Funeral Services Held Sunday for Willie Lee Keith

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Hammer Funeral Home Chapel for Willie Lee Keith, 1015 W. Main, Eastland, with burial in Desdemona.

Mr. Keith moved to Eastland approximately three years ago from the Mangum community. He was born in Menard Feb. 11, 1896 and died at his home on April 27.

Mr. Keith married Eunice Hobson June 5, 1921 in Hood County. Rev. Lee Fields and Rev. Gary Adams officiated at the services.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, Forrest D. of Tullia, Carl D. of Abilene, Melvin E. of Odessa and Billy, who is serving in the Air Force and stationed in Guam; five daughters, Mrs. Paul May of Olden, Mrs. Perry Vines of Lubbock, Mrs. Luther Black of Abilene, Mrs. Albert Honea of Abilene and Miss Judy Keith of the home. He is survived by 13 grandchildren.

Hoover Pittman Makes Statement Before Election

Here is the formal statement issued today by Hoover Pittman; In making my announcement for the office of Constable of Justice of the Peace Precinct No. 1, I wish to say that I have lived in Eastland the last 10 years. I own my home at 409 South Seaman Street and, with my wife, live at that place. We have two sons who, with their families, live in Eastland. J. D. is employed by the United States Postal Department as city letter carrier and owns his home on South Daugherty Street. James L. (Luce) owns and operates the Western Auto Store here. He owns his home on West Commerce Street.

I am well acquainted with the duties and responsibilities of the office of constable and feel that I am qualified to perform these duties. I earnestly solicit your vote when you go to the polls on Saturday May the seventh. I assure you that I, if elected, will give you the best service possible.

Hoover Pittman

Course Saturday and Sunday. Bradshaw began the second 18 hole round Sunday four strokes back of Bob Burch of Cisco, but carded a three over par 75 to pull into a one-stroke lead over Burch and win the tournament.

Burch's 77 led the field Saturday as a cold, north wind made relatively high scores the order of the day.

Clifton Beck of Eastland finished three strokes back of Bradshaw, to come in third, and was in contention for the lead until the 15th hole Sunday, where he took a double bogie, then came right back with an eagle on four par 16 to stay in the running.

Bradshaw scored a 36 hole total of 156, followed by Burch's 157 and Beck's 159.

In the first flight Onus Dick of Eastland took first place with a 36 hole total of 172, followed by W. L. Jacoby of Ranger with 174 and James Gilkey of Eastland and J. C. Swinney of Ranger tying for third with 175's.

The second flight was won by Clyde Reid of Ranger with a 36 hole total of 173, followed by Tommy Robinson of Ranger with 179 and Joe Stephens of Eastland with 180.

The third flight was won by Wallace Johnson of Ranger with 183, second went to Elton Ables of Eastland with 189 and third to Tommy Huling of Ranger with 193.

The last flight was won by John Dowd of Gorman, second place was won by Frank Kirk also of Gorman and third went to W. T. Stone of Eastland.

The tourney was 36 hole medal play, with 18 holes played Saturday and 18 Sunday. There were five flights consisting of eight players to the flight.

Savings Bonds Sales In County Total $189,993

March E and H Savings Bonds sales in Eastland County totaled $30,120 according to Guy Parker, chairman of the county Savings Bonds committee.

Sales for the first three months of 1960 were $189,993 which represents 36.5 per cent of the county 1960 goal. First quarter sales in Texas were $45,480,326 or 27.5 per cent of its 1960 goal of $165,500,000.

"Savings Bonds are an investment in the future. For years the Treasury Department sold bonds as a doorway to opportunity—a new home, college education, retirement, or some other dream of the future. But today the future itself is threatened. With the dawn of the missile age, the world is suddenly aware that one more war could be the last. The hope of the age is for peace—for some guarantee that there will be a future to look forward to. We must have Peace Power—the strength to keep the peace; the knowledge to make it lasting. Savings Bonds, in building economic stability, help strengthen America's peace power," James F. Stiles, Jr., National Director, said.

Mrs. Lucy Ables Dies; Funeral Services Monday

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Hammer Funeral Home Chapel for Mrs. Lucy Ables, 52, who died Sunday in Eastland Memorial hospital following major surgery.

Mrs. Ables resided at 305 N. Daugherty and had been a resident of Eastland for 15 years. She was born Jan. 9, 1908 in Taylor, Ark.

