Pioneer mother observes 93rd birthday

Mrs. Nellie Wall of Clovis observed her 93rd birthday Feb. 6 at her home southeast of Clovis.

She has lived in Curry County since the spring of 1914.

Mrs. Wall has been unable to walk since she fell in her dining room Dec. 16 and broke her hip.

Her son Willie and wife Marie of Texico spent the night with her. They were first to wish her "Happy Birthday."

Her daughters, Vera and Leslie Elliott of Cleburne, Lola Richardson of Pleasant Hill and Lena Stephenson, south of Clovis, were with her. D.E. Wall was also a dinner guest. Her other son, John and wife Juanita, of Texico, were unable to come because of illness.

Neighbors who came to wish her happy birthday included: Frieda Smith and Kimberly, Leygia Woody and Maxine Hathorn.

Mrs. Wall received several phone calls, some lovely gifts, two beautiful birthday cakes and cards.

Mrs. Wall has moved to the Farwell Convalescent Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott returned to their home Sunday after being with her mother and helping care for her the past three weeks.

Wagley named speaker

Dr. Leon Wagley, head of agriculture and extension education at New Mexico State University, will be the speaker at this year's Texico Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The banquet will be at 7 p.m. April 22 at the high school cafeteria.

The announcement was made by Texico School Supt. Jim Pierce at Monday's Texico Chamber meeting.

In other business at the meeting, it was noted that officers will be elected at the March meeting.

The Chamber discussed printing a new brochure for the town. The cost of color will be checked into.

A representative of Southwestern Public Service attended the meeting to indicate what help SPS can give in placing Christmas lights along the highway in Texico next winter. He will make a study of it. Meanwhile, the Chamber will check to see where they can get decorations.

Texico Marshal Fenn resigns

Longtime Texico City Marshal Mickey Fenn resigned at Tuesday's City Council meeting.

Fenn, who had been marshal for more than 10 years, told the council he "was worn out." He said the council had treated him well and that he planned to stay in the community.

Band students win honors

Eleven Texico band students participated in the solo and ensemble festival at ENMU, Feb. 9, and returned home with four first-division ratings, four second-place ratings, and three third-place ratings.

To receive the ratings, each band member performed a solo before a judge who evaluated the performance.

The four students who received first-place ratings for their solos include: Brette Southard, sophomore, cornet; Leslie Cox, seventh grade, alto clarinet; Karen Horner, seventh grade, clarinet; and Jessica Gutierrez, fifth grade, cornet.

Receiving second-division ratings were LaShona Foreman, seventh grade, tenor saxophone; Melissa Montano, seventh grade, clarinet; and Dawn Lassiter, fifth grade, tenor saxophone. Sixth grade student Melissa Cox performed two clarinet solos and received a second-division rating for both songs.

Those who received third-place ratings for their solos include Rae Lynn Autrey, seventh grade, flute; Christy Robinson, seventh grade, clarinet; and Tracy Folk, fifth grade, cornet.

Over 1,100 band members from the entire eastern region of New Mexico participated in the festival and were evaluated by judges for their performances.

The Texico band students were accompanied by Jerry SADBERRY, band director; and Mrs. Anna Southard, sponsor.

Co-op meeting set

The annual meeting of the Bailey County Electric Cooperative Association will be at 1 p.m. Feb. 16, at the Muleshoe High School Auditorium.

The council will begin seeking applicants for his replacement. One application is already on file.

In other business, the council approved, 3-2, the request of Bill Moreland for a variance to allow construction of a metal building and office on the south side of Texico.

Moreland has begun a construction business, called B&R Construction. He said his equipment will be stored in the building. He presented a letter signed by his property's neighbors indicating they did not oppose the building, which will be about 40x25 feet.

Since the building is going into a residential area, the variance was opposed by Vane Doshier and Lewis Cooper. In favor were Bryan Kube and Steve Chancy. Mayor John R. Hadley broke the tie in favor of the variance.

