USO Drive To Be Staged

According to reports, Wheeler county is lagging behind its quota in the national USO drive and at a meeting of the local Lions club Monday night, a committee composed of Dr. H. E. Nicholson, Ansel McDowell, Harry Wofford and Glen Render were named to co-operate with the local Legion group in making plans for raising at least $300 in the north part of the county for this cause. Most of Texas counties have completed their quotas. USO, in this war, stands in the place of the great number of different organizations that handled the entertainment and comfort for the soldiers, sailors and marines in the last world war.

42-43 Marketing Quota Penalty Set On Cotton

Cotton marketing quota penalty rate is 8 cents per pound for the 1942-43 marketing year. Under terms of amendments to the AAA Act, loans will be made by the Commodity Credit Corporation at 85 per cent of parity price on August 1, the beginning of the marketing year, and will be approximately 16 cents per pound. While the cotton rate will not be set until August 1, early harvest in some sections of the state necessitates immediate announcement of penalty rate for cotton marketed in excess of the farm marketing quota. Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of AAA in Texas, said.

Penalty Rate On Wheat
Penalty rate for wheat raised in excess of farm marketing quotas is 57 cents per bushel this year. National loan rate previously has been announced at $1.14, according to P. C. Colgin, state AAA commodity loan specialist.

News From The Boys In Service

Dear Editor
Wheeler Times:
I am sending you a little piece of poetry I picked up here in camp as I thought maybe you would like to run it in your paper.
I sure miss Wheeler, but I sure like it here too. It's a real nice place with lots of shade trees and we do lots of drilling under the trees. We sure have some good entertainment in camp. We boys that are in boat camp don't know what they have outside.
Ferrill (Wallace) and I surely like it here; we couldn't have picked a better branch of the service.
Here's the poem:
The Recruit
I ain't been long in this here navy,
A few days since I did arrive,
Guess I'll stay, it's better than farming,
Ain't no cows to milk or drive.
The very first thing in early mornin'
Fellow with a horn makes an awful noise,
A fellow they call the Boatswain's Mate says,
"Now get up and turn out, boys."
Then we go down to the shower room,
Funniest place ever seen before.
The water runs in thru a hole in the ceiling,
Runs right out through a hole in the floor.
Teach you about that sailor business,
How to march and turn around
They give you a gun and you put it on your shoulder,
One, two, three and you put it on the ground.
Sign your name on a piece of paper,
Stand in line and draw your pay,
Take it out and put it on a blanket,
A fellow says "Craps" and takes it away.
Yours truly,

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit associations, banks, or other private concerns or individuals.
As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing his land and seeding his 1942 grain crops.
Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of grain crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed.

Canning Sugar Rules Explained By Holt

Canning sugar allowable under present regulations varies in amount according to the actual canning done by a family unit, its present supply and its reasonable needs not set at a fixed amount, R. D. Holt, chairman of Wheeler County war price and rationing board, explained today.
"There has been a lot of confusion among some householders on this point," Holt explained, "because the boards in some counties have been more strict than others."
"The state OPA office recommended on June 16 that canning sugar be limited to six pounds per person yearly in urban or city areas, and to nine pounds per person in rural areas which is the national canning average."

"However, the state OPA office made it clear that this was not a hard and fast limit on the quantity of canning sugar allowable. It still is within the discretion of the local board to increase a canning sugar allowance up to one pound of sugar for each four quarts of finished fruit."
"All applications for the 6 and 9 pounds national average or less will be handled at the time the application is made. Applications in excess of this national average will be referred to the local board to be considered at its next meeting."
"Of course, we have to consider each application on an individual basis, in the light of the number of quarts of fruit a family canned last year, how much it has on hand now, and the amount of fruit available to it this year which it expects to can. The size of a family is another factor."

"We realize that the canning sugar regulation imposes a great responsibility to administer. It is flexible. We must administer the regulation in a manner that will conserve the available fruit supply, and at the same time, carry out the objectives of the sugar rationing program."

For this reason, he said, the local board will ask for a strict account of the use of sugar, and its misuse besides canning constitutes a violation of federal rationing regulations.
Holt added that home canning contributes to the war effort, because it conserves fruit that otherwise might be wasted.
"It also supplements commercial supplies," he said, "and that cuts down the burden on commercial canning and transportation facilities which are already taxed beyond their capacity."

