Tried on a charge of transporting liquor in a wet area without a license was Roland Jackson Cox, of Custer, Okla.

Adams was arrested by city police after being involved in an accident at the intersection of Brown and Cuyler.

West Texas State College Choir To Perform In Pampa

A concert, featuring the 60-voice Cappella Choir of West Texas State College, will be presented Wednesday, April 3, at 1:30 p. m. at the Pampa High School Auditorium.

Directed by Dr. Houston Bright, the choral group will open its annual spring tour of Panhandle cities in Dumas, and will appear the same day in Sulphur and Dalhart. The choir will also appear April 2 in Gruver, Borger and Phillips, April 3 in Perryton and Pampa, and April 4 in Amarillo and Hereford.

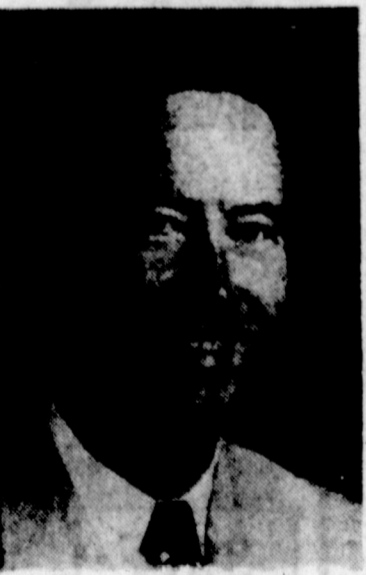

Among selections for the choir's repertoire are two original compositions by Dr. Bright which were written especially for the Panhandle Choral Festival Grand Concert, held annually in Borger. They are "Benedictus and Hosanna," written for the festival held March 15, and "Te Deum Laudamus," written and sung at the Borger musical in 1956.

An arrangement of "Streets of Laredo," by Dr. Bright is also included in the group's repertoire for the tour. His arrangement of the Western classic will soon be published by the Edward B. Marks Music Corporation.

The choir also plans to perform two choruses from the Gounod opera, "Faust," which was recently presented by Metropolitan and NBC stars in Amarillo. Dr. Bright's group formed the chorus for the Amarillo presentation, and one of the choir's tenors, Dean Kelley of Amarillo, sang a leading role in the opera.

Two small ensembles within the choir will present novelty and specialty numbers for "breakers" between major portions of the program. They are a girl's trio, the Harmonettes, and a men's quartet, the Hi-Fi's.

If it comes from a Hardware Store, we have it. Lewis Howe. (Adv.)

DR. HOUSTON BRIGHT ... to direct choir

Members of the Harmonettes are Janice Lawrence Ruth of Dalhart, Joann Stanaland of Tulsa, and Pat Jackson of Hereford. The pianist accompanist is Mary Ann Becker of Pampa. The Hi-Fi Quartet, which has been performing for the past two years, includes Bennie Gollehon of Dimmitt, Jim Restine, Dean Kelley, and Roy Lowe, all of Amarillo.

Dr. Bright, a graduate of West Texas State and the University of Southern California, has made the WT choir one of the best known concert groups in the Southwest. Besides two tours of the Tri-State area annually, the choir performs for special conventions, appears on radio and television, and records special records for special occasions.

The WT professor already has a dozen varied choruses, instrumental pieces, piano compositions and arrangements published. Seven of his compositions will be published this spring, and about two dozen others are in manuscript.

Beck In For More Trouble In Probe Of Rackets

Committee Comes Up With A Rash Of New Charges

By HERBERT FOSTER and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH
United Press Staff Correspondents
WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Rackets Committee dug into a rash of new charges against the Teamsters Union today including reports that Dave Beck has been linked with strikebreaking and collusion with management.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy told newsmen the committee has enough evidence to warrant further investigation of possible labor-management collusion by Beck, through Nathan W. Shefferman, Beck's nylon - and deep-freeze-buying friend.

Simultaneously the AFL-CIO Executive Council met in emergency session to consider moves to oust Beck as a vice president of the huge labor federation for invoking the Fifth Amendment before the Rackets Committee. Beck, who did not attend, blasted AFL-CIO President George Meany for calling the council session on short notice while Beck was on the committee witness stand. He said the hasty action deprived him of his "rights" as a council member to attend.

Committee members retorted acidly, meanwhile, to Beck's announcement Thursday that he will set up a million-dollar nationwide publicity program to "tell the true story" about his union.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) told the United Press: "I think Mr. Beck can save all that money by telling the truth himself." Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-NC) said Beck had a chance to make "a full disclosure about the Teamsters and their president but failed to avail himself on the opportunity when it knocked on his door."

Beck invoked the Fifth Amendment 117 times this week when the committee questioned him about his links with Shefferman and charges that he took $322,000 of union funds.

Shefferman, 70-year-old Chicago "labor relations adviser" for 300 companies, testified he paid more than $25,000 worth of Beck's bills and was repaid from Teamster Union treasuries.

More Evidence Disclosed
Kennedy told newsmen Thursday there is some evidence Shefferman had cooperation from Dave Beck and other labor leaders in some instances of strikebreaking or preventing union organization of Shefferman's business clients.

"The committee would be interested if there was collusion between him and certain operators to prevent the organizing of a shop," Kennedy said.

