Mountain Echoes

By Barbara Kingsbery

Mrs. J. B. Harris of Coleman started an interesting thing that has grown out of all imagined proportions.

She recently wrote a letter to the editor of a New York City newspaper offering cotton seeds to shut-ins or others interested who wished to grow cotton plants in their home in that area.

From a few at first, hundreds of requests have come, so many that she has had the NEWS print instructions on how to plant the seed and how to care for them.

All Mrs. Harris requested was a stamped, self-addressed envelope, in which to mail the seeds. A few people are sending nickles or dimes along with their requests which is going to purchase the cotton seed and now, pay the printing of the instructions.

Some of the requests are from hospitals and centers for cerebral palsy and other handicapped people.

Mrs. Harris should be named the Coleman County "Matron of Cotton" for her interesting project.

When the Jack Kingsberys at Crystal City got an unusual pet last spring and they didn't know they had adopted another family member.

Bob, the 17-year-old son, found a tiny javalina pig and took it home to raise. But "Buford" did not know he was a pig. He preferred being inside — on someone's lap.

Now having a house-bound pig is fine, but pigs become hogs.

Buford was banished to the back of the Kingsbery ranch, miles from civilization. All was fine for a few days.

One of the Kingsberys friends, and an acquaintance of Buford noticed one rainy night a javalina hog running up and down the highway after every vehicle that passed and knew it must be Buford. The friend phoned Jack who immediately went to the area, and sure enough, found wet, dirty, homesick Buford, who rode happily back to town in the cab of the pickup with his front feet firmly planted in the lap of Kay, the teen-age daughter.

The latest episode of Kingsbery vs Buford came in a recent letter from our South Texas relatives. Buford has now been taken to their farm near Carlizzo Springs and goes into their mobile home every chance he gets. Going up the steps is fine for the animal, but going back down is another matter.

In Evelyn's last letter she said, "You just don't push a javalina hog out the door and down the steps—he gets mad and fights."

At least they know how to keep relatives from visiting with them.

The lowest temperatures of the season were reported here last weekend. Vera Shield reported a seven degree reading on her north porch Saturday morning, and very few had temperatures of more than ten or twelve degrees.

The cold spell was short-lived, however, and we are

VO-AG BUILDING STARTED ON S-ANNA SCHOOL CAMPUS

Construction has begun on the new vocational agriculture building at Santa Anna High School. A construction crew from the Armstrong-Clark Construction Co. of Breckenridge has begun preparing forms for the concrete slab foundation and started work on the project last week.

Ed Hartman of the Hartman Plumbing and Electric Co. in Santa Anna will do the plumbing and electrical work on the project.

The 100 by 50 foot building will be of steel and metal construction and will contain one large classroom, one office, storerooms and closets, restroom, and a large shop area.

Construction is expected to be completed before the end of school this spring and the building will be in use for the fall semester. The new building will replace the old classroom and shop building which was made from surplus army buildings from Camp Bowie.

The new building is located just across the street west from the gymnasium and will have the front entrance on the east side. The exterior will be antique gold pre-finished metal siding with white trim. Cost of the building will be $30,300 which includes a few additions to the original plans.

Gary R. Price Announces For Dist. Attorney

Gary R. Price, County Attorney of Brown County, announced today that he will be a candidate for the office of District Attorney of the 35th Judicial District which includes Brown, Coleman and McCulloch counties.

"I have decided to become a candidate for the office of District Attorney of the 35th Judicial District after receiving encouragement to do so from a large number of citizens of the district.

In the last three years I have had numerous opportunities to carry out the duties of the District Attorney in the investigative, pre-trial and Court room stages. I consider the proper carrying out of the duties of that office to be vital to good law enforcement. If elected, I will devote all the time necessary to properly carry out the duties of the office of District Attorney. I hereby pledge to be available at all times to confer with private citizens as well as law enforcement officers.

At the end of this year I will have served a four year term as County Attorney of Brown County. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the citizens of Brown County, particularly those in law enforcement and those who have served as jurors in the District, County and Juvenile Courts for the support they have given me."

