physical and does not stunt often. Quarterback Randy Whalin and halfback Jeep Shanks pace the Mule offensive attack. The offense is built around the Houston Veer and features options, sweeps and passing much like the 'Cats saw against Levelland, Lockney and Abernathy. According to Coach Jerry Blakely, Littlefield will not make any changes in its high octane offense for the Mules, but will play better technique on defense. Blakely added that he hoped the Wildcats would be much more ready to play mentally against Muleshoe than they were last week against Abernathy. Jeff Ratliff is the lone Wild- cat starter listed as doubtful for the title. The tailback missed last week's game with an elbow injury. Concerning the loss to Aber- nathy Coach Blakely said, "Natur- ally we're disappointed to score 43 points against a good football team and not win. "Against Abernathy we had two major problems. First, our defensive technique was very poor and, secondly and most importantly, we were not mentally ready to play." "We again got behind but kept coming back. We didn't quit even though we were 24 points behind early in the second quarter. "We're pleased with the run- ning of Jett West and Rudolph Smith. Rudy Ayala threw the ball well again and Smith and Ralph Mendez made several good recep- tions. Layne McKinnon played well on offense and has made good progress since suffering a sprained knee against Floydada. Greg Moreland had a good night blocking. "On defense Mendez, Ayala and Lewis Willey played well," the coach concluded.

Car-train accident investigated Monday

Four young people narrowly escaped serious injury and possible death Monday about 6:10 p.m. when the car they were riding in, hit an east-bound train. Jeanne Carol Clark was driving a 1976 Pontiac Grand Prix and she and her passengers, Delinda Sebring, Paul Sebring, and Roy Butcher were headed southeast and crossing the railroad track toward U.S. 84 about three and one-half miles west of Littlefield. The driver said she didn't hear or see the train until the car hit it. The automobile hit the front of the engine, then was dragged alongside the entire length of the gas tank of the train before the car was slung free. W. L. White was the train engineer. The conductor, O. W. Ray, was conductor on the train which was involved in the Little- field school bus tragedy a couple of years ago.

None of the four young persons appear to have serious injuries. The two Sebring youths and Butcher were taken to the Little- field Hospital by ambulance. Paul Sebring and Roy Butcher were checked and released. Delinda Sebring was kept in the hospital overnight for x-rays. Miss Clark was brought to the hospital after the accident was investigated. She remained in the hospital overnight and has a possible whip lash. Investigators said if the accident had occurred a second sooner or later, in all probability the car would have either been hit head on by the engine or would have been caught between the two engines on the train. The new car is considered a complete loss, according to investi- gating Texas Highway Patrol troopers Ray Cannon and Dan Alvarado.

THE DRIVER AND passengers in this car escaped without injuries after the car hit a train at a crossing 3 1/2 miles west of Little- field Monday evening. The four Littlefield residents were Jeanne Carol Clark, Delinda Sebring, Paul Sebring and Roy Butcher.

I don't think Briscoe can match big Jawn as a campaigner, and a political slugger, but all indications are at the present that Carter will carry Texas.

One of the best stories heard lately goes like this. Back a few years ago a man named Jack Cox quit the Democratic party, and ran for governor of Texas against John Connally, and gave John a pretty good scare, as he ran up a very good vote.

Connally was a bit peeved about it, and is quoted as making this remark: Well, one thing about it, I will never be a political turncoat. —End of quotation.

A lot of people are like wheelbarrows— not good unless pushed.

Some are like canoes— they need to be paddled.

Some are like kites— if you don't keep a string on them, they fly away.

Some are like footballs— you can't tell which way they will bounce next.

Some are like balloons— full of wind and ready to blow up.

Some are like trailers— they have to be pulled.

Some are like a good watch— open-faced, pure gold, busy hands, well regulated and full of good works.

THE NEW FALL STYLE

CLIPS & TIPS

By JOELLA LOVVORN

MAKE-BELIEVE WITCHES, ghosts and other spooks should be all youngsters have to fear on Halloween. But poisoned candy, cars and dangerous costumes in recent years have been responsible for many Halloween "tricks".

A few precautions can help keep trick-or-treating a fun experience, however.

The Texas Safety Association offers this advice to parents as the holiday approaches:

Select a costume that's flame resistant and one that fits. Loose or long costumes can trip a child or catch on obstacles.