Officiating at the services were Rev. Davis Cooper, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, where she was a member, and Rev. Harvey Kimbler, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Burial was in the Eastland Cemetery.

Survivors include—her husband, H. C.; Four sons, Gerald, Gallon, J. D. and R. D., all of Eastland; one sister, Rosie Calland of Springfield, La., one brother, Grady Calland of Glendale, Calif. and three grandchildren.

Rains Are Blessing to Eastland County Area

Recent rains were a great blessing to our land in replenishing soil moisture. Fortunately our immediate vicinity to date has escaped the torrential floods and hail so common to this country at this season. In this area water is no less important than soil fertility for both forage and crop production. The amount of water we get into the soil during the month of May determines to a large extent the amount of forage we grow in our pastures each summer and has a big influence on the crop we harvest in the fall. May is also the month that nature exacts the greatest toll of our soil in payment for our misuse of the land.

The explosive energy of falling raindrops is the prime mover of soil and plant nutrients from our land. Any one wishing to observe this should put on their raincoat and take a walk during a heavy spring shower. They should first stoop down and watch the raindrops striking and churning bare ground, and then they should observe raindrops falling on a lush growth of green grass.

In an ordinary one-inch rain the energy expended on an acre of land is incredible. Actually the weight of the water alone is over one hundred tons. A single object of this weight falling out of the sky would rock the earth and blast out an enormous crater. In an ordinary rain each individual drop hitting the film of water on bar ground spurts up a small geyser one to three inches high. As the geyser settles back concentric waves are set in motion which keep the detached soil particles in suspension. The detached particles are carried into the air and then fall back into the soil.

A SINGLE DROP—Series of high speed photographs showing the effect of a single raindrop striking bare ground covered with a thin film of water. This explosive action of billions of individual raindrops is the destructive process that detaches soil particles to be either carried off in runoff water or to clog the natural pores of the soil.

County Vote May be Important In State

Eastland County may have a big say in the Democratic primary Saturday if reports from metropolitan areas in the state are true. Reports from Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and other large areas indicate that voting in those areas in the primary will be extremely light. The Dallas Morning News predicts that just a fifth of

Lee Horn Issues Statement In Race for Sheriff

Lee Horn, candidate for Sheriff of Eastland County, asked the voters to consider his record as a citizen and peace officer in deciding whom they will support in the Democratic Primary Election on Saturday, May 7.

Horn is a native of Eastland County and has spent practically all of his life in the county. He was an oil worker for many years until he joined the sheriff's department as a deputy in the early 1950s. After two years as a deputy, Horn was hired by the City of Cisco as chief of their police department.

Horn left the police chief's job early in the year to devote full time to running for the office of sheriff. He is a veteran of World War I, is a Mason and a church member. Mr. and Mrs. Horn have one son, Jack, who was transferred recently by Texas Electric Service Company to Graham after being in Eastland a number of years.

Personally acquainted with all law enforcement officers in this region, Horn said he would be able to assume the sheriff's job with full knowledge of the duties, responsibilities and acquaintances helpful in the discharge of those duties.

"I firmly believe that my experience as a police officer, including two years as a deputy sheriff, fully qualify me for this important position," Horn said. "Everyone has my pledge that I will operate the sheriff's office for all of the people's best interests and well being."

"My familiarity with the FBI, state police and county authority will make it easy for me to render complete service from the first day I take office. I am a native of the county and would be able to deal with all sections and people as one of them."

"In making my bids for the office, I have tried very hard to visit every voter. Those whom I might have missed have my earnest pledge of complete honesty and hard work at all times in office. I will very sincerely appreciate their vote and support."

MARIE BONEY SAYS: Parenthood's Two Phases Explained

By MARIE BONEY

There are two distinct phases of parenthood: the Age of Innocence and Help!

The first one begins the day you take baby from the hospital. To pin-point it exactly, it is the moment you start to pay the bill. Do not stagger too much. Look not into the future. Thrust all thought of cod liver oil, bottles, diapers, clothing, injections and vaccinations from your mind. Under no circumstances should you consider the photographer's bill for the Very First Picture.

This phase lasts until the child is six years old. It is known as the Age of Innocence because those going through it think the cost of rearing children lies in the above mentioned items.

They lose their belief only when they are required to pay F. T. A. dues; Girl Scout dues; Boy Scout dues; buy a balanced baton, pay the twirling teacher; buy a piano, pay the music teacher; buy a football, pay for the neighbor's window.

