JAMES ROBERT GREGG

No more democratic personality, if personality it may be called, exists in this old world than the Angel of Death, before whose visage there is neither rich nor poor, color or creed, low or high station, great or little. The Angel of Death hovering always and inexorably over souls has but one program—to return the souls of mortals to their Maker, there to be judged and rewarded accordingly as the life of the mortal merits. The great Leveler has borne away all that is immortal of Jim Bob Gregg. And in the Judgment his soul must surely stand with those ransomed, greeting the loved ones who in time will follow on. That which is mortal will be tenderly and lovingly placed in hallowed ground to await the promised Day of Judgment. All this is right and just according to the Master of Life. But a deep sense of loss that will long be felt, a present poignancy of grief over the severed ties that will never be entirely eased will keep his brief life in the minds of those who knew him and those who loved him. Accorded only a brief friendship with him, we held a sincere liking for Jim Bob. His life was good, which sums up the virtues and covers any petty fault that might be his. We knew him as a fellow craftsman, and his work was good. Many will mourn his passing, but we feel that a great consolation is to be found in the knowledge of these facts. He faced life unafraid, and peacefully he passed beyond the veil when the Master Craftsman wrote after his name the cabalistic

This Week in Our Town

"I would like to be back in Santa Anna next year to see the fastest and best rodeo I have ever had the pleasure to witness," says G. O. Markins, district sales agent of the Gulf Oil Corporation. I think the success of this rodeo is a tribute to the business men of Santa Anna, and that they should be commended for their civic-minded co-operation in putting Santa Anna on the map. They are certainly a live bunch of men, and deserve a big success in their respective fields."

The local high school has added a new course to the curriculum—a Junior Business Class with 35 students enrolled.

"I patronize my competitor when the mosquitoes chew on me," reports O. A. Etheredge, a local gasoline wholesaler. "It happens my company doesn't make insect spray. But there are plenty of big skeeters at my place." Must be New Jersey gallinippers—or else they thrive and wax fat on Campbell's "skeeter spray."

Santa Anna will have a better foot ball team this year," is the view of Coach McDonald. "It was a light-weight team the local school had last year. Some of them have taken on enough avoirdupois to put the team in the weight class with other large schools of the district."

"He's a good talker—always talking about money every time he gets around me," said Mayor Johnson as he introduced his guest, the city engineer, at the Lion's Club Tuesday noon.

"What's the matter with Lion Claud Reid?" asked several of the Lions when Claud had been quiet for ten minutes. They inferred he was sick or absent. Looked like he was chewing on a tough chicken gizzard.

Two weeks from Tuesday this week is 100 per cent attendance day with the Lions. Every Lion is urged to be present so the local club can again report a perfect attendance. Last time the Santa Anna Club was first to report 100 percent in the district.

County Agent Steel Has Valuable Data For News Readers

E. A. Miller agronomist of A. & M. Extension Service held a wheat improvement meeting at Coleman Wednesday and discussed the improvement of the quality of wheat grown throughout this section.

The importance of growing good quality baking wheat to maintain the good reputation and market demand which Texans enjoy was stressed by Mr. Miller.

Several varieties have been introduced which are very poor baking qualities such as Chieftan and Early Blackhull. Chieftan is often known as beardless or smoothhead black hull. These varieties are not desired by the mills and bakeries as they have poor baking qualities. Experiments have shown that the early black hull has been one of the lowest yield over a period of years, and the Chieftan has not made as good yield record as such varieties as Ten Marq in experimental tests in Texas.

The variety called Ten Marq has made one of the best records as to yield at the various Experiment Stations and has a wide adaptation. Hard red winter wheat is rated high in baking qualities.

Among the soft red winter wheat is Denton and Clark and Kawvale, which have made the best records.

