SIXTY-EIGHTH YEAR

1979 In Review

JANUARY

January was a busy month for the Twin Cities. Farwell held its first Our Little Miss Pageant with three area misses walking away with the coveted crowns. The Farwell Jaycees transformed the former Gateway Restaurant on Avenue A and Ninth Street into a community center. Actually the work had begun months before, but the formal announcement was made with the start of the new year.

Texico High School conducted its annual basketball homecoming, and for the first time Farwell High School decided to crown a basketball king and queen. The new school event was sponsored by the student council.

The City Council of Farwell, in response to a petition, called a special election to try and change the present form of city government to the Aldermanic System, but the election order was later voided when it was learned that the petition had been unintentionally misleading.

Kudos were earned by the Parmer County Sheriff's Department when it "cracked a ring" which had been responsible for the thefts of numerous hogs and cattle from the area.

The weather, of course, often dominated the scene during this month with an unusual spell of cold, snow and ice settling in and harrasing area residents. When a boiler went out at Texico Elementary School many students and teachers either relocated their classes or else bundled up to brave the elements until the boiler was repaired.

Texico's former city clerk, Clara Wiehl, was arraigned in Clovis on 38 counts of embezzlement, failure to deposit public money and tampering with public records, in connection with alleged missing funds in Texico. A May trial date was set.

FEBRUARY

February was quite a busy month with many things happening in the Twin Cities. Local farmers returned from the American Agriculture Movement tractorcade to Washington D.C., with reports that "the farmers fight was a long way from being won, but that improvement could be seen."

The Farwell Convalescent Center staged its second annual American Heart Association jamboree, earning more than $600 for the organization. Everyone turned out in force to make the entire shindig a grand success.

Farwell second year art students gave a good account of themselves during the Scholastic Art Awards show in Amarillo, bringing home two gold awards -- the highest honor -- and three third places. Texico band students garnered superior and excellent ratings during the solo and ensemble contest in Portales.

Both the Texico and Farwell Future Farmers of America were busy preparing for the 51st National FFA Week. The theme was "A Brighter Future, A Golden Past." Farwell FFA'ers were extra busy as they also prepared for the annual Farwell and Parmer County junior livestock shows. Local youngsters won their share of the coveted trophies and ribbons.

The juniors at Farwell High School staged a three-act comedy entitled "Off The Track."

Texico School Board called a school bond election in the amount of $200,000 for improvements at the high school. The project called for building a fourth dressing room for the gymnasium and expanding the vocational agriculture department 1200 feet.

Several Texico students won the local spelling bee and advanced to Curry County competition.

Area misses were honored during the first Our Little Miss Pageant to be staged in Farwell. Three lovely lasses were declared the overall winners in each category.

In a freak accident, a tractor-trailer rig slammed into part of the Border Town Playorama Fruit Market in Texico, causing extensive damage to the business and knocking out TV cable service for several hours.

MARCH

Many activities, both unusual and predictable, highlighted the month of March. Early in the month some area residents were able to view a solar eclipse, a phenomenon which will not be seen again until the year 2017.

Farwell schools observed Texas Public Schools Week, and Farwell Chamber of Commerce received the city brochures which had been compiled courtesy of Southwestern Public Service months before. The brochure -- a special Chamber project -- listed all the features of Farwell and the surrounding area.

March was a big month in sports as the Texico varsity Wolverine girls captured the runner-up slot in Class A basketball, narrowly losing to arch-rival Floyd.

Two Farwell Steers and one Steerette were named to the All-District roundball teams, and Farwell band students brought home UIL honors.

Texico Chamber of Commerce staged its annual banquet on a "cold and dreary" night, which sharply curtailed attendance. Highlighting the evening was the naming of Dardanella Helton and Bob Spears as Texico's "Man and Woman of the Year," honoring them for their civic achievements.

A Farwell student, Sharla Stewart, captured the Parmer County Spelling Bee championship, evidence that brain as well as brawn are valuable attributes for students in the Twin Cities.

Indian John Crim's weather prediction foresaw another poor crop year. According to the old timer who has been making these predictions for many years, the steady southwest wind was "not a good time."

