

Lady Spikers fall to Roy in state playoffs

Roy, the eventual state champion, knocked Texico's Lady Spikers out of the state volleyball tourney Nov. 11 by winning 13-15, 8-15, 16-14, 8-15.

Statistics included; Dara Jenkins, 4 aces, 9 kills, 1 save; Carol Servatius, 3 aces, 2 saves, 16 assists; Kelley Cooper, 5 aces, 7 kills, 1 save, 6 blocks; Alison LaFrenz, 1 ace, 5 saves, 14 kills, 4 blocks; Chesna Campbell, 7 aces, 1 kill, 16 assists, 5 saves; Misty Barnes, 5 kills, 1 save, 5 blocks.

Texico finished the season with a 16-6 mark. The Lady Spikers were 9-1 in district, good for a co-championship.

The 1993 Texico Lady Spikers include: (from the top) Chesna Campbell, Alison LaFrenz, Dara Jenkins; (row 2) Coach Michael Littlejohn, Carol Servatius, Kelley Cooper; (row 3) Barbra Autrey, Jodi Chadwick, Kristy Adams, Laura Vega; (front) Brandi Norvell and Misty Barnes.

And Coach Michael Littlejohn commented: "We had a great year. The final match wasn't what we had wanted but nobody but us thought we would be there anyway!"

"After losing four starters from last year's team, it was a re-vamp time. We even moved two of our returnees to different positions so in reality we only had one returning starter at the same position. The ladies worked very hard and because of their work ethic they built themselves into a state tournament caliber team. We went from being picked either 4th or 5th in district for tying for 1st. We got 2nd in regionals.

"The ladies were very disappointed after the loss to Roy because they knew with just a few breaks we could have beat Roy and advanced. But Roy has an outstanding team and to lose to them is not a disgrace. They are 44-2 the past

Farwell fatality reported

A Santa Fe conductor was killed in a Farwell train mishap last week.

Mark Dewain Mitchell, 41, Amarillo, died after being crushed between two train cars at 5:40 a.m. Nov. 12. The incident was investigated by Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa.

McGaa said it occurred on the Santa Fe tracks near the Wilbur Ellis company. Santa Fe employees were attempting to put two cars on the Wilbur Ellis spur when Mitchell was caught between cars when some were being backed up.

Lazbuddie to stay '6-Man'

Lazbuddie School Board President Bobby Redwine called the Trib last week to say that the official high school enrollment in October means that the Longhorns will continue to play 6-Man football.

He said 77 students were enrolled in the high school. The cutoff to go to 11-man football was 80.

The Longhorns had anticipated going to 11-man football, with the JV playing 11-man games this year. But that won't be the case.

Banter

for the Browns.

And on the flip side, the rich get richer. Kosar is just what the Cowboys needed, since their backup QB Buerlein left last year. The rookie Garrett doesn't throw the long ball well so pass defenses move up toward the line against him, helping stop the run. If Kosar leaves at the end of this season, the Cowboys will have to look for another Aikman backup.

I was really impressed with Kosar in his first game. With only three days of practice, he looked really sharp. That's awfully hard to do. And he would have put another score on the board in the final period if that rookie tight end hadn't dropped a pass that hit him in a bad place - his hands.

I don't know that rookie's name, but I don't think Coach Johnson will keep him around too much longer.

Yes, Kosar had two fumbles. But that's the price that is usually paid for a new QB in his first game. I don't fault him for them.

All I can say is that after seeing the way the Browns cut lose Kosar, I was really happy about how it turned out for him. He's a class act.

Students learn about 'Reality Land'

Students in Paula Leighton's classes at Texico High School are getting a taste of "Reality Land." They have begun to use a program called CERES (Career Education Responsive to Every Student) which is designed to show many aspects of the world of work.

"If we are going to ask children to function in the real world, we've got to give them the tools they need," said Mrs. Leighton.

Each student in the class will create a business to provide a service or product to the other students in the class. A student must research the business before he gets started by reading books and talking to business owners. A participant needs to find out where to get training and tools and materials to conduct a business. He needs to arrange financing for his business from a bank, and he must purchase the materials needed to set up the business. Then he needs to begin providing the service to his classmates.

Some of the businesses that the students decided to set up are: telephone company, library, water works, a beauty salon, bank, jail, post office, and an arcade for computer games. They may think up more as time passes.

Each student will be given a "pay check" each week, and each will have to pay rent and buy food. If a student is absent from school or if he leaves the classroom, he needs to pay part of his pay check for this privilege. If a student needs help with school work that he missed, he must pay a tutor to help him learn how to do the work. If he violates a rule, he must pay a fine.

Part of the purpose of the project is to teach the value of money. The class started by printing money and distributing a limited supply.

The class set up its own rules, and enforces them with fines. Everyone must live by the rules that are set up. Many activities are designed to teach that what a student learns in school can apply to the real world.

The program allows a student to accumulate sick leave and to purchase recreational privileges such as playing games on the computer.

ESA Sorority welcomes four new members

The Rev. W. Douglas Mills presented a program, "Habitat for Humanity" when the Theta Rho chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met at the home of Tracy Devault on Oct. 25.

The ladies viewed a film about volunteers working together with qualified people to build adequate housing for those who might not ever have their own home. Habitat sells the home to the individual at cost, while they in turn help to build their own home and others.

A short business meeting followed the program and refreshments were served by hostess Tracy Devault and Joyce Williams.

The ESA monthly business meeting held on Nov. 8 was kicked off by welcoming four new members: Stacy Adams, Pam Carpenter, Sherry Christian and Twyla Lusk. The new members were inducted by President Roberta Howard at the home of Susan Williams. Plans were finalized for Christmas on Parade pictures with Santa.

The annual pheasant hunt was set into motion with many jobs being assigned. Also with the holidays approaching, the Christmas 'N' Community committee was looking for needy families to help this season. Refreshments were served to the ladies by Angelia Mace and Susan Williams.

Smyer nips Lazbuddie in state playoffs

It was a wild 6-Man football game at Lazbuddie last Friday and when the smoke had cleared, the Smyer Bobcats had defeated the Longhorns, 53-44, in the opening round of the state playoffs.

Lazbuddie ends the season at 9-2 overall. It was the second time the two teams had met. Smyer had won the second game of the season over Lazbuddie, 44-40.

The game was truly exciting as Lazbuddie mounted one of its patented second half comebacks and came within two points of Smyer in the final period.

Here's how the scoring went:

In the first quarter, Smyer moved ahead 10-6. Smyer scored on a 5-yard TD run and a 25-yard field goal. Lazbuddie scored on a 3-yard run by Jon Colby Miller.

Smyer won the second quarter, 28-12. The Bobcats tallied on a 10-yard pass, 24-yard fumble return, 36- and 13-yard runs. The Longhorns answered with a 16-yard TD run by Miller and a 28-yard TD pass from Brett Thomas to Troy McBroom. At the half, Smyer was up, 38-18.

The third quarter went Lazbuddie's way, as the Longhorns outscored Smyer, 14-8. Smyer scored on a 25-yard pass. Lazbuddie put two TDs on the board - on a 15-yard run by Miller and a 21-yard pass play from Thomas to Jonas Hernandez. Thus, Lazbuddie went into the final quarter down, 46-32.

Then came the comeback, as Lazbuddie scored twice in succession. First, Miller ran for a 24-yard TD, followed by a 5-yard TD run by Hernandez. That made the score 46-44 in Smyer's favor. But the Bobcats answered with a 5-yard TD pass to end the scoring.
