

HULLS by Kernel Gene, aPe

With a near bumper peanut crop laid by — folks in high gear preparing for the arrival of Santa Claus — and with a New Year just over the horizon, shouldn't we be giving some thought to a Peanut Festival in Sixty-one?

The following letter has been forwarded to Santa:

Dear Santa:
I am 6 years old and I have tried to be a good boy. Please bring me a Roy Rogers gun set, an ice cream mixer, a belt with a gun and a new tractor.

I have a little sister, so please bring her a little baby doll and my big brother wants a record player.

Please don't forget us, Love,
Glenn Edward Glasson

Dear Mr. Baker:
I am glad to be able to read the Gorman Progress every week and find out how my friends are getting along. I would like to thank you, Herman and Joe for sending it to me.

I have been learning how to operate the Offset Press and the Zerex Machine. I have already learned most of the characteristics, but still have a lot of improvement to make. I will be home for Christmas and show you how to run your offset press.

A/3c Bobby E. Shugart

Thanks, Bobby. We need all the help we can get. We are also proud to know that you are learning the printing trade. It is a field with unlimited possibilities.

While attending Gorman High, Bobby spent some of his spare time around the Progress office and became interested in printing. It is good to know that he is taking advantage of the opportunity being offered him while in the Air Force to learn a trade that will assure him of a good future when he returns to civilian life. All branches of the Armed Forces now offer young men an opportunity to choose a vocation they want to follow.

It is rather tragic that government and union laws won't permit youngsters to work in newspaper and printing plants any more without placing a penalty on the owner. Many a youngster is missing an opportunity to learn a good trade. The odd part of this is that our country is crying for skilled workmen and they just can't understand what is happening.

Other small businessmen, like myself, have been forced to cut their force due to stringent regulations.

As usual Kernel Gene is late getting the news — but we notice where Barnett has sold his grocery store and station to Floyd Elison and Floyd has had the water meter transferred.
Welcome to the City, Floyd.

Couple To Observe 67th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wood, Route 1, Gorman, plan to celebrate their 67th wedding anniversary Christmas Day when their children, with their families, are home for the holidays.

James Caswell (Jim) Wood and Miss Ada Holder, seated in their buggy, were married on a rainy December 13, 1893 at the home of a Methodist minister in Van Alstyne. They were accompanied by a number of friends who had come on horse back. The marriage license was read for the minister who was blind, (his name having escaped the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Wood). And the minister read the ceremony in Braille.

Moving to the Gorman area in 1900 they settled on a farm in the Hard Shin (Antioch) Community where they have since lived. Besides a good living the farm has produced oil over a period of years. A pear tree on the place is known to have borne fruit for over 65 years and netted 25 bushel the past season.

Mrs. Wood, born in Franklin County, Tennessee and now 82, enjoys her hobbies of quilting and crocheting and she also does gardening of vegetables for her deep-freeze.

Mr. Wood, 87 and retired from farming since 1943, cares for his chickens and frequently enjoys dominoes with his cronies at the town recreation hall. He recalls when, at the age of 18 in Marion County, Arkansas, on a Saturday afternoon he and two companions made a deal with a third young man to bring them to Texas on payment of $10 each for the trip in a covered wagon. Arriving at Van Alstyne Woods went to work for the late Will Creager as a farm hand.

Sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wood are Leonard Wood of Dublin, Homer Wood of Gorman, and Earl D. Wood of San Antonio. Their daughter is Mrs. Donald Lightfoot, who is teaching school in Phoenix, Arizona and whose husband operates a drive-in theater at Phoenix. There are nine grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Mary Louise Busching, the author of a book of poems, "Castle of Dreams," and living in Iowa, is a granddaughter.

Trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

The Gorman Invitation Basketball Tournament will begin Thursday, December 15th at 5:30 p. m.

The girls bracket includes De Leon, Comanche, Carbon, Olden, Scranton, and Gorman, and the boys bracket lists the same teams except the Putnam boys in place of the Comanche boys.

The tournament action will be unreeled Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights with two games scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for children for each of the four sessions.

