As regular readers of this "ole curmudgeon's" column know, we have not been enamored wit the development of the food stamp program. Granted that a portion of its beneficiaries are the old, aged and infirm, it is also true that it has been taken over by the lazy, indolent, and now even the young people are getting on the "free lunch" band wagon.

We refer to the growing use of food stamps by the college students. Even their campus publications are telling them how to qualify for this government largess. Imagine, here are the youthful crusaders many of whom are anti-establishment because they view our economic system as a huge "rip off" against society, themselves "ripping off" so-

It would be bad enough if they knew they were living high on the hog at the taxpayers' expense, but it is even more deplorable if they do not even realize the connection between governmental "freebies" and taxation. The government has nothing to give that it hasn't taxed away, by force, from someone else. Well so much for youthful morality.

As long as we are on the subject of food stamps, we will pass along a portion of a "letter to the editor" in the Wall Street Journal, supplied us by a local long-suffering taxpayer. We quote a few excerpts from this rather lengthy letter:

."To answer your question, particularly concerning food stamps, why should you expect any result from the billions spent other than a lot of fat 'poor people'? The food given merely sustains life. It does not contain any motivation calories, or ambition cells, or get-up-and-go energizers. The people are neigher smarter nor more ambitious after they eat free food. The program very simply takes good sound hard earned money ripped from the producers in taxes, and runs it through the human digestive system to produce waste -nothing else at all happens except the poor person votes for those who continue to feed

... "After the billions have been spent and are to be spent, we still have and will continue to have just as many 'poor people' next month and next year waiting around for the public dole to feed them.

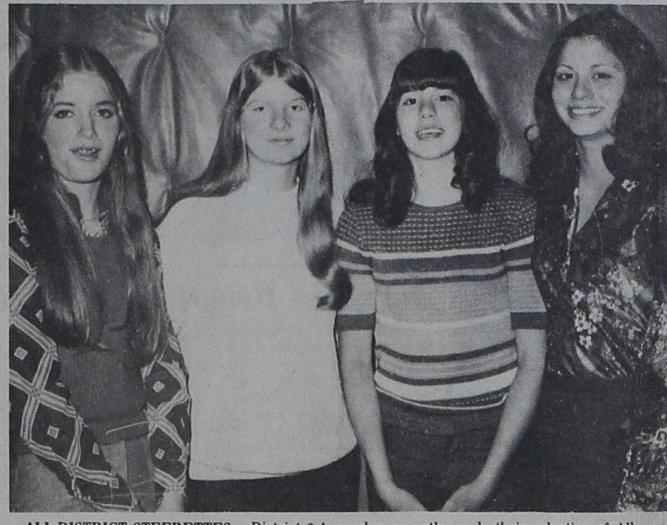

..."In our country, poverty and being poor is mainly a state of mind. Perhaps you people who dwell above it all really believe that all 200 million Americans are good hard working people. The facts are different. We have in this country, as does any country, millions of people who will take everything anyone will give them. These people will sit on their butts till hell freezes over if somebody else will feed them - and that is what we are doing - feeding students, strikers, able bodied men and women and countless other warm bodies.

..."If we didn't have 'poor people' they would have to be invented. Of course, with a bureaucrat possessing the power to officially create 'poor people' simply by raising or lowering the ceiling of an 'official' poverty level income we are assured a continued never ending supply of 'poor people.' As inflation continues you will see the income ceiling raised to take in those made 'poor' by inflation."

Last fall we commented that if you liked basketball then the Twin Cities was the place to be. The 1974-75 season amply proved us right. Both the Texico Wolverines and the Farwell Steers played exciting ball and both teams got to participate in their respective regional tournaments. Not a bad record for two small schools. Next season we look forward to more of the same.

It may not be apparent at the this particular minute but the long range 90-day weather forecast for the Panhandle is for warmer than usual temperatures. Let's hope this is true as our local garden seed purveyor says business is brisk at his place. Don't know if this is just the call of nature or the response to continued high

Farwell Troop Observes National Girl Scout Week

The week of March 9-15 has marked the annual observance of National Girl Scout Week Girl Scout Week, members of Texico-Farwell Troop 121 met Tuesday, March 11, at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist

During the session the girls made cookies for themselves. Mrs. Beverly Obenshain collected cookie campaign money from the Girl Scout Cookie Sale which was recently conducted by the troop.

