

Panthers Defeat De Leon Bearcats

The Gorman Panthers defeated the De Leon Bearcats in their annual Armistice day clash by the score of 13 to 6. The game, played in De Leon, was thrilling from the first kick-off to the last down.

De Leon received the kick-off and on the first play the Bearcats almost got away for a score, but the Panthers held them back. In the first half neither team scored, so at the beginning of the third quarter the score stood 0-0. It was during this quarter that De Leon fumbled and Crosby recovered for Gorman. This was followed by a twenty-yard pass from Clark to Underwood. This drive was slowed down with a five-yard penalty and two losses when Clark could not find an open receiver. On the third down, the Clark to Underwood combination worked for twenty yards, and a first down resulted on De Leon's five-yard stripe. The first effort made by the Panthers did not net a touchdown, but on the next play Capers drove over the middle of the line for the score. A pass for the extra point failed, leaving the score 6-0. De Leon received the kick-off and ran it back to the 45-yard line as the quarter ended.

On the first play of the final quarter, De Leon fumbled and Boswell recovered. Ormsby made 15 yards and a 1st down on the 30. Clark faked a pass and drove nine yards through the middle. This was followed by an 18-yard completion from Clark to Underwood and a first down on the 7-yard line. Gorman came out of huddle with Ormsby in the hole; and with the De Leon boys looking for a run play, a pass from Ormsby to Clark was good for a touchdown. Capers added the extra point by placement.

De Leon came back fighting after this second score and made three consecutive first downs, but lost the ball on downs on Gorman's 4-yard line.

Gorman punted out on the twenty, and on the following play, the Bearcats scored. They failed to convert the extra point.

On the following kick-off, Ormsby made a nice return after taking a lateral from James Wright. He was almost loose only to be knocked out of bounds by the last De Leon man. The game ended shortly afterwards with De Leon in possession of the ball.

The game was hard fought; but a very clean one, with only two penalties being assessed one against each team.

The passing of Clark; the pass receiving of Underwood; the running of Ormsby; the line-backing by Capers; and the defense play by Isbell were some of the outstanding feats of the game. Every boy who saw service in the game played one of his best games.

The Clark to Underwood passing combination which has been outstanding all season, reached a climax in this Armistice tilt, as four completions netted the Panthers 97 yards.

The Gorman team closes their season next week with Hico at Hico. This game should be a close one and we should give the boys our support.

Fire Chief Warns Of Grass Fires

We have had several frosts and now the vegetation is killed. So I want to caution our citizens in regard to fire. If everyone will burn the weeds and grass around their premises they will cut down the risk of having a fire. Before setting the fire, take the garden hose and wet the grass some three or four feet around all your buildings and fences. Then, too, if the wind is blowing set the fire so it will have to burn against the wind. In doing this the fire will not be apt to get out from under your control. Always have plenty of water drawn up, or better still, have your garden hose connected to the hydrant. Keep plenty of wet sacks handy.

If the people will follow these simple rules it will save many alarms and many runs for the fire department. Our department is made up of business men and every time the alarm is sounded it takes them from their places of business and is quite a bother, but if you get a fire started and it gets from under your control we are only too glad to render any assistance we can.

So many alarms are uncalled for by people burning their waste paper and trash in the open, with large patches of grass near by. Nearly every year the department has to make calls to the same places (where calls were made the year before.) So lets all be careful and follow these simple rules, thus saving the runs for the department as well as the chances for a big fire loss.

Peanuts For Oil

College Station.—Texas farmers planning to grow peanuts for oil in 1942 will not only be meeting Food-For-Freedom pledges but should be in position to increase their income. B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA Defense Board, has announced.

Due to the increasingly important role peanut oil is playing in national defense, fair prices are expected to continue next year, he said.

Peanut growers are being called upon by the Texas USDA Defense Board to increase the acreage of peanuts in the state from 320,000 acres to 623,000 acres, or approximately 100 per cent. Of the increased production, 378,000 acres will be planted to peanuts for oil.

