OLDEN GETS NEW BOILER REPAIR SHOP

Magnolia's All-Steel Structure, Three New Pumping Plants and New Wells Seen.

The Magnolia Petroleum Company has moved material to the property adjoining its present boiler repair shops at Olden and will begin work at once on a new all-steel structure, 40x80 feet, to house a large part of the boiler repair business of the company, it is announced.

This plant does boiler repair work for the company covering a large territory, including many Texas, and Louisiana fields, Electra, Healdton, Yale and Shreveport being among the points which have sent in work in recent periods. The company's holdings in the Olden field, between Eastland and Ranger, include many producing shallow wells. They have recently completed a large pumping plant to be operated by internal combustion engines to which their several wells are being connected at this time.

This makes the third new pumping plant recently installed at Olden, the Teatsorth and Roberts both having recently installed electric plants, both of which are now connected up and in operation.

Other recent activities in this field include the building of a rig on the Scott lease by Teatsorth during the past week, a new location by the Magnolia on the old Adams refinery site where, it is reported, a 1450 million-foot gasser once was started in boom days.

A new location by the Magnolia on the Allmon lease and yet another by Teatsorth on the Scott, spudded in Thursday, number among the newer operations in the field.

This shallow field at Olden is a center of interest at this time. The town itself shows the results of it. With a present population of something like 1,500, a school enrollment of approximately 300, with every house occupied and not a single room reported vacant in hotel or rooming houses Friday, the little town has all the earmarks of a growing oil town in a shallow field. There was lacking the mad frenzy which characterizes the deep pool and gusher town, but growth seems to prevail.

Business houses reflect, somewhat, a general tendency to growth, but only one fly appears in the ointment—the fact that too many people drive through the main thoroughfare—the Bankhead highway—at break-neck speed, taking advantage of the lack of traffic regulations to imperil life in their utter recklessness.

RANGER LEGION TO HAVE HALL OF FINE SIZE

Committee Inspects Work On Carl Barnes Post Headquarters.

An inspection of the work on the American Legion Hall of the Carl Barnes post in Ranger by four of the five members of the house committee, late Saturday, revealed the fact that the auditorium of the club will be by far the largest in Western Texas and the only auditorium of considerable size between Fort Worth and El Paso, it is said. In addition to the auditorium, a sun parlor, 75x92 feet has been almost completed. The auditorium itself is 48x59 feet and is being finished in colonial design.

None of the other portions of the Legion quarters has as yet reached anything like a state of completion. The opening date it not yet set but it will be speeded up, it is said. The members of the house committee are J. B. Heister, C. C. Patterson, W. C. Hickey, A. N. Larson and J. R. Tolland. They met with city engineer Peacock, Saturday to make the inspection.

Oil Prices Begin Upward Flight Again With Humble Leading

Oil has begun another upward movement. At times during the last few months prices have wavered slightly, but there has been no such decline as during last year. Now another upward movement has begun from a fairly high basis.

The Humble Oil Company, Saturday, announced a price increase of 8 cents for all grades, making the top price $2.43 for 44 Baume gravity and above and $1.07 for 28 degrees Baume gravity and below. Most of the oil produced in the Ranger and Eastland fields is of the higher gravity.

None of the other companies had met the increased prices Saturday, but there was a feeling of expectancy in oil circles that they would do so early this week.

Fire In Sub-Station Of Dallas Postoffice Damages Much Mail

DALLAS, Nov. 21.—Fire in a postoffice sub-station today damaged 30,000 pieces of first class mail and caused $15,000 in damages to equipment and building.

YOUNG NURSE CHARGES ATTEMPT TO ATTACK HER

DALLAS, Nov. 21.—A Dallas man was held by city authorities today accused of an attempted assault upon a young nurse who was called on a "visit a sick man" at a hotel. The young woman told the police that soon after she entered the man's apartment he jumped from his bed and attempted to assault her.

Drilling Becoming Active In Southern Eastland County

H. H. Lobaugh and associates will begin within the next few days moving material to the G. W. Massengale farm two and one-half miles east of Eastland, where they will drill for oil. "We expect to be ready for business on this well within the next ten days," Mr. Lobaugh said Saturday.

The Eastland Oil Company recently announced the purchase by them of the Hough and Latham tracts of 300 acres from the Cardozo Company, which they will develop. This acreage is located about three miles southeast of Eastland and has three or four small producers on it within average daily production of 90 or 100 barrels.

Kirk & Brewer of Gorman are moving material on to the Jim Blackwell farm, north of Gorman and southeast of Eastland about twelve or fifteen miles, and expect to begin drilling operation within a short time.

In the Bear Springs community, southeast of Eastland and about four miles east of Carbon, the Hallmark Oil Company has made a location for a well on the R. Allison tract, machinery for which is now being unloaded at Carbon.

MUFFLERS ON MOTORCYCLES BANNED BY THE LAW

Motor cycles with open mufflers are now coming in for their share of regulation in Ranger and other Eastland county cities. The noise is termed a nuisance and is classed among the misdemeanors which are not to be given the benefit of minimum penalty, but offenders will be taxed the maximum of $200 and costs.

The statute on this matter is being published in The Times. It sets forth the penalties which, it will be noted, run from $10 to $200. Ranger police in particular are entering on a campaign of law enforcement in cases of this kind with no favors to play, it is announced.

You Can't Mix Love and a Career Says Oldest Woman in United States

MRS. LOUISE KIRWIN THIERS

By NEA Service

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 21.—Love or glory—spinsterhood or motherhood? Choosing between these two spheres is the most puzzling problems some girls ever face; but the answer is perfectly simple to Mrs. Louise Kirwin Thiers of Kenosha, who recently passed her 114th birthday.

Her answer is: "Marry for love. Don't try to share a career with housekeeping. Be a wife and mother and find happiness."

Mrs. Thiers has been a sort of acting godmother for the young people of Kenosha for years. Many and many a girl has turned to this wise old lady for advice, and she understands youth better than many women a third her age.

When she was married—that was in 1836—women had but one place, she says, and that was the home. And she thinks that was a pretty good system.

"I believe that motherhood is one of the biggest blessings that can come to any woman," she says.

"A girl may believe she is doing her bit in the world by writing books, fighting law suits or running banks, but to me there is more happiness and satisfaction in raising a child to young manhood or womanhood than in all the money and fame a career could bring. And I've raised five children.

"Of course, marriage is a give-and-take proposition. It must be full of love, understanding, respect and appreciation. When it has all of these things—and children—the result cannot help but be happiness."

Spinsterhood, she adds, is a condition for which there is no excuse. So there's her answer to the old question.

She believes a wise woman can make only one choice.

"Spinsterhood," by Virginia Swain, starts in this newspaper tomorrow.

Woman On Witness Stand Tells Story of Man's Abuse

By United Press

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 21.—Tricked into false marriage, when between 15 and 16 years of age, with Charles W. Crawford in his office in Houston, Nov. 16, 1916, and later threatened with dire physical violence if she revealed the deception which she learned one year afterwards, was the story told on the witness stand today by Suzanne Crawford, on trial for shooting and killing Crawford last December.

The woman said that when she discovered the deception and faced him with it, Crawford threw her across the bed and, with his hand about her throat, made her swear never to reveal the illegal marriage. This occurred after a year's unsuccessful search for a marriage certificate when she confronted Crawford with the charge he had deceived her.

Prentice Hahley, recognized by his and her address as the fiancé of the defendant, had testified he knew she was married to a man named Dodge and was not divorced from him, and that until the night of the shooting he had thought Crawford was her uncle. Mrs. Crawford then revealed that she became the wife of F. H. Dodge in 1923 because "she was sorry for him." She said Dodge was 68 years of age and ill at the time.

Former Man of Power Now State Convict

By United Press

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Nov. 21.—D. C. Stephenson, convicted murderer of Miss Madge Oberholzer, former dragon of the Ku Klux Klan who boasted he was the "law in Indiana," today became a convict in the State penitentiary. Just a few routine details, taking of finger prints and berrillion measurements and a change to prison garb, and Stephenson became a convict sentenced to spend the remainder of his natural life in the penitentiary.

None of the nonchalance that marked him during his trial had left him as he faced a life of imprisonment. Smiling and joking he walked with the small group of prison officials to where he lost his worldly identity.

LANHAM SAYS HE CAN SHOW MOODY WRONG

Judgment Obtained Against American Road Company Will Be Expensive.