Price has been associated with groups in various capacities including being past president of the Brownwood Jaycees serving as chairman of such projects as the Bluebonnet Relays and Brownwood Golden Gloves tournaments currently serving as the Director of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, past Director of the Heart of Texas Girl Scouts and president of the Brown County Bar Association. Price is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Texas County and District Attorney's Association and formerly taught the Senior college men's Sunday School class in the First Baptist Church.

This past summer, he attended a one-week work shop at Saint Mary's University in San Antonio, Texas, which was conducted by the County and District Attorney's Association of Texas.

Price is the author of the Tuition Equalization Bill, an amended version of which was passed by the Texas Legislature in its last session. Freshmen college students may now take advantage of the program authorized by this bill. During the next school year the Sophomore class will be eligible for the program and Juniors and Seniors will be eligible the following two years respectively.

Students will return to school today (Thursday), for the beginning of the second semester of school.

Fire Destroys Parked Airplane West of Santa Anna

Coleman County Sheriff's Department is investigating a fire which completely destroyed a Cessna 210 airplane west of Santa Anna early Sunday morning.

The plane, owned by Larry Ferris of Killeen, was parked on an airstrip on the Max Eubank place three miles west of town. Passing motorists noticed the fire about 5:00 a. m. Sunday morning and called Coleman Highway patrolmen. The plane was considered a total loss in the fire.

Ferris, a former administrator at the Santa Anna Hospital, arrived here Friday and was visiting with the Max Eubank family. The plane, which was staked down at three points, was reported to be turned in a different direction than when left by Ferris and Eubank.

Highway Patrolman Butch Wampler of Coleman theorized that someone might have tried to steal the plane, but so far no evidence has been found. Also assisting with the investigation is the Federal Aviation Agency.

Important Changes Listed In 1972 Voter Registration

John Skelton, Coleman County Tax Assessor - Collector, has announced that there are many important changes in the 1972 voter registration.

With 18-21 year olds now eligible to vote in any election, it is expected that the Coleman County voter registration list will exceed 6000, with about half that number already registered.

In addition to the new registration laws, this is election year which will give added interest to elections.

Skelton has listed six important changes in the voter registration laws:

1. All voters who wish to vote in 1972, between the ages of 18 and up, must register at least 31 days before the election in which they wish to vote in order to be eligible to vote.

2. All registrants, regardless of age, may vote in any election held after March 1, 1972. This includes the 18-21 year olds who previously could vote only in National elections.

3. Only the registrant, their spouse, father, mother, son or daughter may register for members of their immediate family members. This does not include in-laws. The registrant must be a qualified voter themselves before they can register for another.

4. If you move to this county after having registered in another county, you must register in this county to be eligible to vote after having residence here six months.

5. Your registration this year will be for a period of three years. If you vote in either a primary or general election, you will be automatically registered for another year. In other words, this is permanent registration, renewable by voting in a primary or general election.

You will not need to register annually unless you move to another county, or move to another precinct in the county.

6. There is no deadline for registering. You may register any time during the year, but one point to remember is that you must register at least 31 days before the election you wish to vote in. Hopefully all voters will register as early as possible in order to be sure of the opportunity to vote. There is no charge for registering.

Santa Anna ISD Pupil Cost Low According To Big Country Poll

The economy and efficiency of the Santa Anna Independent School District was attested to this week when statistics were shown on finances of schools in the big country area.

Figures showing cost per pupil of the area schools of all sizes was assimilated by the Abilene Reporter News and included in a series of articles concerning financing of public schools and the impact of the recent court ruling that the present method of financing schools is unconstitutional.

Of the 47 schools reporting statistics on financial status, Santa Anna was second lowest in per pupil cost, with $600.32 per year. DeLeon, with 700 pupils enrolled in the district, was lowest with a per pupil cost of $584.

Jayton, with 305 pupils in the district, had the highest per pupil cost with $1,850. In that school district, each teacher is given from $1,000 to $2,000 salary enrichment above the state salary schedule.