More Conservation Is Farmers Wartime Aim

At least three times as much soil-building work this year as in 1941 is one wartime aim of Texas farmers.
Total soil-building assistance, established under this year's farm program, is approximately three times as large as the 1941 allowance. The increase results from shifting a portion of AAA payments, which formerly were made for planting within special allotment acreage, to the soil-building allowance. Total assistance under the 1942 program, which may be used for carrying out approved practices, is approximately $20,000,000 compared to $9,000,000 under last year's program.

Faced with shortages of labor, materials and equipment, farmers must begin conservation work immediately if maximum payments are to be earned this year, Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of AAA in Texas, has announced.
The conservation materials and services program, which now is operating in 150 counties, is a definite method by which farmers can offset shortages, he said.

Under this plan, winter legume seed, superphosphate and terraces are paid for by AAA, with costs deducted later from individual AAA payments. Approximately 25,000 miles of terraces, 3,000,000 pounds of Austrian winter pea and vetch seed, and 17,000 tons of superphosphate have been requested under this program.

Other positive conservation practices which may be carried out during the year include planting summer legumes and non-leguminous crops for green manure or cover in some sections of the state, contour listing, furrowing and chiseling non-crop pasture, eliminating destructive plants, building earthen tanks and reservoirs, drilling wells and mowing pastures.

Rural School Scholastics Same As '41

Same Number of Boys, Same Number of Girls

According to a report compiled by Jess Dyer, acting county school superintendent, Wheeler county common schools have identically the same number of scholastics as last year. And furthermore, there are the same number of boys and the same number of girls as included in last year's group.

This fact was revealed in a report recently sent to Austin and is the result of the census completed in March. One less white child and one more negro child was included in the report. 1,179 children of school age were listed in the common school report.

In the independent schools of the county the Wheeler schools listed 476 students, a gain of 13, while Shamrock's report showed 815, a loss of 54 over last year. Mobeetie reported 302, 1 less than last year; Briscoe 244, a gain of 15; Kelton 166, 7 more than last year; Lela 160 and Allison 127.

The census includes children between the ages of 6 and 17 inclusive, and is subject to the approval of the state department of education.

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1942

The statistics show that farm income has risen substantially during the past year. What the statistics do not show is that the farmer's costs have also risen heavily—and that such problems as labor are getting steadily worse.

Dairy farming is a case in point. Cows must be milked twice a day, seven days a week. Expert experienced labor is necessary. But the farmers must pay several times as much for this kind of labor as he used to, even when he can get it. In many areas, it is virtually unobtainable at any price. Workers have gone to the cities, attracted by the high wages and relatively short hours of war industries.

The consumer wants cheap milk, and in many states milk is a public utility, with its price controlled by state boards. But the farmer can't sell milk at a fixed price if his labor cost steadily rises. As yet, no one seems to have any feasible solution to this problem. It simply illustrates that, contrary to the belief of many city people, everything isn't perfect down on the farm.

Even in these days, $1,000,000,000 is a lot of money. One billion a month is a larger sum than the human mind can visualize. But the people of America must buy a minimum of $1,000,000,000 a month worth of War Stamps and Bonds so long as the war lasts.

To make this campaign succeed, the Treasury is calling upon veterans in the science of intelligent, appealing promotion. Among those veterans is the retail industry. This July, tens of thousands of retailers, dealing in consumer goods of every kind, are doing everything in their power to impress constantly upon all of us the need for buying War Bonds and Stamps to the maximum of our ability, and they will keep that campaign going for the duration.

A release by the Institute of Distribution, which represents national retail distributors operating 16,000 outlets, gives an idea of the magnitude of the effort. These distributors alone have 185 miles of windows dressed to popularize Bonds and Stamps. They have instructed their 500,000 employees to push and sell Stamps. They use 430,000,000 lines of newspaper space annually—and much of that space will be used to urge War Savings. They have radio programs which reach nearly 45,000,000 listeners—and again, War Savings will be stressed on each program.

Take a look at the window displays as you pass along the streets. Read the posters and the advertisements urging you to buy Bonds and Stamps. Then act accordingly. Every retail store participating is an agent of the Treasury—and it is working absolutely free to help raise the money that will beat the Axis.

