City Taxes Unchanged

During their regular meeting Thursday night, city councilmen voted to retain the same tax and assessment rates for 1969 as have been assessed the past five years. The rates, recommended by the city manager, will again be $1.09 per $100 valuation, and a 66 2/3 percent rate of assessment on property.

Jim Shearer, city manager, stated there will be a minor overall decrease in total tax collections because of minor decreases on some property values throughout the city.

"The Board of Equalization took a look at property and tried to make honest appraisals. Some taxes were raised slightly because of improvements which have been added, but more property owners will have lower taxes because of the decrease in property value," Shearer said.

Mayor Pro-Tem Paul McCormick presided for the meeting in absence of Mayor J. E. Chisholm, who was in Chicago and Washington for the Board of City Development working on processing for the ElectricCar with EMV President D. L. "Cotton" Whatley and Vice President Glen Cowser.

Councilmen discussed the installation of traffic control signals at the intersection of West 10th Street and Phelps Avenue and decided to write a letter to the District Highway office in Lubbock concerning the problem.

They discussed placing a four-way stop system at the West First and North Wicker Street intersection, and voted to install a street light at the intersection of 12th Street and Duggan Avenue.

Councilmen OKed requests for blocking streets for dances during Activities Days this month and approved a long list of proposed activities for the annual event.

Two members of the Board of City Development have resigned and councilmen discussed contacting civic organizations about nominating two new members for the position.

Lee Burnett, whose term was to expire Oct. 1, has moved out of town and Mrs. T. L. Dunlap, whose term is to expire Nov. 21, 1971, resigned because of business duties.

Councilmen voted to have City Manager Jim Shearer write a letter to the Texas Water Quality Board stating that the city does not mind if two seed delinting companies in Littlefield pour wastes into open pits.

Since the city owns property near both of the open pits, the Board had sent them a notice of a public hearing to be conducted. Acid content in wastes poured into the east pit checked out at 1 percent, while 4 percent acid content is poured into the west pit.

Last on the agenda, councilmen reviewed and approved a highway classification system as submitted for Littlefield by the Texas Highway Department.

Charles Pharris Goes Where The Action Is

WALLACE RODGERS
Charles Pharris, a Littlefield High School graduate, is always where the action is, whether it's a revolution in the Congo, a riot in Selma, Alabama, a riot in Atlanta or Chicago, or the landing of American astronauts at Cape Canaveral.

Not only is Pharris there, but this time he is also a motion picture cameraman. He has been an ABC cameraman in Atlanta, Ga., for almost six years and has been associated with NBC in Houston for two years prior to joining ABC. He has been bumped up to a position of chief cameraman and on an assignment in Santa Fe, N.M., where he was arrested by rebels and Wallace for one month. "Wallace is an interesting person to be associated with," Pharris said. "I didn't share his political views, but there's always a story wherever he goes." Pharris was assigned to Ronald Reagan at the Republican convention in Miami. When Nixon made his swing through the south, Pharris was with him for three days. And he covered vice presidential hopeful General LeMay, also.

In 1965 Pharris was traveling to, working in, or returning from an assignment more than 300 days out of the year. Over three months of this time was spent filming the Selma, Ala., riot. "They used to have longer riots," he said. "Now an uprising will flare up somewhere and last maybe two days, where the riot in Selma lasted 13 weeks." He has been on hand "shooting away" at demonstrators in other riot-torn cities including Newark, Detroit, Atlanta and Chicago.

A camera crew has a sound man, electrician, reporter and cameraman. "After awhile such a crew becomes a machine," Pharris said. In riots and trouble spots there isn't too much time for discussions. We have an excellent crew, and there is hardly any need for discussion. Competing networks are there, and you've got to be on the spot when something breaks." Pharris has some exclusives to his credit. He was filming the march in Mississippi when Meredith was shot. Pharris' camera caught the arrest and subsequent excitement.

He was at Curacao in Venezuela to film the burning of the town over a refinery worker's dispute. "And in places they did a pretty good job carrying out their threats," Pharris said.

