36th annual Border Town Days draws another huge turnout

There was a huge turnout on Saturday for the 36th annual Border Town Days.

Despite the hot temperatures, more than 2,000 folks turned out for the Texico-Farwell big event of the year.

It was a very special LTD this year with one of the largest parades ever, plus a new 3-on-3 basketball tournament.

Highlights of the day included:

Floats

The parade theme was "Pioneer Pride," in honor of Texico's 100th birthday. Winning the cash prizes were:

- 1st place, Parmer County 4-H, $75; 2nd, Shot's Tree Trimming, $50; 3rd, Texico Chamber of Commerce, $35; and 4th, Texico FCCLA, $25.

Giveaways

Folks who buy buttons, the key fund-raiser for LTD, had a chance to win $50 if they were present when the number on the back of their button was called.

The Winner was Lupe Olivas, the Texico School kindergarten teacher.

Also, the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club had two giveaways.

The top winner was Rich Anderson, of Texico, who won the vacation giveaway worth up to $1,500.

Winner of the 27" color TV was Don Teague, of Bovina.

The Texico Volunteer Fire Department gave away an ATV as its fund-raiser. Winner was Jack Dunham of rural Muleshoe.

Antique Tractors

Cash prizes of $25 apiece were given to:

Ron Howard, of Kress, Texas, for oldest tractor -- a 1930 John Deere.

Jay Eudy, of Levelland, whose 1934 Farmall M F-12 was the judge's choice.

Chaney Suffield came the furthest way with his John Deere D 1936 tractor -- from Amarillo.

Antique Cars

Three prizes of $25 each were given in this category, also:

Oldest -- Sid Pipkin's 1923 Model T Ford.

Furthest -- Harley Peoples brought his 1959 Pontiac Catalina from Hale Center, Texas.

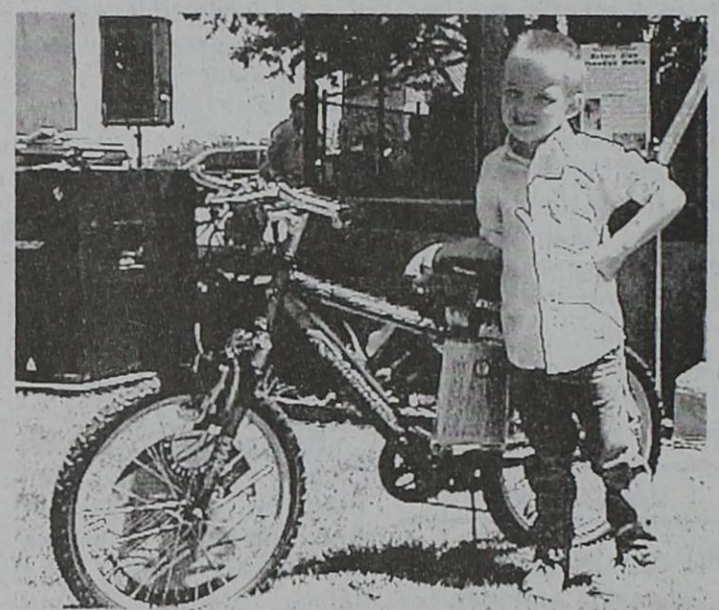

Judge's choice -- Fred Fahsholt's 1959 Ford Sunliner.

Horse units

A cash prize was given Southwest Flavor horse troupe in honor of their participation in the LTD parade over the years.

Bicycle Contest

Winners of the new bi-

Tyler McCoy, above, and Adreanna Blakes won the new bicycles that were given as Grand Prizes in the decorated bicycle contest.

Plans announced to sell Sherley-Anderson grain elevators to cooperative

AGP Grain Cooperative, of Nebraska, has announced plans to buy all of the Sherley-Anderson Grain Co. grain elevators.

The purchase will consist of facilities in 10 locations, including Farwell, Bovina, Lazbuddie, Pleasant Hill, Lariat and Rhea.

"The board of directors approved this purchase to expand destination markets for our local cooperative members and their farmer owners," said Marty Reagan, Chief Executive Officer. "By linking these facilities and the customers they serve in the Texas Panhandle with AGP members, we have enhanced our ability to add value to Midwestern grain production."

The Sherley-Anderson elevators have a combined storage capacity of about 24 million bushels. They are served by the Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad and major highways.

"Growth in this area's livestock feeding and dairy production has created a strong market for Midwest grain and grain products," said Mike Knobbe, group vice president, grain. "The Texas Panhandle is a key domestic destination market and its our strategic growth plan to serve our members."

