Border Town Days 'Biggest And Best'

Border Town Days 1979, probably the best organized of the celebrations to date, turned out to be the biggest and best ever, including drawing the largest crowds, having the longest parade and serving the most persons at the barbecue. Throngs of area people gathered along the streets of Texico-Farwell Saturday at noon to witness the best parade ever presented here and at least 1000 of those turned out eat the barbecue meal served at the park. Many others also gathered at Farwell City Park for the remainder of Saturday's entertaining activities, swelling the numbers of those on hand to some 1400.

Some 1000 persons attended the two performances of the High Plains Junior Rodeo sponsored by Farwell Jaycees. Karen Snodgrass of Texico fared well in rodeo competition, winning first place in the barrel race for girls 12 and under and placing second in flag racing in her age bracket. Kelly Ann Dobbs of Texico was crowned 1979 BTB queen in the highlight of the park activities which also featured an old fiddler's contest, musical entertainment, an auction sale, art and craft display, all types of food and concession booths and other games and activities.

Winds upwards of 20 miles per hour hampered one facet of the celebration in that the hot air balloon could not be inflated because of the wind velocity. However, the balloon was on hand for the parade and its owners demonstrated how the engine part of the balloon was lighted, etc.

Some 50 entries participated in the parade with prizes being awarded to three floats, two old car entries, two riding clubs, and four decorated bikes.

Top three floats were Texico Variety, Texico-Farwell Senior Citizens and Gene's CB. Monetary prizes of $50, $30 and $20 were presented these entries by the Farwell Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Orie Jones of Farwell won first place in the old car division with their 1929 Packard Dietrich Convertible. Second place went to Jack Carr of Portales for his 1920 Model T Ford Center Door. Pappy White received honorable mention for his old truck entry.

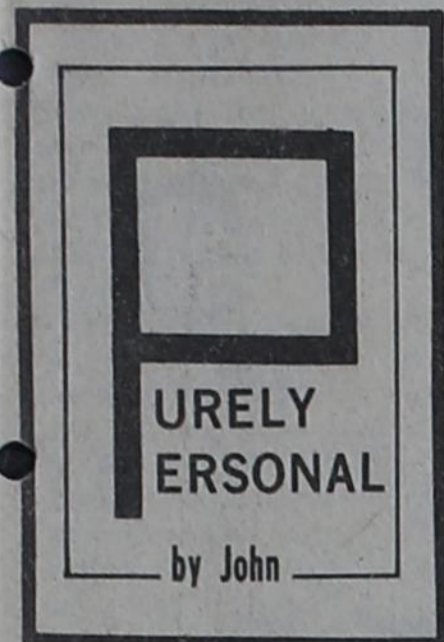

T & A Welding of Texico donated monetary prizes totaling $30 to the best four decorated bikes. Winners were Gary Scott Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bailey, $12; Buddy Adkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carothers, $8; Matt Geuther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geuther, $6; and Kirk Fly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fly, $4.

Following the parade, the crowd converged on Farwell City Park for the barbecue meal with some 1000 persons being served. The meal was jointly sponsored by the Farwell Jaycees and the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club.

The City of Farwell sponsored a dedication ceremony at the new park gazebo in which Julia Symcox was presented a plaque in recognition of her efforts in securing the facility in time for the celebration. Rev. Dudley Bristow gave the dedicatory prayer.

The BTB queen contest was a huge success as 11 girls from the two communities vied for the crown. Leonard Harper ably served as emcee and Joann Getz, contest chairman, announced the winners. Kelly Ann Dobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dobbs of Texico, was crowned the new queen. She received the crown from Lisa Hughes, the 1978 BTB queen. She was presented an arm bouquet of red carnations and an engraved gold charm from the BTB Committee. The charm was engraved "1979 BTB Queen."

The Twin Cities had one whale of a Border Town Days celebration. All the comments we have heard have been very laudatory for the many, many people and committees that worked for the success of this annual event. The only snag we are aware of was the fact that the usual breezes on the High Plains kept the hot air balloon from its part in the program.

