam? It's not news that the U. S. Treasury is borrowing money again. In fact, it would be big news if it were not borrowing.

Even though the government expects to collect 138 billion dollars this year, and might not spend all of it, it must continue to refinance more than $365 billion of debt as outstanding bonds mature.

So it happens that the Treasury is borrowing nearly $3 billion to replace bonds sold in 1943, 1951 and 1957. These bonds paid from 1 1/2 to 4 percent interest. The new bonds, because of "tight money," will pay up to 3 percent, the highest since right after the Civil War. That's news... bad news for taxpayers.

Just a few months ago, the Treasury was still able to sell bonds at 4 to 5 percent. But inflation and monetary restraints have pushed interest rates to fantastic heights. Even though the government has been a party to this (through its anti-inflation moves), it must pay the piper, too, like any other borrower. (The government, of course, means we taxpayers.)

While announcing the 3 percent bond issue, the Treasury said it might have to borrow more money this year than it had earlier estimated. The "new money" is necessary, an official said, because of an unexpected surge of spending, including "much higher" farm price support payments in September.

The Senate recently voted against a proposal to limit subsidies paid for "not farming" acreage to $20,000 per company or individual. Hundreds of non-farmers received more than $60,000 each last year. Several corporations got more than a million, and state and local governments, even pensionaries, have shared in this bonanza.

But Congress voted to continue unlimited subsidies. This, and all the other lavish subsidy and giveaway programs, add up. They were too costly at 4 percent, let alone 8 percent.

Advocates of government free-spending and indebtedness have long argued that there's nothing to be alarmed about, since "we owe ourselves the national debt." Interest on that debt now tops $17 billion a year.

The prospect of refinancing this at much higher interest rates should sober up the "spend and tax" boys who have been on a 20-year binge. But will it?

Members of the Concho Bass Club took the major prizes for the fish which they caught in Coleman County lakes during the weekend. The cash prizes were given by Coleman merchants and the Betterment Council.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Guthrie, Jr., were in San Antonio during the weekend to attend a meeting of the executive board of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers Association which was held at the El Tropicana Motor Hotel. Purpose of the meeting was to make final plans for the state convention which will be held in San Antonio in July.

Mrs. Guthrie is president of the RLCA Auxiliary.

Mrs. Floyd Hale of Fort Worth was in Santa Anna briefly Tuesday enroute to Brady to visit a sister. Mrs. Hale and her family are former residents of Santa Anna. Her three daughters now live in California and sons, Charles and Tommy, live in Brownwood and Fort Worth, respectively.

Mrs. Ross Kelley is back at home after spending over a week in the Coleman hospital. She was injured in a fall and was treated for bruises and injuries.

Trickham News Notes

By Mrs. Oscar Boenicke

The big news this week is the rain. We received 1.4 ins. of rain Friday and Saturday. We had a big day here on Sunday. Not as many as last year attended the homecoming and cemetery meeting, but a large crowd, between 250 and 300 people for dinner. Bro. James Gilbert of Denton brought a good message for the memorial service. Also the Santa Anna Share the Fun 4-H group sang two songs, and Grady Gene James of Fort Worth led the congregation songs.

In the short business meeting Grady McIver and Lou Vaughn were elected for directors for another year for the cemetery association.

In the afternoon 25 or 30 more people came for the singing. The James' family sang several special songs, also the Share the Fun group sang more songs and people were singing all over the church. It sure sounded real good and everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

We had people from Fort Worth, Brownwood, Dallas, Rockwall, Ballinger, Winters, Santa Anna, Bangs, Abilene, San Antonio, Brooksmith, Austin, Houston, Post, Robert Lee, Levelland, Odessa, Garland, Gustine, Colorado City, Sillsbee, Gouldbusk, Ft. Hood, Clovis, N. M., Lovington, N. M. Republic, Mo., and might be some I did not think of.

Our congratulations to the Share the Fun group from Santa Anna. They won first place Saturday in the Share the Fun contest at Coleman.

We have two of our Trickham girls in it, Sherrie McIver and Janice Martin, also Gayla Hornell is one of the sponsors. The group will be going to San Angelo the first of May for the district contest. Good luck to you there.