Suez Canal Reopened But Crisis Continues

Jordanian Attack On Israel Train Ends Hope For Peace

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
A convoy sailed through the Suez Canal today for the first time since the triple invasion of Egypt five months ago, but a Jordanian machinegun attack on an Israeli freight train ended hopes for the period of Mideast crisis was over.

An Israeli military spokesman said machinegun fire was opened on the train Thursday night from the Jordan stronghold of Tallarem, 10 miles north of Qalqilya on the Israeli frontier, scene of a major Israeli retaliatory raid last Oct. 10-11.

No casualties were reported, but the attack north of Jerusalem where Jordan bulges into former Palestine territory was expected to inflame Israeli feelings, already tense because of recent ambushes and minor attacks.

The Israeli raid on Qalqilya, which came less than a month before invasion of the Sinai desert, killed 66.

Demand Money First
Ten ships entered the 101-mile-long Suez Canal at 10:30 a. m. (3:30 a. m. EST) at Suez shortly after Egypt suddenly declared the canal open to big ships. The action was timed to come before the West could organize opposition to Egypt's demand for payment first and passage later.

The largest of the ships was the Italian cargo vessel Russula, 7,418 tons, but Egypt said ships up to about 14,000 tons and possibly 20,000 could now transit the canal. Ships today carried the flags of Russia, Romania, Greece, Panama, Costa Rica, Finland and Italy.

Egypt demanded and received full dues from each ship before it was allowed to enter the canal. Passage of the convoy came on a day after Wing Cmdr. Aly Sabri, chief political adviser to Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, announced Egypt would operate, maintain and develop the canal with "no foreign supervision whatsoever." He also said Egypt wanted transit dues in advance.

More details of the Egyptian plan were published in Cairo newspapers. Al Ahran said an Egyptian memorandum distributed to the major users called for 25 per cent of the tolls to be set aside for development of the canal and another 5 per cent going to Egypt as royalty.

Yarborough was scheduled to arrive in Pampa last week end but the trip was called off due to the inclement weather, Crossman said.

Yarborough told Crossman in a telephone conversation that he would "try his best" to come into the Panhandle area tomorrow. He said that, weather and other conditions prevailing, he would arrive in Amarillo by plane some time tomorrow morning. Upon arriving, he is expected to make a tour of several of the Panhandle cities with Pampa one of the first on his list, according to Crossman.

Yarborough will have been the sixth Senatorial candidate to cover the city of Pampa and the fifth Democrat and should he make his way into the Panhandle, he will most likely be the last of the candidates to do so prior to the all important election to be held Tuesday. Others who have stopped at Pampa thus far have been James Hart, Searcy Bracewell, Martin Dies, C. O. Foerster Jr., and Thad Hutcheson.

Yarborough is scheduled to make state wide television appearances both this evening and Monday evening. Tonight's appearance will appear on channel 4 in this area.

200 Cattle Are Reported Dead

Estimates of the total amount of cattle lost by Gray County farmers and ranchers in the blizzard had risen to approximately 200 head this morning, according to Ralph Thomas, county agent.

Complete reports are still not available, but in most instances, Thomas reported, the loss has been a small percentage of the herds. He added that most of the losses were reported on the plains area of the county and very few losses were reported in the creek bottoms and brakes.

When contacted this morning, Paul Crouch, at Panhandle Packing Company, reported that they had picked up over 200 head of dead cattle to be processed by that firm's rendering plant. He reported that over half of this number came from near Miami, however.

The large number of dead cattle has overloaded the local plant's facilities, Crouch reported, and he has had to turn down calls to pick up cattle. He reported that some of the calls have been from areas that have rendering plants, so he believes that the plants throughout the Panhandle are all overloaded with dead cattle.

Crouch concluded by stating that as far as he knows, the stockmen are burying the dead cattle that cannot be picked up.

Thomas also reported today that the blizzard had one good effect for farmers and ranchers in the area, the jackrabbit population was depleted. He reported that recently the population of the rabbits had increased to the point that steps needed to be taken to eliminate them but that the blizzard has apparently taken care of that problem for several years.

Reports throughout the area indicate that several thousand dead rabbits have been found in the fields and along the highways.

Gray County Grand Jury In Session

A total of ten cases were to be presented today to the Gray County Grand Jury, 31st District Court, according to Bill Waters, district attorney.

One charge of assault with intent to murder, three charges of swindling with worthless checks, two charges of driving while intoxicated, two charges of stealing clothes from an automobile, one charge of auto theft and one charge of theft of $250 were to be presented to the grand jury for action.

Late this morning the jury was still in session and no report of action taken was available. It was expected that the group would adjourn sometime this afternoon.

The Lipscomb County Grand Jury, which met yesterday afternoon, returned one indictment against James Herbert Woodard, 28, Perryton on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense.

Following the return of the indictment, Woodard appeared before the court and entered a plea of guilty to the charge, according to Waters. Woodard was given a five year probationed sentence.

72 Ballots Are Cast In Absentia

A total of 16 persons have voted in absentee balloting in the city elections with 56 listed for the county-wide election.

Ed Vicars, city secretary, reported this morning that eight persons had voted in Ward 1 and eight in Ward 2 for a total of 16 thus far.

Hall Denies Charges In ICT's Probe

DALLAS (UP)—Robert A. Hall, a Dallas lawyer and county Democratic committeeman, denies he ever told Insurance Commissioner John Osorio he would go to Gov. Price Daniel if Osorio ever ruled ICT Insurance Co. insolvent.

