Daniel Assumes Governor's Duties

By O. B. LLOYD JR.
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN (UP) — Price Daniel today assumed the duties of governor of Texas with a program cornered on a pledge of "simple honesty and moral integrity in the halls of government."

In solemn, 30-minute ceremonies highlighted by his 14-minute inaugural address, the former three-time attorney general of Texas succeeded Gov. Allan Shivers as the state's chief executive. Shivers had served seven years, six months and seven days — longer than any governor in history.

Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice J. E. Hickman first administered the oath of office to Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, starting the San Augustine attorney on a fourth term.

Daniel, 46, then took the solemn oath, witnessed by his wife and four children, to "preserve, protect and defend" the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Texas.

Casts Aside Senate
The new governor, casting aside two years still to serve on his term as United States senator, started his administration under a prayer for divine guidance and with a prediction his administration on the 55th Legislature "will mark the beginning of a greater era of progress, integrity and good government for Texas."

Then he blueprinted a "dynamic and constructive" program of legislation which Daniel said he will recommend this week to the lawmakers.

He outlined as immediate objectives:

A strict lobby control and re-creation act.

A code of conduct for state officials and employees.

Creation of a state law enforcement commission, with power to make complete investigations of alleged official misconduct and recommendations for improved law enforcement.

An overwhelming majority of our state officials and employees have been faithful in the discharge of their duties, but if there is one blemish or hidden act of misconduct it must be exposed and eliminated, with proper punishment of anyone who has violated his public trust," the new governor said.

He said enactment of a state-wide program for conservation and development of water represented "the most important need for proper exercise of our state responsibility."

Other recommendations, Daniel said, will include:

Improvements in public schools — from "the primary grades to the ultimate reach of higher education, with salary increases sufficient to attract and recruit adequately trained teachers."

An expanded program of highway safety.

Strong laws and increased enforcement to combat the narcotic traffic.

Shivers Puts Blakley In Senate Post

AUSTIN (UP) Gov. Allan Shivers, in his last official act before leaving office, today appointed William A. Blakley, a Dallas attorney and "Eisenhower Democrat," to succeed Governor-elect Price Daniel in the U.S. Senate.

The appointment of an Eisenhower partisan posed an immediate threat to the slim Democratic control of the upper chamber.

However, there was no immediate indication whether Blakley will challenge the Democratic hold on the Senate by voting with the Republicans. This would result in a 48-48 tie, and throw control to the GOP.

Richard Nixon would cast his tie-breaking vote.

"How will Blakley vote?" an executive office spokesman was asked.

"I don't know," was the answer. Daniel takes office as governor of Texas at 12 noon today, succeeding Shivers.

Eleventh Hour Action
Announcement of the appointment, originally scheduled for 10 a.m., was 13 minutes late, and came one hour and 47 minutes before Shivers leaves office.

Shivers served seven years, six months and seven days — longer than any chief executive in the history of the state.

Supports Johnson, Eisenhower Shivers, in a prepared statement, said Blakley is a supporter of Daniel, Senate majority leader Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) and President Eisenhower.

The governor called Blakley a "good friend" and said he was known to him "personally and politically, for years."

"He has not been politically active, however as a seeker of public office or appointment for himself," Shivers continued.

Then he added:

"I have stated several times I had no personal desire to make the interim appointment to the U.S. Senate. The governor-elect has expressed similar sentiments."

"According to my interpretation of the law and of my responsibilities as governor, it became my duty as of this date to make the appointment. This duty I have now performed."

In his original letter of resignation to Shivers, Daniel said he was resigning from the Senate Jan. 15, or when his successor was selected. Shivers refused to call an election on grounds the office was not vacant until today.

Blakley, 58, is an attorney, accountant and operator of ranches in West Texas and New Mexico. He is a native of Oklahoma but has lived in Texas since World War I.

Youth To Be Tried On Driving Charge

A 16-year-old local youth will be tried tomorrow in Corporation Court on a charge of driving while intoxicated, when Jim Conner, chief of police, reported to The News this morning.

The charges resulted from a collision the youth had at 7:25 p.m. yesterday in the 100 block of E. Brown. The '50 Chevrolet the youth was driving was in collision with the back of a '53 Plymouth driven by Mrs. Tharon A. Leonard, 736 N. Nelson.

Mrs. Leonard is in a local hospital with slight injuries to her neck and back, but no report on her condition was available this morning.

Damages to the Plymouth were estimated at $200 and the Chevrolet encountered damages estimated at $175.

The only other collision reported yesterday to the police department occurred at 1:06 p.m. on Somerville, 50 feet south of Browning. Charles Ray Martin of Pampa, driving a '49 Chevrolet, was in collision with Helen L. Jenkins, 1004 E. Kingmill, driving a '56 Ford.

The Chevrolet encountered damages estimated at $100 and the Ford met with damages estimated at $75.

No Relief From Frigid Cold Wave Is In Sight

By UNITED PRESS
No relief was in sight today from a frigid cold wave that has gripped most of the nation, causing at least 16 deaths.

Temperatures plunged to a low of 50 degrees below zero Monday in upper New York state. At New York City, the mercury dipped to three above at 4 a.m. today, making it the coldest day since Feb. 3, 1955 when a reading of zero was recorded.

Temperatures moderated overnight in the north and central Plains, the Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes, but still hovered near the zero mark.

The coldest overnight readings, however, were reported in upper New York and in New England. Mountain View, N.Y., had 50 below; Massena, N.Y., 45 below; Albany 24 below and Syracuse 17 below. A reading of 20 below was reported at Burlington, Vt.

New York Monday had a low of 7.8, the coldest since Dec. 31, 1955.

Three deaths due to cold and exposure occurred in New York state, two in New England and one in Iowa.

An explosion and fire due to a broken valve in a gas line at Syracuse threatened to shut off gas service to three upstate New York counties during the night. Temperatures ranged from 15 to 25 below in the affected counties of Jefferson, Oswego and Onondaga.

Patrons of the Niagara-Mohawk Power Corp. were urged in radio appeals to turn thermostats down to 55 to conserve gas until repairs could be made.

In the Midwest, a rash of fatal home fires broke out in the cold belt. Three children were killed and four others were injured in two fires at East St. Louis, Ill. A home fire at Jordan, Iowa, forced seven members of a farm family to flee into below zero temperatures.

While the East continued to shiver through zero and sub-zero weather, a new invasion of Arctic air blew into the Northern Plains, whipping up fresh snow storms.

Hungarian Workers Pressured

By CHARLES W. RIDLEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
VIENNA (UP) — The puppet Janos Kadar regime is bringing heavy pressure to bear on rebellious Hungarian workers in an attempt to build up a new Communist Party, reports reaching Vienna said today.

There was no new information from Budapest on the imprisonment by the Communists of two Americans, Mrs. George Chapelle, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Richard Roraback, of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

The Communist regime informed the U.S. legation in Budapest Monday of the arrest of Mrs. Chapelle, a 35-year-old free-lance photographer who apparently tried to smuggle herself into Hungary. Her whereabouts had been a mystery since she left Vienna Dec. 4.

Roraback, 26, and a Hungarian companion were seized by Communist Hungarian border guards last Saturday while trying to help Hungarian refugees across the Iron-Curtain border, according to Austrian authorities. The Kadar regime has made no mention of the incident this far.