Worley Mills Founder Dies Monday In Clovis

Clarence Worley, 72, founder and president of Worley Mills, Inc., died Monday, Dec. 24, in Clovis High Plains Hospital. Funeral services were conducted from Central Christian Church in Clovis Thursday, Dec. 27, with Kenneth Broad and Jerry Christensen officiating. Burial was in Lawnhaven Memorial Gardens under the direction of Steed-Todd Funeral Home.

Mr. Worley was born September 10, 1907, in Wauhaulia, Okla., and had resided in the Clovis area since 1929, when he moved to Logan, NM. From 1934 to 1968 he lived in Portales after which he moved to Clovis. He operated both feed mills and grain elevators in Portales, Clovis and Farwell and elevators in Clayton, Tucumcari, Elida and Las Cruces in New Mexico and Daihart, Tex. Immediately prior to moving to Logan he was married in 1929. The Worleys brought a cotton gin from Stillwell, Okla., when they moved to Logan. They lived there until 1934 when Mr. Worley moved his family to Portales to build another cotton gin there, one in Dora and one in Causey. After a period of time his brother Olan Worley and his father Arthur Worley joined him and consequently they founded Worley Brothers Company; later building a one-man feed grinding mill. They also built a wooden flour mill because World War II was just beginning and steel was scarce. The first concrete elevator was built in 1944 at Portales to handle wheat and milo grown in the area. The Farwell location was purchased in 1954 and construction of the elevator which presently stands there was started. It was called Worley Mills Inc., at this time. It was in 1955 that Mr. Worley decided to build a feed plant in Clovis, at the time hailed the most modern plant of its kind between Kansas City and the West Coast. After 50 years of residence in New Mexico, Mr. Worley has to his credit building 12 locations for Worley Mills Inc., in New Mexico as well as Texas. He and his son, Dick Worley, operated a 22,500 acre ranch and farmed approximately 2,200 acres of irrigated farm land in Curry and Roosevelt counties. The ranch is said to be part of the old Spanish land grants of over 150 years ago. He was a former member of the board of regents of Eastern New Mexico University and a founder and former president of the New Mexico Grain and Feed Association. He had served on the boards of the American Feed Manufacturing Association and the National Grain Dealers Association. He was a member of Masonic Lodge No. 26 of Portales and of the Elks Lodge, the Shrine Club and the Rotary Club in Clovis, where he also was a member of Central Christian Church. He recently celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary. Survivors include his wife, Lois; a son, Dick Worley of Clovis; two sisters, Mrs. Ruby Montgomery of Albuquerque and Mrs. Lela Ward of Clovis; a brother, Olan Worley of Portales; five grandchildren, one great-grandchild and numerous nieces and nephews. The family requests that memorial gifts be sent to Central Christian Campus House, Eastern New Mexico University, 223 South Avenue K, Portales, NM 88130. Pallbearers were Bob Worley, Tim Worley, Victor Worley, Randy Worley, Mike Worley, Bobby Hines, Rick Worley and Bill Worley.

E.T. 'Dick' Dunn Rites Conducted

Funeral services for E.T. (Dick) Dunn, former Fort Sumner resident who passed away on December 17 in Farwell, were held Wednesday, Dec. 19, in the First Baptist Church of Fort Sumner. Brother Bill Sessom, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the service and was assisted by David Crow, a former pastor. Interment was in the Fort Sumner Cemetery. Mr. Dunn was born in Cook County, Ill., on September 20, 1889, and died at the Farwell Convalescent Center where he had made his home for the past 18 months. Mr. Dunn moved to New Mexico with his parents around 1906 where they homesteaded north of Fort Sumner and Joe Bowlin of Santa Fe; four daughters, Mrs. Ethel Lucero of Las Cruces, Mrs. Edith Garcia of Albuquerque, Mrs. Jean Adams of Toledo, Ohio, and Mrs. Marquerite Cook of Fort Sumner; three sisters, Mrs. Gussie Foor of Fort Sumner, Mrs. Mabel McCracken of Roswell and Mrs. Gracie Foor of Alamogordo; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Pallbearers for the service were, Ralph Cortese, Joe Cortese, F.B. Willis, W.M. Franks, Jim Pruitt and Clyde Whinnery. Honorary bearers were W.R. Franks, A.P. Shirley, B.C. Withers, Ernest Withers, Dee Lobley, Walter Wright and Hat Roy.

