The important point, however, is this. Whatever truth emerges at the end of the inquiries, whether the President is vindicated or brought down, the whole business is being handled and exploited in a way calculated to do the most, not the least, lasting damage to America and to the true interests of its people.

Mr. Nixon's enemies, of course, are saying smugly that it is his handling of the affair that is doing all the damage; but even a cursory study of the American Press coverage makes it clear that this is not true. They are out to destroy him, and they do not seem to care who or what suffers in the process.

Of course I do not know what, if anything, the President has to hide. But at this critical juncture for both the American economy and his own foreign policy, he carries a burden of responsibility that must make him hesitate to become personally involved too deeply in the comparative irrelevancy of the Watergate inquiries. Any responsible householder is more concerned about an imminent threat to the fabric of his building than about a temporary smell in the drains.

You would have thought that any educated American could foresee the desperate consequences of a major constitutional crisis at this time. And that any responsible commentator over here would hesitate before light-heartedly handing out more ammunition to America's enemies in this country. Yet the B.B.C. seems to be positively reeling in it.

Why have the B.B.C. — and indeed ITV — news and current affairs men been playing up the Watergate business so assiduously? They cannot really believe that the British public find it all that riveting.

They, like their American counterparts, seem to be actuated by a compulsive hatred of Mr. Nixon. Everything is slanted against him. Often they refer to him contemptuously just as "Nixon" — a familiarity they would never resort to with, say, Mr. Brezhnev or General Amin.

Mexican Fiesta Party

A Mexican fiesta party is fun to give and guests always enjoy the gay, lighthearted mood that goes with a fiesta. This is a good party for the outdoors and Mexican decorations are both inexpensive and colorful. Use brightly colored tablecloths and paper flowers for a big, splashy effect. There are also paper plates available in colorful designs which are decorative and also will cut down on your clean-up problems.

You might even have one of the Mexican pinatas hanging. For those of you unfamiliar with the pinata, this is a big clay pot covered with cardboard and tissue paper and shaped like an animal, flower or any number of things. This clay pot is filled with fruits, candies and small unbreakable gifts and hung from a tree limb. Each guest is blindfolded and given a stick to break the pinata while the other guests try to swing it out of his reach. When someone finally breaks the pinata there is a shower of party favors. These are generally used for children's parties but we think it would be fun for any age group.

Suggest your guests wear Mexican-type apparel to fit the theme of your party. The boys might wear white pants and perhaps they can devise some sort of serapes, sombreros or even a fake mustache. The girls might wear ruffled blouses and full Mexican-type skirts. Invitations for your party might read, "Come South of the Border to the Hacienda of (Last Name). Bring your guitar or any other type of instrument to add to the festivities. Prizes for all!" Address your invitations as Senor for the boys and Senorita for the girls.

You'll want your menu to be typical of Mexico and the main ingredients of almost any Mexican food includes tomatoes, chili peppers and corn. Mexican food was derived from the Aztecs or Spaniards. In fact, did you know that the Spaniards were responsible for introducing eggs from the domestic hen as food? Corn, too, plays a very large part in Mexican cookery as it forms the basis for tortillas, tamales, tacos and all the familiar Mexican foods. Tortillas, we are told are considered a type of bread for Mexico. Tacos are small tortillas which have been filled with various foods, then rolled or folded with the filling.

Tacos, which have been called the Mexican sandwich, would be a good choice for your party menu. They are not difficult and can be made in quantities to feed large groups. You will want to make a meat filling for the taco shells and then have small bowls of shredded lettuce, cheese and chopped tomatoes for the guests to add to the taco filling. So, cook up a batch of tacos and invite the gang in for a fiesta.

TODAY'S TACOS

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 to 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 10 or 12 taco shells
- 2 medium tomatoes, seeded, chopped and drained
- Shredded lettuce
- 1 8-ounce package shredded cheddar cheese

Cook beef, onion and garlic till tender and lightly browned in Magnalite square skillet. Drain off excess fat; add salt and chili powder. To serve, spoon meat mixture into taco shells; top with chopped tomato, shredded lettuce and cheese. Makes 10 to 12 tacos.