According to reliable reports reaching Vienna, the Communists have started using the threat of unemployment as a weapon to coerce workers into joining the "Hungarian Socialist Workers Party." Before the freedom revolt, the Communist Party masqueraded under the name of the "Hungarian Workers Party."

The reports said the Communists have let it be known that workers who joined the party will not lose their jobs under the regime's "Black new year's" decree of mass dismissals.

Party organizers have been agitating for weeks in an attempt to win recruits for the new Communist Party, which the government has declared would be the "only power" in Hungary. But they have met with little success.

The new FPC regulations in general require the producer to file the rate schedules that were in force on June 7, 1954, and to make no changes without notifying the commission. No ruling has yet been rendered approving or disapproving specific rates. The commission has withheld action pending hearings.

The commission said it issued the rules so the producers would be relieved of the more arduous regulations designed for pipeline companies. The rules are known in the industry as "order 174-A."

It had been previously announced that the meeting would be held Jan. 17. This change was necessary in order to give more time for organizational details, according to J. B. Massa, chairman of the council.

All agencies, Massa said, are requested to select two representatives and have them present at the Jan. 21 meeting, since a full explanation will be given on the council plus the discussion of a program of work.

Supreme Court Refuses Pleas Of Producers

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Supreme Court Monday refused to examine complaints of a group of natural gas producers against Federal Power Commission moves to regulate them.

Today's brief order leaves in effect lower court decisions that the commission's actions are not ripe for court review.

The FPC announced rate-polling procedures for the independent producers after the Supreme Court ruled on June 7, 1954, in the Phillips Petroleum case, that some 4,000 companies in that category are subject to regulation. Before then, the commission had claimed jurisdiction over pipeline companies only.

Meantime, Congress has been debating legislation that would free independent producers from federal regulation. Last year President Eisenhower vetoed a decontrol bill following a ruckus over unethical lobbying activities by the industry. Another measure is slated for action this session.

The new FPC regulations in general require the producer to file the rate schedules that were in force on June 7, 1954, and to make no changes without notifying the commission. No ruling has yet been rendered approving or disapproving specific rates. The commission has withheld action pending hearings.

The commission said it issued the rules so the producers would be relieved of the more arduous regulations designed for pipeline companies. The rules are known in the industry as "order 174-A."

Ike Tours Hard-Hit Clovis, N.M., Area

By JOEL R. COMBS
Pampa News Managing Editor
CLOVIS, N.M. — President Eisenhower visited this sun- and wind-parched area yesterday for a first-hand look at the drought situation.

The President's stop here was the third of four for the day. He started off early yesterday morning in San Angelo, flew to Woodward, Okla., then flew to Clovis. He took off again after a brief tour for Tucson, Ariz., where he spent the night. Today, the President stopped in Colorado and then flew on to Wichita, Kans., where a conference on the drought and economic conditions in the Southwest was planned.

The on-the-spot view of the drought was designed to give Mr. Eisenhower guidance in formulating plans to combat the situation. His stop here couldn't have been more timely or impressive.

When the President's plane touched down at Clovis Air Force Base, at 1:30 p.m., Mountain Time, the dust was swirling from a moderate wind and a bright, mid-winter sun was shining through a light haze.

The Chief Executive was greeted by Brig. Gen. William W. Momyer, commanding general of Clovis Air Force Base, Gov. Edwin L. McChesem, New Mexico, and Sen. Dennis Chavez of New Mexico. The President was also welcomed by Major O. G. Potter of Clovis and Dr. Roger M. Corbitt, president of New Mexico A&M College.

Mr. Eisenhower was honored with ruffles and flourishes by the Ninth Air Force Band from Langley Air Force Base, Va., when he arrived. As the President stood at attention, the band played "Hail To The Chief," and "The Air Force March."

Strict security measures were in effect at the base, where approximately 7,000 people turned out just to see Mr. Eisenhower arrive and depart in his sleek plane, Columbine III, a super-constellation.

The President stepped into Governor Ed McChesem's black limousine almost immediately after receiving base honors. He paused briefly, however, to wave his hat (See IKE, Page 3)

After leaving Orange, the committee will go to Fort Worth to inspect the Western Hills Hotel and discuss with the management questions relative to construction and building operations.

Transportation will be furnished by two five-passenger planes owned by Cabot and Cree Drilling Co. free of charge to the hotel company. Business leaders making the trip will pay their own expenses. It was agreed according to George Cree Jr., president of the hotel company.

Arrangements were confirmed this morning by E. O. Wedgeworth, one-room resulted before the blaze could be extinguished, firemen reported.

A fire of unknown origin in the residence of Leonard Cockrell, 409 W. McCullough, resulted in the only alarm received by the fire department yesterday.

The alarm was received at 3:05 p.m. and heavy damage to one room resulted before the blaze could be extinguished, firemen reported.

Ike Moves Into Colorado, Kansas To Conclude Jaunt

By GAYLORD P. GODWIN
United Press Staff Correspondent
EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER — UP — President Eisenhower flew back eastward today for a close look at the effects of one of the country's worst droughts in Colorado and Kansas. The President spent Monday talking to farmers and ranchers and making on-the-spot investigations in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

He spent the night at Davis Monthan Air Force Base in Tucson, Ariz., and took off today for Pueblo, Colo., where he planned an automobile trip through the countryside.

Mr. Eisenhower met a group of Arizonians at breakfast today and listened to their troubles and recommendations for relief. They asked for extension of the emergency hay subsidy to include cottonseed feed.

The last two points Mr. Eisenhower will visit before his plane takes off for Washington tonight are Garden City and Wichita, Kan.

The weather was cold and cloudy at Garden City and Wichita. Garden City reported a temperature of nine degrees at 8:30 a.m. But White House Press Secretary James Hagerly said the presidential plane will land anyway.

At Wichita, where his 4,500-mile drought tour will end, Mr. Eisenhower will speak before a special drought conference, including representatives from 15 states.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson called the Wichita conference to discuss ways and means of offsetting the economic effects of dry periods that have plagued the Great Plains for the last eight years.

Mr. Eisenhower is not expected to offer any administration plans for drought relief at the Wichita meeting. Aides have indicated he will wait for plans to come from the meeting itself.

The President, accompanied by Benson and Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton, traveled from San Angelo, Tex., Monday to Woodward, Okla., to Clovis, N.M., and to Tucson, Ariz., in the far Southwest where he spent the night. Mr. Eisenhower walked a road, and flew through the dust areas Monday in temperatures ranging from 18 degrees to 73 degrees. He was followed by dozens of reporters and photographers and was seen by thousands of citizens of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arizona.

"I feel confident that you will bring to your new task the same vision, determination, and sympathetic understanding which you have shown in the past," the President stated.

In a message of thanks, Macmillan told the President he has "warm and vivid" memories of their association in North Africa and since then.

George Cree Jr., president of the Community Hotel Company of Pampa, gave a report on the progress being made by that company. He announced that all the committees had been completed and that they were all at work in order to expedite construction of the hotel as soon as possible.

Chapter of Commerce banquets of neighboring communities were announced. They are: Canadian, Jan. 21; Spearman, Jan. 21; Perryton, Jan. 22; Dalhart, Jan. 23; and Amarillo, Jan. 23.

