

Commission Reports Compulsory Training 'Urgent Military Necessity'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The nation heard from a commission of nine prominent civilians today that the compulsory training of up to 950,000 American youths a year is an "urgent military necessity."

The committee, which also recommended that other multi-billion dollar outlays for national defense be to invite "ex-termination," President Truman's advisory commission on universal training declared. The group painted this bleak picture of the future if its warning goes unheeded:

"Our monopoly of the atomic bomb" and the availability of battle-trained veterans of World War II may serve as insurance against a sneak assault on the American homeland.

But the precipitate drop in the nation's state of readiness—"our military forces are a hollow shell"—will encourage "those to whom weakness on the part of peace-loving nations is a passport to aggression."

Other countries who share our democratic ideals will lose faith. And then: "The mantle of totalitarianism will spread its darkness over still larger sections of the earth, increasing the peril to us and narrowing the company of those on whose aid we can count in the search for lasting peace."

The document was drafted and signed unanimously by the nine members of the commission headed by Dr. Karl T. Compton, scientist and president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The note of urgency which the commission gave its findings was not echoed immediately in Congress. There was every indication that that aside from possible enactment on an Army-Navy unification bill this summer—A companion step urged by the commission—any long-range defense program will have to await the next session beginning in January.

The Compton group asserted: "The only basis on which universal training should be accepted, in our opinion, is a demonstration that it is needed to insure our safety in a world in which peace is not yet secure."

HOUSE APPROVES INCOME TAX CUTTING BILL

U. S. Cancels Credit to Hungary

Half $30 Million Credit Had Not Been Utilized

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall today ordered suspension of an unused half of a $30,000,000 credit to Hungary, where a Pro-Communist regime has just been set up with Russian support.

In a statement Marshall also said the United States "wishes every success" for the new non-Communist Italian regime formed by Prime Minister Alcide de Gasperi. He said:

"We shall continue to give aid to the Italian people who have demonstrated their sincere and abiding faith in democratic processes for the preservation of their individual liberties and basic human rights."

Marshall made no promise when or how the credit would be given. A department official noted that Marshall has said there were many ways in which this government could help Italy in its postwar difficulties.

A mission for the export-import bank is in Italy now examining the basis for an Italian request for a $100,000,000 loan.

Ex-Hungarian Speaker of House Leaves Country

Another Spring, Another Visit

BUDAPEST—(AP)—A reliable informant said today that Bela Varga, speaker of the house and No. 2 man in the government of former Premier Ferenc Nagy, had fled Hungary to avoid Communist arrest and was presumed to be in the American zone of Austria.

The informant, a close friend of Varga, said that the speaker was driven last night to Copron, near the Austrian border in Northwestern Hungary, and he planned to dash across the Russian zone to the American area.

"I know he was met by a reliable guide with a fast car, and I presume he safely got across," the informant said.

Varga is a Catholic priest, 50, a big man well over six feet in height. His home parish town is Balaton Boglar, on the Southern shore of Lake Balaton in Southwest Hungary.

His decision to flee came Saturday after he presided against his will over the Parliament Political Committee meeting which confirmed the appointment of Laszlo Dinnyes, a leftwing member of the Small Holders Party, as premier.

Pastoral Change Announced for Harrah Methodist

Government to Buck Grain Market For Future Supplies for Wheat

The Rev. Grady Adcock, former minister of the Harrah Methodist Church, here, has been appointed pastor of the First Methodist Church at Silverton, it was announced yesterday at the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference at Amarillo.

The Rev. Charles E. Gates, former minister of the First Methodist Church at Vega, has been named to the Harrah pastorate. The former Clarendon District Superintendent T. M. Johnston was assigned to Vernon and the Rev. W. E. Hamilton was named to supervise this area.

The Rev. Adcock, who has served as minister of the Harrah Methodist Church for the past two conference years, will leave with his wife and two children for his new assignment at Silverton in the next few days.

The international Emergency Food Council, inter-government agency which divides scarce foods among importing countries, has termed the situation in this pre-harvest period more critical in some countries than in any other year.

The government was said to have concluded that if a federal purchase price were set for wheat and other grain, it would be a valuable time would be lost in getting supplies overseas.

