Alienists Seeking To Learn Nature of Fox's Brain Storm

By United Press
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 14.—Scientists today were examining a small vial of fluid taken from the spinal column of Phil E. Fox, in an effort to establish that Fox killed W. S. Coburn, attorney for a rival faction in the Ku Klux Klan, in a fit of insanity. The operation was the same as used in the case of Harry K. Thaw a number of years ago and was performed by Dr. Lincoln Smith, family physician for Fox, and Dr. N. N. Owensby, alienist. The physicians decided on this course after three days of questioning Fox. Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Klan, issued a statement late yesterday in connection with the killing of Coburn by Fox in which he denies any knowledge of the motive behind Fox's act.

Committee Named To Draw Up Suitable Resolutions. Lawyers Determine To Form Permanent Organization.

The death of Judge William Mercer Key, chief justice of the Third court of civil appeals at Austin, as reported in the Daily Telegram, had the indirect result of creating the Eastland Bar association.

Growing out of a gathering of lawyers to pass resolutions of respect for Judge Key, father of Scott W. Key, leading Eastland attorney, came the move for a permanent bar association. This was formed immediately after the Key meeting. The lawyers gathered at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon on the call of H. P. Brelford and Earl Conner. The proceedings, as chronicled by T. J. Cunningham, acting secretary-treasurer, follow: "Meeting called to order by Senator H. P. Brelford at 2:15 p. m., Nov. 14, 1923, who was thereafter duly nominated and elected as chairman to preside over the meeting. After election, the chairman stated the object of the meeting, and a resolution was immediately offered and carried unanimously that a committee be appointed to draw up suitable resolutions to the life of Judge William Mercer Key, chief justice of the Third court of civil appeals, at Austin, whose death occurred at an early date Tuesday morning. A committee composed of Judge George L. Davenport, Frank A. Juddins and Marshall McCullough were appointed to draw up suitable resolutions upon the life and character of Judge Key. Upon motion, duly seconded, Senator Brelford was added to this committee.

"Upon proper motion, duly made and seconded, a resolution carried, recommending that an appropriate floral offering be sent to the home of Judge Key, in appreciation of his life and services to the state. T. J. Cunningham was elected treasurer for this meeting and contributions were heartily received for the expenditure on a suitable floral offering. "Upon adjournment of this meeting, the local bar of Eastland, organized a local bar association. Upon motion duly seconded, Senator H. P. Brelford was elected president of the association, and Scott W. Key was elected secretary-treasurer. "Upon motion, a committee composed of John D. McRae, Gib Calaway and Milburn McCarty, was duly elected by the meeting to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the organization. "Whereupon, the meeting was duly adjourned.

"LOVE" IS THEME OF ADDRESS TO RANGER CLUB

E. J. Davoren of Dallas Urges Hatred Be Banished From Heart.

"With your right hand on your heart and your left hand on your flag, say that I love my country more than myself." With this epitome, a masterly 15-minute dissertation on love was brought to a close by E. J. Davoren of Dallas last night in the Gholson hotel auditorium. Less than 75 people heard him because of the inclement weather, but when E. A. Ringold, chairman of the meeting, bade the hearers good-night, all swarmed around Davoren to congratulate him on his eloquent, but brief talk. Davoren was brought to Ranger by the Ranger club. He has an excellent command of English and his sentences were well rounded. His dissertation was based on a letter written by Thomas Jefferson to a young man in college in whom he had taken a paternal interest. In his letter he bade the young man to love his country, his God and his neighbors, and to dedicate his life to human principles. "Let me say that hate has no need," Davoren said. "Where there is a capacity for it there is an equal capacity for love. A good hater is a good lover. "Memories of your boyhood, memories of your girlhood were memories of love. We were not taught to ostracize those with whom we disagree. The first golden love was the love for our mother, the love for our father. Why should we permit this social system to change our love for others. "Communities that have lived in peace and harmony have become estranged because they can't understand the other man's worship." Davoren said he could not understand why persons who worship God in their way and are designated as ineligible for membership in a certain organization should be said to comprise a "political power." "These people form less than 20 per cent of the voting strength of America," he said. "There is a race of people whom this organization declares can not be 100 per cent American," he exclaimed. "I was raised among a community of them. I was the only Gentile, and I can say to you that I've never met a more human, more kind and more sympathetic race of people than they. "When yours and my ancestors were running around wild, eating nuts and grass, these people were worshipping God and making laws on which our principles of civilization are based." Coming down to the cessation of the World War hostilities, he said that American soldiers came home to find American people solidified, regardless of race, creed or color. "There were 21,000 soldiers of a religion called un-American buried in France," he said. "They are not 100 per cent American. If the Catholic boy from Wisconsin, the Methodist boy from Alabama, the Presbyterian boy from Mississippi could wake up now, I wonder what they would think of this strange doctrine the hater is trying to put over in our country? "But I have a forbearing confidence in the American people. This country has no room for a man with insidious propaganda who would have you join with bolshevism and alien machinations to destroy the foundations of our republic so firmly laid by Jefferson and his compatriots. Such a man should be thrust outside of the sanctuary where the stars and stripes are venerated. "There is one God over us all, one family circle to bind us together in bonds of patriotic love and one neighborhood that we love to call our nation."