Seed treatments is good crop insurance for wheat, oats and barley as well as grain and sweet sorghum, for smut which gets bad if the seed in untreated formally. Cooper Corban was used for treating grain. Now such organic mineral compounds as Improved Ceresan is being used a great deal. One half an ounce per bushel is sufficient to disinfect the grain. It will not clog the drill. It may be applied by using any tight container such as a drum, so that the seed can be covered. The cost is very small and as we are never sure the crop may not be infected, it pays to disinfect it.

About 25 sheep were exhibited by Coleman County at the Ballinger sheep exhibit. A number of visitors of Coleman County were present, including A. I. Edwards, vocational teacher at Daniel Burkett; Mr. Richardson, vocational teacher at Talpa and Mr. Collingsworth, vocational teacher at Valera.

A large number of blue ribbons were won by the Coleman County exhibitors.

Coleman County exhibitors were: Rambouillet—J. W. Wood, Talpa; Bill Trammell, Talpa; Clyde Thate, Burkett; Delaines—C. F. Sappington, Talpa.

Plans are being made for a camp on the Colorado river for all bonafide 4H Club members in the Rockwood, Shield, Trickham and Whon 4H Clubs. The group will meet at Whon at 3 p. m. Friday September 6th.

With few exceptions the Santa Anna guardsmen will be ready when the call comes.

Thirty-Sixth Div. to Train in New Camp Near Brownwood

The War Department at Washington has decided definitely to establish a camp near Brownwood for training the Thirty-sixth Division of the National Guard. Representative Charles L. South said Wednesday. This move was predicted Tuesday, although at that time it was reported Sweetwater was also under consideration.

Originally this development had been planned for Fort Clark but later the department decided the water supply there would be inadequate for such a large number of men. More than 18,000 men will be trained at the post.

The new camp will be located just south of Brownwood and the Government now is acquiring the necessary land for it. It is to be a tent camp, as had been planned for Fort Clark, and other facilities including hospital, mess halls, administration buildings and others will be erected to complete it.

This action by the department was officially announced in a letter from Col. E. Reybold acting assistant chief of staff, to South. In it Reybold said:

"I have been directed to advise you that a site just south of Brownwood, Texas has been selected by the War Department as a training center for the Thirty-sixth Division and that steps are being taken to acquire the campsite and to build thereon the necessary utilities and housing."

The local warehouse has received about 175,000 pounds of wool this season, with mohair prospects good.

WPA Will Provide 1800 School Lunches Daily in the County

With more than a dozen rural schools in Coleman county operating, the WPA will this year provide 1800 lunches daily to Coleman County school students at a cost of five cents per lunch per student.

The WPA lunch-room project will begin operating this year with twice as many lunch-rooms as were in the program last school term, according to Mrs. Marcus Durham, Coleman, area project supervisor for school lunch-rooms.

Lunch-rooms will be operated at Buffalo, Liberty, Santa Anna, Ward, Trickham, Whon, Rockwood, Shields, Gouldbusk, Hardin, Voss, Lenday, Valera and Leedy schools. There are good prospects they also will be operated at the Cleveland, Mozelle and Brown Ranch schools.

Under the proposition the co-sponsors furnish the place and equipment for cooking and serving while the WPA furnishes the labor to prepare and serve lunches and some surplus commodities such as flour, lard and dried fruits.

One meal per day is served the students who may pay five cents in money or in kind.

There are 90 employees working on this project in Coleman County. The project will have 12,000 cans of vegetables and fruits—canned during the summer—from which to draw during the year.

CROP AND RAIN CONDITIONS IN TEXAS

Recent rains in central and east Texas following a dry spell were very beneficial to cotton pastures and late feed crops and placed the soil in excellent condition for fall plowing. Moisture also brought an improvement in the northwest where drought was becoming serious.

Cotton is maturing rapidly under favorable conditions, an estimate of 2,893,000 bales being made. Some insect infestation reported but damage slight.

A corn-crop of 91,630,000 bu. this year as compared with 73,376,000 last year—the best crop since 1935. With exception of a few late fields the crop is well matured and being gathered.