Senate Sanction Expected Tuesday

United States Of Europe Gets Laboratory Test

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House stamped its final approval today on Republican-backed legislation to reduce income taxes July 1 by $4,000,000,000 annually. Routine Senate sanction is expected to follow tomorrow.

The bill then would go to President Truman, confronting him with one of his biggest decisions since the GOP took control of Congress—the question whether to veto it. The President has contended this is not the time for tax-cutting.

The legislation, first bill introduced in the House when Congress convened in January, would trim individual income taxes from 10.5 to 30 percent beginning July 1. Here's how it works:

1. Wage tax withholdings would be reduced July 1.

2. The tax slash on an annual basis would be 30 percent for persons with taxable income (after exemptions and deductions) of $1,000 or less. This would mean the 30 percent would apply to single persons with total earnings, before exemptions and deductions, up to $1,556; married persons $2,222; married couples with one child $2,777; married couples with two children, $3,333.

Wreck Fatal to Former Pampa

Murderer Dies in Huntsville Chair

Morris S. Johnson, 44, former resident here and brother of local citizens, died at 5 p. m. yesterday at a Clinton, Okla., hospital from injuries received early Saturday evening in an auto accident near that city.

Mr. Johnson until a year ago was connected with Rutherford Enterprises here, operating the Johnson Refrigeration Service. He had been in the refrigeration business at Amarillo at the time of his death.

The accident occurred as he and a business associate, Horace Whistler, were en route to Oklahoma City on business. Blinded by an approaching car, Johnson applied his brakes which locked and overturned the car. He had head lacerations and internal injuries.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Norma June, a son, Ronald, who is with the Marines near Guam; father, a brother, Mose Johnson of Pampa; a sister, Mrs. Clarence Kennedy of Pampa, and the following other sisters, all of Lubbock: Mrs. B. Court Postponed Because of Error

City Considers Water Well Bids

Because of an error by the Court on May 5, the 31st District Civil Court here was again postponed until July 7, this morning.

Only 16 men of the 25 man panel reported for petit jury duty today. Most of the absentees had moved from Gray County since May 5 when the cases set for that date were postponed.

Judge Lewis M. Goodrich explained to the talsmen that when he dismissed them May 5 and ordered them to reappear today he had forgotten they were a new term of Court and a new jury would have to be impaneled. He added the Court should have recalled the jurors on May 26 instead of June 2.

As a result 16 men were discharged by the Court and reported to the District Clerk to draw their pay.

Approximately 18 cases have been set for the July 7 session of District Civil Court. Several of these have been newly set while others have been reset.

City Considers Water Well Bids

The hearing for bids on the city's new water well were opened this morning by the City Commission. Up until noon no definite action was taken on the acceptance of any bid or awarding of any contract.

Tenth Annual High School Baseball Tournament Starts at Dallas Today

DALLAS—(AP)—The tenth annual Texas High School Baseball Tournament with Hondo's unbeaten Owls and Austin as favorites opens here today with Longview clashing with Adornson in Dallas in the first game scheduled at 2 p. m.

Sixteen teams will vie for the championship won by Adornson last year. The Dallas nine is strong again but lacks the fine pitching of 1946.

A dark-horse is Amarillo's Golden Sandies with their stout south-paw pitcher, Bob Henry, but when it comes to pitching none of the teams boast one with a better record than Carrollton with its Billy Joe Fletcher, who has a strike-out record of 149 against 262 batters and has given up only 21 hits and nine runs in 74 innings.

Today's schedule:

2 p. m.—Longview vs. Adornson, 4 p. m.—Carrollton vs. Waco, 7:30 p. m.—Poly (Fort Worth) vs. Highland Park (Dallas), 9:30 p. m.—North Dallas vs. Sulphur Springs.

Tuesday Hondo meets Lubbock, south Park (Beaumont) clashes with Amarillo, Austin tackles Bowie (El Paso) and Corpus Christi battles St. Thomas (Houston).

All the teams competing here are district champions in the Texas Interscholastic League program.

Today's games all will be at Reverechon Park but starting tomorrow

Jacksonville Wins Over Lufkin 4 to 3

Lufkin and Longview muffed chances to take over second place completely in the Lone Star League and as a result today are still deadlocked behind Jacksonville.

