Texico Chamber presents awards

The Texico Chamber of Commerce held its annual awards banquet Tuesday at the school cafeteria.

Man and Woman of the Year awards, respectively, went to Ronnie Warmuth and Juanita Hadley. Mae Stone was given the Workhorse Award. Dwayne Hamilton was picked Student of the Year.

Mae Stone previously had been named Woman of the Year in 1985.

New Chamber officers and directors are: Lewis Cooper, president; Juanita Hadley, vice president; Robin Myers, secretary, and Ann Cooper, treasurer. Directors are Fern Tharp, James Pierce and Charlotte Pierce.

James Pierce gave the annual progress report, noting the Chamber's participation in the Eastern New Mexico tourism committee, the cleanup campaign - in which he thanked Ronnie Warmuth for spearheading it - and Border Town Days, where the Chamber gives the awards to the antique car winners.

Pierce noted the city limits sign has been moved to a more proper location on its east end. And he said the state is building an information center just west of the city. And the school football team was the state champion.

The meal was provided by the Texico cafeteria ladies. Steaks were cooked by Bryan Kube and Lewis Cooper.

The Country Strings, featuring Joe Hughes, provided entertainment. Rev. Robert Brown gave the invocation and benediction. Speaker was Harold Schaeffer, manager of New Mexico American Water Co. Judy Pomper won the centerpiece drawing.

Man of the Year

He graduated salutatorian of his senior class at San Jon, then graduated from New Mexico State University with two master degrees. He was a captain in the U.S. Air Force and served in Viet Nam, where he was in intelligence. He also was stationed in Germany.

Farwell buys fire truck

It was Mike Camp to the rescue at Tuesday's Farwell City Council meeting.

The special meeting had been called to decide whether to buy a new fire truck. Two previous meetings had been cancelled when not all the councilmen showed up. This time everyone was there.

A sticky point in the discussion was reached when councilman Prentice Mills wanted to know how much the city's insurance cost would climb if a new truck was bought. He was concerned it might add $10,000 or more.

Camp operates Town & Country Insurance in Farwell, which has the city's insurance contract.

So Jimmy Curtis, assistant fire chief who was present at the meeting, was asked to call Camp and find out exactly. Camp wasn't home so Curtis took off in his pickup to try to find him.

Curtis found Camp at the pens, and Camp rushed back to his office to check the statistics. Meanwhile, the council sat quietly waiting.

When Camp got to the meeting, he was able to report that the extra cost would be about $1,000 a year. So the council was able to figure out a debt schedule to handle the purchase without worrying about needing more funds.

The council unanimously voted to buy a pumper truck from Daco, Lubbock, for $127,975. In addition, the fireboys will spend about $5,000 for some upgrading in addition to what was included in the bid

5 candidates step forth in Farwell

Another candidate has emerged for one of the Farwell city council posts.

John Carlson, who has lived on First Street for 17 years, is available as a write-in candidate for one of the two city council positions.

Others who also are write-in candidates for the council posts are Robert Boone and Royce Bethel.

Carlson, who formerly managed Roll-On Trucking, is now retired. He was a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force. He currently is president of the Clovis Aero Club.

Meanwhile, there are two write-in candidates for the mayoral post - Wendol Christian and Chase Chisman.

Incumbent councilmen Prentice Mills and Ysleta Kittrell and mayor Chris Gikas are not seeking re-election. Since no one filed for the three posts by the deadline, the only candidates can be write-in.

The election will be May 4.

Sunbelt Savings to sponsor vets' project

Good news, fans. Rubie Craft, manager of Sunbelt Savings in Farwell, has agreed to take on the job of organizing a float for Persian Gulf veterans to be in our Border Town Days parade.

What this entails is to see if we can get any of our veterans from that war to be here for LTD, the last Saturday in July.

She is using a list of such veterans that was put together at the First Baptist Church of Farwell. Also, we culled through past Tribune articles to come up with more names.

If you know of any local or area service people who served during Operation Desert Storm, please call Mrs. Craft at 481-3353.

If we can get some of those service people back, then Sunbelt Savings will have a float for them in the parade. If not, I invited Mrs. Craft to read the list of area service people during the Day in the Park activities so we can all honor them.

Thank you, Sunbelt...

If some of the Texico track results seem strange to our readers, there is a reason.