The terrific reverses in Libya are a tribute to German leadership—and a harsh criticism on British military leadership. That seems to be the collective opinion of most authorities. The British were superior in the air and on the ground. That superiority gave them a fatal confidence. And Marshal Rommel and his Afrika Korps took a long and daring chance and succeeded.

The battle of Egypt is of the utmost importance. If Hitler can

PRIVATE PEANUT GOES TO WAR

I'm Private Peanut and I'm plenty tough! My hitting power is in terms of oil. From 12,000 pounds of peanut oil, can be made 3,000 pounds of soap and enough nitro-glycerine to fire a 16-inch gun on a battleship. One blast from that gun sure could mess up a lot of Japs! Many other things needed by our fighting men and civilians can also be made from peanut oil, such as cooking fats and oleomargarine. Huge supplies of these things will give the United Nations the power to bury the hatchet—in the Axis' neck. Uncle Sam has asked farmers to mobilize five million acres of boys like me. And they're doing it!

Pertinent Paragraphs from Panhandle Press

Items of interest culled from newspapers on The Times' exchange list.

Everywhere people are talking about the Federal War Prison which is to be located at Hereford. Some people like the idea. Others are bitter toward the establishment of the camp here. However, that's the way things generally go. Chief arguments against establishment of the camp are the fact that there will be very little available labor for farm work, or any other kind of work for that matter. This is perhaps true, but when the United States of America went to war we were entitled to expect some hardships—and a little work isn't going to hurt anyone. Compared with the sacrifices some of our boys and citizens are making, this is really a small matter. War is a grasping monster; this is merely one of the many toils which it extracts—The Hereford Brand.

What the country would like to know is who is going to get the word to go ahead and make synthetic rubber, will it be the big oil companies or will it be made from grain alcohol? While the powers that be debate and quibble, and quibble and debate the tires are getting thinner and thinner.—The Tulsa Herald.

The Amarillo Times publishes a list of births and announces that "baby boys and baby girls" are being born in that city. It is most informative to every one that babies aren't born as adults in Amarillo; they start out as infants just as they do everywhere else.—The Panhandle Herald.

The first half of the year is gone and we are going deeper and deeper into war efforts. We have much to hearten us in the thousands of war machines coming off production lines in advance of what was expected, but much remains to be done before final victory is achieved, and many of us have not as yet come to a full realization as to what our contribution to the war should be. With most people it means doing the job at hand in the best possible manner, giving every cooperation to all war fund drives and keeping in readiness to answer any call from the government, remembering to keep free from careless conversation or carping criticism that might hinder the authorities, or give aid and comfort to the enemy. That a righteous peace is sure to come is certain, but there is bound to be more sacrificial efforts exacted from all of us before the final battle is fought and won.—The McLean News.

We think that the disposition to seize the Middle East, to which Egypt is the gateway, he will have resources and geographical positions whose value cannot be exaggerated. He will be well on his way to making contact with Japan. He will, with his satellite Italy, dominate the vital Mediterranean. Every resource the United Nations can muster will be used for the defense of the Middle East.

The Russian defense against vastly superior German legions has been nothing short of miracles. Hitler is apparently throwing everything he has into the Russian front now. If that effort can be stopped before too much territory is lost, a long step toward breaking German military power will have been taken.

criticize Congress because it stops to debate questions and consequently often delays action on highly important measures pending, is entirely wrong. When Congress ceases to be a deliberative body it will cease to be a useful or necessary branch of our government. Congress is the instrument through which our democracy must function. It is the machinery provided by our Constitution with which the people may translate their will into law. Individual members of Congress may from time to time deserve much criticism, and Congress as a whole may be remiss in its duties at times but usually it represents the sentiment and the will of the people, and when we promiscuously and indiscriminately attack Congress as a body, we are attacking democracy itself as a form of government. The President, perchance, at some time or other, might become a dictator but Congress, never.—Lynn County News.

Summer time is on, and radio stations of Amarillo are trying to make up the loss of national advertising. When national advertisers quit because summer time is poor for radio advertising, how do country merchants hope to receive any good from money spent in radio announcements? The tragedy is that most country merchants have only a limited amount of money for advertising. When they pay high prices for so-called advertising over the radio in a period that is admitted to be useless to national firms, such money is taken away from their local newspaper. The local newspaper is on the job 12 months every year and is getting results for local business houses. Why should local business men trade the certain for something entirely uncertain? The wise merchant refuses to be sucked into such schemes—originated for the purpose of making big city institutions larger at the expense of local institutions.—The Canyon News.