Try to dress your little ones in light colors or use reflective tape or luminous paint to decorate their outfits, so motorists will be able to see them more easily in the dark. Even a glow-in-the-dark painting on their candy bag would help.

Masks can slip and block child's vision or breathing. Why not paint his or her face with cosmetics or grease paint instead?

Instruct your trick-or-treaters to bring all candy home before they eat any. Inspect the loot and throw away anything that could have been opened and resealed.

Protect your property, too. Turn out outside lights and bring plants, hoses, lawn furniture and garbage cans inside.

If possible, put cars in the garage and lock them. Bring pets inside, too, to protect them and the children from each other.

Simple preparations like this can help put the fun back into Halloween for the kids and make the evening less worrisome for parents.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

It's up to me

WE CANNOT control everything that may be involved in our associations with others, but we can control the most important aspect of these associations. We can control ourselves; the way we think, the way we talk, the way we respond, and our general manner of behavior.

It is wise for each person to keep remembering, "It's Up To Me". You and I have a great capacity for learning to manage ourselves, and the better we do this the better we can perform in all of our associations with others.

WHEN EACH ONE of us assumes the maximum responsibility for maintaining satisfactory interactions, the whole human scene will be better; not perfect, but better.

This will apply in the family and in every other situation in which other people are present. We must not depend upon other persons to make all of the right moves, to say all of the right things, to take all of the initiatives, to make all of the overtures, to do all of the compromising, and everything else necessary to desirable relationships. In most situations, the individual should be guided by the rule, "It's Up To Me".

EACH PERSON is being wise and mature, in accepting responsibility for trying to make all associations satisfactory. There is no reason to hold back and wait for others to make the first move, but many reasons to be positive in trying to make the right moves; in saying the right things; in taking the first step; and in doing things else we can.

Don't wait, but go ahead and make your move, in the direction. Most responses are pleasing. Don't ever think small things as being unimportant because the right word or action will always be bringing about better responses with other people.

"SMALL KINDNESSES, courtesies, small considerations, habits, small contracts, give a greater character than the great talents and great talents and great talents." —M.A. Kelly.

TO A VERY GREAT extent people respond to us according to our manner, our words and actions. This is true to the extent that our most prudent behavior is justified at all times.

Regardless of the responses, however, our most prudent behavior must be maintained. Each one of us has the power to make our interaction with either pleasant or unpleasant.

Instead of shifting the responsibility to others, I must remember that "It's Up To Me".

OTHER PEOPLE have responsibilities, too; but I must not let everything in my life be dictated by how they say and by how I react. This places me in a very undesirable position.

I am permitting others to dictate to me, and this life of reaction is much of a life.

'JA KNOW WHAT?— If that freeze even dented my dandelions, I couldn't tell it! They're doin' quite well, thank you.

Wonder if anyone had ever thought of crossing dandelions, whiteweed, and cotton? It'd be one sure crop, I betcha.

GUESS I'M A LITTLE backward, but doesn't it seem strange that the pulpit should become a political stump? I'd always thought of it as being a place to proclaim God's Word, and build unity among the people, rather than a place for showmanship and publicity. That's to say nothing, of promoting division.

Somehow, Dr. Criswells' using it to endorse President Ford's candidacy to his church and tv viewers, leaves me a little less than enthusiastic.

SPEAKIN' OF THE presidential race, had you noticed that neither man has mentioned any opposition to organized labor? Certainly not! And you can betch'ur little bippie they won't, either!

Perhaps you remember that's the first power being courted by Mr. Carter, when he started his big move toward becoming a serious candidate for the office. Not only that, it's be really hard for either man to run a successful race if all of big labor was against him.

SORRY TO SAY, but they've become that big and powerful. You needn't be surprised when they have to start getting Mr. Meany's

Monday afternoon at First Baptist Church of Olton.

Burial was in Olton Cemetery under the direction of Parsons Funeral Home.

Mrs. Turner died at 3:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 9.

Born in Wise County in 1881, she had been a member of the Baptist Church since 1904, and an Olton resident since 1919.

Survivors include three sons, B. B. Turner of Stinnett, C. C. Turner of Olton, and Leon Turner of Denver; a daughter, Bessie Hutcheson of Olton; a sister, Jennie Dickey of Burleson; a grandchild and one great-grandchild.