Coach Bruce Scroggins said some New Mexico schools record results in metric these days, while some use a combination of yards and meters for measurement. Such a combination was used at Tatum. "I've never seen anything like it," he noted.

We've tried to record the results just as the coaches sent them to us. They may have been converted from yards to meters by the coaches in some cases.

A friend sent a copy of the April 7 Albuquerque newspaper to me. It contained a big story on that silly proposed border change by the New Mexico legislator, that would involve Farwell.

It used a quote I had written in my column that said "if the boundary approval were to be shown unconstitutional, incorrect or whatever, it also means that the act making New Mexico a state would also have to be thrown out."

And in the April 14 Albuquerque paper, one of their columnists started off with:

"What if Mike Pomper is right? Would it be so bad if independence were forced on New Mexico?"

All I can say is that legislator's silliness sure got good mileage.

At the regional track meet at Abernathy last week, Matt Cozby of Lazbuddie finished second in the high jump with 5'10. The champ had 6'0.

And Lazbuddie's Gonzales placed third in the pole vault with 11'6.

Reminder: That Parmer County surplus auction is Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the courthouse in Farwell.

If you ever wanted to buy jail bars and doors, here's your chance.

Kidding aside, there are lots of good items available, including 3 pickup trucks, tools, radios, a tractor, lots of office equipment - and an aluminum beer keg!

Rumor of the Week: Is it true that Mike Ratke of Farwell killed two turkeys during a recent hunting safari - with one shot!

2nd Rumor of the Week: Ask Joe Hughes about his false fingernails. He'll be glad to tell you about 'em.

Will Lazbuddle return to 11-man football?

It has been reported that the Class 1A school superintendents have passed a resolution that only schools with enrollments of 75 or less may participate in 6-man football. "I had not heard of it passing. Until I get it in writing, I won't do anything. I've heard rumors, but I haven't received anything in writing," said Lazbuddle Supt. Phil Warren.

Lazbuddle has played 6-Man football for the past few years.

"I doubt that it will take place during the school year coming up. We're already in a 6-man district for next year. It will probably take place during the 1992-93 school year. With all of the changes that have to be made (in schools right now) this is the least of my worries."

The proposal to lower the enrollment cut-off for 6-man teams has been discussed for quite some time.

"We've had the opportunity for feedback, and we have expressed our feelings to the 6-man regional directors and to the state executive committee. Whatever comes out of it, we'll go along with the majority," said Warren.

He indicated that he had not been asked to vote on this proposal since he has been at Lazbuddle. It may have come up for a vote before he began his tenure as superintendent.

Warren noted that even if the proposal is approved, it still may not change Lazbuddle's status.

"Our enrollment has been down a bit this year. We've fluctuated between 70 and 80 recently. Personally, I think 90 was a good cutoff, but we'll live with it if they decide to change it. Right now, it doesn't look like it will affect us," said Warren.

Lazbuddle has been one of the larger schools in the state playing 6-man ball, an action-packed, lightning-quick game. If it moves to 11-man football, it will be one of the smallest schools in the 1A play.

"We'd like to continue to play 6-man; it is hard for a school our size to compete in 11-man football. I wish they would get something and stay with it for a while," Warren summed up.

Park renovation?

The Texico-Farwell Lions Club held a lengthy discussion Monday on a possible community project involving Tower Park in Texico.

The park, in back of the First Baptist Church, has fallen into bad conditions. Years ago, shrubs were planted there but died due to lack of water. Also, most of the playground equipment is in disrepair.

Recently, the Texico City Council has discussed buying sprinkler systems for KKR and Tower parks.

It appears the Lions Club is amenable to working on a long-range fix-up at Tower Park. So the club will make a presentation at the April 25 Texico City Council meeting.

If the city buys a sprinkler system, then the club would install it, providing the state allows this. One Lions Club member said he would personally buy an automatic timer to ensure that shrubs that the club would then plant would get enough water.

The city will be asked to mow the park and trim the shrubs at the proper times.

Meanwhile, the club would continue, in coming years, to beautify the park, repair the park's playground equipment and buy more equipment.

Also, the club will suggest changing the park's name to "Lions Park" as the club will be providing a longtime service in the park's renovation. It's called Tower Park now because a water tower is there.