Local Women's Father Buried In Portales

Funeral services for Fay L. Davis, 84, the father of Georgia Stone and Betty Gossett, both of Farwell, were held Monday, Dec. 24, from Wheeler Starlite Chapel in Portales with Van McCormack officiating assisted by Michael Braunum. Burial was in the Pleasant Hill cemetery under the direction of Wheeler Mortuary of Portales. Mr. Davis died December 22. He had been a resident of Roosevelt County since 1948. Prior to that he resided in Curry County. He was a retired farmer. Survivors include one son, Bert Davis of Clovis; seven daughters, Georgia Stone and Betty Gossett both of Farwell, Gerene Martin and Dorothy Smith both of Clovis, Nora Alice Davis of the home in Portales, Jessie Pate of Tatum and Fern Holt of Portales; two sisters, Mrs. Mae Purcelley of Clovis and Mrs. Maude Moore of Missouri; 18 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Pallbearers were J.E. Stone, Gayland Gossett, G.A. Gossett, Virgil Gossett, Ricky Smith, and James Holt. Honorary bearers were friends and grandchildren.

Commissioners Discuss Rabies Law

Parmer County Commissioners Court discussed the implications of a law passed by the state legislature in regard to rabies during its meeting on Thursday, Dec. 20. According to Judge Paul Fortenberry, the law specifies that each county commissioner court or governing body in each town appoint a public health officer for the purpose of keeping tabs on and controlling rabies outbreaks. The court tabled discussion on the matter until its January meeting at which time more information will be presented. Fortenberry said. Carlene Langley, with the Department of Human Ser-VICES in Dimmitt, met with the commissioners court to discuss the possibility of setting up a Parmer County welfare board. No action was taken by the court. The court in other business voted to remove $100,000 from the general fund to deposit for certificates of deposit for 90 days. It was also approved to transfer $20,000 from precinct 3 for fm funds for 90 days. The commissioners court voted to trade the extension service's pickup truck, a 1979 model three-quarter ton pickup, for a 1980 model one-half ton pickup from Friona Ford Sales with the county paying the difference, $1688.22.

The commissioners voted to pay $190.53 toward the salary of the 154th judicial district attorney's secretary each month. The balance of her salary is paid by the two other counties in the district, Lamb and Bailey. Other items considered by the commissioners included bkaing payment of $180 to a Farwell couple who incurred expenses in transporting their foster child for medical treatment. The commissioners court also voted to strike the commissioners from having workman's compensation any longer. Most of the commissioners work in a supervisory capacity and aren't as liable to be injured, Fortenberry said. The savings resulting from discontinuing the workman's compensation will amount to about $1,800 for the county.

FIRE CALLS

The past week is the second week in a row that the Twin Cities have not had a single fire or ambulance call. This is continued "good news" for local residents.

Gasoline Tops $1 Mark At Area Gas Stations

by Alan Blanchard
News Editor

Well, it has finally come. The day most people weren't in a hurry for - the day gasoline topped one dollar a gallon. Last week unleaded and premium gasoline passed the dollar mark at several gasoline stations in Texico, Farwell and Clovis.

The increase which took the form of gasoline costing four to five cents more per gallon came as a direct result of the various members in the organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries raising prices. OPEC concluded their yearend meeting on Thursday, Dec. 20, after four days of being unable to agree on how much to raise the price per barrel of oil.

OPEC prices are estimated to be up 100 percent over the year with Saudi Arabia's prime price double the $12.70 price tag on a 42 gallon barrel of oil a year ago. The Sheik Ahmed Zaki Yamani of Saudi Arabia is predicting that some of the oil cartel members may lower their prices early next year.

According to analysts, the recent price increases per barrel of oil by OPEC members will mean up to a 15 cents a gallon increase at the gasoline pumps and also for heating oil in this country.

The dollar per gallon of gasoline phenomenon is not new to this country, as California residents and tourists alike have been paying that sum for some time now. The United States has yet to reach the $1.55 and $1.60 per gallon prices in effect in Guatemala.

"The session this morning (Thursday) might set loose limits within which each of the 13 countries (OPEC) could fix their own prices. But any upper limit would not be observed for long if a hard winter in Europe and the United States or a cut in production by a major producer resulted in a big increase in the demand for oil," A.K. Hart, chairman of the Nigerian National Petroleum Co., said.

The result of OPEC members failing to set a price ceiling "is that every (OPEC) country is free, on his own" to set the price it desires, Iranian Oil Minister Ali Akbar Moinefar said.