FOR INSTANCE, HOW do you think you're gonna be able to afford an automobile, that's manufactured by fellows enjoying the luxury of a four-day week? Ford now estimates they're paying out about $10 per hour, per employee, for their cars on the road. I suppose that includes an allowance for everyone from the janitor to the starched-collar guy. That also, apply to all other makers.

The cost of production is us up in every field that's organized labor. And that's everyone from the mimes to the guy that paints the finished duct. This holds true in every facet of production—energy to battleships. However, us if they ever get the corner foot in the door in food production (They're already closer than you think about, now.)

YET NONE OF the major discussions of the presidential has been about the repealing of "Right to Work" law. That, ther, is the law that let's you decide if we'll work for each other and what the rate of pay will be; other words, it's free enterprise work!

I'm of the opinion that working man should be paid doing his job, and should be to make a fair living at it. But it comes to the point to work doesn't have to work unless he be the boss, that's stretching point a little far!

Downs, Watson tour television facilities

Pat Downs and Ernie Watson of Pat's Record Center, Littlefield, were among a group of Texas retailers who toured a major color television set assembly plant on a recent business trip to the Chicago area.

The Littlefield businessmen were among the visitors who inspected the multi-million dollar new production and testing facilities of the Quasar Electronics Company color television set manufacturing plant in Franklin Park, a western suburb of Chicago.

The trip was arranged by the Consolidated Distributing Company, Inc., of Amarillo, the area wholesale distributor for Quasar home television receivers.

The visiting retailers were familiarized with new production and quality control techniques now employed on assembly lines which have been rebuilt with the latest and most highly sophisticated TV production equipment available. They saw the production of 1977 Quasar color television products, including the installation of the replaceable "Super Module", a major circuit panel designed to improve product reliability and serviceability.

Automatic component insertion and sequencing machines, all computer programmed, were examined as part of the group's extensive inspection of the manufacturer's many newly installed quality controls.

The visitors also observed the operation of new "aging areas" on the final assembly lines where each color television set is operated for nearly an hour for quality review before reaching final inspection checkpoints.

The retail group visited the manufacturing plant as part of a national program which will bring some 2,000 retailers and servicers from all parts of the country to the Chicago area for the factory tour and product review meetings at Quasar Electronics Company.

On The Most Talked About Subject

By TERRI NIELSON
 "How many friends would remain so if all persons knew what each said of the other?"

During the past few weeks I've been doing a lot of thinking about the most talked about subject—people. People do seem to be the main topic in most conversations. You hear them talked about in the halls at school, downtown, in a friend's car, or just about anywhere.

You always hear talk about how conceited someone thinks a certain person is, but when you really stop to think about it, everyone is a little conceited at times.

Conceit shows in people who tear others down to build themselves up. Maybe that's the only way some people can get attention. People are really hard to figure out sometimes. Have you ever noticed how some people take advantage of favors? You do a favor for someone, and instead of that person appreciating it, he starts walking all over you and expects you to do everything for him.

One thing that's hard to understand is someone will talk about a certain person to you but the person they're talking about is the same person you're talking about. I read in a magazine once: "A little bit of forgiveness, a little bit of understanding, a little bit of love, and the world is cured."

People talking about people. People talking about people. When will people stop talking about others enough to start talking about themselves?

The SKAT is entering its fifth period. Journalists of LHS and every other Thursday in the Leader-News pay their expense to the taxpayers.

The SKAT invites media to use our articles therein.

Spanish Class Makes Its Debut

By TERRI BELL

If you have heard something like satanic chanting during the second period, you will be relieved to know that it is only the Spanish class reciting oral dialogues.

LHS has reinstated Spanish as an elective this year, and it is taught by Mrs. Nancy French, who also teaches American history at LHS. Mrs. French explained that Spanish, like any other language, is learned first by listening, speaking and then repeating. After learning how to pronounce and spell the words, the class will move on to reading and writing the new dialect. Not unlike the other languages, the memorization of dialogues is stressed.

Originally from Amarillo, Mrs. French majored in Spanish at Texas Tech. She also spent six weeks in Mexico with the Texas Woman's University in Denton. Presently, she is working on her Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling at Tech.

When asked about the makings of a Spanish Club, Mrs. French said, "I haven't really decided if I'm going to organize one or not." The club would depend on interest and time. The Spanish class is active, though. They entered a float in the homecoming parade and won second place.