By United Press

AUSTIN, Nov. 21.—A general impression prevailed here tonight that the members of the legislature who are to attend the tax conference here Monday will make an announcement as to whether they deem a special session of the legislature is necessary at this time. It is said that 70 members of the house and 17 senators have declared they will attend the tax conference, including Speaker Satterwhite and Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller.

Landham Talks

No statement of any sort came from the governor's office tonight with reference to Irvin's call for a special session. Frank V. Landham, chairman of the highway commission, conferred with Governor Ferguson and with James E. Ferguson and then, late this afternoon, issued a statement concerning the agreed judgment taken Friday in the American Road Company suit.

Although the judgment calls for a payment to the state of $600,000, forfeiture of its permit to do business in the state and cancellation of its road maintenance and other road contracts, Landham asserted that "if Attorney General Moody can show where he has saved anything for the state by this agreed judgment I will be glad for him to do so." He declared that the people need not be surprised at Mr. Moody's early announcement for governor.

Landham dissents from the policy pursued by the attorney general and argues it will be highly expensive to the state. As a result of the judgment, Landham figures that the highway department must take over the maintenance of the state highways for the next five months, which necessarily will show a heavy loss, he said, at least $75,000.

Discusses Tainted Money

Landham said the state would get back only $286,000, the remaining $314,000 representing the balance claimed by the road company on its completed contracts. "This $310,000 was for the same character of work as all the rest, which Mr. Moody said was concealed in fraud and executed in fraud," said Landham. "If he is correct, then this $314,000 he takes back is tainted with the same fraud and he should not have allowed it at all."

Mr. Landham insisted that in any event "Mr. Moody cannot escape the fact that he permitted the alleged fraudulent contracts to become a substantial amount that makes up this $600,000 judgment. It is amusing to any thinking man for Mr. Moody to condemn the taking of fraudulent money by someone else, while at the same time taking such fraudulent money to toast the judgment. The effect will be to let the American Road Company go scott free."

Lone Bandit Robs First National Bank Of Claude, Texas

By United Press

CLAUDE, Tex., Nov. 21.—Sheriff J. M. Woodburn, with a posse of thirty men, was scouring the countryside in Armstrong County tonight for a young man who held up and robbed the First National Bank of Claude at noon Saturday, escaping in a motor car with $5,000. The lone bandit walked into the bank when Clifford Walker, assistant cashier, was alone, his face masked with a handkerchief, scooped up the money and was gone before Walker could give an alarm.

Get-Rich-Quick Scheme Aimed At Publishers Fails

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Another get-rich-quick scheme has been squashed by Postmaster General New with the issuance of a mail fraud order.

Impresario Rivoli of Jalisco, Mexico, thought newspapers in the United States were easy marks. He wrote a number of publishers a long letter saying he had spent $10 for a subscription and had received only one copy of the paper. He wanted his money refunded.

The postoffice inspectors lamed the Mexican had evolved this idea to collect some "easy money," but not a single publisher fell for his game. A fraud order to keep Rivoli out of the mails was issued.

PECAN TREES WOULD IMPROVE STATE HIGHWAY

County Agent Bush Renews Movement To Plant 3,500 Trees Along Bankhead Road.

A year ago or more County Agent R. H. Bush started a movement that had for its purpose the planting of pecan trees along either side of the highways in Eastland county, and especially the brick paved bankhead, but at that time got very little encouragement in the matter. He plans to renew his efforts, however, and believes that more success will be had this time.

Mr. Bush's plans are to have the Chambers of Commerce, American Legion posts, Rotary and Lions' clubs, civic leagues and other civic organizations of the county, cooperate in the planting of paper-shedded pecan trees—along the right-of-ways of the highways. Where individuals desire to plant trees let them do so and allow them to mark them with small marble markers bearing the name of the party planting the tree and the date on which it was planted.

It would require approximately 3,500 trees to plant the Bankhead highway, and these could be purchased for just $1 each, Mr. Bush said. These trees, Mr. Bush says, should bear fruit in from three to four years and within a few years would pay for themselves.

Besides the beautifying of the highway and the value of the pecans produced, Mr. Bush believes that if the planting of the trees was all done at the same times by the organizations named that hundreds of dollars' worth of publicity that could not be obtained otherwise, would be gained through the newspapers and magazines of the State and nation.

Fiend In Human Shape Who Attacks Women Sought By Poses

By United Press

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 21.—The most intensive man hunt in the annals of Toledo was under way today for the fiend who, wielding a club, has struck down seven women here, causing the death of two of them.

The man, characterized as a "monster of the night" and a "housewife's last night," and two hours later made an unsuccessful attempt to club Miss Pauline Winoover, a salesgirl. The other attacks have occurred over a period of six weeks. One of the man's victims died from her injuries, and a second was found dead near where she lived when her body mutilated.

Neither of last night's victims were seriously injured. Mrs. Knight was attacked when she left her car porch to dump garbage. Miss Winoover was sitting in an automobile waiting for her escort when the "fiend" appeared in the darkness, grasped her arm and swung a club. She jumped away and screamed and the man fled pursued by a score of men drawn by Miss Winoover's cries. The police and detective force, augmented by a score of citizens are hunting for the man today. The chief of police has issued instructions, "shoot to kill."

TEXAS HOUSE MAY BE CALLED BY PETITION

Irvin Starts Movement Following Judgment Against Road Company.

By United Press

DALLAS, Nov. 21.—Representative T. K. Irvin of the Texas legislature told the United Press today he was preparing a petition for a special session of the Texas house to be convened not later than Jan. 10, 1926, for impeachment purposes. His petition will be in the mail tonight, addressed to all members of the Texas Legislature, he said.

Irvin explained that any member of the legislature, according to the statute, has the privilege of calling the legislature at any time for impeachment. In view of the disclosures in and the outcome of the suit brought by Attorney General Dan Moody against the American Road Company a special session of the legislature to bring impeachment charges is imperative, Irvin said. The call will ask for the impeachment of Miriam A. Ferguson and members of the State highway commission, he said.

Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller today declined comment on Irvin's plans. Representative Strong True said he would reserve judgment, but indicated he would sign a petition for a special session and that he thought a special session was needed.

DALLAS, Nov. 21.—Representative Irvin of Dallas put his letters addressed to members of the Texas legislature in the mails here tonight, calling for a special session of the legislative body to convene not later than January 1, 1926. The special session is for the purpose of impeaching "any state officer who has contributed to fraud against the people of the state of Texas," according to the letter. Outlining the disclosures brought about by the attorney general's investigation of the state highway department, Irvin declares that a special session to investigate state officers has been made imperative.

Following a conference late yesterday between attorneys engaged in the trial of the suit brought by Attorney General Dan Moody, against the American Road Company, an agreed judgment of $600,000 for the State of Texas, cancellation of all existing contracts for road maintenance, topping and construction held by the defendant company and cancellation of its permit to do business in Texas was entered by District Judge George Calhoun, who at the same time expressed the opinion that, under the testimony and the facts, it appeared to be a reasonable and fair settlement. The judgment does not call for a receiver to take charge of the assets and affairs of the American Road Company. All court costs are taxed against the defendant.

The judgment calls for the return of $286,000 in cash and cancellation of the unpaid estimates of $314,000 now pending before the highway commission for work performed by the defendant company. Mr. Moody had charged that excess profits totaling $300,000 had been made by the defendant company.

Hundreds of telegrams from all over Texas came today congratulating him on the success of the fight.

Airman Flies From Fort Worth to Spend Sunday In Ranger

By United Press

L. M. Mendell of Fort Worth flew into Ranger from Fort Worth late yesterday and will spend today with his friend, James Boze, who is entertaining him. Mr. Mendell, who was in the air service during the war, has been engaged in mercantile flying for several years, varying that with stunt flying. He was with the kindred flying circus last summer, flying over Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin. He now has a 4-D Curtiss ship equipped with a 90-horsepower OX-5 Curtiss engine and thinks nothing of hopping from Fort Worth to Ranger or from Ranger to Fort Worth in a half-hour, or perhaps less if he is in a hurry. Mr. Mendell parked his ship near the Bankhead highway adjacent to the Cooper addition.

RANGER HIGH BASKET BALL IS COMING ATTRACTION

By United Press

Saturday afternoon, with the meeting of the 1925-26 basket ball team less than two days off, it was found that forty-two had signified their intentions of trying for the Ranger high team, according to Coach Cherry. The prospects include nearly all the season's football players with many others. This, in all probability, will mean near half a hundred to select from to the present season.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The United States today turned down the Rumanian proposal for funding that nations debts of $40,000,000 to this country, and has made a counter proposal containing less lenient terms. This was made at a meeting here today of the debt funding parties.