Then there are workbooks and readiness tests; the Halloween carnival and the Christmas party. The oldest child needs a bunny suit for the Easter play—and the second child won't be able to use it next year because he'll be a sunflower in the same play. Don't tell me they don't have sunflowers in an Easter play. I have been to Parent's Night before.

Another item is the "little remembrance" for the teacher at the end of the year. She looks as though she has already had this group etched upon her memory forever. You look at Junior's report card and wish you hadn't spent so much. Be patient. Before summer vacation is over, you'll realize what a bargain you got.

And as Junior greets everything you say with a blank stare and a wrung-foam-the-heart-huh!, you'll wonder if maybe the teacher didn't stretch a little to pass him. You must discard these notions quickly, however, as they could lead to a guilt complex and you certainly have no money for such luxuries.

Do not hesitate to scream help! occasionally as this will keep you off the couch the psychoanalyst has reserved for parents. Let him support his family; your own daughter needs a new recital dress. Besides Junior's licking that football again!

Rair-

drop is a soil cover for cushioning its impact. In a soil which is well covered with grass or any type plant residue raindrops are broken into a fine spray which settles harmlessly. The clear water trickles down the grass litter into the soil and the natural channel of percolation remain open for the free movement of both water and air.

All known soil and water conservation measures may be divided into two categories—those that cover the soil from the explosive rain drop and those earth moving and shaping practices for controlling the speed or detention of runoff water. Obviously earth moving practices, whether they be small terraces or enormous dams, must be supported by vegetative cover on the watershed above them. Any structure built by man is soon choked with silt unless the water shed where the rain falls is not covered with vegetation.

Was Her Brother-In-Law Invited?

Dear Mrs. Post: I live next door to my in-laws. This past week-end my brother-in-law (single and living at home with his parents) had guests (his girl friend and two other friends). Having met them previously, my husband and I went over to say "hello." Upon leaving, we asked them if they would like to come over to our house for a cocktail. They accepted. They stayed about two hours and seemed to be enjoying themselves. I have heard since that my brother-in-law resented our doing this and thinks that we had no right to take his guests away. Will you please tell me if we were wrong?

Answer: It would have been inconceivably rude of you to have invited your brother-in-law's guests without inviting him too, so I assume that you did. And if you did invite him, and all four came to your house, you were not taking his guests away from him and there was no reason for his resenting your action.

Tactfully Showing One's Sympathy Dear Mrs. Post: When meeting those in great sorrow, what should be said or done? I always feel so awkward and never know what to say.

Answer: To those in great sorrow you press their hands warmly—perhaps if you know them well, kiss them tenderly and say, "I'm so sorry." But you do not ply them with questions. If they want to talk to you, you listen and answer sympathetically; otherwise you move away without forcing them to talk. Your sympathy is shown in the expression of your face, the tone of your voice and the warmth of your handclasp.

Drinking From A Champagne Glass Dear Mrs. Post: Is a champagne glass held by the stem or by the bowl? It seems rather large to be held by the stem but I am told this is the correct way.

Answer: It is held with the thumb and index finger partially around the under side of the bowl and the other finger against the stem (not jutting out into the air).

May I Call You Back?

Dear Mrs. Post: Lately I was at the house of a friend whose telephone rang, literally, the entire half hour I was there. I realized my friend couldn't help this but all of her conversations went on and on while I sat silent. Isn't there some rule to cover this situation? Couldn't she, for instance, have asked the person calling to call back later, or would this have been rude to the person on the telephone?

Answer: If the telephone message was of real importance, she would have had to listen. But if the calls were from intimate friends who call often, she should have answered as briefly as possible, and if necessary, have added that she was busy with a visitor and please to call her back later, or to have been more polite and offered to call her back.

Stepfather Is Rightfully Hurt

Dear Mrs. Post: My stepdaughter is to be married soon and the invitations to her wedding have been made up in my wife's name alone which I discovered just today when the invitations came back from the engravers. I have been this girl's stepfather for ten years and have supported her up until a year ago when she started to earn her own living. I feel hurt at being omitted but my wife claims that as long as the girl's father is living, it is not proper to include my name on the wedding invitations. Will you please tell me if this is correct?

Answer: Your wife is wrong. The invitations should very definitely have included your name. However, the third line of the invitation should read, "her daughter" instead of "their daughter."

