

SOIL TESTING STATION IN GORMAN PLANS UNDER WAY TO ESTABLISH

The directors of the SWPGA have given the "go ahead" signal for the establishing of a soil testing station in Gorman to be placed in operation during the fall of this year. A study is being made at this time as to the materials that will be needed for such a station and as soon as they have been worked out, necessary steps will be taken to place the testing station in operation.

The use of a soil station in this section should be of great benefit to the farmers, and with the proper testing facilities it will give the producers an advantage that they have never had before.

Plans now are that the soil tests will be made during the fall and winter months in order that the farmers and land owners may determine to their own satisfaction just what type or analysis of commercial fertilizer will be best suited for their individual farms.

Very little, if any charge, will be made for the tests, and a wide section if this part of the state will be invited to use the station during the coming year.

As soon as the plans have been completed and the station placed in operation the farmers will be notified and the testing of soils will begin.

Nephew Gets Degree — Niece Honored at State

Elmer Knox Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones of Wellington, was graduated from the Medical branch of the State University at Galveston on May 1st. He will intern at St. Paul's Hospital, Dallas.

Dr. Elmer is a brother of Mrs. Willie Clarke, and she is justly proud of the record of Elmer Knox. The older residents here know Elmer very well and are glad to hear of his son's good work.

But that isn't all, Mrs. Clarke has a niece also of whom she is proud—Beth O'Neil, daughter of Mrs. Beulah Jones O'Neil of Wellington who was chosen one of the thirteen Bluebonnet Belles of the University of Texas for 1941. She was chosen from a field of 285 nominees on the basis of scholastic rating, activities on the campus and beauty—one of the outstanding young women on the campus.

Beth's mother is also well known here and her friends rejoice with her on the achievements and the daughter. She has completed her junior work there and has returned for the summer session.

Mrs. H. M. Lightfoot and daughter, Miss Louella Lightfoot, of San Antonio, are visiting Mrs. Lightfoot's sister, Mrs. E. W. Kimble, this week.

The prelude, Warblings at Eve, was played by Frances Stubblefield. Mrs. Thompson of De Leon sang as a pre-nuptial song, I Love You Truly.

The bride was beautiful in a white suit with pink carnation corsage; Miss Miller wore a becoming frock of brown and white, and Miss Johnson was gowned in blue. Their corsages were of white carnations, gifts from the bride.

The ushers were J. W. Brown, De Leon; Bob Stubblefield and Billy Mack Smith, Gorman.

H. N. C Exes Held Fifth Home-coming Here June 9th

An enthusiastic group of ex-students of Hankins Normal College held their fifth home-coming here last Monday at the First Baptist Church, with Cyrus W. Frost of Eastland, president of the ex-students association, in charge of activities.

Registration began at nine o'clock with Mrs. Jess Richardson and Mrs. Mack Underwood in charge.

At 10:30 the program of extemporaneous talks began with members of quartets back in 1905 to 1913 giving several numbers. A tribute by Frank Walker of Cisco, was paid Dr. E. W. Kimble, sole survivor of the committee appointed by the city to raise funds with which to erect the first building.

A memorial service, featured by the impressive words of Rev. Price, followed. A large crystal bowl held shasta daisies representing those of the number deceased in years gone by, and as Rev. Price read the nine names of those who have gone on since the last meeting, Mrs. Boucher and Mrs. Cockrill added a daisy for each name called, closing the morning program. Miss Lois Lowry was accompanist for all the musical numbers.

A picnic lunch spread on a long table under the trees on the church grounds was enjoyed at 12:30, and at 1:30 the program was resumed.

Three-minute talks by old students were called for—also short ones by the co-founders, J. F. and J. H. Hankins.

A short business meeting followed at which time Carl Sims quickly put through a motion to reelect Cyrus Frost president of the association, and Mrs. Sutton, secretary-treasurer, with J. Frank Dean, Mrs. Boucher and Mrs. Cockrill, directors, after a decisive vote to continue holding the reunions every two years. An invitation to hold the next one in Cisco was graciously refused, the sentiment being held for Gorman, the town where the school was established.

