

FROM THE HOPPER By HOP

Feeling as I do, I just about decided to forego this column this week and mentioned my intentions to a constant reader. This reader opposed the idea. "That's the first thing I read in the paper every week," he said.

Some opposition is being heard to some of the provisions of the seven proposed city ordinances that are under consideration of the Farwell Town Council. This might have been expected.

So far as I am concerned, I am in agreement with all the provisions of the proposed ordinances except the one regulating the keeping of livestock within the city limits. I think we should be prepared to block any deal for the establishment of a feeding pen for livestock inside the city limits.

But when it comes to forbidding the keeping of all livestock within the city, I feel that that is going too far. Particularly, I have in mind a family, that needs to maintain a milk cow to provide fresh milk for the family, especially children, is a bit to stringent. A way can and should be found to regulate the keeping of a limited number of cows, horses, goats and even hogs without placing them all in one category and outlawing the whole shebang.

Garrett Blair and Perry Owens have jumped on me for backing down on what I had to say recently about dam-Yankees and Republicans. To their way of thinking, it was one of the best things that had appeared in this column in recent years.

On the other side of the ledger, a couple of local ladies took me to task for the original item. Which just goes to show you that you can't please everybody—especially when it comes to writing a column.

And here's a letter from my old friend, Bob Kyker, now living down at Abilene, who says "all crops are completely burned up" in that section by the continued hot and dry weather.

In the death of "Uncle Jim" Landrum, this community loses one of its most colorful and amusing citizens. Until he left the farm some 12 years ago, Uncle Jim's main crop was watermelons.

Season after season, he always produced a good melon crop, and regardless of the size of the crop, the size of the melons, economic conditions or whatnot, Uncle Jim's melons were always sold at the same figure—fifty cents apiece!

I always knew in advance what his answer would be, but I always asked him the price just in order to hear him roll out in that southern drawl of his "Fifty cents."

Contractor Martin and members of the Town Council are cautioning motorists to "take it easy" on our new street paving. Martin explains that only a small part of the paving has been completed, and fast, reckless driving on the unfinished streets now while the material is still "green" will do considerable damage to the surfaces.

So, let's all join in to help preserve the heavy investment that is being made on the streets. Slow down to a reasonable speed, stop making jack-rabbit get-aways and take the corners at reduced speeds. Martin assures us the paving will stand up under normal conditions once it is allowed to become settled and well cured. Only a small portion of the paving in the south end of town has received the seal coating, and until this coat is applied the job is not completed and ready to take the abuse some drivers are giving it.

Farwell School Doors Open September 1

Farwell students begin the first step to end the summer vacation tomorrow (Friday) when the juniors and seniors begin registration, meeting in the school library at 1 o'clock. Freshmen and sophomores are to enroll Saturday.

School proper begins Monday morning, with buses running the regular schedule and classes planned for the entire day.

The faculty is complete with the exception of high school coach. Tommy Hestand, coach for the past two years, resigned the past week to take a position in Childress.

Texico Chamber of Commerce elected a board to serve the group for the coming year on Tuesday night. Members of the group will then organize and select officers to serve from within the board.

Next meeting is planned Sept. 9.

All Loot Recovered In Bewley Burglary

An early solution to a house robbery in Lazbuddy paid off for T. W. "Tot" Bewley last week, and the $500 worth of stolen merchandise has been returned to his home.

Justin Zachary, 21, Littlefield, has pleaded guilty to the burglary and is now thinking things over in the county jail awaiting action of the grand jury, which will convene in October. He is under $1500 bond.

Zachary's apprehension was the culmination of a number of interesting events. He was employed on the Bewley farm last year, and as a consequence had an opportunity to familiarize himself with the "layout" of the farm home.

He was suspected immediately because the break-in appeared to have been done by some person familiar with the property.

The burglary was discovered by Mrs. Melvin Treider, daughter of the Bewleys, and Bewley immediately returned from his vacation to assist in solving the crime.

He and Sheriff Chas. Lovelace began the elimination of suspects, and as soon as it was learned that Zachary had just left his Littlefield job, they were out after him.

The thief was arrested in Antlers, Okla., a former home of his and all of the stolen merchandise was recovered, except some meat taken from the deep freeze.

Zachary had made off with a saddle, electric sewing machine, radio, and fan.

He has twice served sentences in Oklahoma correctional institutions, as well as being suspended from one sentence.

"He says he's never robbed a house but what he's been caught," says Sheriff Lovelace. "But I can hardly believe that. Where would he get encouragement to do it again and again?"

30,000 Bales Cotton Forecast For County

With continued favorable conditions, Parmer County is expected to produce 25 to 30,000 bales of cotton this year for a record harvest in the county.

This figure seems to be the estimate of agricultural authorities and gin men who have kept a pretty close check on the progress of the Parmer County cotton acreage this year.

Irrigated fields are showing excellent promise of a good yield at this time, and estimates of a bale to the acre on irrigated land are not uncommon. Dry land fields, naturally, are not looking so promising with the continued hot, dry weather over most of the county.

Fields have been putting on blooms the past two weeks and some bolls are beginning to form. Many new squares are continuing to develop on each stalk, growers report.

With the building of two new gins in the county this year, the county now has five cotton gins to handle this year's expected record crop. New gins were erected at Hub and at Bovina during the summer.

Prior to the new gins built this summer, gins were already in operation at Farwell, Friona and Lariat. All these gins are being worked over and put in condition for the ginning season.

Lazbuddy School To Begin Monday Morning

James G. Ward, new superintendent of Lazbuddy schools, announces that registration for high school students will be held tomorrow (Friday), beginning between 8:30 and 9:00 in the morning. Ward replaces Eldon K. Shipp, who accepted a position in Borger elementary school.

School will begin Monday morning, and buses will run their regular routes, says Ward. Grade school registration will be held on that day. Lunch will not be served Monday, however, says the administrator. Buses will probably return the students to their homes about noon.

The faculty for the term is complete. New teachers include: C. W. Dukes, principal and coach, who taught at Bula the past two years; Wilmethe Hewlett, English, of Wilson, Texas; Fred Wilbanks, social studies in high school and seventh and eighth grades, of Marshall, Ark. Mrs. Wilbanks, second grade; and John Brown, fourth, fifth and sixth grades, who is from Lubbock.

Returning instructors are: James Haynes, math and science; Mrs. Haynes, third grade; Mrs. Melba Bowers, first grade; L. R. Bowers, fourth, fifth and sixth; Weldon Revel, agriculture; and Mrs. Revel, home economics.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robertson and Hettie Randol were guests in the home of the Sam Randols Sunday.

BILLINGSLEY WINS EASILY OVER LEVY FOR COMMISSIONER

Incumbent E. F. Billingsley was an easy winner over T. E. Levy in Saturday's run-off primary election for county commissioner of precinct No. 3 in Parmer County.

Billingsley gathered a substantial majority in both the Farwell and Oklahoma Lane voting boxes, the only two boxes located in the precinct.

The total vote in Saturday's balloting was Billingsley, 252; Levy, 132.

While Billingsley was increasing his support from 219 in the first primary to 252 in the run-off, Levy lost ground when his support dropped from 141 in the first primary to 132 in Saturday's voting. E. V. (Shorty) Hughes, Lariat businessman, polled 99 votes in the first primary to be eliminated from the race.

Seventy-five less voters cast their ballots in the second primary than had been cast in the first primary. The total vote in this race in the run-off dropped to 384 from 459 polled in the first primary.

In the only other two races appearing on the Parmer County ballot, Spurgeon Bell received 183 votes, and Frank P. Culver 201 for associate justice of the supreme court.

And Ernest O. Northcutt of Amarillo, carried Parmer County over Joe S. Moss of Post, by a vote of 293 to 119, in his bid for the office of associate justice of the court of civil appeals.

Martin Dies, being unopposed in Saturday's voting, polled 463 ballots in the county.

County Committeemen Named for Parmer PMA

Election of county committeemen for Parmer PMA was held Friday, Joe Camp, PMA secretary, says. The county was divided into nine communities instead of the former three; therefore, twenty-seven men were named to replace the former nine. Delegates and alternates were also named to the county convention.