The next move might be to have a community get-together and use the new park gazebo several more times before fall falls and puts the freeze on outdoor activities. Suggestions along a community use of the gazebo later this summer or fall will be welcome.

We are now getting additional information on the present administration's energy program. It is nothing but more bureaucracy and more government suppression of individual initiative.

Immediately after the President's "energy" speech, one of the TV networks interviewed several other persons for their reactions. One of those was John Connally. He was the voice of free enterprise speaking and a voice that should be heard across the entire land.

In a nutshell we will give you what this free enterpriser had to say:
"If I had been the president speaking Sunday night, I first of all would have explained to the American people just how we got in this shape on energy."

"I would have pointed out that the dilemma in which we find ourselves is not the result of any 'malaise of spirit' of our people. It is rather the inevitable consequence of unwise public policies which we have pursued in this country for many years. It is the politicians who are largely to blame, not the people."

"We made one of our most serious mistakes as a nation when the Federal Power Commission in 1954 decreed an unrealistic ceiling on the price of natural gas at the wellhead, despite the pleading of informed authorities. What this did was create an artificially low price for gas and thus encourage its use in unwise and wasteful applications. By so doing, we rapidly accelerated the consumption of natural gas and made the use of coal uneconomical, undercutting and almost destroying the coal industry."

"While I fully support the all-out development of solar, geothermal and every other kind of potential or synthetic energy source, we will be dependent on oil and gas, coal and nuclear energy for the rest of this century whether we like it or not. My top priority would be to seek congressional authority to relax environmental standards to permit the mining and burning of more coal in this country. I would urge all electric utilities in the country to burn coal wherever possible."

"I would immediately deregulate all oil and gas to encourage every possible exploration for new hydrocarbon reserves in the country... This could be done today with the stroke of a presidential pen. And in support of that move, I would open up new publicly owned lands both onshore and offshore for that exploration."

"I would urge Congress to get rid of red tape and regulations which now make it impossible to build a nuclear power plant in less than 13 years when the rest of the world does it in 6.5 years. At the same time, I would insist on more rigorous plant inspection to insure maximum public safeguards."

"We should renew research on the fast-breeder reactor, focus on the reprocessing of spent fuel, and strive to regain leadership in a field which we pioneered...."

"It is imperative that we make gasoline out of coal, and gas out of coal. It will require a staggering investment, but

Queen

Kelly Ann Dobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dobbs of Texico, was crowned 1979 Border Town Days Queen Saturday afternoon at Farwell City Park. She will reign for one year and will represent the Twin Cities at local and area functions throughout the year. For her talent, Miss Dobbs showed samples of her oil paintings and watercolors and sketched penciled drawings of the different BTB activities.

Former Texico Clerk - -

Embezzlement Retrial Begins

The retrial of Clara Wiehl, former Texico City Clerk, began Monday in Ninth Judicial District Court in Clovis, with Judge Reuben Nieves presiding. Mrs. Wiehl is charged with 12 counts of embezzlement, 16 counts of failure to deposit public funds and six counts of falsifying public records during the period from October 1977 to February 1978. The charges involve missing funds totaling $7,306.80.

Mrs. Wiehl's first trial was in April of this year, but it ended in a mistrial. Curry County District Attorney Bill Bonem of Clovis and Fred Smith of the New Mexico Attorney General's office are prosecuting the state's case. Defense attorneys are Dan Buzzard of Clovis and Lynn Pickard of Santa Fe.

Mrs. Wiehl, Texico's city clerk and treasurer for 14 years, resigned her position in March 1978. Eight months later, a Curry County Grand Jury returned the indictments in connection with an alleged shortage of approximately $27,000 in Texico funds.

Attorneys for both sides agreed that no mention of the previous trial would be made to the present jury of seven women and five men.

Manford Turnbough, mayor of Texico, testified Tuesday that the city of Texico had improved its financial position since Mrs. Wiehl's resignation.

He stated that prior to that time the city was in financial stress.

Turnbough elaborated saying that they could barely meet their obligation bills, had cut part time help, and had considered dismissing the city marshal. For a time, Curry County paid the marshal's wages, he said.