Tokio expects a big boom in Japanese real estate right soon. Things are going sky-high just as soon as the American bombers pass over.—The Donly County Leader.

AN EDITOR'S PRAYER

Blessed are the merchants who advertise, for they have faith in their business, and their prosperity shall increase many fold.

Blessed is the woman who sends in a written account of a party or a wedding, naming names and dates and time and places, for she shall see more than a brief hint that such an event took place.

Blessed are they who do not expect the editor to know everything by telling him whenever an interesting event occurs in which they are interested, for they shall have a better newspaper in the town.

Blessed are those who get their copy in early, for they shall occupy a warm spot in the heart of the editor.

Blessed are they who do not think they could run a paper better than the editor runs it—yea thrice blessed are they, because there are so few of them in the country.

Down on the farm, 'bout half-past four
I slip on my pants and sneak out the door;
Out of the yard I run like the chickens
To milk ten cows and feed the chickens.
Clean out the barn, curry Nancy and Jiggs,
Sep'rate the cream and slop the pigs.
Work two hours, then eat like a Turk,
And then, I'm ready for a full day's work.

Then I grease the wagon and put on the rack,
Throw a jug of water in an old grain sack,
Look over yonder! Sure as I'm born,
Cattle on the rampage and cows in the corn.
Start across the medder, run a mile or two Heavin' like I'm wind-broke, wet clear through.
Get back to the horses, then for recompense,
Nancy gets a straddle of the barbed wire fence.
Joins all a'achin' and muscles in a jerk.
I'm fit as a fiddle for a full day's work.

Work all summer till winter is nigh,
Then figure up the books and heave a big sigh,
Worked all year, didn't make a thing;
Got less cash than I had last spring.
Now, some people tell us that there ain't no—Well,
But they never farmed, so how can they tell?
When spring rolls 'round I take another chance,
While the fringe grows longer on my old grey pants,
Give my spenders a hitch, my belt another jerk
And, by heck, I'm ready for another year's work.

HEALTH OFFICER WARNS AGAINST FLY MENACE

Thousands of children and adults die every year from diseases carried by the fly. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, intestinal diseases, and frequently death follow closely in the trail of the common house fly.

"The control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and community in the State," urged Doctor Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"The most effective measure for control is to prevent breeding," Doctor Cox said. "Flies breed in filth, and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her life time of several months, one house fly lays from 600 to 1000 eggs. Thus it can easily be seen that in a season which usually begins in the spring of the year, the descendants from one fly number countless thousands.

"To eliminate flies, the breeding places must be destroyed. Manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise, they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections, which later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink, and by unwashed hands and utensils.

"See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not molest your family. See that your grocer keeps meat, vegetables, and fruit screened from flies.

"Organize health measures to destroy the breeding places, control the flies' access to your home and food, and establish standards of cleanliness in your community that will eliminate the fly."

Rogers Visits Wheeler Again Wednesday

Walter Rogers, who is asking the voters to write in his name for District Attorney, was a visitor in The Wheeler Times office again Wednesday. Walter has made numerous trips to Wheeler in behalf of his candidacy and states that he has tried to visit all parts of the district as often as possible. When Walter announced, he stated that he did not intend to adopt a platform for this particular political race, but would stand upon the one that has always supported him: "Diety, Decency and Democracy."

By "Diety" he says that means that he was raised in a Christian home by God-fearing parents; that he believes that we must all place our trust and confidence in the infinite wisdom of God, and especially during these times of world conflict. He is a lifelong member of the Protestant Episcopal church.

By "Decency" he means that every man should try to so live that he can enjoy fellowship and associations with others; that he should abide not only by the legal code but by the moral code, and should try to so conduct himself that he will not bring shame or disgrace on himself or others; that a man who can live in peace with the conscience is indeed a wealthy man.

By the word "Democracy" he means the full recognition of the rights of every man by his fellowman; that all men were created equal and should have the free and unshackled exercise of their inherent rights and privileges so long as they do not violate the rights and privileges of others; that a man, whether he be the richest or the poorest, is entitled to the same rights and the same protection of the law; that the freedom for which our forefathers fought and died should be protected so that it may be handed down to our children.