Robert Palmer of Stephenville made a motion to erect a marker near the original site of the college, and chairman Frost appointed a committee to work out the details.

Each speaker eulogized his former teachers and expressed appreciation for the privilege of having had the association with them.

DATES SET FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SOUTHWESTERN ASSOCIATION

Shell - Kirk Rites Held Last Friday

Vows were solemnized in a pretty church wedding here last Friday evening, June 6, when Elva Shell became the bride of Glynn Kirk, Rev. Ramsey officiating, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The setting for the ceremony which began at 7:30 at the First Methodist Church was beautiful. The altar was banked with ferns, and tall baskets of white gladiolus flanked either end and centered the altar. Twenty-four candles of graduated lengths completed the lovely arrangement.

As the strains of Liebestraum faded following the lighting of the candles by Bob and Weldon Kirk, Miss Doris Jamison of Cisco, accompanied by her mother, sang, Because.

The bride entered on the arm of her father to the soft strains of Lohengrin played by Miss Mary Dell Stewart. She was lovely in an all-white ensemble, her cape and petaled hat being of military design. Her corsage was of pink carnations, and she carried a white Bible. Her only attendant was Mrs. Wilbur Shell who wore a frock and hat of Cuban tan with py couple left the church. The white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations. Dean Kirk was the groom's only attendant.

Miss Stewart played another strain from Lohengrin as the happy couple left the church. The bride's going away suit was of green and white. They left immediately for a short wedding trip to Galveston.

Mrs. Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Shell, was reared in Gorman and after finishing high school attended John Tarleton College. Glynn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kirk, and was also reared here where he finished high school and while yet a student began work at the First National Bank. He is the efficient cashier now. Mrs. Kirk for two years before her marriage was associated with the bank. They have hosts of friends who wish them "good luck."

State University Works Toward Three Goals

AUSTIN June 11.—Teaching young Texans is only one of three jobs which the University of Texas tries to do; the other two are to conduct research and to serve, free of charge, the people of the State.

This is the statement of policy just released by the State school in an 80-page report to Texas citizens, "Serving Texas." Copies of the booklet explaining the functions of the University and describing the way the South's largest educational institutions operates, are available on request.

A. L. Brandon, director of public relations here, announced today. The publication cites as examples of the contributions its scientists have made this year invention of a new quick-freezing process for food, development of Texas building stone industries, discovery of industrial use for lignite, location and strategic war minerals, discovery of a new super-strong plaster, and so on.

CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN

July 22nd is the date set by the directors of the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association for its Fourth annual meeting to be held in Gorman this year. Work has already been started, selecting speakers for the meeting, and one of the best meetings ever held is expected to be had this year. The membership for the association has been increased by some 3,000 over that of last year and it now totals nearly 8,000 and includes farmers from five states.

Two directors will be chosen at the July meeting, the terms of Conrad Schafer of Rising Star, and that of T. D. Robinett, deceased, will expire with the current fiscal year.

Many important things will be discussed by the membership, and it is urged now that plans and preparations be made by the entire membership to attend the session.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

Hay-fever sufferers will understand the following lines:

I have blown my nose where the tall palm grows,

On the shimmering desert sands; I have blown it well while beneath the spell

Of a tropical island's strands; And amid the snows in my Eskimo clothes

Where the iceberg's song is sung; In the Artic chill with a right good will

My proboscis has been wrong.

I have blown my beak on the ships of teak

That barter in old Cathay And in Timbuctu, I am telling you My snuzzle has had its day;

I have blown my snoot as we lumbered out

The mouth of the Ho-ang Ho; And on the Capricorn my infernal horn

Has matched the trade winds' blow.