Lufkin went down to Jacksonville, 4-3, yesterday as Tommy Reed singled home the winning run in the ninth inning.

Kilgore pounded out 17 hits for 33 bases in defeating Longview, 13-10. Joe Kracher, Marshall Brown and Sanders each hit home runs for Kilgore, while Jess Landrum hit one for Longview.

A ninth-inning rally gave Henderson a 2-0 victory over Marshall and Tyler had an easy time with Bryan, 15-7.

New Yorkers Hoping To See Subway Series

by The Associated Press

Jubilant New York fans, envisioning the possibility of their first Giant-Yankee Subway World Series since 1937, proudly pointed today to the slugger Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees and Johnny Mize of the Giants as the belting belthitters who may lead their respective clubs into the October classic.

DiMaggio, after a slow start, is hitting on all cylinders again, looking more and more like the DiMago of old. In the past two weeks, the cleric of the DiMaggio brothers has upped his batting average more than 100 points and is now breathing holy on the neck of teammate George McQuinn, who is the individual batting leader of the American League. He is currently hitting .352, two points under McQuinn.

Inspired by Joe's hitting spree, the Yankees have kicked off their opponents nine times in their last 12 starts to advance from second division to second place.

Just as DiMaggio has sparked the Yankees, he has Mize's counterpart, the Giants' Earl Torgeson, by one with 35 runs batted in.

Mize's superior slugging is the number one reason Met O's charges are leading the Chicago Cubs by one-half game.

DiMaggio banged two round trippers yesterday, one with the bases loaded to lead the Yankees to an 11-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians before 47,132 fans at Municipal Stadium. With the first game of the double header delayed by rain, the second was halted by darkness.

Mize contributed five hits in eight times at bat as the Giants came from behind to earn a split with the Cincinnati Reds before 48,765 fans at the Polo Grounds. The Reds, aided by Eddie Miller's 10th home run in the ninth inning with one on, won the opener 5-3, but the Giants slugged out a 13-9 victory in the nightcap.

Clyde McCullough's triple after Bob Sturgeon had reached first on Jim Tabor's error in the eighth inning broke a 3-3 tie and sent the Chicago Cubs a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies before 14,841 rooters in Philadelphia.

The Boston Braves advanced into third place, one game behind the Giants, by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader, 2-0 and 8-7, with the Pittsburgh Pirates in Boston.

Rookie righthander Harry Taylor came through with another fine pitching performance, holding the St. Louis Cardinals to five hits in hurling the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-1 win at Ebbets Field.

Home runs by Jeff Heath and Vern Stephens, combined with the six-hit pitching of Jack Kramer, gave the St. Louis Browns an easy 7-2 win over the Philadelphia Athletics. Rain washed out the second game of the scheduled double header in St. Louis.

Rain also caused the postponement of twin bills between Chicago and Boston and Washington and Detroit in the American League.

Crucial Play in Big State League Slated

By The Associated Press

Texarkana and Greenville square off in a two-game series today that can determine the pattern for the Big State League.

Holding a slight seven percentage point lead over Texarkana, Greenville will be host for the two games. A third team with more than a passing interest in the series at Greenville is Wichita Falls, only one percentage point behind second place Texarkana.

Paris snapped Greenville's 14-game winning streak, 9-6, yesterday while Texarkana took a 30-5 drubbing from Sherman. In other games, Wichita Falls downed Austin, 7-5, and Gainesville defeated Waco, 7-5.

Paris scored five runs in less than two innings over three hits off Bill Walker, and the Red Peppers added to their lead the remainder of the game.

Padres Stumble Into Cellar; New Manager Will Be Named

By The Associated Press

Jimmy Adair became the first casualty among Texas League managers Saturday when San Antonio hit the cellar. Today, the Missions had no room left.

The plottless Padres split a twin bill with Beaumont yesterday, losing the opener, 4-2, and taking the nightcap, 7-6. Tulsa dropped back into third place, Dallas skidded into fourth on a 5-4 defeat at the hands of Oklahoma City.

After first announcing Saturday Adair would be retained as manager of the Missions, San Antonio Club officials that night dismissed the onetime "Wonder Boy." Marc Carrola handled the team during Saturday night's game, and Mission officials gave no indication as to when a new manager would be named.