Arrangements are being made by Coy Palmer, and a four-man delegation from Pampa will be sent to all these affairs.

The program of work for the year was also discussed at the meeting, using the "65" discussion plan and a number of new ideas were suggested for inclusion in the 1957 program of work.

All suggestions given yesterday will be considered by the executive committee of the chamber in setting up the new work program.

A nominating committee to make nominations for the replacement of John Frick on the board of directors was appointed with Elmer Fite, Dudley Steele, and Elmer Fishbaugh serving on the committee.

US, British Heads Further Friendships

PUEBLO, Colo. (UP) — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Great Britain exchanged messages of friendship today harking back to their association during the North African campaign of World War II.

The President sent "warmest congratulations" to Macmillan on his becoming prime minister, succeeding Sir Anthony Eden who resigned last week.

Macmillan replied with a statement that he looks forward "to working with you once again" in furthering the friendship which started when the President was commander of Allied forces in Europe.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson called the Wichita conference to discuss ways and means of offsetting the economic effects of dry periods that have plagued the Great Plains for the last eight years.

Mr. Eisenhower is not expected to offer any administration plans for drought relief at the Wichita meeting. Aides have indicated he will wait for plans to come from the meeting itself.

Top O' Texas Jr. Livestock Show Plans Are Outlined

A resume of plans for the Top O' Texas Junior Livestock Show to be held Feb. 18, 19, and 20 was heard at yesterday's meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held at Pooler's Steak House. The meeting was a joint one attended by both directors and committee chairmen for the year.

The report on the Top O' Texas Junior Livestock Show was given by Paul Payne, chairman of that committee.

Another report was given on the agricultural clinic to be held in Pampa Feb. 13, in cooperation with the Burlington Lines, the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service.

This affair will be an all day meeting featuring speakers on the various phases of livestock and agriculture with Chamber of Commerce being the host at the barbecue to be held that noon.

Both the meeting and the barbecue will be held at the community building at recreation park.

Also at yesterday's meeting, new committee chairmen for the year were announced and approved. They were: Agriculture — Paul Pooler; Aviation — Fitz Hoover; Public Relations — Coy Palmer; Highway and Transportation — Fred Thompson; Industrial — Gordon Lyons; Legislation and National Affairs — Reno Stinson; Merchants Activities — Charles Cook; New Business Green — Joe Tooley; Oil and Gas —

Clayton Husted; Public Improvement — Floyd Watson; Publicity & General Information — Joel Combs; Sports and Recreation — Johnny Campbell; Tourist Development — Oliver Trimble.

Medical Men Study Case Of One-In-10-Million Odds

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—Admittedly puzzled medical men meet here today to review the case history of 5-year-old Tommy Eithun who may have broken through one-in-10-million odds by recovering from leukemia.

Eighteen months ago physicians diagnosed Tommy as a victim of leukemia—cancer of the blood—of which there is no known cure. Monday, his blood count was normal.

Tommy's doctor, however, cautioned that "it would be cruel to parents of other children with leukemia to believe that we have cured the disease."

The doctor, who asked that his name not be revealed, said today's meeting is merely to hear a review of the "case and not necessarily to arrive at any conclusion."

Undisclosed Treatment

He said ethical reasons prohibited him from making known the treatment used or the exact diagnoses except to other doctors. He said, however, that it is possible Tommy never had leukemia.

The doctor said there were three possibilities as to Tommy's condition. One was that he could have had a disease that "looked like" leukemia but really wasn't and he recovered. Another was that he could now have leukemia but has had a "remission" so that the disease could flare up again.

Finally, he said, Tommy could have had leukemia and recovered, despite his having only "one chance in 10-million."

Today's meeting, a regularly scheduled gathering of the State Medical Society, will hear other case histories of various diseases. In addition to Tommy's, the doctor said, but it was expected that the medical riddle of the boy's recovery, which his father Norbert, of nearby De Forest, Wis., called "miraculous," would be near the top of the agenda.

The doctor said he would continue to work on Tommy's case. He said he has used the same treatment for other children and "they are all dead."

He said that he would make tests on the boy "for years to come" and that each month that passes without a recurrence of the symptoms "is in Tommy's favor."

UP Announces Key Appointments

DALLAS (UP)—Two appointments to key posts in the Dallas office of United Press were announced today by Lee Bond, Southwest Division news editor.

Baptist Leaders Hand Convention Huger Goal

FORT WORTH (UP)—The Baptist General Convention of Texas was handed a blockbuster size goal Monday night.

Dr. C. Wade Freeman, superintendent of evangelism, said the BGCT must establish 3,500 new churches during the next seven years if it is to do its part in a nationwide building program sponsored by the Southern Baptist Convention.

The nationwide goal is 30,000 new churches by 1964.

The Texas goal is almost as many churches as the BGCT has been able to start in the past century. Total congregations at the present are 3,724.

Dr. Freeman also said the convention has set a goal of 5,000 revival meetings to be held during 1957.

He spoke to a group of 62 Baptist evangelists shortly before the opening of the state's 19th annual evangelistic conference.

Young ministers urged to use "more modern methods of promotion and public relations to plan special revival services and to consider the possibility of diverting their lives to evangelistic work."

Texas Baptist leaders, at the start of this year, set a goal of 80,000 new converts during 1957. Sixty-six thousand persons were baptized during 1956.

Local Men To Form Pampa Toastmaster's Club Jan. 22

There will be a meeting Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 6 p.m. in Poole's Steak House of all persons interested in forming a Toastmaster's Club here in Pampa. The group is headed by Bill Gough, who is acting president until such time as a charter is received by the group and election will be in order. The club, once organized, will be a part of the Toastmaster's International and will operate in compliance with the organization's rules and by-laws. Toastmaster's International was founded by Ralph C. Smedley of Santa Ana, Calif., where the organization still has its headquarters; and was incorporated in 1922 as a non-profit, non-commercial corporation. The movement has grown to where there are now clubs chartered throughout the United States, Great Britain, Canada, South Africa, Australia, Hawaii, Japan, Guam, Korea, the Philippines and other South Pacific Islands. The club is "an organized group of men over 21 years of age who seek to improve themselves in the arts of speech and leadership as a means of increasing their usefulness in business, social and civic relationships." The purposes of the club as listed in its by-laws are: . . . to improve their members' oral expression and thought. . . . to develop their abilities to appear effectively before audiences. . . . to provide constructive criticism and comment on all speeches giving each speaker the benefit of audience reaction. . . . to develop the habit of analytical listening. . . . to provide instruction and experience in chairmanship and parliamentary procedure. . . . to promote good fellowship. Further information about the meeting will be obtained by contacting Bill Gough or Jim Kimbrough.