Oil importing nations had hoped all oil cartel countries (OPEC) would join Venezuela, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates increasing the base price of oil from $18 to $24 a barrel.

Instead of this the following OPEC members countries raised their prices as follows: Libya - $26.27 to $30; Algeria - $26.27 to $30; Nigeria - $26.27 to $30; Indonesia - $23.50 to $25.50; and Iran - $23.50 to $28.50.

The OPEC ministers left the yearend meeting having not decided on a mutual rate increase for the 1980's. Their increases made independently of each other are about 20 percent higher than they were in mid-November and about double their levels of a year ago.

$1 Mark Passed

The Twin Cities has not escaped gasoline prices soaring to over a dollar as a result of their action. This gas pump in the local area is but one example of escalating fuel prices. Unleaded gas at this pump cost $1.048 per gallon. Government experts and energy analysts in this country are predicting gasoline to increase a total of 15 cents as a result of OPEC's action.

Soaring Interest Rates May Prevent Many From Farming

Fewer people may decide to become farmers in the future, not because of a lack of desire, but rather because of soaring interest rates at the lending institutions in addition to other expenses that go hand in hand with farming nowadays.

The United States Agriculture Department's chief economist, Howard W. Hjort, told Congress recently that only those individuals wealthy enough to have a source of income separate from farming will be able to buy new farm land. Hjort is the director of agricultural economics, policy and budget in USDA.

"This situation is actually quite comparable to housing, where it is virtually impossible to invest in a single family residence and expect to make loan payments from the rent received on the house in the early years," he said.

the high rates and normal cash-flow problems could cause farmers to delay purchasing new machinery and instead encourage them to market crops and livestock earlier than normal, he said.

Hjort pointed out that the total farm debt and interest costs have recently risen to record annual levels but that the debt has stayed at around 16 to 17 percent of the total assets.

According to Hjort, the tightening of the money supply in October by the Federal Reserve Board, which sent interest rates skyrocketing for two months, will continue to raise farmers' production costs but not that much.

"We should remember too that the Federal Reserve System took the steps it did to cool inflation, a more serious threat to farmers," he said. "The 1980's could be a very good decade for U.S. farmers," Hjort said after reviewing the principal supply, demand and price trends for farmers and ranchers.

"A dark cloud on the horizon is the persistent inflation in farm expenses, which threatens to erode gains farmers may make in the marketplace," he cautioned. "This threat re-emphasizes the importance to the long-run health of American agriculture of supporting policies designed to eventually bring inflation under control," Hjort concluded.

Blackeyed Peas for Good Luck & Good Eating!

In the Southwest, eating blackeyed peas on New Year's day is a tradition that goes back more than a century.

There are many stories relating to good luck following a New Year feast of blackeyed peas. Most of them are fiction, but folks in East Texas still relate the tale of the farmer who was down on his luck, in debt and discouraged. Facing a gloomy year ahead, he ordered blackeyed peas for his New Year's dinner, hoping to change his luck. The next day he started building a fence and while digging a post hole, unearthed a pot of Spanish gold doubloons.

Legend has it that General Sam Houston had a big meal of blackeyed peas and hog jowl on the eve of the Battle of San Jacinto. Some folks think Texas probably owes her independence to that meal!

Whether you eat blackeyed peas for good luck or just good eating, here are a few tips from home economists with the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The peas, which aren't peas at all but members of the bean family, should be soaked before cooking to reduce required cooking time, says USDA's Food Safety and Quality Service (FSQS).

This can be accomplished by boiling them in water for two minutes, removing from the heat and soaking them for one hour. They are then ready to cook.

If you prefer to soak the peas overnight, it is still a good idea for the two-minute boil, because you will have fewer hard skins and the brief boil will keep them from souring.

Season with one teaspoon salt for each cup of dry beans. Salt pork and bacon are old standbys for seasoning, but chopped ham or turkey left over from the Christmas celebration are great also.

To assure you of buying the best quality, nearly all dried blackeyed peas are inspected and graded by FSQS.

If you can't find packages of peas marked with the USDA grade shield, look for the same factors an official grader considers.