There is a good deal of "before hand" work at times too, in the filming pre-launch activity at Houston. He compares a space special to putting out a special newspaper edition—a lot of work must be done before hand.

Pharris' wife goes with him when possible. Before the birth of their son she traveled extensively, going to Santa Domingo "after it cooled off," and on other longer assignments.

Each year Pharris gets a three week vacation and is "always called back early or starts late." Charles, his wife, and two-year-old Charles Jr. are visiting Pharris' mother, Mrs. Paul Pharris, 612 E. 7th.

Pharris attended Littlefield schools and was one of the 1940 Wildcat stars. He said he was supposed to graduate in '45, but he came back for another semester of football with Buster and Bill Lyman "and that bunch," then graduated at the '46 mid-term.

SIDEWALK SALE DAY in Littlefield Friday was successful, as hundreds of shoppers picked up many bargains, and took advantage of cut prices on summer merchandise. Temperatures were rather warm, but the shoppers came anyway.

FOR FESTIVITIES DAYS

Activities, Dates Set

With beards flourishing, beauty contest entries flowing in and less than three weeks until the first annual Littlefield Festivities Days celebration events, places and times have been finalized by the steering committee.

About the biggest need now, according to Chamber president John Clayton, is to find out which organizations want to have food and drink booths, and where they want them located.

Those wanting the money-raising projects for the big two-day event can register with Chamber Manager Jim Kelly.

A few of the earlier suggested events have been cancelled for various reasons, but the committee expressed the feeling that what was left would occupy almost everyone's attention throughout the celebration.

A band concert, under direction of band director Phil Anthony, will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. in front of the junior high auditorium prior to the Miss Littlefield contest.

Several contestants have already signed up for the judging, according to sponsoring Beta Sigma Phi spokesmen, but there is room for more. Deadline is this Friday.

Following the beauty contest a teen street dance will be held in the 300 block of Phelps Avenue, ending at midnight.

A parade, to begin at 10 Saturday morning, will open the full day's activities.

From 11:30 to noon, the beard contest, sponsored by the Lions Club, will be judged. This will be held on a stage near the courthouse.

A bicycle-tricycle contest is slated between 1 and 2 at Laguna Park, where a number of other youth contests will be held from 2 to 4.

Also at Laguna Park, from 4 to 6 p.m., will be a motorcycle riding exhibition, with entrants coming from Lubbock, Plainview and possibly Amarillo, as well as Littlefield and several other smaller communities.

The biggest liar contest will be staged from 7 to 7:30 on the stage at the courthouse. Neil West is chairman.

Following that will be a fiddler's exhibition for the next hour, also on the stage.

Then two street dances will break out on Phelps. From 8:30 until everybody goes home, square dancing will be held in the street by the courthouse, and modern popular dances will be held in the 300 block.

The pony express tournament originally scheduled was cancelled due to a conflict the same date with an event at Petersburg.

To help publicize Littlefield Festivities Days, leaflets will be printed for distribution by a caravan of boosters as it visits neighboring communities. A group plans to make Lubbock television appearances for publicity.

CAGEY "PORKEY" got caged anyway Wednesday morning after a hearty chase by these three captors, Mike Aibus, Mrs. Raynell Bitner, and J. W. Bitner Jr. finally cornered the porcupine on the Joe Bitner farm northeast of Littlefield by placing a barrel over it. He didn't stay caged very long though, because he was turned loose on home grounds in the alfalfa patch where he was captured.

What The Leader-News Thinks

Fair-Weather Friend

We have been brooding on the tragic circumstances in which Senator Kennedy has become enmeshed. Surely, no man has so quickly seen the dark side of being in the public eye, after having been so long a golden boy. Teddy Kennedy, indeed the whole Kennedy clan, enjoyed almost unprecedented friendliness from the nation's news media.

The death of Miss Kopechne is yet another cataclysmic blow to this star-crossed family, but there is one aspect of the tragedy which will not dawn.