The production of peanuts will not conflict with the 1942 AAA program, the chairman explained, since allotments are based on edible trade and increased production is being asked for in peanuts for oil.

Enlisted Men Must Register When Discharged

Enlisted men who are in the registration age brackets on Oct. 16, 1940, or July 1, 1941, and who have not already registered under the Selective Training and Service Act must register when discharged from the military establishment, General J. Watt Page, State Director of Selective Service, said today.

Although members of the regular military establishment are relieved from registration as long as they are in service, General Page said, they must register when they are released from the armed forces.

While the majority of such ex-service men probably are not liable for induction as selectees, the State Director pointed out that there are some men who are discharged from the Regular Army after completing one year of training and who, consequently, are liable for induction under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, General Page declared, relieves from liability for peacetime training and service under the Act only those Regulars who have satisfactorily served as an officer or enlisted man for at least three consecutive years in the Regular Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard, or any enlisted man honorably discharged from the Regular Army or the Coast Guard within six months prior to the completion of his regular three-year period of enlistment.

Those one-year ex-service Regulars who are liable for further military training may enlist in the National Guard of the States in which they will live or joining the enlisted Reserve Corps, General Page said. Selectees who are relieved from active duty with the Army, General Page emphasized, are transferred to the reserve as provided by law and will be classified by their local boards as being members of the military establishment. Although they are not liable for additional service as selectees after completion of their period of training and relief from active duty, they may be called to active duty as a member of the reserve, he said.

Mrs. George Northcutt and Katherine and Miss Polly Harpole of Snyder and Mrs. Beans McCasland of Cisco were week-end visitors of Miss Addie Haley and Mrs. Statham.

Whately Hamrick, who has been working in Brownwood for the Ross Bros., left Tuesday for Ozona where he will be in their employ for the next few months.

Circus To Be Here Monday Nov. 17

A real, clean circus has always been popular with the masses and as long as the circus form of entertainment is in the hands of such men as Dailey Bros., it will continue to be popular. The Dailey show which is due in Gorman next Monday, Nov. 17, for two performances, does not boast of its magnitude but it does insist that the character of its exhibition and the extraordinary variety of its two hour program makes it worthy of public support, which it is receiving.

Due to the wars in Europe most of the circus celebrities of the war ridden countries fled to America for work and many of these are now with this circus, presenting for the first time here, thrilling stunts and mysterious novelties never before seen in this country.

One pleasing feature of the Dailey Bros. Circus is the presence of a large group of beautiful young feminine arena stars, any one of whom could win a beauty contest on account of her beauty and perfect figure. These young maids will repeatedly thrill the spectators by their daring performances which are executed with reckless abandonment and yet gracefully and with apparent ease. After each sensational thriller the company of clowns will rush upon the scene producing clean, original comedy to help the spectators relax from the tension caused by the daring work of the pretty maids.

Trained wild and domestic animals; beautiful girls in elegant costumes; a circus band keeping the feet of the crowd moving by its tuneful music; the company of clowns with their comical antics; all of these incidents blended together comprise a two hour circus entertainment not soon to be forgotten.

The school band of Gorman will receive a liberal share of the gross receipts from the sale of admission tickets to the circus and as they have plenty of uses for their funds they are hoping for an ideal day and large circus crowds.

DR. BRANDON CALLED FOR ARMY SERVICE

About six weeks ago Dr. Brandon received notice to report for medical examination and possible duty within a short time. Last week he received further notice and is now making plans to care for his business interests. Besides his large dental practice, he has a heavy investment in cattle and goats.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Brandon and little Joe will regret to see them leave Gorman, even for a few month's duration. Plans are not complete as yet and the doctor will probably receive an extension of several weeks in order to complete business arrangements. Dr. Brandon will enter the U. S. Army with the rank of Major.

