Street Improvements Going At Fast Pace

Councilmen heard a re-vised progress of the city paving project and dis-tinguish the establish-ment of a water sales contract for the City of Littlefield by the Sunnydale Water Supply on during their regular Thursday night.

City Manager Pat Bradley advised councilmen that Jake Dietl and Paving Contractors lack about three days of seal coating to complete that portion of the street work. Contractors plan to begin overlay paving sometime next week.

Bradley told councilmen that several curbs and gutters have already been replaced and that the curb, valley and gutter work should be completed within the next week.

He stated that city crews are trying to take care of the bleeding situation on the seal coated streets. The street sweeper is being utilized to get gravel out of the gutters and back onto the streets, then a drag broom is pulled over the loose gravel to spread it over the street.

Councilmen were advised that the first payment to the paving contractor was being made Friday, when he would mail a check for $54,760.50 for the first estimate on street improvements.

All of the councilmen noted how fast the paving is being done, and discussed a few minor problems involved in the project.

Details for a water purchase contract for water sale by the city to Sunnydale Water Supply Association were still incomplete at the time of the council meeting, so the city manager and the engineer for the Association will work out details and bring them before the council at another time.

Eddie Wallace and T.L. Timmons, representing the Association, met with Mayor J.E. Chisholm, Councilman Paul Carmickle and City Manager Pat Bradley, after the council meeting had adjourned, to discuss the contract.

City Secretary Beth Harry presented four tax adjustment cases to councilmen for approval, and councilmen authorized the adjustments on the tax roll to be made.

Mrs. Harry also presented a partial list of tax delinquent properties to the councilman and asked them to study the list for further consideration.

In other matters of business, councilmen discussed the recent developments in the Pioneer Gas gate rate case, and were brought up to date on facts in the case.

BETTER GET THOSE PERMITS, BOYS!
"INTO THE TANK WITH THE VIOLATOR!" was the shout of several who could not find a shaving permit on Clifton Smith Friday morning. Shown punishing the "victim" are Jim Jones, Buford Finchum, Doyle Winfield and Bill Grimes. Looking on are Dickie Lee and an unidentified spectator.

"REVENGE IS SWEET", and soaking wet Clifton Smith didn't hesitate to give all concerned a good shower with the water hose-which was supposed to be filling the tank.

Back-To-School Edition Slated

School bells soon will be tolling, and the Leader-News will ring in the new school year with a special Back-To-School section in next Thursday's edition.

The section will be chock-full of news about school openings, schedules, faculty, football and all the things that go with going back to the books.

We'll tell about what's planned not only in Littlefield, but in Anton, Amherst, Bula, Olton, Pep, Spade, Springlake-Earth, Sudan and Whitharral.

And there'll be ads from Littlefield merchants telling you what's new in the way of school clothing, what you'll need in school supplies, and the little extras that make going back-to-school fun.

Those school bells may be coming sooner than you realize. Football practice starts Monday, Aug. 17, and school opens the following Monday throughout most of the area.

Watch for the Leader-News' Back-To-School section next Thursday, complete with all the details you'll need for going back to school.

JUST PUT 'OUT-OF-TOWN' IN 'LOCAL'

How To Postmark Littlefield

If Littlefield residents want a Littlefield postmark on their out-of-town letters they can still get it, according to Postal Officer George Thompson.

Although almost all mail except city mail and metered mail is being sent to Lubbock and bears a Lubbock postmark, it is still possible to send mail to other towns and have it stamped with the local postmark.

In Littlefield, or anywhere else, anyone who wants his town's postmark on his letter has only to drop it in the local drop in the local post office.

All other out-of-city mail deposited in drop boxes or picked up by city or rural carriers, or deposited in the out-of-town drop slot inside the post office will be sent to Lubbock for the sectional center postmark.

A canceling machine at Lubbock is being used to cancel letter from area towns including Littlefield, Muleshoe, Levelland, Brownfield, Lamesa, Seminole and Seagraves. The new machine in the central Lubbock office can cancel 5,000 letters in four minutes.

But while the sectional canceling was designed to speed up mail processing, Littlefield residents and those from other towns with mail being sent to a central office are complaining that the process is slowing mail down from at least one day to several days.

Thompson said another reason for the slowdown is that the air lift of all first class mail within a radius of 750 miles has been banned. Formerly much mail, even though it wasn't earmarked air mail, was being flown to its destination.

A postal service officer at Amarillo said Muleshoe's "keeping" its postmark was not a victory, since to get a Muleshoe postmark residents there have to deposit mail just like any other person in any other town who wants his local postmark on his letter.

Senator Ralph Yarborough carried the Muleshoe case before the U.S. Senate. "I'll tell you personally," the sectional officer said, "that what went on in Washington didn't change anything."

Thompson, Littlefield's acting postmaster, said not many had made a point of asking for the Littlefield postmark, and not too much had been said here about mail being sent to Lubbock for cancellation.

Candidates Visit Littlefield

EGGERS, Republican candidate for governor, and Gov. Preston Smith for "not meeting the people of Texas" when he made a campaign whistle stop in Littlefield Thursday afternoon.

Points of attack were on Texas' increased indebtedness since Smith became Governor from $3 billion to $6 billion dollars and for vetoing a one-appropriation bill and then having to call an emergency legislative session at $15,000 a day.

George E. Brown, Republican candidate for U. S. Senate, was enthusiastically in Littlefield Friday morning.

His campaign of 1970 is about who can be more effective for the things Texans believe in," Bush said.

Said 12 crime bills are now blocked in Senate, and that after 100 years of a one-party rule in Texas that is was time for a change to bring competition in government and require each party to support its best men.

L. E. Sullins, seated far right in above photo, is local campaign chairman for Eggers.

Jim Davidson is the local chairman for Bush for governor.

Negligent Homicide Charged

Deppy Dewitt Jaquess was charged with negligent homicide Tuesday, and pleaded guilty to the charge Wednesday before County Judge G. T. Sides.

The charge was made by Highway Patrolman Weldon Parson for the state of Texas stemming from a one car turnover July 30 that killed Jaquess' brother-in-law, 27-year-old Carroll Aubrey Moore of Dallas.

Judge Sides sentenced Jaquess to six months in the county jail, then granted Jaquess' request for a probation by probating the sentence for one year.

JEAN KEELING, right, of Littlefield, and Judy Command, from B. C. Canada, exchange Girl Scout handshakes after returning to Littlefield from an international meeting in New York with girls from 12 countries.

Olton Pilot Is Injured In Crash

One lucky crop duster walked away from a plane crash Thursday morning near Olton, with only minor injuries.

Delbert Howell, 40, a spraying service operator from Olton, escaped the crash with minor burns on his right arm and minor skin reactions to insecticides he had been spraying on a grain sorghum field.