Newspaper reports Saturday from San Antonio said Rodney Whaley, former Minor League player and manager, had been contacted regarding the Mission job.

Adair last year guided the Missions to a first place in the league star wars and a spot in the Shaughnessy playoffs.

Nick Gregory's home run with the bases loaded in the last inning of the season tonight, fell short and Pop Worth hung on to second place. Burton Barkelew pitched Beaumont to its victory in the opener against San Antonio, when the Missions broke loose for the 13th inning to gain a split before the biggest crowd of the year at Beaumont—5,284.

Al Rosen's home run in the second inning started Oklahoma City on 13-hit spree that Dallas couldn't match.

Hank Oana will make his first start since the opening game of the season tonight, when Dallas plays host to Oklahoma City in the finale of a three-game series. The big, 28-game winner of last year has been out with a sore arm and should be back in action.

Tulsa winds up tonight at Fort Worth, as do Houston at Shreveport and San Antonio at Beaumont.

Phalanx Mulls Better Further

NEW YORK—(AP)—Aside from indicating that Phalanx must have studied Chilean in his youth, the Belmont stakes proved only that the three-year old champion is still as scrambled as your morning eggs, and that it will take the Chicago summer galloping to straighten the matter out.

Phalanx showed his linguistic abilities definitely Saturday by bouncing in with the Belmont by five lengths to finally make some amends—at $60-for-$2 per amend—for his fancy flopperoo in the Derby and Preakness.

Up to the Belmont, he had been exposed to Kentucky Italian, as spoken by Eddie Arcaro—and he got no place in a hurry. But Saturday trainer Syd Veitch made a switch and put Chilean Ruperto Donoso aboard for the Belmont. And when Ruperto asked the gentleman from Virginia the same questions he couldn't answer for Eddie, the gentleman turned out to be the entire quiz program.

Faultless, who pranged in the Preakness and whizzed in the Withers, was supposed to win the Belmont. This was to have made him a shoe-in for the three-year old crown. The customers were so sure of it they backed him down to 3 to 4 and burned up more than $318,000 on him in the mutuels.

Instead, after getting up to Phalanx's flank, just before the field straightened out for home, Faultless began to falter. He faltered all the way to the wire to finish fifth, ten lengths away from the head end, and trailing Phalanx, Tide Rips, Tip Top and Young Peter in that order.

game Lloyd Ribby and George Sprys, with three and four hits respectively, added the Red Peppers' cause.

Greenville picked up four runs in the first inning, but wilted until the eighth when it added two more.

Sherman's 23-hit attack was too much for Texarkana. Included in the total were two home runs each for Don Stokes and Bill Atwood and one each for Ray Taylor, Buck Friterson and Bill McClaren. George Washington hit for the circuit for Texarkana.

Four double plays and six unearned runs proved the difference between Gainesville and Waco.

Wichita Falls came from behind a lead Woody Bell gave Austin with a two-run home run in the first inning.

Cellar Dwellers Blast Longhorn Leaders 13-9

By The Associated Press

Evors, hits and runs were plentiful in the Longhorn League yesterday, with cellar-dwelling Sweetwater handing league-leading Big Spring a surprising 13-8 walloping.

The Sports used a triple play and a double play to good advantage in protecting a lead they held from the second inning to the finish.

Davis' three-run home run in the ninth inning gave Midland the first game of two with Ballinger, 6-3, but Ballinger came back to take the nightcap, 6-4.

In another twin bill, Vernon and Odessa split. Vernon won the opener, 7-6, and Odessa the nightcap, 12-5.

Range's Hitting Leads Oilers to Win Over Dukes

By The Associated Press

Tony Range banged Albuquerque pitching for three hits in four times at bat Sunday night to lead the Pampa Oilers to a 7-4 victory over the Dukes in the series finale. The prize wallop of Range's collection was a home run over the distant left field wall in the eighth inning with a runner on base.

The Dukes had scored a run in the eighth inning, Saturday night, on a walk, a sacrifice, an infield hit and an error by Tom O'Connell to break a tie and whip the Oilers 4-3.

The Oilers scored five runs on four hits in that round, Chased Oscar Poteet to the showers and got their last two tallies off a new left hander, Raymond Wells. They previously had scored twice in the second inning on Range's double and singles by Fortin and Seitz.

