$$$PATRONAGE DIVIDEND CHECKS DISTRIBUTED TO THOSE ATTENDING$$$

It has been a terrible week for Oklahoma. Didn't think anything could put O.J. on the back burner but this tragedy sure did. Iona Miller's nephew, Tim Ford, was working a half block from the explosion, but was not hurt. Just had the ceiling fall in on him.

Donny Walker called to tell me the Sweetwater Volunteer Firemen will hold their annual meeting Friday night April 28th at 7 p.m. at the firehouse. There will be hamburgers, refreshments, and lots of good visiting. Everyone invited. Donny is the son of my good friend Larue. He leases a lot of land on the section catty corner to us, but lives at Sunny Point.

Another event of the 28th is the 103rd birthday of our good friend, Birdie Whipkey. Some others having birthdays this weekend are Mary Haag, Katie Whipkey, and Lulu Adams.

E. L. and Wilma Fowler had a family reunion Easter. Those present were Vikki Fowler, Hope and Roy Varnell, Doug and Gay Fowler, Trampus and Lacy, Kathy and Darrell Heinsohn, Tess and Tyler, Jill and Kenny Drake, Dusten and Casey, Jamie and Danny Hullum, and Jason, Cody Teel, Bryan Marcum, Charlotte Bonham, Julia Taylor, Julie, Tosh, Cole, Cate, Clay, Clint and friend, Cara May. Besides visiting and eating, they enjoyed playing volleyball.

Mike and Sally Sites, Megan and Cade, Michael and Sheila Smith visited Betty Sites. Michael and Sheila also visited the H. E. Smiths.

Irene Reed, Marie Stewart, Troy and Joy Sites, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dean Whipkey visited Birdie Whipkey. Allene Anderson dropped by to see Iona Miller.

Our nephew and wife John and Martha Haag came down from Pampa bringing barbecue plus all the trimmings. We had a delicious meal, and a wonderful visit.

Ray and Doris Smith spent Easter at Woodward with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wagner and Abby. Others there were Bob, Martha, and Joshua Berry, Longdale, Arnold and Janelle Wagner, Yukon.

Our postmaster Bonnie Rice attended the State Postmasters convention at OKC, 3 days. Sue Keathley, Reydon, rode down with her and went on to Stillwater to see Misti. Mabel Worley came back with her. Others attending were Norma Smotherman, Erick, Vicki French, Canute, and Gary Newton, Butler.

Lois Mollett tells me John is out of the hospital after surgery. Juanita Coffey has been in the hospital all week at Sayre. Alma Richardson is a patient at Elk.

Say an extra prayer for the folks at Oklahoma City and our country at large. It is hard to believe that our own people could be so wicked.

We had several calls. Tony and Carleene were just home from a vacation in North Carolina. Joe Dale's hope to come soon. Ginger's husband, Ken, has had back surgery at Albuquerque. Doing well.

Had several Young folks enter the rodeo at the Hammon celebration - Dustin and Casey Drake, Darren York, Lana and Leann Keathley. Don't know what they won, but heard they all did well.

June Tice, Cheyenne, called to see if I knew of anyone needing Homecare. Call her if you know of someone or would like one of the girls to come talk to your group about the various benefits they offer.

We went to Sayre last week. Saw a lot of folks, Ermic and Ann Weaver, Mae and Burton Connally, Charline Easter, Bert Hall, Kappalee Bruner, Joyce Matlock, and her great grandson. He was about 2 and cute as a bug.

The Roger Mills Democrats met recently with Frank Tidwell speaker. E. L. Fowler was elected chairman and Wilma Fowler, Co-chairman. Clara Davis was named secretary-treasurer. Frank Tidwell was elected delegate and Joe Hay alternate.

Pauline Roberts and Annette took Gladys Lewis home to Tahlequah after the funeral of Lola French, her sister.

With Gerald and Judy Tipton, Easter, were their children, Tammy and Randall Fuchs, and Jacob, Jan Franks, and boys, Lisa Alexander, Jada and Joel, Justin Lewis. Jerry Alexander and Charlie Baker attended the dairy show at OKC.