Sherley-Anderson has served the area farmers, from Curry and Roosevelt counties in New Mexico, to Deaf Smith County in Texas, since 1947.

"We look forward to continuing this long tradition of providing quality products and services to our area producers," said Knobbe.

AGP markets a variety of grain and grain products both domestically and internationally. It is closely affiliated with Ag Processing Inc., a cooperative, which operates 9 soybean processing plants and one corn processing plant in the Midwest.

AGP (www.agp.com) is the largest farmer-owned soybean processor in the world. It's owned by 243 local cooperatives and 8 regional co-ops representing nearly 250,000 farmers in 16 states, plus Canada.

What a wonderful day it was

What a wonderful day Saturday was.

The crowd was larger than usual but as long time readers know, I hate to put an estimate on it. So I say every year "over 2,000."

Most newspapers would have written 50,000 or 100,000, and I hate those silly estimates given for p.r. purposes.

All I know is this: folks who came had a good time.

What brought up the total this year was the heavier than usual number of class reunions, the larger parade and arts and crafts show, and the addition of the 3-on-3 basketball tourney.

Frankly, I was pretty happy at day's end because I thought things went extremely well.

The day is important to many of our local non-profit groups as it's their major fund-raiser of the year. And all reports I got were very positive concerning their food "sell outs" and the profits made.

A lot of people forget how important LTD is to our non-profit groups.

Some other LTD notes:

-- The fella who brings the pony ride here from Roswell, N.M., said he has a fulltime job and has turned down requests to bring his pony ride to other events. He said LTD is the only even he comes to because he enjoys the family event we offer.

-- Rusty Rucker was a huge help at the musical part of LTD with his assistance to Fred Chandler.

We didn't have the right CD player for the Farwell youth cheerleaders, but Rusty got his quickly, so the group could perform to music.

Folks, that's what LTD is all about -- folks working together to make the Twin Cities strong.

-- The Texico Fire Department sold out of giveaway tickets by noon.

-- How good is our parade? Marion Richards, who used to live in Roswell, said our parade was bigger than Roswell's. He is the father of Texico School Supt. R.L. Richards.

-- The 1st annual 3-on-3 basketball tourney put on by Glynnia Martin was a big success. I spoke with her at the end of the day about continuing this on a bigger scale. She did great to get this going.

P.S.: Yes, next year we will have more trash containers in that area!

-- I thought our musical lineup was the strongest ever. Our area is blessed to have so many fine singers volunteer to sing at LTD.

-- Kids had lots of fun events -- Fritz Friemel's carnival rides, the kiddie ferris wheel, pony rides, train rides, face painting, petting zoo, a dunking booth, etc.

-- And BIG "thank you's" to the police who provided excellent assistance, and to the Farwell and Texico city employees for making BTB the great event it is!

Folks, when I wrote a couple of weeks ago about the Lazbuddie community needing to put on a nice reception later this year to honor two longtime community leaders who were retiring (Raymond McGehee and Hardy Carlyle), there was another person that needed to be mentioned.

Frances Euler is retiring as longtime Justice of the Peace for the Friona area.

Friona residents need to get on the stick and put on a super celebration in her honor.

She has worked hard for the Friona community for many years and is most deserving.

Honored as Parade Marshals this year were Texico coaches Michael Littlejohn (volleyball) and Roy King (girls basketball). Both their teams won state titles last season.

King, who retired after 26 years, was given a beautiful plaque by Texico School Supt. Dr. R.L. Richards, which featured a clock, and photos of his four state championship girls' basketball teams.

Current and past members of King's teams were on hand for the presentation, which was made during the opening ceremonies.

Both King and Littlejohn also received special plaques from the BTB

Obituaries

Precious Gooden

Graveside services for infant Precious Gooden, of Clovis, were held on July 26 at Mission Garden of Memories in Clovis with the Revs. Tim Askew and Bryan Phillips officiating.

She died July 23 at Clovis hospital. She was born on July 23 in Clovis to Tyrone Gooden, of Texico, and Suzanna Hardin, of Clovis.

She was preceded in death by her grandfather, Curtis Harden, and her great-grandfather, Matthew Askew.

Surviving are her parents; a brother, Arkell Gooden, of Texico; grandparents Matthew and Suzan Austin, of Clovis; and Coretta Boutte, of Texico; and great-grandparents Irene Askew, of Texico; Isadora Gooden and Delia Sandoval, both of Clovis, and Jane Smith, of Tucumcari.

Committee.

King told the Tribune he plans to take the year off before deciding on future plans.