We were glad to have my sister, Ruth Driskill of Houston, to spend the weekend with us. She came Saturday to Brownwood on the bus. We met her there. She came to attend the homecoming and cemetery working. We all enjoy seeing friends and kin-folks each year. I took Ruth Monday morning to visit Aunt Pearl Ford at Bangs on the way to Brownwood for her to take the bus home. She left at 8:45 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stacy had two of their children and grandchildren with them on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sullivan and Carolyn and Robert of San Antonio, and O. T. and Sue Stacy of Abilene.

Shield News

Mrs. George Wheatley

Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary. Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: Thou O God, has prepared of thy goodness for the poor. Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

What do you know about bullfighting?

Bullfighting, which has been called Spain's national sport, is not really a contest between a man and a bull. It is a contest between a man and himself. The audience goes to the ring, or plaza de toros, to see a man conquer his own fear of the horns and take as many chances with the bull as possible.

Bullfighting has existed in one form or another for more than 2,000 years. One reason that Spain has been the leading place for it is that the fighting bull—the toro de lidia or toro bravo—first lived there.

All people who fight bulls are called toreros. The matadors are the stars of the show. Each one has two picadors and three banderilleros to help him. It is old-fashioned and incorrect to call bullfighters toreros. ("The torador" of Bizet's opera Carmen is actually a matador.)

Do you know what impeachment is?

Impeachment is a legal action brought against a government official accused of misconduct or criminal offenses. In the United States the House of Representatives brings charges for impeachment by a majority vote. Then the Senate becomes a court and tries the accused official. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court presides if the president is impeached. If the Senate, by a two-thirds majority vote, finds the impeached person guilty, he is removed from office.

What do you know about illustration?

Illustration is the art of telling a story with pictures. An illustrator is an artist who translates words into pictures that can be instantly understood. Illustrations have many purposes—to explain scientific facts, to describe new products in advertisements, to picture events in a story, to portray the main idea in a poem. When an illustration is successful, characters come to life and ideas are made clear.

KEEP IT CLEAN
by Virginia M. White

DEAR VIRGINIA WHITE: My husband is a cook. How can I remove grease stains on his uniform? MRS. M. N.

DEAR MRS. M. N.: Treat stained area gently with dry cleaner or rub heavy-duty laundry detergent into stain. If using dry cleaner, launder as follows at once: If pre-treating with liquid detergent, wait 30 minutes. Launder in machine with hot water, 1/4 cup Super Cleaner, 3/4 cup NON-chlorine bleach and 1/2 cup detergent. Run complete cycle.

DEAR MRS. WHITE: Will the use of phosphate-free detergents and other laundry additives solve the pollution problem of our waterways?

MRS. L. L.: Not entirely, but it is a big step in the right direction. Many things contribute to water pollution, and phosphates is one of them. The advertising of phosphate-free laundry products is making the public more aware of the problem.

DEAR VIRGINIA WHITE: Can the new no-phosphate detergents remove clothing stains without using any special treatment? MRS. F. S.

DEAR MRS. F. S.: Some stains turn into dyes and must be specifically treated, however, for weekly washloads with common dirt and stains a product such as Miracle White Non-Polluting Detergent will give you a clean, right wash. It does not contain enzymes, phosphate or NTA.

The exact date that these shots will be given will be announced as soon as it is available.

The annual Easter sunrise service will be held at six o'clock Sunday morning at Ranger Park with Rev. Frank Turner, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Church, delivering the sermon. A trombone solo will be presented by Don Davis and a vocal solo will be rendered by Melvin Pollick. Both boys are students at McMurry College in Abilene.

The Santa Anna Eastern Star chapter will meet Monday, April 22, for their regular meeting.

"Beautiful Rays of Light," a memorial program, will be given.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Fannie Gober, Mrs. Frances Everett, and Mrs. Charlotte Scott.

Mrs. C. D. Bruce, local postmaster, said early this week that the post office is now back on regular schedule, the same as it was before the cutback in postal service a few days ago.

A called meeting of the Quarterback Club will be held Monday night to complete plans for the athletic banquet to be held on April 26. Add Walker, new president of the organization, requests everyone interested to attend.

Bobby Goodwin, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Goodwin, arrived in San Diego, Calif., after 10 months cruise around the world aboard the destroyer USS Prairie.