Friedrich Wilhelm Says He Is Dumb In Relation To Politics

OELS, Silesia, Nov. 14.—Friedrich Wilhelm, former crown prince of Germany, declared today he is abstaining from having anything to do with the politics of his fatherland. In the first interview authorized since his return from his five years exile in Holland, he indicated he was following a policy of "hands off" in the turbulent political situation of his country. In opening his interview, he said: "Please don't ask me about politics. Don't press me for political utterances." The next moment, he opened a lively fire of questions. "How about the British elections?" he demanded eagerly. "Has Lloyd George a chance to win the premiership again?" The crown prince Cecilie stood with her arm linked affectionately through that of her husband. "I am very glad, indeed, that my husband is back," she said. This afternoon the former crown prince issued a statement, in which he declared that he would devote himself to his country, and "within the realm of my work, co-operate with the rebuilding of my fatherland, of whose elevation I am confident."

MILKMAN SHOT FATALLY WHILE LEAVING MILK

Former Weatherford Man Is Killed by Mistake When Making Deliveries.

DALLAS, Nov. 14.—Calvin B. Besse, 24, a milk wagon driver, was shot and fatally wounded by a local newspaper man, in the kitchen of Head's home early today. Head was released on his own recognizance after making a statement to the police. He said he had been awakened by a noise in the kitchen as if someone was moving about. Taking his revolver he went to the door and called on the person inside to come out. Receiving no answer, he said, he opened the door and saw a man with a flashlight in his hand. He fired one shot when the man started to raise his hand, the bullet striking Besse between the eyes. Head then found the man was the milkman, making his morning delivery. He called an ambulance and had Besse taken to a hospital, where he died a few hours later. Besse formerly lived in Weatherford, to which city the body will be taken for burial. He was married less than a year ago and his widow survives him. Head was notified to appear before the grand jury today. Head was released on $1,000 bond, following a charge of murder filed in justice court. Head appeared before the grand jury. No action will be taken by that body before the end of the week.

WALTON PROSECUTION CANNOT PROVE ONE CHARGE OF BRIBERY

By United Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 14.—Governor J. C. Walton was accused today by the house board of managers of having received a bribe of $6,000 in connection with a preparatory school at Tonkawa. It was charged by W. E. Disney before the senate court of impeachment that the governor was persuaded to approve that site and in return for which A. D. Snodgrass, a friend of Walton's, received from six citizens the sum in question. Disney said that the governor first asked for $10,000 for the concession but later that the sum was fixed at $6,000. The prosecution admitted that it could not actually prove that the governor accepted the money, but would present a circumstantial case that Walton and Snodgrass could not deny in receiving the money. Walton won a victory today when the senate court by a vote of 21 to 18 decided that he should be tried first at this time on charges in connection with the proclamation of martial law.

AUTOMOBILES AND PROHIBITION.

Is the rapid increase in the number and popularity of the automobile due in any part to prohibition? Automobiles were in use for a number of years before the country went dry but the ratio of increase during those years was nowhere near what it has been since prohibition went into effect.