The Piper Pawnee plane stalled out in a turn and crashed in a field on the Garland Rose farm southwest of Olton at about 10 a.m.

The plane burned and was termed a total loss.

Howell and another pilot had been spraying crops and Howell said he was searching for the other aircraft when his plane lost its lift and nosed to the ground.

He was treated at Olton Community Hospital and Clinic and was released Thursday afternoon.

Gridders To Get Shoes Wednesday

Littlefield's fall football program starts Wednesday, August 12, with the coaches issuing shoes and socks so the prospective Wildcats may start conditioning their feet for the following Monday, August 17, when workouts begin.

Season tickets for the five Littlefield Wildcat home games are on sale now in the school tax office. The ticket books sell for $7.50 and covers both admission and reserved stadium seat. Fans who have favorite reserved seats may get their favorite seats if they pick up this year's tickets soon.

Tickets which were reserved last year will be held until the first day of school, when they will go on sale to the general public.

'It's Great To Meet Girls From Other Lands'--Jean

By NILAH RODGERS
Leader-News Staff Writer

Jean Keeling of Littlefield and her friend Judy Command of Nanaimo, B.C., Canada, say they feel like television stars and real celebrities after all the publicity they received following their trip to New York.

The two girls were part of a group of 46 other Girl Scouts and International Girl Guides for the Edith Macy Training Center for the 1970 Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. international project, "Community Service Through Folk Games."

After the training session, each of the 24 international Girl Scouts and Girl Guides went home with one of the 24 U.S. Senior Girl Scouts to participate in a community service project.

The Canadian girl is a guest in the Ray Keeling home and the two girls are completing the second phase of a workshop training project at Lubbock where they are following up with folk games and songs learned at the international meeting.

During this community service project, these two scouts are visiting in Littlefield, Floydada, Camp Rio Blanco, and participating in several day camps, and meeting with area scouts in "Canada-Tejas" fun days. The girls have been the guests of honor at numerous parties, teas, and dinners.

Miss Command is from "Bath Capital of the World," where each year bathtubs are raced over 36 miles of the Pacific Ocean from Nanaimo to Vancouver.

An old-fashioned steam whistle starts the race, but because of the 20 and 30 foot high waves, a person making it across the strait is lucky. Only one person may be in a bathtub and each tub is accompanied by an escort boat.

The tubs may be built up, decorated and altered, but must maintain the general shape of a bathtub. The 36-mile race course can be crossed in about 50 minutes by ferry, but it took one woman a day and a half to get to Vancouver in her bathtub.

Judy and her Girl Guide friends had planned to enter the bathtub race this summer before she was selected for the N.Y. project.

While in New York the scouts stayed with Long Island host families for the orientation period, then camped out the remaining time with girls from Brazil, Canada, Denmark, Ghana, Greece, New Zealand, Pakistan, Phillipines, Tanzania and Trinidad, Tobago, Columbia, Luxemburg. While there they met Lady Baden-Powell, wife of the founder of Scouting.

Miss Keeling said she's added some "doozies" to her vocabulary. For instance the Canadian girl calls tennis shoes "runners" and at camp, several heaps of various things are "heapsies."

"It's just real fun living with people from that many countries for three weeks," Jean Keeling said. "One Columbian girl only

SIDEWALK SALE DAY was successful in Littlefield Friday as thousands of shoppers braved the heat to pick up the many bargains displayed outside by downtown merchants. Shoppers were able to take advantage of cut prices on summer merchandise.

Beauty FORECAST for FALL

Cloud-like poufs of soft, silken hair mark this Pouffed Elegance Coiffure as one of the newest looks for Fall. It is from the collection of Gentle Elegance hair styles of the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

POUFFED ELEGANCE COIFFURE

The hair moves forward to form a light and airy pouf that turns into a bang. At the crown, another pouf is held high with a postiche braid. Hair at the back and sides is molded into softly sweeping curves. For long-wear effects, midi and maxi falls, dressed into softly flowing curves, are used at the back crown area.

Professional haircutting and permanent waving are vital style supporting requirements.

FLUID ELEGANCE COIFFURE

Soft, supple lines of flowing hair give a classic note of understated beauty in the Fluid Elegance Coiffure. It is one of the styles with the look of Gentle Elegance introduced for fall by the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

Note the soft rise at the back crown area and the billowing effect of softly flowing waves that end in large curves at the nape area.

Expert haircutting adapts the look to individual requirements, such as hair texture and growth, physical proportions of the individual, and the styling effect desired. Professional permanent waving adds the needed style support and great ease of care and wear.

ROMANTIC ELEGANCE COIFFURE

This Romantic Elegance Coiffure is a beautiful people look of quality, highly feminine and ladylike, a lovely example of the look of Gentle Elegance that will set fall fashion trends.

The hair sweeps off the forehead with elegant simplicity, still giving the face a frame of softness, and retains the small head look that is so important for fall coiffures. From a slight rise at the crown, the polished hair continues to sweep down to the nape where billowing waves hug the neckline.

Postiche in all variety, from a gently waved mini wiglet to a long curly fall, change the mood of this classic look to any dramatic note required.

MRS. WILLIAM EARL NELSON

Lasiter-Nelson Nuptials Read In Baptist Church

Miss Cheryl Dawn Lasiter and William Earl Nelson were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Saturday evening, August 1, at the First Baptist Church in Littlefield, with Reverend R. E. Hall Jr., pastor, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Lasiter and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson of Littlefield.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Renaissance gown of white silk organza over peau de soie and English net applied in hand run alencon lace.

The bodice, featured a high neckline of the lace and buttoned in the back with organza covered buttons. The long puff sleeves of net and lace applique were gathered to cuffs of organza, with button and loop closures. The controlled A-line skirt was accented with a vertical row of applied lace medallions down the center front. Her fan shaped detachable train fell from the midriff and repeated the A-line lace motif, sweeping to chapel length. Her mantilla was outlined in natural scalloped alencon lace, and drifted beyond the length of the train. She carried a bridal bouquet of white stephanotis and orchids with ivy atop a white lace-covered Bible.

Mrs. Michael Pope of Lubbock attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cathy Nelson, sister of the groom, Miss Kay Harp of Dallas, and Mrs. Waylan Herrin, cousin of the bride. Miss Kay Perry, cousin of the bride served as junior bridesmaid.

Their formal length gowns of purple organza over primo were fashioned with empire waists, accented with wide embroidered trim, covered with organza. The hemline of the gowns were bordered with the same organza covered trim. They wore matching hats of purple organza over tulle with velvet ribbon bows. The attendants carried a lighted votive cup centered in clusters of white grapes intertwined with Hahn's Ivy and ribbon streamers.