Farm Bill discussion scheduled

A meeting to discuss the new Farm Bill will be held on Aug. 13 at the Bailey County Coliseum, for Parmer and Bailey counties' producers.

There is no fee. Lunch will be served to the first 200 producers who register. Sponsors are Ronnie Holt Insurance, Muleshoe State Bank, Farm Service Agency and Texas Cooperative Extension office in Parmer and Bailey counties.

Registration is at 8:30 a.m. At 9 a.m., Kim Hanlin and Curt Miller will present a Farm Bill overview.

At 10:30 a.m., Jackie Smith will discuss the "Bases in Yield" software program. At 11:15 a.m., James Tillman will bring "Equip Program."

After an hour lunch break, a panel discussion will be held from 1 to 2 p.m.

Texico's Liethen, Reighley, Jenkins resign

The Texico School Board held a special meeting on July 24.

Resignations were received from Ellen Reighley, band teacher; Ann Liethen, business and history teacher; and Janice Jenkins, high school counselor.

Hired were Cheryl Grau, to teach business, computer and science; and Lynn Johnson, special education assistant.

Thus, the school will now seek a high school counselor and a band director before school starts later this month.

In other business, the board was told that Texico will receive two computers for the elementary school, purchased via a federal grant.

School registration will be Aug. 6-7.

EMS Report

The Farwell EMS transported a person from the 900 block of Avenue A to Clovis hospital on July 26, and from the Farwell Convalescent Center to Clovis hospital on July 29.

Lazbuddie FCCLA chapter competes at national contest

The Lazbuddie chapter of FCCLA (Family, Career, Community Leaders of America) competed in applied technology at the national contest in Minneapolis on July 7-12. They received a silver medal.

The Lazbuddie team consisted of Jeffrey Phillips, son of Rosa Davis; Andy Martin and Rob Martin, sons of Linda Martin; Jay Seaton, son of Rick and Mandy Seaton, and Brady Mimms, son of Clay and Rita Mimms. Their advisor is Cheri Sain, the family and consumer science teacher at Lazbuddie.

For their project, the team developed a set of blueprints for a greenhouse, using various types of technologies. Then the team received a grant from Xcel Energy to develop an ecological center, which included the proposed greenhouse.

The students built the greenhouse for the school to use for various science labs and other related classes. Students developed a 15-minute Power Point presentation for their competition.

The team placed 1st at the state contest in Corpus Christi in April, competing against Texas schools in classes 1A through 5A.

While at the national contest, students attended several leadership workshops, including financial fitness, character education, peer pressure, "Stop the Violence" training, and community service projects.

In addition to working on their project, the students must earn all the funds to pay for the projects and trips. So the students had a garage sale July 27 in Muleshoe, and are planning a dinner before school starts and a raffle for various prizes.

Orozco sent to prison

A Parmer County jury last week found David Orozco, 19, of Friona, guilty of aggravated assault in the March shooting of Eric Rubio.

The incident occurred at a party.

The punishment was set at two years in a Texas Department of Corrections facility and a $10,000 fine.

Rubio, who is partially paralyzed and suffered brain damage, is at home in Friona after stays in a hospital in Amarillo and at Baylor Rehab Center in Dallas.

Back To The Outback

Time to head for the outback. Yes, it's back to the back yard. Outback season is open season for propane gas grilling. Always free of the mess and harmful emissions associated with charcoal grilling. While you're enjoying the back yard, consider the distinctive flair and added security of a propane gas light, either wall-mounted or free-standing. Enjoy the back yard even more with a propane gas heated pool or spa. Since it's heated with economical propane, you could stay out back even longer this year. And you could be back out sooner next year.

Cong. Udall pays tribute to Texico

U.S. Cong. Tom Udall, of New Mexico, introduced the following speech into the Congressional Record at the 107th Congress of the United States on July 25:

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Texico, New Mexico, as its citizens celebrate their centennial anniversary this month.

Texico is a small community on the New Mexico-Texas border. It is known for its rich history and abounding sense of community, which has, over the years, sustained the town's traditional values, superb educational standards, intellectual strengths, and high quality of life in Curry County.

I want to offer my sincere congratulations to Mayor Jerry Cunningham and all the residents of Texico on this happy occasion. On Saturday, July 27th, Texico will celebrate its 100th anniversary. A parade beginning in Texico and ending in Farwell, Texas, its twin city, will lead citizens to Farwell Park, where craft shows, food booths and class reunions will commemorate "Border Town Days." I know how excited everyone is about this special event.