Rep. Jerry Sadler of Perilla accused Hall of making the remark in a speech in the Legislature in Austin Thursday. Hall said it was "false and completely untrue." Sadler also accused Daniel of accepting a campaign contribution from Ben Jack Cagle, former president of ICT.

Daniel admitted getting $100 from James G. Cagle, a distant cousin of Ben Jack, who was president of ICT when it collapsed, $4 million in debt. Sadler demanded in his speech that "every dollar" contributed to Daniel's campaign last summer be investigated. Daniel said he didn't know Ben Jack. Sadler undertook to tie the Ben Jack Cagle campaign contribution, which Daniel denied, in with a $40,000 fee Hall got from ICT for helping the company raise money to pay off claims.

"A week before the temporary injunction was granted against the firm (ICT), I met with the Attorney General, some of his assistants and the Insurance Commission. I fully explained to them that I was acting as a broker for ICT to help the company raise money."

But he denied that he told Osorio he was going to run to the Governor if Osorio declared ICT insolvent.

As to the $40,000, Hall said: "My firm and not me personally" (See HALL, Page 3)

Hoffa Says He Is Not Guilty

By CHARLOTTE MOULTON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—Pudgy James R. Hoffa, heir apparent to Dave Beck as president of the giant Teamsters Union, pleaded not guilty today to charges of trying to bribe a Senate Rackets committee investigator.

Miami Attorney Hyman I. Fischbach, a co-defendant, also entered a plea of innocent.

Federal Judge Richmond B. Keach fixed the date of trial for both for May 27.

$3,000 Bribe
The government charges that Hoffa, a ninth vice president of the Teamsters, passed $3,000 in bribe money to Senate investigator John Cye Cheasty to fish committee secrets and documents for him. The FBI said Hoffa had committee documents on him when he was arrested.

The government says Hoffa approached Cheasty before the committee opened its investigation of alleged links between the Teamster President Dave Beck.

The penalty for conspiracy is $10,000, five years or both; for bribery, three years and three times the amount of the bribe, or both; and for obstructing the committee, $5,000 and five years or both.

The committee also will look into "another very serious business transaction which a company—in which we believe Beck has an interest—had and still has business dealings of some magnitude with the Teamsters Union," Kennedy said. He added, "the profits to that company were over

Boxer Causes Dispute In Louisiana's Race Ban

By ED ROGERS
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 Louisiana's ban on racially mixed athletics has stirred an emotion-charged dispute over race of boxer Ralph Dupas, the nation's sixth-ranked lightweight, who is scheduled to fight in New Orleans.

In a hearing before the Louisiana State Athletic Commission Thursday, Dupas' high school English teacher, Miss Rose Tomeny, charged the controversy was "cruel and sadistic."

The commission, holding a State Health Department statement that Dupas is a Negro, will hear rebuttal testimony from Dupas next Tuesday. Dupas' fight with Vince Martinez is slated for April 8.

Attorneys for Dupas and his promoters produced documents showing Dupas is white, but Dupas' strongest defense came with the unscheduled appearance of Miss Tomeny.

"He was my student," she said. "He went through New Orleans public schools and now that he's champion they want to harm him. It's cruel. Why can't they leave him alone?"

After saying Dupas fought professionally in high school to help support his parents and 10 brothers and sisters, Miss Tomeny said "cruel and sadistic persons" were trying "to tear him down."

The commission did not indicate how the question arose. Dupas attended white schools and his race had not been publicly challenged before.

The health department statement said Dupas was born Ralph Duplessis in Plaquemines Parish and is shown "to be of the colored race on his original birth record." But Dupas said he was born in Orleans Parish.

Mrs. Lucretia Gravolet, Plaquemines Parish registrar who testified against Dupas, turned to him after the commissioners began a closed session and said, "You're a nigger—admit it! Take me to court for that!"

Dupas, showing intense emotion, replied, "What have I ever done to you? Has my mother harmed you? Has my father?"

Ike Leaves For Rest On Farm

By MERRIMAN SMITH
 United Press White House Writer
 WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower still complaining of "bronchitis," planned to leave today for a restful week end on his farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

The President, who has not made an overnight visit to the farm since last December, was scheduled to make the trip from the White House by automobile.

In addition to getting a rest the President will have a reunion with Mrs. Eisenhower who has been at the farm for two weeks. She went to Gettysburg at the time Mr. Eisenhower left by Navy cruiser for the Bahamas and Bermuda.

The ocean voyage may have caused some general improvement in Mr. Eisenhower's condition. But as late as Thursday afternoon he was telling visitors he still was bothered with what he described as bronchitis. His two-month-old cough remained in some evidence. He told his news conference earlier this week he wants to get some more sun.

His next chance for a holiday of any duration apparently will not come until April 18 or 19 when he is expected to go to Augusta, Ga.

During his ocean trip the President put on two pounds, bringing him up to 170. Disclosure that he had gained brought to light the fact that his weight had gone down to 168 pounds in recent weeks, probably due to his continuing moderate diet plus the effects of his lingering winter cold.

His chief doctor, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, has not used the word bronchitis in describing the President's winter annoyance but terms it a form of tracheitis—a throat inflammation. Bronchitis apparently was the President's own choice of medical terminology.

After a busy morning schedule of appointments at the White House, he planned no work at his farm over the week end. He probably will return to Washington late Sunday or early Monday.