Iva Thompson spent the weekend

Wheeler Church of Christ

Congregational Concerns:

Dedra Dorman was baptized into Jesus Christ last Sunday afternoon. Gene White was released from the hospital in Tulsa last week. He is now confined to his home in Mobeetie. His condition is extremely serious. Ernie Davis, the father of Cindy Brown, is taking treatments at the Cancer Treatment Center in Tulsa. His condition has improved. Sympathy must be expressed to Mary White upon the death of brother-in-law, Gerald Brown. The funeral was held last Sunday afternoon in Durham, Oklahoma. Sympathy must be expressed to Doug Rives upon the death of his aunt, Alta Lee Pillers. The funeral was held last Tuesday afternoon in Shamrock. Sympathy must be expressed to the family of Louis Martin. Louis died last Monday night and his funeral will be held later this week in Wheeler.

From The Minister's Desk:

Harvey Porter, the minister of the Montgomery Church of Christ in Albuquerque, New Mexico, recently wrote an excellent article that was entitled, "Through Thick and Thin." This article said:—

"Solomon had much to say about the relationships of life. He wrote of relationship with God, with family, and with neighbors and friends. Nine hundred years before Christ he wrote, "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." (Proverbs 17:17)

"Our world moves at a fast pace. Everyone is busy. We often do not have time for family, our children, our friends, the church. It seems to me that long-term friendships are fewer than they used to be. Many of us grew up in small towns where we formed friendships with those we knew in grade school and on up. They were always there. We knew them well; they knew us well. We moved away to a new place, new congregation, new neighbors and new friends at work and at play, and we made new friends. But in a way, it was not the same, for it takes time for deep friendships to develop. You have to weep together and enjoy together. This is the principle Solomon was speaking about: "There is a friend who loves at all times."

"Steadfast love is needed in all of our relationships—marriage, parents and children, the church and with friends in general. Do we stay together as husband and wife only as long as he or she pleases me? Do children stay home and obey parents only as long as parents comply with the child's wishes? Do we remain a member of a congregation only as long as everything meets with our approval? Where is that moral fiber and spiritual devotion that that will cause us to say, "I am a friend who loves at all times. "We will love when we are discouraged, when we have been misunderstood, even when we have been wronged." "Marriage parent-children relationships, the church and individual friendships are worth fighting to preserve. What would you pay for a good friend? No price is too great! Money cannot buy things we are speaking of here. Why then are we not willing to swallow a little pride or even be defrauded to preserve a friendship?"

"Solomon completed the couplet with "and a brother is born for adversity." "Born for adversity" means that adversity is his purpose for existing. We do not regard friendship or relationships that way. We look instead at what someone can do for us, not what we can do for him. We want others to stand by to help us, not impose on us and our time and money. But Solomon said that a friend is for adversity. When everything is going wrong, the friend does not leave. He or she is there for that."

"Apply this to all the areas of our lives and you have the real spirit of Christianity. We stick, we stay, we serve, we give, we weep together and laugh together. Real friends are there through thick and thin."

Aint It The Truth

By Ab Gunter

Watched that Rush Limbaugh do on the tube this mornin. I ain't very clear at 0500, but I had seen the show before so kind of got the jest of it. What I can't figer out is how he gets that same audience every day. That feller in the third row back has got on the same tie he had on two weeks ago. Rush must not pay them much to be Paid Mourners. We had a permanent Latrine Orderly in the 3rd Seacoast Artillery at Ft. MacArthur there in San Pedro in 1940 that looks just like Mr. L. Wonder if they mite be kin???

Boy that shyster on the publicized case there in L.A. sure is doin his job on that young criminologist, aint he? I can't imagine how that young man can stand up to the punishment that lawyer is givin him. I've always said every dog has his day and maybe the Chinese feller can get that smartelec in an alley there on Main St. in L. A. They got remedies for smartelecs in Main St. alleys, or they used to have when I lived out there.

