Parkview Artery Coping With Holiday Depression

Depression around the holiday season is not uncommon. It can often creep up without warning and lead to feelings of shame, guilt, and animosity.

Depression can be a lonely and painful struggle as well as an uncomfortable subject to talk about. However, depression is not something to be ashamed of, and people suffering from it only need a bit of help. An open ear or kind word can make the world of difference, but there are still other ways to take matters into your own hands and make sure the holiday season does not go missed.

Sometimes all you need is to get away. Go for a walk through the park, browse through a local store, sit and do nothing at a coffee shop, anything to get out of the house. Even if the weather is as sour as your mood, you will feel better for having been outside for as little as half an hour. To be honest, you do not have to have a goal when you set out into the big wide world. Allow yourself to be aimless. Depression thrives on restrictions, so being outside without a definitive plan will help break the mood.

( Express Yourself during the Holidays to Avoid Depression )

Depression stifles who you are, turning your personality dull and making everyday tasks seem monumental. The weight of holiday depression can lead sufferers to believe that they are not good at anything, and that their efforts will just fail so nothing is worth trying. This creates a vicious cycle that can keep you from doing the things you truly enjoy. Depression will spiral out of control until you eventually begin to question your own identity. ( ( Depression feeds off of repetition. As you settle into your holiday routine, depression can come on rather quickly. A general rule as far as this goes is: Whatever depression tells you to do, do the opposite. Do not allow depression to take away what makes you who you are. Find something that you identify with, like music, exercising, or decorating, something that makes you active. Once you have found a way to express yourself — dancing, singing, painting — make time for this activity, as it will promote self-expression, which is one key to coping with depression. ( ( Accepting Depression and Coping with Emotions )

Depression, especially around the holidays, is common. It will never go away unless you take active steps in trying to defeat it. It may feel like an uphill battle the whole way, but it will be worth all the effort in the end.

Not only can these tips relieve depression around the holidays, they can be used whenever the feeling strikes. You are worth it!

OLD TIMES NOT FORGOTTEN

By Roland Miles

"BISCUITS"

The COONDOG

Personally, I think every red-blooded, American boy ought to go "coon" hunting at least twice, before he gets married. The first time he will probably, form the opinion that he likes, or doesn't like it. Either way, he still needs to go a second time, just to make sure he was right the first time.

After the second time, if he's convinced that he really likes it, then he should immediately start looking for a girl who likes to coon hunt too, and marry her right away, before some other coon hunter gets her. They tell me that eligible coon-hunting girls are hard to come by, because of the high demand and short supply.

In a time of short supply, you might have to settle for a possum-hunting girl. This is about all the marital advice I have. If you need help, (more complicated than this) you may have to consult a professional.

Once, when we were in high school, Lloyd Goad invited Dale Wofford and me, to go coon hunting with him. I had been one time before, but that was about ten years old, but that was a little too young to start thinking about a wife. So, I was ready for a second go at this.

Lloyd had several dogs, and he said they were all pretty good hunters, especially a female named, "Biscuits." Taking Lloyd up on his invite, the three of us, together with all the dogs, went over to the "Magic City" bridge, just south of Porter's ranch. We didn't leave Wheeler until dark and by the time we unloaded at the bridge, it was really dark!

The dogs quickly picked up the trail of a coon. They started running and baying. It was getting more exciting by the minute. We took off on foot running down the river bottom, trying to stay as close to the dogs as we could. Not easy in the dark, sand, and bushes. We stumbled, staggered, and fell, no telling how many times. Once, we even blundered right into a big bunch of geese that were on the ground. At first, there was so much commotion, I didn't know where to go. Then it occurred to me, stand still, the geese would clear out on their own. It didn't take them long to disappear into the dark. Our hearts were thumping pretty good from that encounter and excitement was running pretty high. Can't hardly wait for the dogs to "tree" a coon!