1-A Community—Charlie L. Calaway, delegate to county convention; Gilbert Schueler, alternate to convention; Melvin Sachs, chairman of community committee; Raymond K. Schueler, vice-chairman; Martin E. Wagner, member of committee; Louis H. Hoffman and Charlie Calaway, alternates;

2-A Community—Roy V. Miller, delegate to county convention; Ralph B. Miller, alternate to convention; Herschel W. Johnson, chairman of community committee; Alvis W. Anthony Jr., vice-chairman; Charles D. Russell, member of committee; E. M. Rushing and Everette W. Talbot, alternates;

3-A Community—Clyde V. Goodwine, delegate to county convention; M. A. Black, alternate to convention; Joe Scott Menefee, chairman of community committee; James L. Shaffer, vice-chairman; Steve L. Struve, member of committee; Roy D. Euler and Richard V. Rockey, alternates;

1-B Community—Estel E. Engleking, delegate to county convention; Ophel N. Jennings, alternate to convention; Johnnie H. McDonald, chairman of community; E. T. Ford, vice-chairman; D. B. Ivy, member of committee; Joe R. Jesko and John Agee, alternates;

2-B Community—Roy P. Daniel, delegate to county convention; Jack Smith, alternate to convention; John L. (Shanks) Ivy, chairman of community committee; Jack Smith, vice-chairman; Wesley Barnes, member of committee; and Volley Hodges and Artis T. Beavers, alternates;

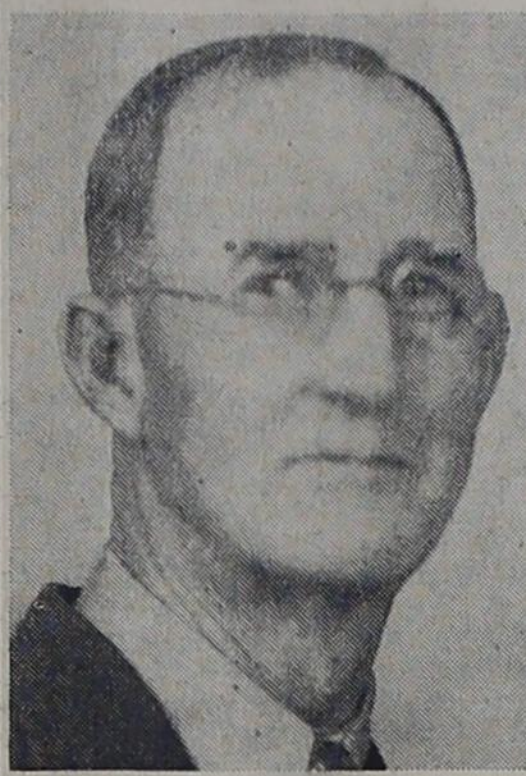

3-B Community—George A. Jones, delegate to county convention; Melvin R. Southward, alternate to convention; Otho W. Whitefield, chairman of community committee; D. G. Hand, vice-chairman; M. B. Buchanan, member of committee; Leonard A. Haws and Gordon W. Massey, alternates;

1-C Community—Edgar M. Derrick, delegate to county convention; Amos E. Steelman, alternate to convention; Robert E. Wilson, chairman of community committee; Howard Ellison, vice-chairman; S. Vernon Estes, member of committee; Durward Bell and Charles Hawkins, alternates;

2-C Community—Archie R. McCutchan, delegate to county convention; R. L. Rule, alternate to convention; Earl Derrick, chairman of community committee; W. H. Long, vice-chairman; Archie R. McCutchan, member of committee; Earl Stevenson and Isaac W. Quickel, alternates;

3-C Community—Arlin L. Hartzog, delegate to county convention; Walter A. Kaltwasser, alternate to convention; Arlin L. Hartzog, chairman of community committee; Henry Haseloff Jr., vice-chairman; Loyd Gayer, member of committee; and Joe L. McWilliams and Oscar Hubble, alternates.

DIES IN SLEEP

Heart Attack Claims Beloved Citizen

One of the community's most beloved citizens, James Marion Landrum, affectionally known as "Uncle Jim," died in his sleep at the family home in this city sometime Saturday night.

Death was attributed to a heart condition and he apparently expired shortly after retiring early Saturday night without a struggle. His youngest son, Gaston, was the only member of the family present when the end came.

Gaston had arisen early, prepared his breakfast and done the household chores before going to his father's bedroom to arouse him. He immediately discovered that the aged citizen had passed away during the night, and he gave it as his opinion death came shortly after he retired. He was 78 years old at the time of his passing.

Mrs. Landrum had gone to Sulphur Springs, Texas, to visit relatives and was absent from home when her husband died.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon, and burial took place in the Oklahoma Lane cemetery under the direction of the Steed Funeral Home in Clovis. Rev. C. M. Fields conducted the final rites, assisted by Minister Lewis C. Cox.

Active pall bearers were, Ray Mears, John Getz, Joe Crume, Otis Huggins, Percy Tipton, Buck Bradshaw, Sterlyn Billington. Honorary pall bearers included, E. M. Roof, Tel London, G. W. Magness, Bill Hall, Claude Darr, W. S. McDaniel and Edd Blain.

Mr. and Mrs. Landrum came to Parmer County in 1920 from Santillo, in Hopkins County, and for the next 21 years they lived on various farms near this city, moving to Farwell in 1941. "Uncle Jim" became a very familiar sight on the streets of Texico-Farwell during his residence here, and he was loved by all who knew him.

In 1903 he was married to Miss Elvie Payne, who died just a month after their first child was born in 1905. His second marriage was to Miss Ida Cobb in Hopkins County on Sept. 9, 1907.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ida Landrum of this city; six sons, Billy, Galveston; Oliver, Dundee; Elbert, Farwell; Douglas, El Cajon, Calif.; Jesse, Farwell; Gaston, Farwell; and one daughter, Mrs. A. L. Hobbs, Muleshoe.

Other survivors include two brothers, Jack Crane, Raymondville; Bud Crane, Dallas; one sister, Mrs. Ellen Hartwell, Greenville. Thirteen grandchildren are also listed as among the survivors.

Maybe We Could Play Just The Bottom Notes

A Tribune reporter was quizzing George Hill, director of bands at Texico School, about news from his department.

"Say, did you know that our new band uniforms have arrived this week?" he broke in. "No, tell us about them," brightened the reporter.

Hill began a detailed description, but suddenly stopped short. "Maybe you'd better wait a week or two on that," he said.

"Come to think of it, only the trousers have arrived so far."

HAND INJURED

Gloria Ann Johnson, twelve-year-old daughter of the Russell Johnsons of Texico, was injured Tuesday afternoon when she was helping her mother wash at the laundry, and accidentally got her right hand caught in the wringer. She was taken to the doctor and an xray revealed that no bones were broken. The hand was severely mashed and bruised.

Sheriff Eats Too Fast, Is Complaint Of Bewley

T. W. "Tot" Bewley, Lazbuddy resident, has nothing but praise for Sheriff Chas. Lovelace, except in one respect. "He eats too doggoned fast," is Bewley's complaint.

Bewley and the sheriff teamed up last week to run down a man in Antlers, Okla., who had burglarized the Bewley farm home.

"We traveled over 1200 miles getting the case solved," says Tot, "and I've never been so tired in all my life."

Sheriff Lovelace worked hard on the case, Bewley says. In fact, he worked so hard he didn't take much time to eat.

"The next time I go on a job with him I'm going to take a food grinder so I can keep up," declares Bewley.

The Lazbuddy man also has much praise for other officers who cooperated in breaking the case. "Charlie has made good friends with all of his fellow peace officers," says Bewley.

Paving Gets Licking From Careless Drivers

Farwell's new paving, extensive and expensive as it is, is not being properly cared for by local citizens, warns Mayor John Williams. "Of course most people don't know it, but they are actually damaging our new paving by the way they handle their automobiles," he says. Sudden starting and stopping tends to break the seal between the pavement and its base, he cautions, and turns at excessive speed are having the same effect.

"We will just have to take it easy until the pavement can 'cure,'" believes the mayor. "The pavement won't stand rough treatment at this stage, and it's being torn up and rutted in places."

It is his recommendation that trucks and autos are not to exceed 20 miles per hour at any time on the new pavement, and that they be slowed to 10 miles per hour for all corners. By doing this, the necessity for nearly all sudden stops will be eliminated.

In addition, he cautioned that persons watering their lawns exercise care to see that drainage does not run into the guttering until the pavement has cured. "The inspector himself told me that this practice is very damaging if the water seeps into the pavement base," says Mayor Williams.

Praises Contractors

Mayor Williams, reviewing the paving in Farwell, had praise for the E. & E. Contracting company of Alpine, the firm which is doing the paving.

"We have had Second Street inspected, and it has been okayed," he said. "Except for a few spots here and there, it is now finished. In fact," he continued, "everything the contractors have done so far has been generally approved. We need some work done on some corners and bare spots, but everything seems to be okay."

Texico School Enrolls 285 Students Monday

Two-hundred-eighty-five students enrolled for classes at Texico schools Monday morning, Agrie Jones, superintendent of schools, says. This figure represents a small increase in students, in grammar school, and about the same number of high school students, in relation to last year he adds, with 80 in high school and 205 in the lower grades.

The first grade is about the largest class with 32 enrolled this year. Students registered Monday and began regular classes Tuesday. Buses ran on schedule.

Several different courses are on the agenda this year. Trigonometry has been added for those who are interested in engineering, and World History is a new course. Chemistry will be taught instead of biology and physics on the rotation system and bookkeeping is again on the agenda.

TO WORKER'S CONFERENCE

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Fields and children attended a worker's conference Tuesday of last week at Pleasant Hill, which was in charge of Rev. J. J. Terry. The program was cooperative. On the program were Rev. Fields, and the pastors from Rosedale, Mountainair and Ranchvale.

The Tribune—Still the Best Buy!

Contributions in the sum of $1869 were in the treasury of the Farmer County Fair and Dairy Show Association the first of the week, with the fair itself only two weeks away.

"It looks as though we might go over two thousand this year," comments Raymond Euler, secretary-treasurer. This is considerably more than the total last year, and may establish a new record in the 10-year history of the fair before the drive ends.

However, Euler says that since this is his first year at the post, he is not certain of past records.

In addition, it appears certain that the fair will come out better financially than ever before, because publication of the fair catalog has been suspended. This money will be channeled back to support the fair itself.

"Of all the money-campaigns with which I have been associated, this is the only one that has given me a real pleasure," is Euler's comment, underscoring, apparently, the willingness of persons contacted to support the project.

Schedule of Events Released

The Association has released for publication the following schedule of events for the 1952 Fair:

Tom Hestand Resigns As Steer Helmsman

The athletic program for Farwell Schools has been suddenly upset by the eleventh-hour resignation of Head Coach Tommy Hestand, but the 1952 football season will roll on in for the Farwell Steers just the same.