Al Johnston held the Dukes at bay for six innings, but John Bortarini bumped him for a home run over the left field fence with a runner on base. Seitz broke the tie in the seventh to put the Dukes in the ball game. They jumped him for six hits and four runs in the eighth but the rally fell short and he set them down in order in the ninth.

WE, THE WOMEN

Don't Blame the Men if They're Bored

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer
Married women are forever complaining about the tendency of husbands at social gatherings to gang up in one corner of the room or drift off one by one to another room, leaving the women to amuse themselves.

They? They ignore the fact that men find all of the following topics either dull or downright annoying: Household problems, such as maid trouble, high prices, and house-cleaning. Taking an absent woman over the coals, however sweetly it is done. Discussions on interior decorating.

Actually the women are to blame for this state of affairs, aren't they? They ignore the fact that men find all of the following topics either dull or downright annoying: Household problems, such as maid trouble, high prices, and house-cleaning.

Ready Made Food From Grocer Aids New Homemakers

June and Christmas—almost as traditional as Christmas and Santa Claus! And as sure as wedding bells chime, there's a new bride marching down the aisle to face the joys and trials of homemaking. Even if the new bride has never twisted a can opener, she can take heart from the old saying, "If you can read, you can cook." While learning to cook may not be quite that easy, it really isn't difficult if a few simple rules are followed. First of all, buy yourself a reliable cook book. There are a number of excellent ones designed especially for the beginner. From there on, careful planning will save many of the heartaches that go with cooking failures. Plan two or three days' menus in advance, making out the market order at the same time. Look up the recipes you are going to use and check to see that all the ingredients are on hand, or listed on the market order.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food in a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. An age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, lousy, fretful, nervous, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness, nervousness. To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients. Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health!

Public Installation Of Rainbow Officers

CONGRESS CAN'T SEE THE FOREST
There is an old French proverb which concerns man's inability to see the forest because of the trees. That has happened to Congress in its dealings with proposed labor legislation. It sees the need for handling details of the problem, such as the jurisdictional strike and the secondary boycott. It certainly has almost completely missed the one great basic issue—which is the closed shop.

So long as the closed shop exists, labor abuses will exist. So long as the closed shop exists, the tyrannical power possessed by ruthless union heads over union members will exist. So long as the closed shop exists, men who do not wish to pay tribute to a union, and men who do not agree with policies laid down by a union, may be turned out of their jobs, by union edict to the employer.

Senator Ball, who is certainly no enemy of labor nor friend of rapacious capital, summed up the issue when he said: "The closed shop in American industry is about the most reactionary and unilateral institution that we have ever developed. . . . If a man isn't free to earn a living by working, the other freedoms aren't likely to last very long."

It has become an established principle that every man shall have the right to join a union if he so desires—and that the employer shall not tamper with that right under pain of severe penalties. It must become an established principle that every man shall have the right not to join a union if he so desires, and still keep his job—and that any labor group which tampers with that right shall be subject to equal penalties.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON
QUESTIONS — "Is it true that Herbert Hoover has made a comeback?" asks T. A. San Jose, Cal., neighbor of the former President. "If so, in what way? Do you think that he has any political ambitions for himself?"

ANSWER: Mr. Hoover appears to have "come back" in the hearts of the American people, who seem to feel that he and certain members of the Roosevelt Administration treated him too shabbily all these years.

President Truman's attempt to right this wrong, and to use the Californian's peculiar abilities in food relief work, reflects this feeling of regret and remorse.

In a sense, Mr. Hoover has also come back politically speaking. Leaders of the congress and the party frequently turn to his tower in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel for advice. It was his report, as well as his personal and political suggestions, that influenced the House bosses to adopt the Senate resolution providing more generous funds for the so-called "liberated countries."

KEYNOTE — He also persuaded the Martin-Halleck group to pass a deficiency bill restoring $300,000,000 for the feeding of Germany. He spoke as a humanitarian as well as a politician. He pointed out that, if Communism swept through Germany and other European countries because of Republican carelessness, the Democrats would blow the fact into an explosive issue in the 1948 campaign.