Other schools reporting with enrollment near Santa Anna's 350 mark, included Roby with 325 and Baird with 383. The two schools showed an annual per pupil cost of $680 and $966.06 respectively.

The figures showed larger schools operating on an annual lower per-pupil amount. Abilene's cost is about $630. Other schools in the Class B classification which have high pupil costs include Highland, near Sweetwater, with $1,665; Paint Creek, with $1,674, and Blackwell with $1,475.

The other Coleman County schools reporting in the questionnaire included Coleman with 1,230 pupils at $663 per pupil cost; Novice with 105 pupils at $1,200, and Talpa-Centennial with 121 students at $1,197.

Despite the apparent economy of the local school district, a better than average program is conducted in athletics and music, along with adequate maintenance and upkeep of the school property and facilities, and high scholastic achievement by the students.

A new vocational agriculture building is now under construction at Santa Anna, financed through local funds, and not affected by the recent ruling.

The recent court ruling, filed in 1968 by 15 Mexican-American parents and children in a San Antonio school district, claimed that property wealth varied so widely in the state that students could not possibly get an equivalent education from district to district.

The courts ruled that expenditures for a Texas child's education cannot reflect the wealth of the community in which the pupil lives.

The decision apparently is pushing the state toward a state system of school financing which will attempt to equalize financially all school districts, regardless of local resources. Under the present system, the state pays about 80 per cent of the local cost and the local district pay the other 20 per cent.

The Santa Anna Independent School District is operating this year on a $282,539 budget.

In Our Opinion

By W. T. HAYS

PROBLEMS are not a respecter of people or time, and all those we had last year seem to have a way of following right into the new year.

We still face a lot of international problems, such as the war in Asia, the balance of payments with other countries, and whether to supply Israel with more planes, and the like.

But we still have internal problems, also. The most pressing would seem to be inflation, relief, integration and unemployment. These problems will probably be with us for a while for, so far, there has been no miraculous solution to them and there doesn't seem to be much chance for one.

The President's price freeze and Phase II are an effort to combat inflation, but the same old greed is creeping in that started the inflation in the first place. Labor unions are claiming that they are the ones who are suffering from the program and that management is getting all the gravy, while management feels that this is not so and labor costs must be kept down if inflation is to be stopped. So labor threatens to take their little red wagon and go home if they don't get their way. The only way the program will work is for all people to be willing to give a little, and that don't look promising.

As for relief, as long as it is politically controlled it will be a problem, because politicians are willing to give away tax payers money if it will get them votes, and there is no question that relief recipients are going to vote for the "give-away man." Many claim that there is no work for them, and some of them are right. They have no skills and the demand for unskilled labor grows shorter and shorter. At the same time welfare has destroyed the incentive of many of these people to even look for work. It is too easy to sit back and live off a government dole. More and more people are holding down two jobs which only proves that there are jobs if people want them and can do the work. Stopping the moonlighting would not solve the problem, because those who claim they want jobs could get them if they wanted them badly enough.

What we need is work for these misfits. The WPA of the 30's was not good, but it is better than what we have now. At least everyone who drew a check did some work for it. At the same time towns and cities were able to get some things done that they can't afford to do now because of labor costs.

On-the-job training is not a bad thing if there can be cooperation between business and government. They could subsidize the pay of the unskilled while they are learning a skill and when they are finished they could get off the welfare rolls. At the same time businesses who can't afford to pay minimum wage to someone while training could use this method to provide workers for the future, and thus help alleviate the labor shortage in the skilled areas. Right now there is a shortage of people who work with their hands, and that is an honorable group of professions. Time was when a person who was skilled in this way took pride in his work and the community looked up to him.

Integration has been helped some by an easing of radical demands on schools and we are hoping that the new majority of the Supreme Court will not interpret the laws as they want them to be, but as they are written and according to the intent of the law.

Unemployment, of course, is related to the relief problem. When we solve one, the other will solve itself to a degree.