There are in Ohio enough automobiles to carry the entire population with an average of five persons in each machine. Father Ohio therefore can get out the family flier and take the entire family a ride without over-crowding.

The growth in the number of automobiles in Ohio has been far out of proportion to the growth of the population. It has been steady ever since 1917 with the exception that in 1919 just at the close of the war, it dropped slightly because at that time there was a great tendency on the part of the people to make their old cars do and to invest their money in war savings stamps and liberty bonds.

Nobody will contend that prohibition alone is responsible for the large increase of the number of machines in Ohio, but it is a fact that the percentage of increase has been very heavy since prohibition went into effect. Ohio, which has been gradually drying up for several years, went dry by state-wide prohibition, May 27, 1919—about five weeks before complete war-time prohibition went into effect.

In 1917 the last complete wet year in the United States, Ohio had 342,500 passenger cars and trucks. In 1918 the war-time food control bill was passed which stopped the manufacture of distilled liquors. Other legislation closed up a great many saloons around army camps and prohibited the sale of liquor to soldiers so that there was some stride in 1918. Notice that the number of cars and trucks rose to 514,150.

In 1919 the total number was 511,300. In 1920 there were 537,342 passenger cars and trucks. In 1921 there were 619,133. National as well as state prohibition had gone into effect at that time. In 1921 Ohio had 625,912 passenger cars and 98,591 trucks, a total of 724,503. In 1922 the passenger cars numbered 740,886 and the trucks 117,857, making a total of 858,743.

As this is being written, Oct. 1, the licenses already issued added to those which the secretary of state, T. H. Brown, estimates will be issued, will make for Ohio 889,000 passenger cars and 147,000 trucks—a total of 1,036,000. This number is three times as many as the total in 1917 and twice as many as in 1918. Practically every working man in Ohio owns his car and drives it to work.

This is a nation composed, theoretically, of common people * * * but just ask any particular individual if he is common.—New York Tribune.

Makes Heatless Light by Harnessing Electrons

After two years of experimenting to develop bottled, heatless light, an eastern inventor has announced discoveries that may result in the harnessing of almost limitless power for the use of mankind. He claims that he has succeeded in inventing a tube, not unlike the ordinary electric bulb, that will give 100 candle-power continuously for three years without connecting wires, batteries, or need of renewals.

It is known that every bit of rock, piece of steel, or even a penny is a colossal reservoir of energy in the form of electrons, that are constantly moving at a speed of from 10,000 to 160,000 miles a second. In his search for a force that would release this energy and at the same time control it, this inventor developed a 5,000,000 volt flash of lightning, a yard in diameter, which jumped a gap of 37 feet and was maintained for 31 seconds.

The jolt from the electricity, he says, started a series of "explosions" in the secret material composing the filaments of the lights. But, instead of occurring all at one time, the smash-ups are spread over a period of years, according to the amount of substance used in the bulbs. Special and highly complicated apparatus was used to draw electricity from the air to capture and harness the current used in developing "cold" light. The illustration shows some of this intricate apparatus in his laboratory.

In his experiments, the inventor said that he had made profound changes in the composition of the filaments inside the lights by rubbing the bulbs with green leaves. Also, he says, he was puffed up like a balloon and several pounds were added to his weight by the electrons that entered his system while experimenting in his laboratory.

Easily Made Waterwheel for Running Small Dynamo

By using a light waterwheel of the type illustrated, where sufficient water current is available for turning it, the energy of the flowing water can be transformed and used for practical purposes.

The waterwheel can be made by attaching a number of tin cans, of suitable size, on the felloe of a discarded buggy wheel, and fastening the wheel, together with a pulley, on a shaft, that is supported by a wooden frame. The pulleys on the waterwheel and dynamo must be so proportioned in size that it will be possible to revolve the armature at its rated r. p. m., in order to obtain the voltage and amperage that the dynamo is capable of producing.

By concentrating the water current in a narrow channel, as shown, a greater force will be exerted on the waterwheel.