Supt. Jack Williams advises all junior and senior boys to be at the gymnasium tomorrow (Friday) night at 7:30 for the usual pre-season physical examination.

"This physical must be taken before the boys can go out for football," warns Supt. Williams. Dr. Paul Spring of Friona will be on hand for the examination.

Coach Tom Hestand, head mentor for the Steers for the past two years, tendered his resignation Tuesday in a surprise move. The resignation was accepted Wednesday night in a called school board meeting.

Hestand announces that the only reason for his resignation is an offer for a better position. He plans to leave this weekend for Childress where he will be assistant coach.

"I sincerely regret having to leave at such a later hour," says Hestand, "but I am afraid this opportunity may not present itself again."

Wednesday afternoon Supt. Williams said he had "no idea in the world" who would be contacted to replace Hestand.

THESE ARE YOUR

Friends & Neighbors

(Eleventh in a series of informative articles revealing little known facts about well known people in and around Texico-Farwell and nearby communities. Our sole purpose is to promote better acquaintances—in the hope of promoting better friendships.)

W. H. Alderson has been in this county for the past 45 years, and his wife has been in Parmer 38 years—so they have watched this country grow up. And they have some mighty interesting tales to tell about the early days, not only about Parmer, but about Oklahoma when it was Indian territory.

The Aldersons reside 13 miles west of Friona as straight west as the section line runs, says the local man.

Alderson was born about 75 miles from Shreveport, La., but when he was 16 years of age he left home to seek his fortune and settled in the Indian territory of Oklahoma. He ran cattle in the territory for 23 years, working all over that part of the country. "I stayed there long enough that the territory was a state when I left," he laughs.

Alderson says he didn't know much about Billy the Kid and some of his outlaws, "but I used to rope steers with old Bud Starr," he says. He also knew Frank James, though he didn't know the more famous Jesse James. "But I still don't believe that Jesse James was killed," he adds. "I've eaten many a meal off the back of a wagon with Frank when we were running cattle," says Alderson.

Asked where he lived in Oklahoma, Alderson laughed and answered "just where the sun went down. For weeks and months we would work without even seeing the roof of a house," he adds.

One of the old cowboy's favorite stories is about the time he slept out in eight inches of snow. He had been hunting stray cattle, and suddenly realized that it was getting late and he was eight or 10 miles from camp. He saw a little camp while riding along and asked the owner if he could stay all night there, but the man met him with a gun and told him "no."

"So I just drove my cattle about a mile down the trail and built a fire and made camp," he says. He had nothing to eat or to feed the cattle. After the fire was going "good, he moved it, building a second fire. He then cleaned away the place where the first fire had been, and went to sleep on a saddle blanket with an overcoat for cover. "And I didn't freeze so it worked out pretty well," he chuckles. That was on Jan. 2, 1887, Alderson adds.

The next day he drove the cattle seven or eight miles to camp where he received something to eat and fed the animals. "I didn't do without anything to eat, I just postponed it," he says.

Discussing the Indians, Alderson recounts that he worked in what was classified as the "civilized" section of the Oklahoma territory. But they kept from 6000 to 8000 soldiers at Fort Sill to watch the Indians, nevertheless, he adds. He felt that the Apaches were mean Indians, and were truly savage.

The local man knew the famous Apache warrior chief, Geronimo, and also Quanah Parker, another Indian Chief that was well known. Alderson tells the story of the Apache warrior who was captured with 90 warriors and placed on some islands off Florida. "Geronimo was one Indian who never surrendered. His life was war all the time," he continues.

Alderson recalls that the Indian eventually made a treaty allowing him to go back to Oklahoma if he wouldn't go on warpath again.

"He was said to have a beautiful robe made of women's hair and strung with beads," says Alderson, "but I didn't see it." The Indian reported to Ft. Sill soldiers every morning and each evening after his return to Oklahoma. "If he wasn't there on the hour, the soldiers began riding through the streets looking for him," says the local man.

Alderson can tell many other stories about the Indians, remembering dates and names. He worked where Medicine Park now is many years ago. "We branded and watered there," he explains. He also helped issue beef to the Indians at one time. The government built houses for the Indians to live in, but they stayed in their teepees anyway, he says.

Soldiers were kept in a "spy house" day and night watching the countryside for any trouble. Alderson went up to the lookout point one time. "It was the only time I've ever been above the clouds," he says, explaining that the sun was shining on lookout point and it was raining below.

The cowboy also helped to brand cattle where Oklahoma City now stands. "I was just a young boy with a little money in my pocket and thought that's all I needed," he says "when I had a chance to get two lots in Oklahoma City for $1 apiece."

He laughs when he says he didn't take it not seeing its value, adding that grass was standing about a foot high. There was a run for the land "but I just didn't think anything about it," he continues. He also remembers Oklahoma City's first depot—a box car.

Alderson was gone from home seven years before he went back to see his family. And he hasn't seen his brothers and sisters—he has two sisters and one brother still residing in Louisiana—in 58 years. "They were little kids when I last saw them," he adds. One of his dearest wishes is to see his family again, "but I'm just not able to make the trip," he says.

"I was born close to a cotton stalk, been under the shade of one, and have been whipped with one, but I never learned to love one" quips Alderson, who says he still would prefer other work besides farming if his health would permit it. He is going on 83.

When farming began to build up in Oklahoma was when he had moved to Texas. "I voted for the first bunch of officers in the state of Oklahoma, he says "but I didn't live there long enough to pay taxes. He left in 1905 and came west. He resided west of Clovis for a couple of years, then moved east of Bovina.

Friona was just a switch then, he says, with just a few section houses, and "at that time, Bovina was the largest cattle shipping point in the world" he further explains. He worked on ranches over this area for many years.

It was on February 15, 1914 that Alderson went back to Oklahoma and married Miss Minnie Denney, whom he had known for many years. "We were engaged from 1904 until our marriage" says Alderson. "We were going to wait until I made a fortune, but I never did" he laughs.

He had met his wife back in 1903 at a community singing on Sunday afternoon. She was a teacher in the school there. The couple was married at 11 o'clock in the morning, had dinner at the hotel there, and was traveling on the train, headed for Texas, by one o'clock.

Mrs. Alderson remembers the early sandstorms, but she thought Parmer was a beautiful country. After their marriage, the Aldersons stayed at Bovina for six years, then began work for themselves. They farmed for 11 years on two rented places, and since that time have been on the place where they now reside.

Mrs. Alderson was born at Huntsville, Ark., and went to Oklahoma when she was 18 years of age. She had taught school in Huntsville, and upon hearing that wages were better in Oklahoma, she and her sister began their travels. In the new territory, she found it quite an experience to teach all the Indian youngsters and the others.

Her father had been a farmer and stockman and the two sisters traveled home to see their parents when they could get away.

She taught to the seventh grades "and kept them on their ABC's about four years," says her husband. But Mrs. Alderson is good-natured about the teasing, and answers back "Oh, we had McGuffey's Speller."

Alderson has lived through four wars and has never had to register. "I've seen boys pack their bags to go off to war all my life, seems like," he says. He has always been outside the age limit. In the Boer war, "I had a chance to take some mules over the ocean, but I told them I'd try it when they put a bridge across that water," he says. The local man also remembers the Spanish-American war, then World War I and World War II.

"Uncle Billy" Alderson has never been on the sea or in an airplane, but he probably knows more about the expanse of land in Oklahoma and Texas, then most people ever have a chance to gain.

BOVINA NEWS

Foster Car Burns After Collision

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foster lost not only their car, but clothing and other articles near Greenville Wednesday of last week when their automobile caught fire and burned after a collision.

The Fosters were enroute to their home in Virginia, after spending his furlough here visiting relatives. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rundell. The Foster car was hit from the rear by another vehicle, after it had been slowed down for a detour. The automobile and all its contents then burned.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Foster and the man in the other car received severe cuts and bruises.

The young couple and their small baby returned here after the accident, and were awarded a five-day extension on their leave for recuperation. They left Tuesday with the Melborn Jones, and planned to travel with them, to Selma, Ala., then make the remainder of the trip by train.

Farmers Report Insects In Light Numbers

Farmers are finding leaf worms and boll worms in limited numbers in the cotton over the county says County Agent Joe Jones. He again reminds cotton growers to keep a close watch on the fields for the insects.

Anyone can tell when the cotton leaf worm is at work by the ragging of the leaves, says Jones, but they have to be more observant and persistent when looking for the bollworm, by getting into the fields and examining the cotton thoroughly.

When numbers of the pests are enough to do damage, farmers should spray the field, says Jones. Usually four or five worms and eggs per 100 terminals is considered a heavy infestation to warrant spraying for bollworm, he adds. "But farmers should inspect the complete patch before deciding that infestation is bad enough to spray," he concludes.

SOFTBALL CONCLUDED

Workouts for women's softball were concluded recently, the players report. Several of the players were no longer available, and the number is too small to continue practice, it was announced.

Youth Revival To Feature Rally Friday

The Youth Revival, which is in progress this week at the Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, will feature a youth rally Friday night to which the young people of the churches in the Clovis sub-district of the Methodist Youth Fellowship have been invited.

The rally will start with a picnic supper on the church lawn at 6:30 p.m. The supper will be followed by a song service led by Rex Pool. Rev. J. Noble Atkins, who is conducting the youth revival, will bring the message.