A GAMBLING ORGIE.
The marvelous volume of business in stocks during the past few weeks indicates that millions of heretofore conservative Americans have become gamblers—gamblers on the weather, the crops, football or poker. Whether these investors will ever realize a profit is a gamble, but not so with the stock broker. He gets his going and coming, and after all is said and done the real profits remain in Wall Street, for no man can win unless another loses.

Back in 1901, when trading in stocks was an extremely large scale for those days, and followed the re-election of William McKimley as president, the New York stock exchange tore down its building and bought the Western Union building adjoining. It tore that down and put up a new building. It was sufficient for a few years. Then it became necessary to buy adjoining buildings on Wall street and Broad street and to put up another structure that corner that was considerably larger than the original building.

Now the stock exchange authorities are proposing to sell 25 additional memberships and to buy still another building on Broad street. It is stated that the present floor facilities are inadequate. Thousands of clerks are employed and loaning banks reap profits ranging from 35 to 125 per cent on brokers loans and gambling in money.

The human race is a race of gamblers. The instinct to gamble is deep-seated. Life is a gamble at almost every stage. Some gamble one way, others another. We all gamble. The greatest industrial enterprises of this day and generation were in their early stages gamblers. The solidest investments of history were originally wildcat speculations. No great industry, no great railroad, no great undertaking of any kind started de novo, full-fledged, mature, big and great. All were in their early days wild speculations of the very wildest. In fact, practically all suffered the throes of reorganization time and again and the original speculators were wiped out. The solidest of investment stocks were originally raketest speculations at the market prices at which they were put on, or in fact at any price at all.

Up to this year most of these speculations were financed by men who could afford to lose—and often did lose. But today the American people are lapping up stocks regardless, while industry after industry issues more and more to feed the wild demand. It is a veritable orgie in gambling that, like all other orgies, will have to meet the morning after. The moral is, don't speculate unless you can afford to lose.

Judging from the amount of editorial space devoted to British and foreign affairs in leading American newspapers a celebrated publicist declares that it is difficult to tell whether they are American or British. Many of them are owned in England and edited by Englishmen and are more pro-British than papers printed in London.

Paper mills of the Pacific coast are now in position to supply newsprint paper to the entire western territory of the Rocky mountains and are producing a surplus for export, according to a survey made by the Mercantile Trust Review.

ONCE A WEEK
I read an article the other day in which the writer advised couples who did not agree, to write out a list of one another's faults and for each one to try to correct the things that grate on the other one. It would never do I tried that once with a chum. We agreed to tell each other the other's faults. She had first shot and said very sweetly "you are conceited." Well that was enough, for I immediately told her that was the fault that I was going to start her off with, and we did not speak for a year. Nobody likes to be told their faults nor their short comings—we are all conscious of them, so what is the use of having them confirmed by some one else, even though the some one else is the "better" half of our existence. It seems to me the better way to solve marital difficulties would be to write out a list of the good qualities found in each other—for its a sure thing that "lasses catch a lot more flies than vinegar." If a man really wants his lady wife to think he is still the great fine hero he was when she married him, just keep up the bluff by telling her daily the things he told her then, by remembering to bring her flowers and candy once in a while and to always feed her vanity. They all fall for it. The same advice is good for wives, for they can't expect to receive everything and give nothing.

MRS. BURDEN HOSTESS TO TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB.
In rooms bedecked with masses of pink "mums," Mrs. Walter Burden entertained the members of the Twentieth Century club and seven extra guests, at her pretty home on the Strawn road, Friday afternoon. Bridge prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. G. Jury, who received as high guest prize two hand-painted candlesticks, to Mrs. Gifford Clegg, who received as the low guest prize a cut work towel, and the high club prize a Dresden doll, to Mrs. E. L. McMillen, while the low score club prize, a desk set, went to Mrs. Saunders Gregg. A luncheon in pretty harmony with the color motif was served at the end of the games to the following club members and guests: Misses E. L. McMillen, J. F. Champion, Charles Wain, W. J. Lowe, E. A. Wise, W. D. Conway, S. D. Gregg, M. L. Holland, G. C. Barkley, A. N. Harbinger, A. G. Jury, W. N. McDonald, William Stewart, Gifford Clegg, Charles Conley, Gus Coleman.

HOME FROM DAD'S AND MOTHER'S DAY.
Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Holloway are home from Austin where they were the guests of their son, Sterling, during Dad's and Mother's day at the State university. They report a most interesting visit, made doubly so for them by the fact that their son, who graduates this spring in law, has just received the highest honor that the Young Men's Christian association can bestow on a student. Sterling Holloway has been made a member of the National Young Men's Christian association, and was one of the three young men students in the United States accorded the honor. He was selected by the Y. M. C. A. men to meet with them in their national councils, which he will do at their next meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Holloway feel justly proud of this honor as they should, for it shows a marked appreciation of the young man and his work by men of national prominence.

1920 CLUB DISCUSSES ART AND OTHER SUBJECTS.
The 1920 club met Thursday afternoon and enjoyed a splendid program and a peppy business meeting. The subject for the afternoon was "Art in Central and Western Asia" and Mrs. George Bohning conducted the program and led in the discussion of the various subjects. Old wooden statues were one of the subjects discussed and Mrs. Bohning told some interesting facts about those she saw while abroad, and that they were very old and very well preserved. Mrs. R. L. Hodges had an interesting paper on Architecture and Decorations of Central Asia, while Mrs. Roy Jameson gave an equally interesting sketch on "Sculpture and Painting of Central Asia." Mrs. Herbert Stafford's paper on "Art in Western Asia" was very graphic as was Mrs. M. K. Collier's paper on "Constructional Designing."
Mrs. A. L. Duffer, president of the club, pleased the members very much when she told of her visit to the beneficiary of the 1920 Club Student Loan fund, while at Austin. She found this boy doing good work and very grateful in every way for the help that the club is extending him not only in a financial way but encouragement. However, he decided further loan and an additional loan was made in very few minutes. A sweet letter from the girl beneficiary of the loan fund was read, in which she expressed the same appreciative spirit and told of her good progress in her studies. At the next meeting Mrs. Barney Carter delegate from the club to the State Federation will give her report. The club felt very much honored to have one of its members honored with a state office and a motion was made that the club stand in appreciation of the honor of second vice president being conferred on their member, Mrs. M. H. Hagaman. This they did and Mrs. Hagaman in her usual gracious manner acknowledged the tribute and in a few words told the club that she felt she owed the honor to her club.

GLEE CLUB TO MEET AS USUAL.
The Glee Club will meet in the new banquet hall of the Gholson, instead of in the green room, Tuesday evening. This room has been known as the K. C. Club room and adjoins the green room. On account of the bridge tournament at the Gholson on the same date, this change in place was deemed advisable. Practice will begin at 8 o'clock sharp.

HOME ECONOMIC CLUB
A special meeting of the Home Economics Club was held Friday evening at the regular assembly period. The secretary being absent, Miss Margaret Galloway acted in her stead. The main issue brought before the body, was plans for the Senior Wedding to be held December 7. A mysterious wedding is to be held on that date of two prominent high school students. It is to be sponsored by the club and each girl will give something to do in connection with the wedding. It was agreed to meet on the second and fourth Tuesday nights of each month. Another interesting subject that was discussed was the Home Economics Convention to be held in Dallas, Friday, November 27. This is a special day for all high schools to be represented. They will have the opportunity of hearing some of the best speakers in the state. The club is urging that all of its members go to this convention who possible can.