In greeting to those who had turned out to see him. The Presidential party, which included Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson, Secretary of the Interior Seaton and others, plus approximately 200 newsmen, then left on an eight mile tour going through once-rich farm land which has been stricken by drought for six years or more. Grain sorghum crops were badly withered and some places on the land had "blown" so much it looked more like a sand bed than farm land. Mr. Eisenhower's only stop was at the farm of Raymond Worrrell, eight miles west of Clovis, where he chatted with the farmer and his family, inspected burned out farm land and saw cattle and hogs trying to graze on nearly bare land on a farm which Worrrell said, "Should net us 10 or 12 thousand dollars a year." The President asked Worrrell about his financial situation, discussed the farm's operations and talked briefly with Worrrell's 17-year-old son, Wade. The President told the youngster he had a black calf of his own on his Geetyburg, Pa., farm and if he didn't live so far away he would let Wade exhibit the animal for him. At the conclusion of his inspection of the farm, Mr. Eisenhower shook hands with all around and told Worrrell, "I can't think of any hope I would want to wish better luck to." Worrrell and his son were reported to have gone back to plowing soon after the President departed. After his visit to the farm, Mr. Eisenhower returned to Clovis Air Force Base, where he went into a closed door session with a group of New Mexico farmers and ranchers and other officials. Following the conference, the President departed for Tucson, Ariz., on the next leg of his tour, where he spent the night. Today, he was to stop at Pueblo, Colo., before going to Wichita, Kans., where the principal conference of his tour was to be held. All along the route, the President before going to Wichita, Kans., was given recommendations, things the people in each particular area felt would help ease the drought situation. Prominent among the recommendations he received at Clovis were long-term, stable, low interest loans, continuation of the Department of Agriculture emergency grain and feed program and emergency hay and roughage program, and continued but improved use of the soil bank, was given recommendations, things the people in each particular area felt would help ease the drought situation. ## Bogart Stood Out As A Diamond In Hollywood

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood, Writer
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—In a town full of yes-men and beauties off an assembly line, Humphrey Bogart to the press stood out like a diamond as one of Hollywood's few honest actors and colorful characters. Today those who knew Bogie during the filming of his 69 movies mourn him. But none will miss him more than the Hollywood press. The baldish, cynical actor was one of few stars who fearlessly barked what he felt to reporters. His attitude and way of living was always good for an item. In 1949, for example, Bogie was hauled into a New York court for flouting a curfew in a nightclub in a fight over a fuzzy toy panda. The press descended upon the actor with a delicate question: Was he drunk? Bogart, his face lined with the memories of a thousand parties, snorted, "Certainly, isn't everybody drunk at 4 a.m.?" Bogart was fascinating to watch at work. He knew what he wanted and backed down to few men. During filming of "The Caine Mutiny," he invented a piece of business wherein he constantly buttered toast. Choice Will Be Your Own In Fashion
Hemlines This Spring, Designers Say

By GAY BAILEY
NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (UP)—Pay your money and take your choice in hemlines this spring. For the nation's garment center is in a state of what one manufacturer called "blissful indecision" about where they ultimately will go.

Some of the designers who showed their collections this week to 200 visiting fashion reporters took a firm stand against adding to daytime suits and costumes. But they experimented with longer skirts in cocktail and dinner outfits.

"Demi-Length"
Designer Karen Stark of Harvey Bern showed what this firm labeled the "demi-length," about nine inches from the floor, in scattering of daytime wool costumes. But the firm said it was shipping the same outfits in 14- and 16-inch lengths.

W. F. Taylor, Roy Tinsley, J. B. Townsend, Kent Wymore, Aaron Sturgeon, and a guest, Mrs. Eva Graham.

inch length and early indications were that is where the nation's women want their hemlines.

But Bern, whose collection was shown Friday, stuck with regular skirt lengths for both daytime and cocktail wear. Even Christian Dior, the man whose Paris collection last spring helped kick off the hemline hassle, included only one longer skirt in his New York show.

Highlights
Here were some of the highlights of fashions this week, the 28th National Press Week.

Belge, Grey and pale violet showed throughout daytime collections. Several designers endorsed black for afternoon wear, but pastels were strong. Perennial prints this season were smaller and subdued in color. Adele Simpson called them stained glass tones.

Fabrics generally were lighter in weight. You will be hearing such terms as chiffon flannel or tweed, silk linen and silk satin organza, Chiffon and organza were the favorite fabrics for cock-

Lace Rosés
The slim silhouette dominated for daytime. Several designers featured the sheath for evening although the fuller skirt was preferred for themselves and for their husbands. Only 7 per cent wish to marry men who work in factories, on farms, or at a trade or craft.

These are some of the findings of the first national wide survey of the personal and social interests and aspirations of girls 11 through 18 years of age, made public Tuesday, January 15, by the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. The study, conducted for the Girl Scouts by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan's Institute for Social Research, was directed by Dr. Elizabeth Douvan and was under the supervision of Dr. Stephen Withey, program director of the Center.

Based on interviews with a scientifically selected sample of nearly 2,000 girls representing all girls now in the 6th through 12th grades, the survey covers girls' hopes, worries, relations with parents and friends, dating, plans for education, work and marriage.

It is the first section of a two-part survey undertaken by the national Girl Scout organization on the needs of adolescent girls and ways in which these needs can be met. The second section, dealing specifically with the Girl Scout program and its service to girls, is expected to be completed early in 1958.

The study reveals that adolescent girls are under most stress between the ages of 14 and 14 when they are beginning to establish relationships outside the family that are equally important to them.

According to the survey, most girls start dating at 14. While only one-fifth of those under 14 report-

Personal And Social Interest Of Girls Is Reported By Girl Scout Organization

Today's adolescent girls are re-evaluating the conflict between home-making and career that plagued previous generations of American women. Only 7 per cent wish to marry men who work in factories, on farms, or at a trade or craft.

These are some of the findings of the first national wide survey of the personal and social interests and aspirations of girls 11 through 18 years of age, made public Tuesday, January 15, by the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. The study, conducted for the Girl Scouts by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan's Institute for Social Research, was directed by Dr. Elizabeth Douvan and was under the supervision of Dr. Stephen Withey, program director of the Center.

Based on interviews with a scientifically selected sample of nearly 2,000 girls representing all girls now in the 6th through 12th grades, the survey covers girls' hopes, worries, relations with parents and friends, dating, plans for education, work and marriage.

It is the first section of a two-part survey undertaken by the national Girl Scout organization on the needs of adolescent girls and ways in which these needs can be met. The second section, dealing specifically with the Girl Scout program and its service to girls, is expected to be completed early in 1958.

The study reveals that adolescent girls are under most stress between the ages of 14 and 14 when they are beginning to establish relationships outside the family that are equally important to them.

According to the survey, most girls start dating at 14. While only one-fifth of those under 14 report-

Women "Back The Attack"

By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

WOMEN THROUGHOUT the country are going to war in 1957! They're joining forces with safety organizations, civic groups and law enforcement agencies in a full-scale attack on highway carelessness.

Their battle cry is "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents"—a nationwide effort by the National Safety Council to stem the rising traffic accident toll during the coming year.