Answers? No, this writer does not presume to have all of them, but as we sit back and watch what some so-called intelligent men in government do, our ego insists that we are not that dumb.

Austin — An interesting political poll was taken at the Gulf Coast Press Association's board of directors' meeting in Houston January 8. Fourteen newspaper publishers were asked: "Who do you think will win the 1972 Governor's race in Texas?"

Seven said Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, four named Dolph Briscoe and two listed Gov. Preston Smith.

The same editors were asked about their vote.

Eleven voted for Dolph Briscoe, two for Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and one for Governor Smith.

SENATE CAMPAIGN — The 1972 political campaigns moved into full swing with announcement by former U. S. Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough that he would make a comeback try for a Senate seat.

Yarborough, 68, revealed his plans in a series of whirlwind news conferences at Austin, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. He seeks the Democratic nomination to oppose Republican Sen. John Tower.

Barefoot Sanders of Dallas, already running for the Senate as a Democrat, welcomed one-time political ally Yarborough to the race as "one of our fine senior citizens." He said both Yarborough and Tower "are out of touch with the majority of Texans."

Yarborough said he had never had so successful a campaign opening day. He stressed his nearly-14 years' experience as a progressive senator, and said in answer to question about his age: "I'll be around campaigning as long hours as anybody else, if not longer."

The former senator's entry took some of the spotlight away from the warming governor's race where Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Uvalde rancher Dolph Briscoe are starting to mix it up.

Five Democratic candidates are moving around the state in the lieutenant governor's race.

Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller of Public Accounts Robert S. Calvert and Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White during the last week announced for re-election. Calvert and James are expected to draw some opposition.

State Rep. Frances Farent-hold of Corpus Christi announced she is "taking a serious look" at prospects for a gubernatorial race, but has not ruled out challenging Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

SCHOOL DECISION APPEALED — The State Board of Education voted unanimously to appeal the monumental federal court decision that the Texas property tax method of financing schools is unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, the Board assumed responsibility for drafting a new plan for supporting the school system and ordered a task force be formed to do the study job in the event an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court fails.

The state, according to Texas Research League, has several options. One is full state financing, which by 1974 would require an expenditure of a billion dollars a year just to maintain the status quo.

Another alternative is state-local financing that would provide approximately equal resources for each child. The League suggested redrawing district boundaries to redistribute property values or superimposing multi-district taxing regions over present operating districts to provide equalization by regions.

A decision, the League noted, must be made as to whether the goal is educational expenditures at the present level in rich districts or at a lower "average level." The latter would mean reducing the number of teachers and lowering salary supplements in some districts to create more positions and higher salaries in the poor districts.

REPUBLICANS EAGER — Texas Republicans in a recent meeting here boasted of wide-open opportunities in 1972 presidential and U. S. Senate races, for doubled state legislative strength and possible election of a governor.

Scandals in state government and prospects of single-member House (legislative) districts offer the GOP its biggest chance to elect candidates and achieve reform through two-party government, the Republican State Executive Committee was told repeatedly.

The GOP issued verbal invitations to unhappy Democrats and Independents, regardless of political philosophies, to enlist in Republican ranks. AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin declared the controversial new code of ethics for state and local officials unconstitutional, and was commended by Governor Smith and Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

- A school of veterinary and zoological medicine at Texas Tech University can be approved by simple majority vote of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. New and separate institutions require a two-thirds vote of the Board.

- A witness in a criminal case under subpoena is entitled to mileage and witness fees.

- Jim Wells County commissioners redistricting of commissioners precincts August 11 is void due to failure to publish notice of changes.

- Fees dedicated to the Real Estate Research Center at Texas A&M University are not in the state treasury and do not need to be appropriated by the legislature.

INSURANCE CUTS ORDERED — The State Insurance Board has directed lower collision insurance premiums for motorists whose cars are equipped with new damage-resistant bumpers. No domestic manufacturers have yet certified cars that meet the standards, however.