Returns From Washington

Ray Rankin, who was inducted into the Service June 19, and who received training in Fort Sill and Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, was discharged Sept. 26, following the recent over-age legislation. Since that time he has been working in Washington, D. C., returning to his home here last Saturday night. He plans to remain in Gorman for the present.

Mrs. Bert McGlamery was here Monday to bring her parents home. Dr. Kimble visited in her home in Eastland while Mrs. Kimble attended Conference in Fort Worth last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Newton from Fort Davis are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ramsey this week. Their son, John, is in the hospital recovering from a major operation.

Mrs. Myrtle Trammell of Sweetwater attended the funeral of a cousin in De Leon last week and stopped for a short visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Shelley on her return.

Mrs. L. M. Wallace Passes Away

Mrs. Lumley M. Wallace was born on Jan. 18, 1863, in Peoria, Hill county Texas, and passed away Nov. 8, 1941, at her home in Gorman. On Nov. 12, 1881 she was married to Mr. Wallace who preceded her in death some four years. They moved here about twenty years ago.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon from her home by Rev. Levi Price at 2:00 p.m., followed by burial services in the Dublin cemetery. She united with the Baptist church when a young lady and had been faithful until poor health and advanced years kept her at home.

She had no children, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. H. I. Dyer of Dublin, and one sister-in-law, Mrs. Aquilla Duross, who had lived with her the past few years; six nieces and four nephews as follows: Mrs. Marvin Collier of Lubbock; Mrs. W. T. Cooper of College Station; Mrs. R. E. Hoffman of Bakers Field, Calif.; Mrs. L. L. Campbell of Temple; Mrs. J. P. Magill of Fresno, Calif., and Mrs. L. E. Hall of Brownwood; the nephews are: J. S. Dyer of San Diego, Calif.; J. H. Dyer and R. L. Dyer of Phoenix, Ariz., and J. W. Dyer of San Diego, Calif.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Higginbotham Bros.

THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday afternoon in business session. Mrs. Shell presided, the president being absent. After the devotional exercises, the minutes of the last meeting were read. Mrs. Boston, the supt. of supplies, read a letter from the con. supt., telling where and what supplies are needed. The society voted to send a box of supplies to El Paso for the kindergarten work there.

Mrs. Pendarvis gave a report of the local work. The society recently had the study at the parsonage re-decorated, which added much to the appearance and comfort of the room. Mrs. Shell gave the Spiritual Life report. The group meets each Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the church. Mrs. Kimble gave the Week of Prayer report. The society voted to have the Christmas tree on Monday, Dec. 15. Each member is to bring a gift. After discussion of Red Cross work, the society adjourned by repeating the Lord's Prayer.

The Gorman Progress

Devoted To The Interest of Gorman and Gorman Trade Territory

Entered at the Postoffice at Gorman, Texas, as Second Class Mail Matter Under the act of Congress of March 3, 1897.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of this paper, will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given the editor personally at the office at Gorman, Texas.

One night, Mayor LaGuardia flew down to Washington, had dinner with us, and spoke before a meeting of the United Women's Organizations in the District of Columbia. This group of women's organizations is composed today of 57 women's groups, ranging from labor groups to political organizations.

They started with a meeting of 12 and stated that they would come together in a united organization to work for civilian defense. I think this is a fine achievement and hope there will be co-ordination and unity all over the country at this time in the interests of greater efficiency in community defense work.

The next morning, Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt arrived in time to have breakfast with me at eight o'clock on the south portico. Then I met my daughter and son-in-law on their arrival from Seattle, Wash. It gives a lift to my spirits just to see these two young people, even though I am so busy that I think most of our talking will be done in the middle of the night!

At 10 o'clock, I was at the Office of Civilian Defense, and returned before lunch in time for two appointments at the White House. Then, three representatives of the American Women's Volunteer and some of our Civilian Defense Office staff, came to lunch. We talked over the co-operation between the American Women's Volunteer association workers already in the field, and the Civilian Defense people, working through our voluntary information and placement bureaus.