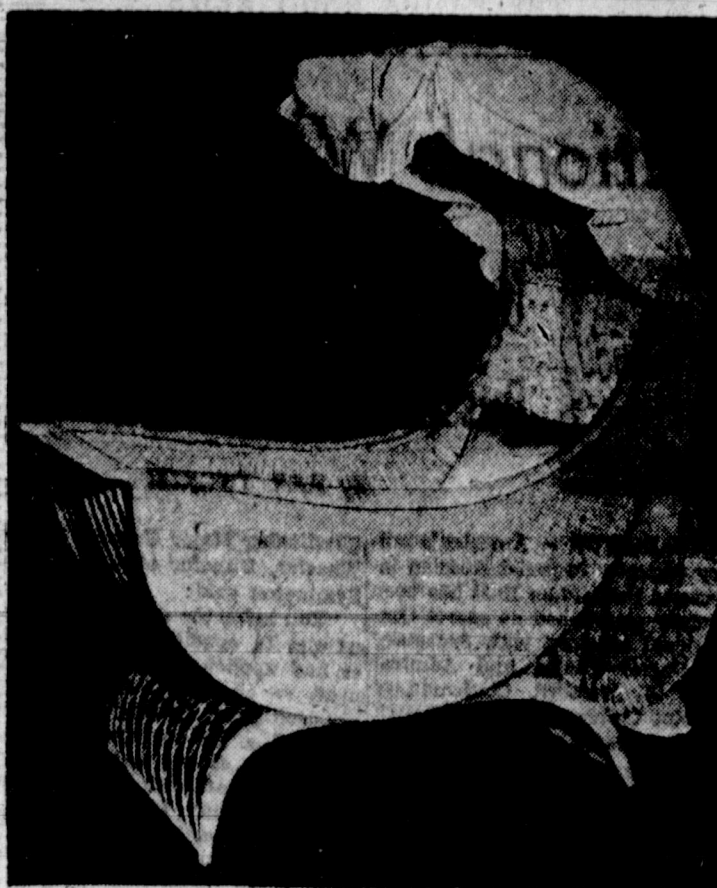

The Council is calling for the complete mobilization of citizens everywhere to support their "Back the Attack" program. Among the objectives are increased law enforcement of traffic violations, stricter control of driver licensing and stepped-up driver education for both teenagers and adults.

Since the program can best be accomplished at local levels, that's where women groups will play a major role.

Church organizations, PTA groups, garden clubs, women's civic groups, etc., have been asked to sponsor safe driving contests, high school essay and poster contests, etc. To spread the "Back the Attack" story, they'll help with door-to-door campaigning, with distribution of leaflets and in numerous other promotional activities.

Mrs. R. I. C. Prout, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, says, "Our organization, with 15,600 member clubs in the United States, has an intense interest in cutting traffic accidents. We will support with heart and hand the campaign to step up the traffic accident prevention program in 1957."

National Council Of Churches Indicts Themselves On 50 Counts Of Treason to God And Country

I have just read a very interesting little booklet under the above heading by Billy James Hargis, D. D., of Tulsa, Okla.

Here are a few of the indictments recorded by Dr. Hargis against the National Council of Churches of Christ of America:

NCC Leader Praises Soviet Revolution
It is not probable that the greatest event of the 20th century thus far is the Soviet Revolution

NCC Leader Repudiates Christian Religion
The Christian religion is not a suitable religion for today.

NCC Evangelist Aspires A World Church
One of America's most famous preachers, Dr. E. Stanley Jones of the Methodist Church, world famous missionary, author and lecturer, spoke last January before the January assembly of the Council of Churches of Greater Houston.

NCC Attacks Anti-Communists
The National Council of Churches had a convention in 1954 in Boston. One of the speakers at the National Council Convention was Roland H. Bainton who trains ministerial students at Yale University.

NCC To Be Blamed For Socialist Trend In United States Today
An influential American, J. Howard Pew, Chairman of the Lay Committee and former President of the Sun Oil Company, wrote an open letter to the National Council of Churches on December 15, 1953, in which he charged the Protestant leaders have become too deeply involved in political adventures and other acts which could have been termed akin to socialism and Communism.

REG-MANNING

Fair Enough

After 80 Years: A Paternal Glow

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

CHICAGO — John L. Lewis is windfall traffic in the union's money. He enjoys a great advantage over other banks.

Within the last two years, the mine workers' treasury has bought about $25 million worth of common stocks in the Wall Street market.

Lewis is outwardly contemptuous of public opinion, but he became nervously sensitive to hostile places and hired a "public relations" specialist to create a better "personality."

The Fund is amassed by a tax of 40 cents a ton at the mine on the coal produced by Lewis's subjects. This tax is enforceable in the Federal Courts, and the courts do force private industry to give 40 cents a ton to a charity administered by the hand of Lewis who is now 80 years old and, as always, aloof, imperial and arrogant toward all who challenge his power.

The Fund will receive about $240 million for the fiscal year, July to July, 1957. Thus far, the administration has been capricious and arbitrary though generous in many cases. Lewis also took it upon himself to build nine regional hospitals for miners and their families but not exclusively for them in areas where he deemed the existing hospitals to be insufficient.

The Nation's Press

A TAX WITHOUT FRIENDS (Industrial News Review)

The transportation excise taxes were imposed strictly as a wartime measure. Their purpose was to discourage unnecessary travel and shipping at a time when all the agencies were strained to the limit, as well as to produce some revenue for the government.

The history is interesting. In 1941 a 5 per cent tax was levied on passenger fares. It was doubled in 1942, and a 3 per cent tax was levied on freight charges except for coal, which was taxed at 4 cents per ton, and pipeline movements, which were taxed at 4 1/2 per cent. In 1944 the tax on passenger fares was boosted to 15 per cent to further discourage wartime travel.

In 1945 the war with Germany and Japan ended. But it was not until 1954 that any tax relief at all was provided—and then it was very minor. The tax on passenger fares was reduced to 10 per cent, while the levies on freight, coal, and pipeline movements remained at the wartime levels. They are all still in effect.

As the Transportation Association of America points out, the transportation excise tax is a tax on a necessity, not a luxury; it is a tax on the flow of commerce not a tax on goods, and it determines the life-line of our economy. The association also says "Here is a tax that no one—no government agency, no private individual, no area—has testified is good, fair, or beneficial."

The "public relations" program set in action seems to have been mostly negative. Lewis faded out of print and controversy. He retains his absolute power but now at eight years his reputation is lacking on a twilight glow of gentle paternalism.

U. S. Military Capacity Over Russia Is Questioned

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — America's military capacity to resist Russian invasion of the Middle East has been seriously questioned at secret Congressional sessions with Secretary John Foster Dulles and Admiral Arthur W. Radford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The doubt arises because the Administration, in the opinion of bipartisan critics, has failed to build a strong aerial striking force, which could be transported to the scene of conflict almost overnight.

This very dilemma was pin-pointed when the House Appropriations Subcommittee handling defense funds held hearings during the last session of Congress. It was raised by Representative Daniel J. Flood of Pennsylvania. Recalling the incident, he said:

"I asked again and again what would happen if we had trouble in the Middle East area, and how we would transport our troops with their armament and armor. It was apparent to me that the testimony indicated that there is not enough airlift to move even one division, including its hardware, over the ocean in one flight to foreign soil."

Senator Stuart Symington, former Secretary of Air, brought out similar admissions of transport inadequacy on the Senate side. In WASHINGTON — One of the passengers on the MATS plane which brought 71 Hungarian refugees and 100 tons of supplies to the United States was one of the few European tourists I have ever known.

He was Ernst Herb, a young Frankfurt photographer, who was not, that a strong America is itself the greatest safeguard for world peace. The Communists are afraid of only one thing — and that is strength. They are not afraid of the United Nations; they are a part of it and they have kept it from being a strong force in the cause of peace.