The Texas State Fair alone drew 2,380,000 visitors in 16 days.

One letter, signed by Jim King of Tulsa, said: "Dear Senator: Under separate cover I am mailing you my shirt. If Congress passes the $71.8 billion budget, I am mailing you my pants, too."

Youth Is Found Dead

AMARILLO, Tex. (UP)—A love-smitten 16-year-old boy who tried to walk 35 miles through a savage blizzard to see the girl he loved was found slumped on a barbed-wire fence, frozen to death, Thursday.

A cowboy, riding the fenceline in search of breaks caused by the storm, came upon the body of Chester A. Simpson, 16 miles northwest of Amarillo, which had been the boy's destination when he set out last Saturday.

Even before the blizzard began, ranch staff members searched the area, seeking to find and dissuade Simpson from continuing his trip.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

David E. Mills, Minister
LAMAR CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Bond and Sumner Sts., Pampa, Texas

The last thing that Jesus said to his Disciples, as recorded in the Gospel of Matthew, was "Go . . . make disciples . . . baptize them . . . teach them . . . I am with you always."

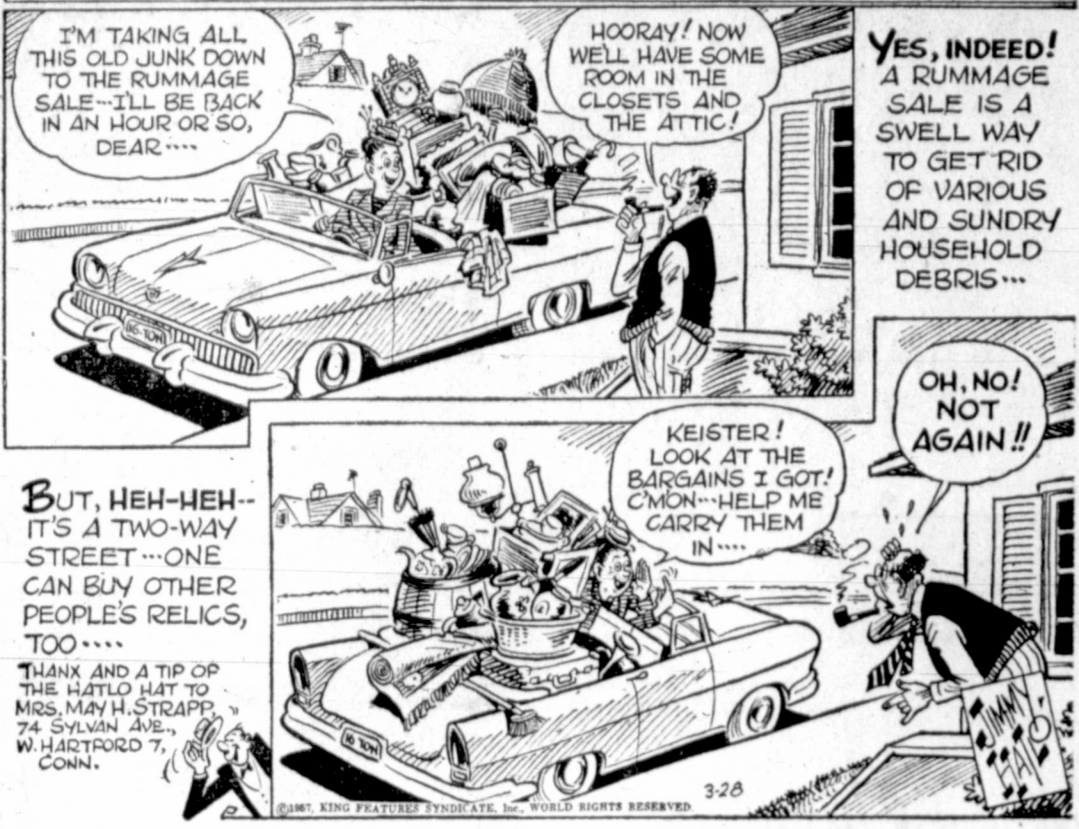

What is a disciple? We usually think of disciples as followers of Jesus. They were, but even more important, they were students of Jesus. Thus when he told his Disciples, that group of 11 devoted men, to go and make disciples, he intended for them to so interest others in Jesus that they would devote themselves to his teaching.

Jesus told his Disciples to baptize these new students. Baptism is the beginning of the Christian life. It does not make one a Christian, but only marks the beginning of a new way of life. For Jesus added, "teach them to observe all that I have commanded". The Christian life is a life of obedience to God.

It is not enough for us to put our membership in a Church and go about our business as though nothing had happened. Becoming a Christian is a serious matter, but we are not alone. Jesus has promised us his presence to help us live the Christian life. "Lo, I am with you always". Choose—and LIVE—the Christian life.

Complacency Of The US Public Toward Polio Shocks Doctors

By ROBERT E. JACKSON
NEW YORK, March 29 (UP)—Doctors are shocked by the complacency of the American public toward the continuing danger of polio.

The arrival of Salk vaccine did not mean the departure of polio from the American scene. Even in 1956, a "light" year, polio struck someone in this country every 35 minutes.

One out of four these victims was an adult—a woman who no longer could care for her children, a man who ceased to be a breadwinner for his family. The rate of polio among adults is rising, and when it hits them, it hits hard.

