"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

SINGING CONVENTION WAS SUCCESS

The Eastern District singing convention announced last week, to meet with the First Baptist church, was a success if we are any judge. Several of our main singers were not present, but a large number were there, and nothing but praise have we heard of the good singing. Really, we have lately realized that Coleman county has more good singers in it than any place we have ever lived, and not only are they good singers but a fine set of fellows. The house was crowded from beginning to the close and for the size of the crowd with very few exceptions, we consider the order exceedingly good. There were no disturbances on the part of any one intentionally, we are sure, but the crowd being so large it was impossible to maintain perfect quietude, however we feel sure that every one was as quiet as their circumstances would permit.

The next convention will go to the Double church between Coleman and Burkett, on the Fifth Sunday in July.

New officers were elected for the ensuing six months as follows: W. W. Forehand, President; J. A. Parrish, Vice-President; J. D. Center, Secretary.

The Western District convention will meet with the class at Brown Ranch next Sunday.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At the regular breakfast luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday morning, the following were elected as delegates to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention to be held in San Angelo, Texas, May 21-23: J. O. Martin, S. W. Childers, V. L. Grady, Fred W. Turner and J. J. Gregg. The delegates are instructed to vote for Brownwood for the 1924 convention.

The clean-up campaign was discussed and very heartily endorsed. Fair progress is being made, according to reports coming from all parts of town. The Chamber of Commerce is unitedly behind the clean up move and the members are doing their part towards cleaning up. Several unsightly places were reported and discussed, and action is going to be taken to have such places looked after. Since we have a sewage system, dry closets should not be permitted in the district where sewage mains are laid, or where the sewage can be reached. Feeding pens for hogs, cattle, sheep or any other livestock of any kind should not be permitted inside of the city limits and strict ordinances should be enforced if wagon yards are permitted to be operated inside of the city. There is absolutely no way of keeping control of the fly pest with such things permitted to exist. The News is for better sanitation and for whatever it takes to bring it about. Some people may censure us for advocating such measures, but we speak what we think regardless of what others think of it, and if such things are not worthy of commendations, we are deceived in our judgment and do not care to stand for correction. Let's clean this town up and make it a more inviting place in which to live, regardless of the cost.

Rev. E. E. Dawson Accepts Call to Pastorate Here.

Dr. E. E. Dawson, Baptist minister of Tulia, has accepted the call recently tendered him by the First Baptist church of Coleman to become pastor here, and will come to Coleman with his family about May 15th. Rev. Mr. Dawson was formerly a pastor here. He was unanimously recalled by the local congregation in session about four weeks ago.—Democrat-Voice.

WOODMAN CIRCLE NOTICE

All members of W. C. are requested to be present at the meeting Saturday evening at 4 o'clock. We have several new members to be obligated and need you. Also Mrs. Whitten will be with us.

Mrs. Annie Burden, Clerk.

ORDERLY DEVELOPMENT OF STATE INSTITUTIONS

(Farm and Ranch)

Every parent, worthy of the name, plans to give his children better educational advantages than he, himself, enjoyed. He is therefore interested in the maintenance of an efficient, progressive school system. Every citizen wants to see the great educational institutions of the State developed according to their needs, but they want it done in an orderly manner, receiving a dollar value for a dollar expenditure.

The State of Texas needs some definite, broad gauged plan for taking care of the growth of its institutions of higher learning. It should not be necessary for the president of the State University, of A. & M. college or of other institutions to go to the Legislature and beg for necessary buildings in which to instruct the boys and girls of this State, or to house them safely and comfortably. It should not be necessary for the presidents or heads of departments to plead with the Legislature for adequate salaries so that good men may be secured and retained in order that the children of this State be given the advantage of the best instruction possible to obtain. But that's exactly what these educators are having to do. It seems to be expected of them.

Every two years a statement showing the needs of various institutions is made up and presented to the Legislature. When the time comes to give these statements consideration the executive heads are called before the committee and cross examined like witness in criminal court.

The present system of making appropriations is wasteful. Make shift buildings are erected, or if permanent, not of sufficient size or, in many cases, inadequately equipped. Executive heads who are responsible for the development of the institution never know what to expect of the next Legislature. They can not make plans for the future, except on paper, and there is not much encouragement to do that. Our Texas Legislatures have never hesitated to vote money for investigations to clean up some political row. They are liberal with the people's money in other ways. It can not be said that they are stingy when it comes to the support of general educational measures. The waste and extravagance lies in the fact that we are trying to develop our school system and our higher institutions of learning by the shotgun method. In the interests of economy and in the interests of our State institutions, plans for the future development of these schools should be made, a program mapped out and followed in both the spirit and the letter.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas Almighty God has removed from our midst our deceased brother, L. V. Stockard, be it resolved:

That Mountain Chapter No. 247 O. E. S. has lost a zealous member, his family a kind and loving father, and the community a good and useful citizen.