SCRAMBLED EGGS CORTEZ

- 8 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons butter

Break eggs into bowl; add milk and seasonings. Mix with fork, stirring thoroughly for a uniform color. Heat butter in Magnalite omelet pan over medium heat. Pour egg mixture into Magnalite pan. As mixture begins to set at bottom and side, gently lift cooked portions with spatula allowing uncooked portion to flow to bottom. Cook until eggs are thickened throughout but still moist, 3 to 5 minutes. Arrange eggs on serving platter; spoon tomato sauce over top.

TOMATO SAUCE

- 1/4 cup minced green pepper
- 1/4 cup minced onion
- 2 teaspoons butter or margarine
- 1 can (15 ounces) tomato sauce with tomato bits
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- Dash cayenne red pepper

In small Magnalite saucepan; cook and stir green pepper and onion in butter over low heat until onion is tender. Stir in tomato sauce, sugar and seasonings. Simmer 10 minutes or until sauce is thickened; keep warm over low heat. Makes 4 servings.

The Mona Lisa was once stolen from the Louvre Museum in Paris—and wasn't recovered for more than two years.

Leave Limbs Out Of Trash

Janie Bowery, Farwell City clerk, cautions Farwell residents about putting tree limbs and grass cuttings in their trash barrels. She says the weight of these makes the barrels hard to handle.

Residents are urged to put their tree limbs and grass cuttings next to their barrels. Their regular trash and the tree limbs and grass cuttings will be picked up separately.

Never transfer hazardous substances to soda bottles or jars where they might be identified improperly.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By R. MACK HEALD
County Agent

In haste to get grain sorghum planted after a late harvest and wet spring, many High Plains farmers skipped the pre-plant or pre-emergence applications of herbicides used for controlling weeds. These fields will now need careful attention.

Under these circumstances, what is the farmer's best approach? Mechanical methods such as cultivation or knifing will help, but weeds left in the drill row are the real problem.

The weeds can be cleaned out by hoeing, but this method is costly. The next best method is with timely and precise post-emergence applications of herbicides.

For small careless weeds (less than one and a half inches), atrazine (AATrex) is recommended. The rate depends on the soil type and is specified on the chemical label. Usually, the rate is about one and a half pounds for these small weeds.

For larger careless weeds and small annual grasses, a higher rate of atrazine (up to two and a half pounds per acre) plus one gallon per acre of ag oil is needed to get control.

Even with this higher rate, careless weeds more than four inches tall and even small annual grasses may not be controlled, especially if they are moisture-stressed at the time of application.

Atrazine is capable of killing weeds that germinate after it is applied. A timely rain or incorporation with a rolling cultivator within two days after application will increase the residual effectiveness of the herbicide.

Although atrazine generally provides effective post-emergence weed control, the chemical has some limitations. First, it persists in the soil for long periods of time, and only sorghum and corn can be grown the following year. Second, atrazine should not be used on sandy or loamy sand soils because serious crop injury can result. And third, sorghum must be at least six inches tall before over-the-top atrazine treatments can be applied.

Careless weeds that emerge after late irrigations and which are less than two inches tall can be controlled with post-emergence directed sprays of Karmex. Applications of two-tenths to four-tenths pounds per acre should be made using 20 to 40 gallons of water containing one-half of one percent surfactant. Sorghum should be at least 15 inches tall. This is an inexpensive treatment which provides excellent weed control and leaves no residues which might damage next year's crops.

Heavy infestations of grassy weeds such as Johnsongrass, nutgrass, and watergrass can not be controlled in sorghums with the available herbicides. However, lighter infestations of Johnsongrass and nutgrass can be spot-treated with MSMA. Watergrass which e-

SWCD Suggests Ideas For Pheasant Nesting

Wheat harvest is upon us and it is time to consider pheasant nesting habits. The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District and Jack Patterson are very much concerned with providing the best nesting habitat possible.

As Patterson has said before, the best nesting is in wheat fields and in wheat stubble.

Fence rows are frequently used by pheasants for nesting, but the fence row is a natural trail for varmints which disturb the nesting pheasant.

The wheat field furnishes good cover and the shattered grain furnishes good food.

"We have one of the best pheasant crops in years," according to Patterson. "We can improve on 'the best' by furnishing the needed cover and food for nesting," he added.