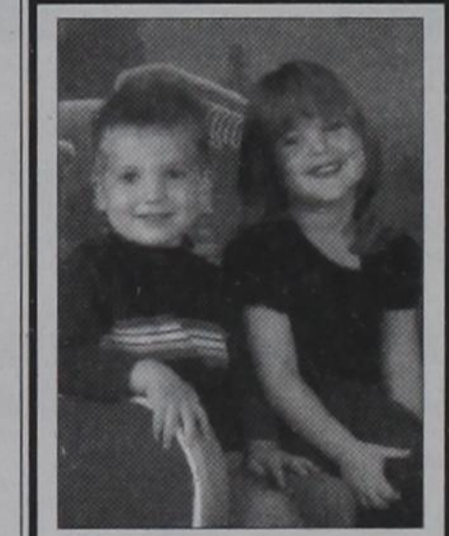

Every once in a while, Lloyd would say, "I hear "old Billy," I hear "old Jumbo," I hear "old Jackson," but I don't hear "old Biscuits." I was always amazed that coon hunters could tell which dog they were hearing. I figured that I just didn't have the finely tuned ears needed for the art of, "Coon Hunting." Dale, said he couldn't tell one dog's voice from any of the others either.

Lloyd, kept on wondering what had happened to old Biscuits, why wasn't she baying too, along with the rest? One of us just happened to look back and sure enough... there was old Biscuits, trotting along right behind us.

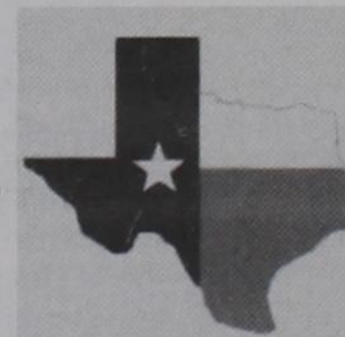

I suppose, even a top-notch hound like her, can have an "off day" too....

ALLISON NEWS

By Juanita Boydston

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king: and I will bless thy name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works. And men shall speak of thy fright of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. All the works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever. Psalm 145:1-21

The weather in Allison, Texas on this Tuesday morning is just beautiful out, very COLD, but just looking outside from within a warm house, it is beautiful. Praise the Lord for his goodness and mercy to us. For his keeping power. MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE and remember that JESUS IS THE REASON FOR THE SEASON!! And a BLESSED AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

The churches of the Community of Allison joined together in making cookies and then those gathered at the United Methodist Church helped to put the cookies into zip lock bags and then put trail mix in the zip lock bags and then put them and candy and packaged peanut butter crackers and cheese crackers into a Christmas bag that had a tag from all the churches here in Allison wishing all the people who received these bags a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Later in the day, several of the women went to the Wheeler Nursing and Rehab Center where Ariel Lohberger and her Junior High School Choir sang for the residents and then afterwards, punch was served and the goodie bags were given out as well. Then later in the afternoon, a few women went to the Assisted Living at Parkview Hospital and served them punch and delivered them bags of goodies. Everyone was happy and appreciated the refreshments very much. Thanks to all that planned and made this possible. There was several good workers that helped to bag the goodies and we wish to thank them as well.

The First State Bank of Mobeetie and the Wheeler Branch had their Christmas party for their employees Monday night and Juanita Boydston really did enjoy getting to entertain and visit with Justin and Stephanie Walker children, Tyler, Addison and Alyssa. They were very good and we ate and played games and had a great time.

'Tis the season to be joyous and happy and remember the birth of Jesus!!

God Bless and Keep ya'll till next time!!

STORMIE SHOPS AT OPEN HOUSE: There was a big Christmas Shop in Wheeler! I loved to look at all the pretty things. There were so many things to choose. Finally I found it! It was a beautiful pink butterfly for my hair! I had my birthday money from my "Brunkle" Mark (Meriwether). I spent some of my money, not all. I love the pretty bows and things for my hair!