The Texico mayor then said that the city funds were so much improved that the city has purchased a new vehicle for the police department, a new vehicle for the water department and paid a repair bill on one of the city's water wells in the amount of $12,800. He also estimated that the city has about $40,000 on hand.

Mrs. Wiehl's alleged embezzlement of the funds was discovered by Water Superintendent Billy Hammit who found a discarded posting machine receipts sheet and several utility bill stubs in the waste basket.

Hammit said he kept the items in his desk drawer for a few days until the next time Maurice Baker, a part-time employee, worked. After they checked the sheets together he turned them over to Mayor Turnbough. According to Hammit, the sheets totaled $598.04.

Hammit also testified that he had known how to operate the old posting machine once used by the city, but that he had never learned how to operate

Float Winners

These floats were judged the three best entries in Saturday's Border Town Days parade which began in Texico, traversed through the "main streets" of both communities and dispersed at Farwell City Park, the scene of the rest of the BTB activities. First place went to Texico Variety with the theme "Working Together Works For All." Texico-Farwell Senior Citizens captured second place with their float titled "United We Grow" and Gene's CB in Texico nabbed third place with the theme "We All Need A Little Help From Our Friends." The prizes of $50, $30 and $20 were donated by Farwell Chamber of Commerce.

Texico Cheerleaders Slate Fund Raising

Texico Junior High Cheerleaders are planning a car wash and garage sale in order to raise needed funds for the upcoming school year.

This afternoon (Friday) and Saturday, they will sponsor a car wash at Jim's Texaco Station First and Prince in Clovis. The charge is $2 per car.

A garage sale is slated for next Tuesday, Aug. 7, at the old pool hall in Texico on the highway. Anyone wishing to donate items should contact Joan Edwards in Clovis, 763-5835.

Gazebo
Dedication

Julia Symcox of Farwell was honored with a special plaque and corsage by the Farwell City Commission during dedication ceremonies Saturday afternoon of the new gazebo at Farwell City Park. Making the presentation is Johnny Curtis, city commissioner. The plaque read "In Appreciation to Julia Symcox for her efforts and dedication to the Farwell Park Gazebo," signed "Farwell City Commission, July 28, 1979."

Fuel Alcohol Plant Studied At Meeting

Clayton Litchfield, president of Grain Producers International Inc. (GPI), appeared in Muleshoe last week to assist in the formation of a local area cooperative for the production of alcohol to be used in the manufacture of gasohol. At the present time the national cooperative (GPI) is seeking to build a number of local alcohol production plants across the nation.

A local Co-op unit would be a plant that would produce at least 20,000,000 gallons of alcohol per year. It would be a locally owned and managed facility under the direction and leadership of the national Cooperative. Such a unit has already been formed by a group of central Texas farmers. It is known as the Central Texas GPI Cooperative Inc.

Kenneth Johnson, a farmer near Hutto, has announced that this Cooperative has already signed a "feasibility study" contract with the national Cooperative. Such a study will cost in the neighborhood of $175,000 and take about three months to complete. The study, among other things, will pinpoint the exact location of the plant in their cooperative area.

If enough local farmers are interested and sign up a membership agreement, such a study will be conducted to locate a plant in this area. Toward this end, a local temporary Board of Directors has been appointed. Members are Guy Austin, chairman; Roy Whitt, secretary and treasurer; and Tommy Wheatley, Jerry Don Glover, M.G. Killough and Doug Bales.

At the Muleshoe meeting July 26, Litchfield said that there are three steps to becoming a member of a local Cooperative. The first is the investment of a one-time fee of $2,000 with $500 payable on sign up. The second is to sign a short term non-collateral note, and finally, sign a five-year grower agreement for each 10,000 bushels of grain the farmer pledges toward the plant's grain consumption.

A tentative deadline of August 15 has been set for area farmers to sign up and become members of the proposed cooperative. Interested parties may contact Guy Austin, Roy Whitt or any of the board members for complete information and details.

GPI, Inc. has permanent funding committed pending the feasibility study. Ultimately when the 25 proposed plants are completed, farmer-owned cooperatives will be producing 500 million gallons of alcohol annually. This is expected to reduce the balance of trade deficits and to ease the gasoline situation.