The Parmer County SWCD wants to encourage each wheat farmer to leave his wheat stubble as long as possible for good pheasant nesting habitat.

Area Resident Buried

Funeral services for Mrs. Coline May Rucker, 90, a former Bellview, N.M., resident, were Friday, June 15, in Trinity United Methodist Church in Clovis, with Rev. Clyde R. Stanfield of Clovis and Rev. W. T. Perry of Farwell officiating.

Burial was in Mission Garden of Memories Cemetery in Clovis under the direction of Steed-Todd Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Rex Nelson, Johnnie Rucker, Paul Whatley, Eddie Teeter, C. T. Rucker and Rhodes Irby.

Mrs. Rucker died Thursday, June 14, at Kings Manor in Hereford, where she had resided for 10 years. She had moved to Bellview from Lockney, Tex., in 1939 and then later moved to Hereford. She was a member of the Grady Methodist Church.

Survivors include three sons, W. Gibbs Rucker of Bellview, Raymond Rucker of Lockney and John Allman of Richardson, Tex.; two daughters, Mrs.

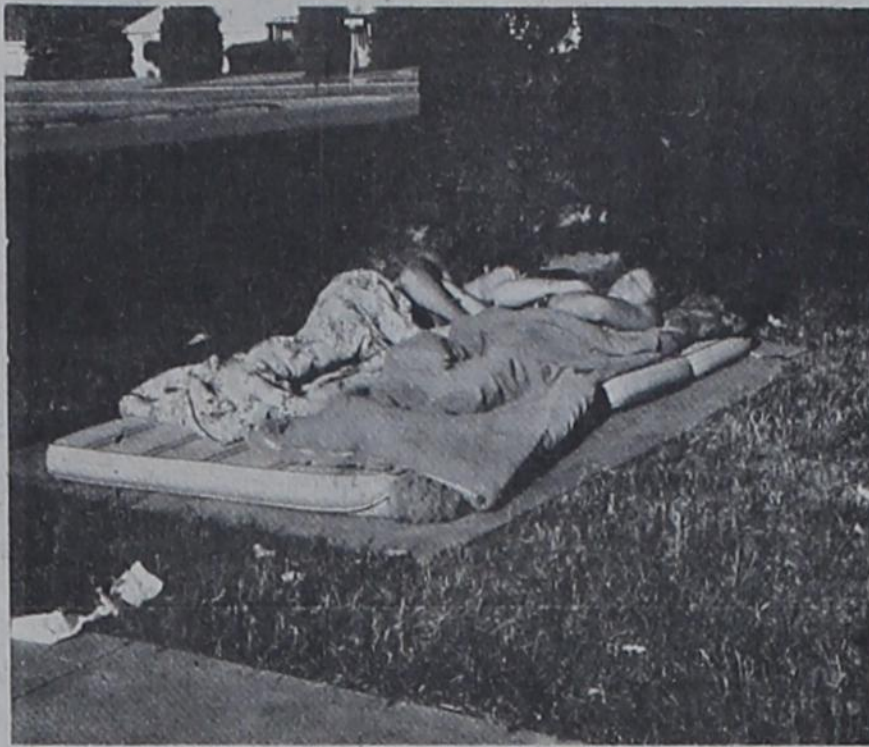

Jack Nelson of Friona and Mrs. Ray Whatley of Clovis; 10 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Rucker was preceded in death by her husband, John S., who died in 1948.

Elections, Discussions Important At Boys State

by Dwayne Kelley and Eugene Wallace

EDITOR'S NOTE -- Two Texico High School students, Dwayne Kelley and Eugene Wallace, returned home June 8 from attending New Mexico Boys State on the campus of New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell. They were sponsored on the trip by Texico-Farwell Lions Club. We took a bus on June 2 from Clovis with boys from Clovis, Portales, Grady, Elida and Melrose to Boys State at Roswell. On the first day we spent most of our time getting organized and meeting in general assemblies.

of Roswell, the department commander of the American Legion and the governor of New Mexico Boys State.