First look for peas in cellophane bags or other "see through" types of packages, then consider the following factors:

1. Brightness of color: Black-eyed peas should have a bright uniform color. Loss of color indicates a lack of freshness.
2. Uniformity of size: You want peas of uniform size because mixed sizes will result in uneven cooking, since smaller peas cook faster than larger ones.
3. Visible defects: Cracked seed coats, foreign material and pinholes caused by insect damage are signs of a low quality product.

Large commercial farms which receive 80 percent of the cash receipts have debts averaging 20 percent of assets, compared to about 5 percent for small family farms.

Because of this, they are more sensitive to the interest rate hikes as are those who have expanded their farming operations. However, the farmer just starting out who has "substantial equity built up" is the most vulnerable.

"As a result of that vulnerability and of a reduced amount of land available for sale in part attributable to higher interest rates, there may be a decline in numbers of beginning farmers next year, even from presently low levels of entry," Hjort said.

However, he added that both

It took the Colorado River two million years to carve the Grand Canyon.

Farwell Kindergarten Students Present Christmas Program

Farwell school kindergarten students presented "The Story of Christmas" through music and oral presentations, in their annual Christmas program which was on Wednesday, Dec. 19.

Songs such as God Bless America, No Room, Away In A Manger, Up On The Housetops, Santa Claus Is Coming To Town, Oh, Christmas Tree, and The Battle Hymn Of The Republic were just a few presented by the group as they depicted the meanings and traditions of Christmas.

Led by teachers, Marcia Cole and Eva Ancira, the students individually and as a group presented the songs and recitations at Farwell High School auditorium, which was quite a new experience for many of the youngsters.

Parents and grandparents as well as younger brothers and sisters and other relatives were present for the performance.

High school band students accompanied the group with drums and horns during some of the songs. Lighting on the stage was provided by high school students, as well.

Students participating in the program were Amanda Curtis, Steven Vidana, Heather Burton, Mike Lingnau, Chad Byrd, Lanette Turner, Angela Dotson, Ray Haseloff, Jayme Palady, Joe Norris, Kirk Lingnau, Priscilla Galvan, Roger Billingsley, And, Ida Bermea, Michelle Foster, Kristy Stanton, Misty Stewart, Marty Moss, Britt Mitchell, Chris Gonzales, Randy McDaniel, Paul Beavers, Jacob Gonzales, D'Ann Pierson, Robin Ray, Matt Foster, Cody Monk, Kathy Contreras, Brian Johnson.

Also, Vonda Cunningham, Joy Morton, Robin Foster, Mary Ann Garcia, Ruben Lucio, Matthew Walker, Amy Foster, Laura Vidana and Lena Ortiz.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Mills of Big Spring. Maternal great-grandmothers are Mrs. Kittie Bea Whitten of Amarillo and Mrs. Annie Claire Craig of Sun Ray.

The Farwell Convalescent Center party for the residents was a huge success thanks to the efforts of many persons, reports Becky Embry, activity director. Approximately 400 persons attended the occasion.

Almost every resident had a family member present and every resident received at least two gifts. Santa Claus, Dutch Quickel, handed out gifts and stockings with assistance from his elves, the Auxiliary volunteers who turned out in full force for the party.

Theta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority brought gifts for each resident; and everyone received a large stocking stuffed with goodies and necessities, thanks to the efforts of many persons and organizations of the community. Mrs. Embry said.

Every resident was in the dining room for the party, including the bedfast patients. Several beds were pushed into the crowded dining room so that no one would miss out on the fun.

And, Mesdames Rosa Roberts, Diane Atkinson, Robin Gregory and Caren Spearman.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Martin of Farwell announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Paula Rilyn, to James Kent Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Vaughan of Dimmitt, Tx.

The couple will be united in marriage on Saturday, Feb. 2, 1980, at 6 p.m. [CST] at the Farwell Church of Christ. All friends and relatives are invited to attend the ceremony and reception to follow. No local invitations are being sent.

Portraying Area Homemakers

Mrs. Jerry (Altha) Herington of Farwell says that she and her husband have both lived in this area most of their lives and both are Farwell High School graduates. A little over three years ago they moved back to Farwell.

"We are glad that we moved back. Jerry's farming keeps him busy and I keep occupied by taking care of Cortney (their 19-month-old daughter)," Mrs. Herington said.

However, when the family does have time for rest and relaxation they like to water and snow ski and like to participate in various outdoor activities.

Altha said that her favorite hobby is baking and that she bakes a lot of bread which she enjoys sharing with others. She is a member of Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority and enjoys working in the various functions of that organization.