GPI members are farmers who have conducted research into the economics and marketing of alcohol fuel and related products. The organization's purpose is to assist farmers in producing and marketing their products. It is an opportunity for farmers to produce fuel as well as food.

Even though gasohol is not a new idea, it did not become feasible until recent increases in imported oil. During the past two years refining systems for fuel from grain sources have been able to produce more fuel than was used in the process.

Cars which normally operate on either regular or unleaded fuel may also be operated with gasohol which is a mixture of 90 per cent gasoline and 10 per cent alcohol. Since no modifications of automobiles are necessary in order for them to consume gasohol, the product can be readily marketed.

Farmers interested in joining the cooperative may sign forms to that effect stating how much money and grain sorghum, corn, or wheat, or a combination of all three, that they plan to contribute yearly.

Subsequent meetings will be held each Tuesday night at the Muleshoe Civic Center at 8 p.m.

Gasohol Meeting At Farwell

A gasohol meeting was to be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Farwell School cafeteria. Ken Spitzer, who farms at Kensal, N.D., was to be the guest speaker. He is a representative of Grain Products, Inc.

the new electronic NCR 299. Actual testimony in the retrial began Monday afternoon with Marie Christian, acting city clerk, taking the stand. She testified that the city's revenues had increased since she took over the position after Mrs. Wiehl's resignation.

She compared October 1977-February 1978 and October 1978-February 1979 periods saying that the water and sewage funds had increased 24 percent; solid waste 40 percent and the fireman's fund 30 percent. Mrs. Christian also said that there had been a 69 percent increase in the court files and building rent funds.

According to Mrs. Christian, cash deposits for the 1977-78 period totaled $866 compared with $10,182 for the 1978-79 period. She added that the water department had noted only an increase of 10 customers during the year, or a three percent increase.

The total amount of deposits for the 1977-78 period were $48,076.49 compared to $63,684 for the 1978-79 period, according to Mrs. Christian.

Testimony in the retrial continued at press time.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

Three Bovina youths were arraigned this week in connection with the vandalism of an irrigation well motor on the Leon Ware place near Bovina. Bill Espinoza, 19, and Roy Shelby, 18, were arraigned Monday before Parmer County Judge Paul Fortenberry, and Adam Lumbrera, 17, was arraigned Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Albert Smith. Bond was set at $3500 each and they were all bound over for grand jury action.

The three youths allegedly shot holes in the motor with a 22 rifle causing an estimated $300 in damages.

After finding a stash of items in a vacant lot in Farwell, Sheriff Charles Lovelace said he has alerted the stores in town to be on the lookout for shoplifters. The items were found covered by weeds, Lovelace said.

Kate Phillips who lives two miles south of Farwell reported that an electric lawn mower valued at $75 was taken from her garage while she was away.

Wind, Dust, Rain Plague Twin Cities

A fierce wind, dust and rain storm struck Texico and Farwell and the surrounding area Monday night, uprooting trees, depositing an inch of moisture and causing flash flood warnings to be issued for Parmer County.

The National Weather Bureau issued the flash flood warning late Monday night after a foot of water apparently washed over Farm To Market Road 214. Golf ball size hail was also reported in Friona and Hereford. A tornado was also spotted near Hereford.

Locally, the wind storm uprooted a large willow tree in Farwell City Park and stripped branches from other trees in the Twin Cities. In spite of the rather unpleasant elements of the storm, the moisture was a welcome relief from the hot summer temperatures which had been on the weather agenda for the past few days.

For a brief time, the temperatures cooled off early Tuesday morning, but later the thermometer began to climb.

Tree Uprooted

A savage wind and rain storm plowed through the Twin Cities and surrounding area late Monday night. One of the casualties was this willow tree which was uprooted at Farwell City Park. City Employees John Johnson, left, and Berl Johnson are pictured cutting the large tree up so it can be hauled away. The storm deposited about an inch of moisture in the area.

Gazebo Dedicated To Julia Symcox

A united community effort can accomplish great things, as proved by the new gazebo recently built in Farwell City Park. The structure has already been used several times especially during Saturday's Border Town Days park activities.