Texico is located in what has been described as the "Golden Spread." This southwestern edge of the Great Plains is filled with the spirit of pioneers, who faced excitement, adventure, hardship, hope, fulfillment, disappointment, sadness and happiness as they moved West. Those that chose to found Texico gave the town the distinction of being the oldest community in Curry County.

In 1902, settlers moved into the area after railroad officials were considering Texico as a possible site for a railroad cutoff to Belen. The federal government and the New Mexico territorial government passed homestead laws in an effort to settle the eastern edge of New Mexico.

Soon settlers swarmed the area, and on either side of a muddy street, buildings soon formed a line of merchant shops and pioneer stops. Rooms for overnight visitors were quite reasonable -- only 25 cents per night, or $1.40 per week. Harry's Café offered the best steaks, lamb chops, fresh oysters, and eggs in town, and after dinner the dancing hall offered entertainment.

The bank ranked as the most important institution, but close behind was the Cozy Cottage Hotel. The hotel served as Texico's only two-story building, which was very distinct. A church was later built, along with a one-room school house, to which students would ride their mules every morning. By 1925, the graduating class had increased to nine students.

Today, Mayor Jerry Cunningham governs a total of about 1,065 citizens. The true charm of Texico is the fact that not much has changed in its 100-year existence. People have come and gone, and businesses have opened and closed. But the warmth, friendliness and character have remained intact.

Agriculture and its support services have always been the backbone of the community, and the wholesome rural nature has been preserved. The citizens of Texico, and Curry County, in general, should be very proud of that status.

Mr. Speaker, in closing, with all the historical grandeur Texico boasts, we have great reason to celebrate today. Accordingly, I extend my warmest congratulations to my friends in Texico on its 100th anniversary. Texico most certainly has distinguished itself through its historical and social presence, and I call upon my colleagues to join me in applauding 100 years of excellence.

Lazbuddie EMS receives new ambulance

by Debbie Weir

Lazbuddie EMS has received a new 2002 Ford ambulance. This project has been a long time in the making, and we are so proud to have our first brand new ambulance.

The ambulance was made possible by grants from the Meadows Foundation of Dallas, Texas Department of Health, and Parmer County Pct. 4 Commissioner Raymond McGehee.

The ambulance is a state of the art model with four-wheel drive and air suspension. We have many unpaved roads in the county, and we are proud to have an ambulance that can respond in all types of weather and road conditions.

Lazbuddie Fire Department and EMS also have a new building in Lazbuddie that will be the home of our new ambulance and some fire trucks. We also have the Clay's Corner Fire Station that has some fire trucks and the rescue unit with the "jaws of life" and an AED (automatic external defibrillator). We also have a new defibrillator on our ambulance. The two defibrillators were made possible by a matching grant from the American Heart Association.

We are proud of the fact that both our new ambulance and the new station at Lazbuddie are already completely paid for in full. We do not charge for our services. All our money comes from Parmer County, Friona Hospital District, and donations from patrons in our community.

We sincerely appreciate the donations and memorials sent to our organization at P.O. Box 125, Lazbuddie.

EMS officers include Debbie Weir, director, Glenn Lust, asst. director, Carolyn Scott, secretary, Connie Barnes, treasurer.

Members include Julie Mason, Chad Nickels, Dustan Jesko, Nicky Nickels, Terry Thomas, Michael Smith, Lyndell Randolph, Mat Goe, Trey Nickels, Trevor Gartin, Charlotte Harris, Wade Unruh, Brad Treider, and Doyle Weir.

She weighed 7 lbs. 13 oz. She has 2 brothers, Pace and Harrison.

The grandparents are Gary and Joey Fly and Wayne and Linda Palla, both of Clovis.

Elder care issues to be program topic

Katherine Schraeder, the Edward Jones investment representative, will host a course entitled "Elder Care Issues and Planning Strategies" at 1 p.m. Aug. 2 at 220 S. Main St. in Muleshoe (her office).

The program, broadcast via Edward Jones' satellite system, will be produced by the firm's Professional Education Network exclusively for area CPAs and attorneys.

"It will familiarize tax and legal professionals with elder care issues of most concern to families" she said.

Topics include: planning techniques involving wills, trusts and powers of attorneys for those who are facing or will face chronic illness and long term institutionalization; effectively paying for health care costs during retirement, and ways to protect property from rising nursing home costs.

The program is eligible for three CPE hours for CPAs and accountants. CLE credit for attorneys is pending approval in all states with general education rules.

