

Border Banter

By Mike Pomper

Consider yourself challenged

Hey, c'mon folks. ESA Sorority has taken on a mighty challenge and we're not all doing our part to help yet. So I challenge you to be part of this.

They want to renovate the city playground equipment, bringing in some new stuff and replacing the yukky stuff.

I sent a check. Have you? Just make it out to "ESA playground fund" and send to Tamera Cooper, PO Box 731, Farwell TX 79325.

Look, this is very important to our little community. There are no grants available to renovate our playground equipment ... and Border Town Days is only a short time away.

It sure would be nice to have some nice-looking fun staff in the city park when the alumni come back to visit.

But more importantly, the city park gets used by lots and lots of kids. It's all part of living in a small town -- adults providing activities for their children.

So please get on the stick. I want ESA to be able to report good news, with good donations.

Years ago, ESA would have been able to raise a bunch of money itself for this project through its annual pheasant-hunting fund-raiser. Those used to raise big bucks.

But that was yesterday. And this is today. Pheasant-hunting isn't big around here any more, due to various ag-related reasons.

So ESA must ask the community's assistance in this vital project.

I want to commend Margaret Aycock for spearheading this work. Good job, Maggie!

Speaking of the ESA project, it ties in to the demise of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club.

After all expenses are paid and projects taken care of, it appears that there will be a couple of hundred bucks left in the Lions Club account.

So the last motion I made as a member of that club was to earmark those remaining dollars to the ESA project.

Y'know, it sure is good to know how helpful folks can be.

My wife and I went up to Borger on March 22 to load up her furnishings (wow -- women sure have a lot of stuff) for the trip back to Farwell.

Before we left, we had to move some of my stuff out. So a big thank you to Devin Goettsch and Cade Christian (and Cade's dad, Gene), for helping me with this chore.

And when we got back here, caravan style, we needed help asap to unload. I called several folks ... nobody home. Then I found Lary Gregory at home, and he immediately volunteered to help.

When he came over, he brought with Grant Gregory and Jeremie Chandler.

Thank you fellas! Thank you a lot!

It sure is nice to live in a place where folks help like they do.

Faye Martin, an employee at Lowe's Supermarket, shows the new "I Gave to School-Cents" poster.

Lowe's program to benefit schools

Lowe's Supermarket in Farwell has begun a new program to benefit the Texico, Farwell and Lazbuddie schools.

They have small posters that read "I gave to school-cents" and leave room for the contributor's name.

If you give $1 or more, then you get your name on the poster, which is placed on the supermarket's walls and counters.

Also, Lowe's will match a portion of the funds raised for scholarships for the Texico, Farwell and Lazbuddie schools.

Also, the contributor designates the school he or she wants their donation (and matching funds) to go to.

Texas state photog to give presentation at Farwell Chamber banquet on Saturday

Wyman Meinzer, the official photographer of the state of Texas, will present a special slide program at the annual Farwell Chamber of Commerce banquet on Saturday, April 7.

It will be held at the Farwell Community Center.

Hors d'oeuvres will be served by Beat Sigma Phi Sorority at 6:30 p.m., with the steak dinner to follow at 7 p.m.

The cost is $15 per person. Meinzer was named the state's official photographer in 1997, the only time such an honor has been given.

For the past 20 years, he has criss-crossed Texas, taking its pictures. His work has been published in several books and numerous magazines.

Here's a list of businesses where tickets are available:

Fransé Irrigation, Riddle RX, Pansies Posies & Potpourri, State Line Tribune, Aldridge law firm, Kirkland & Kirkland CPA, Byrd Realty, Farwell Post Office, Farwell Hardware, ENMR Telephone.

Farwell City Hall, Hughes True Value, Tri County Tire, Anne Norton (at the county courthouse), Farwell Convalescent Center, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman, Security

Cloud seeding program begins

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District began its fifth year of precipitation enhancement program (cloud seeding) on April 1.

The target area includes Parmer and Bailey counties, plus 10 other counties.

In previous years, three soil and water conservation districts in New Mexico participated in the program.

But this year, the SWCD's in Curry County and southwestern Quay County are not participating.