Only a few months ago, building a gazebo was just a thought, but quickly the idea took root and within a few weeks the building was complete. Much of the credit belongs to Julia Symcox who got the "ball rolling" and to all the community volunteers who donated time, labor and materials as well as money.

To honor Mrs. Symcox, Farwell City Council purchased a special commemorative plaque which Commissioner Johnny Curtis presented to her Saturday afternoon at the beginning of the park activities.

The wording on the plaque reads "In appreciation to Julia Symcox for her efforts and dedication to the Farwell Park Gazebo."

Latest cost figures for the gazebo is $2529.38, excluding the cost of the shingles. The community has a right to be proud of the gazebo as it would have cost approximately $14,000 to have had it built.

The latest donations to the gazebo fund are as follows: Ed Hardage, $25; Mrs. L.R. Vincent, $5; Uvon Ford, $10; Mike Norris, $10; Clark Billingsley, $20; Bill Christian, $15; Texico Branch of Citizens Bank, $50; Dick Geris, $25; W.T. Magness, $20; K.E. Johnson, $10; and Kay Runnels, $20.

The gazebo account is still open at the bank in Texico for those who wish to contribute. After all contributions are in Farwell City Council will pay the remainder of the debt.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites LaShawn Sheets, Lyall Brown

LaShawn Myree Sheets and Lyall Gregory Brown were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony on June 29 at Kingswood United Methodist Church in Clovis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burkhalter of Clovis and Harry Sheets of Farwell. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Brown of Amarillo.

Kyle Sheets of Abilene, brother of the bride, wrote the wedding vows and officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Decorations at the church included circular candelabra and bouquets of yellow roses, daisies and gladioli. Pews were marked with votive candles and yellow nosegays.

Marge Pena, organist, provided traditional wedding selections prior to the ceremony and during the lighting of the candles by the groomsmen. She also accompanied Bettie Martin, cousin of the bride, as she sang, "The Wedding Song" and "You Needed Me."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her step-father, Dan Burkhalter. She wore a white silk organza gown designed by Mori Lee. The molded bodice featured a high neckline with French lace collar and a cameo insert on the sheer yoke. Full Bishop sleeves were gathered to wide lace cuffs and the empire waistline was defined in lace and swept to back fullness forming a chapel-length train. Her veil was attached to a Juliet caplet covered in lace and sprinkled with seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white silk roses and baby's breath. Something old was a family heirloom opal ring; something new was her veil; for something borrowed she wore diamond earrings belonging to her mother; and something blue was a garter.

LaShawn chose her mother, Alta Burkhalter, to serve as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Loretta Wolf of Canyon and Sarah Croft and Judy Britton, both of Fort Worth.

Flowergirl was Stacy Thomas, niece of the bridegroom. The bridal attendants wore identically styled dresses of yellow featuring empire waistlines and caplet sleeves. They carried nosegays of yellow roses, daisies and baby's breath.

The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo with a yellow rose boutonniere. Tommy Joe Thomas, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were A.B. Fincher, Dana Velibel and Bill Stanley, all of Amarillo. Ushers were Gene Sheets of Abilene, brother of the bride, and James Northern of Amarillo. They all wore yellow tuxedos.

To begin the ceremony, Gene Sheets said a special prayer for the couple. The bride paused at the altar to present a yellow silk rose to her mother, and after the couple had lit the unity candle, she presented a yellow silk rose to her new mother-in-law.

The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length gown of pink Qiana with a matching silk carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

Melody Sheets and Bernita Sheets, sisters-in-law of the bride, presided at the serving table. The three-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with yellow and white silk roses between the tiers and was topped with white doves and yellow silk roses.

Registering guests was Michelle Brown, sister of the bridegroom. Dixi Martin, cousin of the bride, distributed rice roses to the guests. She and Barbara Martin were hostesses for the reception.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Martin of Farwell and Mrs. Davida Burkhalter of Lubbock, grandparents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Brown hosted a rehearsal dinner at Colonial Park Country Club.