Walter is thirty-three years of age, married and has three children. He has earned his own way since his high school days and worked his way through the University of Texas Law School. He has owned and operated his own law office for the past five years, and has attained the highest available rating in Martindale-Hubbell (the recognized attorneys and lawyers rating book). He is making an active campaign for the office of District Attorney and asks that the voters write in the name "Walter Rogers" in the blank space provided on the ballot underneath the words "For District Attorney, 31st Judicial District."

Mrs. Robert Wright came Wednesday from Mississippi and will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Schaub. Her husband, who is with the Universal Exploring Company is being transferred to Louisiana.

Volunteers Allowed Choice Of Service

Due to an unforeseen need for additional man power, men 20 to 40 years of age have an excellent opportunity for assignment to the arm of service of their choice.

Of interest to men who want to combine thrills, adventure and good pay with service to Uncle Sam, the age limit has recently been raised for parachutists. Such men must be between 18 and 32 inclusive, weight not over 185, have good but not necessarily perfect eyesight, and normal blood pressure. Parachutists receive regular Army pay of their grade plus $50 a month bonus.

To men who can qualify as engineer specialists in this man's Army, and want to get to work quickly at jobs for which civilian training fits them—where you can pull your own weight and more in licking the Japs and Germans—then contact the nearest Army recruiting representative right now and get all the information on openings for the Corps of Engineers.

If you are not yet 27, physically fit, and with a reasonably good education, your place may be in the Army Air Forces. If qualified, you can enlist immediately and go into the Air Forces in grade of Private and be learning useful things about the planes you are going to fly. Then when your time comes, you will be promoted as Aviation Cadet and sent to school. Or, you can qualify, be enlisted in the Air Forces Enlisted Reserve, and remain at home until called to active duty for training as an Air Man. If you are a college man, you can qualify for Aviation Cadet training, be enlisted in the Army Air Forces Enlisted Reserve and be deferred until graduation. Unless circumstances require, the Army will not call you until you have finished your college work.

If you made a grade of 65 or more, but less than 80 on the screening test for Aviation Cadets in the Air Forces, here's good news for you! The West Texas Recruiting and Induction District has a quota to fill for glider pilots in Class A—that is the men who have had previous aerial experience, are between 18 and 35 years of age inclusive, and otherwise qualified. Interested men should go to the local Army Recruiting Station and present an affidavit attesting to flight experience. Students, when graduated, will be Staff Sergeants, and outstanding graduates will be commissioned. This is the chance you have been waiting for!

Tin Salvage Plan Due Soon

Anticipating the opening of copper precipitation plants at Houston, Dallas and Kansas City, the War Production Board has banned sale of salvaged tin cans and other types of tinned scrap in 63 specified Texas counties and certain counties in Kansas and Missouri. WPB also prohibited shipment of such scrap outside of the designated counties. All tinned scrap from the specified areas will be needed in the salvage operation of the copper precipitation plants which are expected to be ready for business soon. Tin can collection campaigns will be organized in the designated counties as soon as the new plants go into operation.

Rubber Stockpile Dwindling

At the present rate of consumption, the nation's rubber stockpile will be exhausted by the end of March, 1943, although not a single ounce of rubber in going into civilian passenger car tires. The enormous demand for rubber is demonstrated by the fact that the bullet-proof gasoline tanks of a Flying Fortress take over half a ton, and even a gas mask uses nearly two pounds.

New Tire "Census" Taken

OPA has called for inventories of all serviceable tires, whether new, used, or retreaded and recapped, from all tire sellers, showing their stocks as of June 30. The reports will be filed with local War Price and Rationing Boards on forms now being mailed to all dealers in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas. Hereafter tire sellers will be required to file such inventory reports quarterly. From the data furnished rationing officials, OPA will determine how much new tire stock is fast-selling and how much is in sizes not used on later model cars. Data also will be obtained on how many recappable carcasses there are and where they are located.

Jewelry Prices Controlled

A recent definition by OPA of "precious stones" brings almost the entire jewelry industry under the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Under Amendment 9 to the GMPR, precious stones exempted from the pricing regulation are limited to the uncut, rare and most expensive stones, or mountings containing these stones.

Theatre Salvage Aid Asked

Intensified salvage efforts by the 16,000 exhibitors and legitimate theaters of the nation are being asked by WPB. Cooperation of each manager in saving critical materials, particularly copper, and in conservation of all supplies is being requested. Accumulation of carbon butts and drippings by theatre men will furnish a vital contribution to the war effort, WPB officials said.