And that we extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement.

And while we deeply mourn his untimely death we know that the old must die, the young must die and the wisest knoweth not how soon and we can only be comforted by the knowledge that he, like the noble RUTH was loyal and true and has gone to meet his reward.

And realizing how abruptly our brother was called to his reward we are prone to say Alas Our Worthy Patron thou hast seen his star in the east and obeyed the summons.

And that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family, a copy be spread on the minutes of the chapter, and a copy be furnished the Santa Anna News for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. Ed Bartlett,
Mrs. Frank Pearce,
S. W. Childers.

C. G. ERWIN DEAD

Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock, the town was shadowed with gloom as the news spread over the community that Charley Erwin had died very suddenly.

Mr. Erwin passed his 41 birthday on November 9th last year, and was living in his 42nd year. He came to Santa Anna with his parents while he was only a boy and lived here most all his life, and has been identified with the business interest of the city the principal part of the time.

Mr. Erwin was married to Miss Sallie Dunwoody during the year of 1908, to this union two children were born, both being girls; Gale 13, and Bessie Charlene 2 years. The widow and two children survive him. His parents died in this city some six or seven years back and the only direct members of his family are two sisters, Mrs. W. D. Notty and Miss Lillie Erwin of Del Rio, Texas, who will be here for the funeral.

Mr. Erwin was a member of the Methodist church and the Masonic order, having attained the shrine degree, and it is expected that the Knights Templar Masons will officiate at the funeral, which, according to the arrangements at this time, (Thursday morning), will take place at the Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The parents of Mrs. Erwin live at Anson, Texas, and are expected to be here for the funeral. Several of her brothers and sisters have already arrived.

Mr. Erwin was City Secretary, and had charge of several of the branch affairs of the city, being City Marshall, Water Commissioner, Tax Collector and Assessor, and was one of the most efficient men in the discharge of his duties. His presence on the streets and his services as one of our City officials will be greatly missed.

The News very tenderly extends sympathy to the bereaved.

To the Women Voters of Coleman County

Next year there are six political conventions. The most important of these are four that do not take us out of our county. We have all our state and national offices to fill as well as county and district. We regret that many of our women voters do not consider these important questions until it is too late to do more than choose the lesser of two bad propositions. We want enough voting women sufficiently aroused in Coleman county so that when the day comes for voting they can vote intelligently and with good judgment.

In Coleman county we should have at least twenty-five women who are on the mailing list of the League and who receive regularly the "New Citizen," and every bulletin; and every letter of general interest that gives information. Women should be chosen so that every voting precinct in Coleman county can be represented. The "New Citizen" and the bulletins will deal entirely with the party machinery and the various elections and conventions of next year.

I would be glad for every voting woman of Coleman county that wants to become a direct member of the "Texas League of Women Voters" and who want to subscribe to the aims of this organization, promising to pay one dollar annually as dues, with the understanding that they are entitled to the privileges of the floor at the annual convention, to call on me, or write and get application for direct membership.

MRS. J. M. CRAWFORD
Coleman, Texas
Chairman for Coleman County
"Texas League of Women Voters."

THE RADIUS IDEA

Visualize, if you can Santa Anna's legitimate trade territory, a vast and rich and prosperous section, which if properly cultivated and developed would make Santa Anna a city of 10,000 population or more in a few years.

There's no reason why Santa Anna should not be the trade center for this territory. Long rows of automobiles drawn up along the sidewalks suggests a live community trade center. That's what we want to see in Santa Anna.

There is a large population through the country districts and surrounding villages who make a practice of driving to some trading center and buying large quantities of merchandise. There's a certain amount of money in this community going to be spent each year. We are entitled to have it spent here in Santa Anna.

It is interesting to note that cities and towns thruout America are taking up and pushing the radius idea.

It is good to tie Santa Anna on to a definite territory, a section and an area which it can claim as its own and with which it can co-operate in a definite, active and helpful way in the march of progress.