Unless the facts have been carefully reported, it appears that very strenuous efforts were made to bury the story. The Senator and/or his friends seem to have pulled every stop in trying to obfuscate the sequence of events preceding and following the accident. No similar happening in recent memory came so near to being totally muffled. Friends would say nothing; many police officials either could not, or would not, give even the most obviously needed information. In the first two days after the tragedy, the most important newspapers in the land were delivering formless and indistinct accounts of what happened.

The consequence of all this is that the American people, whose good will and backing Teddy Kennedy has so assiduously sought, are even now beginning to make a new appraisal of the young man who has so long held an almost seigniorial sway on their affections.

It is a depressing and sobering state of affairs, made the more so, in our opinion, by what can only be interpreted as a thankless and chillingly cynical concept of how to handle news. It is implicit that Senator Kennedy and his satellites really believe that ugly facts can be submerged and that negative news can be "managed". This ill becomes a man whose identity and stature have been largely achieved through the good offices of the news media. In light of recent events, Teddy Kennedy must be found a fair-weather friend.

PAUL HARVEY

Military Draft

PRESIDENT NIXON has promised to end the military draft after Vietnam.

With the phaseout of our involvement in Vietnam, those who want to perpetuate the draft are busy trying to change the President's mind.

Army Recruiting Command officers are blaming the President's promise for the fact that they missed their recruiting goal last year by 9,000 men.

THEY SAY THEY CAN'T recall a year in which the Army has had such a difficult time attracting volunteers. Outside the draft only 188,000 men signed up.

Chief of staff for the recruiting command, Col. Donald Roberts, says the dropoff in enlistments began last fall when President Nixon pledged himself to the objective of an all-volunteer military force.

HE ALSO ADMITS that the peace talks now under way in Paris might have discouraged some enlistments among young men, draft age, who decided to gamble on peace.

Last November's election was close enough so that the draft issue alone may be credited with the election of President Nixon. If he should default on this campaign promise it would be personally disillusioning and politically disastrous.

THERE IS NO REASON to believe the President intends to alter his position. He has designated a task force to research ways and means of making the all-volunteer idea work.

That commission is to present its recommendations by early November.

CHIEF RECRUITER, Col. Donald Roberts, says that the best inducement to enlistment is the fact that an enlistee can get the kind of schooling and training he wants.

Pentagon planners have felt that they could encourage enough enlistments by improving and polishing the serviceman's image. Higher pay alone won't do it, they insist.

UNDERSTANDABLY, no active military man dares discuss the No. 1 deterrent to enlistment, the No. 1 difficulty in maintaining morale: our nation's continuing involvement in dead-end, no-win wars.

I expect the morale of the American serviceman will respond immediately to disengagement in Vietnam.

Improving his "image" requires that he feel himself to be "important."

PRESIDENT NIXON'S emerging foreign policy, enunciated repeatedly during his recent tour of Asia and deduced from the continuing phaseout of American bases overseas, is focused in keeping us-U.S.—strong.

We will offer arms and aid to deserving nations, but we will keep our American troops at home.

WITH BIG WARS kept arms length from our shores by ICBMs—and local wars left to be resolved locally—our future need will be mostly for technicians, not for masses of foot soldiers.

Nuclear Age technicians, deriving some measure of the respect which our astronauts enjoy, would be attracted to the service by something more than money.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Ideals, Not Men

By BOB WEAR

WE MUST FOLLOW ideals rather than men. It is obvious that unusually gifted men receive far too much blind devotion from too many people.

This is a very grave danger, and is a serious threat to everything that is essential to the success of a self-determining people.

IF MEN BELIEVE in and live by the time-tested principles and ideals, we can follow their leadership; and support them.

We can do so because of what they stand for, not because of who they are.

WITH THE RECENT inauguration of newly organized groups, and the release of alien forces into our social order; new problems and dangers have been created.

Many sincere and conscientious people do not know who to believe, because they tend to follow men rather than settled rules of action.

Many people have been made dupes by communist-front organizations. Others have been led astray by other un-American movements. Such happenings are inexcusable. We have the obligation to be alert and well-informed.