During the first two or three years of the present Administration, inflation was almost brought to a standstill. During this past year, however, even this Administration seems to have become infected with that dangerous disease, the 'Potomac fever,' which had infected previous administrations for twenty years and whose main symptom seems to be a mania for taxing and spending.

ONE GROUP OF workers has found that the blood pressure of rats with experimentally produced hypertension could be lowered when they were given diets which were low in one part of salt. (The chemical name for salt is sodium chloride and the portion which they took out was the sodium.) They tried this treatment also in a small group of patients and found that the blood pressure was lowered in several.

Kansas, Kentucky Among Deflated Basketball Powers

K.U., North Carolina Given 1-2 Rank By UP

NEW YORK (UP)—Kansas and North Carolina placed 1-2 in the United Press college basketball ratings today for the sixth straight week while Seattle University made its first appearance in the top ten this season.

The 35 leading coaches who rate the teams for the United Press based their votes on games played through Saturday, Jan. 12. They gave Kansas 26 first-place votes and a total of 330 points.

North Carolina received six first-place votes and 311 points, seventh last week, dropped to eighth.

UCLA advanced from sixth to fifth while Louisville slipped from fifth to sixth. Illinois moved from tenth to seventh and Iowa State, seventh last week, dropped to eighth.

Vanderbilt slipped from ninth to tenth after losing to Mississippi Saturday night, 68-66. Wake Forest headed the second 10 teams. Canisius, California, Bradley, Ohio State, Brigham Young, St. Louis and West Virginia followed in that order.

Bill Meek's Ability Known Decade Ago

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (UP)—The tip-off on FSU Trying To Hold Tom Nugent

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UP) Florida State University may offer a new contract with a salary raise to football Coach Tom Nugent today to keep him from going to the University of Houston.

Nugent met Monday with University resident Doak S. Campbell, Athletic Director Howard Danford, and Vice President Albert B. Martin to talk over a possible deal. Campbell said "possible terms and conditions" resulting from the talks may be announced today.

Nugent, 43, was given permission to visit the University of Houston Wednesday.

Nugent now receives a $9,500 yearly salary but the university has already asked in its budget request for a raise to $10,800 for the following year. But the school may go as high as $12,000 and an offer of a three-year contract in order to keep Nugent.

Bob Woodruff, head coach at the University of Florida, gets $12,500 a year from the university plus $5,000 from another fund for a total $17,500 salary.

Nugent came to Florida State in 1953 and his teams have an overall record of 23 wins and 17 losses, including a 5-1 mark in 1956 when the Seminoles tried to crack the "bigtime" and gain a bid to join the Southeastern Conference.

Coach Glen Rose's Razorbacks hit only 28 per cent of their shots from the court in Texas' 44 per cent, but dominated the backboards by hauling in 72 rebounds to 41 and as a result took many more shots at the basket.

The Razorbacks held potent Raymond Downs to 10 points and only three field goals as compared to his 24.2-point average.

Freddy Grim popped in four field goals and three free throws to spark the late Arkansas rally that erased a 61-52 Texas lead with six minutes to go. Grim wound up with 17 points to pace the victors and it was his long set shot that put Arkansas ahead to stay in the final moments.

Bragan To Speak At Sports Event
DALLAS (UP)—Bobby Bragan, the fiery young baseball manager who made a successful debut as a major league skipper with the Pittsburgh Pirates last season, will be the principal speaker at the annual Sports Achievement Dinner here Feb. 11.

Bragan will be just one of the sports luminaries on hand for the affair at the Downtown YMCA as the Texas Sports Writers Association and the Saturday Morning Quarterbacks Club honor the top athletes and coaches of 1956. Bragan will be introduced by Dick Butler, president of the Texas League.

Also on hand will be Bobby Morrow, the Olympic sprint champion from Abilene Christian College who was voted the Texas Amateur Athlete of the Year and Southwesterner of the Year awards by the sports writers, and Paul (Bear) Bryant of Texas A&M, the Senior College Coach of the Year.

Jayhawks Topped By Iowans

By UNITED PRESS
Thundering upsets that rocked both Kansas and Kentucky left North Carolina today with the only perfect record among the nation's major college basketball teams and with a golden opportunity to seize the No. 1 national ranking.

Lightning struck at Ames, Iowa, in the form of a last-second, 20-foot basket by Don Medakers to give Iowa State a 39-37 upset of Kansas, the country's No. 1 team, for Kansas' first loss of the year in 13 games.

And at New Orleans, Tulane led almost all the way to upset Kentucky, the nation's No. 3 team, 68-60, for the first time since 1938—leaving Coach Cliff Wells to gasp, "This hour will do us the rest of our life."

Will (The Still) Chamberlain, Kansas' sensational sophomore who leads the nation's scorers, was held to just 17 points by Iowa State but, even so, nearly saved the Jayhawks when he tied the score at 37-37 on a pair of free throws with seven seconds remaining to play.

But then Iowa State drove down court and the 6-foot, 8-inch Medakers cut loose with his game-winning shot from near the jump circle as the game ended. It was sweet revenge for Iowa State, which bowed to Kansas, 68-57, in a game in the Big Seven pre-season tournament last month.

Five-foot, 8-inch Gary Thompson of the Cyclones stole the show from the gangling Chamberlain, plotting their slow-down strategy by frequently holding the ball in mid-court while his mates jockeyed for position and also taking game scoring honors with 18 points.

For Kentucky, Monday night's upset was the third loss in 14 games. Tulane went in front, 8-6, in the early minutes, boosted its margin to as much as 17 points, and then stood off a Kentucky rally that cut the deficit to 60-56 with 1:25 remaining. The Green Wave used only one substitute, and he didn't come in until the final 42 seconds.

Newman And Tokyo Lose, But Furniture Gets Big Beating

Dory Funk and Rip Rogers boasted before their main event battle at the Sportsman's Club last night that the chairs had better be fastened down and the ring bolstered before they got into the ring.

Before the terrible whoome finished their tag team match with Leo (The Lion) Newman and Tokyo Joe they had left the arena in a shambles and the capacity crowd scattered in protective corners.

The new tag team duo staged a real free-for-all in and out of the ring before winning their second and deciding fall to take the tag team match. Their opponents left the ring in an uproar of protests to referee Tommy Phelps after he had given the final fall to the winners.

The match started out more peaceful-like with Rogers pinning Newman in 20:55 with a body press following a series of slams. Before that, Funk and Newman had protested to Phelps about Newman's dirty tactics. Newman came into the ring with strips of tape on the sole of a shoe and he used the tape to scratch his opponents.

Funk almost finished the first match when he applied a toe hold on Newman but Tokyo Joe broke it up by illegally entering the ring. In the second fall, the chaos started when Funk and Rogers were tossed from the ring and Newman and Tokyo Joe kept them out. The two outsiders started tossing chairs and tables into the ring to clear the way for their re-entrance into the ring. Funk pinned the surprised Japanese karate chopper with a body press while Rogers was taking care of Newman.

Newman and Tokyo Joe protested the victory but to no avail. Phelps had to use strongarm tactics to clear the ring.

Don Curtis, a newcomer to Pampa and this area, became a favorite of the fans by winning the semifinale event over John Tollas. Curtis countered with some rough methods to gain the first fall in 13:53 with a body press following several drop kicks.