I hope this will develop in every part of the country and am anxious that we should use all the work that has been done. We must keep in mind the objectives before all of us, which are to do good work to meet emergency situations and to improve the communities in which we live.

PLANNING AHEAD

One afternoon I again had the pleasure of meeting with the regional directors of the social security board. This time I heard them discuss some of the problems which are facing them, not only today, but in the future. Very wisely, they are thinking not only of such things as they may have to meet now, but of what may come when the present emergency is at an end and another period of readjustment is before us.

It is a great satisfaction to me to find so many groups looking forward and planning ahead, so that we shall not be caught unawares and this one of the most interesting signs, for it shows that some of us, at least, are able to profit by experiences in the past.

—Try The Progress Want Ads—

POSTCARD REQUESTS

I have received several post cards which interested me very much. Suddenly people seem to have the urge to put their innermost thoughts on post cards! One person asks me kindly to arrest three other people, asserting that they are guilty of slander. It never seems to occur to the gentleman that the power of arrest lies in the hands of certain special individuals, authorized by the government, and if I started usurping their rights, they might be somewhat indignant.

I also have a post card which directs that I shall bring certain practices of a local draft board to the attention of the President, and to no one else. The writers are apparently not at all interested in asking the proper people at the head of the draft service in their difficulties. In fact, they tell me, that if the President, himself, can not take a hand in this matter, under no circumstances am I to give the post card to anyone else!

However, these two cards show a confidence in the fact that the White House will take an interest in private matters which are brought to its attention. I think this is very flattering and am very grateful to both of these writers, though I am afraid I can not do anything about either request which meets their desires.

FREEDOM'S PEOPLE

On another night, Dr. John Studebaker and Dr. Ambrose Caliver, and several of their assistants, brought over the transcription of their radio program, "Freedom's People." The secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Morgenthau, and Lord and Lady Mountbatten were with us. We all sat and listened with great pleasure to this program, which will be followed by others, all of which I hope will be equally interesting and well carried out.

These programs should bring before the whole people, the contribution of the Negro race to the nation.

After we listened to this program, Lord Mountbatten brought in the records of two songs by Noel Coward, which have been a great success in London lately. One is called "London Pride," and is charming. The other has to be approached with a sense of humor. It was written to stimulate the British government to giving proper consideration and equipment to the Home Guard. It is fairly satirical, but they tell me it achieved its object.

Health Notes

The Texas State Health Department has joined the President in his effort to prevent accidents. The rising accident toll is a menace to our national defense program and, unless checked, can seriously hinder our efforts.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that fatal accidents are now one of the ten leading causes of death in Texas. Last year, over 4600 Texans died as a result of accidents. Thousands more were injured and countless days were lost from work in non-fatal accidents. In times such as these this useless loss of life and time must be stopped.

Motor vehicles lead the list of fatal accidents in Texas, with 1807 deaths, however, they account for but one-third of the accidental deaths. Other leading causes are: falls, 675; fires and burns, 490; and drowning, 267. To stop this loss, each person must, of his own accord, make it his responsibility to do all in his power to prevent accidents on the News of Desdemona

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wimberly enjoyed a splendid family reunion Saturday, when they had with them their daughters, Mrs. Joe Quinn and Mrs. Loyd Whitlock and their families who live here, and the following relatives from out of town: their son, Bill, and wife from East Texas; their daughter, Mrs. R. L. Springer of Lampasas and also Mrs. M. A. Wimberly, a sister-in-law of T. J. Wimberly, who is also of Lampasas.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson came down from Breckenridge and spent Armistice day with Mrs. Grace Bray. While here they visited a number of other friends. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Jessie Mae Wrinkle, who was our popular Home Economics teacher for a few years before she resigned in the early part of 1940 to accept a similar position at Quanah. Her many friends were delighted to see Mrs. Wilson and her husband. He is with the AAA and will be at Breckenridge for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams of Sipe Springs came over for a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Maltby and daughters, Uarda, and Mrs. Scotty Lemaster were in Ranger on business Saturday. Mrs. Tom Alread, and Mr. Tiffer a life-long friend of Mr. Alread, both of Dallas, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alread Saturday. They came especially to go hunting and were quite successful.