The couple was honored at several pre-nuptial courtesies including miscellaneous bridal showers at Farwell and at Amarillo. The bride was also honored with a lingerie shower at Canyon.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas the couple is at home at Tiffany II Apartments in Amarillo where the bridegroom is employed at Lyndon Moss Body Shop. The bride will be a senior nursing student at WTSU in Canyon this fall.

Consumer Food News

COLLEGE STATION - Best buys at Texas grocery markets this week include fryer chickens, eggs, pork, frozen fish and some fresh produce.

Also, "specials" appear on lamb, canned and frozen items, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

POULTRY - Fryer chickens have high quality and low prices.

Egg prices dropped recently - but don't expect that to last long.

PORK - Attractive buys appear on hams, picnic shoulder roasts and cured meats. Fresh cuts at reasonable prices are Boston butts, chops, loin roasts and liver.

FROZEN FOODS - Fish has low prices, along with frozen processed potatoes, such as frozen french fries. Other specials include bread dough, pot pies, lemonade and apple pies.

GROCERY MARKET APPLIES - Feature items are canned vegetables and fruits, brown and confectioner's sugar, honey, peanut butter and ripe olives.

FRESH FRUITS - Those with the most pleasing prices are bananas, grapes, peaches, nectarines, cantaloupe, watermelons, plums and pineapples.

FRESH VEGETABLES - Best buys include soft-shell and zucchini squash, corn, several types of lettuce, black-eye and purple hull peas, potatoes, green onions and radishes. Also, new potatoes have reasonable prices.

Prices are higher on these items: cabbage, carrots and dry onions.

LAMB - Money-saving features on lamb mean tender, nutritious menu items.

DAIRY - Specials include homogenized milk by the gallon, sour and whipping creams, yogurt, cheese slices, cottage cheese and extra-sharp Cheddar cheese.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Don't buy any vegetable just because it's cheap - know quality and buy accordingly.

FOOD focus

Mae Martha Johnson
Extension Food Specialist

Dear Food Focus:

Why can't life be simpler? Take the produce area in the grocery store. For example, I find all those different kinds of lettuce confusing. Can you tell me what the difference is?

Confused in Clovis

Today you can usually find four or five different types of lettuce to choose from. There is the traditional crisphead or iceberg that you are probably most familiar with. It is a firm head with crisp leaves. The head should be firm, but not hard and have bright green outside leaves. Avoid irregular shaped heads and those with hard bumps on top. Outer leaves showing brown dry edges may mean there is discoloration all through the head.

Butterhead is a smaller less-firm head with soft pliable leaves. Because of the texture of the leaves, they can bruise easily. Reject heads with unsightly blackened leaves.

Romaine is the lettuce with a loaf-shaped head that has long narrow leaves. Even though the leaves sometimes appear coarse, they are tender, sweet and flavorful with less bitter flavor than other varieties.

Looseleaf lettuce does not form a head but grows in a bunch. For many years, looseleaf lettuce was only found in the home garden, but now there are frequently two or more varieties available at the market.

All of the types of lettuce can be used interchangeably. The softer butterhead is more often used either with other types of lettuce or with seafood or cheese. Don't be afraid to substitute or combine different varieties in salads or sandwiches.

And when the price of lettuce is too high, remember that spinach, cabbage, carrots and celery make excellent salads, too.

Penny Phillips, Mark Walton United In June 23 Ceremony

MRS. MARK WALTON

In an afternoon ceremony on Saturday, June 23, at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church, Farwell, Penelope Lynn Phillips became the bride of Mark Wayne Walton. Parents of the bride are Elizabeth Phillips of Farwell and Glenn D. Phillips of Clovis. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Walton of

Borger are parents of the bridegroom. Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. W.T. Perry, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Jal, N.M. Altar decorations included clusters of palms on either side of the altar backed by seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers. Focal point of the wedding setting was a pyramid-shaped arrangement of greenery, white carnations and white tapers at the back of the communion table. Margaret Aycock, organist, played Handel's "Water Music" for processional and recessional. Quineta Yeary of Ft. Stockton, cousin of the bride, accompanied herself on the guitar as she sang, "Annie's Song."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an empire-styled formal length gown of candlelight silk organza featuring appliques of lace and seed pearls. Her veil of imported princess lace which was embroidered with seed pearls was fashioned from her grandmother's wedding dress.

