Donna Kay Osborn Reigns As Queen

Miss Donna Kay Osborn was crowned Miss Texico-Farwell of 1960 to climax the fall style show and queen contest at Farwell School auditorium Friday night. Miss Osborn is the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Osborn of Route 1, Texico.

Second place winner was Miss Sharon Thompkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Thompkins of Route 1, Texico; and Carol Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bell of Texico, was third place runner-up in the contest.

Miss Osborn will represent the Twin Cities in the 1961 Wheatheart of the Nation contest at Perryton, Tex., next August. In the event that she cannot attend, the second and third place winners will act as alternates.

Other contestants were Misses Shirlene Martin, Jean Hadley, Kaye Kube, Sharon Hendrix and Linda Birchfield.

The program was sponsored by Theta Rho chapter of ESA, and fashions presented were from Fern's of Farwell with Mrs. Clyde Magness as narrator for the style review. Miss Darlene Hromas played piano selections for background music.

Mrs. John Getz, president of Theta Rho, was mistress of ceremonies for the evening and introduced Mrs. Walter Hardage, owner of Fern's; the entertainers, and the queen contestants.

In expressing appreciation to the contestants for their participation in the Miss Texico-Farwell contest, Mrs. Getz commented, "I would like to congratulate each girl for her part in making Texico-Farwell a better place to live, for that is what each one has done. By participating she has given some child a Christmas present—a child who might have been forgotten. We can think of no better tribute to the eight young ladies—though there was only one to gain the title of Miss Texico-Farwell, all are queens of ESA."

"Proceeds from the contest and style show will be used for projects here in this area. Santa Claus will visit Twin Cities, shut-ins will be remembered at Christmas, and needy families will be aided," said Mrs. Getz in her thank-you to members of the audience and all who bought tickets to the show.

Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Susan Blair and Chalky Morton, and The Inmates, Farwell five band composed of Joe Hughes, Donnie Carpenter, Jerry Don Utsman, Doug Roberts and James Ussery.

Approximately 150 persons attended the program.

It's School Time!

Hang up those summer play togs, kids, and break out that more formal attire. School is ready to start!

Activities at Texico School get underway Monday morning at 9 with a faculty conference and students will begin registration at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Buses will run at the regular time Tuesday morning and registration will be complete by noon.

The first full day of classes will be Wednesday, and this will be the first day of operation for the school lunchroom.

On the Texas side of the line, classes will not start at Farwell until the following Monday, August 29, but high school registration is scheduled for next Thursday and Friday, August 25 and 26.

Amos Tatum, high school principal, says the registration schedule will be as follows: Seniors--Thursday, August 25, from 1 p. m. to 2:40.

Juniors--Thursday, from 2:40 to 4 p. m. Sophomores--Friday, August 26, from 1 p. m. to 2:40.

Freshmen--Friday, from 2:40 to 4 p. m. Tatum asks that all students be there at the time their class is scheduled to begin so that everyone can get started on enrollment together.

Enrollment for the elementary and junior high grades will be on the first day of school, Monday, August 29.

Daily Attendance Boosts State Aid

Farwell School will be receiving an additional $5,000 in state financial aid this coming school year due to an increase in the school's average daily attendance last year.

The average daily attendance on the part of white students was up from 472 the previous year to 491, says W. M. Roberts, school superintendent. The total average attendance for both Negroes and whites was 504, but state support on teacher salaries is based on separate attendance records.

The increased state aid will be in the form of assistance on the salary of one more teacher, even though the number of teachers will remain the same. "It means that we won't have to use as much money from local funds for this purpose," Roberts says.

The savings will be channeled into other funds where additional money is needed. "One of these will be the bus fund," Roberts says, explaining that operating costs on the buses has risen considerably. At a meeting last week, the school board approved a $240,827 budget for the coming year. Proposed expenditures for the 1960-61 term are about $4,000 higher than the budget approved for last year.

Anticipated revenue for the coming year from local sources is $140,010; from the county available fund, $2,400; from state sources; $103,632; and from the sale of property, $750; for a total of $246,792.

Breakdown of the proposed expenditures is as follows:

Administration, $15,439; instruction (salaries, textbooks and supplies), $131,022; health services, $3,952; pupil transportation, $18,588; operation of plant, $20,078; maintenance of plant, $4,000; insurance and interest, $3,000; buildings, furniture and equipment, $2,000; retirement of bonds and interest on bonds, $42,624. Total $240,703.

Lazbuddie Schools Open Aug. 29

An estimated 360 students will return to school for the first day of instruction August 29 announced James Ward, superintendent of the Lazbuddie schools this week.

Teachers will begin their work Wednesday, August 24, with a workshop session for two days. Students will enroll, and busses will run and return students home by noon on Friday, August 26.