Raymond Sparkman and family of Freer spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sparkman, and with his wife's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morrow.

Not only members of the Methodist church but many friends of other churches were delighted to hear the news that when appointments were read at the Methodist Conference at Fort Worth Sunday afternoon, Rev. H. B. Clark was appointed for a second year at our local church or rather the Desdemona Circuit which includes Victor and Salem. Rev. and Mrs. Clark are much beloved by all who know them.

In last week's issue there was an error which was due to plain carelessness of the reporter. In a write-up about a group of ladies visiting Mrs. H. B. Clark, the name "Anderson" was written instead of "Clark." We regret the error.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parks, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ervin and Mrs. W. H. Powers spent Armistice day at Stephenville with their sons at John Tarleton. Miss Dorothy Nell Sturdivant went with Mr. and Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Powers.

Miss Charlotte Joiner came over from De Leon and spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Joiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Rusing and baby of Stephenville visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rushing Saturday. C. A. Skipping and family spent Tuesday at Brownwood.

On Tuesday afternoon the club house was beautifully decorated for the meeting of the "21" Study Club. Leader of the program was Mrs. Scotty Lemaster and the subject was "Art." Roll call responses were "a masterpiece and where it is now located." Miss Delia Wall gave a very interesting discussion on, "Studies in Art," which she illustrated with small, colored prints of masterpieces and gave stories about them. Next on program was Mrs. Snodgrass who gave a splendid account of the "Art Exhibition in Detroit." Closing number was "The Crucifixion," by Naeler and was given by Mrs. Scotty Lemaster. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Charles McFatter and Mrs. A. R. Hickey, who used the patriotic motif in decorations and refreshments. Miniature cannon made of candy were favors.

George Moore accompanied by his niece and nephew, Lois and Junior Moore, were in Ranger Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dud Cook and her son, Jackie Walls, and her sister, Mrs. Norman Lott, and son, Franklin, were in Stephenville Tuesday.

Floyd Moore and family visited Mrs. Moore's uncle, Tilman Dyson, at Stephenville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Henslee and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Thursday.

I Give You Texas

By Boyd

Nine ways to kill a good town:

1. Don't attend any civic meetings and if you go, arrive late.

2. Never accept an office. It is easier to criticize than do things.

3. Do nothing more than absolutely necessary, but when others use their ability to help matters along, howl that the town is being run by a clique.

4. If you have a suggestion to offer, do not think of going to the authorities in charge—just yell to the world at large.

5. Get "sore" if you are not appointed to a committee, such as the park board, cemetery board, or public relations committee; but if you are appointed do not attend committee meetings.

6. Get good and mad at some members of the organization.

7. Be pessimistic about every proposal to expand trade and promote the interests of the town.

8. Watch the proceedings of the local school board and town council, and point out the errors of their ways to everyone who will stop long enough to listen.

9. Encourage your wife and relatives to do their shopping out of town.

"Refuse to make a speech if you cannot make a good one," says The Menard News, claiming that it is better to be suspected of dumbness than to prove it.

"He has good common sense"—"He knows how to get along with the legislature"—

These are typical comments of citizens in a poll conducted by the Texas Surveys of Public Opinion about Governor Coke Stevenson. The polls show that over 75 per cent of the people approve of him as Governor.

After getting Uncle Reuben seated at a football game between two colleges, his nephew told him, "You'll now see more excitement than you ever saw for two dollars." "I don't know," replied Uncle Reuben, "That's just what the license cost when I married Aunt Jennie."