What do you think about that case bein televised anyhow? Honest I don't believe that T.V. stuff is the way to go in the serious type of cases. Matter of fact I don't think any of those things should be shown to millions of folks anyhow. I got quite a kick out of that J. Wellington Nurdley, that high priced lawyer that wuz after that Detective some weeks ago. The Detective had been a Marine in the service and Nurdley had caught him in a pervarecation, or lie, he thought, and he got to hammerin and even said he knew an honest upright Marine couldn't lie. When that shyster said that I sort of snorted and laughed out loud as this old kid has played poker with some of them honest upright Marines and believe you me they can cheat you well as some of us Doggies or Swabbies. Still have a Marine friend that owes me 4 bits from 1943, dough if I ever get it. Matter of fact I wuz supposed to be at a breakfast last Monday at Charley Brown's with The Chosen Few Bunch. Wish I had been up to it, but maybe next time. But that lawyer an his ideas of Marines and their honesty, maybe I can find out where he lives and invite him to one of their Breakfast gatherings one of these days. How do I know so much bout them Marines? I wuz Best Man at a Gunneries Officers weddin there in L.A. in 1943, that's how.

Guess what? That little grandson, Cody, wuz 1 year old the other day and his second cousin, Bill George of the American Hat Co. on Conroe, Texas, sent him the neatest black cowboy hat you ever seen. I'm goin to try and get a photo of Cody in his hat. Mite even get his father and me too in one of them American hats. If I do maybe you can see it too. Prejudice bout Cody, no really I ain't, but it is the first Gunter boy grandchild we got. In other words he will carry on the name, Quin Sabbe?

A few days ago I was at the V.A. hospital for another checkup and wuz waitin for the doctor to come in the room. I happened to see a young man in the hallway that somehow looked familiar to me. I looked and looked and finally I realized he was the doctor that stopped the hemoragin in my nose. He worked on me and apologized for the pain he wuz casin and I was tryin to tell him not to worry but get the hemoraging to stop. He worked and worked and finally got the job done. I had no idea why I looked like a gas pump in a service station with the hose runnin out my nose and back over my head. This young man is from Korea and has his family over here with him.

Dr. Marc Yune, thank you for the service and patience as I am sure I wuz a unhappy camper lym there on the gurney at 0430 on a Sunday morning. Thank you and God Bless you and your family.

See you next time.
Ab and Mama

They worked inside the Saloon Building staining woodwork and cleaning up after the carpenters and electricians. They also moved a piano from Shamrock that had been donated. Those working were: Clint and Maurita Stribling, Mike Gallagher and daughter, Jimmy and Bobbie Hill, Dale Corcoran, Ada Lou Lester, Louise Hogan, Ed Hogan and Lee Brown of Pampa also helped.

A BIG THANK YOU to Dan Gatlin, Dean Keys, Skeeter Powledge, Terry Keys, for bringing a brush beater, a riding mower and weed eater to clean up the Old Mobette Jail Museum grounds. All the work in and around the Museum is volunteer and we are grateful for anyone and everyone that offers a hand. Thanks also to Nathan Lancaster and Lee Brown for the mowing they did. Our members that were there for the mowing were: Austin Caldwell, Ada Lou Lester and Dale Corcoran.

Dorsie and Alvern Hutchison of Wheeler visited with Orville Greenhouse Sunday afternoon.

Shirley Dyson attended a reception in Pampa Tuesday, April 25th for daughter-in-law Linda Dyson. Congratulations Linda Dyson for receiving her CPA license.