Millions Face Danger

Yet on March 1, five-sixths of the adults between 20 and 40 still had not bothered—or been able—to get even one shot of Salk vaccine. These 35 million persons could say that the risk was not great, but the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis warns:

"Millions of children and adults are as open to the terrors of polio today as if Dr. Salk had never existed."

On March 1, three-fourths of the high-school-age youths in the United States, many of them dismissing polio as a "kid's disease," had failed to take the first step toward protecting themselves against the possibility, however remote, of a lifetime in a wheelchair or an iron lung.

Misleading Phrases

These people cite a variety of reasons—"just haven't got around to it," "why should I pay $3 or $6 a shot while others get them free?" "There's a shortage of vaccine in my community."

To a degree, the public can plead that its apathy be pardoned. A look at the stories and pro-

Former Envoy Recommends New Weapon Emphasis

WASHINGTON, March 29 (UP)—Jefferson Caffery, former U.S. ambassador to France, Egypt and Brazil, recommended today that military aid to Western Europe be continued with emphasis on new weapons.

But Caffery said he did "not recommend any major additional" economic aid to Western Europe.

He made the statements in an on-the-spot report for the special Senate committee to study the foreign aid program.

Caffery also said "the coordinated defense effort must remain the heart of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization." But he added, "to sustain that defense effort it is essential to denunciations of two years ago shows such phrases as, 'there will still be polio—this year,' diphtheria and typhoid used to kill far more people—before they were brought under control... end of a long fight..."

But on March 1 there were still 58 million Americans under 40 with no shots and 40 million who lacked the full protection of three shots. Only 7 million adults had received even one shot, and only 1 million had three.

Five Burned In Blast At Fort Sill

FORT SILL, Okla., March 29 (UP)—Five civilian employees were burned, one seriously, here when a gas line exploded, shooting flames through a door connecting an annex to the post's quartermaster building.

The explosion occurred about 9 a.m. Thursday, after one of the women employees discovered a gas leak in the annex, which housed the women's lounge.

Capt. Robert Kren, of the public information office, said engineers were in the process of turning off the main gas line when the explosion occurred.

Mrs. Cholma Davis, 29, Lawton, was hospitalized for treatment of third degree burns on the face and first and second degree burns on the hands and face. The other four were treated and released.

Kren said there was no way of knowing at present what caused the blast, but that it was apparently caused by "seeping gas from the main line."

The post fire department had the gas blaze under control in about an hour. A part of the annex's roof was knocked off by the

International Situation Is Displeasing To Russians

Soviet Russia is showing acute displeasure over developments in the international situation.

In recent days, the Moscow radio and Moscow newspapers have denounced President Eisenhower's decision to join the military committee of the Baghdad Pact against Communist aggression in the Middle East.

They have denounced the signing in Rome of a new treaty under which six European countries agree to form a common market, free of tariff barriers, and to pool their resources for the development of atomic power for peaceful purposes.

The decision of the United States to supply Great Britain with long-range atomic missiles has been condemned.

Photographers Honor Their Outstanding

WASHINGTON, March 29 (UP)—The National Press Photographers Association Thursday night honored outstanding members and others who contributed to the photo-journalism profession during the last year at its annual awards dinner held in conjunction with the 12th annual NPPA convention.

United Press Newspictures was cited for "leadership in establishing news pictures in their proper perspective in modern communications." Frank Tremaine, general manager of United Press Newspictures accepted the citation.

It said:

"In recognition of many contributions to the field of photo-journalism through leadership in establishing news pictures in their proper perspective in modern communications; of its steadfast encouragement and material assistance to NPPA in helping press photographers to attain greater technical competence and wider community appreciation of their services in the public interest; and for its constant support of the freedom of visual information program of our society."

Gardner H. Cowles, editor of Look Magazine and president of the Des Moines (Iowa) Register and Tribune, and Paul Threlfall, photography director of KATV-TV, Wichita, Kan., received the Joseph A. Sprague Award.

Cowles was cited "in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the cause of photo-

TV And Movies Making Good Girl Of Patty

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Television and the movies are making a good little girl out of Patty McCormack, the pig-tailed blonde who collected an Oscar nomination for being a fiend in "The Bad Seed."

But the change to angelic roles doesn't thrill her.

Sometimes when people see me they call me 'rat' and 'monster' but I'd like to do more of those bad girl parts," the 11-year-old actress whispered shyly.

Patty was sitting in the Brown Derby restaurant, nearly lost in the big booth and quietly observing the celebrities' table-chopping. As she carefully ate a ham-and-cheese-on-white she explained her "bad seed" stardom has snowballed her into more jobs.

She plays a nice moppet who mothers two little boys on NBC's "Matinee Theater" April 2.

"But maybe I should do this," she grinned, and made motions of demolishing the two tykes as she did her victims in "The Bad Seed."

Next week Patty is another nice girl on "Heinz 57" and then she begins a seven-year contract at Universal-International Studio, beginning with playing a little angel in "Christmas in Paradise." As Patty is going on 12, she may lose her trademark. Those pig-tails, for the U-I pictures.

"I like good girl parts, too," she added.

In real life Patty is a far cry from the "Bad Seed" brat. She appears to be a healthy tomboy with nice manners who isn't impressed by stardom, a novelty among the little darlings of the movies.