A NEW SON FOR THE DAVID REVELS

WATERSHED PROJECT TO BE DISCUSSED AT CENTER PT., 13TH

All parties interested in the Sabanna Valley Watershed project are urged to attend a meeting at the Center Point Community House Tuesday evening, December 13th.

GROUP MEET AT NIMROD

The first in a series of informational meetings to discuss the possibility of securing a watershed project for the Sabanna Valley was held at Nimrod Community House Monday evening, December 5th. This watershed is to provide protection for approximately 200,000 acres in the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District. Some thirty farmers on the upper reaches of the Sabanna attended this meeting and expressed keen interest in the project. It was decided that a group visit a similar project now in operation near Dublin and to invite interested parties to go with them. The date for the planned visit will be set at the next meeting which will be held at Center Point December 13, at 7 p. m.

All farmers in the Sabanna Creek Watershed should learn of the benefits which will come from this project. The project will cover farms in the whole area draining into Sabanna Creek and much of the benefits will be on farms some distance from the main stream.

Another meeting will be held at Pounds Community House, near De Leon, the date to be announced later. Interested parties are urged to attend at least one of these meetings and if possible visit the Dublin project.

Jimmy Gilmore Takes Penns. Bride

Beaver Co. (Pa.) Times — Diana Louise Hodovuns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hodovuns, Ambridge, became the bride of Jimmy O. Gilmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gilmore, Sr., Gorman, Texas, Oct 22, 1960 in St. Stanislaus Catholic Church, Ambridge.

Fr. St. R. Labujewski, pastor, solemnized the double ring nuptial rites before the altar adorned with vases of white flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of taffeta trimmed with Chantilly lace, featuring a fitted bodice with a scalloped scoop neckline of lace, trimmed with pearls and sequins, and scalloped short sleeves. The full skirt was trimmed with lace with cabbage roses of the same fabric in back, and cascaded gracefully into a chapel sweep train.

A crystal coronet crown was attached to the bride's silk illusion, scalloped fingertip veil. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies and lilies of the valley, and wore an heirloom bracelet worn by her grandmother on her wedding day.

Katherine A. Hodovuns, Ambridge, maid of honor, and Joanne L. Marotti, also of Ambridge, bridesmaid, wore identical floor-length gowns of autumn gold taffeta fashioned with square necklines in the fitted bodices and a bustle in back of the full skirts, similar to that of the bride's gown. Their headpieces were halos of acorns and velvet leaves. They carried arm bouquets of tonic gold baby roses.

John Hodovuns Jr., the bride's brother, was best man. Donald Uliniski, served as an usher.

A wedding breakfast was served in the Ambridge American Legion hall where dinner for 65 guests and a reception for more than 100 persons also took place.

The newlyweds have returned from a honeymoon to the Shenandoah Valley and left for their home in Bainbridge, Md. where Mr. Gilmore is serving as X-ray technician with the Navy.

Mrs. Gilmore was graduated from Ambridge High School in 1956 and served with the Navy as hospital corps WAVE at Bainbridge for four years prior to her discharge on July 1. Her husband is a 1954 graduate of Gorman High School.

Shortage Of Rain Threatens Pastures

Grass production on local range land has been very low this past summer. Many poor condition pastures are getting dangerously low on cover at present time. Rainfall last spring was just not enough to give us a season in most places for good grass growth. As a consequence our light ineffective summer showers served only to occasionally green up the grass without yielding much total growth.

Most farmers rain gauges have caught over twenty inches of rain since last Jan. 1, but gauges vary much from farm to farm. It is generally taken as a rule of thumb that an inch of water in the ground properly used by grass should yield five hundred pounds of grass. This year, however, with a few local exceptions, a major portion of our recorded rainfall was in such small showers that a large part of the rain was lost through surface evaporation before it could be utilized by grass roots. At best we have probably utilized only eight to ten inches of water since last winter.

Recent forage yield estimates from clipping tests by Soil Conservation Service workers show the results of this limited moisture. Under good conditions the better grasses produced only 2500 to 3000 lbs. of forage this year.