Rev. Miller H. Stroup says that all the young people of Texico, Farwell, and the surrounding communities are welcome to attend. They are to bring a sack lunch and the drinks and refreshments will be provided by the local MYF.

Timely Talks

FROM THE TRIBUNE

CONCLUSION

All along through these talks, we've been coming ever closer to what we want you to know about The State Line Tribune. We have wanted you to understand its advertising, its newsgathering technique, and its purpose for being.

We want you to know that we are a small, friendly organization made up of people just like you subscribers; that we want the same things you do, and will insist on a sensible way of arriving at these things.

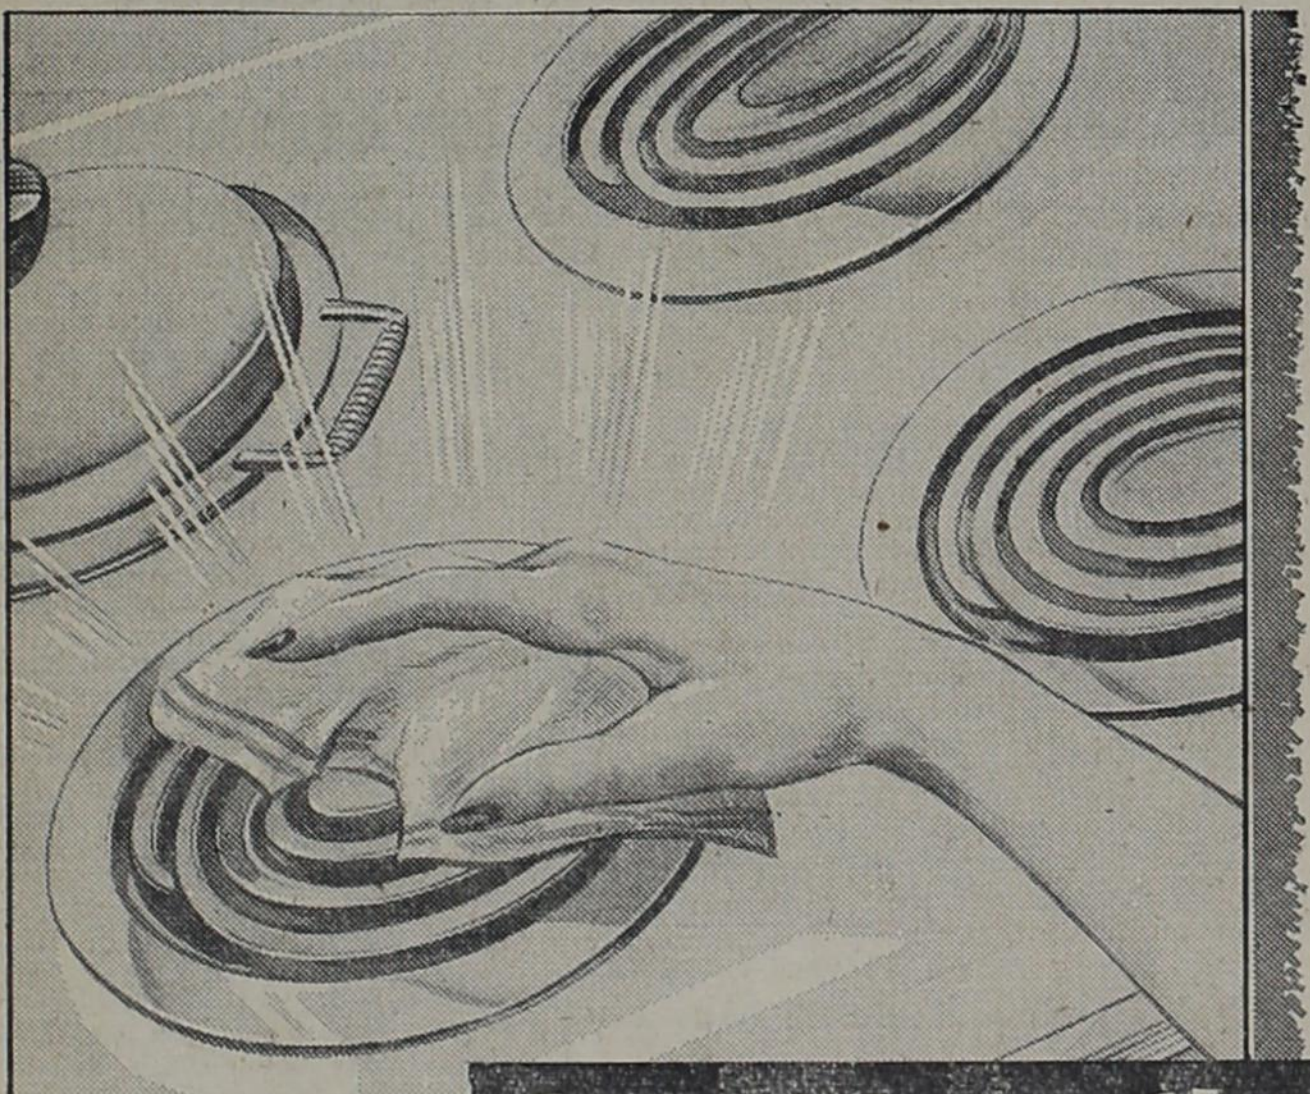

As ordinary Plains people, we make mistakes. We probably make a lot more than we should. But we don't want you to forget that for every mistake we make we learn a lesson, and we will never quit trying to thin out our human failures.

Remember that regardless of where you may be, we are personally interested in you, and want to be of service if we possibly can.

Remember too, that we need a lot of help to get out the kind of a newspaper you will read and appreciate. For that purpose, we have special correspondents Your contact with these hard-working people help assure the kind of a publication you and we want.

Times are ever-changing. We can't help that. And we don't mind so long as real progress is the result. We're making changes too, and we hope to keep our place as a news-distributing and advertising media on the High Plains. We're proud of it.

— W. H. G.

New Professor Joins Wayland College Staff

Plainview, Aug.—With the coming of Jack Richard Longgear as assistant professor of physical education at Wayland College, the division of health and physical education will be reorganized, with emphasis being placed on a well-rounded intramural and recreational sports program, according to Dean H. Preston James.

Mr. and Mrs. Longgear will arrive early in September to assume duties. Mrs. Longgear will be counselor for Pioneer Hall, a residence for young women.

Longgear, who for the last two years has been B. S. U. secretary at Murray State College, holds the M. S. degree with a major in physical education from the University of Indiana, one of the strong graduate schools in this field. He completed work for the B. S. degree at Murray State College in Kentucky. He has had varsity participation in basketball, track, swimming, tennis and baseball and is an expert at handball. At Indiana he was a graduate assistant, teaching in the department of physical education.

On graduation from Indiana, he was elected principal of Clarkton High School, his hometown in Missouri, where he also taught physical education for two years.

Before being called into service he was enrolled at Arkansas State University. After serving two and one-half years in the United States Air Force, being stationed most of the time in Great Britain, he entered Murray State.

On the fall schedule at Wayland College, Longgear is listed for courses in "Personal Health," "Corrective Physical Education," and "Major Sports," as well as two activity classes for men.

For a number of years, he has been active in Boy Scouts of America and has been serving as a Scoutmaster. While a student at Murray State College, he was elected president of the Kentucky Baptist Student Union. He is also a member of Beta Beta Beta, honorary biological fraternity, and Phi Epsilon Kappa, honorary physical education fraternity. Longgear is also a member of Kiwanis Club.

Too Much Sunlight May Be Dangerous

The sun's rays are like an active drug—a little can be a big help in many conditions, but some people get too much.

Don't try to acquire a "brown-as-berry" complexion instead of a "healthy tan" one, health specialists say. Immediate danger from sunburns can be controlled to a certain extent. But there is a long-term danger of skin cancer from continuous over-exposure to direct sunlight.

Most skin cancers result from long, continued abuse. Fair-skinned people, especially, should be content with only moderate amounts of sunshine. When the skin is exposed to the elements and to sunlight for a long time, it gradually becomes dry, slightly scaly, and freckled or covered with so-called liver spots. This condition, has been popularly called "sailor's skin." As time goes on, some of those freckles may become wart-like or degenerate into skin cancers. Experience plus good judgment will tell most people when they've had enough sunshine—though mothers may need to exercise some control where children are concerned.

As of July 1951, there was a total of 41,193 post offices in the U. S. and its possessions.

ESA Presents Annual Fall Style Show Thursday Night at Gym

Members of Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, presented a showing of latest fall fashions Thursday evening at the Farwell gymnasium, sponsored by Dunlap's of Clovis.

The showing centered around the complete fall wardrobe for women and teen-agers, showing coats, suits, fall dresses, knit suits, sport clothes, formals and accessories. A variety of fabrics were included in the array of clothing, and colors varied from bright colors to browns, greys and blacks. Corduroys are again a high note in fashion, and gaberdines and failles were used extensively for suits and clothing for dress-up occasions.

Colorful school clothes—skirts, sweaters, sport dresses, sport coats, and casual shoes were demonstrated by Farwell's younger set.

Formals were frothy and full skirted in nets and laces, over taffetas and satins. The long formal and the ballerina lengths were shown with equal emphasis.

Rose Bishop of Dunlaps, commentator for the show, was introduced by Mrs. W. H. Graham Jr., president of ESA. A unique method was used to begin festivities. Mrs. Bishop cleverly introduced four younger models, ages four and eight, who were fitted for fall, but in their mother's clothes. The young ladies, Misses Teresa Quicquel, Edith Ann Walling, Gloria Hillock, and Pat Kaltwasser, paraded across the stage in their mother's dress shoes, hats and dresses.