A request by Frank Ancira to move a church into Texico, next to the Post Office, was tabled since Ancira didn't appear at the meeting.

The council talked about the abatement ordinance that is being prepared by City Attorney Duane Hamar. It was indicated that once this ordinance is on the books, more work can be done in tearing down abandoned buildings along the highway.

Hamar presented a draft of a proposed ordinance governing costs for persons wanting water and sewer line extensions. The council will study it.

Hamar reported that the state EID is still not happy with coverage of garbage at the landfill.

At the end of the meeting, the council called an executive session to discuss the problem with city employees.

The most productive industry in America is facing a growing concern. American agriculture is being threatened by a shortage of highly trained, technically skilled, motivated men and women.

People have made American agriculture #1 in the world. Our investment in the education of men and women involved in the dynamic and diverse industry of agriculture has given the United States a productive edge in the world. Yet, faced with a growing shortage of well-trained people, we may soon lose our #1 position to other countries.

How can we keep our #1 position? Support. Your support for local vocational agriculture programs and FFA members will help us maintain and sharpen our edge. FFA members need you—parents, faculty, school administrators, businessmen, farmers, community members and FFA Alumni.

Vocational agriculture students and FFA members are laying the groundwork for careers in agriculture—through college, vocational technical school and direct entry into jobs. These qualified students are tomorrow's agriculture industry. Students who are gaining their own competitive edge. But they can't do it without your help.

The future is in your hands. "Keep Agriculture #1—Support FFA & Vocational Agriculture!"

Aloha Crozier marries Paul Fulcher

Aloha DeAnne Crozier became the bride of Paul Dean Fulcher in a double ring ceremony, Jan. 11, in the Farwell Church of Christ. Sam Billingsley, Church of Christ Minister from Lariat, Texas performed the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Crozier, Jr. of Clovis, N.M. and Mr. and Mrs. Pete B. Fulcher of Farwell, Texas.

The front of the church was decorated with a 15 branch center fan, brass candelabra adorned with blue bows, two 15 branch brass spiraling candelabrum with blue bows and blue votive cup candles. In front of the center fan were 5 brass votive candles with a bouquet of blue roses, daisies, and enchantment lilies. The unity candle was of sculptured blue ribbon with two white tapers. The family pews were marked with blue carnations and blue votive candles.

Mrs. Debbie Victor, of Portales and Mrs. Sandy Golden, of Arch provided vocal selections of "The Rose" as the parents and grandparents were seated. They sang "The Wedding Song" as the bridesmaids and maid of honor came in.

As the bride entered they sang "Let It Be Me" and "Follow Me" as the couple left the church. Miss Sheryl Day, of Texico and Mr. John Crozier, of Clovis sang "To Me" after the brides parents had given her in marriage. They sang "Just You And I" after the vows were repeated. During the lighting of the unity candle John Crozier sang "The Hawaiian Wedding Song" especially for his sister.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was floor-length white polyorganza eyelet with a queen-Anne neckline trimmed by tiny seed pearls and short puffy sleeves. The skirt featured lace ruffles with white satin bows on the side, back and sleeves. Chantilly lace appliques with seed pearls graced the front. She wore a derby hat, designed by her mother, which was covered with lace and pearls to match her gown. White roses enhanced one side of the brim. The elbow length illusion veil was attached in the back by a white satin and lace bow and was highlighted with pearls and a lace edge. She carried a cascade of royal and light blue carnations and silver ribbon arrangement on a white satin and lace covered Bible belonging to her mother. Keeping with tradition, for something old, the bride wore a single strand of pearls belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Helen Edwards. Something new was her gown and veil. Something borrowed was her mothers and the grooms mothers wedding rings. Something blue was a satin and lace garter made by her mother. For luck, she wore a penny in her shoe, given by some friends.

The mothers were escorted by the bridegroom and they lit the white tapers beside the unity candle. As the bride approached the altar she presented both mothers with a long-stemmed red rose and a kiss.