The child became an actress at 6 by accident when she went to a speech theater in New York to overcome a lisp. The teacher sent her to a tryout of a play, which flopped. But her second Broadway drama was "The Bad Seed" which established her as a success among small-fry thespians.

Patty was called to Hollywood for the movie version, and by "The Day They Gave Babies Away." She's now in such demand that her parents (her father is a steamfitter) moved to the cinema capital.

Capitol Hill News

WASHINGTON (UP)—House economists today pressed their attack on President Eisenhower's 2.8 billion dollar budget for the Labor and Health, Education and Welfare Departments. They prepared dozens of amendments to cut deeper into the two department's programs for fiscal 1958. The economy drive so far had cut 15.5 million dollars from the Labor budget. The House Appropriations Committee already had cut 20.3 million dollars from it. The economists also cut $3 million dollars in an 83-82 vote from the HEW Department in an opening attack. But budget supporters predicted they would be able to slow down

Civil Rights: Further action on the administration's civil rights bill halted until the House Judiciary Committee completed a formal report of approval. Rep. Kenneth B. Keating, committee ranking Republican said the delay was made to give southern opponents a chance to submit minority views. Some congressmen said the delay might mean death of the bill. Rackets: The Senate Rackets Committee looked into reports that Teamster President Dave Beck has been linked with strike-breaking and collusion with management. The committee was said to be receiving nationwide reports about Beck's activities as the result of testimony this week by Nathan Shefferman, labor relations consultant and personal friend of Beck. Grain: Rep. Merwin Coad (D-Ia) asked Congress to look into the Commodity Credit Corporation's sales of government-owned grain in the open market. Coad said "reliable sources" informed

Student Is Sentenced For Pushing Dope

Daughter Of Circus Clown Hurt In Fall

PATERSON, N.J. (UP)—The aerialist daughter of famed circus clown Felix Adler was seriously injured Thursday night when she fell 25 feet from a rope during a performance of the Pan-American Circus at the Paterson Armory. The 19-year-old aerialist, Mrs. Madeline Long O'Connor, plunged to the tankard before a stunned crowd of some 500 spectators. She was rushed to Paterson General Hospital. A hospital spokesman reported Mrs. O'Connor was in "fair condition" early today. She had fractured both her wrists and her pelvis, the spokesman said. The pretty red-haired performer, known professionally as "Bubbles," planned to join the Ringling Bros., Barnum & Bailey Circus at its opening in New York Madison Square Garden next Wednesday. Her father stayed at the armory the hospital with her daughter.

Price Daniel Has Called Narcotics Pushing 'Murder on the Installment Plan'

But a jury fixed Lambdin's sentence after District Attorneys H. Edward Johnson and Scott D. Moore had called for heavy punishment so that Lambdin would be made an example for other juvenile delinquents. J. E. Johnson, a state narcotics agent, testified he bought almost a pound of marijuana from Lambdin last June for $70. He said Lambdin said he had more marijuana in his car and was doing a good business at school. Protesting the sentence, Johnson and Moore pointed out that Lambdin had done time in the state training school in Gatesville, Tex. for armed robbery.

U.S. AND BRITAIN HAIL A BIRTHDAY—The bird's-eye-view sketch above depicts the Jamestown Festival Park, where the Jamestown Festival opens April 1 to celebrate the 350th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown, Va., first permanent English settlement in the New World. The governments of the United States, Great Britain and Virginia have joined with scores of collaborating organizations to prepare the eight-month celebration, which ends Nov. 30. Britain's Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip will participate, being expected to arrive there direct from England in the royal yacht Britannia on Sept. 9. During the celebration, some 2,500,000 visitors are expected to throng the $1,500,000 Festival Park. The "Three Ships" (16 on sketch) are full-sized replicas of the Susan Constant, the Godspeed and the Discovery, the vessels that landed the first Jamestown settlers on May 13, 1607. Jamestown Island (10 on sketch), a peninsula in 1607, was the site the colonists selected as the place for settlement.

Like What A Story About That Word—Like! Like?

By DOC QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP) — "Like," a nice little word which has been metamorphosing like crazy into the likes of many parts of speech for centuries amid the sick-like groans of disapproving school marmas, shows no signs of holding still and trying to be good — like a good like should.

It has gone and got itself all mixed up with the word-happy jazz musician crowd, of whom, as some grammarian once said, there is no whoer.

Of course grammar is what you make it, and it was Horace Greeley, whose like was looked up by thousands of readers, who once retorted proper to a letter from a reader about an alleged grammatical slip. The complaining letter ended up, "a thousand grammarians are hanging on your answer."

Greeley replied simply: "The spectacle of a thousand grammarians hanging anywhere would be to a joy forever." However, he was an editor, a breed notorious for likely answers.

What the beboppers, and their like, are doing to "like," though, is a considerable sea-change. Historically, "like" has implied a comparison, as in: "Duh cops come, and we run like holy jumping hades." Or, "why don't you be nice, like I?" (This last is for Ring Lardner characters.)

But according to the jazz historian Marshall Stearns, who keeps on top of such things, the modern jazz musicians are using the word before any and all phrases, indiscriminately, as a rather peculiar opening particle.

Now They Blow
Thus: "What should we do today — like go out?... like stay in?"