Automatic Accelerator for Sawing Outfit

On circular saws it is often necessary to speed up the engine in order to cut heavy wood, but it is, of course, not necessary to have the engine running so fast while no wood is being cut. To take care of the speed variations an automatic accelerator can be improvised to work in connection with the swing table; when the latter is swung forward the speed of the engine is increased considerably, and when brought back again the engine will idle down. The accelerator consists of a length of flexible wire, one end of which is attached to the leg of the swing table and the other end to the arm of the throttle valve on the carburetor. A large coil spring is connected to the leg of the swing table and the end of the skid so that the table will be pulled back as soon as pressure against it is released. A small coil spring is also used to pull the throttle valve back to the closed position when the wire is released. The throttle valve is not closed entirely but kept open a trifle by the idling screw.

There was a decrease in the birth rate in the United States last year and an increase in the death rate, according to recent government figures. The number of births dropped from 24.3 in a 1,000 population in 1921 to 22.7 in 1922, and death increased from 11.7 to 11.9.

BACK IN FRENCH POLITICS IN DRAMATIC FASHION

Former Premier Joseph Caillaux

exiled from Paris and other sections of France for his alleged trafficking with the enemy in the World war, his followers at a banquet in Denain, has re-entered French politics in dramatic fashion. Addressing 400 of one of the few towns he can enter, he planned a definite program for the left wing of the chamber of deputies, when the latter shall oppose Premier Poincaré at the coming elections. France, he said, was entitled to reparations and security from Germany, but that under the Poincaré plan she would get neither.

Mrs. Horstman, No. 1, E. F. Horstman & Mrs. Horstman, No. 2

When E. F. Horstman, wealthy Chicago broker, was arrested on a charge of bigamy, neither of his wives would prosecute him. Both declared he had been a loving husband and had provided well for them, in separate establishments. Both begged for his release, but the state's attorney refused, declaring he would prosecute Horstman himself. Wife No. 2 put up $2,000 bail to secure his release.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LATE CHARLES HUGHES

Funeral services for the late Charles Hughes were conducted by the Rev. W. J. Nelson of the Baptist church. A male choir, composed of Messrs. E. G. Schreck, W. K. Jackson and G. M. Johnson of the Prairie company, J. T. McWilliams, W. H. Hearne and J. A. Coplen rendered "Nearer My God to Thee," at the services at the house, and "Shall We Gather at the River," at the grave.

Charles Hughes, born March 5, 1858, died Nov. 11, 1923. He was born in Quincy, Ill.

In his twenty-seventh year, Mr. Hughes moved from Illinois to Lafayette county, Mo. After a several years' residence he sought new fortunes in Gonzales county, Texas, maintaining his home there for 32 years.

Again the wanderlust seized Mr. Hughes, and he located in Pearl, N. M., where he lived until the death of his wife, and made his home with his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Mahaffey, of Eastland, Texas, and his son, C. E. Hughes, of Pearl, N. M., between whom he divided his time.

Mr. Hughes was married to Mrs. Catherine Jeffers in 1869, who died the year succeeding. In 1871 he was married to Miss Lucy J. Barron, who passed away Aug. 2, 1918. To this last union five children were born, two dying in infancy. The survivors are 18 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and three children, Mrs. C. H. Mahaffey, wife of the trusted employe of the Prairie company, C. E. Hughes of Pearl, N. M., and Mrs. E. D. Ryan of the same city.

The son arrived in Eastland in time to attend the funeral services of his father, which were held at the family residence of Mr. Mahaffey on South Halbryan street at 10 o'clock Monday morning. It was fitting that this old soldier should answer the Roll Call on Armistice day. During his life he was a devoted member of the Missionary Baptist church, his conversion dating back from boyhood days.

The family expresses thanks to those who assisted them in their hour of bereavement and especially to J. W. Freeman for his many kind offices.

The death of the late Mr. Hughes was a shock to his daughter and family, who found him dead in his bed Sunday morning, having passed away peacefully during the night.

The new biscuit and cake flour which bears the familiar name of Aunt Jemima, is finding ready favor with all good housekeepers and cooks who know by experience what that name stands for.