Where the natives chant, and the elephant

Drive through the jungle shade; Where the leopard leaps and the serpent creeps

My kandkerchief has played; Though I gargle well 'tis a bit of hell
When my nostrils both go wrong; I have blown my nose before friends and foes
But never before in song! (From Jake Smyth's Liberty Vindicator)

The most brazen act in connection with the 1931 Legislature was the forging of the name of a member of the House at the instigation of the bold and powerful loan shark lobby. Judge S. J. Isaacks of El Paso, one of the ablest and most highly respected House members, is the author of a bill that makes provision for an added penalty so as to provide for an adequate attorney's fee when a victim sues a usurious lender. Difficulty had been experienced in getting a quorum of the committee and a meeting was set for the close of the House session one day recently. Judge Isaacks, who does not hear perfectly, nevertheless heard his name called and, upon inquiry, found that the reading clerk had read a notice which had been handed in, bearing Judge Isaacks' name, announcing that the committee meeting had been called off. Isaacks took the floor, denounced the forgery and the committee met, with the result that the bill received a favorable report by a big majority.

They have a new system of deciding who will pay for the mid-morning coffee in Austin—it's called "Honest John." If you say, "I haven't heard of that," someone will explain, "It's decided with matches; each man gets five matches" and he starts counting them around. You count yours and exclaim, "Wait a minute, I have six" and they all yell, "You're Honest John; you get to pay the check!"

A little girl said: "Oh, mama, I saw the nicest man today."

"Who was he, dear?" "He was the garbage man, mama."

"And why was he so nice?" "Well, mama, he was carrying a can of garbage over his head to the wagon. While he had it over his head, the bottom came out and the garbage fell all over him, and he just stood there and talked to God."

HOW TO INDICATE ARTICLES EXCHANGEABLE FOR COTTON STAMPS

"Retail merchants dealing in cotton goods will be one of the most important groups in the Supplementary Cotton Program. They comprise tens of thousands of salesmen for America's most important cash crop—cotton. With foreign markets for American cotton sharply curtailed by war—America's merchants have a greater responsibility than ever before to help increase our domestic consumption of 100 per cent American grown, processed, and manufactured cotton products."

This statement was made today by Mr. I. C. Underwood, chairman of the Cotton Industry Committee for Eastland county.

In explaining how our local merchants could assist Cotton Stamp Customers and the general public to identify 100 per cent American cotton products in the stores, he said "some retailers rubber stamp the price tag or label with a picture of a cotton boll, or the words 'All American Cotton!' Any method may be used which will definitely show that the merchandise is made in the United States entirely from 100 per cent American cotton."

"After participating farmers receive their cotton-order stamps, it is up to the merchants to see that farm customers and others can readily find the American cotton products they are looking for. Adequate stocks and attractive window and counter displays will be the mutual advantage of merchants, farmers, and the general public."

"Merchants who segregate their stocks All American cotton piece goods, women's dresses and house-coats, men's overalls and shirts, sheets, men's pants, children's clothing, men's underwear, work gloves, blankets, plowlines, stockings, and numerous other cotton products in attractive displays and advertising will contribute materially to the effectiveness of the Program, and at the same time develop profitable new business," he said.

Our Trip To Florida

By Mrs. George Blackwell
We left Gorman on Saturday, May 31, and drove to Baton Rouge, Louisiana that night. We saw pine forests and rice fields.

Sunday: Went through the Louisiana State Capital and saw the spot where Huey P. Long was shot, the senate chamber, the house of representatives, and the governor's mansion. Then we went on to New Orleans, where we got a guide to show us the more interesting places, such as Jackson Square, the old prison house, the slave market, the old cathedral, cemeteries, French markets, haunted house, Napoleon house, Lee Circle, University of Tulane, University of Loyola, Audubon Park, and the docks.