Leslie Franks of Hart was flower girl. She wore a purple organza dress identical to the bridesmaid's dresses. Miniature velvet bows adorned her hair. She carried a basket of white grapes and purple aster petals with ivy and ribbon streamers. Garland Wilkinson of Littlefield was ring bearer. He carried a white satin pillow covered with purple organza bordered with purple velvet ribbon. The candles were lighted by Anita Atkins of Dallas and Kirk Perry of Cherokee, cousins of the bride.

Jim Nelson of Littlefield served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Kevin Hutson of Littlefield, Don Speckman and Chuck Larsen, both of Dallas. Tracy Pope of Littlefield was junior groomsman. Seating the guests were Dale Thompson and Jerry Neuschwander of Littlefield; Rex Nelson of Perry, Okla. and Roger Nelson of Friona, cousins of the groom; Michael Pope of Lubbock, brother-in-law of the bride and WOC Ed Ross Mayers of Fort Walters, cousin of the bride.

The mother of the bride was fashioned in a dress and coat ensemble of seafoam blue silk alaskine. She wore matching accessories and carried a white beaded purse, topped with an orchid that matched the color of her dress.

The groom's mother was attired in a pink peau de soie dress with a matching over-bodice of lace, styled with a squared neckline and long sleeves. She wore matching accessories of pink peau de soie accented with crystal drops. Her orchid matched her dress.

The church decorations consisted of banks of purple accented with white bows. Candelabras lighted tapers extended width of the pulpit area ranged in front of the rail was a large arched candle flanked by lighted A prayer bench with purple and white bows completed the decorations.

Miss Nancy Hall of field registered the parlor of the church, being of the thirteenth of Corinthians was sung by Miss Hall. Miss Henson of Littlefield, accompanied Miss Perkins and Diane Keith sang "Whither Thou Goest I Will Follow" "The Lord's Prayer" Al Jordan, organist, played several selections as a part of the service and led the traditional wedding and recessional.

A reception was held in church parlor. The table was laid with a satin cloth overlaid with net. The bouffant was bordered with purple bon bows accented with clusters of white grapes. The cake repeated the grape and was topped with white doves. The table centered with a six tiered delabra, intertwined with clusters of white grapes. Punch, nuts and purple were served from crystal silver appointments by Albert Perkins, Mrs. Nelson and Miss Carlbers.

The groom's table was with a cutwork linen cloth featured an arrangement of purple grapes nestled at the of lighted fingertapers. Late cake and coffee were from silver appointments. Misses Jane Hyatt and Giles of Littlefield.

Others assisting in duties were Mmes. Roy Hutson, James L. Jones, E. Steffey, Louis Wilkins of Littlefield; Ed Ross Sr. of Taylor; and O. Perry of Cherokee.

For their wedding to Colorado and New Mexico bride chose a brown with white brown and champagne snake skin trim. She matching champagne gloves and carried a small trimmed purse. Her was the champagne orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at 420 East 13th Street Littlefield. They will continue their studies at Texas University where the groom a junior Finance major the bride is a sophomore majoring in Home Economics. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyer Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. O. Perry of Cherokee, Mrs. Nece Atkins, Albert Perry, J. O. Tyler of Dallas, Lucile Lasiter of Dallas, D. C. Also from out of were Mrs. Janice Nelson Robert Nelson of Okla., Miss Carol Nelson Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and Ronnie of ryon, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Kim and Kevin of man, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Friona, Conrad and David of Bovina and Mrs. Eddie Smith of back.

In 1918, a worldwide epidemic killed an estimated million persons, including 600 Americans.

FALL HAIR STYLES HAVE A LOOK OF GENTLE ELEGANCE

New hair styles for fall have a look of gentle elegance, according to the new styles introduced for the season by the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

This new look of gentle elegance is a beautiful people look of quality, highly feminine and ladylike. It is composed of soft, supple lines of flowing hair dressed into large curved movements.

It also has an elegant simplicity in appearance, a look of natural beauty, that must be designed for the needs and preferences of each individual.

Fundamentally, the new styles emphasize a small head look. In a front view, the hair is dressed softly around the face, or away from it, but always to give a close to the head look. From the sides, most styles that were shown had a rise at the crown, or a billowing effect of softly flowing waves at the nape.

Very new was the use of poufs, dressed into soft, light pillows, or see-through overlays of curving hair, usually at the crown or nape. Most of the styles, too, showed an open forehead. However, one of the styles that drew a great deal of applause featured bangs dressed into a large pouf just above the eyes. This consideration of hairline and forehead requirements was one of the many examples of adapting new style features to an individual.

Adapting the styles to the individual was so highly stressed during the showings that even the haircut was named the adaptable cut for fall and winter. The front hair length varied depending upon the style treatment around the face, and, of course, individual needs. At the crown the hair length ranged from five to seven inches, and the neckline was from one to two-and-a-half inches. Expert haircutting is absolutely necessary for the fine coordination that is needed to adapt to cut to individual needs, such as hair texture and growth, physical proportions of the person, and the styling effect desired.

Also highly important is a soft permanent wave professionally prescribed for the right amount of style support needed for an individual's hair. It will also lend stability to the styling and give great ease of care in between salon visits.

Hair coloring for fall reflects the gentle elegance of the fashion picture. To begin with, the hair must be properly conditioned after any summer injury, so that it will glow with a look of richness and quality. Colors for fall will reflect this soft glow and will include popular shades of blonde and beige, earthy reds and browns, and rich saffers. The most distinctive coloring will require the blend of at least three tones of the same shade, ranging from the deepest at the nape, the mid tone at the back crown area, and the lightest at the top and around the face. The result is a soft glow of gentle elegance, highly flattering.

Miss Throckmorton,
Mr. Timberlake
United In Marriage

Miss Shari Throckmorton and Robby Timberlake were united in marriage Saturday evening, August 1, in the First Baptist Church of Whitharral, in a candlelight ceremony before candleabras of pink tapers and pink gladiolas, flanked by tree candleabras and baskets of gladiolas.

Elgin Conner, minister of the Church of Christ of Welch and a former Whitharral minister, officiated for the reading of the vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Throckmorton of Whitharral and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Timberlake of Levelland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian formal length gown of white organza, accented with Venise lace and pearls. The bodice featured a high wedding banet neckline, jeweled in lace and pearls. Long sleeves carried out the same motif, and gathering accented the petal point cuffs.

The silhouette of the gown was complemented by vertical rows of lace and beading. The softly shirred skirt swept to a chapel length train and her veiling fell in tiers from a bonnet of matching lace frosted in pearls. She carried a bouquet of three cymbidium orchids surrounded by stephanotis.

The bride wore a birthstone ring belonging to her grandmother for "something borrowed", "something blue" was the traditional garter, "something old" was a lace handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother and her gown was "something new."