Now that home-makers are so busy with the many calls which come to all women in these days, the need for quick cooking is often felt, and this flour, which can be used for biscuits, cakes and pastry, has become a necessity in every household of the modern type.

Few women have the time or care to make their own loaves of bread and more of them are turning to hot breads and light cakes all the time. There are not many flours on the market which can be used so satisfactorily for these quick breads and cakes as Aunt Jemima flour, and the wise housekeepers are ordering and using it freely since its introduction to this market. Local grocers are well supplied and it is promised that this will soon be one of the most popular flours on the market.

STEPHENVILLE NOTIFIED BY LEAGUE TO MEET RANGER ELEVEN THIS WEEK FOR A TEST OF SECTIONAL STRENGTH

Stephenville, one of the three undefeated high school football teams in section three of the State Interscholastic league, has been notified by Roy B. Henderson, director of the league, to meet Ranger high this week for a test game, according to a news story in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram today.

Stephenville is considered a weak contender in the league officials. The team has met practically no strong teams in this section, it is said.

J. W. Overall, in charge of the schedule, and other executive matters bearing on athletics at the Ranger High said today that Stephenville will be met Saturday here if Henderson succeeds in arranging the game. He has put the scheduling of the game up to Henderson. If the contest is arranged, the Big Spring game will be necessarily cancelled.

Turned Ranger Down.

A wire was sent to Henderson by Overall today containing the information that the Ranger team wanted to meet Stephenville here on Oct. 13 when both teams had open dates but the latter turned the offer down. Overall said in the event the game is arranged, he will insist on it being played in Ranger.

If Big Spring comes here the game will be on Saturday. Originally scheduled for Friday, it was changed to Saturday because of the important Abilene-Cisco battle Friday at Cisco when the sectional championship will probably be decided. Should Stephenville defeat Ranger, she will claim the privilege of meeting the winner of the Cisco-Abilene tussle.

There are still 25 teams undefeated in the state league. Championships of half of the league have been decided; in seven other sections only two teams remain while in section three, Abilene, Cisco and Stephenville have clean records.

All sectional titles are to be decided this week. No intersectional games will be played until next week, according to Henderson.

Following are the teams which have already won the championship of their section: Amarillo, section one; Fort Stockton, section seven;

Lampasas, section eight, Livingston, section 10; Sabinal, section 11; Granger, section 12; Calvert, section 13, and Corpus Christi, section 16.

Unless there are a large number of tie games the final game will be played about the middle of December.

SIMMONS FOOTBALL PLAYER WEARS EYEGASSES IN GAME

By United Press.

ABILENE, Nov. 14.—Simmons college here offers the unusual sight of a bespeckled football player.

Guy Caldwell, of Abilene, 150-pounder of the Cowboy's second team has this distinction.

Determined that he would not let the handicap of weak eyes deter him from playing the game, Caldwell had a pair of special glasses made. They are constructed with a metal frame and gauze wire into which the lenses fit. A blow tends to knock the lens from the wire rather than break them.

Coach Hays of the Cowboys predicts a brilliant football future for the only "four-eyed" griddier in the Y. I. A.

CAPTURES MEXICAN EAGLE.

VALLEW VIEW, Texas, Nov. 14.—Tommy Roane, youth residing a few miles east of here is the proud possessor of a giant Mexican eagle, captured by him near here several days ago.

The bird was landed after it had been slightly wounded by a shot from Tommy's gun. It measures six feet and three inches from tip to tip and weighs 25 pounds.

End Communist riots in Berlin.

Strawn Game Must Stand As Played

The game played between Ranger and Strawn, Sept. 28, must stand as played.

This was the decision of the executive committee of the State Interscholastic league, according to a letter received from Roy Henderson, secretary of the league, by R. N. Sandlin, football coach at the high school.

"The result of the game is a matter of record," the letter said, "which cannot be thrown out of consideration."

Henderson assured Sandlin his presentation of his case made a very good impression upon the committee, but he regretted that "we were unable to grant your request."

The letter was written last Friday, the day following Sandlin's appearance before the committee at Austin.

Since then, Cisco has defeated Ranger by a small score. The game was protested, because the local high school authorities scheduled the game under non-interscholastic rules.