Bill and Shirley Dyson visited over the weekend with their daughter and son-in-law and grandson, Debbie and Todd Hammer and Thomas in Chico, Texas. They helped Thomas celebrate his 3rd birthday.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH of Mobette celebrated a special day Sunday, "R. St. John Day." The most special event of the day took place on Sun. morning when Tracy Densberger was baptized. So many people worked hard to make it a "very special" day for him. All his favorite songs were sung. Bro. Cook preached a sermon Sun. night that depicted the seven "goals" that Mr. St. John has set for himself. Many cards with love and gratitude were given to him. April Finsterwald made a beautiful banner which everyone signed. Don and Willene Burke made him a beautiful wood heart on a pedestal with a cross. Louise and Melba pulled all the books from the shelves that he has donated to the library over the years. This day was made a success by the efforts of all the church members and the presence of special out of town friends which include: Audrey Alexander of White Deer, Betty Howard of Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Reek of Pampa, J. P. and Martha Meek, Willis and Verna Fillingim of the Gageby Community.

Visiting with Doyle and Bulah Grimes during the week were Harold and Lessie Austin of Briscoe. Harold's sister Audrey Alexander of White Deer visited Sunday afternoon and attended Church with them Sunday evening.

Ray and Velma Forbes went to Pampa Monday. Ray had an appointment at the Regional Eye Surgery Clinic to see about his cataract. He is scheduled for surgery May 11.

Bulah Grimes reports that her 10 year old great-nephew, Jeff Brewer, grandson of Orville and Rosa Brewer of Pampa, may be moved out of intensive care today. (Monday) He was to have had surgery last Mon. in Okla. City, but the tumor was too large and was inoperable. Since then he has been taking kemotherapy and has been on the dialysis machine, due to kidney failure. Pray for Jeff and his family.

MT. VIEW QUILTING CLUB met Thursday, April 20 at Totty School. We finished LaNelle Rigg's quilt and started on mine. Since our membership has grown and most everyone has a quilt they want quilted we have been meeting every week, weather permitting. Those attending Thurs. were: Estelle Hodges, Audrey Seitz, Melba Corcoran, Edith Cross, Willene Burke, Martha Meek, LaNelle Riggs and Orville Greenhouse.

Betty Haines of Pampa, Estelle Hodges and I finished quilting the Ex-Student quilt last Friday. Betty will put a few more finishing touches on it and Estelle will bind the edges. It is a beautiful quilt. Can't think of an ex-student or anyone else that wouldn't like to have it.

We enjoyed going to Miami Senior Citizens Monday night. Delicious meal, friendly people, and fun games. Good to have, Sid Talley, back after back surgery. Doing pretty well. Good to have, Liz Carr, back after some heart problems. She had two arteries sixty percent blocked with a blood clot in one. Trying to open with medication and locking good. Also going were J. P. and Martha Meeck, Homer Sanders, Edna May, Doyle and Beulah Grimes, Leonard and Bertha Hollis. Think 32 in all. Visitors are always welcome each second and fourth Monday.

Keep praying for Jim Walker. They've been doing skin grafts on his burned area.

"Simply trusting every day. Trusting through a stormy way; Even when my faith is small, Trusting Jesus—that is all"—Stites

We enjoyed going to Canadian Friday night to our first Ag Muster of former students, family, and friends, of Texas A and M. Willis attended A & M for a short time. Delicious Dyers barbecue, and friendly people. Nice to visit with John McGarr who teaches at the Boot Camp, and thinks all going well, but will need more teachers. Each new platoon of 16 guys ages 13-16 are a little wild till they get them settled and working. There is a drill instructor in the class room at all times. Think they have 48 now with more coming soon as buildings in place. Also visited with Bill (vet) and Edie Breeding there. Austin Caldwell is their uncle. Andrea Dukes there with Todd Baize. Clois Hanner has been very ill in Shamrock hospital. His wife (Amazing) Grace spends much of each day with him. I enjoyed visiting with her there Friday.

Nice to have Glenn Williams meet us for lunch at Maxey's Friday and take us on a tour of his beautiful ranch with cattle, trees, live water, seep ponds. He's special.

Rosalie Keelin and Lois Hudson visited Mae Welch last week.