Mrs. Crozier attended her daughter's wedding in a street-length light blue dress and wore a corsage of white sweetheart roses. Mrs. Fulcher chose a royal blue street-length dress and wore a corsage of white sweetheart roses.

Tonda Fulcher of Lubbock, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor. Her dress was floor-length royal blue dotted swiss with scalloped around the hem and tied with royal blue satin ribbons. Nita Edwards of Albuquerque, N.M. and Karen Blevins of Clovis, N.M. served as bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical to the maid-of-honor only light blue. They carried bouquets of royal blue carnations and silver ribbon with light blue votive candles. Flower girl was Jennifer McDaniel of Clovis, N.M. Jennifer, daughter of Randy and Kim McDaniel, wore a royal blue floor-length dotted swiss identical to the maid-of-honors dress. She carried a white basket with blue and white rose petals.

The groom was attired in a white tuxedo with tails and a boutonniere of blue rosebuds. Serving as best man was Ricky Sikes of Farwell. The groomsmen were Johnny Daniels of Farwell, and John Crozier of Clovis, brother of the bride. They were attired in dynasty blue tuxedos with light blue shirts and boutonnieres. Ring bearer was Darin Mitchell of Clovis. Darin, son of Lonnie and Cindy Mitchell, wore a white tuxedo identical to the groom. He carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow with lace and satin streamers of royal blue and white on which the rings were tied. Ushering the guests were John Crozier and Karen Blevins and Johnny Daniels and Nita Edwards. John Crozier and Karen Blevins lit the candles before the ceremony.

The registration table was covered with a royal blue cloth trimmed in lace. Miss Stacey Hassell of Clovis, presided at the guest book.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. The Brides table was draped with a three tiered white floor-length cloth caught up into scollops and trimmed with royal blue bows. A bouquet of royal blue and light blue flowers enhanced the table with turtledoves and royal blue streamers with the bride and grooms names and date on them.

The three-tiered heart-shaped wedding cake was white and overlaid with white and light blue flowers and stalks of wheat framed them. Cake and blue punch were served by Becky Winfred and Mandy Corley of Clovis. Appointments were crystal.

The groom's table was covered with a blue cloth and lace overlay and caught up into scollops and trimmed with light blue bows. A brass boot with an arrangement of royal blue and light blue roses highlighted the table. The cake was a chocolate horseshoe with roses and the bride and grooms names written on it. Coffee and cake were served by Kara Mills of Lubbock, and Sheranette Smallwood of Farwell. Appointments were brass.

After the reception Becky Chastain of Clovis, handed out the traditional rice bells.

Hostesses for the occasion were Frankie House, Caryl Davis, Jacque Ochs, Eloise Borden and Anissa Roberts, all of Clovis.

The bride and groom wore matching shirts and sweaters as they left. The bride's corsage was white sweetheart roses and satin hearts.

Among special guests were grandparents Mrs. Tom P. Smallwood of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Edwards of Melrose, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Crozier, Sr. of Artesia, N.M.

The bride is a 1985 midterm graduate of Clovis High School and the bridegroom is a 1984 graduate of Farwell High School.

After a honeymoon trip to the Inn Of The Mountain Gods in Ruidoso, the couple now reside east of Farwell, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Zandy Kelley weds Billy Potts

Zandy Kay Kelley of Clovis and Billy Joe Potts of Broadview, N.M., exchanged wedding vows Dec. 29 in the Central Baptist Church, Clovis, the same place where the bride's parents were married 21 years ago.

Bro. Lee Hudman of Rosedale, N.M., Baptist Church read the opening scripture and opening prayer. Kenny Ray Dickenson, pastor of Tatum Baptist Church, performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Allen and Helen Kelley of Clovis. She is a graduate of Clovis High School and is employed by Eastern New Mexico Rural Telephone. The bridegroom, a graduate of Texico High School and Eastern New Mexico University, is the son of Walter and Lois Potts of Broadview. Ted Ogilvie, of Clovis, organist, accompanied Martha Branson of Clovis, vocalist, as she sang "The Wedding Song" and "Be With Us Lord" was performed while the couple kneeled. The groom sang "The Love She Found In Me" after they lit the unity candle.