Bugs Are Tops In Biology

By SHAUNA CLAYTON

A very unusual sight could be seen in the biology lab last week as students turned in insect collections. The unusual sight was a 4" long, 2" wide Rhinoceros beetle, which appeared in Danny Hinkley's collection. The beetle was caught on a trip to Mexico and has drawn a great deal of interest among the high school students and faculty.

For the first time in three years all biology students were required to turn in an insect collection. They were handed in on Friday, October 8.

Mrs. Charlene Reast, biology teacher said that this year was different from other years because not only advanced, but all biology students had to do an insect collection. She stated that they were fine collections with some very fine specimens.

To receive a grade of 70, a collection was required to have four specimens from six orders, making a total of 24 bugs. The insect orders include the following:

- Orthoptera- grasshoppers, roaches, crickets
- Lepidoptera- butterflies, moths
- Hymenoptera- bees, wasps
- Isoptera- termites
- Odonata- dragon flies, lady bugs
- Coleoptera- beetles, weevils, lady bugs
- Hemiptera- squash bugs, stink bugs
- Homoptera- cicada, aphids
- Neuroptera- ant lions, lace wings
- Diptera- flies, mosquitos
- Dermoptera- earwigs

The collections this year included specimens from all orders mentioned above.

Some outstanding collections were done by Karla McCanlies, Danny Hinkley, Carla Wren, Ben Davidson, Todd Stafford, Grant McCarty, Kimberley Hutto, Kristy Altman, Carol Sexton, and Gena Westmoreland. These students all made 100 on their collections.

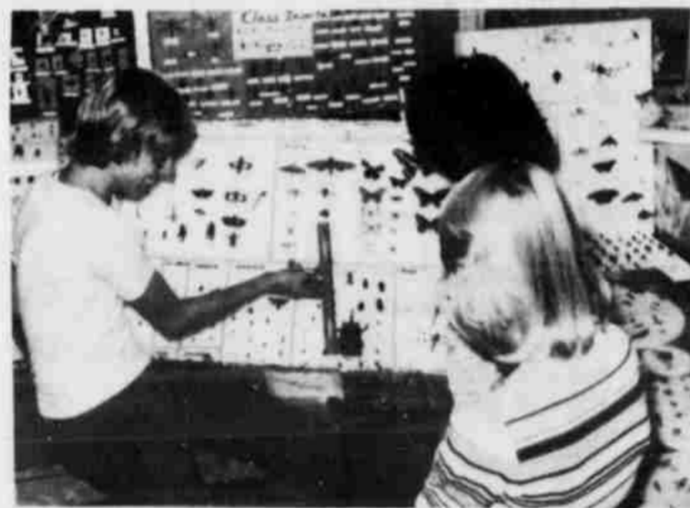

Cats Fall

To Antelopes

The Wildcats felt another loss Friday night as they fell to Abernathy 54-43.

The Freshmen also suffered defeat at the hands of the Abernathy 9th grade, 13-6.

Outstanding plays were made on varsity by Rudolph Smith, Rudy Ayala, and Jett West.

Annuals Ordered Wed.

On Wednesday, Oct. 13, Littlefield High School students were given one opportunity to order their "1977 Wildcat" annual, during an Annual Assembly in the High School Auditorium. The price for the annual is set at $8.00 per copy.

Those who wished to purchase the annual are asked to bring their money on Monday, Oct. 18. Extra annuals were ordered for those who did not attend the assembly. If those persons do not wish to purchase an annual, others who did not have an opportunity to buy an annual will be given a chance if all the extra books are not sold.

Ham chosen to play in FFA Band

17-year-old Mrs. Don R. Ham, is one of 120 members from across the state selected to participate in the National FFA Band. Selected from 500 applicants from 44 states, and after 44 days of intense preparation, the band is to perform at the 49th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 1-5. Ham, a member of the Littlefield Chapter where she is Don R. Ham's daughter, is one of the few girls in the band. She will be playing the trombone.

Ham is a member of the Littlefield High School Band and is under the direction of Mr. Heath. She has been playing in the band since 1947. Since that time, she has steadily improved her playing. Under the direction of Mr. Heath, the band has gained a reputation for its polished sound. Even though she has only two years of experience, she practices with the band every day.