In another respect has Mr. Hoover gained political stature. For years the G.O.P.-ers did not want him to attend national conventions or to participate in political battles. Now, there is talk of making him to keynote the Philadelphia convention next year. He will also be asked to deliver at least one address during the campaign.

He has no ambitions for office. I think his sole desire is the restoration of the Republican Party to executive power on a conservative platform. Under such circumstances, he would undoubtedly become the "Barney Baruch" of a G.O.P. Administration.

VETO — O.W.F. of Wausau, Wis., chides the writer for reporting in a recent question-and-answer column that the United Nations Charter would not have been ratified by the Senate, and that the U. S. would

DEPRESSIONS

What is all this talk about a forthcoming depression? Why is it that the loudest and most persistent calamity howlers are the leftists? Suppose our economic machine does crash; what then?

Admittedly the answers could be better treated in a book than in a single newspaper column but I offer my answer in a few words. There's much plain hogwash dished up by crackpots and also by clever propagandists who know what they are up to on the subject of the next depression.

True, bona fide students of economics agree that a recession in business may be approaching. This always have been and always will be, in a free economy, both lows and highs in business volume.

Let's be as honest and admit only half of this pattern: contend with—only the lows. They are always in a depression. They never get into a "high" of production and consumption of the bread and butter, beef and shoes and cars and tractors which make for human welfare.

And so far as I am concerned this one fact is answer enough to the bright, Red alarmists who go about over Europe and then across America scaring the most prosperous people in history about hard times. . . . Many college boys think of business as something like the hazard of atomic warfare. With all our crashes, past and future. Till this the system which in five years equipped the most powerful

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
(Johnson on KPDM Monday thru Friday 3 P. M.)
HOLLYWOOD—At last I've talked to a happy actor. One who is at peace with the world, not screaming about being "typed," or demanding better roles in bigger pictures.

He's John Boles. I found him sunning himself beside the swimming pool at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas. But he wasn't a guest. He was on the payroll at a four-figure salary.

Fifteen years ago John Boles was the singing star of "The Desert Song" and "Rio Rita"—a Frank Sinatra with a mustache, blond and nudes to the bobby-soxers of the '30's.

John is still singing to them if their husbands or boy friends can afford the supper rooms of such fancy hotels as the Flamingo, the Waldorf Astoria, and the plush palaces in Florida.

John, a little heavier but still handsome, is one of the highest-paid stars of the country's supper-room circuit.

WONDERFUL LIFE
"I'm sort of a wandering troubadour," he says "beside New York in the winter, and California in the summer to give my real estate an annual checkup. It's a wonderful life and I'm happy. My two daughters are married. My wife goes with me. I sing a couple of songs at night and then sit beside a beautiful swimming pool all day. What's wrong with that?"

It was rather obvious that there is nothing wrong with that. John is happy. He said he really doesn't care whether he ever works in another movie.

James Mason now wants a change of pace from the roles in which he has to push the ladies around. The reason is most of his fan mail consists of questions like: "Tell me, Mr. Mason, do you really hate your wife?"

Jane Powell is starry-eyed over Tommy Batton, a young singer who was under contract to M-G-M before the war. He's now a U. S. C. student, and Jane is wearing his fraternity pin on a gold chain around her neck.

KAY'S BILLBOARD BABY
Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz are thinking about adopting a baby—Esther Williams gets a wardrobe of sarongs for "an island with sarongs" for Dorothy Lamour?

Kimberly Ann Kysler, daughter of Kay and former model Georgia Carroll, will be on the billboards soon. She made her modeling debut—at the age of a year—for an anti-knock gasoline product.

Linda Darnell's "quiet vacation" was off to a quiet start in Paris. There were 10,000 fans waiting at Orly Field when she arrived by plane. Taylor Holmes, the Ty Power of the silents, will make a cameo lack as Ezra Grindle with T. y in "Nightmare Alley."

God help us. God help this world, if we do not accept our responsibility to help countries that do not want to be smothered by Communism.—Rep Sam Rayburn (D) of Texas.

The present period is just as important to the welfare of the United States as a shooting war would be.—President Truman.

ties," and was told to keep still, did not come out.

The prosecution could have developed this piece of the testimony in detail, if it wanted to. The reasons for this failure are obvious. The Department of Justice is manned by Democrats.