We ought to get together, decide upon our legitimate trade territory, get out a Radius map showing this territory. Every merchant and every business firm in Santa Anna ought to have one of these Radius maps on the wall. It should be the constant ambition of every firm in Santa Anna to develop the trade of the radius territory, to expand the trade radius of Santa Anna to the outer circles of the radius.

It can be done, but it will require concerted effort and co-operation.

DEEP TEST TO BE DRILLED IN BUFFALO COMMUNITY

Mr. J. A. Lloyd is our informant for the following information: Hart and associates of Brownwood have erected a standard rig on the E. F. George farm two miles east of the Buffalo school house and are making preparations to begin drilling a deep test for oil in the near future. Mr. Hart and his associates have drilled several wells in this part of the country and now think they have found the proper location for better pay, and here's hoping they uncover something sensational and profitable.

It's easy to remember the Sabbath these days. It's the favorite time for a spin.

The man without an education is entitled to the greatest sympathy. Not that education, from an intellectual point of view, makes character or nobility of soul, which is the real man, but a man without an education is at such a disadvantage and cannot do what he would like to do that would add to his own and the world's progress and comfort. Men and women often make a success without even a high school education, much less college training, and it is to their credit that they learn the practical lessons of life from observation and association with others. Their minds are alert and they make their own opportunities and take advantage of them. But not all people are born with the same disposition and the same natural ability to learn. And everyone is more or less a creature of circumstances. He cannot change his environments and hence is often compelled to go through life handicapped and doomed to follow far in the rear of the procession that is constantly moving onward to higher and better things. In this day and time it behooves every boy and girl to utilize the means afforded him to improve his mind and thus be able to give greater service to humanity and surround himself with those things that afford pleasure and comfort to loved ones. But those do not acquire this knowledge and training are entitled to sympathy and help.

Spring Health Precautions: Clean-up, swat the fly and mosquito, be temperate in eating don't start a fire in the kitchen range with a can of kerosene, drive within the speed-limit, stop look and listen at railroad grade crossings, don't meddle with other people's affairs, and maybe we will live to be run over by an automobile with a fool at the steering wheel.

The State of Texas during March expended $275,416 for support and maintenance of the various eleemosynary institutions. The per capita cost was $26.36. The American Legion hospital at Kerrville had the highest per capita cost, it being $143.20. There are fifty-nine patients at this institution, thirty-nine employes with a pay roll of $2,221; total cost for support and maintenance in March $8,448.

The electric voting device installed in the lower house of the legislature cost $27,000. It is said to have paid for itself the first season. If everything else that the state invests money in were as profitable, life would be one grand sweet song to the tax payer.

THE GOOD AND THE BAD

In a town less than 40 miles from Santa Anna last Wednesday night at prayer service, a preacher made a statement, in substance as follows: "The average newspaper of today is but a mass of stuff about crime and degeneracy, hardly fit for decent people to read." A few days back the writer received a communication from a man who claims to be a preacher, which in part read as follows: "Since you are determined to publish your paper in the interest of the Baptist denomination and treat other churches with silent contempt, you may use the unexpired time on my subscription for kindling wood," and after making some other very hard and untrue statements, closed in the following manner: "Yours for a newspaper for white folks," signed his name. The church that this man represents himself to be affiliated with has had free publicity in this paper every since the present editor has been in charge, and in fact, our files will show that the said church has used more space than has the Baptist church, and they are welcome to the service and we want them to continue to use it, as we do not believe that a man that will write such an insult is a fair representative of any church or set, and we do not accept the insult as coming from the denomination, but only from one man. In line with the above, we find an article in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, from one of her most able writers, Phoebe K. Warner, which we think expresses the point much better than the writer can put it, and we hereby reproduce it for your consideration:

"Now the thing we girls and women must do if we would wipe out the crime news from our papers is to be as alert in discovering and reporting the unusually good things men and women, boys and girls are doing as the fellow who is looking for the unusual in crime and scandal. But that is not all. We must all study how to make the good things folks are doing as attractive and as thrilling as the bad. And every community is full of good thrilling things that people are doing every day that are never reported. Because the good is so common that most of it is passed by unnoticed and unseen. And yet a lot of people think the world is getting worse day by day in every way. And it is because they are not looking for the unusual good things that youth and age are doing.

"The crime news can not be wiped out of the newspapers unless crime itself can be wiped out of the world. But the prominence given to crime news can be diminished, and whatever harmful effect such news may have can be offset by giving greater prominence to good news; and that is what most newspapers are striving to do.