SOME ORGANIZATIONS and their leaders are two-faced. They have a secret, ulterior purpose; and hide behind an open-and-above-board, a seemingly worthy purpose. The secret, ulterior purpose is the main purpose, but it is not a worthy one.

Too many people are too willing to follow persons who have not proven themselves. There are far too many instances of the "blind leading the blind". We must insist that all who offer themselves as leaders have been proven beyond doubt. We must, under no circumstances, give up our personal freedom. This is what we do, when we follow men rather than ideals.

WE MUST NEVER FOLLOW

THE PHILOSOPHER

Rioting Solved

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm apparently is looking ahead to the coming school year, his letter this week indicates.)

Dear editor: Because ants had gotten into it, somebody threw a picnic lunch wrapped in a newspaper out of his car near my Johnson grass farm out here yesterday—you'd think that with man's vast technological skill he could make an ant-proof newspaper but check any newspaper, the Leader-News included, and you'll see it's no more ant-proof than a mosquito net—and I shook the lunch and the ants out and brought the paper home to read.

According to an article I ran into immediately between two mustard stains, a professor has worked out an idea for handling student unrest on college campuses this coming year.

"If you look closely behind the campus happenings," he said, "you'll find the kids are saying they want to actually get involved in some of the problems they'll be facing after they leave the academic world," so he has come up with a plan to let college students take off from classes a few months at a time and work with farmers and other rural people who he says are for the most part living below the poverty level.

He proposes that they teach the farmers how to produce more, how to market it more intelligently, how to eat a more balanced meal, etc.

I am interested in this program. I've got a fence around my pasture out here that's so far below the poverty level I figure it'll take the riot leaders from at least 14 colleges to fix.

Another 10 or 12 could vent their wrath on my barn, but I'd like to specify rioters specializing in Engineering because the first thing an ordinary English major would do is pull the props out on the north side, which is the direction it's leaning in, at a great loss not only to literature but to my barn.

As for teaching me how to market my produce and eat a balanced meal, I won't want to impose on these college kids, they may not be that mad.

If they'll handle the producing end of the job and get the stuff grown, gathered and loaded and into town, I'll take over and handle the marketing and buying of a balanced meal.

I never dreamed I had the answer to college rioting right here under foot.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Meat Prices Zoom Higher Than Moon

Noticed the recent spiraling cost of meat?

One pound of sirloin steak costs $1.59, rib roast $1.46, and 98 cents for a pound of hamburger.

And before the summer is out, the tags may be as much as $2 per pound for porterhouse.

According to statistics, beef prices jumped a whopping 9.2 per cent over the past year, and for some meat cuts the price hikes were even steeper.

Just in the past three months, the overall price of meat, poultry and fish has been soaring at an annual rate of 18 per cent. Wholesale beef prices have rocketed 25 per cent in the past 12 months and now retail prices are catching up.

What's the explanation? What's the outlook? Demand, the annual per capita consumption of beef has nearly doubled, from 63 pounds to 110 pounds a year.

Red meat consumption has climbed from a pre-World War II average of 130 pounds to 183 pounds now. Continued upgrading demands while off prices.

Other factors in the spending are rising personal income, the population explosion and ever increasing numbers of Americans in their late teen and early 20s, the big meat-eating age.

Meat eaters must compromise eating "variety" meats such as tongue, tripe, etc., use tenderizers on less expensive cuts or take full advantage of specials.

Overall regular meat prices in Littlefield are about 10 per cent higher than the average. By buying meat in bulk savings of 10 cents per pound are realized.

The table below shows supermarket prices advertised in this paper against usual price and the latest Labor Statistics national average prices.

	Local Adv. Special Price	Usual Local Price	National Average
Whole ham	.55 to .65	.69 to .75

Higher College Fees Facing County Parents

Families in Lamb County, who are sending more of their young men and young women to college these days, are finding that it will take more money to do so this year than last.

Costs have gone up considerably. In some families, especially those that have two or three going to college at the same time, it has become a major financial problem.

For them, the home may be taking second place to college as the biggest family investment, according to the Institute of Life Insurance.