If the council is amenable to the club's ideas, then the club will have a final vote on its willingness to take on this longterm task.

On April 21, Kerry D. Ford, 28, Farwell, was charged with DWI.

Urioste also participated in a drug raid in Clovis April 24 in which 8 warrants were served, including one to a rural Texico resident.

Shelly Bethel, Jill Actkinson, Kaci Stephens, Misty Stewart, and Amanda Curtis were chosen to Represent Farwell High School at the Regional Golf Meet at Levelland on April 23 and 24 in Levelland.

(front) Brent Harrison, Jeremy Ortiz, (rear) Lance Anderson, Cody Monk, and Marcus Sullivan were chosen to represent Farwell High School at the Regional Golf Meet at Sundown on April 23 and 24.

Regional golf play under way

The first round of the Region 1-1A golf tournament was held Tuesday.

After one round in the boys' contest at Sundown, Farwell was 9th with 384 and Lazbuddie was 12th with 428.

Farwell's team had: Monk, 84; Anderson, 94; Harrison, 102; Sullivan, 104, and Ortiz, 110. Lazbuddie had Brockman, 101; Barker, 101; Bradshaw, 109; Farris, 117, and Hernandez, 118.

After one round in the girls' contest at Levelland, Lazbuddie was 8th with 482 and Farwell was 9th with 497.

For Farwell, Stewart had 113; Curtis, 120; Bethel, 128; Actkinson, 136, and Stephens, 137. For Lazbuddie, Morris had 109; Magby, 119; Burch 123 and Jarman, 131.

Greg Howard's No. 3 in the U.S.

Greg Howard had a tough time deciding where to harvest corn for the irrigated division of the National Corn Yield Contest last fall, because the corn in the entire section looked to be extremely uniform.

In the end, the strip he entered in the contest, sponsored by the National Corn Growers Association, yielded an impressive 15,612.8 pounds (278.8 bushels) per acre. That yield was the best in Texas, and third best in the United States last year.

But even more impressive, Howard believes, was that the entire circle averaged nearly as much, at about 15,600 pounds (278.57 bushels).

"It was the best yield I've ever had, which was surprising considering the hot, windy weather season we had," he said.

Greg, his brother Mark, and father W.D. (Dub), produce corn and a few sugar beets on seven center pivot irrigated sections on either side of the Texas - New Mexico border.

Mark entered the NCGA contest last year, finishing second in Texas.

"Our average for the whole farm was about 13,300 pounds (237.5 bushels) per acre," said Greg. His winning hybrid was Pioneer® brand 3162.

Howard said after the wind stopped blowing and it cooled off a little, there were a lot of people who thought the corn crop wouldn't amount to much last year.

His center pivots are equipped with water conserving low pressure drop nozzles. "We didn't have more than 2 inches of rain all summer, so we irrigated more than ever. I put on 29 acre inches of water in all," he said.

Howard used anhydrous, knifed-in prior to planting, and liquid 10-34-0 applied with the planter, to feed his crop. "In total, we put 280 pounds of actual nitrogen on the corn. We also fertilized with dry broadcast applications of phosphate, sulfur, magnesium and zinc, based on soil test results."

For weed control, he applied Atrazine in a 10 inch band over the row and cultivated twice. "Cultivation also helps water infiltration, so we feel it helps to make our irrigation efforts more effective."

In the fall prior to planting, he chisel plowed the field in preparation for planting corn. In the spring, he schiseled again, injecting anhydrous at the same time, disked twice and planted, at a rate of 35,000 seeds per acre.

Howard said the only thing he'd do differently with his contest corn is harvest earlier. "We didn't get in to harvest the corn until mid-October, and it was very dry. We had a little header loss because of that."

Texico cleanup group buys planter box flowers

The Texico Cleanup Committee met April 18 to continue planning for another year of beautification.

Recently, the Texico Chamber of Commerce put planter boxes near City Hall, Mr. Marcos, Citizens Bank and Crossroads Motel. These businesses agreed to water the flowers to be placed in them.

Mae Stone was charged with the task of getting red geraniums and junipers and/or evergreens for planting in the boxes. The cost is expected to be about $130. The committee has raised $479 so far.

It was also noted that Pierce Realty is building their own planter box.