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, mother and sister, she was attired in a formal length gown of lush white satin with lyrical lace embellishments. The bodice was appliqued with alencon lace, gently displayed over the shoulders of the gown and sleeves, sprinkled with minute seed pearls and blended together with gossamer netting. French alencon lace edged the waistline and chapel length train. Splashes of applique lace graced the full length bridal skirt.

The bride wore a pearl princess crown and a two tiered fingertip length veil of gossamer net, which belonged to her mother. She carried a stylized cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses, and white pixie carnations with accents of boxwood and pine greenery.

Carrying out bridal tradition, she wore her headpiece belonging to her mother for something old. She wore pearls, a gift from the groom, for something new. She borrowed pearl earrings from LaShauna Kelley, her sister, and wore the traditional blue garter, made by Mrs. Tom Jesko, her aunt. The bride carried pennies minted in the year of their births.

The groom wore a silver-gray Pierre Cardin tuxedo with white tailored shirt and gray bow tie. The white sweetheart rose boutonniere completed his attire.

LaShauna Kelley served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Roxanne Waterman of Tyler, Texas, cousin of the bride, and Becky Potts of Lubbock, sister of the groom.

Candles were lit by Mona Ann Potts, sister of the groom, and Kenda Kelley, Wayne Jesko and Jay Kelley, cousins of the bride.

The flower girl wore a gown designed like the ones worn by the candle lighters - floor length gowns of mauve taffeta with square necklines, and gathered skirts with a ruffle at the bottom of the skirt. Her gown was made by Mrs. W. A. Priest, the bride's grandmother. She carried a burgundy garden basket filled with white pixie carnations and baby's breath accented with dainty mauve bows and streamers.

The attendants' and candle lighters' dresses were made by Mrs. Tom Jesko, the bride's aunt, and Minnie Jo Hullman.

Brent Duke of New Rivers, N.C., served as best man. Groomsmen were Sammy Brown of Friona, the groom's cousin, and Shane Todd of Albuquerque.

Ushers were Stan Blagrove of Ackerley, Texas, Darren Kelley of Clovis, cousin of the bride, Robert Hudman of Rosedale, N.M., and Steve Blagrove of Lubbock.

Lori Pierce presided at the registration table. The reception was held in the chapel of the Central Baptist Church. A portrait of the bride in her wedding gown, painted by Jane Simon Williams, was displayed at the reception. The bride's table was covered with a satin cloth with pleated skirt and lace top made by Mrs. Fred Eichenberger.

Joy Wooten, the bride's cousin, and Seral Day served cake from the bride's table. Punch was served by Kelley Boney.

The groom's table was covered with a floor length cloth of foo-white linen, accented with gray cross-stitching. The cloth was made by Mrs. Jerry Ellison of Farwell. The spiced cake was shaped like a tractor. A large crystal hurricane lamp covering a gray candle surrounded by a ring of pine, cedar, boxwood and greenery accented the table setting. Red tractor mints, made by Martha Schueler of Friona, were served from silver accessories.

Wynn Simon, cousin of the bride, served cake from the groom's table. Coffee was served by Michelle Priest, cousin of the bride. The wedding cakes were made by aunts of the bride, Mrs. Tom Jesko, Mrs. Butch Priest and a friend, Mrs. Ray Barnes.

Floating hostesses were Mrs. Wayne Pierce, Mrs. Fred Eichenberger, Mrs. Dee Smith Day, Mrs. Sherman Williams, Mrs. Hap Pierce and Mrs. John Dickson.

White buckets with the bride's and groom's names and dates on them held rice bags which were passed out by Callaway Clark, Yanke Jesko and Joby Priest, cousins of the bride. The buckets were prepared by Peggy Clark, aunt of the bride.