Rent Studios Made

Investigations of rent conditions on 54 defense rental areas of the Dallas OPA region now are being made by the Office of Price Administration, Max L. McCullough, region administrator, announced. Federal rent control has not yet been invoked in these areas, although the 60-day waiting period set by Price Administrator Henderson has expired in some sections. Rent control offices were opened by OPA on July 1, in 14 defense rental areas in the Southwestern region.

Truck Appeals Expedited

To expedite handling of applications for special permits in connections with ODT truck conservation orders, the Office of Defense Transportation has authorized managers of its field offices to issue such permits. Four ODT general orders affecting trucks already have gone into effect. Of these, Nos. 3, 4, and 5 govern over-the-road operations of common, contract and private carriers, and No. 6 governs operations of local delivery carriers.

25,000 Autos Available

With about 260,000 new cars remaining in the pool which OPA plans to ration over the next eight months, the July quota of new automobiles was set at 25,000 for the nation. The June allotment was 40,000. A government pool of approximately 135,000 cars has been set aside for military and other uses in 1943. July quotas include Texas 1038, Oklahoma 254, and Louisiana 295.

Cutlery of Gold, Silver

Carving knives, forks and steels made after June 30 will be of silver or gold. This interpretation of WPB limitation order L-140 ruled that such implements, even though they have sterling silver handles, are not considered sterling silver flatware.

Canned Goods Set Aside

Larger supplies of the 1942 pack of specified fruits and vegetables have been ordered set aside for the armed services, Lend-Lease and other government agencies, in an amendment by WPB of its original order. The amendment also adds pineapple juice to the list and orders 14 per cent of the 1942 pack set aside. The original order set aside supplies of 23 items for use by the government.

Sugar Situation Explained

Pointing out that reports of bulging sugar warehouses in some regions are creating a distorted picture of the nation's supply of sugar, Max L. McCullough, region OPA administrator, said supplies, one-third less than those of a year ago, must be built up for the day when ships will be needed for business other than carrying sugar from Puerto Rico and Cuba to the United States. In recent moves to relieve sugar hardship cases, OPA has instructed local ration boards to allow sugar retailers and wholesalers increased inventories, and to increase sugar allotments to registrants, boarding houses and other institutional users in proportion to the increase in the number of meals they are serving.

Tire Rationing Tightened

Vehicles operated by physicians, surgeons, veterinarians and practicing ministers now must be used "exclusively" for professional services rather than "principally," as heretofore, under an amendment to OPA's tire rationing regulation. The amendment also extends eligibility for recapped or obsolete new tires to school officials and teachers who must travel by car from one school to another in an area where no other transportation is available.

Safety Razors "Thawed"

WPB's "freeze" order banning sales of safety razors by manufacturers and jobbers has been revoked. Imposed to enable the Army and Navy to arrange for purchase of stocks needed for June and July, the order now has served its purpose, WPB officials said. Production of safety razors will be continued at 70 per cent of the 1940 rate.

FARM PRICES FAR BELOW LEVEL OF FIRST WORLD WAR

AUSTIN — Although the rise in farm prices during the past year is contributing substantially to the rise in farm cash income, the present level of farm prices is still far below that reached in World War I, according to Mr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Farm prices had reached a two-year low in August, 1939, just before the outbreak of war, Dr. Buechel points out, so the increase since then should not be viewed with alarm. Further substantial increases in farm prices above the present level would, he believes, however, be justifiable basis for concern.

Writing a monthly report on farm cash income for the state during May, Dr. Buechel points out that the Texas wheat harvested now under way is expected to be well above last year's and that higher prices now prevailing will mean a substantial increase in cash income from that source. Cotton and cottonseed prices during the marketing season are also expected to be considerably above a year ago, Dr. Buechel says, and a crop of the same size as last year will result in substantial income gains from these products.

Growing income from milk and milk products, fruits and vegetables, poultry and eggs are also forecast. Dr. Buechel pointed out that income from agriculture in the state during May totaled $53,694,000 or 40 per cent more than the $38,415,000 for the same month of 1941. Aggregate farm cash income for the first five months is 60 per cent above last year, he reported.