Ham is now in her eighth year of playing in the band. She was first selected to play in the band in 1947. Since that time, she has steadily improved her playing. Under the direction of Mr. Heath, the band has gained a reputation for its polished sound. Even though she has only two years of experience, she practices with the band every day.

semble performances, special honors and special experience such as drum majoring or baton twirling. FFA members who play in the band arrive in Kansas City two days before the convention starts so they can begin practicing. "Although we send band members the more difficult music ahead of time, it still takes a lot of practice to get ready for our first performance on Wednesday morning," says Heath. "We will spend six to eight hours Sunday afternoon and evening practicing the music and working out marching formations," he explains. "We'll also practice all Monday and Tuesday, and the rest of the week we'll keep in shape by short practice sessions and concert performances." Although participation in the band is a lot of hard work there are lighter moments. Early in the week, the band is treated to a dinner and special entertainment by Hallmark Cards, Inc., of Kansas City, Missouri.

Two other men, Phillip D. Wharton and Roland Rutz will assist Heath with the band. Rutz of the Montgomery Public Schools in Montgomery, Minn. will assist Heath in practice sessions working with the brass, woodwind and percussion instruments. Wharton, who is director of bands at Fort Meade High School, Ford Meade, Fla. will serve as Assistant director.

During the convention week the FFA Band will play at seven sessions. "We'll play a wide variety of music," says Heath "including marches, rock tunes, selection from Broadway musicals, serious music, and mood music. We'll also have some of the latest hits," adds Heath, who likes to "think young" when planning music for the youthful convention crowd.

Although the FFA convention officially ends Friday evening the bandmen will not finish their week's work until noon Saturday at the conclusion of the American Royal Parade. Traditionally, the FFA Band has been featured as the leading marching unit in the parade which signals the end of the National FFA Convention and the opening of the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show.

Bus tours beginning at 2 and 3:30 p.m. from the Administration Building parking lot will take dads and family members on non-stop hour-long tours of the campus, hosted by members of the Saddle Tramps, a spirit-service organization. There will be a charge of 50 cents per person for the bus tour.

During the same period, dads and families will be guests at open houses in three newly-completed buildings on campus: Mass Communications, Social Science and the University Center-Music Facility.

Each week there is a new Peerless Pigskin Prognosticators as Sarah Tollett was right on 14 to give her a season record and lead of 53-38. Cutshall and Pat Yarbrough are all tied up with the number two position. Cutshall hit on 8 of 14 and Yarbrough hit on 9 of 14 to give them both a season record of 52-32.

Emil Macha lost his lead by guessing 7 of 14. Macha now holds a record of 51-33. Close behind the leaders is Sherry Campbell who was 7 of 14 and has a season record of 50-34.

Still in last place is Jerry Tidwell which was 8 of 14 and has a season record of 47-37.

Tollett missed Amherst-Bovina, Olton-Idalou, Oklahoma-Texas, and the Texas Tech-Texas A&M games.

Cutshall missed the Amherst-Bovina, Anton-Sundown, Littlefield-Abernathy, Olton-Idalou, Oklahoma-Texas, and Atlanta-New Orleans games. Yarbrough missed the Amherst-Bovina, Anton-Sundown, Littlefield-Abernathy, Texas-Oklahoma, and Texas Tech-Texas A&M games.

Macha missed the Amherst-Bovina, Anton-Sundown, Littlefield-Abernathy, Olton-Idalou, Texas-Oklahoma, Texas Tech-Texas A&M, Denver-Houston, and Atlanta-New Orleans games. Tidwell missed the Amherst-Bovina, Anton-Sundown, Littlefield-Abernathy, TCU-Rice, Texas-Oklahoma, and Denver-Houston games.

Tollett was the lone guesser of the Littlefield-Abernathy game. Tidwell was the only prognosticator that missed the TCU-Rice game. All the Prognosticators were correct on the Dallas-NY Giants, Whitharral-Loop, and Sudan-Motley Co. games.

Macha was the only one that missed the Baltimore-Miami game. All of the guessers missed the Oklahoma-Texas game which ended in a 6-6 tie.

Freshman 'Cats lose fourth game

The Freshman Cat team lost their fourth straight game last Tuesday as they were downed by the Abernathy team by a score of 13-6.

Freshman head coach, Eddie Hooper stated that the game was the best game played by the team this year.

Offensive standouts for the week were halfback Mark Yarbrough and tailback Johnny Sierra.

Receiving the defensive standout honor was Hobby Phillips who had a good night at his noseguard position.