Eating Shrimp

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the proper way to eat shrimp? I have observed people picking the shrimp up by the tail with their fingers and dipping the shrimp into the sauce. Is this correct?

Answer: No, they should be eaten with a fork and not in the fingers.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflet on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-3, entitled "The Clothes of the Bridal Party," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E. P., care of (this newspaper), P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Misquitoes Rob Land of Moisture

Mesquite robs 55 million acres of Texas rangelands of precious moisture and plant nutrients each year. Often it is necessary to control mesquite in order that the ranch achieve and maintain the highest production.

The ranchman seeks the most economical control of mesquite consistent with highest livestock production, and at the same time conserving natural resources. A variety of chemical and mechanical methods or a combination of them can be used to solve individual problems.

"Mesquite Control" is a new extension publication which goes into detail on the different chemical and mechanical methods of control which can be used. Extension Range Specialist G. O. Hoffman and B. J. Ragsdale, authors of the publication, point out that grass recovery usually is much slower on mechanically controlled areas than where mesquite is controlled with chemicals. However, some brush plants, generally various kinds of underbrush, cannot be controlled with chemicals because of their resistance to selective herbicides.

When selective herbicides are used for mesquite control, resistant plants may make faster growth and become a greater problem than when mesquite was the dominant brush.

Mechanical methods for mesquite control include hand grubbing, rolling choppers, root cutters, anchor chains, bulldozers, shredders, stingers and root plows. These methods should be practiced during the season when existing turf can make the fastest recovery and obtain the highest degree of brush kill. Reseeding with adapted native grasses at the time of mechanical operations which break the turf is necessary for fast and permanent range recovery.

Chemicals which may be used include kerosene, diesel oil, and growth regulators. Two good growth regulators are 2, 4, 5-T and monuron. If 2, 4, 5-T is used, utmost care must be taken in its application. The publication discusses the steps which must be observed.

Local county agents have copies of this publication. It may be obtained by writing the Agricultural Information Office, College Station. Ask for MP-386.

Double Seven Club Meets With Judy Lewis Fri.

Judy Lewis hosted the members of the Double Seven Club at their regular meeting Friday.

Becky McAllister called the meeting to order and the members repeated the club motto after which Shirley Smith led the group in the Lord's Prayer.

Old and new business of the club was discussed and the meeting was adjourned.

Refreshments of Cokes and cake were served to the following members: Wanda Arthur, Becky McAllister, Carole McCleskey, Kay Morton, Judy Seaberry, Shirley Smith, Carol Walter and the hostess.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Becky McAllister, for L-475.

Martha Dorcas Class Hosted by Mrs W. A. Martin

Mrs. W. A. Martin, 1103 S. Seaman, was house hostess to the members of the Martha Dorcas Sunday school class of the Methodist Church.

The devotional was given in a very inspiring way by Mrs. W. P. Leslie. Mrs. Jo M. Perkins brought some very interesting highlights of her travels in this and other countries.

The tea table was beautifully decorated with an array of spring flowers under a canopy of colorful miniature umbrellas presided over by Mrs. Harris and Mrs. White.

The co-hostesses presented Mrs. Martin with an arrangement of pink carnations. Members of the hostess party other than Mrs. Martin were Meses. Jesse Harbin, D. C. Frost, W. B. Harris, Walter Gray and Taylor Smith.

Demo Primary Not for GOP, Connally Says

Texas Republicans today were bluntly informed that the Democratic Primary on May 7 is open to Democrats only.

A "Gop Keep-Out" sign was erected by State Democratic Chairman J. E. Connally of Abilene.

Connally declared: "The purpose behind the State's new 'Party Affiliation' law is to keep members of one political party from participating in the affairs of another party.

"A person who votes in the Democratic Primary on May 7 will have his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate stamped 'Democrat', and this affiliates him with the Democratic Party. He cannot then participate in the Republican Party during the poll tax year.

"The policy behind this new law was laid down at our last State Democratic Convention. Our platform on party integrity calls for strengthening laws relating to primaries and conventions to keep people within their own parties. The Legislature amended the Texas Election Code to incorporate this policy under a 'Party Affiliation' law.

"The State Democratic Executive Committee has had many inquiries from people who want to vote in the Democratic Party's primary on May 7, and then take part in Republican conventions. This can't be done, under our new laws. A person affiliates himself as either a Democrat or a Republican on May 7. He can't be both."