Seasonal declines in livestock dealings, always expected from April to May, were more than offset this year by increases from wool, mohair, milk and milk products, fruits and vegetables, Dr. Buechel says.

"The outlook for feed and pasture is on the whole quite favorable," he said. "As a consequence with the expected maintenance of high levels of marketings and prices, farm cash income from livestock during the remainder of the year promises to continue favorable. This also holds for milk, poultry and eggs, wool and mohair."

Lester Dyer of Ft. Smith, Ark., came Sunday to be with his son, Normal, of Allison, who underwent an appendectomy at the Wheeler hospital Saturday. Mr. Dyer will also visit his daughter, Pauline, and his sister, Mrs. Jim Risner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Guthrie spent Tuesday night in Erick with Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Guthrie and son.

HEARTS and FLOWERS

TOM: Gosh, Ann, I'm glad I could get back in time for our wedding anniversary. Being on the road as much as I am, it seems like I'm never home. Here's something for you.

ANN: You darling! Flowers!

TOM: It could have been a new hat if that blamed car of mine hadn't had to have a new set of piston rings.

ANN: I know wives shouldn't interfere in their husband's business, Tom, but Mrs. Reardon was telling me how much money Jack saved on the maintenance of his car. He drives even more than you do.

TOM: What all did she tell you, Ann?

ANN: Well, Jack Reardon uses Conoco Nth motor oil. That's the oil that OIL PLATES the engine and saves a lot of wear and tear. And it contains a new synthetic that helps keep the oil from fouling up, too. Mrs. Reardon says Jack has to make his car last two or three years longer now and Conoco Nth motor oil will help him do it!

TOM: That settles it, Ann! I'm going to change right now to Conoco Nth!

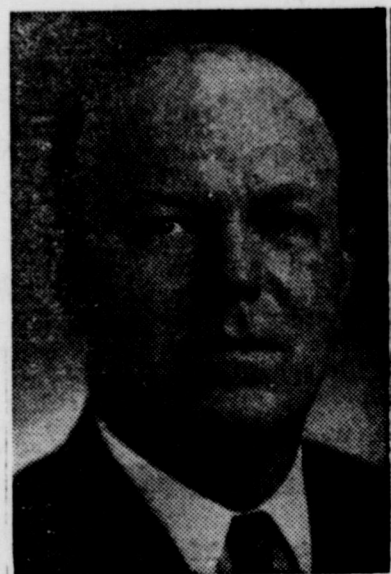

ANN: Good boy! And maybe I can still get that new hat?

You'll agree that it's orchids to Conoco Nth motor oil, once you prove to yourself how it is so economical, clean-running and wear-saving. See Your Conoco Mileage Merchant today! Continental Oil Company

Tough as They Come

Once again we bring you the Dead End Kids and The Little Tough Guys in their newest picture, Tough as They Come, which promises to have appeal to theatre-goers of all ages. These kids always give a good account of themselves in any picture. They are typical of the kids of any small neighborhood—yes even yours and mine. They will bring you a story that will be to your liking when they come to the air conditioned Rogue Theatre Friday and Saturday, July 10-11, in Tough as They Come.

Joe Smith, American

Robert Young and Marsha Hunt are the stars at the Rogue for Preview, Sunday and Monday, July 11-12-13. The picture is Joe Smith, American. It tells the part that you and millions of other Joe Smiths are doing to help save America from those who would destroy our manner of life. You will see Robert Young and his wife, Marsha Hunt, as they go about doing their part in the great industrial plants of America—those same plants upon which we are counting to defeat Hitlerism and the other isms. Yes, it is the story of America with her shoulder to the wheel on farm, factory, on land and sea, in the air and under the sea. It is a picture that every red-blooded American should see. It will give you a greater appreciation for your country and the cause for which we are fighting. Remember that you, too, are just another Joe Smith doing your part.

O'Brien and Raft

Pat O'Brien and George Raft are the stars of Broadway, which comes to the Rogue Wednesday and Thursday, July 15-16. You probably know more about this picture than we do. It is brand new and has been shown in only a few key cities. There is only one thing that we know for certain and that is the fact that George Raft and Pat O'Brien never let you down, especially good old Pat. And, incidentally, this is the first picture that these two stars have ever appeared in together. So our guess would be that you can put your money on Pat and George, because after all, it is the stars that generally determine the true value of any picture.