Recently when your columnist asked the one and only J. Frank Dobie who his favorite Texas characters were, the famous Southwestern writer made this characteristically forthright reply: "I can think of several Tex-characters I have been mighty fond of. None of them have been Ph. D. professors. One was a town scavenger but no mayor has been among them. Two or three have been goat-herders and another was always about to find the Lost Bowie Mine.

"Jim Bowie, with his Bowie knife, comes close to being my favorite character. Several favorites have been old trail drivers, like George W. Sanders, Walter Billingsley, Ab Blocker and Charles Goodnight. One of these range favorites was an old Mexican vaquero.

"Just to satisfy you, I'll name for the moment Bigfoot Wallace as my favorite. He was full of vitality and heartiness. He was as cheerful as a fat mule grazing with mares and colts. He was as honest as daylight and could stretch the blanket wide enough to make it cover half a county. His heart was as big as an ox and he was as simple as a child. He loved good company."

Those of you who heard Dobie on "I Give You Texas and the Great Southwest" at 12:45 p. m. on a recent Sunday over the Lone Star Chain found that he could talk as interestingly as he writes. Maybe your columnist can get him to visit us again soon over the radio.

A stranger applied at the police station for lodging, and when asked his name, replied that it was Smith.

"Give me your real name," he was ordered.

"Well," said the applicant, "put me down as William Shakespeare."

"That's better," said the officer. "You can't fool me with that Smith stuff."

"So your husband has got a job at last," said the neighbor to Mrs. Smith.

"Yes, he has," Mrs. Smith replied. "It's hard work and he says it's killing him. But thank goodness, it's permanent."

FALL CLOTHES NEEDS BETTER CLEANING---

That fine woolen suit you bought last season... they told you it would be good for seasons to come. It will be, too, if it's properly cleaned. Our method routs way-down-deep dirt and grime that surface cleaning simply can't get at. And it's that inner grime that cuts fine fabrics and makes them wear thin. Be sure therefore, that your fall clothes get the best cleaning possible... which, of course, means us!

Making More Hens Lay Most Eggs

By
ELMO V. COOK
County Agent

Most Eastland county farm families would rather use rotten eggs on Hitler than to produce good fresh eggs to help whip him but it's going to take the fresh ones to get the job done. We must produce plenty of fresh eggs for our own folks, some to ship to Britain and some extra ones to store in the U. S. for emergency. For 1942, the Defense Board has asked Eastland county to produce 931,000 dozens of eggs, an increase of 15 per cent over the 1941 production.

The average hen in the county produced about 95 eggs this year and to reach the goal it will be necessary for this average hen to increase her production 14 eggs in 1942.

The guarantee of price support made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture of 22 cents per dozen for eggs (Chicago basis) insures those who fill their poultry houses to capacity some profits if they follow the rules of good management. There is no doubt that Eastland county can do a lot more than reaching her goal in egg production in 1942 if the hens now on the farms are properly cared for.

Some oats should be sowed now if there is to be green feed for chickens this winter. The quality of the grazing will be improved if hairy winter vetch is mixed with the oats. The vetch will supply good grazing in the early spring until sudan grass can be gotten up for spring and summer grazing. Green pasture is necessary for economical production of eggs and native pasture will not be near as good as the sowed pasture. Oats sowed in the fall for grazing on one fourth of the cropland will help earn the 1942 AAA farm payment.

If there has been any fowl pox or sorehead on the farm in past years, all birds on the farm should be vaccinated now for fowl pox. It costs about half a cent per bird to do this and the bird is immunized for life. It is best to vaccinate the pullets in the summer but it isn't too late to vaccinate if it hasn't already been done.