Ice Cream Menagerie

Here's a great idea to perk up those heat weary children's appetites — a merry menagerie of ice cream animals and funny faces — sure to be devoured instantly . . . with a lick and a crunch.

Just the thing for that summer birthday party — or any occasion — or non-occasion that arises.

A new twist for two old favorites — ice cream and pretzels. Use hard frozen ice cream, scoop and decorate quickly and serve at once. Ice cream may be scooped ahead of time and frozen until ready to serve. Decorate with pretzels at the last minute.

CAT: Place 1 scoop ice cream on a small plate using pretzel sticks for whiskers, eyes, nose and ears.

TURTLE: Place 1 scoop ice cream on a small plate. Use pretzel nuggets for feet and face; use pretzel sticks for tail.

PORCUPINE: Place 1 scoop ice cream on a small plate. Stud all over with pretzel sticks using a pretzel nugget for nose.

FUNNY FACE CONES: Use pretzel sticks or small pretzel-ettes for hair. Press into scoop of ice cream placed into a flat bottom ice cream cone. Use pretzel rings for ears and raisins for eyes and pretzel stick pieces for the mouth.

Pretzels with ice cream have been a favorite with the Pennsylvania Dutch for years. Why not try this combination and see how quickly it will become your favorite, too!

Deer On Roadside Are Extra Hazard

The hunting season may be over, but deer harvest of sorts goes on and on, according to George Litton, project leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

It is automobiles instead of firearms which are taking their toll of West Texas deer.

Litton and his assistants who are assigned to the West Texas area have found more than a hundred dead deer on various roadsides during the past two weeks, all killed by vehicles.

Litton speculates the drought which has gripped Texas for several months has driven the deer from the parched range land to greener pastures along the road bed, posing a hazard to both the deer and to motorists.

Litton says most of the deer are hit at night when they are temporarily blinded by the headlights of the oncoming cars.

In some instances deer are knocked over the hoods of the cars and through the windshield.

Litton said the danger will probably lessen when rains finally come to West Texas, but until then motorists should take extra care.

Several Plants Are Dangerous

Poison ivy is not the only plant to be avoided when the springtime picnics and camping trips are underway.

The well-known trio of poison ivy, poison oak and poison sumac are joined by a fourth plant which may be even more dangerous because of its deceptive appearance.

It's the common domestic oleander, a long-limbed plant with multi-colored blooms.

The limbs look to be ideal for skewering weiners over the campfire. This Asian native, however, contains a type of toxin which can be dangerous.

The toxin, if swallowed in sufficient amounts, can cause abdominal pain, vomiting, diarrhea, heart stimulation and vessel constriction. It has even caused death in some cases, officials said.

The department advises campers to be familiar with the poisonous shrubs or be prepared to take their own skewers from home instead of taking chances with nature.

Send a letter to North Vietnam.

Right now hundreds of Americans are being held captive in North Vietnam.

A few prisoners have made it back. They talk about bamboo cages. Vicious beatings. Malnutrition. Humiliation.

But the North Vietnamese will tell us nothing. And it's this silence that makes our appeal more urgent.

For the families at home, there is no word on who's alive. Who's dead. Or even who's being held. There is nothing. Except the anguish of not knowing.

Maybe you can change this. By writing to the one man who can change it: The President of North Vietnam.

Ask him to release the names of prisoners, allow them to write to their families, and let the Red Cross inspect the prisons to insure proper medical treatment and living conditions.

Remind him that he is bound by the 1949 Geneva Convention which his country signed. And by the Istanbul resolution.

North Vietnamese leaders do care about American public opinion. And if they think they can gain something by bowing to it, they will.

But one letter won't do it. Or a thousand. Maybe it will take millions. So we've got to write now. All of us. And often.

Write a letter tonight. And send it to: Office of the President, Democratic Republic of Vietnam, Hanoi, North Vietnam.

It'll cost you a quarter. But it might save a life.

Maybe they'll open it.

Tile Imports Injure Market For Local Co.

Santa Anna Tile Co. officials have watched with interest the findings of the U. S. Government's Tariff Commission on ceramic tile imports. The committee found that the less-than-fair value sales of British ceramic wall tile sold in the U. S. is injuring the domestic industry through imposition of special dumping duties.