TIN—What has become of the tin-reclaiming plants erected at considerable expense during the war? queries H. J. of Tyron, N. C. "Was the operation successful, all things considered, from a financial and individual effort angle? Would such an operation be practical in normal times?"

ANSWER: some plants have been sold, and others are for sale. The operation was hardly a success. For the effort or cost. Therefore, it is not feasible in normal times. Like many other "save something" drives, the tin can collection campaign was important largely for its psychological effect.

got the upper hand. If they can scare business out of investing capital and scare young men out of going to college, free enterprise will just about be washed up.

This defeatist theory in economics is not new. It was centuries old before Karl Marx saw its possibilities, as Henry M. Wriston, president of Brown University, pointed out in his wholesome little book, "Challenge to Freedom."

Common Ground

By E. C. HOLES
Answering a Reader Criticizing My Article on Prices

I recently wrote an article under the heading of "Truman's Plan for Reducing Prices." In the article I said, "The government can no more permanently regulate prices than it can regulate the weather or change the law of action and reaction." I also said, "It's a mockery and a delusion to contend that prices can be changed at will either by individuals or by the government."

A reader from San Clemente tries to ridicule these two statements. He even insinuates that I am dishonest in making them. He gives, however, not the scraps of evidence that substantiates his insinuations. He cites the fact that the oil companies recently raised the price of gasoline. He seems to think that was evidence that companies can change prices at will. If oil companies can raise prices at will, then why in the world do they not really raise prices and make real profits? He cites the Standard Oil Company of California as an example of exorbitant profits. Their average profits for the last 20 years has been $2.47 per share. Their average invested capital was approximately $48.00 so they earned a little more than 5 percent on an average for the last 20 years. The average dividend received for the last 20 years was $1.90 per share. This is an average of 3.57 percent per year. If the stockholders of any corporation can raise prices at will, it is hard to conceive why stockholders would not raise the price so their average return would be more than 3.57 percent on their investment over a period of 20 years.

It is rather obvious that there is nothing wrong with that. John is happy. He said he really doesn't care whether he ever works in another movie.

The Tollivers

FOR the party Leah insisted I must wear my prettiest frock, a pale yellow mouseline de soie with a bertha made of many rows of fine Valenciennes lace. She pressed it for me while I took a nap, and later helped me dress. Then she had to hurry off to the Tollivers', where she was to help out with the supper.

I WASN'T alone long. Leah bounced into the room with some orange juice. "What's the matter with the little girl?" she asked anxiously. "Nothing," I sniffed. "Only I'm not going over to those dreadful Tollivers' for dinner my very first night at home in months."

Leah put the orange juice on my bedside table and sat down. "But you've got to go, my darling. It's a surprise party. I wasn't supposed to tell you. Every last one of your friends will be there."

I was so surprised that I sat up on the bed. "But I thought that none of my friends—that no one had called on the Tollivers?" "No'm, they haven't actually called, but they haven't said no to the supper party either. It's a bewfay supper."

"Do you mean to tell me that all my friends—Maudie, Kay, Charne, Janet—that those pushing Tollivers have had the nerve to invite my very best friends? People the Tollivers don't even know? Well, I won't be used as bait."

"I wouldn't say the Tolliver girls don't know them to speak to. They meet them at church and here and there. Your papa's always introducing Miss Flora and Miss Annabelle when he gets the chance. Your papa's taken quite a shine to them two, especially Flora. You can't blame him neither, they're so nice to him."

"And how about Amy?" "Miss Amy's sweet. Your papa could go a lot farther and fare worse, but he isn't figuring on marrying Miss Amy nor anyone else, if that's what's bothering you."

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE CAFE IN SOUTHERN MISSOURI—(AP)—Some historian of the post-atomic era will look back upon the present American heyday as the age of the pinball machine.

In the ruins of any contemporary town or city he will find scores of the rusted nickel catchers which are an outstanding feature of our culture.

For across the booming breadth of our land the pinball machine is a link greater than the Bill of Rights. It has become the Delphic Oracle of our time.

In the old days the pioneers shot up the forest with their squirrel rifles in quest of game or in revenge against the pesky Redskin. Now civilization's sonny boy trains his eye and hand by manipulating the spring arm of a pinball bandit.