There was a great service at Mobeetie Baptist Church Sunday night to show appreciation to Mr. Ronald St. John for over sixty years of leadership to the church. Rev. Robert Cook preached a good sermon around Mr. St. John's goals for his life with many scriptures. Some of the goals were to praise the Lord, to love going to church, to love God's people, to have concern for the lost, study the Bible and place trust in it, to bring offerings, use kind words, and pray more often. There are no graduates of God's school here on earth; we need to keep on with these goals as long as we live. There was a good crowd there and delicious refreshments. Special friend of Mr. St. John's, Tracy Densberger, sang a song, and the choir sang.

"God be with you till we meet again."

Candidate for
Wheeler I.S.D. Board of Trustees

VOTE
Sat., May 6
in the School Election

My husband and I have lived in the Wheeler Independent School District for the past 17 years. We are active supporters of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H Club, Mustang Boosters, Band Boosters and Little League.

I attended NWOSU in Alva, OK, where I received a BS degree in Business Administration, with two minors, one in Computer Science and one in Accounting. I am presently employed with the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. We make low-interest housing and farming loans. I work with people everyday on budgeting funds and developing a feasible plan for their farming operation. My job and my degree have given me first-hand experience in budgeting funds and the decision making process. However, first and foremost—I feel that teachers, coaches, band directors, administrators and board members should keep, "The Students Best Interest" as their No. 1 priority.

I would appreciate your vote and your support on May 6th.

the top of the list your name will be.

The explosion in Oklahoma City was terrible. Fortunately, we did not have any friends or family injured in the incident. Dean Lane called yesterday with a suggestion for the punishment of McVeigh. She suggested he be taken to the scene and forced to help dig through the ruins without the benefit of mask or showers and only cornbread and castor oil as a diet. Whatever the punishment, it is not harsh enough.

The rain received over the weekend was great. I measured 0.86 inches when we returned home Sunday evening.

I checked the garden and have not seen any signs of the beans sprouting. I guess it has been too cold.

The kids and grandkids were together over the weekend with exception of the son-in-law. We all had a good time Saturday. The Gillette Bros. were performing at the Cowboy Hall of Fame and were unable to join the family.

Guess who was 17 on the 15th. Good Luck at Regionals. From Your Friends!

meeting, but only one vote is allowed per membership.

Other details concerning the election of directors and eligibility are noted in detail in the bylaws, which have been provided to the membership. Additional copies of the bylaws are available at the Cooperative office.

The annual meeting is only one of the many facets that distinguish Greenbelt Electric Cooperative from other electric utilities. Although the meeting is held only once a year, the decisions made and voted on affect the Cooperative daily.

It's the annual meeting where Cooperative members and concerned consumers have the opportunity and the obligation to take an active role in the future of the Cooperative.

At the annual meeting Cooperative management will inform members of the plans that directors have for the coming year and bring you up to date on the problems and progress the Cooperative is experiencing.

At the annual meeting each vote is heard with the impact equal to all the others even if the member is the smallest user of electricity. It makes no difference if a member uses 300 or 3,000 kilowatts, he or she has only one vote.

Greenbelt Electric encourages every member to attend and vote at their annual meeting and help directors and management employees plan for your Electric Cooperative's future. It's the time and place to ask questions about your Cooperative's activities and make suggestions for new and improved services.

A number of prizes will be awarded at the meeting this year, with the grand prize an eighteen-inch RCA satellite system.

Be an informed and concerned member of Greenbelt Electric Cooperative — attend this year's annual meeting April 28.

MOBEETIE IN THE WILD DAYS

By: Calvin Stuart

Back in the days before the big oil boom hit Wheeler Co., I was working for the Queen, better known as Royal Dutch Shell. They had an old plant and were trying to move a new one into its place and get rid of some people. I was offered several places to go and some were a little better than hell. I started looking for some other place to move besides, No Trees Texas.

I was told by an engineer of Shell if I had some money, to buy some land with minerals east of Mobeetie, so I did. While working on the place that summer I noticed a gas plant being built just south west of Mobeetie.