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Ann Denny, Bridesmaids were Miss Dana Jordan of Irving, cousin of the bride, Miss Sharron Wade and Miss Cynthia Dukatnik, both of Whitharral, and Miss Quenette Redinger of Olton. They were fashioned in formal gowns of pink antique satin that featured puff sleeves. The empire waist and high rise collars were trimmed with braid and lace. They carried white baskets filled with pink carnations.

Flower girl was Tracy McAlpin, niece of the groom. She wore a dress identical to the bridesmaids. Candles were lighted by Stacy McAlpin and Mitchel Timberlake.

Wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Bob Thomman, on the organ. Betty Harbin, accompanied by Miss Kathline Carson, sang "A Time For Us" and "The Twelfth Of Never." Serving the groom as best man was his brother, Jerry Timberlake. Groomsmen were Larry Ellison, Randall Waller, Jimmy Howard and Jerry Morgan, all of Levelland.

The brides' mother was attired in a two-piece dress of pink linen, trimmed in chiff, embroidery, and she wore white accessories. The groom's mother wore a beige dress trimmed in lace with matching accessories. They both wore gardenia corsages.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall, given by the bride's parents.

Presiding at the bride's table were Miss Kathy Barton and was covered with a hot pink nylon cloth trimmed with ribbons and flowers. The three tiered wedding cake was topped with white doves.

Serving at the groom's table were Miss Jonnie Caldwell and Miss Rita Avery. The table held a brass candleabra and a chocolate cake in the form of an open book.

For her wedding trip to New Mexico the bride chose a pink knit dress trimmed in brown accessories. She wore orchids from her bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Houston.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Whitharral and attended South Plains College in Levelland.

The groom is a 1966 graduate of Levelland High School and is in his fifth year as a pharmacy major at the University of Houston.

PLANTS AND THEIR SURVIVAL

A plant strives to survive much as do animals and people. Many have means by which to protect themselves. The rose has protective thorns, the thistle has sharp penetrating prickles and the cactus has strong, sharp spines. Other plants have chemical weapons such as sumac, nettle and poison ivy.

It is said that without the thorns on the Cherokee rose it would have long ago disappeared because they taste so good to the grazing animals-the discouragement of the thorns has saved them.

Our floral arrangements last longer because they are gathered just at the right time to insure freshness. For that special occasion, brighten your home with our flowers.

Send the whole team to the showers!

And have enough hot water left to do the uniforms.

A GAS WATER HEATER does it all, and does it better, because with gas there's always plenty of hot water when you need it... at the cost you want.

Here are seven reasons why a gas water heater is best:

1. Fast recovery keeps your gas water heater way ahead of every demand.
2. The thermostat on your gas water heater automatically maintains a constant temperature, even when you use large amounts of hot water.
3. Gas is efficient. Gas burners start up instantly, deliver more heat to the water. And gas is clean too.
4. Nothing is more dependable than gas.
5. Automatic gas water heaters cost less to buy and install.
6. Gas burners last longer and give years of trouble-free use. That's another saving.
7. Gas costs so little to operate that you can afford to use all the hot water you want.

So, if it's hot water you need, and plenty of it, you need an automatic gas water heater. Call your plumber or gas appliance dealer soon.

Holladay-Patterson Vows Read In O...

Miss Leslie Ann Holladay and Otis Neil Patterson were united in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, August 2, in the First United Methodist Church of Olton.

Reverend R. H. Campbell, grandfather of the bride, officiated for the reading of the vows.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Ruth Holladay of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Patterson of Olton.

The bride escorted by the groom's father and given in marriage by her mother, wore a white peau de soie gown of original design which featured a bateau neckline, with pearl and bead embroidery at waistline and on the cuffs of the three quarter length puff sleeves. Her chapel length train of bustle effect fell from back of her waistline, and the shoulder length veil fell from a pearl tiara. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses on a lace-covered Bible.

Bible was a gift from her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Campbell.

The church was decorated in spiral and chapel candleabras, adorned with greenery and aqua candles. The altar was covered with greenery and lined with candles. Arrangements of greenery and candles decorated the windows of the church.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Susan Maguire of Pampa. Bridesmaids were Brenda Leonard of Olton and Glenda Holladay of Canyon, sister of the bride. The attendants were attired in dresses fashioned similar to the bride's with aqua daisies on white tulle. Aqua velvet belts adorned the waistline with velvet ribbons in their hair. They carried nosy-gay bouquets.

Serving the groom as best man was Larry Johnson of Olton. Groomsman were Larry McClain and Stacey Pendergrass, both of Canyon. Seating

MRS. LEON HARDWICK

Leon-Hardwick Vows Celebrated In Clovis

Vows were read at the wedding ceremony in the Clovis, N. M. Methodist church, Sunday, July 18 for Miss Leon-Hardwick and Leon Hardwick.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hardwick of Amherst.

Bob Harrison officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arch candles and arrangements of flowers. The numerous tree candelabras before banks of emerald and hurricane lamps, marked the family aisle. A white aisle cloth led the path of the bride, who was escorted by her of silk illusion fell from a satin diadem, trimmed in the same lace and beaded with seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses and orchids. Pennies in her shoes served as "something old," an engraved necklace, which was a gift from the groom was "something new," a handkerchief from Nazareth was "something borrowed," and the blue garter completed the tradition that was made by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Charlie Webb.

Serving as maid of honor was Linda Harvey. Bridesmaids were Jan Peters, Shelli Stolsseth and Ginger Avery. They wore gowns of yellow, designed in the empire fashion with imported lace banding. Matching yellow garden hats and yellow peau de soie slippers completed their attire and they carried baskets of marguerite daisies.

John Norwood of Lubbock was best man, with Bobby Hudnall, Jim Broome, Don Abernathy, and Randy Dayhoff as groomsmen.

Barbara West of Fort Sumner, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired in a gown similar to those worn by the bridesmaids. Doug Hufstetler of Amherst, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring-bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cook wore a light blue chiffon frock with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Hardwick chose a lime green knit dress with bone accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted their guests at a reception in the church. Hosting the affair were Meses Charles Jones, Donald Pinnell, Pete Templeton, Guy Hufstetler, Dean Chisholm, and Martin Hardwick. Miss Jan Von Forrel presided at the guest register.

The guests were served wedding cake, punch and dainties from a table covered with a full ruffled overskirt, over yellow peau de soie. A three-branch candelabrum accented with marguerite daisies was the focal point and silver appointments were used.

For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride wore a three-piece blue suit with matching accessories and the orchids from the bridal bouquet. Following the honeymoon, the couple will reside in Portales, N. M., where the groom is a senior and the bride a freshman at Eastern New Mexico University.

As the couple left the reception, they were showered with rice from yellow and white satin ribbon. The bags were carried in white satin baskets trimmed in yellow and white with small daisies. Kayleen West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James West of Fort Sumner, N. M., a second cousin of the bride, and Virdie Fae Jones, daughter of Charlie Jones of Clovis, N. M., distributed the rice bags to the guests.