The pinball machine is the country cousin of the juke box. The people who spend their nickels in juke boxes and pinball machines are entirely different. In psychological terms one is an extrovert group which likes to deaden its tension by blatant canned music.

The other expresses its fugitive indignation by plugging away at an innocuous target, buying a respite from futility at five balls for a nickel.

What do the pinball addicts aim at? What are they really trying to score? What inner harmony are they trying to gain, what balance against unseen frustrations? What lost dreams do they see when the bells ring and the lights go up?

In every roadside cafe from Miami to Seattle you see these habits of the pinball machine. For hours at a time they stand in ecstatic trance, hypnotized by the clicking metal pellets that add up to nothing meaning nothing. They didn't go anywhere, and they win nothing. They could just as well be watching goldfish for free.

I suppose as the balls bounce around obstacles and click into the high number trays they solve symbolically by chance the real problems the players can't work out on purpose. A high score gives them the salary rise they didn't have the courage to ask for, or marries them to the girl they lost to someone else.

It's a cheap kind of psychiatry, a five-cent trip into illusion. But what happens if someday someone wedded the pinball machine, the juke box and a restaurant counter together? Instead of a nickel, you would put in a quarter. The music would start playing, the five shiny balls would roll out ready for the game and a ham sandwich would slide out of a slot. There would be food, song and gambling all tied up in a two-bit bundle.

Texas Today

By Jack Rutledge Associated Press Staff Cafe owner Pete Carter of Orange will never forget his last birthday. While he was away from his establishment, an organization known as the screwball club moved in, lugged all his chairs and tables to the sidewalk, insisted they be served there Parisian style.

When Carter came back to work -- well, you can imagine. But he was lucky, at that. The screwball club gave theatre manager Vic Lowrey a bale of hay for his birthday, and had it delivered to his movie lobby. Another time they put a sign on George Dallas' brand new packard: "For sale—$960." Customers had him panting for a while.

Lots of people think the Swiss Navy is a joke, too. But the Brownsville Herald soberly reports that there is too such a thing. A ship named the Certango, flying the Swiss flag, docked there to take on oil.

Sheriff Dick Wait of Bonham says it isn't funny when persons burn off other people's pastures. He said he had received a large number of complaints and warned that penalty for such a practice could be three years in the penitentiary.

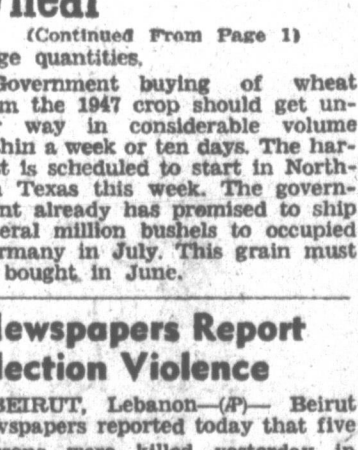

The Royal Order of Green Dragons, a boys' club at the Paris Junior College, decided it was about time to give recognition and honor to the proper people at graduation ceremonies. Valedictorians are all right, but how about the teachers who made them what they are today?

So the R.O.G.D. is to present a cup to the faculty member chosen by a vote of the student body as tops. It is to be known as the "R.O.G.D. Distinguished Faculty Award."

The Queen, or Duchess, or Princess of most communities is chosen for feminine pulchritude, a four-bit way of saying curves. But the Saint Jo Luncheon Club selected their Duchess to the Gainesville Circus Roundup by naming the girl who wrote the best essay on "Why I would like to be Chosen Miss Saint Jo."

The winner, incidentally, was Miss Margaret Johnson.

Fewer Applicants For Jobs Reported There were approximately 150 less claim applicants for jobs during the month of May than April. L. P. Fort, manager of the local office of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, said today. The decrease is computed over Gray, Roberts, Hemphill and Wheeler Counties. Fort further stated that it appears the next 60 to 90 days will see a nearer balance of labor than in recent months in the four-county area.

Wheat (Continued From Page 1) large quantities. Government buying of wheat from the 1947 crop should get under way in considerable volume within a week or ten days. The harvest is scheduled to start in Northern Texas this week. The government already has promised to ship several million bushels to occupied Germany in July. This grain must be bought in June.