Hens just won't lay many eggs

if they are infested with bluebugs, lice and intestinal worms. Bluebugs can be kept down by painting or spraying the woodwork in the house every six months with a mixture of one quart carbolineum and one gallon kerosene. This destroys the large ones and thus eliminates the small ones. Lice can be controlled by dipping the birds in a mixture of one tablespoonful of sodium flouride and one gallon warm water. Dip all the bird except the head and ruffle the feathers while they are in the mixture to get them wet to the skin. Hold the beak shut while the head is dipped under and right out. This should be done early on a warm day so the hens will dry before night. To keep lice to a minimum, build a dust box in one corner of the laying house and keep a mixture of wood ashes and sodium flouride in it.

To keep down intestinal worms, give the birds a worm pill before they start laying or while they are molting and about every 30 to 45 days give a flock treatment of some good worm powder in the mash.

Feed a good mash made especially for laying hens and keep the hens in good flesh but not too fat by feeding scratch grain every day. If sufficient grain is raised on the farm, buy 32 per cent poultry protein supplement and mix it with twice as much ground grain. The best starter mash that can be bought is not too good for starting baby chicks as their first development is the most important.

Those who have electricity on the farm can burn a 20 watt light in the house all night to encourage night eating or use a 40 watt light over each feed hopper, turning the lights on about 4 or 4:30 a. m.

Chicks should be bought only from reliable hatcheries that have been carrying on a definite improvement program, including pullorum testing or the hens used for producing hatching eggs should be pullorum tested to insure against chick losses from pullorum or white diarrhea. It costs only a fraction of a cent to test a bird for pullorum and the job is easily done with very little experience.

WHY ON EARTH DO THEY DO IT?

...shop around for low-cost insurance

When you buy insurance because it's cheap, it's like buying a cheap pistol for self protection. If you have to hold off a bandit, you want a weapon that will do the business. If you aren't going to be held up, why spend any money at all to protect yourself? The catch is, you don't know.

Moral: Be sure your insurance is COMPLETELY dependable. We'll be glad to tell you anything you want to know about it.

...and do be careful!

"Five mornings a week, nine months a year, we mothers of Texas get our children ready for school. In our home and a million other Texas homes, that's one of the first and most important duties of a mother's day. Sometimes Dad finds out what a job it is when he has to do it by himself."

All of us want our children to have the best education possible. Most of us look to the public schools for this.

Fortunately, Texas has the best public schools in the South. Helping to build and operate them is the Texas petroleum industry which pays 24 million dollars a year in taxes for school purposes.

These petroleum taxes pay an average of one-fourth the cost of educating our children. Altogether, they meet the entire expense of schooling nearly 400,000 Texas boys and girls.

In addition, oil has contributed substantially to the 70 million dollar permanent school fund. Oil is also responsible for much of the 30 million dollar permanent university fund, which has made possible the expansion of the University of Texas and A. & M. College.

Furthermore, taxes on petroleum products add another 11 1/2 million dollars a year for the schools of our State.

Our children get a better education today because of the Texas petroleum industry.

How To Meet Driving Emergencies:

When a tire blows out—If a tire bursts, do not apply the breaks nor throw out the clutch until the car has lost almost all its momentum. A front tire blowout may cause you to lose control of the steering wheel unless you are holding it firmly. In the case of a blowout of a rear tire, a sudden application of the brakes, at high speed, may cause the car to turn over.

When right wheels strike a soft shoulder—In this emergency a fast-moving car is likely to swerve and turn over. The driver should hold the steering wheel tightly, remove his foot from the accelerator, and allow the engine to reduce the speed of the car to a safe point before he applies the brakes, throws out the clutch, or attempts to steer back on to the hard surface.

curve—Every time a curve is rushed, centrifugal force acts to push the car off the road. When the driver realizes he is going too fast, his first thought is to apply the brakes. This is dangerous and makes the car more difficult to control. The brakes should be used before reaching a curve.

When going down a steep hill—before starting a dangerous descent, a car should be put into second or, if the hill is long and very steep, into low gear. If further retardation is necessary, apply the brakes intermittently. To stop a car on a steep grade the brakes should be applied gradually up to the point of locking the wheels.