The HPUWCD has applied

Texico Chamber banquet set

The annual Texico Chamber of Commerce banquet will be held April 17 at 7 p.m. mdt at the Texico Community Center.

Tickets are $10. Joe and Gwen Hughes, former owners of Hughes True Value in Farwell, will give the program, discussing their experience of decorating floats for the Rose Parade.

The two state champion basketball teams from Texico will be honored, also.

State Bank. Farwell Banking Center of Muleshoe State Bank, Beauty Box, Town & Country Insurance, Farwell Country Club, Farwell Spraying Service, Helton Oil Co., Wilbur Ellis and Barb's Cafe.

To be honored will be the Man of the Year, Woman of the Year, Agriculturalist of the Year, Students of the Year and Teacher of the Year.

Each year a group also receives an honorary award. This year, all the former Farwell school board members will be honored.

for a license to conduct weather modification activities in Roosevelt County and a state decision is expected this month.

The HPUWCD is now directing the entire project operation rather than relying on a contractor to provide the aircraft, project meteorologist and seeding materials.

David Beer is the staff meteorologist. He has several years experience in cloud seeding operations.

Pilots are set up at Leveland and Plains, using Cessna 340 aircraft.

BTD planning gets under way

The Border Town Days Committee held its organizational meeting on Monday for this year's event.

BTD is always held the last Saturday in July. This year marks its 35th anniversary.

Officers were elected: Mike Pomper, president; Jeff Atkinson, vice president; Ann Cooper, treasurer, and DeeDee Pomper, secretary.

Atkinson had served as BTD president the past two years.

The committee welcomed Ruth Anne Bennett as a new member. Mrs. Bennett, a Farwell School teacher, will help with the parade this year.

At Mrs. Bennett's suggestion, the theme for this year will be "Wild and Wacky West."

The theme is important because cash prizes are given to the top four floats that follow the theme. Also, the theme is used in the decorated bicycle contest.

The fund-raising buttons which also feature the themes will be made by Southwest Sports & Screen Printing of Texico (Doug and Susan Scioli).

The committee noted that there has been no queen's contest the past two years. If any persons are interested in heading this committee, they need to call Pomper at the State Line Tribune, 481-3681.

The committee discussed possible choices for the honorary parade marshal. An announcement may be made at the May committee meeting.

Mrs. Cooper presented the treasurer's report. The committee has $54.43 -- in addition to the $2,000 it keeps in savings.

Last year, the committee started the campaign with $332. Thus, in 2000, it spent $2,070 while earning $1,793.

The treasurer's report was accepted.

The committee voted to invite the Texico boys' and girls' state basketball championship teams to enter floats in the parade and be honored at the gazebo during the Day in the Park activities.

In addition to the committee officers, other key personnel are:

Lynn Mahaney -- arts and crafts; Cynthia Thigpen -- concessions; Jerry Adams -- Merchants Giveaway; and Linda Moss -- decorated bicycle contest.

The committee thanked Marsha Swerczek and Phyllis Arnold for their work as committee members the past few years.

Bobby reports physical improvement still continuing

by Teresa Mesman

Bobby Winegeart of Texico was pleased to report that he is continuing to physically improve and that he now has feeling all the way down to his waist.

There was a setback to his recovery when one of his hips dislocated for the third time. This occurred after he had returned home from his surgeries in Ecuador.

He will now face another hip replacement surgery in Clovis sometime later this month.

"Right now, I'm waiting for my doctor to bring me some special boots that I will wear when I stand with my walker," Bobby reported. "These boots help to strengthen my legs and will also help me to walk after the hip surgery. The muscles in my legs have to be strengthened a lot before I can walk again."

After his hip surgery, Bobby will endure two hours of standing on his legs every day. He has to work for one full hour a day on each leg while he is in a standing position.

"It's going to be hard at first, but I'm ready to get at it and get going," Bobby said.

Bobby is currently going through intensive physical therapy on his arms. He does the therapy at his home. Every exercise he does helps to strengthen his arms, shoulders and back.

"It's all part of getting to my goal of walking again," Bobby said.

Rodeo 2nd place

Texico's Kara Jenkins, daughter of Sam and Janice Jenkins, won 2nd place at the Tri State High School Rodeo in Hereford. Kara rodeo's for the Hereford Team.