REPORT OF HEALTH NURSE.
Below is given in full the report of the public health nurse, Miss Joyce Connally, for the month beginning Oct. 15 and ending Nov. 15, which was read before the Child Welfare club at their monthly luncheon Tuesday:
School examinations, 500; talks to grades, 20; distribution of Health Fairy Houses to all first and second grades; weighed and measured children at Merriman and Tiffin; home calls, 35; business calls, 16; took to doctor or dentist, 11; sent to doctor or dentist, 24; first aid cases, 281; conference with parents, 28.
Upon recent examination I have found many with bad teeth, or badly decayed teeth, eight cases, and a much larger percentage than should be are underweight. This I believe due primarily to unhygienic habits of living, relative to diet, rest, etc. It is surprising, too, that there are high school boys and girls who up to the present time have not possessed a toothbrush.
Several cases of the more indigent class have come under my observation. In many cases disease is not the only menace. Many are actually suffering from the necessities of life and of course one must have plenty of food and warmth for his body in order to be resistant to disease.
Signed: JOYCE CONNALLY, R. N.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF CIRCLE MEETINGS.
The circles of the W. M. U. of the Central Baptist church will meet at the following homes, Monday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.:

REPORTS FROM L. T. ASSO ASSOCIATION MEETING.
Very interesting reports of the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations, which convened in El Paso last week, are being received. Among the subjects discussed were the activities of the state president, the survey to be made of Texas Parent-Teacher associations by Cornell university, and the disbursement of nearly $19,000. Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, state president of the association, gave a very graphic report, which showed that her task had not been an easy one, as she had traveled over 10,000 miles, spoken to many groups of Parent-Teacher association workers, addressed hundreds of teachers in the summer terms of various colleges and in joint institutes, written hundreds of board meetings, written hundreds of letters, and cards, written 12 messages for publication in the Bulletin, attended many receptions, teas, luncheons, etc., where she was not only the honored guest but made talks as well. Mrs. Maddocks in concluding her interesting report said: "It has been a busy year, but many letters of appreciation have been received which have greatly brightened the path trod by your president, and every minute expended has brought its blessing threefold." Those attending the association from Ranger were Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, Mrs. N. A. Jennet and Mrs. F. L. Carroll.

PERSONALS
Mrs. L. C. Mott will save today for Weatherford and Port Worth to spend a week with friends. Mr. McFall will leave at the same time for a fishing trip in the Texas Panhandle section.

PROGRAM FOR THE NEW ERA CLUB.
A Federation Day program will be featured at the New Era Club meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Gholson Hotel. The federation song, sung to the tune of America will be sung by the club. Mrs. N. A. Jennet will give a talk or paper on "Origin and History of Thanksgiving Day in America."
L. C. G. Buckman, who was delegate to the State Federation, will give her report. Mrs. George Langston, who is state chairman of peace will talk on "What efforts the United States are making for World Peace." The club has not forgotten the proximity of Thanksgiving, for their program carries this Thanksgiving sentiment, "O, give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth forever."

GRIFFITH-LAUDIG WEDDINGS.
A pretty home wedding was solemnized last night at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, on Division street, when Dr. P. F. Griffith and Miss Bernice Laudig were united in holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. A. Leakee said the beautiful words of the ring ceremony, which was performed in the presence of the immediate family of the bride. Dr. Griffith and his bride left at once for Dallas for a short honeymoon trip, after which, they will return to Ranger and make their home.
Mrs. Griffith is a sweet and greatly loved girl and counts her friends by the score. She has been employed as bookkeeper in Joseph Dry Goods Company store for several years. Dr. Griffith has not been in Ranger long, but has built up a nice practice in his chosen profession and is a coming young professional man.
The bride was becomingly dressed in a cut velvet gown, in brown, which matched her reddish gold hair, and all accessories were matched with charming harmony. She looked very lovely.

B. Y. P. U. HAS PARTY.
The members of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist Church had a delightful party Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bob Hodges. Games and contests were employed in clever ways for the entertainment, and refreshments of sandwiches, silken cakes, and punch, were served. Among those who enjoyed this very pleasant gathering were Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pitcock, Mr. and Mrs. Willis McKinnon of Fort Worth; Misses Beatrice Messick, Clara Mae Jones, Jewell McMillan, Jenny Riley, Louise Pitcock, Lois Stevens, Fave Pearce; Messrs. Brewster, Doyle, Schmidt, and Timberlake.

A KID PARTY
Recently it was suggested that the children do not consider themselves kids all for in real life they are dignified Juniors, that look down from their superior heights on the lowly Freshmen and Sophs, but Friday night they just made believe that they were kids again, at a party given by Miss Lila Brashier, at her home in the Cooper Addition. Boys and girls both went dressed as kiddies. The girls, who could not have their hair in buns, as they are all bobbed haired girls, but they did wear big pink bows on the hair, that looked most fetching and kid like. And the boys dressed the part of Sonny Boys and all enjoyed the refreshments of O Boy Chewing Gum, All Day Suckers and Jaw Breakers, as well as the many kid games that were played during the evening. The "kid" girls present were Misses Mildred Bryant, Lois Walker, Pauline Lowe, Belva Dixon, Margaret Galloway, Lucene Belrap, Cullian Sweland, Katie Ruth Cornelius, Sylvia Burch, Geraldine Williams, Elva Richardson, Eunice Barnes, Ella Joy Ingram, Florence Alice Palmer.
The "kid" boys were: Brock Hazard, J. Walker, Charlie Cooper, Charles Gholson, Buster Mills, Cheney Yonkers, Cady Almsbury, Badcom Johnson, Dick and Rex Hubbard, Richard Barkley, Seth Hubbard, Horace Davenport, Leon Jameson, Bill Drienhofer, Tubbie Gullahorn, Howard Perry, Homer Short, Cisco Blanchard, Lafete Dupree, Gene Nourse, Troy Grubbs.

COUNTRY CLUB DANCE NOT LARGELY ATTENDED.
While the Country club dance, given at the Country club Friday night, was not largely attended, still it was a very enjoyable affair. Of course it was a membership dance, which naturally tends to minimize the number present as some of the Country club members do not dance. However, those who did attend felt well rewarded for their efforts. A big fire in the bugie fireplace that flanks the south end of the clubroom was cheerful and warming. Gus Coleman's orchestra appeared at their best and naturally the music was good.

PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. John Pickett and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sigler, motored to Fort Worth and Dallas Friday, where they will spend the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Edwards were week end visitors in Port Worth and Dallas.

brother, or her sweetheart, for the men enjoy playing bridge as much as the ladies. The custom has been for four people to play together all evening, pivoting each game, however, this rule is flexible, and parties can arrange several tables, if they desire and pivot around their tables.
Reservations may be made for one table or a dozen, according to desire, and should be made not later than Monday. Mesdames Hall Walker, phone number 298; Mrs. Paul Key, phone number 489, or Mrs. Gus Coleman, phone 533, will take care of the reservations and one of the other can be reached at any time, between now and Monday. Refreshments will be served and prizes will be given, high and low for ladies and for men. The scores of former players will be added to those that are being kept for the grand prizes, to be awarded in the spring. It is reported that number of folks from Cisco and from Eastland have made reservations already and naturally Ranger folks will have a big representation, even though there has been a slight increase of twenty-five cents over the former price. This arranging parties plan has been popular going away as it does playing with players whose games do not come up to one's own standards of correct bridge, however, those who do not care to arrange a table are requested to come on anyway, as there are always people who are glad to have a filler in, and always some who do not care to go to the trouble of arranging a table. This promises to be far the most elaborate party attempted by the ladies of the Country Club, who put on these parties at a great deal of expense and labor for the benefit of the furnishings of the club.

RUSHING TO SICK MOTHER.
A wire from their father in Coalinga, Cal., received Saturday morning, advised Mesdames C. I. and W. N. Bordeaux that their mother was very ill at that place, so they both left Saturday afternoon on the Sun shine, to be at the bedside of the sick mother, whom it seems had suffered a relapse from the flu. The many friends of the Mesdames Bordeaux are hoping that they will find their mother much better, when they reach her home.