The Herington home is graced with paintings which Jerry's mother, Mrs. Grady Herington of Farwell, has painted. "We feel very fortunate that she is so talented and so generous with her paintings and shares them with us," Altha said.

WHITE LEMON FRUIT CAKE
Cream well:
1 pound oleo
1 box light brown sugar
Add:
1-2 oz. bottle lemon extract
6 eggs (2 at a time, beating 2 minutes after each)
Blend in 3 cups flour.
Mix in large pan or bowl:
1/2 pound candied cherries
1/2 pound candied pineapple
10 oz. package pecans
1 more cup of flour
Add fruit to batter, bake in long way.

MILLIONAIRE PIE
1 baked pie shell (cooled)
Cream together and put in pie shell:
1/2 cups powdered sugar
1/2 sm. tub oleo
1 egg
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. vanilla
Mix together and top pie with:
1 small can drained pineapple
1/2 cup pecans
1/2 tsp. vanilla

Mother's Little Helper

Cortney likes to help her mom stir up goodies in the kitchen. When the food happens to be something sweet, she also likes to be the official "taster."

19-month-old mother's helper can always be counted on to be there when help is needed, especially for sampling her mother's cooking.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

A NEW YEAR WISH We wish all of our readers a blessed New Year. For believers in Christ it will be most blessed of all if this coming year turns out to be the year of our Lord's coming for His own. How long the present dispensation of grace will be prolonged we do not, and cannot know. Even Saint Paul, who was commissioned to make known the glorious truth of the rapture of the Church, did not know. He never dreamed that God would linger in mercy for more than 1900 years, for in 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18 he says: "WE who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, SHALL BE CAUGHT UP..." Thus instructed Bible-believers in every generation since his day have rightly been on the alert for their Lord to come for them, for they know that "the days are evil" and every hour is an hour of grace. To the Philippians the apostle wrote: "WE LOOK FOR THE SAVIOUR"; and to the Thessalonians: "YE...WAIT FOR HIS (GOD'S) SON FROM HEAVEN"; and to Titus he says we should be "LOOKING FOR THAT BLESSED HOPE, AND THE APPEARING IN GLORY OF...OUR SAVIOUR, JESUS CHRIST" (Phil. 3:20; 1 Thes. 1:9,10; Tit. 2:11-13). With the Lord's coming and the close of "the Dispensation of the Grace of God" so much nearer than it was in Paul's day, we say to the unsaved: "RECEIVE NOT THE GRACE OF GOD IN VAIN...NOW IS THE DAY OF SALVATION" (II Cor. 6:1,2). And to the saved, we say: "BUY UP THE TIME," take advantage of every opportunity to win the lost to Christ, FOR "THE DAYS ARE EVIL" (Eph. 5:16) and the day of grace may soon end.

All-South Plains --

Lazbuddie Coach, Team Capture Class B Honors

The Lazbuddie Longhorns football coach and team have left their impression in the South Plains area as football season closes.

Coach Dewayne Sexton of Lazbuddie has been named Class B Coach of the Year by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, and six of his football players, Andy Rogers, Reggie Treider, Keihm Smith, Russell Windham, Apolonio Sanchez and Dennis Steinbock, have all been named to the Class B All-South Plains offense and defense squad.

Sexton signed on as coach of the Lazbuddie Longhorns in 1955. Three years before that the team had won only five games. Things changed drastically, but favorably for the team in the last five years as the new coach created zone champions of his Longhorns, who have had three winning seasons in a row.

This year's Class B All-South Plains squad is the youngest it has been in a long time. On the offensive squad, there are five juniors and six seniors. The Lazbuddie team had more players on the squad than any other football team. The Longhorn's placed six of their members on the team.

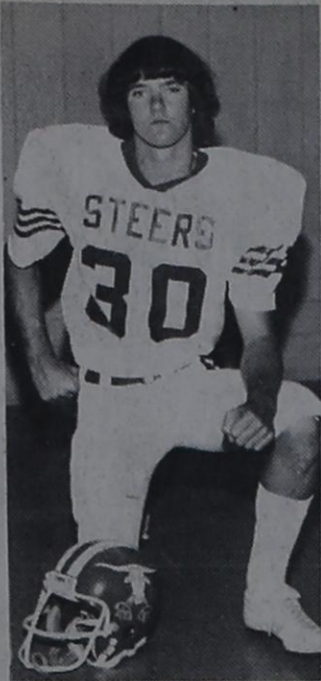

Below are some statistics on the six Longhorn players:

On the offense team were Andy Rogers at quarterback, 6', 150 pounds, a junior; Reggie Treider at tackle, 6'3", 185 pounds, a senior; and Keihm Smith at guard, 6'2", 195 pounds, a senior.