She carried a white Bible covered with a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, white roses and stephanotis interspersed with baby's breath. Inside the Bible she carried a silk handkerchief which was carried by her great-grandmother and namesake. In her shoe she wore an English schilling minted in the year of her birth. Her only attendant was her sister, Cynthia Ann Carthel of Dubuque, Iowa. Mrs. Carthel wore a dropped shoulder pink paisley chiffon gown with matching picture hat. She carried a nosegay of baby pink mums and roses.

Serving as best man was Rudy McElroy of Lubbock. Ushers were Thad Phillips of Farwell, brother of the bride; and David Garner of Dallas. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo with matching ruffled shirt and the male attendants wore coffee-colored tuxedos with dark brown trim. Ring-bearer was Colby Carthel of Dubuque, Iowa, nephew of the bride.

Guests were registered by Deana Williams of Farwell. Ushered to their pews were the bride's mother, Elizabeth Phillips, who wore a formal gown of magenta chiffon; the bridegroom's mother, Jean Walton of Borger, who wore a gown of beige chiffon; the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. O.N. Yeary of Ft. Worth and Mrs. Kate Phillips of Farwell; the bride's aunt, Mary K. Yeary of Ft. Worth; and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mora Walton of Borger.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. A candlelight lace cloth covered the bride's table. A three-tiered cake topped with fresh flowers was served with punch by Beverly, Quineta, Janette and Peggy Yeary of Ft. Stockton, all cousins of the bride.

The bridegroom's sisters served at the groom's table. After a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the couple is at home in Lubbock where the bridegroom is employed by Santa Fe Railroad and the bride is a student at Texas Tech.

Farwell Council Discusses Health Department Letter

The City of Farwell will have to purchase a 300-pound capacity scale, and a meter for water well number three. That announcement was made Monday night during the regular City Council session. The action was prompted by a letter received from Robert O. Adcock of Austin, a representative of the Texas Department of Public Health.

In compliance with state regulations, the city must have a scale in order to weigh the chlorine which is added daily to the city's water supply. In addition, all wells are supposed to have a meter which accurately keeps track of how much water is pumped daily.

Adcock reportedly said the city could purchase the two meters - estimated to cost in excess of $600 - over a two-year period. However, the City Council and Dee Hammit, water superintendent, discussed the possibility of utilizing one meter for both the number three and number four wells. Adcock was to be contacted pending this matter, before any other action is taken.

Adcock also informed the city that according to regulations, an intruder fence is to be established around potable (drinkable) water storage reservoirs and pressure maintenance facilities. However since this regulation is fairly new, Adcock said the city could have about a year to comply with it.

According to Adcock, the city is also supposed to have an auxiliary power source in case of failure due to malfunction or weather, etc. Since the city has 30 days in which to comply with the requests set forth in the letter, the Council agreed to look into the matter and to notify Adcock that they are in the process of complying with the regulations.

The Council also agreed to let bids for a tractor for the sanitation department.

Several items were tabled until the next meeting including the request by Emergency Medical Service in Amarillo for $108 in radio usage fees for next year, and appointing someone to replace Charles Hargrove on the Planning and Zoning Commission.

The United Way had assisted EMS in establishing a repeater radio system which allows area ambulances to communicate directly with hospitals, but since that funding is no longer available, area towns must support the system or it will have to close down.

The Council agreed to check the firemen's log to see how many times the service was used last year before deciding whether or not to pay the requested fee.

Those attending the meeting were Mayor Walter Kaltwasser, commissioners Johnny Curtis and Fred Chandler; and city employees Hammit, Janie Bowery, Carrell Watkins and John Johnson.

Auction Winners

An auction was held Saturday afternoon during the BTD celebration to raise needed funds for "El Rancho De Los Ninos," a children's home to be built near Flores, Guatemala. Several of the items and the high bidders are, from left, Dickie Magness, oak leaf cluster; Jim Walker, painting by Mrs. Magness; Sydney

Chadwick, quilt; Ralph Franse, deep fryer; Jerry Monk, screwdriver set; Cody Monk, "goody" box; Tim Bartley, necklace; and Steve Foster, exterior house painting. Not pictured is Hugh Moseley who purchased the old fashioned rub board. Bill Adams served as auctioneer for the event which raised some $875.