The bride-elect was feted with a number of showers and parties prior to the wedding. They were given by Mrs. Thelma Byrum of Amherst, Mrs. Ken White of Clovis, N. M. A lingerie shower was given at the home of Linda Harvey and the bride-elect hosted a bridesmaid luncheon at her home on July 13. Mrs. Guy Hufstetler, assisted by Mrs. Pete Templeton, and the groom's mother, hosted a get-acquainted coffee in her home in Amherst.

the candles were Cook, brother of the Charles West, nephew of E. and Tony Fotopoulos. They were escorted to their Eddie Kilmer, Tommy Keith Barker, Glen and Mike Hardwick. The boys provided wedding and accompanied Johnny as he sang, "Somebody Let It Be Me," and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of silk organza over peau de soie designed with an emerald and full puffed Re-embroidered elements formed the high neckline and was reworked the short sleeves. The lace extended down to the a-line skirt and the hem and the train, which flowed to the back waist. Her veil

Well Read

Proof of the pudding of the fact that our columnists are read and enjoyed wherever the Leader-News goes, is this quote from W.H. 'Hop' Graham's column, "The Hopper", in the Lovington Daily Leader:

"Our favorite home-grown philosopher is a country Campbellite preacher, Bob Wear, who used to hold forth up at Hereford in the Texas Panhandle, but since, in the way of ministers, has moved around a bit.

"We still read after Bob, whose column 'The Abundant Life' appears in the Littlefield paper."

Then 'Hop' quoted a recent "Abundant Life" column and asked his readers to "please enjoy a sample of his (Wear's) very sound thought."

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Thank You!

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Chamber of Commerce received this letter Tuesday.)

Littlefield Chamber of Commerce Littlefield, Texas.

Dear Sirs:

We want to say a great big THANK YOU for the wonderful and most unusual hospitality you express to your visitors. The facilities are wonderful, and we have enjoyed a pleasant afternoon and night in your city.

We are further expressing our gratitude by buying all things we need with your merchants.

Your hospitality is noticeably shown further by the beautiful and attractive rest areas up and down your main street. We certainly enjoyed the lovely flowers as we strolled through the street for our morning walk.

Again, THANKS. We will remember Littlefield and visit with you again.

Out Of Gas?

CAN A NATION run out of gas? New York state gas supplies are so low the Public Service Commission calls the condition "critical."

IN NEW YORK, at the same time, Consolidated Edison is having to buy electricity from as far away as Tennessee and if it stays hot through August, these emergency supplies may not be enough.

SIMILARLY in Chicago, electric and gas companies, recently competing for customers, are considering curtailing services to the customers each already has.

Rural communities are similarly threatened.

Could the world's most powerful nation wake up some midnight powerless?

PEOPLES GAS COMPANY calls for gas rationing this summer or else we can expect "cold homes and closed factories next winter."

Part of the problem is that Edison electric, to retard pollution from its coal-burning generators, wants to buy more gas; but Illinois would face a natural gas shortage even without that.

THREE-HUNDRED northwest-side Chicago homes were plunged into darkness for three hours one night last month when a heat wave caused an air conditioner overload. Edison says these mini-blackouts are "a normal occurrence during heat waves."

The President's office of emergency preparedness says the areas most likely to face acute shortages of power extend from New York to Georgia and into Alabama and Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL Rural Electric Co-operative Assn. says we face the most critical power shortage since World War II, "maybe the worst in the 82-year history of the industry."

Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Louis have been warned to expect brownouts this summer.

WE CAN'T KNOW for sure. Overloads could result from soaring temperatures or from equipment breakdowns.

Right now two of New York City's biggest generators are out of commission: the White House has had to authorize the diversion of up to 300,000 kilowatts of power from the Tennessee Valley Authority.

SPORADIC BROWNOUTS are bad enough but an energy economist for the Chase Manhattan Bank predicts a serious energy shortage by 1980 unless drastic measures are taken to increase domestic energy supplies.

By then, for domestic industry and household use, we'll need 93 billion cubic feet of natural gas per day; at today's rate of growth we'll have only 52 billion cubic feet.

WITHOUT EXAGGERATION, an electrical power emergency hangs over the United States, another manifestation of the too-many-people problem.

Technology may yet rescue us. The chairman of the Federal Power Commission says there is enough geothermal steam just a few thousand feet down under the crust of the earth to become an "inexhaustible source of energy."

THE ATOMIC ENERGY Commission is right now exploring that possibility.

Eventually perhaps nuclear power can bail us out if we can pay development costs and learn some safe way to dispose of "hot waste."

Meanwhile, we are approaching a crisis where some of your household conveniences--including air-conditioners--might have to be shut down for the duration.

A WOMAN'S VIEW

I Wonder

By PEARL BRANDON

I WONDER what became of the people whom Jesus healed, or raised from the dead. The Bible says very little about them.

I would like to know about the daughter of Jarius, the ruler of the synagogue after Jesus raised her from the dead.

I wonder if she lived a long useful life and sat with her grandchildren after she became old, telling the story over and over again.

"ONCE WHEN I was very young I was sick, even unto death and the gentle Savior came. He called me forth and brought me back to life."

"But, Grandmother, you were not dead... not really!"

"YES, I was gone, the breath had left me; but when He took my hand I arose and walked and ate food."

It was as if I awoke from a deep sleep at the sound of His voice. I remember it so well, as if it happened yesterday."

WE KNOW a little more about the man who was blind from birth; who sat by the road and begged, until Jesus came by and healed his poor eyes and made him to see. The story tells of the neighbors and people who knew him while he was blind.

"Is not this he that sat and begged?" and others said, "He is like him", but he said, "I am he". But still they questioned, "Who art thou?"

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Fair Flexibility

By BOB WEAR

POLARIZATION SEEMS to be the present-day life style.

It seems that there are a few persons who are dedicated to this social and political situation. The extremists have created this unnecessary and threatening condition, and it bodes no good for them or for the great majority of people.

ALL HUMAN SITUATIONS require some give and take. There must even be compromise in some things.

In all things, there must be a fair flexibility which permits differences of views without the hate, evil and destructiveness of unlawful, unintelligent and unreasonable confrontation.

HISTORY REVEALS that the end of a social order is near when enough people no longer live by a just and reasonable "give and take" within the structure of established law which is applied by due process. If I can run over you, and abuse you and your rights, it is just a matter of time until someone can do the same things to me. This brings about anarchy and chaos.

THE GROUP which is completely rigid in attitudes and actions affecting others, has breached the wall that protects it.

The same is true of individuals. This spirit in human relationships is social and political suicide.

Adolph Hitler is a classic example from recent history. He became a victim of the same evil he forced upon other peoples.