YOUNG MATRONS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS SOCIALLY.
The members and a number of the friends of the Young Matrons' class of the Methodist Church, met in social session Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Davis, at which time the hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Davis, Allison, Barker and Campbell. The major part of the afternoon was spent in working on articles for their approaching bazaar, to be held Dec. 4 and 5 and in perfecting plans for same. Tempting refreshments of sandwiches, cocoa and stuffed dates were served to the following ladies: Mesdames Carroll Clark, Godwin Jones, Earl Goforth, Roy Leonard, R. L. Hodges, O. L. Phillips, A. J. Ratliff, R. S. Lambert, D. T. Crawford, S. A. Lillard Jr., Edith Blanchard, J. E. Kelley, S. A. Lillard, Sr., H. M. Hagaman, W. H. Martin, J. T. Gray, Ira Nourse, H. L. Post, L. E. Forrest, E. W. PLEASANT GROVE ROAD WILL GET ASPHALT COAT
Unsurfaced Portion May Be Finished in Twenty-one Days.
The Pleasant Grove road, the new paved pike leading from Ranger to the Eastland-Breckenridge road, is now open to travel all the way and will remain open the greater portion of this week, every Sunday and every night thereafter permanently, according to E. B. Rogers superintendent of the asphalt plant now being installed to complete surfacing the pike. This plant has already been moved to the site of the rock crusher. A number of men and teams are busy completing installation on its new site. This installation will be complete some time during the present week, according to Mr. Rogers.
The plant was moved from the Strawn road. It is a ponderous affair consisting of huge furnaces, boilers and other machinery, weighing many tons. Once it is complete, the work of surfacing will begin immediately, it is said. Mr. Rogers estimates, taking the weather as it runs, it will, in all probability surface about one-third of a mile a day. Weather like the present will make it possible to turn off the work more rapidly. Freezing will not stop the work, it is stated. The seven miles unsurfaced portion will require around twenty-one days to surface with average weather, it is said.
There has been surfaced only about three-quarters of a mile. This was done with the asphalt preparation hauled from the plant at its old location on the Strawn road. At no time will there be more than a mile's detour while this work is going on, it is announced, and each day at the close of working hours, the entire road will be thrown open to travel.

Play Tie Game With Strong Gorman Eleven

The seasoned little Gorman team of hard fighters, led by their feature players, Hudson, fullback, and Taft, quarter, held the 1926 Ranger Bulldogs to a tie in Friday's post-season game, in which neither team was able to score until the last few minutes of the play. Then, Ranger got a touchdown by a forward pass. Walker to Phillips, and Gorman followed with an eleventh hour spurt of brilliant play by Taft, which carried him over the line.

Ranger's six-foot line looked more like greyhounds than bulldogs, but they showed fighting mettle and, as they grow out as well as up, they give promise of developing into real players. Cooper, crippled, played a good game, though not up to his normal standard. The little quarterback, Reeves, came in for a rousing ovation by the fans. Prediction that he will be a second Harvey were freely made. Mills did not go in on account of injury.

"RED" GRANGE WINS FOR ILLINOIS OVER OHIO

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Backing, running and dodging under his "77" for the last time, "Red" Grange sang his intercollegiate swan this afternoon by leading his teammates to a 14 to 9 victory over the Ohio state eleven. Three times the Illinois captain broke away for big gains, the "red head" being the difference between the Illinois and the Ohio teams. When he was removed from the game at the end of the first half Ohio crossed the line for a touchdown. Then he was restored to the game and Ohio was unable to score again.

PITCHER, ARCHER AND TENNIS PLAYER AND GOLFER MATCHED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 21.—What is probably the oddest "golf" match of all time is scheduled to be staged here with a baseball pitcher, an archer, a tennis player and a mere golfer participating.

Robinson, an archer at the Oklahoma City University, will shoot an arrow around James Beattie, Jr., sports editor of a local paper, will swat a tennis ball around; and Bobby Cruickshanks, a professional golfer, will use the regular golf ball and clubs.

FLOUR MILL IS EQUIPPING FOR MAKING FEEDS

Only Big Mill Between El Paso and Weatherford Expanding to Take Care of $60,000 Crop.

Equipment is now reported about completing arrangements for putting by law arrived Friday in Ranger, completing arrangements for putting out a large line of feed stuffs by the fifty barrel K. C. Jones mill of Ranger, the only flouring mill of any size and believed to be the only one now operating between Weatherford and El Paso. This applies possibly to a wide belt of territory stretching across from two to four counties on either side of that line.

The taking on of this new enterprise marks an epoch in the operation of this comparatively new Eastland County concern. The manufacture of a full line of poultry feeds, mixed feeds for stock balanced rations, and, later buttermilk feeds, is included in the present program, it is stated.

With these lines added, this mill will now be not only the sole flouring mill in Eastland, Stephens and Erath counties and the only one of size and in active operation in the territory named, but one of the few stock feed manufacturing plants in Texas, it is said.

Have You Paid Your October Accounts?

Are you square with the world — or have you neglected to pay your bills and permitted them to accumulate?

Your very standing in the community as a citizen and that of your wife and children in their circle of friends is affected by the growing knowledge that you are not paying the bills due your grocer, your butcher, your doctor and the other merchants with whom you have credit accounts.

For your own sake and that of your family, keep your own record. If it is not good, make it so.

Wake up. Pay up. Keep your future credit in good standing. Keep your merchant's confidence by paying your accounts promptly.

Have your account appreciated, not merely tolerated. It pays to pay.

"Red" Grange Will Form Football Team To Play In Florida

By United Press. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Harold (Red) Grange, the phantom football star of the University of Illinois, will play professionally in Florida this winter, he announced after the Ohio-Illinois game here today. Grange and Earl Britton, his right-hand man, will form the nucleus of an organization which will engage a team of former college stars headed by Tim Callahan, former Yale captain, in a series of games in important Florida resort cities, beginning Christmas day at Miami and New Year's day at Tampa. Many wild rumors were set at rest immediately after the game today when "Red" announced his plans to sever at once his academic relations with the University of Illinois and proceed with the organization of his own team. "I will organize my own team and Britton and myself will drop out of the University of Illinois," said Grange. "I haven't signed any contract and nobody is backing me." He said he had no intention of appearing with the Chicago Bears.

PLEASANT GROVE SCHOOL WILL PLAY BASKET BALL

Basket ball is taking a firm hold on Pleasant Grove school during the remaining pre-season days. It is said, and this school, according to Principal Curry, will be a warm competitor of Colony and Morton Valley, the two schools in adjoining districts, notwithstanding the other two schools have already had one (girls') game. The Curry men are already in training, it is said, and these three teams, with both Ranger and Eastland to whet up their mettle, promise to make some history during the present season. About 20 boys are believed to be in the Pleasant Grove line of selection.

WHISTLE SAVES HARVARD FROM DEFEAT BY YALE

By United Press. CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 21.—Two short seconds and two scant yards stood between Harvard and a more disastrous end to one of her most tragic seasons in the football game this afternoon. The last game of the "Big Three" series and the worst ended in a scoreless tie between Harvard and Yale. With three minutes to go, Yale started throwing the ball, which the quarter back heaved high and far. It was grabbed by a Yale end, who slipped around and between a flock crimson jerseys and ran to Harvard's five-yard line. It was advanced three yards and Yale fisted with it on the two-yard line with only two seconds to go. The Yale backs were in formation and about to plunge when the whistle blew and the game ended.

58 MILES PER HOUR

25 MILES to the GALLON

5 to 25 MILES in 8 SECONDS

Only Chrysler Four Combines These Performance Abilities

The Chrysler Four's extraordinary performance—its speed and its swift pick-up, you can get 25 miles to the gallon.

Today's market holds nothing of any type, approaching the Chrysler Four price range, which even remotely approximates its supreme combination of performance abilities.

In speed, the Chrysler Four gives you a new standard—58 miles an hour, achieved quickly and easily, not for a momentary spurt, but for eager mile after mile, as long as you like.

When you would dash away ahead of the crowd in traffic, the Chrysler Four whisks you from 5 to 25 miles in eight seconds—with sure-footed reliability and purring smoothness.

Yet, with all the super-power necessary for such speed and such swift pick-up, you can get 25 miles to the gallon.

Any one of these exceptional abilities would be sufficient evidence of value for any manufacturer except Chrysler: the three of them clinch the assurance of Chrysler Four's transcendent quality and worth.

We are eager to afford you the opportunity of proving the superiority of this favored Four. We ask you to ride in the car—drive it—see and feel for yourself, its speed, its swift response, its pliability of power, its smooth operation, and even more particularly, its riding steadiness and comfort. Then, we believe, you will inevitably share in the enthusiasm of its tens of thousands of owners.

CHRYSLER FOUR

CHRYSLER FOUR—Touring Car, $505; Club Coupe, $595; Coach, $1,045; Sedan, $1,095. Hydraulic four-wheel brakes at slight extra cost.

The Poets Will Have To Change Their Lines

by Peggy Paige

"WHEN dark December glooms the day," and "dread winter spreads his latest glooms" are lines that will hardly describe this winter. For, when the fair sex scatter over the landscape clad in all their winter glory, they're going to make the winter of 1925 look like a jolly riot of color.