Starla Priest, cousin of the bride,

MR. AND MRS. BILLY JOE POTTS

gave out book ribbons, thanking everyone for attending the ceremony.

Ministry to the deaf discussed

The area women of Texico-Farwell had their Valentines luncheon on Feb. 11 at the First Baptist Church in Farwell.

Gladys Kaltwasser of Farwell welcomed the guests and wished everyone a happy Valentines Day.

Susan Franse, women mission union director, gave the prayer.

Peggy Sudderth of Farwell sang "Pray for Me," accompanied by Susan Johnson on the piano.

The guest speaker was Martha Sales from the Oakwood Baptist Church in Lubbock. She spoke about her ministry to the deaf.

Mrs. Sales' daughter Ann was born deaf 27 years ago Feb. 11. She and her husband visited the State School for the Deaf in Austin to get Ann enrolled in the school. They were told it would probably be a long wait.

On Aug. 28, 1968, Ann was accepted at the school at the age of 10. Ann was there until 1977 when she graduated. Upon graduation she was hired as an aide at Ballenger Elementary and has been there for eight years. The school is for the deaf multi-handicapped.

School out

Lazbuddie school will be closed Feb. 22, due to teacher in-service day.

Spring break officially begins Wednesday, Feb. 27 and school will resume at its usual time Monday, March 4.

Mrs. Sales travels to schools and church camps, and some times is called at night to help accident victims at the hospitals.

Mrs. Sales read a lovely poem named "Lifes' Little Blessing."

Mrs. Sales' parents live in Farwell. They are Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hight.

A door prize was won by Joyce Byrd. It was a beautiful centerpiece.

Birthday cakes given

The Gleaners' Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church of Farwell traveled to Clovis, Feb. 5. They had supper at K-Bobs and fellowship.

The class surprised their teacher, Mrs. Gladys Kaltwasser with two birthday cakes.

Craig, Owen, Burton, Barnes reappointed

At Monday's Farwell School Board meeting, the following personnel had their contracts renewed: James Craig, elementary principal; Jerry Dee Owen, junior high principal; Lynn Burton, senior high principal, and Monte Barnes, head football coach and athletic director. In other business, the board: --Agreed to allow Jerry Landrum to use the old gym for karate lessons for youths 18 and under. Richard Haseloff voted against the motion. --Approved a field trip for the eighth grade science class to Carlsbad, N.M. --Allowed the administration to shorten the school day if the need arises, such as in the case of bad weather. --Discussed the five year priorities plan (on curriculum) presented by the Self Study Committee. A vote will be taken at the next meeting (at 4 p.m. Feb. 18) since the state needs it by March 1. --Adopted, under protest, the new University Interscholastic League and other activity eligibility rules that the state Board of Education had mandated. --Appointed Billie Blain as the judge in the April 6 School Board election. --Changed the regular meeting date in April from April 8 to April 15.

School Board candidates may register

Registration is open for persons wanting to run for the Farwell School Board. The election will be April 6, the same day as the Farwell city election. Three terms are ending -- Wilbert Kalbas, Floyd Coates and Maxine Williams. The terms are for three years. School Supt. Willie Roberts said persons who are qualified voters of the school district may request to have their names put on the ballot by stopping by his office. The registration deadline is March 6. At Monday's School Board meeting, a committee was named to seek out people to run, to make sure the ballot is filled. Joe Schilling will chair this committee. Other members are Doyle Johnson, Lee Hutchins, Pete Fulcher, Gwen Corn, Carl Kirkland and Linda Foster.

Bill urges drug law change

Texas Rep. Pete Laney plans to file a bill which would make life easier for pharmacists in small border communities, like Farwell. Laney has written to Tom Nichols, president of the Farwell Hospital District Board, that he has drafted a bill to allow Texas pharmacists to fill prescriptions written by physicians in adjacent counties of neighboring states. Laney said the bill will be co-sponsored by Rep. Jim McWilliams, who has a similar problem on the Louisiana border.