Mrs. Erma Jobs, director of music at Farwell schools, was pianist for the occasion, playing soft music, complimenting the clothing shown.

A duet and two trios were presented at intervals. Susan Levins and Barbara Caldwell of Texico were featured; as were Rex Pool, Dick Felts and Howard Jenkins as a trio; and Nancy Aldridge, Darlene Sprawls and Kayla Felts, also as a trio.

Clovis Floral was in charge of flower arrangements, centering the stage with a huge display of mums, gladioli, and other flowers; which were accented on either side by greenery. Unusual displays of flowers were used with the clothing; with corsages complimenting purses, or pinned to the sleeve of dresses. Of particular note was a flower arrangement placed on a fan, to be carried with a formal.

At the conclusion of the show, the door prize, a floor lamp presented by the Furniture Mart was given Mrs. Roy Slagle of Friona.

Models included: Kayla Felts, Darlene Sprawls, Nancy and Mary Belle Aldridge, Lavoyda Billington, Mikala Faville, Ann Whitley, Alta Sheets, Ann Lovelace, Myrtle Rose, Mrs. E. G. Williams, Wilma Liner, Nina Glasscock, Irene Dyer, Jenean Grissom, Jo Sondra Magerus, Joan Spurlin and Peggy Hardage.

ESA Has Business Meeting Tuesday

Members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met for a call meeting in the home of Mrs. Sonny Graham Tuesday night to dispose of current business. A final report was given on the style show sponsored by the group last week.

Members decided to enter a table setting contest sponsored by Stanley's in Clovis, in October. Nell Walling was named to be in charge of the work for the entry.

Wynema Cochran, new pledge and Golden Girl for the sorority, was introduced. Cokes and cookies were served.

Visitors Listed In Peyton Home

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Peyton recently included: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Peyton and two children, Dianne and Johnny, also Jack Peyton of Tucson, Ariz. They are brothers of Mr. Peyton.

Other guests were Mrs. Peyton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Daniel of Altus, Okla.

Kindergarten To Open Monday

Mrs. Tom Foster has completed plans for the formal opening of Texico-Farwell kindergarten Monday morning at 8:45. Mrs. C. M. Fields will be the assistant teacher to replace Mrs. Harry Whitley.

Plans have been made for a full day to be spent at the kindergarten if parents wish. However, pre-school training will be held from 8:45 to 11:45.

This is the first year the kindergarten has been open in the afternoon, Mrs. Foster says, and anyone wishing this service is asked to be present to make plans at 8:30 Monday. The instructor also points out that rural children wishing to attend may have to make special plans. "There is no transportation of the school bus to be had, according to the state department," she says.

The entire program will be under the direction of Mrs. Foster and will be conducted according to plans endorsed by the University kindergarten program.

Miss Boney Marries Raymond Lewis

In an informal ceremony in Portales on August 12, Miss Reba Boney, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Boney of Clovis, became the bride of Raymond Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis of Texico.

Rev. Lewis Johnson, Baptist minister, performed the ceremony in the pastorage there. Attendants were Rex Thomas of Clovis, and Miss Loraine Sears of Muleshoe.

For her wedding, the bride chose a lace and nylon net dress of orchid, featuring a peter pan collar, cap sleeves, and a peplum effect over the full skirt. Her accessories were white and she wore white carnations. Maid-of-honor wore a blue and white dress with a corsage of roses.

The bride attended school in Clovis and the bridegroom attended Texico Schools. Mr. Lewis also served in the Air Force for three years.

The young couple will live in Texico where he is employed at the Conoco Service Station.

Church Party Fetes Oklahoma Lane Group

The Intermediates and Young People of the Oklahoma Lane Baptist church were entertained with a party Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Donaldson. Humorous games were enjoyed by all.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following: Rev. and Mrs. Mayo Carpenter and Marilyn, Melvin Terry, George George Young, Denzil Young, Eugene Verner, Donald Ray Verner, Phyllis Tucker, Robert Tucker, Koleta Smith, Roy Young, Marcela Verner, Lillian Young, Margaret Verner, Marvin Young, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roach; Rev. and Mrs. Jess Terry and Ludene of Grady, and the host and hostess and their children.

From California

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Urbach and children of Redondo Beach, Calif. visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson one afternoon last week. Mrs. Urbach was the former Claudene Curry. Mr. and Mrs. G. Payne of Long Beach were also visitors in the Johnson home.

Mrs. Hugh Tucker and family were dinner guests in the home of Mrs. T. E. Roth Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends who were so kind and helpful during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear husband and father, J. M. Landrum; for the kind words of sympathy and for the delicious food that was brought to our home; and especially to the ones that helped in the song service. May God bless each and everyone.

Texico Band Boosters Plan Important Meeting

Tuesday night has been set as the date for an important meeting of Texico band boosters, and George Hill, band director at Texico schools, urges all band parents and band boosters to be present.

The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock in the Texico school auditorium. Governmental policies of the organization for the year will be decided. Hill again expresses the importance of the attendance of everyone connected with the band boosters organization. Parents are welcome to bring children to the meeting and refreshments will be served.

Plans will be made for a carnival at the home of the Ray Tharps on September 5, as a money raising function. The carnival will feature bingo, a chance for youngsters to throw baseballs at the teachers and all sorts of games. Ice cream, cake and refreshments will also be on sale. "The carnival will feature entertainment for everyone," Hill adds.

WMU Members Are Meeting Hostesses

Members of the WMU of the Baptist church were hostesses to a social for the women of the church Thursday afternoon at the church. The group will close the associational year and elect new officers soon, says Mrs. C. M. Fields.

Eileen Pearce, Mrs. Beulah McWilliams and Mrs. Roscoe Burris were in charge of the entertainment for the meeting and presented a group of humorous skits. Devotional was given by Mrs. E. G. Williams and a talk on young people's work was presented by Mrs. Barney Kelley.

Refreshments of home made ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Lula Daniel, cousin of Mrs. N. W. Peyton, is to arrive this week from Oklahoma, to spend the winter in the Peyton home.

Mrs. Claud Rose Attends Market

Mrs. Claude Rose was among the 5000 buyers who attended the American Fashion Association Mid-winter and Holiday Market in Dallas, August 17-22.

The American Fashion Association, comprised of 500 manufacturers' representatives, displayed over 1,100 lines of women's and children's apparel at the Adolphus, Baker and Bluebonnet hotels.

Highlight of market week was the breakfast-clinic style show entitled "Christmas Fun for Everyone," held on August 19 and 20 in the Grand Ballroom of Adolphus Hotel. Seven Holiday themes were staged, each illustrated by costumes from the midwinter lines, together with suggestions for promotion, advertising and window display.

The style show was presented with Mrs. Evelyn Lambert's commentation.

The next market week will be held in Dallas October 26-31 and will feature Resort and Advance Spring Fashions.

Mozelle Moore Visits Parents In Bovina

Miss Mozelle Moore returned to Amarillo, Texas, Thursday after spending one month at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Moore of Bovina. Mozelle also visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Berry of Clovis.

Mozelle has been in nurse's training at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo the past two years. She will go to Austin, Texas September 15th to finish training. She was also elected president of the senior class for the coming year, and vice-president of the student body.

Companion Class Has Special Guest

Margaret London was hostess to the regular meeting of Companion Sunday School class of the Baptist church Tuesday of last week. Special guest was Phyllis Tucker who told about her trip to camp.

Devotional was given by Dorothy Camp.

Attending the meeting were: Aileen Pearce, Coeta Doolittle, Jenean Grisham, Glenda Carpenter, Juanita Foreman, Dot Camp, Carmen Roth, Margaret London, Rita Dollar and the teacher, Mrs. T. E. Roth.

ATTEND SCHOOL AT N. M. WESTERN

Curry County bus drivers from Texico, Center, Field, Ranchvale, Melrose, and Rosedale who attended the annual state school for bus drivers at Silver City are shown above. Sessions were held at New Mexico Western College. The Texico group took first aid and safety education courses, with the exception of N. W. Peyton, who studied maintenance and mechanics. Texico drivers pictured are Jimmy Moss, Ronnie Ferguson and Howard Hudson, first row, left-to-right; Yvonne Horton, second from right, second row; and Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Peyton, far right, third row. John Adams and Margie Brown are the other two drivers.

Border Theatre To Help Cripple Children Fund

Scotty Levins, manager of the Border Theatre, today announced his theatre will participate in the 1952 Texas Theatres Crippled Children's Fund for Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation with audience collections during the week, August 31-September 6.

Glamorous Screen Star Joan Crawford and former Gonzales patient Beverly Mills of Smiley, Texas, will appear in the special theatre movie produced at RKO Studios by ace director David Miller. Miss Crawford, a native Texan, makes the dramatic appeal for financial aid for the treatment center where Texans of every race, color and creed are treated for polio and other neuromuscular diseases.

R. J. O'Donnell, vice president and general manager of Interstate Theatres, and Col. H. A. Cole, head of Allied Theatres of Texas, are co-chairmen of the theatre fund. In announcing the third theatre-sponsored polio drive, Mr. O'Donnell pointed out that this year, more than ever, treatment is vitally needed at the Texas hospital.

"Unfortunately our great state has been harder hit by polio than any other in the nation," he said. "It's up to us, the citizens of Texas, to prevent a state of helpless crippled boys and girls by helping to provide the additional treatment facilities they need."