Dame Fashion has gone to her paint box, chosen the brightest of her blues, added still more brightness to it, and tinted the smartest of her winter frocks "pencil" and "royal" blue. Into a gorgeous red she's poured a bit of purple to make the new "Black Prince" and grenat shades that will cast a rosy glow over many a winter landscape. The royal purple and pansy shades that enjoyed such popularity in the later summer will also be much seen, and colorful new greens and brownish reds as well. Black will be more chic than ever, but it will always have a brightening touch of gay color.

Yes, the poets will change their tunes this winter—if Dame Fashion has her way with the women.

Authorities Trying To Clear Up Mystery Of Atrocious Crime

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—F. C. Stone, 60-year-old stepfather of Hoxie, film star, has, according to the police, made a partial confession of the brutal slaying in 1924 of May and Laura Martin, school girls. The asserted admission, said to have been in the hands of the district attorney more than six months, is denied by Stone, recently indicted on the charges.

Stone was arrested soon after discovery of the bodies of the Martin sisters, which, although badly decomposed, showed the girls had been criminally assaulted and then beaten to death. The little victims disappeared from their homes in Glen Airy district, where Stone was employed as a watchman, Aug. 23, 1924. They were last seen with Stone and a companion whom authorities are seeking as an accomplice, according to the district attorney.

Stone has been a prisoner in the county jail here since last February. Before being indicted he was held on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of small children. Stone said tonight he had not confessed to the crime, but that he had signed an application for a parole, which he had neglected to read, and it might have been a confession.

HENRY FORD MAKES PID TO CARRY THE AIR MAIL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Henry Ford made a bid tonight for the business of carrying the mails by air. Through the Ford Motor Company, he submitted a proposal to carry the mails between Detroit and Chicago and between Detroit and Cleveland for the low rate of 6 1/2 cents an ounce. He was the only bidder on that route.

The defendant in the case is the Hoffman Construction Company.

In his petition, Moody asks for the refund of about $100,000 excess profits alleged to have been made on contracts awarded by the State highway commission.

VAUDEVILLE DRAWS CROWD TO LIBERTY THEATRE

There were very few empty seats at Friday night's vaudeville performance at Liberty Theater, in Ranger. Attorney of Travis County To Work With Attorney General

AUSTIN, Nov. 21.—John W. Hornsby, county attorney of Travis County, is to appear as co-counsel with Attorney General Dan Moody in the suit brought by the attorney general against the Hoffman Construction Company and the Sherman-Youmans Construction Company and any other suits the attorney general may bring against contractors holding road maintenance contracts in Texas.

Hornsby refused to appear at Moody's invitation. Hornsby, last week, declined to act with the attorneys representing the governor in presenting pleas in intervention on behalf of the governor and the highway commission, which were refused by the court.

WAXAHACHIE, Nov. 21.—Winding up its annual session, which is to be concluded tomorrow with the bishop's announcements of appointments for the year, the Central Texas Methodist conference went on record today as condemning the State's chief executive with reference to the free use of the pardoning power, and urged further than the statement attributed to leading officials that "our authorities can never enforce the prohibition law" is an insult to the government.

HOW DO YOU PAY

- Your Physician?
- Your Dentist?
- Your Promptness in Paying these Bills is a Part of Your Credit Record.

Your credit record is available to every member of the Ranger Retail Merchants Association. The association is composed of the merchants and professional men who extend you credit when you buy their merchandise or their service.

Some people fail to realize that physicians' and dentists' bills must be paid promptly. Some apparently pay such bills when they get ready—and they "get ready" months after payment is due or never.

An appeal to your pride should be sufficient to correct this evil. You buy from your physician and your dentist the thing that you rate as most important in this world's goods—health! The man or woman who does not pay promptly for VALUABLE SERVICE ought not and WILL NOT be considered a good moral risk by those who sell merchandise.

Budget of Activities At Merriman Church

MERRIMAN, Nov. 21.—Several members of the Carl class in the Merriman church have been absent on account of colds, but are reported better. It is thought worthy of comment that sickness alone prevents the regular members from attending, as cold weather and rain never stops them.

Only two more Sundays until the letter "H" is reached in the "searching the Scriptures" contest. At that time a quiz of the letters that have been passed in the contest will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Richey of Ranger have had sickness in their home, which has prevented them attending lately. It is hoped by their many friends here they will be out soon.

Brother Woods has been brought home from a sanitarium in Ranger, where he underwent an operation. He is improving steadily.

Brother Taylor's son, Paul Taylor, and his wife are moving to Ranger and will be frequent visitors to Merriman again. They will get a glad welcome.

Brother Taylor has been invited to help ordain a young minister at Cisco next Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Hunt and a friend were out from Ranger last Sunday night, at which time Brother Taylor delivered one of his best sermons.

Messengers are to be called next Sunday for the convention to Mineral Wells on December 2.

Conference is held on Saturday before the first Sunday of each month. Cecil Savage and T. Van Barnes were visitors at church Sunday before last.

The Sunday school gave $10 to missions last Sunday.

IGNITION SUPPLIES OFFICE IS OPENED IN RANGER

Another one-time Ranger citizen is back at the old town, sorry he left and determined to stay. T. I. Matlock is that citizen and as evidence that he means what he says, when he pronounces Ranger a city on a much more solid basis than when he was here in 1920-21, he has, in company with E. A. Greglite, opened up an ignition company, styled "The Oil Field Ignition Company," in the room adjoining the M. K. Collie insurance agency.

PETER PAN REACHES MAJORITY THIS YEAR

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Although "Peter Pan" was the "boy who never grew up" he has nevertheless become a man.

Christmas day this year, he will be 21 years old. In celebration of the twenty-first anniversary since the play was first produced. The play will have new costumes and new scenery.

For the new Peter Pan—London's twelfth—Barrie has chosen Dorothy Dickson, the American dancer, and wife of Carl Lyson who became an exhibition dancer when the war changed his family's fortunes.

The choice of Miss Dickson—21.0 is 27—to play the part has again raised the question as to how old the ideal Peter Pan should be. Nina Boucicault, the first, and by many said to be the best, was 37 when she played the part. Cissie Loftus, the second, was 29; Pauline Chase, who played the part for eight Christmases began it at 21; Madge Titheradge was 27; Unity More was 21; Fay Compton was 22; Faith Celli was 20; Georgette Cohan and Edna Best were 19; Gladys Cooper was 34.

Although Peter Pan was supposed to have no age, some of the best actresses in the part were the oldest ones.

TRAGEDY ATTENDS EXPLOSION OF GAS IN BUILDING

Fire enveloped the building after the explosion.

MARTIN'S FERRY, Ohio, Nov. 21.—One man was fatally injured and four others seriously hurt when an explosion of gas wrecked a two-story frame building here today. P. J. Donohue, 22, buried beneath the debris died soon after being taken from the wreckage. Four others injured will recover, physicians said. Wisner and Brothers.—Adv.

NEW METAL AIRPLANE LIGHTER THAN WOOD

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Airplane structures, wings, body and undercarriage made entirely of steel and aluminum and weighing one-third less than a similar machine constructed of wood have been developed by an English airplane concern. At the same time the steel-and-aluminum machines are stronger in their essential parts than wooden machines of the same design.

The feat is hailed by aircraft designers as a great contribution to the industry in view of the great scarcity of suitable woods for airplane construction.

LEFT-HANDED WOMAN WAS FIRST LONDONER

LONDON, Nov. 21.—"The first Londoner known to history" was a left-handed woman, a huntress, with a flat skull and a very modest intelligence.

Such are the deductions drawn by experts from the battered skull unearthed by excavations in Leadenhall street, in the heart of London. The discovery was made 26 feet below the street level in a stratum indicating the woman lived many thousands of years ago.

UNEMPLOYMENT RATE HIGH IN MEXICO CITY

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21.—According to data published in one of the local newspapers there are more than 43,000 laborers without occupation in the capital alone. Not more than a third of the male population of the city was employed, this authority stated.

A LEADING QUESTION

A Middle West farmer who does not claim to be a road engineer, recently asked a leading question. For 20 years he had been paying taxes to haul rock onto his county road. Road engineers decided to tear up this solidly packed foundation in order to build a "new foundation" on which to lay a 6-inch concrete pavement.

The farmer-taxpayer objected and said: "Why waste that foundation when a 2-inch waterproof wearing surface will preserve it and carry all the traffic that this road will be obliged to handle for years to come?"

In the long run it is the foundation that must support the pavement. If a 2-inch resilient wearing surface of an asphaltic character will protect the old base, keep out water and absorb the shock of traffic, why tear out the old base and then spend two or three times as much money for an entirely new road? As the road tax bill increases, the public demands economy along these lines. The Manufacturer.

