Mrs. Pauline Cossey, daughter of Mrs. C. L. Harrell of Route one, Eastland, was on the screen of the Majestic Theatre Thursday night.

LITTLE LEAGUE MEET TONIGHT

A Little League meeting will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Service Co. meeting room.

Majestic Theater Marks 15th Year with Celebration 'Best Show Place In the Southwest'

Fifteen years ago in Eastland, the Majestic Theater opened amid gala ceremonies. The Ranger High School band paraded in downtown Eastland and gave a half-hour concert in front of the theatre before a 7:30 p.m. opening.

MANAGER—Bill Samuels has been manager of the Majestic for the past year but will be leaving Eastland Feb. 28th to assume management of the Realto theater in Denison.

Interstate Began With Idea at World Fair

The man who has made the Interstate Theater slogan "Dedicated to Community Service" a fact, and not just a slogan, is Karl Hoblitzelle, president of the 55-year-old pioneering corporation.

So on April 26, 1905, Karl and his brother George contributed enough capital to form the Interstate Amusement Co. The infant vaudeville circuit opened to the public about the middle in 1904 and by December, theatres were leased and operated in Jacksonville, Fla., and a new house built in Wichita, Kans.

operations in Texas. By 1935, Karl Hoblitzelle was more active than ever as president of both Interstate Circuit, Inc., and Texas Consolidated Theatres.

Theater Operation Requires Many Hands

The Majestic Theater is an asset to Eastland County in more ways than one. For instance, it requires at least ten people to keep the performances available within its beautiful walls.

The West Just Isn't The Same

Inquiries among Eastlanders as to what they remembered about the old Connellee Theatre, from which the Majestic was built, brought this interesting observation:

Youngster Cut By Broken Door

Randy Temple, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Temple, received minor cuts on his hands when a plate-glass door broke, when he ran into it at the Fiesta Bowl Bowling Alley Tuesday evening.

Ranger Woman Indicted By Grand Jury

The Eastland County grand jury indicted Mrs. John T. Roberson of Ranger on a charge of assault with intent to murder Friday afternoon. The grand jury was called into session Thursday by 91st District Judge Turner Collier.

Mrs. Roberson was released on $1500 bond, made by her attorney.

In part, the indictment read: "... with malice aforethought in and upon Nancy Pennington (Mrs. Roberson) did make an assault with the intent then and there to murder the said Nancy Pennington."

Charges grew out of an auto collision in Ranger Feb. 8. The collision involved a car driven by Mrs. Roberson and another car driven by Mrs. Pennington. Mrs. Pennington was hospitalized in the Ranger General Hospital with two fractures of the left leg and another fracture of her left arm.

Eastland; Cisco Youths Honored At Party Here

Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Church of the First Methodist Church were hostesses for the annual Valentine banquet honoring the youth of the Eastland and Cisco Methodist churches Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the Fellowship Hall of the local church.

The hall was beautifully decorated in the Valentine motif with red and white streamers hanging from the ceiling. Large red and gold hearts were noted as wall decor and red and white place mats with Valentine napkins complimented the serving table. Decorating for the event was done by the Cisco Youth department. Rev. Bill Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Eastland was speaker for the evening and special music was furnished by the high school quartet, accompanied by Patricia Liles at the piano.

Clark Conner served as Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

J. B. Tankersley and Ann Huffman were chosen King and Queen. They were escorted to places at the head table and were crowned by Eddie Dry. Queen Ann was presented a dozen red roses by Clark Conner.