Twenty per cent discounts were ordered for 1972 cars with bumpers that can stand a five-miles-per-hour collision, front or rear, without damage. Fifteen per cent cuts will be in force for new cars with apply for 1972 autos sustaining a five-mph front and two-and-a-half-mph rear end bump. Ten per cent reductions apply for 1972 autos sustaining a five-mph front and two-and-a-half-mph rear collision without damage to lights, fuel, exhaust, cooling or latching systems or to the bumpers themselves.

URANIUM MINING EYED — Street-by-street tests with sensitive scanning equipment to record possible abnormal radioactivity from uranium mining operations will be made in the South Texas area.

Air and ground surveys by the State Health Department have disclosed no evidence of public health hazards, and none is anticipated by S.H.D. However, health problems have been reported in Colorado where a gas released by radium remained in tailings or wastes after usable uranium is extracted. The wastes were used for construction fill.

Towns to be covered in the screening include Floresville, Karnes City, Kenedy, Three Rivers, George West, Tilden, Pleasanton, Leming, Poth, Hobson, Falls City, Helena, Panna Maria, Coy City, Lenz, Caesar, Panwee, Mineral, Oakville, Simmons, Caliham, Whitsett, Peggy, Campbellton, Christine, McCoy and Caughran. Uranium mills operate in Falls City and near Three Rivers.

PARTY REFORM RULES EYED — New State Democratic reform rules met generally favorable reaction in a four-hour public hearing before a 23-member sub-committee here.

A final draft is due to be reviewed by the State Democratic Executive Committee rules sub-panel January 29 before it is passed along to the full SDEC in mid-February. SDEC Chairman Roy Orr of DeSoto predicted approval of the required guidelines in essentially the same form they were offered at the hearing.

The rules are designed to insure "open" convention and encourage participation by minorities, youth, women and backers of rival presidential candidates. Party activities will be open to 18-year-olds. Governor Smith predicted the rules proposed would give Texas a "challenge-proof" delegation to the Miami Beach Democratic national convention.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Smith appointed Henry H. Cannady of Port Arthur to the Veterans Land Board.

Smith also named Tate McCain of Palestine 87th district judge; Jerry A. Sandel of Huntsville 12th district attorney; E. T. Summers Jr. of Cuero to Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority board of directors; (reappointed) William A. Clifford of Lubbock as Canadian River Compact Commissioner; Harry O. Rearick of El Paso and Edwin J. Terry of Beaumont to the Real Estate Commission; Charles W. Duke of San Antonio, Beeman Fisher of Fort Worth to Texas Turnpike Authority.

SHORT SNORTS

The governor selected Charles D. (Chick) Morris, formerly of Lubbock, as his assistant press secretary.

Gov. Smith is considering a recommendation for a state-wide food stamp program which would call for about $17 million in state aid to counties and would produce $286 million in federal assistance for the needy.

Industrial development of Texas last year may rank second only to record 1969, according to Texas Industrial Commission.

The Texas Supreme Court set a Wednesday (Jan. 19) review of a case in which State Rep. Jack Blanton of Carrollton seeks to force Dallas, County Democratic Chairman Earl Luna to accept his state senate filing fee. Luna claimed Blanton hadn't lived in the district long enough.

Rural development may be the answer to pollution, urban crowding and rural poverty, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White contends.

The governor asked President Nixon to declare Bowie, Delta, Fannin, a disaster area due to recent flooding.

An advisory council for technical-vocational education has slated 29 conferences over the state.

The 1972 Miss Texas Universe beauty pageant will be held in San Antonio April 10-15.

U. S. wheat producers are being offered an additional option to voluntary set-aside wheat cropland in 1972. Since the 1972 wheat program was announced on July 16, 1971, wheat export prospects have dimmed with the uncertainty of the dock strikes. In addition, farmers harvested a large 1971 crop. To meet these changed conditions, the U. S. Department of Agriculture today authorized additional voluntary set aside of wheat cropland equivalent up to 75 per cent of a farm's domestic allotment, in a move aimed at preventing excessive production of wheat in 1972. The payment rate will be 94 per cents per bushel times the farm's established yield times the acreage voluntarily set aside.