Almost every theatre man in the state has pledged support of the drive to provide valuable equipment and bed space at the non-profit Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation.

Local resident may contribute at the theatre collections or may make checks payable to the Texas Theatres Crippled Children's Fund and mail them direct to headquarters at 1209 National City Building, Dallas.

Texico Band Uniforms To Arrive This Week

The trousers for the Texico band uniforms have already arrived and the remainder of the suits are expected to be here this week, George Hill, band director of the school, reports. A total of forty uniforms are on order.

The six twirler's uniforms are being made, to complete the clothing for the band. Boosters are still minus $103 to be paid on the suits, and plan to raise the money by project and contribution.

Possibly the next project will be 25 music stands, says Hill, but that is in the future.

Budget Approved By Commissioners' Court

The county budget was approved at Commissioners' Court meeting Monday, and members discussed routine business. The budget was approved as submitted with one exception. Under law enforcement for care of prisoners, the expenditure was increased from $1200 to $2000, County Clergy Loyde Brewer reveals.

Amount budgeted for the general fund was $64,022.52, with an income of $85,837.50, including the cash balance on hand, anticipated. In the road and bridge fund, an expenditure of $73,600 was listed with $74,584.45 anticipated income.

Other funds with the amount budgeted, and anticipated income including balance on hand are: Jury fund—$2,196.00 budget and income, $11,601.09; Right-of-way fund—$8,002.92 budget and income, $11,331.64; and permanent improvement fund, $3,600.00 budget and income, $7,781.10.

Unknown Persons Enter Kindergarten Building

Mrs. Tom Foster reports that the kindergarten building, which has been closed for the summer, was entered sometime in recent weeks by an unknown person or persons, but nothing was missing from the school room.

The window to the front door had been broken, and the door unlocked, and some of the windows were up. The only evidence of the entrance besides the above named facts, was a litter of cigarette butts in the building.

Judge Bills Tries Non-Jury Cases

Judge E. A. Bills, district judge of Littlefield, was in Farwell Wednesday.

Two non-jury cases were decided: Daniel Carmichael vs. C. T. McLaren, TTT; and W. S. Cogdill vs. Joseph A. Sanders, TTT. In both cases, judgment was for plaintiff.

Judge Bills will be back in Farwell September 19 to try non-jury cases.

This, for many people, is a favorite time of year for building or remodeling. With nearly all of the summer behind them, they are looking forward to the pleasant fall days. If you're one of this group let us suggest that you take time to pay a visit to our offices before you get started on that building or repairing project. You'll find we can save you money on many phases of building. Be sure to ask us about our Budget Plan, too. No down payment (no red tape!) and 36 months to pay.

Steers Could Rise to Power this Season, Says Departing Coach Tommy Hestand

Names Nine Lettermen For Backbone of Squad

Regardless of the uncertainty for a coach this year, the football season is on the Farwell Steers. Resigning Coach Tommy Hestand before leaving Wednesday said "this could very well be the year that Farwell will return with a winning team."

He based his prediction on the nine returning lettermen and a crop of very promising sophomores.

"Everything will shape up pretty well with the exception of the tackles," is Hestand's prediction.

Honny Dial and Ted Magness are back as ends, Duane Herrington is the only returning letterman for the tackle slot. Jerry Bradshaw and Cassidy will be back to contest for the guard positions. Buil Dollar will have experience as a center, and Frank Gulley, Dennis Raney, and Lynn Carpenter have lettered in the backfield.

On the negative side of the picture, three promising sophomores have moved away from school, and will not be available for the squad. They are Calvin Barber, back; and Kersey and Pence, guards.

Many good prospects are moving up from duty in the junior ranks, predicts Hestand. Some of the names that will likely be associated with the varsity team are Gene Hardage, Billy Watts, Don Pool, and Don Gerjes. These boys are all backfield material, and all sophomores.

Hestand saw use for Eddie Smith, who seems to be able to pass effectively, and predicted that Cassidy will become a successful kicker.

Other sophomores named as possibilities are H. R. Billingsley and James Norton, both linemen for guard positions.

Friona May Be Rough

District 3-B was a bearcat in no uncertain terms last year. Happy, district champion, squashed the Steers 51-0. This year, however, Happy and New Deal have withdrawn from the district, and joined other leagues.

That leaves Friona, Bovina, Anton, Petersburg, and Farwell in a five-team conference. The conference has shrunk, but not necessarily in strength as well as size. Friona was a considerable power in the district last year and steamed over Farwell 60-0 in freezing weather to prove it.

For that reason, Friona may be considered a threat to the pennant this year, since Happy, the champion, is gone. Petersburg is still in the conference, and cannot be laughed off, either. They whipped Farwell 41-12.

The opening game for the Steers will be at Farwell Sept. 12 when they play Springlake. From last year's record, things don't look very promising here, either. Springlake beat Farwell 26-6 in 1951.

N. W. Peyton Receives Broken Rib In Mishap

N. W. Peyton, Texico school bus owner, escaped with a broken rib and minor internal injuries, when one of his school buses fell on him as he was repairing it.

Peyton was repairing a rear left spring on the bus, having already removed the wheel, when the jack gave way and he was pinned beneath the bus. Mrs. Peyton was in the garage at the time, and thinking quickly, immediately jacked the bus up again so her husband could be removed and she then called an ambulance.

The local man has been released from the hospital and is recuperating satisfactorily, Mrs. Peyton reports.

The local Brotherhood is represented at the District Nine Brotherhood Encampment at the Plains Baptist Assembly, Floydada, this week.

Several from this church attended the Youth Revival at the Bovina Baptist Church last week.

Last Sunday's attendance record was: Sunday School, 86; Training Union, 42.

"Consider Europe" was the subject of the informative Royal Service program at the church Wednesday afternoon. Using a huge map dotted with flags of the different countries, Mrs. Bill Meeks, program chairman, had charge with seven other members participating.

The annual church conference will be held next Wednesday evening September 3. All church members are urged to attend this important meeting.

Considerable interest was evidenced in the study of the eighth chapter of Revelation last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Donaldson entertained the young people with a Training Union social at their home Saturday night. George Young and Gene Verner directed the games after which refreshments were served.

A cordial welcome awaits you at the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church.

Farm Bureau Directors Meet at Lazbuddy

Seven Farm Bureau directors met at Lazbuddy Monday night to discuss current business of the group. A chief topic of discussion was the Farmer County Fair, planned next month.

It was announced that a sub-district Farm Bureau session will be held in Plainview September 10, and directors made plans to attend. It was decided to select a nominating committee for new officers at the next meeting, with instructions for the committee to select two men for each office and leave a space for a write-in candidate on the ballots. Election will be held at the November county convention.

Men also talked about resolutions to be presented at the county convention. If approved, the resolutions will then be sent to the state organization.

Brazil Missionary To Speak Here 7th

Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Treadwell will be here this weekend of September 7. Rev. C. M. Fields, pastor of the local Baptist church reports, and he will preach both services on that day. Rev. Treadwell, former pastor of Texico-Farwell Baptist church, is now a missionary in Brazil.

The Treadwells will be guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Fields during their stay here, and the missionary will speak at the Plains Baptist association meeting in Ft. Sumner on Sept. 9.

On the seventh, a basket dinner will be held at the church following services, so members will have a chance to visit with the former pastor.

Rev. White Conducts Series Of Services

Rev. Aubrey White of Olton is conducting the current series of revival meetings at Oklahoma Lane Methodist church this week. Services will continue through Sunday.

The revival services have been well attended, a spokesman says. Mrs. Bobbie Foster and Gene Rhea are music directors with Caryetta Grisom as pianist. Services are held twice daily, at 10:30 in the morning and at 8 o'clock each evening.

Hunting And Fishing Licenses Available

Resident licenses for the 1952 fishing and hunting seasons in Texas are now available, announces Loyde Brewer, county clerk. Persons desiring licenses may secure them at the county agent's office, Cicero Smith Lumber Company, Bovina; or Plains Hardware, Friona.

Hunting licenses are $2.15 this year; fishing licenses $1.65. All persons over 17 years of age are required to buy and carry these licenses, while hunting and fishing.

However, noted the clerk, it is not necessary for a person to buy either of the licenses so long as he does not leave his home county in seek of game and fish.

Half-Century Club Redecorates Legion Club Room, Kitchen

The newly-decorated clubroom and kitchen in the American Legion hall was used for the first time when Mrs. Douglas Nix, nee Nancy Williams, was honored with a bridal shower recently, Mrs. Jimmy Charles, president of the Half-Century club says, adding that ladies of the club were highly pleased with the compliments received on the new decorative scheme of the building.

The club room ceiling is painted a dark chocolate brown and extends two feet down the walls, gaining the effect of a lower ceiling than the 12 feet. Three walls and the woodwork are grey beige; and the southwest wall compliments the room, featuring a leaf print wall paper of various greens, ranging from yellow green to deeper tones, and with rust, red birds on a background. The picture mold separating the ceiling drop and wall paper is a matching green. Window length drapes on traverse rods are rust red, accenting the birds in the paper.

The kitchen has the same ceiling treatment as the club room, only a deep maroon is used and brought down to the wainscote behind the stove. The northeast wall and the wall holding the closets have wall paper in a floral print with various shades of pink orange blossoms. Lower portion of the cabinet is orchid, with upper cabinets in a lighter color, dusty orchid pink. Windows and picture mold are in matching shades, and apple green cottage curtains emphasize the green in the wall paper.

A Fostoria crystal service for 48 has been placed in the kitchen with china and silver soon to be added.