Here Are the Reasons YOU Should Vote For DON KINCAID For State Representative

Don Kincaid can and will serve all of the people of Eastland, Shackelford and Callahan counties. He does not have a feud to settle. The citizens of this district have had to put up with candidates with axes to grind long enough. It's time for a change, and a change to a candidate being run by the same faction which has waged a running fight with the incumbent candidate for years is not the change we need. The 76th District deserves a man with the courage to fight for the rights of this district.

Here Are Some of the Things DON KINCAID can offer you:

1. A determined effort to keep the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals in this district.
2. An all out fight to see that our farm and ranch people have a voice in Austin.
3. An honest endeavor to help your children by helping the people who mold their minds—the school teachers.
4. A sound businesslike approach to our State's serious financial problems.
5. An open mind to suggestions from all of the citizens he will serve.

DON KINCAID WILL MAKE THE 76th DISTRICT A REPRESENTATIVE OF WHICH WE CAN BE PROUD.

May 1-7 Is Observed As National Music Week By Music Study Club

May 1 to May 7 has been proclaimed as The 37th National Music Week in Eastland. Wednesday is guest day and at 3:30 p.m. a program will be presented with Mrs. R. L. Carpenter as leader. The program will consist of a hymn, "Lead Us, O Father," by Burleigh-Langran; a piano solo by Weldon Brausard, a student in the Drago studio; two numbers by Sandy Taylor, a student at Ranger Junior College accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Andy Taylor and a piano solo by Patricia Ann Liles, a student of Mrs. A. F. Taylor.

Gretchen Hailey and Marsha White will then play a piano duet. They are pupils of Mrs. F. L. Drago and Jan Robertson, senior high student of Mrs. Taylor will give a piano solo. Another open program will be given by Mrs. Jack Frost, student of Dr. Richard C. von Ende, Dean of the Fine Arts Department of McMurry College in Abilene Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in the Woman's Club.

Friends of the Music Study Club and of those on the program are especially invited to be guests at the program in the Woman's Club.

Ruth Class Holds Monthly Party in Wright Home Tues.

The Ruth Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. James E. Wright, 303 E. Satoma, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday for their monthly class party and business meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. John Megason followed by a brief business meeting conducted by Mrs. R. D. Kelley. After revealing secret pals the members decided to discontinue them. A letter was then read to the class from Dr. Billy P. Smith in appreciation of the luncheon given in his honor during the revival.

Mrs. Wright read the minutes and gave a summary of the month's business. The lesson was given by Mrs. Kelley, who read the beatitudes from the book of Matthew, which were then discussed by the class.

Game time was under the direction of Mrs. M. A. Treadwell, Sr. The games were interesting as well as educational.

Mrs. J. O. Jolly closed the meeting with prayer after which refreshments of filled angel food cake, mints and frosted punch were served to Mrs. Jolly, Kelley, Naomi Kinchloe, Gene Rhodes, Megason, Charles Layton, James Johnson and Treadwell, Sr. by the hostess, Mrs. Wright and the co-hostess, Mrs. Warren Chapman.

Do You Know This Man?

Scott Bailey

Do you know Scott Bailey? We, his friends in Eastland, know him well. We believe that Scott Bailey is the best qualified man in the race for State Representative for this district. He is qualified, not by experience, but by his honesty, integrity, and his training and education. Scott Bailey is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, of Cisco Junior College, and he has done graduate work at the University of Texas. We know that Scott Bailey got this education the hard way; he worked for every cent that he has ever spent. When his country called him during the Korean conflict, Scott Bailey went as a common soldier even though he could have had a commission with the education that he had completed. Scott Bailey has never asked for special favors or treatment, and he never will. He served 16 months in Korea with the Famed "Buffalo Regiment" of the 7th Infantry Division and received numerous decorations for hard service. Scott Bailey is not running on his Military Record however; he is running on a platform of integrity and common sense. He will promise special favors to no one and he will measure all issues by the same yardstick. For the past two years Scott has been a bonafide, full-time school teacher, and he is qualified to help solve some of the many problems concerning the State School System that have arisen in the last few years. Scott Bailey is a bachelor, he is unencumbered with the usual expenses that attend most of us, and, frankly, in our opinion, he is the only one of the candidates in the race that can live on the average pay that this job affords.