Farwell Chamber Discusses BTD

Farwell Chamber of Commerce discussed last week-end's Border Town Days celebration during its Tuesday noon meeting at Clara's restaurant, reporting that the two-day event was a tremendous success.

Dutch Quickel, secretary, reported everyone enjoyed the parade on Saturday, saying that "it was the best small town parade they had ever seen."

The barbecue was also a successful venture with approximately 1000 persons being served. Several suggestions were offered for next year including having more clubs involved, more servers and serving lines, and possibly setting up the tables in the shade.

It was reported that additional beef would probably be donated next year since the barbecue had such a huge turnout.

A committee was named to begin planning for the March 1980 banquet. Committee members are Jerry Monk, chairman, and Johnny Actkinson and Miller Cunningham.

Pudge Rose, chairman of the Farwell Hospital District Board, reported that J.R. Ivins, DDS, local dentist, has established his practice at the clinic. According to Rose, they also had a "lead on a doctor."

Rose added that hopefully starting again next week, the doctors would be able to come from Muleshoe as they had been doing in the past. He also mentioned the possibility that a psychologist might establish an office at Farwell Convalescent Center.

Around The Twin Cities

Farwell School Board will meet Monday, Aug. 6, at 8 p.m. CDT in the superintendent's office.

REBATES UP TO $2,500 LEASES DOWN TO 7.50% LEASE RATE

Buying a Valley irrigation system this summer could be the smartest thing you could do all this year. We are offering you a choice of either big rebates or long-term leases at rates that are hard to believe. On Valley linears and corners the rebates are as high as $2,500. On regular systems rebates are as high as $1,250. You save the most by acting now, not later, because rebates decline in value after August 17th.

For Valley linears and corners, make a 10% down payment. We'll put the system on your farm and you won't have to make the next payment until January, 1981! The lease rate is an unbelievable 7.50% in July and goes to 7.63% on August 17th. You can make about the same deal on a regular system and the rate is 8.64%. If you don't want the January, 1981 second payment plan, the rate is 8.24%. We even have an interest free finance plan to January, 1980. See your Valley dealer, he has all the facts.

Livestock Division Important To Fair

A long time Eastern New Mexico tradition will continue this year when the Curry County Fair opens at Clovis, September 4-8.

An important part of the Curry County Fair is the Livestock Division with Mike Spearman as over-all superintendent. Steve Fury will be superintendent of Department A - Beef Cattle, assisted by Lyle Hutchins.

Breeders from across the nation are encouraged to enter animals in this class, stated Spearman.

All animals must be entered in the name of the owner and must have been owned by him not less than 30 days prior to the opening day of the fair, said Fury.

No breeding animal can be entered or exhibited unless the same has been recorded in the recognized book of records for their respective breed and exhibitors must produce certificate of registry at the request of the superintendent.

Fury said that first, second and third place cash premiums will be awarded to bulls in the following classes: junior calf, winter calf, senior calf, summer yearling, spring yearling, junior yearling, senior yearling and two-year old. Heifers will be classed in the same categories.

Champion and reserve champion bulls and females will receive ribbons.

There will be a class for pen of three bulls, two bulls bred and owned by exhibitors; pair of yearlings, one bull and one female; pair of calves, one bull and one female; get of sire - four animals the progeny of one sire, all owned by the exhibitor. An entry, according to Fury, may include all bulls, but only two females.

Entry fees will be $2.00 in the open class and $4.00 in the junior class. Out of state beef and dairy cattle must be tested for Bangs Disease before exhibiting.

A special Char-Swiss Breeders Association Fall Show will be held during the Fair. All animals to be eligible for this breeding class must be purchased and registered with the Char-Swiss Breeders Association, according to Spearman.

Exhibitors wishing further information should contact the Extension Officer in the Curry County Court House, Clovis, N.M. 88101.