"Obviously, the newspaper reflects the mental spiritual standards of its readers and created in large measure by its readers. Mrs. Warner's idea that 'We must all study how to make the good things folks are doing as attractive and as thrilling as the bad' is sound, common sense. It involves a revision of public morals and public moral standards, of course—but why let a little task like that frighten us?"

RETURNS FROM REUNION

Yes! Mrs. Kingsbery and myself are back from the Confederate Reunion at New Orleans; went down with M. L. McFarland and wife of Brownwood. We were met at station by Mr. McFarland's son, Arthur and his wife. She a very capable and charming lady. They drove us to apartments at Mrs. Bayner's; she a Southern aristocrat and walking encyclopedia of the city. One of four ladies that led the parade and made the fight for Woman's Suffrage in Washington D. C. She and the McFarlands showed us the city from start to finish. Arthur McFarland is a Coleman county product, has worked his way up to the head of the river and harbor construction business. The Hiborsies bank is the tallest building in the city, 23 stories. We had a beautiful view of the city from the top, and from the meandering of the river, could readily see why it is called the Crescent City. Mr. Thorman, manager of the safety deposit vault, (which is in the basement) took us through his department; showed us how they had mirrors arranged so as to detect burglars at work in any of the departments without exposing oneself. There were about 15000 visitors at the Reunion; fewer old Veterans than I ever saw before. Saw and talked with my old Comander in chief and some of his staff. The next Reunion will be at Memphis, Tenn. Saw Geo. Parker, Col. Skipwick of Morehouse Parrish fame was said to be there but I didn't see him. Many finely gowned and finely good looking women were there, but I'm sure that I could select a dozen in our little town for style and beauty, that would equal or surpass them. The Grunewald and St. Charles hotels were headquarters for the boys in gray. At the foreman there was an automatic turntable with long arms to pass the crowd in and out to avoid a jam, so my guide and protector, Mrs. Kingsbery, said, "Now Daddy you must step lively to get thru." I said, "You show me." She stepped up and made a dive for the arms just as an old veteran did and they landed in the same pew, she going the "Fox trot" and he "Shimming," they made a safe landing, giving the lookers on considerable amusement, which all goes at such places. Another incident occurred to my chaperone that I feared might prove serious, but in a short time she was her dear sweet self again. Just before leaving New Orleans she suggested we go down to the French Market and take on a good supply of Shrimps, Crab, Lobsters and etc., Before we got to Baton Rouge they began to get restless, when we went down on the boat that took us across the Mississippi river, unfortunately my better half yawned, they saw water and all made a rush for it, making her deathly sea sick, but, in a few minutes she landed them, and we got her back up in the car all o. k. At Orange the entire Oil field was under water; 1750 people out of employment; Beaumont partly under water—there we had a short visit with Loyd Roberts and his lovely wife. They are doing a fine

Jewelry, Trunk, Bag and Valise business. (Another Coleman county product). We took interurban to Port Arthur for a visit with Mrs. Kingsbery's sister's family. They too, are from our county. Mr. Roberts was very feeble, the rest fine. Leita Abstracting, Lotie has been associated with the school for many years through the courtesy of her friend, Mr. Abel, who is superintendent of the Gulf Refining Co., we were shown through the plant. The largest refining company in the world; capacity 100000 barrels Crude oil per day, 950 tanks approximate storage 3500000 barrels, 225 oil stills, between five and 6 thousand men employed, about $1000000 monthly pay roll. Some pay roll for one company in a city of 32000. They have the Texas Refining Co., about 60 per cent as large as the Gulf. 100000 barrel tank was set on fire by lightning and burned up while we were there.

I have been in Texas 47 years, crossed the Mississippi river every few years, but never saw as much water and destruction as on this trip. The dead cattle from the freeze still to be seen, trees bare, foliage killed, vegetation not as forward as ours. The large sugar and rice plantations look like a thing of the past. In fact, no crops from Temple to New Orleans as far advanced as ours, and still raining. Every river except the Mississippi out of bank. All low lands under water. Horses and mules in lots and very inferior.

If our country men could see these states as I have for the past 47 years they would readily realize that they live in the garden spot of the United States, everything considered.

Yours to live and die in Coleman county, in Santa Anna community,
H. W. KINGSBERY.

REAL ESTATE CONCERN IS HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

The Raney-Curtis Company, dealing in real estates, loans, rentals, general insurance and oil properties, is one of the leading factors in building up South Abilene. The two members of the firm are E. M. Raney and E. W. Curtis. Mr. Raney came from Santa Anna eighteen months ago, while Mr. Curtis has been here for eighteen years. For the last six years Mr. Curtis has been in the oil fields but in recent months has been in partnership with Mr. Raney.