Much of the heavy feed crop has also been harvested. Grain sorghum estimate is at 48,075,000 bu., larger than usual.

Soil in good condition for fall planting. Range conditions of West Texas improved with recent rains. Good grass supply for fall months assured.

Livestock in good flesh. Indications of good demand for cattle and feeder lambs this fall.

Wool production sets all-time record — 83,648,000 pounds on Texas ranches.

GUARD MAY TRAIN NEAR BROWNWOOD

A reliable source reported Saturday the 36th division of the Texas national guard would train on a 2,000-acre site near Brownwood.

Although members of the adjutant general's staff at Austin were non-committal it was understood the war department is nearing completion of an agreement for leasing the north central Texas site.

The 36th division's normal camp site at Palacios, on the Gulf coast is not adaptable to the field training, and presumably will be used for training of anti-aircraft artillery.

Law Strict on Buying Cream for the Making of Butter

A new federal law puts a fine of $1000 or/and a year in jail on the creamery making butter out of old, cheesy decomposed, filthy or unfit cream. And for a second conviction a $10,000 fine and/or three years in jail. So don't be mad if the man who is buying your cream checks up on it closely, and refuses any that is old or seemingly unfit. It is asking too much of him to have him buy your cream if it is questionable and pay $1000 and languish in jail a year just for the pleasure of buying from you.

The food and drug agents have a fool-proof test — the "mold mycelia count" — and they're condemning bad butter from Canada to the Gulf. Authorities are not seeking to put creameries out of business, but they're going to see that the consumer gets good butter.

Cream should go from farm to plant twice a week or at least before it is four days old. It should be kept at not over 70 degrees of temperature. Sanitation should be observed on the farm, at the station and at the plant. Cream producers are being asked to co-operate with cream stations to the end that public secures pure butter.

Approximately 1,000 persons representative of every section of the county attended a meeting of the Coleman County Pioneer's Association at Coleman park, Friday, August 30.

Steward, Rockwood.

Winners in the old fiddlers' contest included E. R. Crockett, Coleman, first; J. H. Well, Abilene, second; and R. L. Snodgrass, Coleman, third, in the older division, and Floy Englund, first in the younger division.

Twenty-eight marriage licenses had been issued for the month up to Friday, August 30, in Brown county which was exactly the same number issued in August, 1939, an indication that Brown county is not one of those where young men were rushing into matrimony during August to escape military service.

At a special session of the 25th District court Tuesday, Judge E. J. Miller fixed Wednesday, Sept. 11, at 9 a. m., as the time for the trial of Courtney Gray's contest of the Brown county judge's race first primary election results.

A 21-year-old youth who said he was from California was arrested at Brownwood last week by a posse of six Brownwood officers who forced him to drop a 32 caliber Colt revolver after the officers had chased him from a "hobo jungle" near the city of Brownwood. The suspect told officers he had stolen the revolver near Brady.

THE DEMAND FOR BANK loans is increasing and the banks on the whole are fulfilling the legitimate needs of large and small borrowers alike. That is the logical deduction to be made from a survey of commercial bank loans for 1939, which covered 6,500 banks, holding about 80 per cent of the nation's commercial bank deposits. Last year, these banks made 13,000,000 new personal and business loans, for the tremendous aggregate of $23,700,000,000. They renewed more than 12,000,000 loans, for a total of $16,300,000,000, and made 297,000 mortgage loans on real estate, totaling $938,000,000. Two highly interesting trends were in evidence. First, demand for bank loans is on the rise as indicated by the fact that the volume of loans during the second half of the year was 17 per cent greater than in the first half. Second, a very large proportion of all the transactions made involved relatively small amounts, and recognizable service to the modest borrower. The average loan was $1,315 and the average mortgage loan was $3,155. In addition, 44 per cent of the loans were for less than $1,000, and 70 per cent of the transactions were for less than $10,000. The industry of the nation is being kept in motion by the banks. Building, the backbone of the nation's economy, is being kept in motion by the banks. The survey covered 25,000,000 separate credit transactions for a total of $11,000,000,000. That money went to build homes and factories, to expand industries, to pay pressing personal obligations, to employ labor, to market new commodities for all of the thousand and one activities which constitute the involved economic life of a great nation banking serves all of America, and the scope of its service grows as the years pass.