Stearns gives in illustration the story of the jazzman in front of birdland who sees a fire engine crashing down on him, and he

Hotel Board To Meet Tuesday

A meeting of the board of directors of the Pampa Community Hotel Company has been called by George Cree Jr., president, for Tuesday morning at 9:30.

The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce conference room and Cree has said that it is expected that further information in regard to available sites and costs of these sites for the location of the new hotel will be reported on. It is also possible, Cree said, that some recommendations will be made at this time by the site committee.

Cree, in discussing the matter this morning, expressed the hope that all members of the board will be present since the meeting was, in his words, "a very important one."

For about 15 years, these musicians have used the word "blow" to mean playing any instrument. Whether it's a horn, guitar, or drums, you blow it. Stearns notes now the omnipresent usage of opposites to express meaning. "Terrible" is the highest praise. A fine musician gets this posy: "He blows the worst."

Brothers Get Special Plasma

CHICAGO, March 29 (UP) — A shipment of special blood plasma arrived Thursday from the West Coast for two brothers suffering from hemophilia.

Twenty units of frozen blood plasma were sent by air for John Siambones, 14, and his brother, James, 12. Both have blood that does not clot and had been bleeding for weeks until the flow stopped Wednesday.

Fifteen blood plasma units for the brothers came from the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank at San Francisco and five units from the Alameda - Costa County Medical Association at Oakland, Calif.

A shipment of the special plasma had been expected from Milwaukee but was ordered held in reserve there when the bleeding stopped.

Pasture lands near Ada, southeastern Oklahoma, have brought the area the title of "purebred Hereford center of the nation."

Fifteen Minutes Is Life Cycle Of This Hearty Meatless Main Dish

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

From can opener to dinner table in 15 minutes — that's the life cycle of a hearty meatless main dish made of canned corn and canned mushrooms.

(Of course, the mushrooms and corn come from your pantry shelf. If you want to "de luxe" this meatless dinner a bit further, open your freezer and take out South African rock lobster tails to place in the broiler.

This springtime dinner is quick, easy and very good to eat. So is the corn souffle recipe that follows it.

CORN MUSHROOM SCALLOP

(Makes 6 servings)
One No. 303 can whole kernel corn, drained; 1 4-ounce can button or sliced mushrooms, drained; salt; pepper; marjoram; rosemary; 2 tablespoons light cream; 1 cup crushed crackers; 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese; 1 tablespoon butter or margarine.

In greased 10x6x2-inch casserole, place half of corn. Then add layer of mushrooms, reserving several for garnish.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
The father had 12 sons. According to the Bible which tells the story, he "loved" the boy Joseph most.

He certainly didn't act it. Almost as though he wanted his favorite son to suffer, he deliberately encouraged him to attract his brothers' hate. He listened to Joseph's tale-bearing. He gave him a gaudy, show-off coat of many colors. He allowed him to repeat boastful dreams of his superiority to his brothers. Finally, not strangely, the other brothers got sick of it and decided to do something about it.

What did they choose to do? Did they go to their father and say, "Sir, we resent your unjust treatment of us and think you'd better change it"? Oh no. They grabbed Joseph; they stripped him of the show-off coat and sold him into slavery.

As children have been doing immemorably, they used their brother to discharge anger aroused by their father. Too scared to attack their parent's mistreatment directly, they attacked the child they believed had profited by it.

In modern group therapy, this age-old human trick of transferring forbidden resentment we feel at our parents to our less threatening, less necessary brothers and sisters becomes clearly apparent. So I was told recently by a psychiatrist with much experience in group therapy.

Between sessions at the annual conference of the American Group Psychotherapy Association, Dr. Cornelius Beukenkamp, one of its directors, said to me:

"Successful group therapy is contingent on the patient's relieving the past as he experienced it in his family structure. He sees the therapist as one of his parents — and a fellow patient as his sibling. Often he will displace the pent-up emotion he feels toward his parent to the patient who represents his sibling. This is not unlike the child who because he cannot cope with his father, engages his younger brother."

Can we use Dr. Beukenkamp's information to begin to reduce friction between our own sons and daughters?

Of course we can. The problem is our disinclination to use it. It is much more comfortable for us to believe that Jimmy resents his sister for getting the orange lollipop than to know he resents us for giving it to her.

So long as we can cling to the idea that his resentment belongs to his sister, we can wring our hands over it helplessly. But the moment we acknowledge that his unflattering emotion is felt for us, we have to face it — and begin to work it out with him.

Your dust mop should be washed just as often as your dusting cloths. Neither can do an efficient job without being washed after each use.

If your household has just acquired a puppy, be sure he has a place of his own in which to sleep. Most puppies take readily to a cardboard or wooden box padded with old carpet or blanket.

Convict Claims He Was Beaten Into Confessing
 EDINBURG, Tex. (UP)—A South Texas convict took the witness stand again today to plead his contention that he was beaten into signing a confession to forgery for which he was sentenced to seven years in prison.
 The convict, Frank Roberts, 43, of Corpus Christi, testified Thursday that he was beaten by Corpus Christi policemen while he was an inmate in the city jail there on March 26, 1955. He said he was transferred the following day from Corpus Christi to the Hidalgo county jail in Edinburg.
 Roberts said he was struck by Hidalgo county District Attorney Jim Bates of Edinburg and by Dick Bales of McAllen, special investigator for Bates.
 Roberts won the hearing in 139th District Court on a writ of habeas corpus.
 "When Bates came up from Edinburg to pick me up in the Corpus jail, he hit me in the teeth and knocked me down the stairs," Roberts said.
 However, Bates denied under oath Thursday that he had struck Roberts.
 Roberts was sentenced to seven years after pleading guilty to forging and passing forged checks before 139th District Judge F. M. Guerra of Edinburg on April 5, 1955.
 Roberts prepared his petition for a hearing in his own hand, writing while he was an inmate at the state prison at Huntsville. Attorneys were amazed at his knowledge of law.
 The Court of Criminal Appeals ordered the hearing to be held in Edinburg and that the legal record be forwarded to Austin for a decision by the appeals court.