It is calculated that the bill that Lamb County parents will be shouldering this year for college expenses will amount to approximately $2,212,000.

Estimates on the number of college students and the costs involved are based upon figures obtained from the Census Bureau, from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and others.

Nationally, they show, college enrollments have been rising rapidly. Over 7,000,000 are expected this Fall, a far cry from the 2,935,000 in 1960.

There will be near 790 in the Lamb County contingent, as against approximately 340 in 1960.

For those who will be attending publicly-supported colleges, the cost for the next academic year will be about $1,600 for tuition, fees, room and board.

Some of them charge more than out-of-state students and less for residents.

And this does not include expenditures that must be considered such as clothes, books and transportation.

All in all, it might cost a family as much as $3,400 to keep a young man in private college and about $2,200 in public college, the figures indicate.

The total cost of $2,212,000 for Lamb County families assumes that half of college-bound students will be going to state colleges and half to private ones.

Fortunately, the number of families that are able to absorb this economic shock is on the increase.

County Producing 1,951 Barrels Oil Per Day

Texas, the nation's leading oil producer has yielded more than 21 billion barrels of oil during the past 79 years of recorded production.

Lamb County, which has had recorded production since 1945, has had a total crude oil output of 10,485,471 barrels up to the beginning of 1969.

Lamb County production in 1968 was 714,036 barrels at the rate of 1,951 barrels a day.

Texas has 36 counties scattered over the state which produced at the rate of 25,000 barrels or more per day, among which are two adjoining counties, Hockley and Cochran.

The total Texas production during the 79 years has meant a statewide distribution of income which currently averages about $3.4 billion a year.

With 207 of the state's 254 counties producing crude oil, each section of the state is marked by several prolific fields.

Texas' daily oil production is more than 1.1 million barrels.

Littlefield Scouts National Jamboree

State Park in the favorite camping spot for teenage girls. There were very few in the park at that time there were 35,000 Boy Scouts there.

Littlefield Scouts, at master and about other Scouts swelled State Park from its dozen park officials 100 Navy contingent to the second largest in Idaho.

Master Tom Hilburn, Jerry Cox, Alan and David Roden the week-long 7th Boy Scout Jamboree. This was a once in a trip, but it's the National Jamboree for Tom Hilburn was Scout in 1964 when he took group of boys to the Jamboree, and the group drove the chartered trip.

Jerry Cox and Alan

Littlefield scouts rubbed shoulders with scouts from Free China, Australia, Canada, Formosa, Korea, England, France, Mexico and Japan.

During a campfire one night former light heavy weight boxing champ of the world, Archie Moore, visited the Littlefield group. On the same night the group was visited by the scout master and two scouts from Free China.

All sorts of trading associated with scouting jamborees took place. Hilburn calls his group "feather merchants," a WWII term for traders.

The Littlefield group took about 2,000 cedar slabs with them. Using a miniature branding iron, the Scouts branded these with XIT and presented them along with a card giving a brief history of the XIT Ranch that built the Texas capitol.

These went so fast Hilburn said he was barely able to save one for himself.

Everyone took along extra patches. The scouts also traded home made neckerchief slides, oil and core samples and miniature bales of cotton.

MARY HOBRATSKH SHERRY COOK CARLA CHAMBERS

Three Littlefield Misses Enter Festivities Pageant

With almost a week left before the deadline, Beta Sigma Phi announces three more contestants in the Miss Littlefield beauty pageant.

A blonde and two brunettes are added to the list of contestants this week.

Sherry Cook, Mary Hobratchk and Carla Chambers will be vying for the first Miss Littlefield title along with other contestants.

Crescent House of Beauty sponsors Sherry Cook in the Miss Littlefield contest.

Sherry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cook, 407 E. 14th. This 17-year-old will be a senior student at LHS this fall.

Skiing, sewing her own clothing, and various handicraft hobbies including decoupage work are included in this teenager's spare-time activities.

Carla Chambers is an 18-year-old graduate of LHS and will be a freshman at West Texas State University this fall.