OUR NATION HAS WITNESSED some distressing situations lately, such as the names hurled at Colonel Lindbergh for expression of his views in a recent speech on the European situation, and when General Pershing urged that we give Britain 50 destroyers to aid in her defense. These two men have done more for their country than 999 out of 1,000 of their critics. Yet, because some did not agree with their views, they were abused unreasonably. In contrast with this is an incident which occurred in Des Moines. Secretary Wallace Democratic candidate for the vice-presidency, was booed and heckled while attempting to make an address. He was followed by Republican presidential candidate Wendell Willkie - who soundly rebuked the audience for its shameful treatment of his opponent. It is a cardinal principle of democracy that all sides be heard - and that the same privilege of free expression be extended to those with whom we disagree, no less than to those with whom we agree. Let that principle perish and democracy perishes. If we are to be permitted to hear only the voice of those representing one side only, then we are entering a dictatorship.

A FEDERAL OFFICIAL WHO recently passed through Portland, Oregon, a city located a few miles from the Federal government's great tax-bait, tax-exempt hydroelectric dam at Bonneville, on the Columbia River, observed that officers of the government were pleased over the way Bonneville power is being taken by manufacturing concerns and communities. Last January the Bonneville administrator forecast sales for the 1940 fiscal year would reach $1,000,000. Sales actually came to $387,969 - $306 came from industry - a construction company at the dam. $12,320 was purchased by municipalities, $355,342 came from private power utilities in the Bonneville territory they bought and distributed Bonneville power to their customers, and passed on the savings to them. Bonneville filled no need that was not already being adequately filled or could have been filled by private utilities. Funds for its expansion must be continually furnished by the hard-pressed taxpayers of the country. It is an ironic fact that the private utility purchases are all that have kept its generators turning.

WENDELL WILLKIE'S ACCEPTANCE speech rang the bell near by. And Harold Ickes, more or less official reply, missed the boat. That seems to be the general consensus of the commentaries on the speech. Even the "Mid-West" magazine, which was close to 100 per cent against involvement of the United States in European affairs, had the courage to say distinctly that this country's destiny is inextricably involved with the destiny of the other democracies, and that Fascism is our enemy. He had the courage to endorse New Deal objectives and laws which he thinks good, even as he criticized New Deal administration and what he regards as its defeatist philosophy. And so it was almost inevitable that Ickes' reply should be widely regarded as a dismal failure. Ickes called names and got off some amusing wisecracks. He attempted to pin the "Wall Street" label on Willkie.

THE DEFENSE PROGRAM IS beginning to move at last. Big airplane contracts have been placed, along with contracts for powder, tanks, and necessities. It takes a long time for American industry to change over to war production after decades in which our security was never threatened. But since it gets going, the experts feel, the results will be astonishing. No other country in the world has anywhere near our industrial machine - and no other nation is so powerful, once it shakes off its lethargy and gets down to the business of preparing against aggression in dead earnest.