The 1972 national domestic wheat allotment is 19.7 million acres, and the required set aside acreage necessary to qualify for program participation is 83 per cent of the farm domestic allotment, the maximum provided by law.

Target of the voluntary set aside acreage program announced today is a reduction of possibly five to six million acres in the 1972 harvest.

A spring wheat producer now can offer acreage for voluntary set aside provided his 1972 planting plus additional set aside do not exceed the total acreage planted to wheat in 1971. The acreage

Elmer B. Thomas to W. F. Barnes: Property in the town of Santa Anna.

W. G. Bedford to O. C. Morton: 33.15 acres of land in Coleman County.

J. D. Simmons to Veterans Land Board: 78.65 acre tract in Coleman County.

Frank Burger to George W. Kingrea: 348 acres in three tracts in Coleman County.

Haskell E. Clevenger to L. B. Busbee: 75.8 acres of land, Coleman County.

Leroy H. Curry to George W. Kingrea: 72.7 acres in Coleman County.

H. C. McClure to Tom Berry: 164.79 acres in Coleman County.

Johnny Lee Williams to Kathy La Don Patton offered must be average quality land.

Producers of winter wheat, who already have planted their 1972 crop on 42.2 million acres, can designate acreage for set aside if it is acreage planted to wheat and the growing wheat is of average quality for the farm. The planted winter wheat cropland voluntarily set aside from production in 1972 can be used for grazing or otherwise disposed of by the certification dates established by State ASC Committee or, if pastured, by the beginning of the non-grazing periods which vary from state to state. This is in accordance with the Agricultural Act of 1970, and is the same procedure followed in previous program years.

In the winter wheat area, which includes Texas, producers at program sign-up time will need to designate the acreage involved. Spot checks of the acreage will begin immediately following sign-up.

COOKING WITH ROJAS-LOMBARDI

For thousands of years mushrooms have been eaten by people around the world and yet it is one of the least understood of our vegetables. Mushrooms are the main ingredient in countless elegant dishes, and yet they can be used to great advantage in the simplest of dishes. My original mushroom salad was created to bring out the true delicious taste of mushrooms. I hope you like it as much as I do.

- R-L MUSHROOM SALAD
- 1 pound fresh mushrooms
 - 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 - 1/2 cup sliced celery
 - 1 teaspoon chopped shallots
 - 1 tablespoon minced parsley
 - 1/2 pound cherry tomatoes

Slice mushrooms thinly, place in cold water, add lemon juice. (This will prevent mushrooms from turning black while salad is being prepared). Slice celery very thin, drain mushrooms, mix with celery, shallots and minced parsley. Add vinaigrette, and garnish with cherry tomatoes. Serves 4.

- VINAIGRETTE
- 3/4 cup olive or salad oil
 - 1/4 cup vinegar
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 3/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 teaspoon sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon rosemary (ground)

- TROPICAL CHICKEN
- 2 whole chicken breasts
 - 1/2 cup sliced celery
 - 1 cup bean sprouts
 - 4 ounces snow peas
 - 3 tablespoons olive oil
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup chicken stock
 - 1 teaspoon soy sauce
 - 2 tablespoons cornstarch
 - 2 tablespoons cold water
 - 1 small can of pineapple cubes

Skin and bone the raw chicken breasts and cut into small pieces. Cut celery crosswise into 1/4 inch pieces. The bean sprouts are ready to use. Remove the ends and any strings from the snow peas. Heat the three tablespoons of olive oil with 1 teaspoon of salt in a medium-size heavy skillet. When it is hot add the chicken and cook and stir for about 1 minute. Add the celery, bean sprouts and 1 cup of chicken stock, cover and cook for two minutes. Add the snow peas, cover and cook for 3 minutes. Blend together adding 1 teaspoon of soy sauce, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, and 2 tablespoons cold water. Add and stir until the sauce thickens. The dish is now ready to be served. Drain juice from can of pineapple cubes. Garnish dish with pineapple cubes. Serve with plain boiled rice. Serves 3-4.