On the second day we had a flag raising ceremony and chapel services which we had every day after that. A general assembly was called and Director Al Ortiz explained the city government. City campaigns began and we had a session on law enforcement and a session of law school. Monday, we had city elections and attended a lecture. We had another session of law school. County campaigns began and we had another session of law enforcement school.

Tuesday, county primaries, county elections and state primaries were held. Wednesday we had the Great Debate between the two parties into which we had divided. We had state elections, inaugural ceremonies and a banquet. The banquet was sponsored by the American Legion.

On Thursday we had a demonstration of the legislature in session. We also voted on Boys Nation candidates and were addressed by the 1973 Boys State governor.

Thursday, we had legislator sessions and a talent night. Friday we had a discussion with the Director and Assistant Director Bob Duran. We met by cities and were awarded certificates of attendance and Boys State pins. We departed after lunch.

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Janie Crane

Cooking, sewing, being mother to two children under three years of age, teaching Sunday School, etc., are the things that keep our area homemaker, Mrs. Billy (Irene) Hammit of Texico, as cheerful as can be.

These duties as well as others Irene performs might make many women cringe in disgust, but our homemaker makes the best out of every situation and enjoys her family.

Her husband, Billy, is water superintendent for the city of Texico. He is also a member of Texico Planning Commission and assistant captain of Texico Volunteer Fire Department. Sometimes he attends meetings three nights a week, straight in a row.

Besides his involvement with these organizations, he is usually attending some school which helps him in his job as water superintendent.

The Hammits' children are Chucky, age two; and Bobby, four months old. Playsuits and shorts are a must for these growing boys, so Irene relies on her sewing talents to whip up garments for them and, oftentimes, sews for herself.

She moved with her family to Farwell from the Rio Grande Valley several years ago. She started school in Farwell in the fourth grade. Hammit has been in the Twin Cities since 1955. He attended Texico schools and graduated from Texico High School in 1959. The couple married on Jan. 3, 1969.

Irene also finds time to teach the third and fourth graders in Sunday School at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church and is helping with the nursery and kindergarten this year at Vacation Bible School.

Irene's mother, Mrs. Janie Bowery, lives in Farwell and Billy's father, D. E. Hammit, Sr., lives in Texico. Billy's twin brother, Johnny, and his family also live in Texico. Another brother, D. E. Jr., and his family live in Farwell. D. E. is assistant water superintendent at Farwell.

Irene says she and Billy enjoy working in their yard and having their families over. They are in the process of building a barbecue so they can have family get-togethers outdoors.

Irene recently joined Texico Woman's Club and is looking forward to working with that organization. She enjoys reading, especially mysteries, and loves to cook.

Her plans this summer include doing some canning.

The Hammits have a field garden which will provide most of the items she wants to can. She will also be busy hoeing to keep that garden in shape.

Irene has offered one of her main recipes to share with our readers. The recipe is a master mix which was given to her by her grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Magness of Farwell. A variety of dishes can be made from the master mix.

MASTER MIX

- 9 c. sifted flour
1/2 c. baking powder
1 T. salt
2 t. cream of tartar
1/2 c. sugar
1 1/2 c. shortening
Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening. Store in a tight container.

GINGERBREAD

- 2 c. Master Mix
1/2 c. sugar
1/2 t. cinnamon
1/4 t. ginger
1/4 t. cloves
1 egg
1 1/2 c. molasses
1/2 c. water or milk

Beat all ingredients until well blended. Bake in an 8 in. by 2 in. pan that has been greased and floured for 40 minutes at 350 degrees.

CHEESE DUMPLING IN TOMATO BROTH

- 1 c. Master Mix
1/2 c. cheddar cheese
1/4 c. milk
Mix ingredients, roll out and cut small dumplings. Drop in boiling tomato and chicken broth.

BROTH

- 1 can tomato soup
1/2 c. chicken broth
Bring to boil.

CARAMELS

- In a heavy pan combine:
1-15 oz. can sweetened condensed milk
1/2 c. coffee cream
1 c. light corn syrup
2 c. sugar
1 c. sweet milk
1/4 c. butter

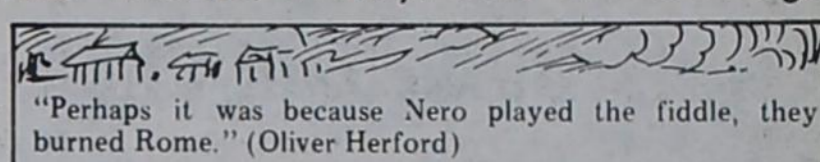

Cook, stirring constantly, to 245 degrees on candy thermometer or firm ball stage in cold water. Remove from fire, add 2 t. vanilla.