The former Empire States heavyweight champion was tossed out of the ring by Tollas in the second fall and he could not get back in. The two began fighting out of the ring, causing the first of many chairs to be smashed, and Curtis managed to get back into the ring first to win by disqualification.

Rogers and Tokyo Joe battled to a draw in the one-fall, 20-minute opener.

Elliott Probable Cal Coach

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—University of California officials were expected tonight to name Pete Elliott of Nebraska as head football coach.

Elliott's name has been mentioned as the possible successor to Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf by sports writers here and in Nebraska, but Cal officials have refused to budge from the "no comment" seat.

However, United Press learned that Elliott is scheduled to fly into San Francisco at the same time the announcement is scheduled to be made.

Waldorf gave up the ghost last fall while the Bears were stumbling through their worst season since the "wise walrus" took over in 1946. During his tenure he took Cal to the Rose Bowl three straight years—but college alumni have notoriously short memories.

Several special guests, other than speaker Rev. Bob Richards, will be present for the Pampa Harvester football banquet at the high school cafeteria Thursday night.

Coach Frank Kimbrough and several of the West Texas State football players who recently won the Tangerine Bowl game will be among those attending. The banquet is being presented by the Quarterback Club and it will honor the Harvester footballers.

Tickets for the banquet are $2.50 each. They are on sale through members of the Quarterback Club as well as the Pampa News and KPDM. Those who have tickets include Warren Fatheree, Warren

RESERVE STRENGTH—These two Pampa Harvester basketball players have helped provide the added strength to the squad this year as the Pampanos marched to 16 wins in 17 games. They are Robert Langford, left, and Daryl Ammons. Both saw action against Monterey last week. Ammons scored three points and Langford two on the last shot of the game as the buzzer sounded. The Harvesters will play the Lubbock Westerners there Friday night for their first game of the week. (News photo)

Mantle Turns Down 1st Yank Contract

By UNITED PRESS
Mickey Mantle is shooting for a $60,000-a-year better salary and a year of warming up for it he has fired his first contract right back at the Yankees—unassigned.

The Yankees' first offer, containing a $50,000 raise, left him cold. Mantle admitted Monday night in Baltimore where he was honored as baseball's outstanding hitter in 1956.

"I sent the contract right back to them," he said. "It wasn't signed, so I guess they knew how I felt about it."

While the 25-year-old center field sensation who won the American League's "triple crown" last year did not reveal terms of the contract he sent back, it was learned that it called for a $50,000 raise over his 1956 salary estimated at $32,500.

The Yankee offer would boost Mickey's pay to $37,500 this year. Haven't Announced Figure
"I haven't announced the figure I have in mind to any of the newspapers, and I don't intend to," Mantle declared. "But that contract they sent me was nowhere near it."

As a banner box-office attraction who batted .353, drove in 130 runs and hit 32 homers to lead the league in all those departments last season, as well as win the circuit's Most Valuable Player award, Mantle feels he's entitled to at least $60,000.

The Washington Senators announced the signing of pitchers Bob Wiesler, Pete Ramon and Ralph Groves, outfielder Dick Teitelbach and infielders Jose Valdivielso and Tony Roig. Those six were the first Senator players to agree to terms.

Foldberg May Take New Job

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UP)—Hank Foldberg, University of Florida offensive line coach, may announce shortly whether he will accept a job as assistant line coach at the University of Missouri.

Foldberg, former All-American end for Army, announced the offer Monday and said he was giving it "deep consideration, but I am still in the process of making up my mind."

"I won't be ready to announce a decision until I've had more time to talk it over" with Head Coach Bob Woodruff, Foldberg said.

He said Frank Broyles, Georgia Tech assistant coach who was named Missouri head coach last week, offered him the job "as soon as Frank accepted the Missouri offer."

Foldberg has been a member of the Florida coaching staff since 1952. He said Missouri offered him "a more attractive financial proposition," but declined to disclose any figures.

Southwesterner of the Year awards by the sports writers, and Paul (Bear) Bryant of Texas A&M, the Senior College Coach of the Year.

Both Morrow and Bryant have indicated they would be present to receive their awards and acceptances are expected from the other coaches later.

Sugar Hart Wins Over Gene Johns

NEW YORK (UP)—Sugar Hart, the world's hottest young welterweight with 10 straight victories under his belt, is a very patient fella—willing to "wait" nine or 10 months for a title shot.

"I'm only 20, and in no rush," explained the slender, dynamic Philadelphia Negro, who Monday night floored young Gene Johns of New York three times in the sixth round at St. Nicholas Arena for an automatic technical knockout—his sixth straight kayo.

CLOSE THE DOOR!—Boston's Bob Cousy whisked through an opening between two New York players, Ken Sears (12) and Richie Guerin, left them startled and everybody else worried as he drove on for the basket. This is typical Cousy and it brings the crowds out.

Bill Meek's Ability Known Decade Ago

William M. (Bill) Meek's coaching ability came to light a decade ago when, fresh out of Tennessee, he coached Fort Benning, Ga., to the national service football title with only six players of college experience.

Since that year, 1946, Meek's staff has been on the ascendancy in the coaching realm.

And, it may have reached its peak, businesswise at least, earlier this month when Southern Methodist lured him away from all-rich University of Houston with a "write-your-own-ticket" contract that "eventually" would end up as a 10-year pact at an estimated $17,000 yearly, plus a tenure clause that virtually makes it a lifetime job.

Few coaches in the nation can come close to having that much security packed into their future. There has been only one other deal like it in Southwest Conference history—when Texas enticed Dana X. Bible away from Nebraska 20 years ago.

Meek, who had very little acquaintance with defeat during his three-year span as a blocking back at Tennessee during that school's string of 32 games without defeat, ran into adversity when he first went to Fort Benning and took over as coach. His teams weren't winning, so he decided to be a player-coach. Then, the tide turned.

He was eligible for discharge from the Army in June, 1946, but stayed six months longer to coach there one more season. It was his best job.

"We had only six boys on that team who had had college experience," Meek said. "The others were just out of high school and we were playing against some of the most highly-touted graduates on other teams."

Bridges Big Gap
The next year, 1948, 34 of Meek's Fort Benning boys were playing college ball, indicating his tutoring had bridged a big gap in their athletic careers.

The job made such an impression on Jim Tatum that the latter persuaded Meek to forego further education toward a law career and come to Maryland as an assistant. Three bowl games during his four-year stay with Tatum kept up his speaking acquaintance with triumph.

The name Great Britain was adopted in 1707, when England and Scotland agreed to unite under one king and one parliament.

The lobster swims backward.

The name of Michigan is said to have come from the Chippewa Indian "MAJIGAN," WHICH MEANS "clearing."

Burns to Death

ARLINGTON, Tex. (UP)—J. C. Pierce, about 50, of Kennedale, Tex., was burned to death Sunday when some gasoline he was putting into a truck ignited and exploded.

STRANGE CARGO—Arriving by London taxicab instead of flying saucer, this "space man" has to be helped out of his tight squeeze at the Royal Horticultural Hall. He's actor John Watson, on hand to get the Schoolboys' Own Exhibition off to a flying start.

Little Advancement In Integration Seen In '57

(Written For United Press) The third anniversary of the Supreme Court's school integration decision is less than six months away, but any meaningful implementation of the decision in the deep South appears at least as distant today as it did in May, 1954.