Well, the leader of our old plant was trying to get people to move, so they made sure you got lots of midnight towers. Well, I applied for a job at Mobeetie plant and was hired right then. Seems as they were having trouble getting it to process right, so we worked long hours and I did not get to meet a lot of people. On the way to the plant one night, about 12 or 1 o'clock, there were two old boys in the road beside a pickup. I stopped to see if they had trouble and there I met Ben Eads and Paul Hathaway. We visited awhile and I went on to work, as they were waiting for some hay to get ready to bail. This was in Sept. I had also got acquainted with Joe Darnell and D. L. Rector at the station where I bought gas.

The next time I saw these people was Halloween. Seems this group of people were visiting different homes, especially those new to the town. They first made a trip to Gordon Estes' home where they found a long ladder, as this was a two story house. Whoever was in charge of extending the ladder didn't get it locked good, so old D. L. was about halfway or better up the ladder when it kinda brought him back down to the ground. Now, from what I saw later he wasn't killed, but he wasn't walking right. Now they made so much noise, I don't know if they ever got on the roof.

Next time these same bunch of trick or treaters were seen was just before sundown in front of my house. They had found my ladder and one of the group, by the name of Hathaway climbed on top of the house with a dummy, or the other way around. I heard the noise and told my sweet little wife, we've got prowlers. About that time some one knocked on the front door. I knew it was trick or treaters because there was no one on the porch. So, I told her to go out front and I would catch them at the back door. About the time I got out the back door all hell broke loose. Somebody screamed and I ran to the front. Paul had thrown the dummy down on the walk and D. L. had screamed. D. L. and Ben were hid behind some bushes in the yard. About the time I got stopped and saw what happened, I heard a noise over head. I forgot to tell ya'll that the roof on that old house was tin. Seems like Paul got tickled and lost his balance and came sliding off the roof. The telephone company had installed two lines in on that side so he ducked the first one, but got the second one under the chin. He hung there on the line, seemed like a minute, but the line didn't break so it must have been a few seconds, because old

Paul must have weighed over 200 lbs. He hit the ground and I said are you bad hurt? He said, "no but watch that first step."

Now Ben Eads was by that time down and nearly rolling on the sidewalk. I thought he had been hit by the dummy. He got up and wiped the tears out of his eyes and said, "that was one of the funniest acrobatic acts I have ever seen." Well, we laughed and visited awhile, when they decided to go to Ben's wife. They wanted me to help them, but I was on duty at the plant and had to stay home.

Later on in the week I heard from the boys what took place out at Ben's. Paul and his partner, the dummy, were on the roof, Ben and D. L. were hid in the bushes out front. Ben sneaks up on the porch and knocks and hides behind the bushes. D. L. screams, the door flies open, the dummy hits the ground and there stands Sally Eads with a rifle. It was a lever action, just like the rifleman used on T.V. It got very quiet, so quiet D. L. told me later you could hear the shell go in the chamber when she worked the lever. "Come out of them bushes" was the next word spoken, or I'm going to start shooting. Ben said, "don't shoot honey, it's me." Sally said I don't give a damn who it is, you had better come out.

Now, later at the coffee shop or the old drug store, there was much discussion of the previous days events. There were as many as three different stories, but all were told in a humorous kind of way to make the other ones look bad or funny. One was crippled, one had a bad bruise on his neck and one had the devil scared clear out of him, but it was one good halloween. It seems in those days there was always something going on in Mobeetie, not like the slow steady non-eventful days of the latter years.

Extension Update

By Joan Gray, CEA-HE

Taking a few small steps can often help you avoid big mistakes. This check list can help parents control their tempers when dealing with children:

* Take a deep breath. And then another. Then remember you are the adult.

* Before you speak, close your eyes and imagine you're hearing what your child is about to hear.

* Press your lips together and count to 10 before you speak. Even better, count to 20.

* Put your child in an observable time-out chair. (Remember the rule: one time-out minute for each year of age.)

* Phone a friend and talk to them.

* If there is someone who can watch the children, go outside and take a walk.

* Write or call for parenting information: Parenting, P.O. Box 2866, Chicago, IL 60690 (1-800-55-NCPCA).