EASTLAND ENJOYS GREENWICH VILLAGE SYNCOPATERS

Eastland theatregoers really have enjoyed Stewart's Greenwich Village Syncopatens, who will close a three-day engagement, Wednesday night, at the Connellee. The box office, old reliable criterion and court of last resort of dramatic criticism has proved the Eastland appearance of this aggregation to be a success.

It is seldom that West Texas gets a chance to see a metropolitan troupe of this character and the experiment has demonstrated that Eastland is a real "show town."

The star of the performance is Laura Stewart, soon shouter extraordinary, late of the Imperial Russian ballet Paul Moss, violinist and others. The hit of the performance is the song "Barney Google." L. G. Hicks and Stewart Cash manage the show.

DISMISSAL DAY IN COUNTY COURT AT LAW SET FOR THURSDAY

At Thursday's sitting, the docket will be cleared of all this business and thus many old cases will be disposed of. It is important that all interested persons, the principals and their attorneys be present in the county court-at-law on this day.

'HONEST BILL OF OLIVE HILL' MADE GOVERNOR

Gov. W. J. Fields

Main Drag Stuff

Beginning Celebration of Armistice Day the Wrong Way. It Is Hard to Catch Up; Trip to Thurber Is Again Postponed; Plenty Doing in Ranger.

As far as we are personally concerned the celebration of Armistice Day was mostly a perfect failure. In accordance with the usage and customs of Armistice Day, information which we have gained by patient study and practice, the first thing to do on this great day is to sleep until noon.

After sleeping from midnight until noon the celebrator is usually hungry. His first pleasure is eating ham, eggs, bacon, hot cakes, small steak, corn flakes, shredded alfalfa, and drinking two or three cups of java or some other sort to make a light but sustaining meal.

The Ranger celebrator discovered that there was a football game in Strawn and another in Eastland. Many picked the Strawn football game. Strawn is right close to Thurber and if you are acquainted with the mayor there or some of his assistants, it is only necessary to get the proper authority from him and he'll commission any number of his friends to become mayors of Strawn or any other little town you may mention.

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known by the drug trade as "Calotabs."

NR To-NIGHT Tomorrow Alright. NR A vegetable aperient, adds tone and vigor to the digestive and eliminative system, improves the appetite, relieves Sick Headache and Biliousness, corrects Constipation.

they never got very far in the usurpation of our mayor. His cruel minions were ever on the look out to throw those kind of guys in the bastle for at least a night's rest.

After the game, which was intensely interesting and exciting, a few of the celebrators repaired to the dance in Thurber. Repaired means to went or to, not to, not to be patched up, which some of the celebrators are getting this morning.

We wanted to go to this Thurber party in the worst way possible so as to meet the mayor and dance a little. Haven't never met that mayor yet and suppose he is a regular bimbo. Figured on having enough money saved out from writing this stuff by yesterday to purchase our new Cadillac lemonsen. Could have bought lots of other kinds of cars, but have set the mark at a Cadillac and can't be influenced in any other direction.

Wanting to go to Thurber in the worst way possible, Jimmy McLean, who is connected to the Oil Belt Motor company, and yours truly plotted on transportation all day. We rammed into several good prospects, but these chances eventually fell through. Jimmy is selling Studebakers but it don't do us no good.

Did break the monotony of the day by slipping into the Lamb theatre and watching the "Gold Diggers" dig around a bit. Allus figured gold diggers as rough looking birds with picks and shovels, but these miners was gals who looked pretty keen.

Wonderful prize fight, too, that we missed. Just like a ball game, one, two, three, three outs.

KLAN ATTORNEY SLAIN BY KLAN EDITOR

Mrs. M. A. Holbrook & Capt. W. S. Coburn

In the presence of his stenographer, Mrs. M. A. Holbrook, Captain William S. Coburn, attorney for the Simmons faction of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was shot to death in his office in the Atlanta Trust company building, Atlanta, Ga., by Phillip E. Fox, publicity director for the Evans faction and editor of the "Knight-Hawk," its official organ.

Why Girls Are not prettier—why women grow old

I was a plain girl, but I made myself a famous beauty. I have reached the age of 62, but I keep my youthful looks. Countless young girls envy my hair and my complexion.