The Girl Scout program is built on values expressed in the Foundation based on developmental needs physically, intellectually, socially and emotionally.

The Foundation is the essence of Girl Scouting, giving distinct character to the organization. The uniqueness is not in any one part of the Foundation, but in the interrelatedness of all six Foundation elements: Promise ad Laws, service, troop management, citizenship, international friendship, health and safety.

These six elements of the Foundation should come through to all girls at all age levels in troops and in camps, and should have an increasing impact as girls grow older.

Girls present for the meeting were Tammy Obenshain, Darrisa Ford, Diana Coleman, across America. To celebrate Jennifer Williams, Kenda Hager, Shana Blain, Cindy Ronquillo, Janice Stevens, Janice Newcomb, Marie Newcomb, Kim Longo and Jeanette

TWO MINUTES THE BIBLE BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

"DEAD FAITH"

Nothing in the Bible is stated more. clearly or with greater emphasis than the blessed Pauline revelation of justification by grace, through faith,

Rom. 4:5: "To him that worketh NOT, but believeth...his faith is counted for righteousness." (Eph. 2:8,9: "For by grace are ye saved, through faith....It is the gift of God; NOT of works, lest any man should boast." Tit. 3:5: "NOT by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved

Yet James states just as clearly that "faith if it hath not works is dead, being alone" (Jas. 2:17). He challenges professing believers: 'Show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works" (Ver. 18), and declares that "by works a man is justified, and not by faith only" (Ver. 24) since "faith without works is dead,"

Some have imagined a contradiction here, while actually there is none. There is a dispensational distinction, for to Paul had been committed "the dispensation of the grace of God" (Eph. 3(1,2). His was the preaching of the cross" (I Cor. 1:18), offering salvation by grace through faith alone to all who would trust Christ as Savior James, on the other hand, was an apostle of the kingdom, proclaiming the kingdom rights of Christ and offering a changed way of life on earth which had already been experienced by the disciples of Judaea (Acts 2:29-32, 44-47; 4:32-35). Hence with James the emphasis is on works, not because good works can save or even help to save, but because true faith inevitably bears fruit and we can judge true faith-only by the fruit it bears. Our Lord said By their fruits ye shall know them. Hence James' epistle abounds with such phraseology as "ye see, 'show me," "I will show you," etc.

What we must be careful to remember is that according to both Paul and James, faith comes first, then good works. Faith is the root, good works the fruit. The absence of fruit indicates that the root is dead, that while there may be an intellectual assent, there is no true heart faith, and "without faith it is impossible to please God" (Heb. 11:6).

The source of justification is grace; the basis, Calvary; the means, faith and the evidence, works. Think this through; accept God's grace and trust the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior. He will help you to produce

It was unusual that they did it without their leading scorer and rebounder Mark Hill, who was in early foul trouble, then injured his ankle when he reentered the game.

Greg Hargrove showed his two little brothers how to play basketball and unfortunately the Sig Eps had to watch. Greg sizzled the nets for 18 first half points then came back to rip 19 in the second half. Brett Hargrove had six first half and 11 second half points for 18 and Kevin Hargrove put in eight in the first half. The game was a battle of two steady, talented teams and the Sig Eps were, for the most part, outsteadied. The Delts held a 35-20 halftime lead but the Sig Eps came roaring back behind Dave Buckalew to cut the lead to 41-40 with 3:05 left in the third quarter.

Greg Hargrove then hit 12 out of the Delts next 16 points and the Sig Eps never threatened again although play was far from boring. John Holland led the Sig Ep scoring with 20, followed by Buckalew with 17, Mark MacArthur with 10 and Randy Ware with 10 also.

The Delts will play Weymouth "A" tonight at 7:30 after the BSU-Sinkers game at 6 p.m. The winners will play Thursday night for the All-Uni-