According to Ward, the school system at Lazbuddie still lacks one teacher, a vocational home economics instructor.

He added that only one first grade teacher will be hired until there are enough students

Request Mosquito Aid

At a special meeting last Wednesday afternoon, the Parmer County Commissioners Court voted to request state support for taking immediate steps toward control of mosquito infestations in the county.

A representative of the State Health Service Department met with the commission and discussed the matter of state participation in control measures for Parmer County, one of 11 Panhandle counties named by the state Civil Defense as disaster areas.

These West Texas counties were named disaster areas because of the large amounts of rain received this summer, resulting in a heavy mosquito population. The rains have increased the number of mosquito vectors causing arthropod borne encephalitis.

The commissioners authorized the following telegraph message to James L. Garner, state coordinator of civil defense and disaster relief, in the state governor's office:

"Owing to the abnormal rainfall in recent weeks creating prolific adult mosquito infestation with continued increase of mosquito vectors causing arthropod borne encephalitis, the emergency condition is now beyond local capabilities. Financial aid is requested through your office to assist in reducing threat of a potential encephalitis outbreak among people of Parmer County."

Approval from the state was expected this week.

If the okay is received, work will begin immediately on spraying lakes in the county and dusting the towns. Farwell, Friona and Bovina will be dusted in addition to the communities of Lazbuddie, Oklahoma Lane, Lariat and Black.

The control measures will be taken on the local level, but the tab will be picked up by the federal government. It was estimated that these control measures in Parmer County would cost $5,300.

Mrs. Ford, Children Injured In Accident

Mrs. Dorothy Ford, 27, of Route 1 Farwell, and her three sons narrowly escaped death or serious injury Monday afternoon when the 1957 Oldsmobile in which they were driving left the highway at the intersection of Highway 60 and West 5th Street (Loop) in Friona about 4:50 p. m. Mrs. Ford was driving the Olds and as she attempted to turn off the highway onto the Loop her auto left the highway, crashed into a stop sign, bounced off a four foot embankment and rolled 45 feet where it struck the ground again and skidded to a halt another 120 feet farther down the road. Mrs. Ford was accompanied in the car by three sons, Curtis, 8; David Drew, 5, and Kevin, 1 1/2.

The auto never did turn over but "took off like a rocket" when it hit the embankment, according to Bob Zetzsche, who was leaving Friona for Clovis and was just beginning to pull into the intersection when the speeding auto came by.

Zetzsche and Police Chief Ben Moorman took the Ford family to the Parmer County Community Hospital where they were treated for cuts and bruises.

They were held overnight for observation, but Monday night doctors said they seemed to have come through the accident in "good shape."

Mrs. Ford was charged with driving at an unsafe speed by investigating officers Fred Lenz and Noel Carter, of Dimmitt, members of the Texas Highway Patrol.

Judy, a small Mexican Chihuahua, was left alone in the car following the accident and when curiosity-seekers began gathering she was picked up by Officer Ed Dukes.

The small pup was still shaking following her harrowing experience about a half-hour following the accident.

She was later returned to her owners, who expressed relief that Judy was ok.

Q'terback Club To Meet Tuesday

The first meeting of the Farwell Quarterback Club is scheduled for next Thursday at 9 p. m. in the City Hall. Purpose of the meeting will be to re-organize, elect new officers and appoint committees to film football games this year.

Don Williams, who has been president of the club for the past year, says 45 members have already been signed up, but more are needed. He says that both men and women are welcome to attend the meeting Thursday and to become members.

In addition to the official business at Thursday's meeting, a special film will be shown.

As in the past, during the season the club will film all of the Steer games and meet each Monday night to view the films. Present officers of the club are Williams, president; Woody Lovelace, vice-president; and Harry Sheets, secretary-treasurer. Membership dues for the year is $10.

Seeks Director

W. M. Roberts, Farwell School superintendent, is again seeking a band director, following the resignation of Charles Higdon, who had been hired for the position. Higdon, a recent graduate of Eastern New Mexico University, telephoned Roberts Sunday and said he had accepted another position.

Roberts said Wednesday that he had no prospects but hoped to have a band director hired by the time school starts next Monday.

Notice

Parents interested in checking on elementary enrollment procedures at Farwell School are asked to be at the elementary school library at 2 p. m. Monday. Jack Williams, elementary principal, will be on hand to answer any questions for the parents.

Roth Grocery Celebrates Anniversary

In observance to the Roth Grocery anniversary sale last weekend, Mrs. Tena Roth gave away eight baskets of groceries. Those winning groceries were J. P. Dose, R. L. Day, Milton Autrey, Mrs. Henry Salguero, Mrs. T. W. Curtis, Donna Hutsell, Mrs. Bob Tucker, and Mrs. C. H. Webb.