'Festus' is missing

Andi Kirkland called the Tribune this week to report that her cat, "Festus" is missing from her home on the 800 block of 2nd Street.

Festus is a male Siamese that is a pretty heavyset cat. He is mostly black and brown and he's declawed front and back. He is also neutered.

He's not a mean cat, but should be acting sort of scared because he's never been out on his own before.

If you have seen Festus or know where he is at the time, please call Andi immediately at one of these three phone numbers: 481-9513; 481-9473 or 481-3807.

Your help in getting Festus back home will be greatly appreciated.

Flying J Wranglers to give benefit here

The Flying J Wranglers, featuring James Hobbs, a Farwell High graduate, will play a benefit concert for the Farwell Little League at 7 p.m. on April 9 at the Farwell High School auditorium.

Tickets cost -- in advance, $8 for adults, $4 for students, and free for children under 3; or at the door -- $10 and $5.

Tickets are available at Kirkland & Kirkland CPA.

The Wranglers, from Ruidoso, N.M., have been performing their own special brand of western music since 1982 at the Hobbs' ranch and chuckwagon suppers.

They serve up their own western stage show and suppers from late May through Labor Day.

During the off-season, they perform around the nation, including the Grand Ol' Opry and on the Nashville Network.

They recently completed a 10-day trip to Japan to perform at a cultural festival. The Wranglers also have performed in Italy, France and Germany.

James' wife, Cindy, is a WMA yodeling champion.

New clubs initiated at Texico

Two new clubs have been started at Texico High School this year.

The Drama Club is already providing some great entertainment and teaching of dramatic arts. The club is currently working on the play/musical "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow."

Advisors to this club are Coach Kelley, Mr. Roch and Coach Martin.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is new to Texico Schools and is already a very active chapter. Advisors to this group are Coach Prokop and Coach Kelley.

Would you like to know how to delay or totally prevent MACULAR DEGENERATION?

There is new research that brings to light a rather good regimen for prevention or delay of Macular Degeneration. It is the leading cause of blindness for Americans over the age of 50. We have prepared a paper on the subject, which you may have whenever you come in for any Family Eyecare. We think you will find it very worthwhile, and very simple to comply with.

We do not sell anything with this program.

We just want you to benefit from this new research.

Mitz Walling reminisces

How the bodies were discovered

By Teresa Mesman

Mitz Walling of Farwell remembers very well the day that the bodies of the Hasell family members were discovered.

He was ten years old and had gone out to the homesite with his father J.L. Walling. J.L. was a wholesale oil and gas dealer for Texaco at the time and he had received word that men were needed to help dig up the bodies that had been discovered behind the cistern.

"My daddy had me come along with him in our old open top Model-T Ford pickup out to the old Hamlin place. I nearly froze to death that day because I didn't have a jacket on and it was really cold outside. The site was even more chilling," Mitz recalled. "Judge and Mrs. Kate Hamlin owned that place and were out there when the Hasell sale took place. Mrs. Hamlin was over by the cistern watching a man with a wagon that was turning around after loading the wagon full of things that he had bought at the sale. When he was turning the wagon around, the wheels got off into a bunch of soft dirt and the twist on the wagon caused one of the wagon wheels to fall off. That's when Mrs. Hamlin discovered everything."

Mitz explained that Mrs. Hamlin went over to where the wheel had fallen off and that really deep ruts had been made in the soft, loose dirt.

"Mrs. Hamlin looked down into one of the ruts and saw a piece of cloth. That's when she realized something was really wrong," he said.

Hasell had buried the bodies of his entire family in that area behind the cistern. A crew of men from town came out and began digging the bodies out of the dirt.

"I remember standing around watching the men get those bodies out of the dirt and then load them onto 1x12 boards and carry them over to several pickup trucks," Mitz explained. "Hasell stood over to the side watching them do this the whole time. I walked around a little bit and then went over to the trucks and saw the bodies."

Mitz feels that Mrs. Hamlin should get the credit for the whole situation because if she hadn't seen the cloth in the wheel rut, Hasell probably would have gotten away with everything. Mitz said that the bodies were then taken to one of the grocery warehouses in Farwell.