Enrollment fee is $50, for one person and all course materials. Reservations are needed. To register, call Mrs. Schraeder at 272-4102.

Geries promoted

Dickie G. Geries is the new president of the First State Bank of Uvalde, Texas, after a promotion from executive vice president.

He has just completed 20 years as an officer with the bank.

Originally from Farwell, Geries (the younger brother of Don Geries, of Farwell) received degrees from West Texas State University.

He served in the U.S. Army as a field artillery battery commander in Germany, reaching the rank of captain.

He and his wife, Glenda, have two married children and two grandchildren. The Geries are members of the First Baptist Church, where he serves as a deacon.

In making the announcement, Dolph Briscoe Jr., senior chairman of the board, complimented Geries' efforts for the bank and the city of Uvalde, as past president of the Chamber of Commerce, and as a member of the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center's advisory committee.

Geries also has been chairman of the Texas Ag Finance Authority and is a past director of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association.

Sides picked to be intern in Washington

Ginger Sides, a senior ag and applied economics major at Texas Tech University, has been selected as a 2002 summer intern for the College of Ag Sciences and Natural Resources' state and federal internship program in Washington, D.C.

She is the daughter of James and Tina Sides, of Farwell.

Ginger's internship is in the offices of U.S. Rep. Larry Combest, R-Lubbock, and U.S. Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison, of Texas.

The Latest

Farwell Lady Blue will begin 2-a-day workouts on Tuesday, Aug. 13 at 7 a.m. and again in the evenings at 7 p.m., said Coach Doug Boyd.

With the pending sale of the Sherley-Anderson Grain Co. to AGP Grain Cooperative, it means a major change for the man who has been the long-time general manager for the Sherley-Anderson Co.

Earl Whitten says he plans to stay with the Sherley's and the Anderson's and to represent their interests, which include farming and ranching.

A note from Texico junior high football coach Steve Doolittle:

Texico 7th and 8th graders need to get their physicals and proof of insurance taken care of.

Practice will begin the first day of school, and the information must be on hand before they can practice.

School starts Aug. 21.

The Lubbock newspaper on Tuesday carried a Page 1 article on how Goulds Pump factor in Lubbock produced some equipment which helped save the lives of those nine trapped miners in Pennsylvania.

Goulds is well known to folks in the Parmer and Bailey counties' area.

Texico Volleyball Coach Michael Littlejohn says that two-a-day workouts will begin at 7:59 a.m. mt on Aug. 12 at the high school gym.

It's for students in grades 9 through 12.

Girls need to get their physicals before they can start their workouts.

Dr. Rick Ingle will be the evangelist in a revival meeting at 7 p.m. Aug. 11-14 at the First Baptist Church of Bovina. All are invited and a nursery will be provided.

About 170 persons attended the annual Texico All-School Reunion at

Want to tour the Vatican exhibit?

Parmer County Treasurer Anne Norton has a confirmation order for 25 persons to tour the Vatican Exhibit at Texas Tech University in Lubbock at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 17.

Folks who would like to use some of these tickets may call her at 481-9152.

This isn't a bus tour for 25 persons. Each person who takes a ticket would be on their own.

The museum is at 4th Street and Indiana Avenue.

Requirements to see the exhibit include:

-- arrive 30 minutes prior to the scheduled time.

-- cameras and recording devices cannot be used.

-- cell phones and pagers must be turned off.

-- metal detectors may be used, due to security.

-- backpacks, briefcases, diaper bags or purses are not permitted.

-- food and drinks are not allowed in the galleries.

Border Town Days, reports Margie Cooks.

An orange cat was lost in the 900 block of 6th Street in Farwell on July 16.

A reward is being offered. If found, call cell phone (505) 749-2579.

Kirk Gober, son of Gary and April Gober, of Farwell, has been accepted into the occupational therapy program of Texas Tech University Health Science Center.

The Farwell High grad is one of 25 students admitted into the program for the summer semester.

The Sudan Beacon News newspaper has been purchased by Monica and Jeff Procter.

Procter is the son of Ron and Libby Procter, of Friona.

The Border Town Days Committee will have its final meeting of the year on Monday at 7:30 p.m. ct at the Texico Fire Station.

All bills will be paid, and money must be turned in, so all committee members are urged to attend.

An analysis of this year's BTD also will be held.

Sgt. Jeremy Ortiz, who graduated from Farwell High a decade ago, was in Farwell last week for a wedding.

He and is married and has two children.

He has been in the U.S. Marine Corps for the past seven years.

He is the son of Fuji and Brenda Ortiz, of Dumas, Texas.