BOBS AND BAGS WORSE THAN DRINKING SAYS ANCIENT

By United Press.
ATLANTA, Nov. 21.—James Washington Roberts whose "resurrection from the dead" a few years ago resulted in considerable notoriety, is in the toils of the law because he insists that "a dram a day keeps the doctor away."

Quoting liberally from the Bible, James, whose 85 years has not dulled his wit, attempted to justify the possession of five gallons of corn the police found in his shack, in which he lives alone.

At his hearing the old man took occasion to lecture bobbed-hair flappers for whom he has a violent aversion, and the tea hounds which Oxford bags stand far down in the scale of his estimation, he told the judge.

"In my youth," said James, a veteran of the war between the states, "the worth of a man was gauged by the amount of liquor he could hold. What is this world coming to anyhow with the wimmin becoming more like men and the men more like wimmin every day?"

The judge didn't know but decided it would be well for James to spend the next few months in the hospital ward at the county jail, considering that winter was coming on.

A few years ago the old man was struck by an automobile truck and on his arrival at the hospital a young interne pronounced him dead. Funeral arrangements were made when Roberts suddenly sat upright and protested vigorously against being hustled off to the cemetery.

UNIVERSITY ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS ADVANCING

Special Correspondence.

AUSTIN, Nov. 20.—There are now 14 graduates of the school of engineering of the University of Texas employed in the training school of the General Electric company in Schenectady, N. Y. They are J. E. Love, Temple; D. B. McDonald, Temple; E. A. Swidom, Austin, selected from the class of 1922; V. O. Kelley, Santa Anna; T. E. Mansfield, Hillsboro, and F. M. Rives, Austin, from the class of 1923; C. H. Linder, Austin; W. J. Seneman, and C. M. Southern, Cleburne, represent the class of 1924, while J. P. Woods, Del Rio; Maurice Atzt, Tyler; J. B. Coltharp, Turnersville, and D. C. Hoffmann, Brenham, were selected from the 1925 class. R. L. Williams of Quanah, who became connected with the school in 1920, is still with the plant in Schenectady.

Six or eight graduates are chosen

Breakfast—Halves of grape fruit, scrambled eggs with rice, bran muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cream of onion soup, toast sticks, lettuce and celery sandwiches, rice pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Broiled sirloin steak, French fried potatoes, creamed cauliflower, cabbage and pineapple salad, nut cookies, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

A child under school age may not eat French fried potatoes but he may have two tablespoons of finely cut, rarely broiled steak. A piece of bread dipped in the "platter gravy" after the steak is carved is a concession to babyhood that is particularly good for his small self. He may also have some of the cauliflower. His salad should be of finely shredded lettuce and his dessert be a dish of rice pudding left from luncheon.

CREAM OF ONION SOUP

One cup thinly sliced onions, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons bacon fat, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 1/2 cups milk, 1 egg, salt and pepper, 1/2 cup cream, 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Melt butter and bacon fat in sauce pan without letting the fats bubble. Add onion slices and cook over a low fire for 30 minutes. Keep the pan closely covered, letting the onions cook in their juice and steam. When the onions are soft add flour and stir with a fork until thoroughly blended. Add milk, salt and pepper and bring to the boiling point stirring constantly. Let boil five minutes and rub through a fine strainer. Add egg slightly beaten and reheat over hot water if necessary. Whip cream and serve a spoonful sprinkled with minced parsley on each portion.

each year from the entire class who receive degrees from the university school of engineering, Correll explained. A representative from the General Electric company comes to Austin, interviews each candidate, and makes selections on the basis of that short interview. Grades of the student do not play as an important part in the selection as do character, enterprise, and business enterprises, Correll said. Selections from the senior class of 1925 will be made during the winter term, he stated. For the first year in the plant of the company, the men are paid $110 a month, and are given opportunity to make good in every department of the electrical plant, which is considered to be the most practical of post-graduate work. At the end of a three or four year period of this instruction, the graduate usually returns to Texas and becomes connected with one of the power companies of this state, or remains with the General Electric, Correll said.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC AND OWNER OF MOTOR DRIVEN VEHICLES

My attention has been called to the fact that our boys and young men of Ranger are using our streets for race track with motorcycles and every other motor driven vehicle and knowing this to be a fact and having at times asked them not to do this, and complaints from hospitals, hotels and business houses, I am going to give them warning in the paper and after that will arrest every one who violates the law. ROOM FOR BOTH Some persons have gained the idea that use of electricity will ultimately do away with most of the demand for gas. A recent statement of Mr. Hartog of the Portland Gas and Coke Company, is to the point. He said: "If all the horsepower available to our two electric companies in Portland were used entirely for cooking and heating water it would only supply one-half of the business which the gas company now has. In addition to this if all the horsepower available to both companies were used for nothing else but to take over the househeating business of the gas company only half of the demand could be supplied. In other words, if the gas business were to cease tomorrow and both electric companies were to use all their horsepower to take over the cooking, water heating and househeating business, they would only have one-fourth enough power available.

"If the entire gas business used for cooking alone were turned over to the electric companies it would take an investment of $120,000,000 over and above what they already have and if we figure 10 per cent for interest and depreciation, it would mean a charge of $12,000,000 for that alone per year, or more than $10 per month per customer, which shows you why the gas man is so optimistic. He realizes that while electricity has its field for light and power, gas is superior when it comes to heating."

Such facts as these prove pretty definitely that the gas industry is on the threshold of a tremendous growth in conjunction with electricity. Each has a distinct field to cover and each renders an indispensable public service.—Industrial News.

PRISONER PARDONED ON HOME TOWN VOTE By United Press. FARGO, N. D., Nov. 21.—L. C. Collins, former banker of Hunter may be the only man in the United States who received a pardon through a referendum of the home folks. Collins was serving a sentence in the state prison for alleged embezzlement and although the prosecuting attorney and sentencing judge recommended pardon to the parole board, the majority of the latter believed the Hunter residents should vote on the question.

The pardon won by 35 to 17 in a town of 500 inhabitants.

"Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the only thing that relieved me of constipation" Beware of the dangerous diseases which are constipation's toll. Constipation is dreaded, not only for its insidious self, but for the serious diseases which may be traced to it. Mr. Palludon tells us the helpful story of his relief: Doing hard work while constipated brought on piles from which I suffered for two years. I tried almost every remedy without success. Finally I tried Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and it has made me fit again. It is the only thing that helped me and I want everybody to know about it. (Signed) JOHN PALLUDON, Clevelton, N. Y. You can get sure, prompt, permanent relief from constipation. Simply eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. Two tablespoonfuls daily, or in chronic cases, with every meal. Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN. It is nature's own way of cleaning the intestine. It is a bulk food which sweeps the system of constipation's poisons and stimulates normal, healthy action. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to be permanently effective, if eaten regularly, or your grocer returns the purchase price. Eat it with milk, cream, fruits, or try the recipes printed on the package. Made in Battle Creek, Michigan. Served in leading hotels and restaurants. Your grocer sells it.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By E. R. Waite, Secretary Shawnee, Okla., Board of Com-

That wide-awake business men never hesitate.
 That they know the men who hesitate never arrive.
 That they know the business that hesitates is often lost.
 That business men must be up and doing all the time.
 That they must be constantly originating new ideas and advertising plans and put them into effect.
 That by so doing they will produce improved business.
 That the right advertising all the time increases business.
 That good ideas increase business. Ideas do not hunt the business men; the business men have to think them up or hunt them up themselves.
 That many varieties of ideas are handed every business man, but the success of ideas depends on the decision of the business man.
 That the man who succeeds is not the man who waits for business, but is the man who makes up his mind to get it and then goes ahead and gets it.
 The better a business serves the public, the better business it will have.

British Submarine Sinks With Crew of 68

The British submarine monitor, M-1, is believed to have sunk off the Isle of Wight, England, with its entire crew of 68 officers and men aboard. Because of the great depth of water where the submarine is believed to have foundered the sub's crew seems destined for the same fate that overtook the American submarine S-51.

Dr. Blayne Issues Statement To Clear Up Misapprehension

In a communication to the editor of this newspaper, Dr. Lindsey Blayne, president of the College of Industrial Arts, requests publication of a statement to clear up any possible misapprehension. He writes:

To the Editor:

Mr. C. U. Connelley, a regent of C. I. A., has made public in the press of the state his reply to the observations of Mr. George Armistead of Houston, certified public accountant. Inasmuch as Mr. Connelley's reference to me might leave, unintentional though it might be, a wrong impression in the mind of the public, I feel that the following statement should be made, which I request that you publish.