"There were two grocery warehouses in town at the time, a Radford warehouse and a Noble warehouse. The groceries for Clovis were shipped in by railroad and unloaded there so that the tax wouldn't have to be added onto the groceries going into New Mexico. The groceries were then trucked into Clovis from these warehouses. Anyway, that's where they took the bodies and kept them until the smell got so bad that they finally took them and buried them in the Farwell Cemetery north of town," he recalled.

Mitz remembers the day very clearly and said that it is one that he can never forget.

Lazbuddie shootout nears

The annual Lazbuddie 3-on-3 basketball shootout will be held April 20-21 in the school gym.

There will be elementary, junior high, high school, adult and coed (2 men and 2 women) divisions.

The entry fee is $50 per 4-member team. The entry deadline is April 12.

To sign up, contact any high school senior or Debbie Weir, 965-2302, or Sarah Black, 965-2149.

Information needed about the four players would be: team captain, names, addressed, cities, home phones, sex, age, and school grade, if applicable.

Checks or money orders should be made out to: Lazbuddie Senior Class, Lazbuddie ISD, PO Box 9, Lazbuddie TX 79053.

Also:

-- A full concession stand will be provided.

-- 3-point and free throw competitions will be available for all age divisions for an additional $2 entry fee. Prizes will be awarded to winners in each division.

Thorn promotes ag meeting

Lazbuddie's Garvin Thorn stopped by the Tribune on Monday to talk about a public meeting that will discuss lawful obligations that require the federal government to protect agriculture.

The meeting is set for 6:30 p.m. at the Koko Palace, 5101 Ave. Q in Lubbock, on April 9.

Thorn said that farmers are encouraged to bring their attorneys, bankers and county commissioners to the session.

Speakers will talk about federal codes that would give farmers and ranchers a far better economic footing if enforced.

That includes maintenance of market conditions affecting prices, and regulatory statutes.

Family keepsake

The Tribune's series on the Hassell murders in the 1920s has brought back memories to many Parmer County folks. Allo Reeve, of Friona, shows a special mat that has been a family memento for years. After he was imprisoned, Hassell made small mats which he sent to the jurors in his trial. Mrs. Reeve's father in law, F.W. Reeve, was a juror and received the mat shown.

County SWCD announces contest winners

The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District sponsored its annual awards program recently. The themes were "Habitat for Life" and "Community Waters."

In the essay contest, Farwell 7th grader Kari Schilling took 1st place among the junior high students. Lazbuddie sophomore Tobin Redwine took 1st place among high school entrants. Redwine also was a regional winner.

The coloring contest was for pupils in grades kindergarten, 1st and 2nd. Taking first places were Shaylee Anderson, Bovina, kindergarten; Kristin Langford, Farwell, 1st grade, and Thania Garcia, Friona, 2nd grade.

Farwell gets $250,000 grant

The Farwell City Council held a special meeting on March 29 to open bids for maintenance work on the elevated water tower.

Two bids were received. The council accepted the low bid of Professional Sandblasting, of Amarillo.

In other business, the council:

-- Discussed possible sites for a new water well. Farwell has received a $250,000 grant from the Texas Community Development Block.

-- Discussed possible grants available through the Resource Conservation and Development program.

City Clerk Cynthia Thigpen may attend a grant-writing workshop to aid in this.

The poster contest was for students in grades 3 through 6. In the category for 5th and 6th graders, first place went to Lazbuddie's Crescent Crawford, a 6th grader. In the category for 3rd and 4th graders, Lazbuddie 3rd grader Kyler Steinbock was 1st and Lazbuddie 4th grader Brock Steinbock was 2nd. In the regional contest, Crescent Crawford was 1st; Kyler Steinbock, 2nd, and Brock Steinbock, 3rd.

THE CLASSIFIEDS

Lady Wolverines' stats show why they are champions

It was quite a year, statistically speaking, for the Texico Lady Wolverines. Not only did they sweep to their second straight state Class AA championship, but they dominated the competition throughout the year, ending with a 27-1 mark. Texico scored 2,162 points to their foes' 1,172. This means they averaged 77.2 points a game to their opponents' 41.9. That is a huge victory margin.