Other Viewpoints

Among seven major groups of employers in the United States, only one has more persons on its payroll now than it had in 1929, says Booth Mooney in The Texas Weekly. That one is, of course, government - Federal, State and local. The business of government, as reflected in the number of its employees, has been on a boom during the last decade. Every year since 1929 has brought an expansion, with the single exception of 1933 when the annual average of government employees declined slightly. Figures on which these statements are based were released recently by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor. The bureau's statistics show estimates of the number of employees in non-agricultural businesses and government establishments by months and years since 1929. Included are self-employed persons, casual workers, domestic servants, and persons employed on WPA, NYA or CCC projects. The list is far from complete. But it is sufficiently complete to show that six important groups representing nearly three million fewer persons during the first six months of this year than they were employing in 1929, while government was employing over eight hundred thousand more persons during the first half of this year than it was employing in 1929. The job of restoring employment remains to be done by private enterprise. It is a task that can be accomplished only through new investment and creation of additional investment opportunities. And this means that there is a pressing necessity in this for the formulation and maintenance of public policies designed to favor new investment and creation of additional investment opportunities. Such policies, it may as well be admitted, have not been conspicuously in evidence during recent years. Indeed, many of the additional government employees work for bureaus that, it sometimes seems, must have been created for the express purpose of harassing and restricting private enterprise. Jobs for the jobless of the United States can never be provided in any such way.

Poet's Corner

A poetry journal, entitled "Why", published by Isolina Hafford, at New Orleans, La., carried in their June number, the following poem, written by Santa Anna's own poet, Ernest Womack -

WAR'S TRAGEDY I passed along the road today, And saw a weeping flower, A lonely blossom that remained Of once a lovely bower.

A pleasant cottage there had been, With homely flowers growing, And spread about were golden fields, A rich reward from sowing.

The man birds came across the sky - The father was in reaping, The mother singing at her work, The little baby sleeping, The man birds paused and journeyed on.

To further destination, The broken house is silent now, The fields in desolation. I found the blossom by the step, All drooped from want of keeping, I brushed a tear from off my cheek, I'd found a flower weeping.

THE DIFFERENCE

"Nazi Germany has prohibited the enameling of nails by women, also lip rouge and the wearing of slacks in public. It brands these customs as pagan." - News Item

To slaughter and to pillage Is quite a proper course, One bombs the Red Cross emblem Without the least remorse, To lie and trick and threaten Is something big and fine, But polished nails and lip rouge They are a pagan sign!

To tear up written treaties - Ah, that is quite okay, To break the solemn promise - It's done by us each day! To jump on little nations Is not wrong in the least, But picquer on a lady - It truly marks the beast!

Machine gunning the aged Is something done in stride, Great racial persecutions Just help to swell our pride. A blitzkrieg, is a process - Most civilized and gay - But fingernails when colored They mark the heathen way.

To set the world on fire Is quite a normal act, To terrorize a planet Is normal, it's a fact! The U-boat and the bomber We do not think unkind, But slacks upon a woman Reveal a savage mind.

A gas mask on a baby, Ah, there's a pretty sight! An ambulance when burning Is perfectly all right, A child in bombproof shelter Is nothing very sad, But lip rouge on a woman - Ach, Gott! but that is bad!

light, schoolwork causes the greatest strain on the eyes if the home is improperly lighted. This is the opinion of many hundreds of men and women interviewed in an extensive survey conducted in eight mid-western and southern states including Texas.

In discussing the survey, W. R. Mulroy, local manager of the West Texas Utilities, said that seven persons out of 10 named reading or schoolwork when asked what activity in the home calls for the best lighting.

Sewing and mending ranked as a strong second in the survey while cooking, shaving and similar tasks were considered by others to impose a considerable strain on the eyes in poorly lighted homes.

"Our lighting department," he said, "is glad to make free lighting tests whenever requested. It often is possible to improve light at little or no expense. Our lighting advisors are equipped with a sight meter which scientifically determines the proper candlepower needed for study, reading, mending or any of the various eye uses made in the average home."

SPLIF-ZILCH NUPTIALS

Clarence (Tudy) Splif, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gillic Splif of the Henscratch Community, this county, became the husband of Miss Samantha Jane Zilch, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swig-Zilch of Buscuffe, in a beautiful ring ceremony Saturday noon, August 24, before the justice of the peace at our neighboring city.

Blushing prettily, the groom replied to the questions of the justice in low but firm tones, never indicating that he noted the omission of the "obey" questions in the bride's answers. He was attractively attired in a three piece suit of black pin stripe woolen material, consisting of coat, vest and pants. The coat was charmingly festooned with a white flower in the left buttonhole.