Members of the Half-Century club planned the color schemes, with Mrs. Troy Armstrong as advisor, and ladies did most of the work themselves. Women expressed thanks to Bill Liles for hanging the paper; to Fred Paine for installing the molding in the two rooms; and to Lewis Pesch for repairing the rest room door and the kitchen door.

Members are now making preparations to paint the rest room, in a soft green. A powder table and matching stool has been made for the north wall.

A new rental system has been set up for the club, Mrs. Charles says. Any one room or a combination of rooms may be rented, but anyone wishing to use the Legion hall must sign a responsibility contract, and be responsible for any damage of any kind. He must also agree to wash all dishes and to leave the hall free of any debris, or to pay the set janitor for doing this. He must also return the key to the custodian by a set hour or pay 50c per hour for any time past that hour.

"The last clause in the contract will assure the custodian that he will not have to go after the key or send another renter elsewhere for it. The time will be set by the renter for his convenience," she adds.

Rental fees have been set for the building: club room, $4; club room and kitchen, $5; club room, kitchen and equipment, $6.50; hall, $5; hall and club room, $9; hall and kitchen, $6; hall, kitchen and equipment, $7.50; hall, club room and kitchen, $10; hall, club room kitchen and equipment, $11.50.

Janitor and cleaning fees are: kitchen, $2.50; club room, $2.50; hall $5.

Rules and regulations are that any renter must sign the responsibility contract, the building is to be locked and the key in the custody of the custodian, the rental fee must be paid in advance, the hall must be left clean. The responsibility of the hall is that of the clubhouse committee of the Half-Century club, who will see that the building is clean and ready for use at all times.

Mrs. Marion Carson has been named to keep the keys of the building and anyone desiring to rent the hall should see her, Mrs. Charles adds.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. W. J. Wade in Bovina Sunday were: the Gene Wads of Groom; and Max Wade of Amarillo.

Mrs. W. J. Wade was taken to a Clovis hospital Monday for diagnosis and treatment.

YOUTH REVIVAL ENDS

Youth Revival that was held Aug. 13 through August 24 at the Bovina Baptist church was indeed a blessing to all who attended, the pastor says. Bro. Jamie Tidenberg of Bovina did the preaching. John Gatlin of Wayland led the singing and Miss Ella Bradshaw was pianist. The attendance was exceptionally good for both morning and evening services.

PREACHES IN SPUR

Hints On Defoliating Cotton Offered By Jones

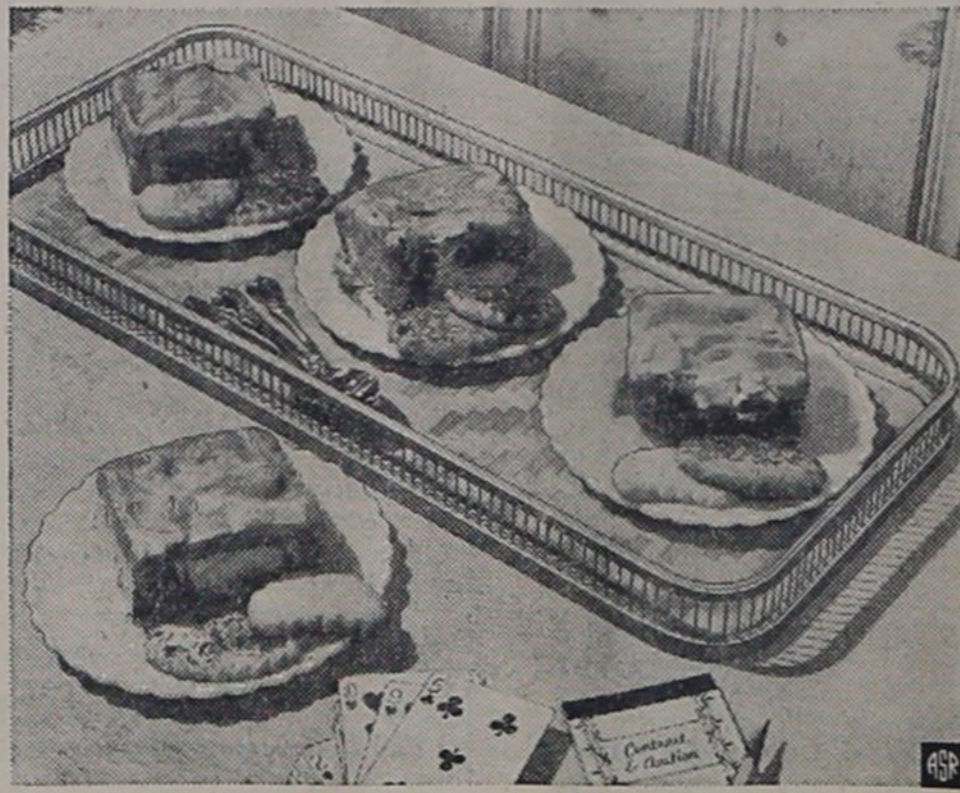

The ever-increasing use of machines for harvesting cotton have also increased the use of chemicals as plant defoliates Joe Jones, county agent, says. Defoliating the cotton plants, says Fred C. Elliott, cotton works specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, is a practice, when properly carried out, will materially improve the machine harvesting job.

Here are Elliott's suggestions on doing a successful job. The timing of the application of the defoliant is very important. In order to get maximum staple length development and yield, Elliott says the defoliant should be applied no sooner than 35 days after the period of maximum blooming. Another way to time the application is to wait 30 days after the cotton has quit making or when the youngest bolls are 30 days old. This condition will exist in most fields when about 10 per cent of the bolls are open. The defoliant should be applied from ten days to two weeks prior to intending picking dates in Central and South Texas and from two to three weeks on the High Plains.

When calcium cyanamide is used as a dust, the plants must be wet with dew or when adequate dew is forecast. The chemical to be most effective must remain in moisture on the leaf for at least two hours but four or more hours of moist exposure are preferred. Monosodium cyanamide does not depend on dew for activation but takes the needed moisture from the air or from the leaf. The leaves, however, should be green and not wilted, says Elliott.

Spray defoliants may be used in the absence of dew and when humidity is low; however, the specialist

The Best Deal Of All!

Try this novel refreshment—Ripple Ice Cream—on your Bridge four-some soon, if you really want to be a winner! Smooth Chocolate Sauce is frozen right into a tray of ice cream in a zigzag pattern. Very attractive to look at and just yummy to taste!

You will be pleasantly surprised to find that it is simple to make, and ideal for hot-weather entertaining as it takes only a few minutes to prepare the sauce and combine it with ice cream from the store. Also, it's an excellent way to use up ice cream that has become slightly soft!

This Ripple Ice Cream recipe will serve four to six. With a few cookies and possibly coffee, hot or iced, it's sure to be the best deal of the day!

Chocolate Ripple Ice Cream

1 quart vanilla ice cream
1/2 cup Chocolate Sauce

Turn half of softened ice cream into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator. Pour half of chocolate sauce over ice cream. Cover with remaining ice cream; then swirl remaining sauce over top. With knife or spatula, cut through ice cream in zigzag course. Set control for coldest freezing temperature. Freeze until firm. Freezing time: 2 to 3 hours. Makes 1 quart.

Chocolate Sauce. Combine 1 cup instant cocoa mix and a dash of salt in saucepan. Add 1 1/2 cups hot water. Place over medium heat, bring to a boil, and boil 4 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, add 2 tablespoons butter, and mix until smooth. Makes 1 1/2 cups sauce.

emphasizes that the plant must be thoroughly covered with the material. If an airplane is used for applying the defoliant, a flagman should always be used. Fenders should be used on ground equipment in rank cotton.

Elliott points out that a better defoliation job is obtained when the cotton is mature, leaves not wilted nor toughened by drouth or starved by a lack of soil fertility, when plant moisture is adequate and the weather is warm and humid. He emphasizes the importance of using weather forecast as an aid when defoliants are being applied.

Defoliate only enough acreage to stay ahead of the picking, says Elliott and he warns against using any defoliant that is not labeled as to its exact chemical content. Using chemicals as defoliants which have not been tested may injure the open fiber, the unopened bolls or worst of all may cause fire hazards at the gin.

One final caution, Elliott says before making the application, thoroughly clean the spray tanks, pumps, lines and nozzles to remove residues left in the equipment by liquid insecticides. The spray machines should be flushed with water after each day's operation.

Elliott suggests to cotton producers interested in obtaining more information on the subject that they contact their local county agricultural agent and ask for a copy of L-145, "Cotton Defoliation Guide in Texas."

The leaflet has only recently been released and contains the latest recommendations covering the use of many defoliants.

Five States In Cotton Bags Sewing Contest

The first annual Sew with Cotton Bags Contest, sponsored by the Textile Bag Manufacturers Association and the Singer Sewing Machine Company, has gotten underway with five states entered this summer.

Four other states will come into the contest in the fall, according to the contest sponsors. Approximately 18 other states will probably enter the contest early in 1953.

The competition is a sewing contest for 4-H clubs, organized on a state-wide basis by Extension services. Clubs participating make complete exhibits of wearing apparel and household items from feed, flour, fertilizer and other cotton bags for entry in a county-wide contest. Clubs winning first place in the county contests will compete in the state-wide contests for a deluxe Singer Cabinet Sewing Machine, first place, and $75 worth of sewing equipment, second place. Entry and final dates are set up within the competing states.