Production estimates in the fall of 1958 was over 5000 lbs or about twice this years production. In 1959 most clippings of better grasses showed 3500 to 4000 lbs per acre. Many areas of poor condition range can now be found with less than 1000 lbs of grass cover per acre on the surface. It is a proven fact that at least 2000 lbs of cover is needed to effectively absorb a reasonable portion of our average rainfall. Without more care in the next few months these overgrazed ranges can only slip back into the same conditions they were in 1953 and 1954.

Rainfall in September and October did germinate Rescue grass seed and start Texas Winter grass to growing. If we can get some winter moisture these grasses, along with our small grain, can sure help to winter our livestock.

Grass is the livestock farmers real cash crop. Livestock are actually only grass stored on the hoof. A continuous supply of grass is essential for continuous livestock production. Unless we leave a cover of grass on the land we cannot effectively utilize our erratic rainfall which is so essentially necessary for grass production.

Achievement Scroll Is Goal Of Midway Baptist Church

The Midway Baptist Church of Gorman has entered the 1961 Texas Baptist Church Achievement Program, pastor Creath Davis said this week.

Sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the program is designed to stimulate interest in small-church work by providing growth incentives. Outstanding achievements by pastors and churches in areas of church, community and world improvement are recognized locally and at the annual BGCT convention.

More than 790 Texas Baptist town and country churches entered the program last year. Some of the churches recorded twice as many baptisms per member as the Southern Baptist Convention average. Others recorded outstanding increases in Sunday School attendance and gifts to missions.

Goals of advancement are adopted by each participating church for the three improvement areas. An inventory questionnaire furnishes suggestions for projects, such as health education, community recreation programs, citizenship training, race relations studies and world missions.

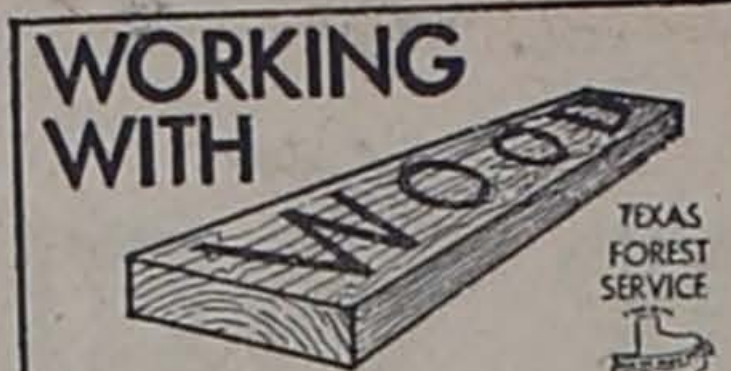

Pastors recognized in each of the denomination's 17 geographical districts receive parchment scrolls and the churches receive achievement certificates which may be displayed in a prominent position.

Churches in the open country and in towns of up to 2,500 population, and all Latin American churches and missions are eligible to enter the program. About two-thirds of the denomination's 3,876 churches are classified as town and country congregations.

Records and scrapbooks of program progress are made under the direction of three special committees. The scrapbooks are the basis for judging on the associational, district and state-wide levels.

Darwin Farmer, direct missions associate for the BGCT, Dallas, is in charge of the program. He said "the enlistment of a church's total membership in active service" is the program's primary value.

first range conservation commemorative postage stamp Feb. 2, 1961. The stamp will be the eighth in the Conservation Series that has included four wildlife stamps, and stamps featuring forestry, soil conservation, and water conservation. This stamp should be of much interest in the range country of which our local area is certainly a part.

WOOD WARPING

Warp is a common term applied to lumber which has changed from its flat form to a bent shape. Thin boards tend to warp more rapidly than thick boards. Frequently, the condition is not the fault of the lumber, but results from improper conditions of use. Properly manufactured and seasoned lumber, when applied in a dry condition and kept dry, will not warp.

Warping can assume several forms. Cupping of lumber describes a condition which resembles a soda-straw cut in half lengthwise. Bowing refers to a lengthwise appearance of lumber which assumes the curved shape of a rocker on a rocking chair. Crook is the same sort of deformation as bow, but in an edgewise direction. Twist is the condition of lumber somewhat like that of a twisted leather strap. Warping often causes wood to tear loose from its fastening.