The vest was sleeveless, closed in the front and gracefully fashioned with pockets. It was held together at the back with a strap and buckle. His pants were neatly pressed for the occasion and he wore them with an air as if he little suspected it would be the last time he "wore the pants". In that family, as the familiar expression goes.

Colorful socks and a nifty red celluloid bow tie added just the right dash of color to complement the effect. Shoes of genuine leather, laced with strings of the same color, lent a chic effect to the ensemble. Tudy and his bride will make their home alternately with his and her, old folks, as Tudy has been out of a job since Repeal.

Poultry and egg shipments from Texas to interstate points during July registered a large increase over those of July a year ago. The poultry movement was made up of 30 cars of chickens and six cars of turkeys, compared to 20 cars of chickens and none of turkeys a year ago.

Movement of livestock from Texas ranches to Fort Worth stockyards and to other states for July dropped 20.5 per cent from July, 1939.

"Looks like you know all the district governors," remarked Lion Secretary Hardy Blue Tuesday when he had to have the new governor's name quickly. It happened that we had twice been in the newspaper work in Sabinal and knew the new governor, Roy Davenport, well, and his predecessor was a friend of ours in the old home town of Mission. This predicates a future district governor of Lions from Santa Anna, does it not?

"Got good results from our advertising the last few days," is the report of Mr. Jones of the Santa Anna Milling Company. "More new customers at the mill and more business houses calling for our products. New machinery is enabling us to give them even better flour and meal than before." Last week's advertising reached the spot.

"I'm not in the army now," stated Sam Collier last Monday. Sam went before the board as a captain on duty and came out a colonel by brevet, retired, not a bad recognition at all of the hard work Sam has given the national guard unit here in the old home town. Sam has been faithful as well as sincere in his work with his company.

KIDNEY STAGNATION IS WORSE THAN CONSTIPATION!

Because We Treat Constipation at The Gravel, While We Neglect Our Kidneys Indolently

No other organ in your body is of more importance than your kidneys. For in your kidneys there are nine million tubes which must work day and night to filter the fluids and keep the system free from wastes, acids, poisons which, if permitted to remain, may cause serious kidney and bladder troubles.

It is no wonder then that Nature often calls for help to clean out the kidneys. So if you are troubled with Getting-Up-Nights, Leg Pains, Backache, Nervous Headache, Dizziness or Loss of Energy, due to functional kidney disorders, try KIDANS, the famous kidney remedy, which aids Nature to flush out the kidneys, to filter all wastes, to prevent kidney stagnation.

KIDANS is Safe and Reliable. Thousands report entire satisfaction. Taken according to directions, KIDANS will give splendid results. Try KIDANS. Buy it at our Special Price Offer on two boxes. Use one box. If not satisfied, return unopened box and GET YOUR MONEY BACK.

If your local druggist cannot supply you, send $1.00 to The Kiddans Company, Atlanta, Ga., for two full size boxes on a money back guarantee.

Long Rifle cartridges (High Speed). Each boy will fire thirty times—ten times at each of the three positions. All rifles will be turned in to one of the sponsors and will be used only during target practice. A medal will be given the boy having the highest score. Each boy will pay fifteen cents for the ammunition he shoots.

The program will include baseball, swimming, fishing, target practice, etc. Camp will officially open at 4 p. m. on Saturday, Sept. 7th. The location will be on the Gill Ranch.

The sponsors are John W. Vance, Shield; C. D. Finley, Trickham; Warren Gill, Whon; Roy B. Mefford, Rockwood. Friday night the Soil Conservation Service will show slides on soil conservation with Marvin Hayes in charge.

D. D. Steele county agent, re-meetings were held this week, parts two soil conservation Monday night at Shield and Tuesday night at Cross Roads.