Football Practice Begins

Thirty-three boys put on their football togs Monday morning, as football season officially got under way for the Farwell Steers.

Workouts this week were to consist of conditioning and fundamentals, and by next week the team will be getting down to real business as they prepare for the first scheduled game against Friona, September 2.

After the first two days of practice, Coach Dempsey Alexander said things were shaping up pretty good. "Some of the boys weighed in at a little less than I thought they would, but some were a little heavier," he said.

Both the line and backfield of the probable starting team will average 160 pounds. "Our weight will be about the same as Springlake and Sudan, but we won't be nearly as heavy as a lot of our other opponents," Alexander said.

Alexander is starting his second year as Steer coach. This year he has a new assistant in Dan Truelove, a recent graduate of West Texas State College. Truelove was on hand for the opening session Monday morning and has been working with the linemen.

The Steers have been working out twice daily, at 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. This schedule will continue until school starts next Monday, August 29.

Lazbuddie Homecoming Saturday

Annual homecoming for all former students of Lazbuddie School is scheduled this Saturday. Registration will get under way at 10 a. m. in the school auditorium and a special luncheon and program will be on noon.

An effort has been made to contact all former students by mail, however, if a person did not receive an invitation and is a former student at Lazbuddie, he is welcome to attend.

Telephone operators are always the victims of pranksters, and most of them are always prepared for any type of harassment. However, every now and then something will backfire on them.

Pass The Fly Spray, Uncle!

Steps were taken in Parmer County this past week to get state and federal aid for the control of mosquito infestations. Parmer County is one of 11 counties in West Texas which has been labeled as a "disaster area" by the state health service. One of the health department's representatives met with the commissioners court to inform them of this designation and to offer relief.

Maybe we should be grateful for this generous offer and be thankful that someone is concerned enough about our welfare to dole out $5,000 to protect us against a menace to society, such as the encephalitis-carrying mosquito.

But, we're not.

This is just one more example of how centralized governments are taking everything over and dictating to individual man his every move. At this rate, it won't be long before we are told not to wear colored underwear because certain ingredients in color pigments will irritate the skin.

We do not question the fact that steps should be taken to control the mosquito infestations before it's too late. The heavy rains this summer have created many lakes and ponds, which are breeding places for mosquitoes. If steps are not taken to control them, there could be a wide-spread encephalitis epidemic this fall.

However, we do object to the government coming into our county and offering to do for us something we should be willing to do ourselves.

The question of whether or not Parmer County was in a position to take corrective measures on its own was never brought up. The fact was, as presented to the commissioners court, that the money for these mosquito control measures was there for the asking.

Yes, the county did have to request it. The commissioners did so by firing off a telegram to the governor, relating that an emergency did exist here which was beyond "local capabilities." It was a form request, handed to the commissioners by the state representative, and the same one that was sent to the other 11 "disaster" counties.

You can't really blame the commissioners for this. No elected official in this day and age could possibly turn down a "free" gift like this. He'd be branded an "anti-something or other" and his chances of being elected again would be quite slim. However, there's only one way to combat this plague, called socialism, which has been engulfing America now for about 30 years. That's an uprising from the grass roots level.

A person is going to have to stand up and fight if he wants to continue to exercise a right that should be basic to every living individual. That is the right to utilize his God-given talents in a manner he sees fit, and have the opportunity to decide for himself what is right and what is wrong.

Even if government aid in this instance wasn't going to cost Parmer County citizens a red cent, we would have to oppose it on the grounds that a hand-out of this type undermines our individual rights and privileges. But, the real fallacy of the program is that local citizens will pay through the nose any way. Just wait until you receive your tax bill.

If the state health department had recommended that the county take steps of its own to alleviate the mosquito situation, we could have gone along with the program. In fact, we would have done everything in our power to see that the program was carried out. Then, if we found that our citizens were destitute and unable to help themselves, we could even go along with the subsidy program. We would also express gratitude to our benevolent friends who aided us when we were in need.

This was not the case, however, so therefore we object.

We object to some outsider coming in and telling us that we're incapable of discharging our individual duties. We're Americans. We think ourselves to be entirely capable of solving our own problems. We can stand on our own two feet.

Voters Should Read Constitutional Amendments

In this issue of the Tribune there appears the full text of two of the constitutional amendments to be voted on in the upcoming general election, November 8. So that you may be fully informed, we urge you to read each proposed measure in its entirety, and study all of them carefully before you go to the polls.