Man Goes "TOAD-AL" at High School Reunion

BEXAR COUNTY - After using Thera-Gesic on aching joints, Tom W. attended last Friday's reunion where, according to 5 amused and concerned classmates, he went TOAD-AL. He squatted, extended both arms to the ground, arched his back and did his best to hop numerous times while croaking.

When asked to explain his behavior, he painlessly replied, "None of your dang business!"

And has determined that it is a health concern at levels above the MCL. Analysis of the drinking water in your community for NITRATE indicates a level of 16 mg/L. This violation occurred during the third quarter of 2010. Infants below the age of six months who drink water containing nitrate in excess of the MCL could become seriously ill and, if untreated, may die. Symptoms include shortness of breath and blue baby syndrome. If your child is under the age of six months, the

 Safely Delivering Renewable Energy from the Texas Panhandle

JOBS SALES TAX REVENUES RENEWABLE ENERGY

All of us at Cross Texas Transmission are excited about becoming long-time members of the community as we prepare to begin construction of our new high voltage transmission line in Childress, Collingsworth, Gray, and Wheeler counties. This line is part of the CREZ transmission system designed to deliver electricity generated from the Panhandle's wind resources to millions of homes and businesses in Texas. This project will create hundreds of construction jobs, generate millions of dollars in property and sales tax revenues, and will enable renewable power generation that does not create emissions or consume water. Simply put, this transmission line is good for the Panhandle and good for Texas.

We at Cross Texas want to express our thanks to the many local citizens and community leaders who have provided input to us. Your involvement has resulted in a better project than we could have accomplished alone.

As we prepare to begin construction, we look forward to continuing to work closely with land-owners and the community. If you have questions or concerns, please call us or stop by one of our two offices. We welcome the opportunity to visit with you.

Jessica Alls, Cierra Alvarado, Charmayne Hampton, Chantelle Hampton, Tannen McDermott, and Paloma Contreas participated in Senior Chapter Conducting. Teams conduct a mock chapter meeting to demonstrate knowledge of basic parliamentary law and the use of correct parliamentary procedures. At the conclusion of the meeting, team members are asked questions regarding parliamentary law. The Kelton FFA Sr. Chapter Conducting team placed 2nd in the Top of Texas District LDE and qualified to advance to Area 1 LDE Contest held at West Texas A&M University in Canyon, TX. Kelton placed 9th in Area in Sr. Chapter Conducting. Chantelle Hampton, Jessica

I noticed I failed to 'jump' the drawing winners story last week. I have the whole thing on page one this week.

Alls, Tannen McDermott, and Cierra Alvarado competed in the Sr. Quiz LDE. An exam testing team members' understanding of the FFA, agricultural education, current agricultural events and parliamentary procedure is given. Teams can be made of 3 or 4 members. The Kelton FFA Sr. Quiz Team placed 2nd in the Top of Texas District LDE and qualified to advance to the Area 1 CDE in Canyon at WTAMU. At area, this team placed 9th in Area 1.

We attended Stormie's performance in "The Nutcracker" Saturday evening. Seth called it, "Stormie's fancy dance."

We had two little ones in our group, Seth and Jayden Musae. They are both 2 1/2 and that was quite a long time to "be quiet". Jayden kept wanting to know where Stormie was.

child must be given an alternative water supply for any consumption. Boiling the affected water is not an effective treatment for nitrate removal.

Most consumers do not need to use an alternative water supply. However, if you have health concerns, you may want to talk to your doctor to get more information about how this may affect you. At this time, the health effects to fetuses of pregnant women is unclear. If you are pregnant, you may choose to use an alternative source of water for drinking and cooking purposes.

We are working to correct the problem.

WE NO LONGER USE THE WELL WITH THE HIGHEST LEVEL OF NITRATES, WHICH HAS LOWERED THE NITRATE LEVEL FROM 18.6 mg/L to 16 mg/L. Bottled water is available at no cost for the affected populations at City Hall. We are working with the City Engineer and getting technical support from TCEQ for an alternative water supply.