Boy Scouts News

There will be a Boy Scout leader training course held in the city hall, Monday, Sept. 9 at 8 p. m., according to Jack Vogel, field scout executive.

The purpose of the training course is to train Scoutmasters, troop committeemen and the general public in the fundamental principles of Scouting. A recent survey reveals that there are sufficient boys in Santa Anna school district to have another Scout troop in addition to troop 55, sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

There is also a sufficient number of nine, ten and eleven year old boys in Santa Anna to organize a cub pack. We realize more and more the necessity of enlisting the nine, ten and eleven year old boys for the Scout movement, rather than waiting until the boy is older. There will be a meeting at 4 o'clock in the grade school for all boys of this age and their mothers are urged to attend because the cubbing program is carried on by the parents.

A series of training courses are being held in Abilene and the northern part of the Chisolm trail council, which consists of Haskell, Jones, Shackelford, Taylor, Runnels, Coleman and Callahan counties and September 9 is the date that has been selected for Santa Anna.

The Boy Scout movement has as its objectives, character building and citizenship training and if America ever needed loyal citizens she needs them today. The Boy Scout program is dependent upon trained volunteers for its successful existence.

Scouting needs more men—you owe it to your boy and to your country to participate in this worthwhile program and you serve best if you are trained.

Young Folks, Here Is Your Chance!

One of America's best known college presidents, Dr. Glenn Frank has endorsed the educational program of the private business school for those not preparing for a professional career.

Roger Babson says, "One of the great tragedies of American life is our common belief that everyone is suited to college training. There are hundreds in our colleges without desire, taste or capacity for what college has to offer."

Employers are agreed that the traditional liberal arts education alone is not preparation for business. Unless his liberal arts education has been strengthened with a technical training the academic graduate may be passed up by those whose business education enables them to offer specific service.

Dr. Link, Psychologist, author and educator, says: "It is a waste of time and money for a girl or boy to go to college unless they have a good reason for going. To get an education is not a good reason for going. He says, "A very good test of education is, Will or can the student ever pay or help to pay for his education if not should the parent pay for it?" Yet every boy and girl in the country should be made self-supporting. Especially the girl for there is no telling how early in life she may be thrown on her own resources."

The United States Bureau of Education reveals the startling fact that seven out of every ten young people who will hopefully launch themselves on a four-year college course this fall will never finish. The matter of health, or economic status, or lack of interest, or unfortunate choice of subjects and many other reasons account for the fact that 70% of the students drop out of our institutions of higher learning unprepared to earn a living. How, then, can one guard against this situation? The answer lies in attending a good Commercial College.

M. L. Frederick says, "My work for many years has been the employing and training of young folks for business. During this time I have observed that one can attract the attention of influential executives and learn about business from them much more promptly and effectively by beginning on a secretarial or stenographic assignment than by any other approach to a business career."

No school will give this practical training in a more thorough manner or in so short a time or at such low cost or on such liberal terms as the Byrre College and School of Commerce Dallas, Texas. Fill in for free information.

and Mrs. C. A. Curry of Santa Anna, and Jack Ogle, Jr., of Brownwood, was held at 9 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. P. Black, 1611 Durham St., Brownwood. Dr. S. E. Chandler, head of the Bible department of Daniel Baker College, officiated in the single ring ceremony which was performed before an unprovoked altar of ferns and baskets of crepe myrtle, flanked by standing candelabra, holding lighted tapers.

Only close friends and relatives of the couple were present. Prior to the ceremony a vocal trio was given by Misses Mary Ann McInnis, Doris Blair, and Mary McClelland, who sang, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

Attending the couple were Miss Dorothy Summer, bride's maid and Maurice Curry, who served as best man.

The bride wore a seasonal costume of soldier blue with navy accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Her attendant and members of the trio wore navy frocks with white accessories.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and refreshments of punch and cake were served from the dining table which was centered with the bride's cake. Floral arrangements and candles were also used for table decorations.