Pour half mixture into lightly buttered 8-inch pan, then sprinkle surface with 1 c. broken pecans. Add remaining caramel mixture.

When firm, invert candy onto a wooden board and cut with thin knife. Refrigerate for two hours. Wrap in waxed paper.

GASTRONOMIC DELIGHTS are whipped up daily in the kitchen of our area homemaker, Mrs. Billy (Irene) Hammit of Texico. Irene loves to cook, especially when she can use one of the recipes given to her by her grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Magness of Farwell. Mrs. Hammit teaches Sunday School at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church and is a member of Texico Woman's Club. She and her husband are the parents of two small boys, Chucky, two years old; and Bobby, four months old.

RETURN FROM BOYS STATE -- Eugene Wallace, left, and Dwayne Kelley, students at Texico High School, returned June 8 from Boys State at Roswell, N.M. The boys spent the week learning about city, county and state government. Wallace said it was interesting to him that the boys had to have a postcard addressed to their parents before they could eat supper on the first day. The boys trip was sponsored by Texico-Farwell Lions Club.

Members of Texico Riding Club and Texico High School varsity cheerleaders appeared in the parade Saturday morning, June 9, during Pioneer Days celebration in Clovis.

Diane Riley Places At High School Rodeo

Diane Riley of Texico qualified for the National High School Finals Rodeo in Ogden, Utah, Aug. 13-19, when she placed third in pole bending at the New Mexico High School Rodeo in Santa Rosa Thursday through Sunday, June 14-17. Miss Riley was also named Miss Congeniality in the New Mexico High School Rodeo Queen Contest staged in conjunction with the rodeo. A rodeo cowgirl since the age of five, Miss Riley first began by running the barrels. Now she runs barrels, poles and competes in goat tying. She is a 1973 graduate of Texico High School and she plans to attend Eastern New Mexico University in the fall. She wants to continue her rodeo career and try out for Eastern's rodeo team. She also hopes to be in the Rodeo Club. A lot of buckles and a fair amount of money have been the rewards of Miss Riley's affection for rodeoing through the years. Diane Luce, Dusty and Mike Leatherwood and Vicki Snodgrass also competed in the rodeo in Santa Rosa. They are all from Texico. Dusty Leatherwood was third in the first go round of barebacks. He tied for first and second in the saddle broncs and won sixth in the first go of calf roping. Dusty and Mike Leatherwood placed sixth in the first go of team roping. Saturday, June 16, Dusty broke his hand during the second go of saddle broncs. Diane Luce went to the short go in goat tying and breakaway roping. She was fourth in the second go of the barrel race. She placed second in the first go of breakaway roping and fifth in the average.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, TEX. -- While the 1973 Legislature managed to avoid a tax bill, outlook for 1975 is "bleak," with new revenue needs ranging up to $700 million, according to Texas Research League. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby earlier came up with a similar gloomy estimate of a $533 million tax boost during the next regular legislative session, but Gov. Dolph Briscoe declined to agree. According to Texas Research League, state spending from key funds is expected to increase by $550 million in 1976-77, and the increase could run as high as $850 million to $1 billion. Revenues, meanwhile, are due to rise $550 million to $625 million over the present biennium. However, TRL cautions these factors must also be considered: *Federal revenue sharing funds (which accounted for $316 million of 1974-75 income) will drop by at least $100 million, because Texas received a three-year allocation to spend in a two-year period for the current budget. *An estimated $156 million surplus at the beginning of the next biennium will decrease from $75 million to $100 million depending on bills signed by Governor Briscoe. "With the highest projected spending increase ($1.050 billion), the 1975 Legislature apparently would find itself faced with the need to find $600-$700 million in additional biennial revenues," said a new TRL report. "Even (an $850 million spending hike), means projecting a biennial revenue need of $400-$500 million." If the next legislature decides to overhaul school finance formulas, a biennial cost increase of perhaps another $300 million can be anticipated, TRL concluded. Briscoe, at the national governors conference in Nevada, refused to be pessimistic and promised budgeting innovations and other