Monday: We drove through the Bellingrath Gardens, the charm spot of the south. Saw many beautiful flowers, azaleas, hydrangeas, gardenias, magnolias, oleanders, spirea, hibiscus, dogwood, camellias, and japonicas. This park is all hand made except the lake and is truly a paradise for flower-lovers. We drove on to Mobile, Alabama, where we shopped for souvenirs. There is nothing much of interest to see in this city, so we left by way of the Bankhead Tunnel under the Mobile River. It cost $4,000,000 and reduced the distance seven and one-half miles from Mobile to points north. We drove on to Pensacola, Florida, where the largest Naval Air Training Station in the world, and Fort Barrancas, the largest Coast Artillery Post on the Gulf, are located. Pensacola's climate is unsurpassed during the entire year. From here we made the beautiful coast drive to Panama City. Along here we crossed a bridge four miles long with several draw bridges. We made pictures in the pretty white sand on the beach. The Gulf was on our right and beautiful homes on the left for many miles. In Panama City we shopped a while, then went on to Tallahassee, the capital of Florida, where we spent the night. Here are located the third largest State College for Women and the tombs of the Prince and Princess Murat. This was the only southern capital east of the Mississippi River that was not captured during the Civil War.

Tuesday: We started for Daytona Beach on the Atlantic Ocean, where all automobile speed records have been made. In recent years it has been developed into one of the best known combined winter and summer resorts of the nation. At no time has the mercury gone above 96 degrees. Here we went swimming in the Atlantic Ocean.

Wednesday: We made the coast drive from Daytona Beach to St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States. Saw the Marine Gardens, the largest aquarium in the world and the alligator and ostrich farm. In St Augustine we went sightseeing in a buggy as the streets were too narrow for cars. On this ride we saw the oldest house, oldest school house, and the oldest church in the United States. Here we saw camphor trees, beautiful shrubbery which was transplanted from Spain, and the Ponce De Leon Hotel which is open only 3 months each year (Jan. 11 to April 11). On our departure we stopped at The Fountain of Youth where Ponce De Leon is said to have landed in 1513 in his search for the fountain of youth. More than 100 Indian skeletons have been uncovered there. From here we went to Waycross, Ga., the Gateway City between Georgia and Florida and the entrance to the great Okefenokee Swamp. Between Waycross and Montgomery, Ala., we saw tobacco fields and orange orchards.

Thursday: We went through Montgomery, the capitol of Alabama, which was the first capitol of the Confederacy—also where Jefferson Davis was sworn in as the first and only president of the Southern Confederacy. Between Montgomery and Jackson, Miss., we saw pine forests and lumber mills. In Jackson we went through the Capitol building then went on to Vicksburg, where we spent the night.

Friday: We went through the Vicksburg National Military Park and Cemetery. Leaving Vicksburg we crossed the Mississippi River on a toll bridge and went on to Shreveport. Here we crossed the Red River and drove through the east Texas pine forests and oil fields. After all the rivers and lakes we had crossed, we had to wait two hours for little Daffau Creek to run down enough that we could be pulled across by a truck. We arrived in Gorman about 12 o'clock Friday night.

ACQUIRES A PRIZE RAMBOUILLET RAM

William Eakin, of the Carbon 4-H Club, has recently acquired a prize Rambouillet Ram from Mr. Roland Downtain of Eastland.

According to John A. Wright, Ass't County Agent, the Ram is of the best type available and out of Mr. Downtain's best breeding herd. The Ram is approximately six months old, and has very good prospects.

Mr. Downtain, who is especially interested in boys 4-H club work, let William have the Ram under a very attractive agreement.

William is one of the leaders in the Carbon Club and is very interested in the feeding of livestock. He is also the owner of a few sheep and plans to feed some out this year as his 4-H demonstration. It is William's plan to enter the Ram in the local livestock shows this fall.

LYNDON JOHNSON TO SPEAK IN EASTLAND SATURDAY NIGHT AT 7:30

LYNDON JOHNSON

Eastland and surrounding counties will observe national Flag Day Saturday and climax the occasion beginning at 7:45 p. m. on the courthouse lawn with the most impressive oratory, political fervor and brilliant entertainment and music this section has seen in many years.