Five area directors picked

Five Area Telephone Cooperative held its annual meeting Feb. 9 in Muleshoe. Newly-elected directors are R.L. (Bob) Jones, District 2; and Delbert Watson, District 4. They were determined by ballot voting by the members. Other directors on the board are Don Seales, District 1; Jack Angeley, District 3; Bob Foley, District 5; Richard Black, District 6; and Rex Griffiths, District 7. Election judges who counted ballots were Jim Rumsey, John Metts, Gerald Reid, Dennis Ethridge and Tony Bliss. The nominating committee was selected to meet prior to the annual meeting in 1986 and make nominations for directors for districts. They are (terms are expiring in these districts in 1986) District 1 (Lariat) -- Ernest Ramm and J.W. Herington; District 3 (Lazbuddie) -- Guy Kelley and L.G. Layman; and Committeeman-at-large -- Chester Settiff and Dee Tucker. The new board president is Jack Angeley. Rex Griffiths is the new vice president and Richard Black was picked secretary-treasurer. Coffee was served prior to the meeting by Five Area Telephone Cooperative employees. No segment of the economy has ever been challenged to change so fast and so completely as has the new agriculture.

Never in American history have so many innovations been adopted in such a short time.

When these changes have required capital, your Federal Land Bank Association has been a primary source of funds. We recognize the inevitability of change -- except in the importance of the man and the land. We also believe that a free agriculture -- based on the family farm -- will continue to flourish in any new environment.

Area students had the opportunity last week to meet with counselors and representatives of area colleges and the Armed Forces at the Farwell Community Center. Pic-

Sarpalius wants your views

Most issues that come before the Texas Legislature stir emotions only in a handful of legislators. The average bill has a few staunch supporters and a few staunch opponents.

Pari-mutuel wagering is an exception to the rule. Few lawmakers are ambigulous where that issue is concerned. Walk the halls of the Capitol and talk to legislators about horse racing, and you quickly find that everyone has an opinion.

Two years ago, during the 68th Session of the Legislature, a bill was introduced in the House and Senate that called for a constitutional referendum on the horse-racing issue. If passed, Texans would have voted in November 1983 on whether to legalize pari-mutuel wagering on horses. With a constitutional amendment on the books, Texans then could have legalized such betting on a county-by-county basis.

We voted against that measure because our surveys showed a majority of Panhandle-area residents were opposed to pari-mutuel wagering. Despite our efforts, the bill passed the Senate. It later was defeated by two votes in the House.

Last Monday, though, the pari-mutuel issue returned, thanks to a bill filed in the House by Rep. Hugo Berlanga, D-Corpus Christi. The same bill is being carried in the Senate by Sen. O.H. "Ike" Harris, R-Dallas.

This bill differs in one major way from the bill filed two years ago. This measure by-passes the Constitution. If it passes the Legislature and is signed by Gov. Mark White, the issue would be taken directly to the counties. Any county that wanted pari-mutuel wagering would need only call a county election and approve such wagering.

Community Center improvements told

Improvements at the Farwell Community Center were announced at Monday's meeting of the Farwell City Council.

It was announced that Honetree Corp. of Clovis has donated light poles to be placed at the site. Also, a pay phone will be installed at the center.

The council named Martin Chandler, local ASCS manager, to head the community center board.

The council officially agreed to maintain and operate the center. It had already indicated in past meetings it would do this but the exact wording was needed to go into the council minutes. This was needed because it appears the center will receive a grant - and the grantor needed to see this language officially in the council minutes.

It was pointed out that persons and groups which wish to donate funds or equipment to the center should go through the board of directors.

In other business, the council met with Precinct 3 County Commissioner Robert White to discuss a culvert problem on the west edge of Farwell. The council agreed to buy an 18-foot culvert, at a rough cost of $260, for the site. The county will install it.

The council appointed Mayor Walter Kaltwasser to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission. Last month, the council planned to ask Prentice Mills to serve on that group but it was learned later that the Farwell liaison had to be an elected official.

The council agreed to give the city insurance contract for 1985 to Henry Insurance Co., Muleshoe.