The committee also held a detailed discussion of other beautification projects. They will talk with the City Council April 25 on them, including:

- Continuing the removal of junked and dilapidated vehicles.
- Removing abandoned, decrepit houses.

crepit houses.

- Building a new swimming pool.
- Curbs and gutters throughout the city.
- Renovating Tower Park.

Texico

Juanita Hadley, the 1991 Woman of the Year has been active in several local civic clubs throughout the years, including Texico Chamber of Commerce, where she currently serves on the board of directors. She enjoys reading, collecting antiques, needle crafts and writing.

She was born in Lubbock, Texas, graduated from Muleshoe High School and received her bachelor's and master's degrees from West Texas State University in English. She began her teaching career in Texico in 1973. She also has taught part-time at Eastern New Mexico University.

She teaches high school English, Spanish, speech and is certified to teach in several other fields and, if needed, she also teaches in junior high. She has been sponsor for the National Honor Society for 18 years at Texico.

She has two children - Jessica, a student at Texico Junior High, and Allan, who lives with his wife Robin in Texico. Allan is a park ranger with the National Park Service.

Student of the Year

Juanita Hadley, who presented the award, noted that the winner was chosen by the faculty based on leadership, participation, attitude and scholarship. Fourteen of the 33 seniors on the ballot got votes.

Present at the banquet were the top three vote-getters - Dwayne Hamilton, Penny Pierce and Warren Martin.

The winner was Hamilton.

Workhorse Award

This year's recipient has been a longtime Texico resident and its surrounding area. She moved here with her family in the 1920s from North Central Texas. She attended school in Bovina and Farwell, and in the 1930s married and moved to the Texico area.

She is an active member of the Church of Christ in Farwell, enjoys singing in the church, attending church socials and visits with shut-ins. She knows the meaning of hard work, including picking cotton, the food service business, running a mom and pop grocery store, and countless volunteer jobs, including being a director on the Cemetery Association Board, ramrodding cleanup efforts at the cemetery, being a member of the Texico Beautification Committee, planning and organizing meals for grieving families of the deceased, and picking up litter on her regular walks around town.

If there is a Chamber project, such as a rummage sale, cleanup activity, or fundraising event, you're sure to see her with her sleeves rolled up and ready to tackle the task at hand. She is truly an example for younger generations to follow, indeed an example for the school of mankind.

This workhorse could have been the inspiration for Phillip James Bailey's though on deeds: "We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on a dial." The 1991 Workhorse of the Year is Mae Stone.

Dave Sammons

Vizion to play in Clovis

A local band, Vizion, will be part of a program to find new talent. Vizion, a country & Christian band which consists of Dustin Hardage, Chuck Hammit, Greg Bearss, Roger Martinez of Farwell and Damon Faulk of Rockwell, Texas, will perform on the same stage as the band Nashville Review starting at 8 p.m. April 29 at the Clovis Holiday Inn.

Dustin's mother, Geneva Hardage, will be adding her song writing and singing talents to the group.

According to Mrs. Hardage, The Nashville Factory Recording Co. is seeking to find new talent in the Christian & Country group. They make video productions of each act. Each video will then be judged and notified within 30 days whether their video will be played on a Nashville show and nationally.

The members of Vizion are selling tickets to the show. If each participant sells 50 tickets, the group will receive eight hours of studio recording time with the Nashville Recording Studio including the assistance of a producer and an engineer.

For tickets, contact Geneva Hardage at 481-3848.

Revival scheduled

"Look & Live" is the title for a revival planned at the First Baptist Church of Farwell May 5-8.

Services are scheduled all four nights at 7:30, plus hour-long services at noon May 6-8.

Dave Sammons, 34, will be the singer.

The Midland, Texas, resident has a degree in education, music and history from East Texas Baptist University. He was licensed to the ministry in 1987.

The Dave Sammons ministry "is a multi-faceted one with relationship evangelism at its heart. The ministry of music runs the gamut from rallies and praise gatherings to revival music and contemporary gospel concerts. The preaching ministry is one dedicated to making the Bible live and breathe in order to encourage the believer as well as touch the lost.

"The ministry of teaching involves youth and single adult seminars as well as discipleship training. The ministry of comedy offers our churches the opportunity for quality, wholesale Christian entertainment."

Evangelist will be Dr. Floyd Bradley, Director of Missions for the Caprock - Plains Baptist Area.