WILL MANKIND EVER LEARN? There is a sensible and a sane way to live and work together.

Our differences need never be so big as to prevent this.

The spirit of fair flexibility will create and sustain the social climate in which we can be congenial, and What hast thou been? What art thou now?

Thou art not he who yesterday sat here and begged beside the way. For he was blind. "I am he, I once was blind, but now I see." (John Hays)

I WONDER what became of the little boy with the five barley loaves and two small fishes who saw the Master take his lunch and stretch it into enough food to feed five thousand people.

Did he become a follower of Christ and live all the rest of his days for Him?

I WONDER if Peter's wife's mother, who was cured of a fever always had a good meal prepared when the Lord came tired and dusty from His journeys.

I wonder where Lazarus was when Jesus was crucified. Was he with the throng that followed Him up the hill of Golgotha? Perhaps he, more than any one else, knew our Lord would rise again.

I WONDER about the Widow's son down in Nain who was on the bier to be buried when Jesus brought him back to life and restored him to the arms of his stricken Mother.. was he always a good son after that?

I know there wasn't room in the Bible for all the stories of these interesting people. John said, "And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they were written, everyone, I suppose that even the world could not contain the books that should be written."

help each other rather than hate one another.

LET US CONSIDER in more detail the principal of flexibility. It is high time for doing so.

We can become too rigid in our efforts to control ourselves. This is the conclusion of all well-informed people in the field of human behavior.

In our efforts to hold fast to the views and principles which we believe to be most acceptable, we can succeed or fail, depending upon our general attitude.

IF WE ARE TOO RIGID in our views, we are doomed to failure and disappointment, and our lives will be broken by the very thing we value most. If, however, we are flexible and able to bend when we would otherwise break, we can expect a rich and full life.

We know that a piece of inflexible steel breaks easier than a flexible piece.

It seems that the same principle can be seen working in human behavior.

FOR FEAR OF BEING misunderstood: let it be said that this fair flexibility does not mean that we compromise truth or make concessions in matters of right and wrong. Being flexible does not mean that we give up anything that is worth holding to, but it does enable us to hold fast the things of greatest value.

It does not depreciate the value of convictions or minimize the value of courage.

In fact, it demands intelligent conviction, and the highest type of courage. It is an essential part of strong faith.

LET US GIVE OURSELVES a chance to succeed in our highest aspirations by being flexible without being fickle and frivolous.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

THE GUY that coined the phrase "You can't take it with you," just hasn't traveled with my wife.

Because of this efficiency of hers, we, of course, always leave all the packing to her, when we take a trip.

BUT, LET IT not be said that we leave home, rather than we take the home with us, when we travel.--We never "travel light", just let the need arise for some special something and: "It's in such and such box, in the right rear of the trunk!"

I had put special air shocks on the rear of the car for our trip to the mountains, in the full assurance that it would carry the load we'd need.--But after we loaded--just call the car 'old Squatty'!

EVIDENTLY, the male mind has no conception of the things necessary to the art of traveling, and "roughing it!"

Understand, I'm not being critical of the wife (even if I dared) but seems there ought to be a limit somewhere--Shux, I even found my typewriter stowed in the trunk of the car!

So-o-o-o? Here I sit up in the cool pines of New Mexico, writing I ought to be out on the river chasing those trout, along with the rest of the optimists.

Honestly, I bet'cha there ain't a trout out there that wouldn't qualify as an expert on fishing tackle!--They've seen them all, and many times over!

REALLY, I came up here with the idea of doing, strictly, nothing.--Then awake to the fact that I don't know how!--It's a hard job.

Ran into an oddity, for this "Tourist taking" part of the country. --After I'd traveled over two hundred miles on the last tank of gas, I pulled into a station and told the Mexican attendant to "Fill'er up". (I knew I didn't need to head up into the hills without plenty of fuel.)

I WAS SURPRISED when he asked me for "three dollars, please." "Golly, I'm getting 30 miles per gallon!" I thought.--However, when I got in the car and turned the switch on, my spirits fell. He hadn't filled the tank full! Guess he thought three dollars was all I had.

Anyway, it's nice and cool here, that's a change.--Especially, if you're just "Doing nothing"-- But, SAY--!

A FELLOW JUST came by and said that the trout up the canyon are just standing on their tails and making faces at the anglers!--I'm gonna get my gear and go up there and show them who's who!

If there's anything I can't stand, it's a fresh fish!!(Wonder if the wife packed the fishing gear, too?)

MRS. RANDY ADUDDALL

Hall-Aduddell Vows Exchanged Tuesday

The altar of the First Baptist Church Chapel was decorated with arched candelabra entwined with green foliage containing white wedding tapers for the formal wedding of Miss Nancy Hall and Randy Guy Aduddell Tuesday night.

Rev. R. B. Hall officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Pews were marked with bridal pink satin bows accented with comode fern. Two white candles centered by a large anniversary candle was placed to the right of the altar, and was lighted by the couple at the close of the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. W. W. Hall and the late W. W. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Aduddell.

The bride was presented in marriage by her uncle, Roy Edsel Hall of Hale Center.

She wore a formal length gown of sheer organza, fashioned with an overlay of Venise lace covering the empire bodice and high Victorian neckline. Venise lace fashioned the top of full sheer lantern sleeves cuffed with Venise lace. The skirt was gully gathered at side and back with a Dior back bow and detachable double sheer chapel length train.

Her headpiece was a cluster of Venise medallions holding three tiers of imported silk illusion.

She carried a tapered bouquet that consisted of a large catelya orchid, surrounded by pink rosebuds and stephanotis interspersed with baby's breath atop a white Bible.

Her bridal attire was "something new." For "something old" she carried her mother's ring, and for "something blue" she wore the traditional blue garter. She had a penny in her shoe minted in the year of her birth.

Miss Janie Hyatt was maid of honor, with Miss Carla Chambers serving as bridesmaid.

Both wore identical carpet length A-line gowns of pink antique satin. The sleeveless gowns featured detachable cape collars trimmed with double rows of ruching. Longstreamers flowed down the backs. Each carried a basket of pink carnations.

John Aduddell served his brother as best man. Jimmy Hutson was groomsman and ushers were Dale Thompson of Littlefield and James Orr of Lubbock.

Lighting the candles were Miss Karen Hall of Lubbock, cousin of the bride; and Devin Aduddell, brother of the groom. Miss Hall wore an identical dress to the bridesmaids.

The mother of the bride wore a pink Alaskine silk dress featuring lantern sleeves in pink chiffon. A full length matching sleeveless coat trimmed in lace, and pink accessories completed her costume.

The groom's mother chose a yellow chiffon dress fashioned with full skirt and white cummerbund. She wore matching accessories. Their corsages were of feathered carnations.