Actually the margin would have been bigger than that except that Coach Roy King put in substitutes in the 4th quarter so that other teams were not wiped out in that final period as they were in the first three quarters.

And during the course of those many routs, they caused 954 turnovers -- 34.1 per game. This included 633 steals by the Lady Wolverines, plus another 321 unforced errors ("opportunities").

Here's a look at the team's individual stats:

Jennifer Roberts - 8 blocks, 19 points a game, 117 steals, 118 assists, 145 rebounds, 71 percent from the charity line, 36 percent of 3 pointers and 51 percent of 2 point shots.

Elizabeth Richards -- 119 blocks, 21.1 points a game, 124 steals, 136 assists, 380 rebounds, 67 percent on free throws, 27 percent from beyond the arc, and 64 percent of 2-pointers.

Callie Rucker -- 2 blocks, 6.5 points a game, 47 steals, 79 assists, 88 boards, 40 percent on free throws, 30 percent on 3-pointers, and 40 percent of 2-point attempts.

Krysta Morris -- 4 blocks, 6 points a game, 171 assists, 145 steals, 134 rebounds, 50 percent of charity tosses, 30 percent of 3-balls, and 50 percent of 2-point shots.

Kara Jenkins -- 2 blocks, 12.1 points a game, 58 assists, 74 steals, 127 boards, 47 percent of charity tosses, and 48 percent of 2-point shots.

Carrie Phipps -- 15 blocks, 4.6 points a game, 76 assists, 64 steals, 83 boards, 63 percent on free throws, 29 percent on 3-pointers and 41 percent of 2-point attempts.

Kara Jenkins -- 2 blocks, 12.1 points a game, 58 assists, 74 steals, 127 boards, 47 percent of charity tosses, and 48 percent of 2-point shots.

Carrie Phipps -- 15 blocks, 4.6 points a game, 76 assists, 64 steals, 83 boards, 63 percent on free throws, 29 percent on 3-pointers and 41 percent of 2-point attempts.

Carrie Rucker -- 2 blocks, 2.1 points a game, 22 assists, 25 steals, 46 percent from the free throw line, 21 percent from beyond the arc, and 37 percent of 2-pointers.

Dru Mayfield -- 3 blocks, 2.7 points a game, 22 assists, 17 steals, 46 rebounds, 69 percent from the free throw line, and 40 percent of 2-point tries.

Shilo Thornton -- 2 blocks, 0.8 points a game, 4 steals, 4 assists, 13 boards, 63 percent on free throws, and 18 percent on 2 point tries.

Nicole Richards -- 1.4 points a game, 2 assists, 4 steals, 8 rebounds, 55 percent on free throws, 50 percent of 3-balls, and 60 percent on 2-point shots.

Kelsi Cain -- 1.6 points a game, 1 rebound, 100 percent on free throws (2 of 2), 100 percent on 3-balls (1 for 1), and 75 percent on 2-point tries (3 of 4).

Tori Bradley -- 1.5 points a game, 1 block, 2 assists, 2 steals, 7 rebounds, 1 for 1 from beyond the arc, and 30 percent of her 2-point shots.

Megan Brown -- 2.2 points a game, 4 assists, 9 steals, 15 boards, 47 percent of free throws, and 44 percent of 2-shot attempts.

Phillips explains 'chimes' situation

In "The Messenger," the weekly newsletter from Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church, Rev. Kevin Phillips discussed further the recent situation involving turning off the church chimes.

Here's what Rev. Phillips wrote:

"Well, we had the church chimes turned off for a few days last week.

"Apparently, someone approached our city police officer, threatening to file a complain against the church in municipal court for disorderly conduct if he didn't do something to get us to turn the chimes off.

"I got a letter from the police officer asking us to turn them off. So because it was a police officer who did the asking, I turned off the chimes.

"Then I started to thinking: does one individual really have the authority to make us turn off the chimes? Just because he says so? Referring to the complainer here, not the police officer.

"After a talk with the police officer, I was satisfied that we were under no legal obligation to turn the chimes off.

"Therefore, the chimes were turned back on Sunday after church."