40 Years Ago In The News

The following stories are from the January, 1932 issues of the NEWS:

Tuesday night of this week J. L. Dodgen, proprietor of the Queen Theatre, put on his last show and closed the doors of his theatre. Santa Anna is now without a picture show and the chances are it will not be re-opened for several months.

We are glad to honor the names of those hard-working boys of the senior class who, by their own genius, have rendered service in the SAHS team enough to be awarded a sweater. A large part of all of those who have lettered were seniors, and we are sure they will be missed on the later teams.

Those lettering are: Ernest Harrod, Edwin Rollins, Robert Curry, Jesse Lee Sparkman, Murrell Spence, Elsworth Brandon, and Woodrow Niell.

Friday morning the seniors of 1932 met and elected class favorites.

Prettiest girl, Mattie Ella Estes; Most popular girl, Annie Wilson; Best all around girls, Frances Jones; Smartest girl, Kathryn Ruth Pinney; best looking boy, Billy Barnes; Most popular boy, Ernest Harrod; Best all around boy, Edwin Rollins; Smartest boy, Carl Flores.

Those taking part on the Senior BYPU program at the First Baptist Church were Lester Newman, Louis Pittard, Leon Ward, Jesse Goen, Leta Ragsdale.

In our announcement column this week appears the name of Curtis Collins, who announces his candidacy for the office of Commissioner, Precinct 2.

PENSKE
On Performance

The official 1971 United States Auto Club racing results are in. They show that the Penske team finished eighth on the Championship Trail and third in dollars won. This means that we led or set the pole at many races, only to drop out in the heat of competition.

At the start of the season it certainly seemed as if we had the "unfair advantage." Only the McLaren factory itself had a car that could compare to ours. It was as fast and reliable as my driver, Mark Donohue.

But at Indianapolis our transmission came apart while we were in the lead. At Ontario we ran out of fuel. And at Phoenix the side-mounted radiators simply could not get enough air, because the Arizona track forces the driver to continually cock his front wheels. Result: eighth place in points.

But we learned a great deal in our first complete USAC season, and Mark won seven of 10 events aboard the Trans-Am Javelin. We plan on making the USAC circuit once again next year with two cars, one for Mark and one for Gary Bettenhausen. That should improve the odds.

Today's Tip
Improve your odds—and your wallet—by attempting simple auto repairs at home. You might be surprised how easily oil can be changed and a filter replaced.

The Make Yourself Over Clinic

BY DOLLY REED WAGEMAN, Director, The Carnation Fashion Office

Q: What's the newest face for Fall?

A: This year the tawny Autumn look is in. It's enough to warm any man's heart, as well as your own complexion! Instead of switching to a winter makeup palette right away, learn to extend the Indian Summer glow indefinitely. Use a creamy makeup base, warmed with lashings of tawny gel blushers and coral-colored gel rouge. Brick or coral-colored lipstick sticks give warmth to Autumn smiles. Eye brows should be paled to non-prominence with powder or bleach.

Q: It seems to me my perfume smells different now from when I bought it last Spring. Possible?

A: Not only possible, but probable. Your own body chemistry combines with any perfume to create the final fragrance, and this chemistry changes with the seasons. Your Spring perfume may "fade out" with frosty weather. Many women like to wear stronger fragrance in the winter for this very reason.

Q: My girlfriend says the leggy look is back. True?

A: Absolutely true—you can bet your bottom dollar on it. Better still, put that dollar into a stocking fund because that's where the action is. From knee socks to body stockings, the fashion picture was never brighter! Try cables and argyle stockings, with tank top to match. Your wardrobe will be in great shape, provided you are. No bulges, please. If you need to streamline a bit, start drinking Slender diet food from Carnation. Substitute Slender for one or more meals as needed. Just 225 calories for a complete meal in a glass when you mix this protein packed powder with whole milk, or 164 when mixed with nonfat. Then slither into something lean and leggy... and take a walk.