They handle real estate, both business and residential, and have connections for the building of homes. "Seventy-five per cent of the new homes going up now are on the South side of town," Mr. Raney said. "Business on this side is booming and I have great hopes for what the next two years will bring us here." Mr. Raney says it isn't necessary any more to go into the merits of insurance, for people have now become educated to the point where they seek it of their own accord as a business proposition. The protection of the home or business from loss by fire is recognized by everyone as a necessity.—Abilene Daily Reporter.

LESSON FOR MAY 6

SAMUEL—JUDGE AND PROPHET

LESSON TEXT—I Sam. 12:1-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he hath done for you.—I Sam. 12:24.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—I Chron. 9:22; 28:22; Ps. 99:6; Jer. 15:1; Hb. 11:32, 33.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Samuel, the Boy Who Served in God's House.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Boy Who Heard God's Call.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Samuel, the Upright Judge.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Samuel, the True Prophet.

Samuel means "asked of God." God gave him in answer to his mother's prayer. She promised to give him back to God. In his early childhood, his mother cared for and taught him. There is no teacher or nurse like the mother of the child. At an early age, she handed him over to the care of Eli to minister unto the Lord in the tabernacle. While ministering unto the Lord in the tabernacle, God called him. He responded to this call and spent a long life in useful service to God and his nation as judge and prophet. Our lesson today is his farewell address.

After Saul was made king, he retired and turned over the authority to the newly-chosen ruler.

I. Samuel's Challenge to the People. (vv. 1-5).

1. Reminder of the Way the King Had Been Given. (v. 1). He showed that they were directly responsible for the change in government. Though keenly feeling the reflection upon himself and their ingratitude to God in their demand for a king, he has not resisted their wish. He reminded them that they now had what they wanted.

2. Review of His Own Administration. (vv. 2, 3). (1) Walk from childhood (v. 2). Samuel's was a remarkable life; from childhood to old age he had lived an upright and pure life. How satisfying it must be to come to the end of life and to look back even to childhood days without regrets. (2) Career as judge and ruler (v. 3). He boldly challenged them to show where and how he had even in the smallest matters defrauded or oppressed anyone. He courted the most searching investigation of his life, even calling upon the Lord Himself to bear witness.

3. The Vote of Confidence by the People. (vv. 4, 5). It was Samuel's right as he laid down the reins of government to have his record vindicated and to have his integrity established beyond a doubt so that no evil-minded man could ever be able to cast reproach upon him.

II. Samuel Reviews God's Dealings from the Time of Moses. (vv. 6-15). He reasoned with them concerning the good hand of the Lord upon them from the time of Moses. Though they with ingratitude turned from the Lord and demanded a king like the other nations, he had acceded to their request and set a king over them.

1. National Prosperity Conditioned by Obedience. (v. 14). Though they had displeased God in choosing a king, if they would fear the Lord and render obedience, national prosperity would still be given. The nation which will not walk in God's way cannot expect God's blessing.

2. Disobedience to God Meant the Nation's Ruin (v. 15). It is folly to ask God's blessing upon a nation while it is living in rebellion against Him. True statesmanship is to find out God's will concerning the nation and so direct it that in all its laws and customs there may be harmony with that will.

III. Samuel's Own Vindication. (vv. 16-19).

This was such a critical hour in the history of the nation that Samuel sought to indelibly impress this moment on their hearts. This he did by means of the thunder and rain out of season. Harvest time was not the season for thunder and rain so when it came at the call of Samuel, the people were frightened. The sign had its designed effect. The people confessed their sin of asking for a king and besought Samuel to pray for them.

IV. Samuel's Gracious Response. (vv. 20-25).

1. "Fear Not—Serve the Lord With All Your Heart." (vv. 20-22). Samuel did not minimize their sin but assured them if they would serve the Lord wholeheartedly, He would not forsake them.

2. "God Forbid That I Should Sin Against the Lord in Ceasing to Pray for You." (v. 23). Though the people had rejected Samuel, yet he had such magnanimity of soul that he had not allowed their ingratitude to keep him from interceding for them. Such failure on his part he regarded as sin.

Paganism. To worry about carnal things is pure paganism. He who has done such grand things for the soul will not starve the body.—W. L. Watkinson.

Letting Go. Shall I hold on with both hands to every petty possession? All I have teaches me to trust the Creator for all I have not seen.—Emerson.