Wedding selection were presented by Thaxter Price, organist.

He accompanied Miss Diane Kesey who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "If Ever I Would Leave Thee."

Miss Nancy Henson accompanied Miss Kesey at the piano as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

Miss Koleta Giles registered the guests. The registration table, covered with a white lace and satin panel scattered with pink satin rosebuds, held the bride's book and an arrangement in shades of pink flowers.

The reception was held in the church parlor. The brides' table was covered with white lace over satin. The full skirt was accented with pink satin rosebuds. Her tiered and columned cake, iced in white and decorated with pink carnations, was crowned with a pair of simulated doves. The basetier held a miniature bride and groom. An elegant hand-painted china candelabra with eight with candles, and small baskets of carnations completed the decorations.

Misses Beverly Chisolm and Mylinda Morris served.

For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride wore a coordinated linen costume dress of navy, red and white. She wore the orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride and bridegroom are both 1969 graduates of Littlefield High School.

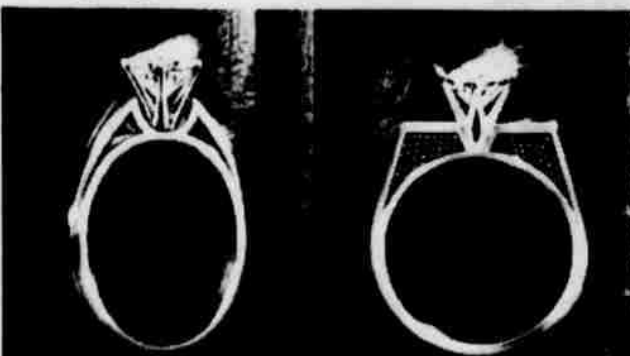

After their wedding trip they will be at home in Lubbock at 205 Indiana Terrace Apartments. Both are students at Texas Tech University where the bride is a sophomore, working toward a degree in speech pathology, and the groom, also a sophomore, is majoring in marketing. He is employed at Hemphill-Wells in Lubbock.

Out-of-town guest registered from Lubbock, Olton, Bula, Abilene, Lamesa, Claude, Phillips, Plainview, Canyon, Muleshoe, Levelland, Farwell, Cotton Center, Hale Center, and Albuquerque, N. M.

Pre-nuptial courtesies for the bride included a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Forbes Tatum June 4, and a brunch, July 11 in Hemphill-Wells Tea Room, hosted by the bride's aunt, Mrs. J.H. Carl. A lingerie shower was given in the home of Miss Beverly Chisolm and Miss Carla Chambers, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Al Chambers, entertained with a "spice and rice" party.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Aduddell hosted a rehearsal dinner August 3, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Aduddell, grandparents of the groom, for members of the wedding party and special guests.

THIS HABERER truck was on its way back to Littlefield when it overturned near Springlake Thursday morning. U. S. 385 was blocked for more than five hours before the truck was removed.

Tractor-Trailer Turnover Blocks 385

A 1970 White tractor-trailer owned by Gerald Haberer of Littlefield overturned on U.S. 385 two miles north of Springlake Thursday morning, blocking traffic for more than five hours before the wreckage could be removed.
 The truck, driven by Basil Jefferies of Fieldton, was enroute to Littlefield from Denver and was empty. Jefferies went to his left and struck three highway signs marking FR 2901 and U. S. 385, then over-corrected, flipping the truck on its side, according to Highway Patrolman Bill Angel. Angel estimated damages of $10,000 to the truck and $75 to the road markers.
 About 8:30 Thursday morning, JoAnn Townsel of Muleshoe was involved in an accident seven miles west of Littlefield on U. S. 84.
 She came up behind a state highway truck as she traveled west and ran off into the median on her left, went into a skid and came back across the road into the right ditch and hit the bank, causing an estimated $100 damages.

James Ivey Poem Published

James Ivey, whose poem, "In Chances Lost", was chosen from among 25,000 for publication in the American Poetry Society's "Young America Sings" and later in "Songs of Youth", has again had his poem selected for publication from more than 20,000 published works to appear in "Voice of America."

The board of judges of the National Poetry Press, at the request of many teachers and librarians, will publish the best of more than 300 different annual anthologies of poetry which they have published during the past five years, in one volume.

In keeping with the high calibre of its contents, the publishers plan to bind the volume with a hard leatheroid cover, and stamp the title "Voice of America" in gold. James, who is a 1969 graduate of Littlefield High School, has also had another poem published in "Young America Sings" and later last year, in "Sermons in Poetry". Title of that poem is "That Which Shall Prevail."

James is son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ivey of Littlefield, and is currently studying data processing and computer programming at Draughon's Business College in Amarillo.

MONDAY, AUGUST 10, Scout Leaders Roundtable will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church of Littlefield.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13 LITTLEFIELD cheerleaders will hold a car wash from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Perry's Car Wash. The charge will be $2.50 per car.

WORSHIP IN CHURCH and get a spiritual lift for the whole week

Don't Swear!

It's a Bible command... a common sense law of life. "Thou shalt not take the name of The Lord Thy God in vain." THEN WHY DO YOU DO IT???

Careless habit? Limited vocabulary? Calloused soul? ... JUST WHY DO YOU DO IT? "The Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain." Man, too, will hold you guilty. The members of your family, — the fellows in your office, — the stranger on the street ... none of them like it! Your family deserves better of you. Your neighbors expect better of you. God requires better of you. Go to church and break the swearing habit. Learn to respect and honor and reverence God's name. Please don't swear!

had two months of English, and I got to use my Spanish and learned that I knew more Spanish than I thought I did."

Jean's Texas accent was a conversational topic in New York, and a scout from Greece taped a whole cassette tape to take home with her because she said she couldn't describe a real Texan talking.

As for the Canadian girl, the treeless Plains are something, since Vancouver Island is mostly concerned with lumbering and logging. She said visiting White's Ranch was one of the high points of her trip.

Judy will leave Littlefield Monday and fly back to New York for a three-day evaluation of the project with the other 23 international girls before going home.

Participating on this international level is about the highest thing a senior scout can do, Jean said. "But I've enjoyed it so much." She concluded, "that although I'll be too old for scouting next summer, I hope to do something similar as a young adult."

MERLE JANE NEWMAN

Mrs. Merle Jane Newman, 52, of Yantis, died Friday, July 31, in a Tyler hospital after a lengthy illness.

She was a sister to Mrs. Gracie Newman and Mrs. Zell Barnett, both of Lubbock.

Funeral services were conducted afternoon in the Cain Funeral Chapel in Yantis, with Gaylon Embrey, Church of Christ minister, officiating.