McAnally's Jewelry is sponsoring Miss Chambers in the Miss Littlefield beauty pageant.

Carla served as cheerleader six years, was in the Wildcat band four years, and was class favorite her sophomore year.

She has been student council publicity director, All-Wildcat Girl, Outstanding Girl, Football Queen and she was a member of the National Honor Society and was a National Honor graduate.

Her hobbies include sewing, reading, teaching swimming and styling hair.

Mary Hobratchk, another 1969 LHS graduate, is sponsored in the Miss Littlefield pageant by the J. C. Penny Co.

During her LHS days, Miss Hobratchk was a member of the Latin Club, treasurer of the student council, sophomore class treasurer, and represented the Littlefield Lions Club as queen at the district 2-T2 Lions Club convention.

Miss Hobratchk likes to play the piano, go water skiing, sew her own clothes and plays tennis.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Hobratchk of Route 1.

Another measure which directly involves drivers is one which requires that slow-moving vehicles, that is, vehicles traveling at less than the normal speed of traffic, be driven in the right-hand lane or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway except when passing.

Also effective on Sept. 1 is an act which establishes a new intersection right-of-way law for the State of Texas. Under this, there are four rules governing the right-of-way at intersections. In cases of collision, it will be presumed that the driver did not yield the right-of-way if the four conditions have not been satisfied.

The Legislature also made changes in the "following too closely" law. Drivers, after the effective date, must give due regard to the speed of the vehicles, traffic upon and condition of the street or highway, to insure that their motor vehicle can be safely brought to a stop without colliding with the preceding vehicle or bearing into other vehicles, objects or persons.

A change in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Act places Texas on a 12-month inspection period, raises the inspection fee to $2, and moves the location of the inspection sticker from the right of the windshield to the left. It also adds exhaust emission systems on 1968 or later vehicles, and exhaust systems on all vehicles, to the list of items to be inspected.

Still other new laws remove the restriction on probate courts, such as studs on tires, which do not injure the roadway; adopt a slow-moving vehicle emblem; prevent racing, horn blowing, contests for speed, etc., in privately owned parking areas; and make it illegal to modify any passenger vehicle so that the lower most portion of the vehicle has less clearance than the lower most portion of any rim of any wheel in contact with the roadway.

Another measure, which does not become effective until Jan. 1, 1970, makes an officer's accident report available to the public upon the payment of a $2 fee.

Other articles in this series will review the more important law changes in depth.

NEXT: The "Implied Consent" Law.

NEW TRAFFIC LAWS, SEPT. 1 State Makes Changes

(Part 1 of 5 parts: TRAFFIC LAW REVISIONS SUMMARIZED)

A number of changes in the State's traffic laws, some of which are highly significant to Texas motorists, were made by the Texas Legislature during its 61st regular session.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, hosted that the new laws will all be in effect by Sept. 1, and pointed out that Department of Public Safety patrolmen will begin enforcement on that date.

While the measures range from one establishing new motor vehicle inspection procedures to allowing the owner of a parking lot to remove cars parked on the lot without his consent, one of the most important is the new "implied consent" law covering breath testing of drivers.

Under the terms of this law, a motorist is "deemed to have given consent" to a breath test if arrested for any alleged offense arising out of his actual operation or physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Refusal to take the breath test may lead to suspension of the suspect's driver license for up to one year.

Another measure which directly involves drivers is one which requires that slow-moving vehicles, that is, vehicles traveling at less than the normal speed of traffic, be driven in the right-hand lane or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway except when passing.

Fresh Vegetables Ready To Can

By LADY CLARE PHILLIPS
Co. H. D. Agent

In spite of adverse weather conditions, many people are having fresh vegetables and fruit from their gardens now.

Canning and freezing of these fruits and vegetables provide good food during the winter months.

Some people prefer canning or some do not have freezers so it is up to the homemaker to decide how she will preserve foods.

Proper preservation guides should be used in order to have quality products. The food must be of good quality in order to have good quality after taking it from the freezer or jar.