1. The inference in Mr. Connelley's letter is that the annual audit was made by an auditor of my own selection. To avoid any charge of favoritism the same auditor was chosen (and with the written approval of the chairman of the board of regents) as was employed by President Bralley last year.

2. The audit was made at the same date as in all previous years, i. e., Aug. 31, the close of our fiscal year.

3. A further inference to be drawn from Mr. Connelley's letter is that the audit committee of the board should have had the auditing done. The fact is the board did not have an auditing committee until Sept. 15 of this year, a month after the annual audit of the college has always been begun.

4. Mr. Connelley further states that the committee has had the matter of an audit "under advisement and expects to meet for the purpose of discussing the matter and selecting some one to audit the accounts." Mr. Connelley seems to have overlooked the fact that the law requires the audit to be in the hands of the governor of the state by Nov. 1.

5. As reference was made to the maintenance of the president's car, I need only say that this has always been paid for since 1914 from the local funds of the college and was offered to me as an additional item of salary consideration before I accepted the call to the presidency. The expense of the president's car maintenance in previous administrations has run as high as $856.35 in one year and has never yet been questioned by previous boards of regents and has always been charged to the item of miscellaneous expense.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Going home pretty late, some nights ago, I happened to glance upward, toward about the 'steenth floor of a certain Washington skyscraper, and immediately my eye was caught by the peculiar twinkling of a lone light in an upper-story window. They were rapid winks, at slightly irregular intervals.

While no wire or wireless operator, due to past business activities I do know a little about the telegraph code—not enough to read it, but enough so that I recognized, in this winky-wink-wink-wink, something extraordinarily like Morse.

That, probably, is all I'd have thought about it, passing the same way a night or two later, I hadn't witnessed the phenomenon again. Moved by an undisciplined curiosity, I got a telegrapher friend to take a look.

'Twas even as I'd suspected.

Some third party was "S.O.S. ing" furiously for licker, and it must have been quite a large party, considering the amount and variety of refreshments it was ordering, from off in the darkness, toward Arlington.

THE Agriculture Department has been at great pains to tell the world that it has no objection to kissing. Why, you ask, should the department suppose anybody did suspect it of objecting? Because it received a whole stack of letters, accusing it of just that thing.

What happened was this. The department issued a bulletin declaring war on mistletoe, with Christmas so close at hand, the country evidently jumped largely to the conclusion that Secretary Jardine was launching an anti-osculation campaign. In reality, it appears, the bulletin was inspired by the forest service, which dislikes mistletoe solely on the ground that it kills trees.

6. As regards traveling expenses, Mr. Connelley asked for an explanation of this item and was furnished by our auditor with the names of the officers, instructors and representatives of the college whose traveling expenses were paid under this item. The item of "telegrams and telephones" included all departments of the college.

7. The concluding remark of Mr. Connelley that he desires that the books of C. I. A. be audited by a competent auditor not connected with the college, leaves the impression that Mr. Armistead is in no way connected with the College of Industrial Arts, was unknown to me before I became president, during the past year was president of the State Society of Certified Accountants and was chosen by the last legislature to audit the accounts of all the eleemosynary institutions of the state.

Very truly yours,
LINDSEY BLAYNE,
President, College of Industrial Arts,
Denton, Texas.

Abilene Eagles Win Strenuous Game From Eastland Mavericks

With the odds on first downs two in her favor, Eastland lost the most season game, Friday, to the Abilene Eagles by a score of 12 to 3. Expensive fumbles and "placing of her hits" by Abilene gave her the edge. The real features of the game were the exhibition of nerve and fighting spirit by Eastland's captain, Ed T. Cox, who notwithstanding his injuries recently incurred in an automobile accident, figured in every play of the game, and the development of a boy wonder in Captain Walker's kid brother of Abilene, a 128-pound player who starred at quarter during all of the game except the last two minutes of the first half, when, after making a 20-yard gain with a forward pass, he was taken out and Captain Walters put in to make the first touchdown for the Eagles. Matthews, Volney Day, Laffoon, Williamson, Kincaid and Smith featured in many hard-hitting, distance-making plays for the Mavericks. The Mavericks held the Eagles scoreless down to the very last of the first half after making the only score for the home team by a field goal in the first period. The game was clean and hard fought to the end and nearly a thousand enthusiastic fans stayed to see it all. The officials were Doc Scott of Stephenville, referee; Medley umpire; Morris, head line-man.

The Eastland pep squad did some fine exhibition work between halves, the Abilene squad functioning only informally but noisily. The game was a post-season affair between conference teams not pitted against each other before this year.

submitted to Secretary of War Davis today. "By the law of averages," Axton says, "every member of the military personnel attended church on an Army post thirteen times during the year and this report does not take into consideration officers and men who regularly attend civilian places of worship near their posts." The compiled statistics show 18,361 services conducted with a total attendance of 1,880,027, which is 550,554 in excess of the attendance in 1924. Axton attributes the increase to the deep personal concern of officers and particularly commanding officers and particularly commanding the moral and spiritual life of the members of their garrisons.

child. The chemist said this indicated the child had been fed chloroform with its milk. Mrs. Allen told the police she did not recall if she had prepared the bottle of milk on the night of the tragedy. The Allens said they believed the child had been smothered by burglars.

CARBON NEWS BRIEFS

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. CARBON, Nov. 21.—The farmers in this territory have been making good use of the fair weather during the past few days to harvest their peanuts and gather the cotton in their fields.

Development in the oil fields south and east of Carbon continues and there is no decrease in interest. Operators in the field east of town have announced that a number of new wells are to be started soon.

Misses Thelma and Lela Davis, who are teaching school at Caddo in Stephens county, spent last week-end with their homefolks here.

Jim Thurman and "Sip" Lowe of Hamlin were business visitors in Carbon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Daniels were called to Abilene Tuesday on account of the illness of their daughter, Mrs. Pearl Swancy.

GORMAN NEWS BRIEFS

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. GORMAN, Nov. 21.—Kirk and Brewer, Gorman oil operators, are planning to drill a well on the Jim Blackwell farm north of Gorman and have had rig material for that purpose hauled to the lease. This will be the second well to be drilled on the Blackwell tract, the first one being drilled during the early days of the "boom" and, though a producer, was shut in. It has always made more or less gas.

The fixtures formerly in the Gorman postoffice have been sold and shipped to Cross Plains where they were needed to take care of the increased business of the postoffice there occasioned by the oil boom in that section.

Mrs. Nettie J. Hardeman, 88, mother of Mrs. McCroan of this place died here Wednesday. Deceased, a native of Tennessee, had lived in this section for more than forty years. Her remains were buried in the Jewell cemetery.

Work has begun on the new office building being erected in Gorman by Drs. Geo. and Edwin Blackwell.

Cecil Cooner has resigned his position here and gone to his home at Rochester, Texas.

SARGOSSO SEAWAEEED USED TO MAKE ROOMS SOUND PROOF

By United Press. LONDON, Nov. 21.—Experiments have proved that seaweed, known as Zosteria Marina, which is found in large quantities in the Sargasso Sea, North Atlantic Ocean, will absorb sound.

Many conference rooms in new city offices and other rooms where silence is necessary are being ceiled with the material, which is dried and then placed between sheets of ordinary paper, forming a padding.

Sounds from the street coming into a room through the open windows are absorbed in the ceiling, without being audible in the room.

ARMY'S ATTENDANCE AT RELIGIOUS SERVICES GAINS

By United Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—A total of 500,000 more officers and enlisted men of the Army voluntarily attended services of worship at Army posts during the fiscal year 1925 than did during a similar period in 1924, according to the annual report of Col. John T. Axton, chief of Chaplains.

By United Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Grace A. Allen, 25, wife of a wealthy Chicago business man, was questioned throughout the night and until early this morning in connection with the death of her five-weeks-old baby. State's Attorney Robert E. Crow personally directed the examination, and later called in Dr. William E. Krohn, noted alienist, to observe Mrs. Allen. In another room, John A. Allen, her husband, was questioned. The body of the child buried two days, will be exhumed for another examination, it was announced. This decision was made today when the city chemist reported traces of chloroform in the vital organs of the