economy moves which he feels can check a tax boost. DIM VIEW OF CONSTITUTION CHANGE -- County officials are getting together to fight any constitutional change which would drastically alter county government, according to Judge Robert W. Calvert, chairman of the Texas Constitutional Revision Commission. Following hearings in Corpus Christi, Calvert said he sees "an incipient opposition to any suggested changes in county government." He cited three letters from county officials expressing a dim view toward tampering with their jobs. Calvert said the Commission is committed to no course on the subject. The 37-member body is concluding its hearings over the state and will make recommendations to the legislature next November. Lawmakers will sit at a constitutional convention next year. Calvert urged legislators to attend the hearings in eight cities this month. Committees will begin drafts on conclusion of the public discussions. The remainder of the constitutional hearings are set as follows: Friday, June 22, Wichita Falls; Thursday, June 28, Waco; and Friday, June 29, Austin. COURTS SPEAK -- Unsafe conditions in public housing units are grounds for suits where tenants are injured, the State Supreme Court held in a case growing out of a death due to a defective heater. In another case, the High Court upheld lower court judgments of $197,500 in damages against Mobil Pipeline Company on behalf of the family of a Mobil Oil Company employee who died in a Beaumont explosion. The U. S. Supreme Court in Washington, meanwhile, upheld a Texas law requiring immunization of school children against several diseases. The top court ruled 7-2 that states cannot indirectly tax liquor sales on U. S. military bases. AG OPINIONS -- County commissioners can spend county funds to provide for parking and a service building for county-owned vehicles and parking for the public having business in the courthouse, Atty. Gen. John Hill held. In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: "In an election contest, on notice of appeal, district clerks should prepare a transcript and forward it to the court of civil appeals clerk before delivering it to attorneys for the appellant." "The Board of Chiropractic Examiners can adopt rules limiting the size of newspaper advertisements by chiropractors." "County clerks are not authorized to set filing fees for discovery proceedings if an action is still pending on the docket at the time the proceedings are instituted. If no action is pending, clerks are entitled to a fee of $3 for each instrument issued but not for filing instruments prepared by others." CLAYTON JOINS SPEAKER'S RACE -- Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, 44, veteran of a decade of service in the House of Representatives, made his candidacy for speaker official last week. Clayton is a conservative Democrat. Other candidates include Reps. Fred Head of Troup, James Nugent of Kerrville, Carl Parker of Port Arthur and Dave Finney of Fort Worth. Rep. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi is also regarded as another strong possibility. APPOINTMENTS -- Tom Browning of Athens was named acting director of the Parks and Wildlife Department law enforcement division after Executive Director Clayton T. Garrison fired Stetson Reed. Governor Briscoe designated Ronald Thomason of Weatherford as Texas State Artist for 1973-74. A. C. Gentry Jr. of Tyler was selected alternate state artist and Bette Lou Voorhis of Austin as alternate for 1974-75. Omer F. Poorman of Houston will succeed W. E. Carmichael as Houston district highway engineer June 30 when Carmichael retires. Elray N. Hardy of Wichita Falls has been picked as out-

WONDER OF WONDERS -- A helpless baby bird caught the eye of three-year-old Sherry Hawley when she and her mother parked near the Tribune office Tuesday afternoon. Sherry talked her mother, Mrs. Buck Hawley of Farwell, into taking the bird home to raise it. Mrs. Hawley said she has raised a ground squirrel and cottontail rabbit. She said the family is currently feeding two calves by the bottle.

Tower said 15 other counties have been declared eligible for emergency loans from Farmers Home Administration due to weather damage including excessive rainfall. The counties are Concho, Crosby, El Paso, Franklin, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Hudspeth, Montgomery, Lamb, Lynn, Lubbock, Reeves, Wharton and Wood. RECORD WHEAT HARVEST REPORTED -- Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported the first wheat harvest of 1973 in Frio County averaged 26 bushels an acre, a record high. The Texas wheat harvest is expected to reach 83,200,000 bushels this year.