Warping of lumber can be controlled by treatment with water-repellents, by use of paint or other finishes, and especially through the installation of dry lumber and the maintenance of a suitable moisture content level.

Unusual weather in some areas of Texas has prevented the planting of winter temporary pastures. George McBee, extension pasture specialist, says, however, that late pastures can be planted and they can be profitable if they are managed correctly. Seed treatment and fertilizer are the keys to successful production of late-planted winter pastures.

'MAIL EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS,' GORMAN POSTMASTER URGES

Postmaster Graydon Baze of Gorman put his "Mail Early For Christmas" campaign into high gear this week.

The Postmaster said, "We're heading into an all time record for Christmas mail this year. Every facility of the Post Office has been expanded to render maximum service. We've added extra trucks and personnel. Special mailing schedules have been set up to insure prompt handling of the tremendous flood of both incoming and outgoing Christmas mail."

"The vast volume of Christmas mail is only part of our problem," the Postmaster continued. "Carelessly written names and addresses, poorly wrapped packages, insufficient postage, and other oversights are bound to result in delays and disappointments."

You can be sure of delivery of your Christmas cards and gifts before Christmas Eve if you will follow these simple requirements:

Be sure your Christmas card and gift mailing lists are up-to-date.

Wrap your Christmas gifts securely.

Use complete address - including street number, rural route or post office box number. Be sure name or street is complete with avenue, parkway or drive included. Do not abbreviate street and state names. Use zone numbers, and be sure to include your own zone number in your return address.

Most important of all - mail your Christmas cards and gifts within the next few days

... Not at all if you play it safe. The safe way to avoid unnecessary expense is to have a contract with the seller that he is to furnish you a good title based on an abstract of title. Many mistakes are made by sincere people who make quick deals without thought of the hereafter. Any amount you spend on good titles is money well spent. But if you get hold of a bad one you may be in for plenty of trouble and expense.

Another Message to American Industry Leaders about

The Opportunity Frontier OF TEXAS

IT'S 1965
FOR THIS MAN IN

The Opportunity Frontier
OF TEXAS

Our planning engineers are "men who live in the future." They maintain a constant watch over growth patterns in THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS—population, retail sales, personal income, vehicle registration, construction, so they can plan effectively and anticipate power needs five and more years from now.

For example, the 240,000 kilowatt steam electric generating unit at our newest plant site near Graham, Texas, was planned in 1955 for operation in December, 1960. It is the eighteenth power generating unit built during the past twelve years at strategically located plants throughout our strong power system. These new units have increased by ten times the company's net generating capability.

Our well-planned power system assures metropolitan-type service throughout the area served by the company. When your firm relocates in this area—or when you open a new plant, warehouse or branch office in THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER—you will have a sure source of low-cost power.

Our Area Development Department will gladly supply plant site information to fit your specific needs.

Business and industry executives—the men who decide on plant, warehouse and office sites—will see the message reproduced at left in Business Week, Fortune and The Wall Street Journal.

First Baptist Sets Goal Of $1200 For Foreign Missions

The First Baptist Church has set a goal of $1200.00 for foreign missions. This is a Southern Baptist work, having its beginning and name from a Miss Lottie Moon, who gave her life as a missionary to China. Miss Moon died from malnutrition because she gave her food to the starving Chinese around her. We who live in a land of abundance amidst millions who are starving often do not realize how blessed we are.

Were you aware that Americans make up 6 percent of the world's population, and live on 7 percent of the land space, and produce and consume 1/3 of the world's goods. Surely we who have plenty can share the best thing that we have . . . that is the gospel message of Christ, with the rest of the world.

The W. M. U., led by President Mrs. D. R. Clark, are to be highly commended for the fine way they are leading in this foreign mission effort.

Chariot Race To Be Featured At Stock Show Rodeo

A spine-tingling chariot race between two powerful four-horse teams from the movie "Ben-Hur" will be one of the outstanding attractions during the 1961 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Rodeo, President-Manager W. R. Watt, has announced.