Many voters tend to overlook or pay little attention to constitutional amendments on a ballot, especially when there is a major political race to vote on. However, these amendments are important to every citizen. Most of them will affect your pocket book and each amendment does warrant your attention.

A brief digest of the four proposed constitutional amendments follows:

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (HJR 39)

--Authorizes the legislature to create hospital districts co-extensive with Lamar County, Hidalgo County, and County Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, and sets forth certain powers, duties and limitations.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (SJR 6)--Increases the maximum permissible interest rate on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board to three and one-half percent.

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (HJR 3) --This bill is what is known as the "Annual Salary Bill" for legislators. It provides for an annual salary of not to exceed $4,800 for each legislator, and a per diem allowance of not to exceed $12 a day for the first 120 days of each regular session and for 30 days of each special session as maximum compensation for members of the legislature. Also it limits the regular session to 140 days.

NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (HJR 6)--Authorizes the legislature to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest, fix maximum rates of interest, and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten per cent per annum in the absence of legislation setting maximum rates of interest; provides that the rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent per annum in contracts where no interest rate is agreed upon; provides for the right of appeal and trial de novo in the event of cancellation of or refusal to grant any permit.

Texico Students Asked To Have Immunizations

Texico School officials say that all new students will need to have immunization records, birth certificates, and workbook fees when they report for registration Tuesday morning, August 23.

The workbook fee will be $2.00 for children in grades one through six. In addition to this fee, the pupils in the first three grades will need pencils, crayolas, scissors, and a wide Big Chief tablet, says Mrs. Zelpha Younger, elementary principal.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades will need the same items as the primary grades, but they will need wide line notebook paper instead of the tablet, she adds.

Also, beginning this fall, first graders and transfer students attending Texico School for the first time will be required to produce evidence within the first month of school that they have completed or initiated the following immunizations:

Poliomyelitis--A minimum of three injections are required. The first two injections must be given one month apart, and the third injection given at least seven months after the second injection. A fourth injection is recommended, at the discretion of the attending physician, but is not required for school attendance.

Smallpox--At least one initial smallpox vaccination, plus one revaccination within the last five years. Additional revaccinations at five year intervals are recommended, at the discretion of the attending physician, but are not required for school attendance.

Diphtheria and Tetanus--A minimum of four diphtheria-tetanus injections, the last injection within the last five years, based on the following recommended schedule: two initial diphtheria-tetanus injections, at least one month apart, plus a third booster injection at least six to twelve months after the second injection, and another booster injection after a three to four year interval. Additional boosters at three and four year intervals are recommended, at the discretion of the attending physician, but are not required for school attendance.

Mrs. Huffaker Once Member Of Famed Girls Cage Team

It's been 28 years--over a quarter of a century since a certain group of girl basketball players were national AAU champs--and this year the surviving members were re-united for the first time. With them to recall those exciting days of the past was Mrs. C. J. Huffaker, who now resides in Farwell and is a member of the faculty of Farwell schools.

It was in 1932 when a young woman, then known as Isla Rhea Leister, was a member of the team that won fame for their skill on the basketball court. Also with the group was the late Babe Didrickson Zaharias, who not only gained fame for her skill in athletics, but was admired for her battle against cancer.

Mrs. Huffaker, in that year, was selected All-American and placed second in free throws, getting 47 out of 50 shots in 1933.

The reunion of the Golden Cyclones (the name of the team for which Mrs. Huffaker played) was held in Dallas August 5. The get-together was sponsored by Employers Casualty Co., the company which had sponsored their team.

During the reception, the women visited and recalled incidents from their athletic days. Mrs. R. F. Hannah, who was team mother, remembered many stories about "her girls."

Mrs. Huffaker jokingly admits that all team members had changed very much in the past 28 years. "We've all gotten fatter," she laughs.

While in Dallas, the team members enjoyed a display of the trophies they had won and the clippings that had been in various papers during their years of competition.

Team members were employed by the Casualty Co. and Mrs. Huffaker says that basketball today is just about the same as it was at that time. "We did play two court division," she says, "although many think we played three."

The local woman played two years for the Cyclones, but had played previously with the Oklahoma Presbyterian College and was a team member of the Colgate, Okla. high school ball team. She is still very interested in AAU basketball.

Mrs. Huffaker recalls that Babe Zaharias was very outstanding at that time, in fact, she played with the Cyclones only two years because of her ability, was almost forced to become professional.

Another team great was Agnes Yori Robertson, who was chosen All-American six times. The rating was not unusual for the Cyclones, however, since there were eight All-American team members.

Some of the other teams were from Wichita, Kansas; Shreveport, La.; San Antonio, Texas; Galveston; Nashville, Tenn.; and Salem, N. C.