Burial was in Yantis Cemetery. Mrs. Newman was a native of Runnels County and had lived in Yantis the past year. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Other survivors besides the two sisters her husband, J. T. Newman of Yantis; Thomas Ray Newman of Yantis; one daughter, Cynthia Jane Newman of Yantis; two sons, J. D. Moore of Ballinger and Foy McCamey; and two other sisters, Mrs. Wood of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Nancy of Yantis.

Nephews served as pallbearers.

W. H. 'RED' GILLIT

Funeral services for W. H. 'Red' Gillit of Lubbock, who died at 10:55 a.m. Wednesday in Lubbock Osteopathic Hospital, were held Thursday afternoon in Southside Baptist Church in Lubbock.

Gillit was a brother to Mrs. E. E. Gillit of Sudan, and had been a patient in the hospital 15 months.

Rev. M. D. Durham, pastor, and Rev. Walker, pastor of Highland Baptist Church, officiated.

Burial was in the City of Lubbock Cemetery with Sanders Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He retired 11 years ago as a truck driver for W. G. McMillan Construction Co. of Lubbock, and had lived in Lubbock since 1945. He was a veteran of World War I.

Among survivors are his wife, Della; two daughters, Casey Gillit, Earl Gillit and Lillian, all of Wolfforth; Roy Gillit of Ark., and Lolie Gillit of Portales, N.M.; a sister, Mrs. Walter White of Salinas, and two grandsons.

Dona Seay On Leave

PFC Dona C. Seay, a 1969 graduate of Littlefield High School, is home on a 10-day leave after completing advanced individual training (AIT) at Fort McClellan, Ala.

Miss Seay will be a personnel specialist permanently assigned at Fort McClellan. This is her first leave since entering the service five months ago, and she was promoted to her present rank July 14.

She is the daughter of Mrs. LaVerne Seay, 1316 South Westside, where she will be visiting until she returns to Alabama August 13.

School Board Employs 8, Fills Littlefield Faculty

Littlefield school trustees filled all faculty vacancies, including milk, bread and gasoline contracts and approved a $1,317,322 budget for the school year at their monthly board meeting.

teacher resignations, then promptly filled those spots and four others in preparation for the new school year, which begins with registration Aug. 24.

Details of the school budget finances went, are in a separate story on this page.

Resignations came from Mrs. Iona Donnelly, fourth grade; A. H. Burton, remedial math; Randy Allen, junior high coach; and Mrs. Kay Allen, first grade.

the Allens have accepted employment in Seagraves schools.

Eight new teachers employed are: Miss Jayme Bryson, fourth grade. A Lamar Tech graduate

Miss Linda Campbell, remedial math. Miss Campbell has just completed work toward a master's degree in math at Eastern New Mexico University, where she has been a graduate teaching assistant the past year.

Larry Allison, junior high coach. Originally from Muleshoe, Allison is a Hardin-Simmons University graduate of 1969. He taught last year at Aldie, near Houston.

Mrs. Jan Martindale, first grade. Mrs. Martindale has four years' experience, two in New Mexico and two in Oklahoma. She is a 1963 Hardin-Simmons graduate and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hampton of Littlefield.

Miss Robbie Kay Sheffy, junior high math. Miss Sheffy will get her degree in mathematics from West Texas State this month.

Miss Mary Lynn Kochanowsky, junior high math and science. She is a 1969 graduate of Sam Houston State University.

Robert F. Godeke, junior high math. Godeke attended Del Mar Junior College at Corpus Christi and Texas Tech, where he expects a degree in math.

Mrs. Marsha L. Martin, choir director. Mrs. Martin is a May, 1970, graduate of the University of Texas, with a degree in music education.

In awarding contracts for milk, bread and gasoline purchases by the school system, trustees kept the same firms that had the business last year.

On milk, the Borden Co. bid .075 cents per half-pint of white or chocolate milk. Cloverlake matched that bid, while Bell Dairy Products was at .076. The contract went to Borden.

On bread, Baldrige kept the business. Mrs. Baird's Bread and Rainbo also were bidders. All three companies submitted the same prices.

On gasoline, Pierce Oil Company (Cosden) retained the business with the low bid of 17.60 cents per gallon, including state

Historian To Help Dedicate 'Windmill'

David B. Gracy II, grandson of Arthur P. Duggan Sr., will be among the dignitaries to be featured on the program for the dedication of Littlefield's "Tallest Windmill" marker, Friday, Aug. 28.

the world's tallest windmill was erected.

He has had scores of articles and books published. One of

The Texas State Historical marker will be unveiled during the program, which begins at 3:30 on the dedication site at the north end of XIT Drive and Delano Avenue (Business Route Highway 84).

The event will begin the action for Littlefield's Second Annual Festivities Days, slated for Friday and Saturday.

Gracy is an archivist of the Southwest Collection at Texas Tech, which is the university's historical manuscripts and archives collection.

He holds his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees in history from the University of Texas, and will soon complete his PhD program at Texas Tech.

Gracy is currently preparing a biography of Major George W. Littlefield, former Austin banker and owner of the Yellow House Ranch on which both his namesake town was founded and his books, "Littlefield Lands", describes the opening and first eight years of development of Littlefield. "Littlefield Lands" received an Award of Merit from the American Association for state and local history in 1958 as "an outstanding contribution to local history."

Among other dignitaries who have been invited to appear on the program are the E. B. Lucas, who have written "Paha Sapa", a book about Highway 385, which comes through Littlefield; A. P. Duggan Sr.; Otha F. Dent, chairman of the Water Rights Commission, who will serve as master of ceremonies for the program; George White of George White's Ranch (formerly the Yellow House Ranch), who will be in charge of the marker; Billy Wayne Clayton, State Representative; and Lynn Travis of Channel 8 in Dallas.

Pat's Record Center will provide the loud speaker system for the ceremony.

Area Countdown Begins For Back-To-School

Area school bells will be ringing early this year, thanks to a new ruling extending the school year in Texas. Add to this the trend to give students and teachers a week off around Easter for a spring holiday, and school-bound youngsters and instructors are doing a countdown on the number of days remaining in this summer vacation.

Faculty members go on a 10-month schedule this year, and most teachers in the Littlefield area, school, in the form of in-service training, begins Monday, Aug. 17.

Four area schools have their first full day of school Monday week, Aug. 24. Bula, Pep, Anton and Whitharral begin the first semester of the new year on this date.

Littlefield schools and those at Amherst, Olton and Sudan begin the new year Wednesday, Aug. 26.

Spede and Springlake-Earth have the latest starting dates, with classes beginning on Monday, Aug. 31.

All teachers in Lamb County will meet in Littlefield next

Thursday and Friday for a county-wide in-service training session.

Teachers and administrators of all of the area schools that are members of the Small Schools Association will participate in associational meetings in Lubbock, Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 20 and 21.

Registration schedules, school calendars, football schedules, and lists of area teachers and administrators are in today's special back-to-school section.