The Fort Worth rodeo, Jan. 27-Feb. 5, will feature more than 300 top cowboys competing for approximately $60,000 in prize money. Besides the spectacular chariot race, spotlighted entertainment will include Jay Sisler's nimble dogs, five colorful trick riders and two outstanding clowns.

Forty-one pretty ranch girl barrel racers will add a dash of color and excitement. Cutting horses will pit their intelligence against determined calves, and a number of horse show events are scheduled.

The chariot race will find the hard-driving white team originally driven by Charlton Heston challenging the movie's four dappled greys. The race will be staged live in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum at all 20 performances of the Stock Show rodeo, beginning Friday night, Jan. 27.

Glenn Randall, owner and trainer of the horses, spent almost a year in Rome training the animals for the film version of Lew Wallace's great novel. He and Glenn Randall, Jr. will be in the chariots as the race is run again in the Fort Worth arena.

Jay Sisler's Australian Shepherd dogs and his educated greyhound, Blondie, have been a hit on the rodeo circuit for 12 years—ever since Sisler broke his leg. The young rodeo contestant trained dogs while recuperating, and formed such a fresh and entertaining act that he gave up bucking brones for good.

Five veteran trick riders will furnish the thrills in that department, and two top clowns will be ready to fight horn-tossing bulls for the rodeo fans' amusement and the cowboys' gratitude.

After the Friday night opener, Jan. 27, there will be a morning rodeo performance at 10 the first Saturday, then performances at 2 and 8 p. m. every day through the closing Sunday, Feb. 5. Rodeo tickets may be secured by mail from the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas.

All rodeo tickets include admission to the Stock Show grounds. More than 9,000 animals will be on exhibition during the 10-day show, with a constant round of judging and auctions to which the public is invited. In addition, the Texas Ranch and Farm Show, offering an opportunity to see the newest aids to better farming and ranching, will be free to visitors throughout the Stock Show run.

Deadline for entering the livestock division is Dec. 20; horse breeders may enter through Jan. 5, and poultry, turkey, pigeon and rabbit raisers through Jan. 15. A 1961 premium list will be mailed on request.

Highlights and Sidelights

From Our State Capitol
By Vern Sanford.

AUSTIN—New efforts to change Texas' "scratch method" of voting are in prospect as a result of disagreements growing out of this year's close general election.

As the law now stands, voters using paper ballots are required to scratch out the names of all candidates for an office except the one for whom they are casting their vote.

In this year's election, thousands of voters scratched either the Republican or Democratic candidates but didn't notice or bother to scratch the small lists of candidates from the Prohibition and Constitution parties. Some election judges threw out these ballots. Some went ahead and counted them.

Republican leaders contend they might have won Texas, instead of losing by a thin margin, if the same rule had been applied on all these carelessly marked ballots.

Further, the GOP chiefs charge, the scratch method was designed to encourage voters to vote a straight party ticket.

Actually, scratching is the old, traditional way of voting in Texas. For a time during the fifties the law was changed so that a voter could either scratch out the names he didn't want or put check marks by the ones he did want. But this either/or approach was even more confusing, both to the voters and ballot counters. So the legislature changed back to the scratch-out method only.

Republican leaders failed to convince either an Austin district court or the state canvassing board (Gov. Price Daniel, Sec'y. of State Zollie Steakley and Attorney Gen. Will Wilson) that there was any evidence of fraud in the way ballots were counted this year.

But since the Legislature hardly ever has a session without doing something to the election code the GOP will have another inning.

TUITION HIKE ASKED —

Another money-raising proposal that is stirring up sand is a proposed $50 a year hike in tuition for state colleges.

Commission on Higher Education voted to recommend this increase to the Legislature, saying it would bring in an additional $5,000,000 a year for college support.

It would mean the tuition for a nine-months term would go up from $100 to $150.

Tuition increases, when they come before the Legislature before, have set off hot debates. Opponents charge that it "keeps the poor boys out of college."

Commission voted also to ask the Legislature to admit the University of Houston to the state college system -- provided, among other things, that it will not cut down on support of existing state colleges.

LAND BOND SALE DISPUTED

House General Investigating Committee will study the merits of holding a veterans land bond sale December 5th.