Attending the reunion other than Mrs. Huffaker were Claudene Glenn, Agnes Yorgi Robertson, Kathleen Peace,

Fireboys Honor Families With Annual Dinner

The Texico Fireboys honored their wives and families with the annual dinner Sunday. The men prepared and served fried chicken, gravy, baked beans, potato salad, tossed green salad, hot rolls, butter, chocolate pie and ice cream. The dinner was served in the Texico cafeteria.

Those members attending were Messrs and Mesdames Stanton Thigpen and family, Perry Winkles and family, Fred Danforth and family, Otis Huggins and family, C. H. Webb and family, John Adams and family and J. D. Westberry and Betty.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Rip Snodgrass, Donald Caillouet, Bill Thigpen and Don Johnson.

Visitors attending were Mr. and Mrs. Olen Schlueter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Richardson and boys, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gragg and family, Joyce Gillian, Uncle Tom Randol, Mrs. Ola Moore, Mona Drace and Mrs. Jim Pierce.

FHS Cheerleaders Return From SMU

The four Farwell cheerleaders who went to the cheerleaders and twirling school on the campus of SMU in Dallas, returned Friday.

Taking the girls and acting as sponsor of a group of girls, was Mrs. Bill Ingman, pep squad sponsor. Approximately 1000 girls took part in this school with girls from Missouri, Texas and New Mexico attending.

Each day, the girls would be judged by groups. The groups were A, B, C, and D, with Farwell girls being in group B, since that was the group for the cheerleaders with fewer girls. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, the Farwell lasses placed second on their cheers.

Cheerleaders attending from Farwell were Carolyn Routon, Joene Donaldson, Bonnie Cochran and Jo Potts, head cheerleader. Another cheerleader, Joan Potts, was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson of Clovis announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Iwana, to J. B. Taylor of Texico. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Taylor, also of Texico. The couple is planning a September 18 wedding in the First Church of God in Clovis. All friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend the 3 p.m. ceremony.

Girls Return From WT Camp

Four Farwell girls returned Friday from a two-week band camp on the campus of West Texas State College in Canyon.

Melodie played the drums, Sherri practiced flute, and Janice and Darla played clarinet. The girls also participated in a twirling class. Three of the girls will be twirlers for the high school marching band this fall.

The girls, Janice Prince, Melodie Coffman, Sherri Austin and Darla Robertson were in the junior high school band, under the direction of Mr. King, director of the Hale Center band.

Better Hog Prices Forecast

The price outlook for hogs for the next few months is considerably brighter. John McHaney, extension economist, says that prices received by farmers in the last half of 1960 will be higher than those received in the last half of 1959. He says they will not, however, reach the peak prices of 1958, and the usual fall price decline can be expected.

McHaney explains this forecasted price rise by pointing out that the 1960 spring pig crop was down 16 per cent from the 1959 spring crop. This decrease was brought about mainly because fewer sows farrowed and fewer pigs were produced per sow.

Spring prices in 1961 will be largely determined by the size of the 1960 fall crop, McHaney continues. According to the present crop forecast, the 1960 fall crop should be smaller than the 1959 crop, thus the prices received in the spring of 1961 should be higher than those received this year.

The specialist concludes with a word of warning for swine producers. He says there are indications that this downturn in production may be the shortest on record, and just because prices may be better in the last half of 1960 and in the first few months of 1961 is no reason to believe that prices will bring satisfactory returns to all producers in the last half of 1961.

Six Items On September List Of Plentiful Foods

Grocery shoppers will find a lot of broiler-fryers available in Texas food markets this September. They are featured among the six items listed as plentiful for the month, reports the Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M College.

Turkeys are another poultry plentiful. Lamb, melons, peanut butter, and a wide array of late-summer vegetables complete the list.

These foods were selected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for special emphasis in this area because the supply of each is expected to exceed normal demand. Homemakers can take advantage of the abundance by serving these foods often.

September broiler-fryer marketings are expected to run about the same as a year ago, but total weight may be higher because there will be more of the heavy breeds. Both chicken and turkey provide ideal fall-weather entrees for family fare.

There'll be lots of lamb for National Lamb Week, September 15-20. Slaughter has been averaging about 6 per cent more than a year ago.

Plentiful melons include watermelons, cantaloupes, honeydews, Cranshaws and Casabas. The late-summer watermelon crop is expected to be especially huge.

Choice of late-summer vegetables will vary in different localities but good supplies of onions, carrots, squash, cabbage, eggplant, potatoes, sweet corn and many others will be available.

Summer squash is a mild and modest vegetable. Some folks never appreciate its possibilities. Extension foods and nutrition specialists say it's easy to prepare, nutritious, tasty and low in calories.