On the defense team were Russell Windham at line-backer, 6', 180 pounds, a junior; Apolonio Sanchez at defensive back, 5'9", 145 pounds, a senior; and Dennis Steinbock at kicker, 5'11", 180 pounds, a senior.

Lazbuddie's Andy Rogers at quarterback gained more yardage than all but three runners in the history of the South Plains area.

Windham, also a Longhorn, averaged 19 tackles a game this season at his position of defensive line-backer. This is the Lazbuddie junior's second year on the team. He was picked his freshman year, but was out of action during his sophomore year due to injuries.

Class A Honoree

Farwell Steer James Castleberry has been named to the prestigious Class A All-South Plains football team. Castleberry, a senior this year, was named to offense as an end. He was recently named All District Receiver and Honorable Mention Defensive Back, also.

Snodgrass, 2, and Corinna Hungerford, 1.

Leading rebounders were Scott and Horner with 4 each.

Texico's eighth grade record stands at 2 wins and 4 losses.

"I thought we played a good game, even though we lost," commented Coach King. "Karen Snodgrass and Jennifer Hill did an excellent job of handling the ball against their press."

Texico Jr. High, Jr. Varsity Basketball

In the freshmen game with Marshall, Texico completely dominated the game from the very beginning. They led 9-4 at the end of the first quarter and then extended the lead at halftime to 25-6.

"The Wolverines didn't play as well in the second half, but we built their lead at the end of the third quarter to 31-8, and on the game 37-14," said Coach Roy King.

This was the ninth graders' fifth straight win, after a season opening loss to Gattis. Their record stands at 5 wins and 1 loss.

"This is a good team," replied Coach Roy King. "We don't have a lot of kids, but the kids we do have are playing well. We start a seventh grader, an eighth grader, and three ninth graders on our freshman team."

The leading scorer for Texico was Tammy Landis with 18. She was followed by Sharlet Taylor with 5, Corinna Hungerford, Cheryl Scott, Valda Cavallero with 4 each, and Karen Snodgrass, 2.

Leading rebounders were

Landis with 13, followed by Taylor, 11, Scott, 6, Hungerford, 5, and Snodgrass, 3

The following list of girls make up the Texico Junior High teams: Seventh grade - Karen Snodgrass, Elaine Horner, Jennifer Hill, Cheryl Scott and Norma Moser.

Eighth grade - Valda Cavallero and Dana Morris.

Ninth grade - Tammy Landis, Sharlet Taylor, and Corinna Hungerford.

- Jacque Tatum -
- Becky McDonald -

The Texico seventh grade boys basketball team fell to Marshall, 43-15, in action on Tuesday, December 11.

Texico scored 4 points in the first quarter, with Marshall scoring 12. In the second quarter Marshall added 12 more, holding the Wolverines at bay. Marshall added 14 points for their best quarter and held Texico to 3 points.

The Wolverines came alive in the fourth quarter with 8 points, but were defeated 43-15.

Scoring for Texico were Paul Topliff and Buck Gattis with 6

each and Rusty McCormick with 3.

Texico Junior High girls entertained Marshall Junior High girls on Tuesday, Dec. 11. The Wolverines came out on the short end of the eighth grade game, losing 34-22. In the second game the Texico ninth graders defeated their Marshall opponents.

In the eighth grade game the young Wolverines, made up mostly of seventh graders, trailed 6-3 at the end of the first quarter and closed that margin to 13-12 at halftime. Free throw shooting kept Texico in the game during the first half. Texico connected 8 out of 10 from the line.

In the second half Texico was overwhelmed by Marshall. Marshall led at the end of the third quarter 24-14, and at the end of the game, 34-22. "Superior height advantage led to the Wolverines' downfall," commented Coach King.

Texico was led in scoring by Elaine Horner with 6 points. She was followed by Cheryl Scott, 5, Jennifer Hill, 4, Sharlet Taylor, 4, Karen