Littlefield will travel to Muleshoe today for a 5:00 affair.

CARL ENLOE, Miller Shipp and Tommy Kelton, all of Littlefield, are three of 100 Texas hunters who were selected to hunt deer on the Chaparral Wildlife Management area Dec. 18-19, using muzzle load guns. This year, half of the 200 hunting permits issued for hunting in Dimmitt and LaSalle Counties, were issued to muzzle load hunters, the first such "primitive firearms" hunt at the Chaparral. Their guns, shown here, are replicas of the old Kentucky rifle, and use the .45 calibre ball. Texas Parks and Wild Life observers will monitor the hunt in this "first-time of its kind" hunt. Two Littlefield youths sing in 'Baker's Dozen'

Two Littlefield youths are included in The Baker's Dozen, a vocal and instrumental group from South Plains College, which will perform Monday, Oct. 18, at the Dallas State Fair's Food and Fiber Pavilion. They are Ron Barnard and Pam Parrott. Performances are scheduled at 11:15 a.m., 1:15 and 3:15 p.m., according to Larry Wiley, SPC assistant professor of music and director of the Baker's Dozen. The Texas Department of Agriculture has requested several junior college groups throughout the state to perform at the fair, he added. "Midnight Flyer," "Freedom of the Stallion," "Take My Hand," and a medley of songs the Baker's Dozen have performed over the past five years will be included in their program. Members of this year's group include C. V. Blake, vocals, and Nancy Brown, piano and vocals, both of Levelland; Greg Bell, vocals, Robbie Sanders, vocals, and Cindy Tanner, flute and vocals, all of Morton; Bill Watts on guitar and Michael Horton, bass guitar, both of Lubbock. Newcomers for the fall are Ron Barnard of Littlefield, vocals; Ken Norton of Denver City, vocals; Pam Parrott of Littlefield, vocals; Preston Perkins of Lubbock, drums and guitar; and Mitzi Terrell of Lockney, vocals. A preview of their State Fair debut will be given at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 13, in the Student Union Building at SPC.

GOD'S FIVE MINUTES

1776 - TO ETERNITY!
Can radical men act in a conservative way and produce a successful revolution? Well, the founding fathers of this country were—and did!
Any reading of the Declaration of Independence will reveal to the thinking person that those who wrote it had a deep respect for the past.
Clinton Rossiter, a respected historian observes, "Perhaps the most remarkable characteristic of their political theories was its deep seated conservatism." What may have seemed like revolution to the rest of the world, seems less to the men involved in the birth of America.
The exact same observation can be made concerning the Christ, the Son of God, and the New Covenant between God and man which His coming introduced to a lost and troubled world.
Every teaching of our Lord is in perfect harmony with all previous revelation given to men. The Old Testament speaks of self-evident truths and reveals all that men needed to know about what God wanted from them.
Jesus Himself said, "I did not come to destroy the law, but to fulfill it" and standing on that solemn promise He proceeded to transform society and history forever.
Can a radical man act in a conservative way and produce a successful inner revolution? Every believer who follows daily in the steps of Christ does exactly that. "Old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Corinthians 5:17)
—Paul M. Stevens

LITTLEFIELD CREDIT BUREAU

The Littlefield Credit Bureau serves both merchants and individuals. Member merchants refer all credit inquiries to the Credit Bureau. The Credit Bureau knows about good references and those hidden bad debts to keep businessmen from extending credit to bad risks.

New residents should start a credit file so when the need arises they can save the trouble of getting references checked by long distance.

For those who have had bad debts, the Credit Bureau will help you clear these up. Persons may check with the Bureau when credit is denied. By seeing his file he learns what needs to be done to restore credit rating.

Marilyn Burke, owner, and employees, Allene Woodward and Loretta Davis stay current on credit laws and constantly upgrade files.

Thursday there will be Mexican food. All you can eat for $2.69. Then Friday its fish, with fish and shrimp served up. The Sunday buffet is the talk of the town. Try the Sagebrush Inn and Chaparral under its new ownership and management.

The Macha 1100 is a proven variety that performs well under irrigated or tight soil conditions. Macha WR-2 is a dependable wilt-resistant variety noted for producing under extreme wilt as well as its ability to weather storms. Macha M-57 is a large stormproof cotton bred for sandier soils and rolling land. A new experimental variety 11T1 is touted to be an extremely high producer with its quick maturing small bolls.