It combines well with strong flavored foods such as onion, salty bacon and sharp cheese. It has a delicate sweetness of its own that emerges when it's merely steamed and lightly seasoned with salt, pepper and butter.

In young, tender squash that has not reached maturity both skin and seeds are so tender that the whole squash may be cooked without peeling or wastage. Delicate flavor is lost if too much water is used in the boiling.

For all its lightness and delicacy, squash is a good source of minerals and vitamins. And it's a wonderful "buy" in calories -- only 17 to a half-cup serving.

Try this summer squash with bacon for variety:
Summer Squash with Bacon
2 pounds summer squash

- 1/4 cup boiling water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 strips bacon
- 1 green pepper
- 2 medium onions
- 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper

Wash and cut tender unpeeled summer squash into slices 1 inch thick. Place in a saucepan with the boiling water and salt. Cover. Bring to boiling point. Cook until crisp-tender, about 15 minutes. Drain if necessary. In the meantime, fry 4 strips bacon until crisp. Remove from the pan. Pour off all fat except 2 tablespoons. Add green pepper and onions and saute until almost limp. Add drained squash and black pepper. Heat. Turn into serving dish. Crumble bacon and sprinkle over the top. Serve hot.

Pickled peaches are colorful and tasty, especially as a relish. They are easy to prepare, so why not make the most of peaches while they are available.

Extension foods and nutrition specialists' directions for making 6 pints call for 8 pounds of small or medium-sized peaches without blemish, ripe but firm enough to hold their shape in cooking. Other ingredients: 2 tablespoons whole cloves; 8 two-inch pieces stick cinnamon; 2 pounds sugar; 1 quart vinegar.

First, make the sirup mixture by cooking together sugar, vinegar and spices for 10 minutes. (Have spices tied loosely in a clean, thin, white cloth so that they can be removed easily later. Save out enough cloves to place two in each peach if desired.) Wash and pare the peaches, stick cloves in each, add to the sirup and cook slowly until tender but not broken. Let stand overnight. Next morning remove bag of spices. Drain sirup from peaches. Boil rapidly until thickened. Pack peaches in clean, hot, sterile jars. Pour hot sirup over peaches, filling jars to top. Seal tightly. Keep in a cool place several weeks before serving to blend flavor.

Recipes for other delicious fruit and vegetable pickles are given in Extension Bulletin 188, "PICKLES AND RELISHES." Copies are available from your county home demonstration agent's office.

Wool slacks and skirts are permanently creased or pleated by a new chemical treatment developed by U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists. The creases stay through long wear and exposure to rain and high humidity. If the fabric is suitably shrink-proofed, the creases remain after machine washing.

The process was devised at the Wool and Mohair Laboratory of USDA's Agricultural Research Service in Albany, Calif., by chemists N. H. Koenig, W. L. Wasley and C. E. Pardo. They found that dilute solutions of ethanolamine will put long-lasting creases in wool. Ethanolamine is widely available, safe, inexpensive chemical.

The solution can be applied either by spraying or dipping, after which the damp fabric is steam-pressed. In a typical experiment with light-weight suiting, creases were set in one minute at about 280 degree F. in a tailor's press.

The treatment is applicable to fabrics that have been shrink-proofed by epoxy-polyamide resins, a method developed earlier by the Wool and Mohair Laboratory. Fabrics that have received both treatments are washable in machines without shrink and without loss of creases.

Tests in commercial dry-cleaning equipment have given promising results, but more testing will be undertaken.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

The USDA has again named 37 varieties of undesirable milling quality wheats that will be subject to 20 cents per bushel discount in the loan program. Also, there will be no premium on these varieties for high protein content.

Sixteen of these, hard red winter wheats, are of interest to growers of this area. Here they are, followed by class: Blue Jacket, Cache, Chiefkan, Cimarron, Early Blackhull, Kan King, Kharkof MC 22, New Chief, Pawnee Sel. 33, Purkof, Red Chief, Red Hull, Red Jacket, Stafford, Wasatch and Yogo. No one, of course, would want to plant any of these wheat seeds with the penalty that will be required.

In a few days, we will have a supply of cards, free to you, showing the principle differences in the Marxian Atheism-Collectivism world of Communism and Christianity-Free Enterprise systems. We believe these charts will help keep us aware of the threats of some proposals made even in this country, and help us keep straight on what is right and what is wrong for the people of America.

You will remember that Krushchey was reported to have said at a Kremlin reception in 1956: "If you don't like us don't accept our invitations, and don't invite us to come to see you. Whether you like it or not, history is on our side. We will bury you!"