New Mexico, Kentucky, Virginia, Rhode Island and North Carolina are states active in the contest this summer. It is expected that Missouri, South Carolina, Minnesota, and Georgia will enter in the fall.

HERE'S GOOD NEWS FOR BUTANE USERS

YOU CAN BE ASSURED OF WINTER-TIME FUEL IF YOU HAVE AMPLE STORAGE AND KEEP IT FILLED DURING THE SUMMER

HERE ARE THE FACTS About Gas Supply

There is no shortage of butane-propane. There never has been a shortage. There will be no shortage in the foreseeable future.

Butane and propane are among the most plentiful products in our national petroleum reserves. However, every winter many users go without fuel. This is ONLY BECAUSE OF TOO-SMALL STORAGE TANKS.

Your butane dealer knows the amount of gas you use summer and winter. He has the right answer for your needs. He will give you the fuel—not promises!

Your tank may have been right when it was installed, for your family may have outgrown its original gas needs. To be safe you should KNOW just what size tank you need to fill those needs.

Panhandle Exhibit Planned At Fair

An outstanding committee of agricultural leaders from Extension District 1 is cooperating with State Fair of Texas officials in working out the colorful Panhandle exhibit of the 1952 Story Book of Texas Agriculture, to be featured at the fair, Oct. 4 through 19.

The Panhandle exhibit honors Armstrong, Carson, Castro, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman and Wheeler counties. It will feature a display of wheat—King of the Panhandle crops.

A miniature combine will thresh real wheat all during the fair. The wheat will be dumped into trucks in a manner designed to show the proportion of wheat going from the Panhandle fields to U. S. and foreign consumers.

A small ramp across the front of the miniature "wheat field" will feature Master Mix, a wonder dough developed by extension workers and its variations for cakes, breads and biscuits.

The Panhandle area will be honored with a special day at the State Fair on Sunday, Oct. 19.

The Story Book of Texas Agriculture includes animated "show window" type displays of all 12 agricultural extension districts of Texas.

Residents of the District of Columbia do not vote on either national or municipal matters.

New Dialing Device Revealed By Company

An automatic dialing device known as "Telrapid" has been developed for the use of telephone subscribers who call certain numbers frequently. W. H. Strickfaden, manager of the Mountain State Telephone and Telegraph Company, said today.

About the size of a telephone but only two inches high, the "Telrapid" will dial any one of fifty pre-selected numbers when the starting lever is depressed. One operation and the machine takes over while the caller doodles or tabulates the results of the last call. It saves time and the wear and tear on the dialing finger, he says.

When the equipment is installed, the subscriber specifies his fifty most called telephone numbers. A small disc is notched in a certain manner for each number, and the machine is ready to go to work. To call any of the 50 numbers, the subscriber sets a pointer opposite the number wanted, just as a musical selection might be chosen in a juke box, depresses a small lever with one finger, and blows smoke rings while the machine does the rest. The correct disk spins around and the notches make contacts in such a way as to perform the dialing.

Mr. Strickfaden said that the discs may be replaced when the subscriber wants to substitute one number for another. He mentioned that the device is finding favor in many cities by wholesale houses calling the same retailers every morning and frequently through the day.

Based upon 1950 census returns, the Bureau of Census estimates U. S. population at 154,853,000 including armed forces overseas.

A "Texas Leaguer" is a baseball that drops between outfield and infield, out of reach of either outfield or infield players.

Duties Of Elected Committeemen Outlined

The 1953 ACP program will be changed considerably from the past few years, says Joe Camp, PMA secretary. The PMA county and community committeemen will be selected in August and take office in September, and committeemen will then be schooled in the practices available to farmers.

Members of the committee must visit each farm in the county, explain the program and help select the practices needed by the farm. All farms must be visited by Jan. 1 of 1953.

Camp Lists Loan Rates For Grain Sorghums

The grain sorghum rate for Parmer County is set at $2.33 per cwt. for grade No. 2 or better, containing not in excess of 13 percent moisture, stored on the farm. Joe Camp, PMA secretary, says.

Where the grain is stored in an approved elevator, a deduction for storage will be made from the above rate depending upon the date the grain was stored, he adds. For the period Sept. 19 through Oct. 2, the deduction rate will be 16 cents per cwt.

CHEESE CHOPS

- 1/2 pound coarsely grated American cheese
- 4 tablespoons softened margarine
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- 1/8 teaspoon salt

Work Finally Begins On Rural Telephones

Work finally began last week on the large rural telephone network that will eventually bring phone service to many Parmer county rural areas.

This work, preliminary as it is, is nevertheless heartening to Parmer County farm home owners who have never enjoyed telephone service. They are delighted to see any progress at all.

For months, the telephone program has dragged through material shortages and governmental red tape, and it appears likely that a good deal more of the same is still in prospect before the job will be completed.

However, work has begun, and telephone lines are being started in Deaf Smith County.

The following is taken from an account of the progress carried in the Hereford Brand:

Staking operations for the land on which assessments have been secured was begun Monday morning at the

E. O. Billingsley place six miles east and three north of Hereford, in Section 7, Block K-3.

Leo Forrest, manager of the cooperative, said further staking operations will continue as long as easements can be secured. He urges all owners to complete their easements so that the crews may work without a hitch.

Stake Four Miles Per Day
The crew, from the engineering firm of J. P. Payne Associates of Enid, is staking about four miles per day. Poles will be placed every 330 feet.

Forrest, in referring to the easements, said two men—George Stambaugh and Bill Hampton—are working full time on the documents and on marking houses for the entry for telephone service.

Official approval of the outside contractor's bid has not been given by REA in Washington as yet, so the local cooperative is operating "on its own" in having the engineers begin staking. When REA approval is given, two more staking crews will be brought in.

The beginning of the staking northeast of Hereford was in the vicinity of one of the seven dial stations for the system.

Forrest said 15 miles have been released for the staking crews to date. The entire telephone network will be about 953 miles.

Mid-1953 Cutover
A cut-over date for mid-1953 is anticipated by Forrest. Original date was to have been January or February, 1953, but the steel strike and other delays have lengthened the date. Forrest says that suppliers have promised him some wire by October or November while half the needed amount was to have been delivered by the first of this year.

One-third of the telephone line, or 300 miles, must be staked before the outside contractor—Thompson, Haight and Keister of Oklahoma City—will begin their work.

Forrest urged farmers to get in their easements to save money and time on construction work.

Began in 1949
The system is finally getting its first signs of physical life although much planning and paperwork has been necessary since the original meeting back on December 12, 1949. The charter was granted for the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative Inc. on May 5, 1950.

After the enabling act, a survey of the area and its needs was made and on February 12, 1951, the Lubbock firm of Haise and Green was contracted to engineer the system.

This was the first real start on the realization of the system.

The Chamber of Commerce cooperated with the WTRC in finding out the desire of country farmers for a telephone network and for securing pledges and equities. The $50 equity was intended to have paid for 10 per cent of the cost of the system.

Got "A" Loan
After June 1, 1951, final equities were sent to Washington and a loan was asked for. The "A" loan for $54,000 was granted on July 31, 1951.

Work was held up and the local coop stalemated shortly thereafter when five key REA men were killed in an airplane crash near Denver.

When the first loan was granted, engineering work started on the system and it was discovered after the mapping and wire diagrams were sent in in early 1952 that instead of 750 miles of phone lines, the system called for 953 and the original cost estimate of $454,000 would not be enough, due to the increased size and rising prices of equipment. A supplemental loan of $383,000 was applied for to make the total system cost $811,000.

Papers for this loan were sent in and contracts were let during the middle of June and July.

Contracts Let
Central office equipment contacts went to North Electric, Dallas, for about $92,000, a savings of $2,000 over the original bid of $94,000 after some re-designing was done.

Thompson, Haight and Keister of Oklahoma City was awarded the outside contract for $558,149.86 in mid-July.

During July, Forrest said, the contracted engineers for the cooperative, Hasie and Green asked for an increase in their contract that called for fees of 6 per cent. This increase would amount to about $12,000, he said. The board of the cooperative voted to be asked for a release from their contract and the group then secured the services of J. P. Payne Associates of Enid, who agreed to take over on basically the same dollar arrangement as the previous firm.

Girls' Clothing Costs More Than Boys'

Girls are costlier to clothe than boys, according to the results of a recent survey. The survey revealed that it costs an average of $87 a year to fit out girls with a wardrobe, while most people clothe boys for an average of $73. The survey date was for children under 18. The data were taken for the 12 months ending Nov. 1, 1951.

The survey noted, too, that difference in clothing expenditures was small during pre-school years, but increased sharply after the child starts going to school. By the time youngsters reach 16 or 17, the average clothing cost for girls is $172 compared with $130 for boys.

a typical year's expenditure to meet normal telephone growth in New Mexico was less than $1 million

This year it is over $6½ million

In the five years preceding World War II (a period we've all come to regard as more or less "normal"), this company's yearly expenditure for new telephone equipment to meet New Mexico's growth was about $940,000.

But that was in the days when New Mexico's growth was also "normal." In the last four or five years the state's population has increased by leaps and bounds, and to meet the astonishing demand we have had to add new telephone equipment of all kinds at a greater rate than ever before in our history. Since 1945 our annual construction expenditures have averaged over $4 million, and this year's program calls for $6½ million!

During this period of greatest growth, the price of everything we need to provide the service has gone up. We, like everyone else, are victims of inflation. We, like any other business, must receive enough for our service to cover our higher costs, with enough left over to pay a fair return to the investors who have made the expansion of your service possible.