Veterans Land Board has scheduled sale of $12,500,000 in bonds for that date, but Jerry Sadler, due to become land commissioner January 1, says the sale should wait until next year. Sadler said that, because of the upcoming change of federal administration, interest rates might be lower next year. This would enable the state to sell bonds at a lower rate, paying less for money it borrows.

Voters by approving a constitutional amendment Nov. 8, authorized the Land Board to pay up to 3.5 per cent interest on the bonds. Previous ceiling had been 3 per cent -- too low to find takers in recent months.

PAYROLL TAX PROPOSED —

State Finance Advisory Committee will recommend a payroll tax, borne equally by employers and employees, to bolster the state's sagging treasury.

Commission plan calls for a 1 per cent tax, half to be taken from the employee's wages, half to be paid by the employer.

It would raise an estimated $100 million to $110 million a year. Even this would not cover all the state's new money needs if the legislature attempts to meet demands for school improvements and medical care for the aged.

Payroll tax, actually an income tax on both businesses and individuals, is certain to meet the objection that it is not graduated according to ability to pay.

Too Close For Comfort!

If you stand close enough to parch,
You may become a human torch. Using an open flame heater in your home could spell fire disaster. But no matter what type of heater you use, treat fire with respect. A burning bathrobe or other loose garment can cause painful, disfiguring burns or even death. Rubber hoses deteriorate and are an open invitation to fire or asphyxiation.

NEW CLUB RULES ISSUED —

Beginning January 1, private clubs in Texas can operate only if they meet the following requirements set by the Liquor Control Board: (1) Provide food service. (2) Meet basic operating expenses from dues and fees rather than from liquor sales. (3) Be managed by officers elected by the membership. Rules are designed to prevent operation of open saloons under the guise of private clubs.

Hunting Accident Fatal To Ranger Teenager Sunday

RANGER — David Loren Sledge, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Sledge of Route 3, died Monday in a Ranger hospital of a wound he received Sunday in a hunting accident.

The youth and two other teenagers were hunting and paused to rest. Sledge leaned his rifle against a rock. It fell, sending a bullet into his head.

He was a junior in Ranger High School and was born in Wichita Falls. He had lived near Ranger 12 years.

Also surviving are two brothers, two sisters and a grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Trotter of Tehachapi, California.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in First Methodist Church with burial in Bullock Cemetery.

Legal Distribution Of Narcotics Is Condemned In Editorial

AUSTIN— Legalizing distribution of narcotics to drug addicts would encourage consumption of drugs by addict-prone persons, an editorial in the November issue of the Texas State Journal of Medicine has declared.

Author of the article, Ernest M. Gentry, of the Bureau of Narcotics, Dallas, points out that recently there has been a clamor by a minority to legalize the market and to furnish narcotic drugs free or at cost to drug addicts who cannot be cured.

Gentry condemns such action, noting that the distribution of legal narcotics "would increase the illegal traffic in narcotics by adding to the total amount of drugs in illicit channels and by removing whatever deterrent value lies in the fear of the abstinence syndrome."

With narcotic drugs available, he said, addicts would not have immediate incentive to seek a cure.

"Effective law enforcement on a national scale and local scale, as well as on an international scale, could practically eradicate the drug traffic," Gentry predicted. "If a choice had to be made, I sincerely believe that every thinking person would rather settle for an illegal market catering to 40,000 addicts than

The USDA has announced that the 1961 upland cotton allotment for Texas will be 7,849,196 acres. Extra long staple acreage allotment for the state was set at 21,893 acres out of the national allotment of 63,740 acres. Only one allotment price support program will be available to upland growers in 1961, but this will not be determined until the December 13 referendum is held.

a legal market supplying 400,000 addicts.

Gentry, in addition, challenged the belief that addicts whose drug demands are satisfied lead "otherwise normal and productive lives" as being based on a myth. He supported his stand by noting that every medical licensing board in the United States suspends or revokes licenses of physicians who become addicted to drugs.

He called for support of physicians to advocate compulsory civil commitment of addicts similar to commitment for patients with mental illness.