To the fanfare of the combined bands of Eastland county and to lifted Texas voices, the curtain will rise on the courthouse square for a political-patriotic address by one of the most arresting figures on the political scene, Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson, candidate for the United States senate.

The program, which will include besides the bands of Cisco, Eastland and Ranger, nationally known singers and an imported orchestra, has been arranged by a committee of leading citizens including the mayors of Eastland county's seven towns, all supporters of Johnson's candidacy. No detail is being left undone to make the occasion a success.

Congressman Johnson who has captured the imagination of the state with the race he is making against veteran campaigners and by his rapid rise in the democratic party to the inner circle of Roosevelt leaders, will discuss the issues of the campaign and especially those pertinent of this section of the state. Mayor Hall Walker of Ranger, chairman of the committee, said, Johnson, he pointed out, has made all-out support of Roosevelt's defense program the keynote of his platform, and has demanded Texas receive its share of national defense industry it is so well prepared to serve.

Sharing the limelight will be the band concert of martial music and a Flag Day Revue of professional entertainers under the direction of Harwood Weedin, well known radio master of ceremonies. These include Larry Lambert's band of Patriots; Sophie Parker, who is known as the Kate Smith of the South; Mary Jane Behm, vocalist; Johnnie Landy, harmonica player, and Lois Widden and Billy Halameck, accordion duet. The program is scheduled to start with the band concert at 7:45 with the Flag Day Revue at 8:30. Congressman Johnson's address begins at 9 o'clock with 15 minutes of it over the Texas Quality Network after which he speaks extemporaneously.

The committee sponsoring the rally consists of Mayors J. E. Gilbert, Carbon; G. P. Mitcham, Cisco; Herman Rushing, Desdemona; C. W. Hoffman, Eastland; Dr. George Blackwell, Gorman; A. N. Snearly of Rising Star; Hall Walker, Ranger; Albert Taylor, Sam Butler, Ben Scott, E. Hinrichs, of Eastland; Bennie Butler of Cisco, M. D. Shirley of Eastland and Will St. John of Cisco. Mrs. Ruth Hagaman Horrigan, secretary.

The committee promises this section of the state a patriotic-political rally of the highest type, and a program long to be remembered. A special stage as to be arranged with the flag motif and a loud speaker system will carry the music and oratory to all parts of the square. At a similar occasion this week at San Angelo the crowd packed the square for several blocks. Arrangements have been made at Eastland to rope off the south side of the square and to provide seats for those who wish to use them.

"We have arranged this elaborate program for Eastland and her neighbor counties and for Congressman Johnson on National Flag day because we believe it is a time for unity and purpose, and because we believe Lyndon Johnson is the one candidate who has proved he can deliver the right kind of service to Texas and put this state squarely behind our great chief executive in this time of danger and national peril," Mayor Walker said.

"Lyndon Johnson as a young and vigorous congressman has brought to Texas a greater program of rural electrification than in any other state. He has given Texas and the nation the giant $45,000,000 naval base at Corpus Christi; the $50,000,000 Colorado River flood control, low-cost-power project, and has done more than any other congressional leader for the youth of the nation both as youth administrator and as congressman. No wonder our president would like to see Texas send him to take Morris Shepard's place in the senate, and it is no wonder we wish to honor him in this section of the state," Walker said.

Mrs. Thomas Johnson of McKinney, Texas, spent the past three days here with her sisters, Miss Addie Haley and Mrs. Statham.

Mrs. Dukes, of Duster, and her daughter, Mrs. Bishop Craddock of Levelland and Miss Mollie McNeely of Duster spent Monday with Mrs. Leander Bennett. Mrs. Dukes also attended the Hankins reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thorpe of Cristoval were guests of Della Pullig while here to attend H. N. C. homecoming. Her sisters, Mrs. Fannie Burkett and Mrs. Lorna McKnight of San Antonio were also first-of-the-week guests.