Offices to close

Several government offices in the Twin Cities will be closed Feb. 18, in honor of Washington's Birthday.

These offices include both Texico and Farwell Post Offices, ASCS office, and the Farmers Home Administration office. Both the Texico and Farwell banks will be closed, also.

Parmer County Courthouse will remain open, as well as the Farwell and Texico city halls.

Texico girls win first in district

Texico's varsity girls basketball team stands at 8-0 in district after driving past Tatum, 55-32, Feb. 9 at Tatum.

Texico jumped off to a 20-6 first quarter lead and was never headed. Tatum was outscored in each quarter.

Coach Roy King said the Wolverines' press "in the first quarter was the best it has been all year. Helen Jo Boorman had 7 steals in the first period. Kelly Lynn and Kathy Harrison shot a lot better than the night before but overall we didn't shoot very well from the field. We did shoot well from the free throw line and we rebounded extremely well."

Texico's overall record is 18-2 and the team is on a 12-game winning streak. The victory over Tatum clinches first place in the district for the regular season.

The district tourney will be Feb. 26-30 at Texico. The Wolverines will be seeded into the finals and automatically will be in the regional tournament.

In district, Elida and Floyd are tied for second at 5-3. Tatum is 4-4, Melrose 2-6 and Dora 0-8.

Scoring for Texico against Tatum were: Kathy Harrison and Kelly Lynn, 14 each; Cheryl Scott, 12; Karen Snodgrass, 8; Twilla Longo, 3; and Coy Jo Burk and Angie Liggins, 2 each.

Rebounding leaders were Cheryl Scott, 12; Kelly Lynn 11, and Karen Snodgrass, 10. Leading in assists with 4 each were Kelly Lynn and Helen Jo Boorman.

From the field, Texico hit 19 of 62 for 30.6 percent. From the free throw line, they hit 17 of 25 for 68 percent.

On Feb. 8, Texico beat Elida, 46-35, at Texico behind Cheryl Scott's 22 points.

Coach King said the team didn't play very well. The game was tied at 29-29 with 6:21 to go before Texico went on a tear.

"Karen Snodgrass hit some early shots to bring Elida out of their sagging defense and Coy Jo Burk hit a couple of 20-footers in the last quarter that were key baskets," the coach said. "This allowed us to get the ball into Cheryl Scott, who shot very well."

Also scoring for Texico were: Karen Snodgrass, 9; Kelly Lynn, 3; and Helen Jo Boorman, Coy Jo Burk and Kathy Harrison, all with 4.

Rebound leaders were Kelly Lynn, 9; and Cheryl Scott and Helen Jo Boorman, 7 each. Helen Jo Boorman had 8 assists and four steals to lead in those departments.

Texico hit 19 of 53 from the field and 8 of 10 free throws.

Lady Wolverine spotlights

Geneva Garcia, left, 5'7" freshman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Garcia. Geneva plays the wing position. She is a good outside shooter who is not afraid to put the ball up. She has improved on her rebounding and ball handling. Geneva has played most of the year on the ninth and JV teams. Twilla Longo, 5'10 1/2", freshman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cunningham. Twilla plays post. She is one of the best ninth graders that Texico has ever had. She has a good outside shot along with a good turn around jump shot from the inside. Plus, she has the desire to be a good basketball player.

Wolverine spotlights

Charlie Bibbs, left, 5'9" junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bibbs. Charlie plays wing position and guard. He is a good defense player. He works hard and makes the first five work harder. Ronnie Galvan, 5'9" senior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galvan. Ronnie also plays wing position and guard. He is a good defensive player.

Texico JV loses

Texico's Junior Varsity lost to Tatum, 59-37, at Tatum Feb. 9. The JV record dropped to 4-9.

Scoring for Texico were: Aaron Scott and David Loera, 8 each; John Thomas, 7; Ronnie Galvan, 2; and Anthony Torres, Eric Harding and Don Vela, 4 each.