It is important that each American know the things that may be presented for this purpose, so that he will not swallow some of them without knowing it. Production payment programs that have been revived in recent months were first presented to the Agriculture Committee back in 1947 by a man named Lem Harris, secretary of the National Farm

Commission of the Communist Party. In view of the fact that the Communists have never promoted anything that would strengthen the national economy of America, a program of this type should be examined carefully before any consideration should be given to it.

We have been asked several times what the position of Farm Bureau is with regard to increasing and spreading the scope of the minimum wage. Our answer is that Farm Bureau, from counties to States and American Conventions, has for several years opposed this proposal.

WE CAN GROW 'EM!

LOOKING OVER A FEW OF THE NICE CANTALOUPEs on the Arlin Hartzog Seed Farm are Hartzog, left, and Pat McGee of Gateway Produce Company. Cantaloupes from this field and other fields in the Bovina area are being harvested this week.

GROWING SIDE BY SIDE in a field are mustard greens and beets. McGee, left, checks out some of the mustard plants and Hartzog digs some of the beets. It takes from 45 to 50 days to produce both of these crops.

GETTING READY TO SAMPLE SOME TURNIPS in this four-acre patch is Arlin Hartzog. It takes about 45 days for turnips to reach maturity.

Parmer County Could Be Leading Vegetable Region

In Parmer County, where cotton, wheat and grain sorghums have long been the basic crops, what future is there for the young, but fast-growing vegetable business?

That question has been receiving much attention from farmers in the area, largely because of the huge surpluses of all the basic crops and the continued decline in support prices and acreage allotments.

For the past several years, cantaloupes, potatoes and other vegetables have been grown in the county on a small scale. Individuals who have been the pioneers in this new farming practice have had their ups and downs, but one thing has been proven—quality vegetables can be grown in this area.

Gateway Produce Company, a firm which has operated a cantaloupe processing shed in Bovina for the past three years, this year branched out considerably in the vegetable business in Parmer County by growing for the first time 200 acres of mixed vegetables.

Gateway rented the land from the Arlin Hartzog Seed Farms and the vegetables being grown (some of them for the first time on a commercial basis) include cabbage, bell peppers, broccoli, okra, eggplant, green onions, parsley, cucumbers, mustard, turnips, beets and squash.

As the harvest of these vegetables begins, everything points to a high yield and top quality.

Pat McGee, who has been in charge of growing the vegetables, says, "They're all beautiful, some of the finest vegetables that can be grown anywhere."

A veteran vegetable grower, who has grown vegetables from California to Florida, McGee came to Bovina from Weslaco, down in the lower Rio Grande Valley. Vegetables and citrus are the chief agricultural crops there and the area is noted for its quality produce.

However, McGee expresses the belief that Parmer County can be a better vegetable producing area than the Rio Grande Valley. "You can grow just about anything here," McGee says.

He explains that one advantage growers here would have over the growers down south is that humidity is not such a problem. "Humidity breeds disease and that's something we don't have to contend with so much here," McGee says.

None of the vegetables being grown on the Hartzog farm this year has been infested with disease. "There have been a lot of fleahoppers, bugs and worms, but we have been able to control them by spraying," he says.

Some of the crops have been sprayed as many as 13 times. That's one thing that adds greatly to the cost of producing vegetables and a factor that may keep vegetables from being one of the major crops here.

The cost of growing vegetables is approximately $200 per acre, as compared to $35 to $60 per acre on wheat, cotton and sorghums.

Then, too, the biggest drawback is the gamble involved. After investing a sizeable sum of money into a crop, one hail storm cloud wipe out the entire acreage or a low market price could result in a great loss to the producer.

"Hail is the one thing that can hurt you most in this area," McGee explains. "You can see all of your money and efforts lost in only a few minutes."

However, any type of farming is a gamble and hail is just one of the things you have to contend with.

No one ever knows just what the market will be on vegetables, but by planting them so that they will be ready for harvest at "just the right time" can help. By "just the right time," McGee explains that there is nearly always a lull between the time vegetable harvest is complete in the southern states and the time it gets underway on the West Coast.

Of course, you cannot always do this. "It will depend on how early or late the crops are in the other areas," McGee says.

Another thing about vegetable growing is that it does require a lot of hard work. Other than the planting and early cultivation, everything is done by hand. "And, you have always got to be ready to water, fertilize, spray and pull weeds when the need arises," McGee points out. "A delay can be costly in the vegetable business," he says. "Even if it has just rained and the field is a little muddy, you've got to get out there and pull the weeds if they're there."

"Also, you have got to be able to get water to the crop when it needs it," he adds.

Another reason McGee thinks this area could be a top vegetable growing region is its geographical location. Most of the vegetables are shipped east, and since this area is closer to the market than the vegetable-producing sections on the West Coast, freight costs on getting the product to market would be less.