Most advocates of compulsory desegregation, and some opponents, generally believed two and a half years ago that the decision meant virtually the end of a long ideological war.

What most extremists on both sides, as well as more moderate observers, agree upon now is that the decision represented a major victory but no ultimate triumph. Ahead lies many a year of anti-integration legal campaigns and extra-legal resistance on state and community levels.

There is little likelihood that 1957 will witness any real integration in the states which would be most affected in terms of numerical ratios. Those states are Mississippi, Alabama, Virginia, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Louisiana and Florida.

Here and there a few Negro children may gain entry through court action. They will have had to make their way through a maze of legal obstructions, created by legislative action, and such other and no less effective barriers as economic pressures or intimidation by organized or spontaneous white groups.

Confronted with this resistance, the Negroes of the deep South will probably again concern themselves, primarily with getting Negro voters on the rolls as their equal civil rights.

And the White House can be expected to push ahead with school equalization programs which in the long run may be more effective than legal-or illegal delaying tactics as a means of keeping white and Negro school children separated.

ONE-MAN "CHOPPER"—The Marine Corps' new one-man helicopter, the XROE-1, is shown at Palo Alto, Calif., in use and, on the ground, disassembled. Designed to be collapsed into an easily transportable package, the 'copter weighs less than 250 pounds. It is powered with a Nelson, two-cylinder opposed, two-cycle, air-cooled engine.

Senators Call For Check On Gas, Fuel Oil Prices

WASHINGTON (UP)—Two senators—a Republican and a Democrat—are calling for a Senate investigation of increases in gas and fuel oil prices.

Sen. W. Kerr Scott (D-NC) announced he is drafting a resolution that would create a special Senate committee to do the job.

Sen. J. Glenn Beall (R-Md) called on the Senate Banking and Currency Committee to do it.

Earlier, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) said the government should step in if necessary to prevent a fuel oil price gouge on Americans.

The Justice Department only last week announced an investigation of the price increases. The department wants to know if the major oil firms raised prices according to some agreement. That would be illegal.

Other congressional news:

Doctrine: Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash) said the administration has provided "no evidence" of any new Red threat that would justify hasty approval of the Eisenhower Doctrine. He made the statement as the combined Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees called Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to testify on the doctrine.

Brennan: Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) said he would oppose the nomination of William Brennan to the Supreme Court. But he acknowledged Brennan would win nomination. McCarthy said Brennan has waged a "guerrilla war" against congressional committees that expose Communists.

Reserves: Congress appeared on the verge of a new fight over the draft and military reserves. The fight is being started by Army orders for sweeping changes in the current military reserve program. Some congressmen questioned whether the Army could order the changes without congressional approval.

Financial: Seven GOP senators introduced a bill that would establish a national monetary and fi-

Another Swede Takes Hollywood By Storm

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Another Swede with a large shoe size has taken Hollywood by storm—beautiful Inger Stevens, who landed a starring role opposite Bing Crosby for her first movie.

Inger, however, is not like that other big-footed Swedish star, Garbo, but a Grace Kelly-type blonde with more warmth and vivacity. She has big blue eyes, a sunny smile and an 8 AA shoe, which, she says, "I'm very proud of."

Like Grace, Inger learned her craft as an actress in New York television shows and has moved to Hollywood to become one of the new stars of 1957.

"Naturally this is very exciting for my first movie," Inger said on the MGM set while she and Crosby rested between scenes. "Bing's very nice. He seems too relaxed it relaxes me."

Inger was reared in Stockholm, but her family moved to this country seven years ago. Her father, a teacher, worked at Columbia University "and we moved around the country a lot." He now teaches in the adult education department at Texas Tech.

Nearly four years ago Inger, who had worked with her father in little theater groups, went to New York to crash show business. She toured on the stage with a Signe-Hasso show, "Picnic" and "Oh Men, Oh Women." She appeared in a short-lived play on Broadway, "Debut," and appeared on numerous live-TV dramas.

Paramount tested her "in no make-up and with vaseline on my face so I looked like a dead cat" for "The Tin Star" with Henry Fonda. Inger lost the role but the studio gave her an exclusive contract.

Paramount made Grace Kelly a star by borrowing her from MGM, and now it's turnabout. MGM borrowed Paramount's Inger for the Crosby film, "Man on Fire."

Quiz Show Emcee Says Big Money Bits To Go

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—The long green will get a short shuffle on TV from here on in, according to veteran quiz emcee Clayton "Bud" Collyer.

Collyer, shepherd of "Beat The Clock" since 1950, recently took on a new CBS-TV question bee, "To Tell The Truth," which does out no more than $1,000 per joust. Despite the low-calorie lettuce, the show seems to be healthy and clicking.

"I think the days of the money giveaways are pretty definitely on the wane," said Collyer today. "You know, when '$84,000 Question' started, I gave it a year and a half of good ratings.

Audience If Dark Too
"I think I've proved a pretty good prophet. It's pretty clear 'Question' and the shows that have imitated it don't have the impact they once had—despite the fact the big money is still there.

"What counts over the long haul is the game itself—the format of the show and how much basic appeal it holds for an audience. I think we've got that kind of a game with 'To Tell The Truth.' The audience doesn't know the answers, but they don't need specialized knowledge to solve the problem."

"To Tell The Truth" revolves around three unidentified guests who confront the show's panel of four—Polly Bergen, Hildy Parks, Dick Van Dyke and John Cameron Swayze. All three guests claim to be the same person. It's up to the panel to ferret out the two false claimants.

Collyer Won Job
TV packagers Mark Goodson and Bill Todman ("What's My Line," "I've Got A Secret") began cooking up the show two, and a half years ago.

SAN ANGELO, Tex.: Mrs. Andrews Braden, an elderly farm wife, awaiting President Eisenhower's visit to the Southwest drought disaster area:

"I hope he doesn't go by so fast we can't see him."

WASHINGTON: House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack warning President Eisenhower against inviting Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia to visit the United States:

"The resentment of the people would make it more difficult to pass an effective foreign assistance bill, as well as obtain the necessary appropriations."

PHOENIX, Ariz.: Julie Hagedous, 20, looking at an electric toaster she received at her wedding to Joseph Nocht, 26, with whom she recently escaped from Hungary:

"What is this?"

WEST SHOULD DEFEAT THE CONTRACT
West should defeat the contract by making the correct play as the second trick. He should expect to win two clubs and a heart and must look for a fourth trick in order to defeat the contract. In view of the nature of South's opening bid, it is almost impossible for East to have a natural trump trick. Hence West should try to establish a diamond in order to defeat the contract.

West should lead a low diamond at the second trick to establish a diamond before declarer can discard his loser. South will lose two clubs and a heart in addition, and his game contract is therefore set.

MERCURY BOOSTS PRODUCTION TO A MERCURY A MINUTE TO MEET DEMAND

A record 40,000 Big M's being built in January... a 43% increase over December. A Mercury a minute, every minute of the day and night! All Mercury assembly plants are working overtime with the largest work force in Mercury history to meet the tremendous buyer demand. The landslide swing to Mercury is solid evidence that the new Big M is the most exciting car value of 1957. Never before has so much bigness and luxury cost so little. Prices for America's most beautiful and advanced car are just an easy step above the low-price three. Why not stop in at your Mercury dealer's today?