Norris E. Phillips, President of Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the United States, Inc., the industry association that initiated the case, said that the investigation had confirmed that the British wall tile industry acts through a cartel that sets home market prices. It had also been reported that the cartel would continue to resist the imposition of dumping duties.

The Tariff Commission's decision is more than two years after the case was first filed. During that time the British have sold almost $20 million of wall tile to U. S. customers and have doubled their share of the American market.

Mr. Phillips supports proposed reforms that will help "restore conditions of free competition, the goal of our free trade program, which has often been violated in the name of free trade."

Band Boosters Plan New Date For Production

The Band Booster Club theatrical production scheduled for April 30, is being planned for a later date, probably early in June. The adult cast will have more time for rehearsals and there will be fewer conflicts with school activities at that time.

Mrs. Janice Cozart and Mrs. Bill Williams are directing the three-act comedy which has a cast of 12 local adults. Further plans and a date for the production will be announced later.

Dist. 12-B Meet Won By Mozelle

War Hero's Parents Visited By George Havens Recently

George Havens of Dallas returned recently from Gilbert, Ariz., where he conducted a revival meeting at the First Baptist Church of Gilbert. While there he visited in the surrounding area Indian reservations.

One of the most interesting places he visited was in the Gila River Indian Reservation, the home of Pima Indians in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hayes, parents of the renowned Ira Hayes, live in an adobe house which is over 100 years old. The couple cuts wood for a living and are both quite active for their age. When Mr. Havens and his party arrived they found the elder Mr. Hayes seated in an old chair under a brush porch or arbor.

The old Indian told the visitors that in the movie about their son, "The Outsider," starring Tony Curtis, the Iwo Jima flag raising scene was filmed on a hill within a mile of their home.

Havens reported that the reservation is most primitive. Although there are some new structures and homes, many of the Indian families still live in adobe or rock houses with few modern facilities.

The Gila River area was drought stricken, and it was amusing to see a sign, "No Fishing From Bridge," when it appeared water had never stood in the river.

The late Ira Hayes will be remembered as one of the four American soldiers immortalized in the picture and sculpture of the flag raising at Iwo Jima at the end of World War II. After returning to the reservation after the war, Ira Hayes died accidentally. Several movies and songs, including "The Ballad of Ira Hayes", have been written about the war hero.

Ballad of Ira Hayes, have been written about the war hero. Enroute home from the Arizona trip Mr. and Mrs. Havens spent a few days at their ranch here.

S-Anna To Have Representatives At Drug Seminar

A series of three two-day drug education conferences will begin in San Angelo next week for faculty members and students from throughout the Region XV education area. The second of the programs will be held in Brownwood on Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30, with representatives from Santa Anna to attend. The Brownwood session will be for Brown, Coleman, McCullouch and San Saba counties. The third conference will be in Del Rio the following week.

Those from Santa Anna to take part will be Dwight Hudson and Terry McIver, faculty members, and Jimmy Benton and David Horner, high school students.

Hartsell Haws, Region XV special services coordinator, said that by using the small group problem solving approach, administrations, students and teachers can work together to determine their major concern for implementation of a school's drug education program. The four from Santa Anna have attended other seminars held this year at San Angelo and will be making plans for the drug education program to be presented in Santa Anna schools next year.

Under state law Texas schools were required to establish drug education programs this year in grades 5-12.

N-Side Baptists To Have Film Shown April 28

A new 35-minute full color motion picture, "To Russia With Love," will be shown at the Northside Baptist Church on Wednesday night, April 28, at 8:00 p. m. The film graphically portrays life for the many thousands of Christians in communist lands today. Many of the scenes were filmed inside Russia and give eloquent testimony to the faith and spiritual needs of people behind the iron curtain.

A professional photographer with a minimum of equipment was sent into Russia to get the necessary shots, and the photographer was able to lose himself among the vast crowd of tourists and get some of the finest behind-the-scene shots ever filmed.

Arrangements had been made in advance with English speaking Russian Christians to meet with the photographer and within a few weeks there were filmed pictures of the underground church at worship.

Also shown in the movie is the "smuggling" of Bibles in western Europe and the press where Christian literature is printed for distribution behind the iron curtain.

The public is cordially invited to view this exciting and informative film next Wednesday night at the Northside Baptist Church. There will be no admission charge.

The 8:00 p. m. time was set so that people of all denominations might attend following their regular mid-week services.