No ordinary beauty helps ever did, or ever will, bring such results to women. I searched the world for the best helps in existence. I spent a fortune to obtain them. To them I owe all that beauty and perennial youth have meant in my career.

Now I have placed those identical helps at your call. To girls they mean multiplied beauty, to women continued youth. I urge you to let them bring to you what they brought to me.

The great mistakes Millions of women seeking beauty and youth use unscientific helps. Now I bring you the best helps in existence.

Scientific creams Women use creams which no great expert in the world could sanction. I made a world-wide search to get the best creams in existence.

MRS. DODSON ENTERTAINS ST. FRANCIS GUILD

Despite the rainy day, there was a good attendance of the St. Francis Altar Guild of the Catholic church at the meeting Tuesday, postponed from preceding day, and entertained by Mrs. L. V. Dodson.

During the business session conducted by the president of the organization, Mrs. D. P. Leary, plans were settled for the Guild bazaar and food sale, to be conducted in the Chamber of Commerce, December 8, all day.

The social feature of the meeting, a clever little contest, was won by Mrs. James H. Cheatham, rewarded with a hand-embroidered guest towel.

Dainty refreshments of hot chocolate with whipped cream, cake and salted nuts were served by Mrs. Dodson at 5 o'clock.

Members attending, Meses. George Donnelly, Eimer, Wilkins, Cheatham, McLaughlin, D. P. Leary, Lorenz, Miss Maloney, Miss Finnegan, and hostess, Mrs. Dodson.
Adjourned to two weeks hence.

CANCELS TUESDAY MEETING.

The Central Parent-Teacher association cancelled their business session, to have been held yesterday afternoon, when the four sections were slated for their monthly reports, and will not convene until Tuesday, Nov. 27, when the junior section will be in charge and present a program under direction of Mrs. C. A. Martin, chairman, in the high school auditorium.

On account of yesterday's continuous rain several other affairs were also cancelled.

JUNIOR RED CROSS HEALTH WORK IN THE SCHOOLS.

Miss Ulala Howard, county superintendent of schools, after a visit to the rural schools, is enthusiastic over the work of the Eastland County Junior Red Cross chairman, Mrs. J. B. Nunn, who introduced the Red Cross health work in the rural schools adjacent to Eastland. The children are much pleased with the new work.

MRS. ASHE HONORED BY JUST-A-MERE-CLUB

Mrs. Eriol Conner was hostess to the Just-a-Mere-Club and a few guests, non-members, the club and hostess honoring with this special meeting a former member, now Mrs. Roy Ashe, of Clarksburg, W. Va., who has been the recipient of many informal attentions during this, her first visit to Eastland, since her marriage, less than a year ago.

The handsome Conner residence on South Seaman street was aglow with cheerful lights, shutting out the rainy day of Tuesday. Bouquets of white 'mums and roses made the handsome drawing room doubly attractive.

Four tables, uniform in coverings of black embroidered satin, were occupied at auction by the guests, Mrs. Roy Ashe, honoree, and Meses. A. H. Johnson, Wilber, John D. McRae, C. H. Carter, George A. Davison, W. H. Taylor and W. K. Jackson; and club members attending, Meses. Walter I. Clark, C. R. Starnes, Frank Day, Alex Clarke, Milburn McCarty, W. E.

Chaney, W. K. Hyer, and president of the club, Mrs. M. Paul Martin.

High score club favor, a pair of decorated candles, was awarded Mrs. Martin. Cut favor, a Japanese ornament, "See no evil, hear no evil, think no evil," fell to Mrs. Frank Day.

The guest favor, presented by the hostess to Mrs. Ashe, was a handsome embroidered antimacassar in Old English style.

The club presented Mrs. Ashe a pair of beautiful jet and steel slipper buckles, lined with satin.

The hostess served a delicious five o'clock luncheon, comprising creamed oysters and mushrooms in patties, with potato flakes, cheese sticks, bread and butter sandwiches, pickles, chocolate wafers and coffee with whipped cream.