"It costs about a $1.00 a crate less to ship vegetables from here than it does from the more western regions," McGee says.

Everything considered, Parmer County could be a leading vegetable producing area, McGee believes. One thing about it, he says, "is that you can make a pile of money overnight and you can lose it just as fast."

TWO BIG, FIRM HEADS OF CABBAGE are displayed by Pat McGee, who estimates that this 30-acre field will yield from 18 to 20 tons per acre. Cabbage is one of more than a dozen types of vegetables being grown on the Arlin Hartzog farm near Bovina.

TWO VARIETIES OF MUSTARD GREENS are shown in this field. On the left is a curly-leaf variety and on the right is the plain. Both varieties, which mature in 45 to 50 days, are looking good.

LOTS OF OKRA will be gathered from this field between now and frost. The first batch was picked last week and workers will be going over this field every few days. Here, McGee inspects one of the plants.

Diana Hawkins, Travis Dean McPhearson Exchange Vows

The Primitive Baptist Church of Muleshoe was the scene of the marriage of Diana Joan Hawkins and Travis Dean McPhearson Friday, August 12, at 8:30 p. m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Glen Williams before an altar flanked with white gladiola.

The new Mrs. McPhearson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Hawkins of Sudan and Travis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Taylor of Ruidoso, formerly of Texico.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of white bridal satin covered with chantilly lace. It had a fitted waistline which came to points in the front and back and a bouffant skirt. The scalloped neckline came to a V in front and back. She wore an elbow length veil of silk illusion which was caught to a crown of satin and lace covered with pearls.

Mrs. McPhearson wore a single cultured pearl, given to her by her sister, Linda; and pearl earscrews. For something old, she carried a handkerchief belonging to her Grandmother Hardcastle; something new was her wedding gown; something borrowed her satin crown from Mrs. Ervin Sadler, and something blue was a garter.

The bride carried a bouquet of white stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Miss Alma Lora Muller, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of sky blue cotton and lace, with a beauteau neckline, low V back accented with a bow flowing to the hemline. The midriff bodice was trimmed with flowers and she carried a single red rose.

Lola and Lora Hawkins, twin sisters of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. They wore gowns of sky blue taffeta. The cummerbunds at the waistlines were trimmed with lace forming a large bow at the back and a sash flowing to the hemline. The neckline which rounded in front came to a low V in back trimmed with lace.

Bill Smith of Farwell was best man.

Rex and Wayne Hawkins, brothers of the bride, served as ushers and candlelighters.

Mrs. Emil Macha, accompanied at the organ by Miss Betty Phipps, sang "Oh Promise Me."

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was covered with lace over blue. The bride's bouquet formed the centerpiece which was surrounded by serving pieces of crystal and silver, and the three-tiered wedding cake and punch.

The couple will be at home in Memphis, where McPhearson is employed.

The bride attended high school at Sudan and the bridegroom graduated from Texico High School in May.

Seldom In Our History Has This Nation So Depended On Youth

Not too long ago, a college education was considered a luxury enjoyed by a privileged few or a necessity only for the exceptionally-gifted student. Yes, a high school diploma was, in many instances, the passport to many good, well-paying jobs in business and industry.

However, the recent gigantic strides in progress . . . the realization that our nation is not as far out in front as we would like to be . . . the knowledge that at the present rate our world is going to be a vastly different one than we have ever known—all add up to the fact that our nation's position in the coming years, and yes, perhaps even its very survival, depends on the men and women of tomorrow.

This means that, increasingly, youth has more to learn than his father before him in order to reach even relatively the same position. Add this fact to that of our present position . . . the necessity to progress in order to survive—and we see how vitally important it is that our youngsters receive the best and most education that is possible.

YOUTH! It is your bounden duty to yourself and your nation to remain in school and learn all you can.

ADULTS! It is your obligation to help our youth become the best-informed, clearest thinking individuals in this world.

Education Is Vital To Your Future!

Leading West Texas farmers like C. B. WILHELM apply 100 lbs. of ammonia per acre on wheat

C. B. Wilhelm, who farms 275 acres in Castro County, says: "Phillips 66 Ammonia pays profit returns on wheat. After pre-plant applications of 100 pounds of ammonia per acre, I've made 50 to 60 bushel wheat. Phillips 66 Ammonia is also used successfully on maize. I figure on increasing my ammonia application rate on maize this year to further increase yields."

Thousands of Texas farmers are using Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre. Actual field reports prove that this 82% nitrogen fertilizer (1) boosts wheat and small grain yields (2) increases maize yields (3) produces more high grade cotton (4) improves forage production.

See your local Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia Distributor now. You can depend on better ammonia service. Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia may be applied by you or your distributor.