An informal visit was enjoyed with Mrs. Ashe, after the tea hour.

The many minor appointments of this informal club meeting suggested Armistice Day.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Walter I. Clarke, Friday, November 23, at 2:30 p. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH CIRCLES UNABLE TO HOLD MEETINGS.

No reports were received from the Central or West circles of the W. M. U. of the Baptist church, indicating the impossibility of meeting with the assigned hostesses on unmacadamized streets, the rainy day and mud preventing attendance.

Mmes. Carl Springer, Eugene Whitehurst and W. S. Poe braved the storm and represented the South circle with Mrs. A. T. Muller as hostess. Several business plans for the good of the circle were discussed, and the lesson, "In Royal Service," was conducted by Mrs. Poe.

The W. M. U. will meet in regular monthly business session in the church next Monday at 2:30 p. m.

MRS. TOWNSEND HEARS OF BROTHER'S ILLNESS.

Mrs. E. Roy Townsend has been apprised of the dangerous illness of the husband of her only sister, at the family home in Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. Austin L. North, stricken with double pneumonia a few days ago, Mrs. Townsend is kept informed by daily telegram of her brother-in-law's condition.

MRS. NELLIS TO SPEND CHRISTMAS IN OLD HOME.

Mrs. J. A. Nellis, who, with her husband, are Harwood hotel residents, left Monday for her old family home in Smithport, Pa., to visit relatives until after the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Nellis maintain their home there, though they are in Eastland much of the time in interest of Mr. Nellis' work in connection with his partnership with Webb F. Ely in the operation of the Miller lease.

CIVIC LEAGUE TO URGE "GOLDEN RULE" SUNDAY

The international "Golden Rule Sunday," December 2, the proper observance of which means the protection and saving of lives of tens of thousands of little children, dependent upon charity, and also means the expression of the spirit of international cooperation and altruism, a dominant characteristic of the womanhood of America will be urged by the Civic League of Eastland for observance.

The contributions resulting from

SHE "GETS EVEN" WITH ARRESTING POLICEMAN

Mr. & Mrs. Walter Meyer

When Miss Margaret Sterba, daughter of a wealthy New York manufacturer, speeded her racing car in downtown New York, Motorcycle Policeman Walter J. Meyer gave her a summons. In traffic court the next day she paid a fine of $25 and hissed at Meyer: "I'll get even with you, Mr. Police, if it takes a lifetime. You did this and you'd better watch out!" She visited his beat the next day to repeat the threat. Meyer grew apologetic, and an argument ensued. Well, you know how it is. Miss Sterba got even. She married Meyer, with Papa Sterba and Papa Meyer as the witnesses.

The plans for this day should be sent to the Near East Relief headquarters, 151 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The chairman of the national women's committee on Near East relief, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, announces that as chairman of the committee, attention is called to the resolution prepared and presented by the special committee, Dr. Mary E. Wooley, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, and Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, unanimously adopted at the meeting of the national women's committee on October 13.

The Civic League is in receipt of a personal communication from Mrs. Pennybacker, through its president, asking that this matter be taken before the league and members urged to observe Golden Rule Sunday. Also that other women's organizations in the city be approached and asked to arrange by mutual agreement a concerted plan for bringing this most appropriate observance to the attention of leaders of the city, with a view for the largest possible organized cooperative observance of the day.

The program, in brief, is all persons, disposed to make practical application of the Golden Rule, provide for their Sunday dinner on December 2, the same menu that is approved and provided for at least fifty thousand children in Near East relief orphanages. And the difference between cost of the usual Sunday dinner and the orphanage menu be given as a contribution and thank offering for the buying of food for the children are all under 10 years of age; 81 per cent are under 14 years, and 10 per cent under 12. They are wholly dependent upon charity.

If to the savings in food supplies, there could be added a further saving of one day's bill for cigars, cigarettes, candies, perfumes, face powders, rouge and parties, and perhaps the cost of gas for an auto ride, several dinners could be furnished for 100,000 orphans or more of the Near East, who never know what an auto ride is and certainly know nothing of the luxuries mentioned.

The Golden Rule dinner will be one of the many topics to be disposed of at the Civic League meeting today.