Mild Weather Over Nation
 By UNITED PRESS
 Generally mild weather prevailed over most of the nation today as March appeared headed for a meek exit.
 But the aftermath of its violence earlier this week still was being felt in the Great Plains.
 The death toll in the blizzard that lashed the West during the weekend climbed to 48. The latest victim, Chester A. Simpson, 18, was found Thursday lying across a rangeland fence near Amarillo, Tex.
 Authorities said the boy set out Saturday for Amarillo to meet his girl, despite warnings of the approaching storm. The blizzard hit, apparently blinding the youth, and he froze to death on the wind-swept plain.
 His body was discovered by a cowboy, one of many riding the ranges checking for fence breaks and rounding up stray cattle.
 The Southwestern Cattle Raisers Assn. said it may be three to five years before livestock scattered by the blizzard are returned to their owners.
 Weathermen said scattered showers were expected today in the Northwest, and from the Great Lakes through the eastern Ohio Valley to the Atlantic coast. Little change in temperature was forecast.
 Early morning readings included New York 45, Washington 40, Miami 66, New Orleans 56, Chicago 36, Denver 37, Los Angeles 58 and Seattle 7.

Growers Await Status Of Bills

UPTT BILLS 3-29 R704am
 HARLINGEN, Tex. (UP)—The Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association today awaited results of their request to have two bills withdrawn from the Texas House which would appropriate an additional $85,000 for the State Department of Agriculture.
 The money would be used to enforce laws on an inspection program of citrus and tomatoes. The group sent a telegram to Rep. J. T. Ellis of Weslaco Thursday asking him to withdraw the bills.
 "We as an industry, in view of recent developments, feel it would be most unwise and unfair to ask the state for any additional money for this department until it is more efficiently administered," the telegram said.
 The association urged a move March 5-6 to reorganize the State Agriculture Department. Agriculture Commissioner John White said at that time there was "a secret plot to abolish the Texas Department of Agriculture."

Blizzard Hero Is Hospitalized

GUYMON, Okla. (UP)—A hero of the recent blizzard in northwest Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas was hospitalized here today with symptoms of pneumonia.
 Doctors said Jack Morgan, who is credited with rescuing 65 persons stranded by deep snow drifts, showed signs of a "direct threat of pneumonia" as a result of prolonged exposure.
 Morgan, 40, a dirt moving contractor, plowed through the snow with his bulldozer for some 73 hours beginning last Saturday, during which time he got only five hours of sleep.
 He began hauling out snow-bound motorists on SH 84 between Goodwell and Texhoma, where he found about 15 automobiles and a truck which had jackknifed across the highway. Unable to push all the vehicles out of the snow, Morgan went to Texhoma and obtained an old school bus that wouldn't run.
 With the assistance of three Texhoma men, Morgan loaded 43 persons on the bus and towed it into Texhoma. The bulldozer broke down and Morgan got in a few hours rest while it was being repaired.
 Early Sunday he rescued 12 of more stranded persons between Texhoma and Stratford, Tex. He spent the rest of the day looking for persons lost in the storm.
 About 3:30 a.m. Sunday, Morgan went to two oil rigs near Stratford and picked up 10 more storm victims. He finally arrived at Stratford where he was rescued. Morgan staged a similar rescue escapade in a snow storm in this area five years ago.
 Of Texas residents who were 25 or more years of age in 1950, about 1 out of every 17 had completed 4 or more years of college. Considering nonwhites only in this age group, the proportion drops to 1 out of 40, and for white persons of Spanish surname, to 1 out of every 125.

Telephone Firms To Merge

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (UP)—A merger of the Texas Telephone Co. and the Oklahoma Telephone Co., effective April 1, was announced Thursday by Walter G. Wright, president of the General Telephone Co. of the Southwest.
 The General Telephone Co. companies have been operating under the General Telephone System since 1955.
 The General Telephone Co. operates in a five-state area—Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, and is part of the General Telephone System.

Cattle May Be Long Lost

AMARILLO, Tex. (UP)—Ranchers may not get some of their cattle scattered by last week's blizzard, back for three to five years, experts believe.
 A. T. Jefferies, chief brand inspector in the Panhandle area for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association said Thursday "cattle are scattered for miles from their home ranges as a result of drifting before the wind."
 Jefferies said he knew of cattle from as many as 15 herds mixed together, and said it was hard to determine brands due to the heavy coating of winter hair on cattle.
 Extra brand inspectors are arriving in the area to help sort out the cattle.

Allen Is Harvester Banquet Speaker Tonight

Dr. Forrest C. (Phog) Allen, one of the great veterans of college coaching and an outspoken critic of the Amateur Athletic Federation, will be the guest speaker of the annual Pampa Harvester basketball banquet tonight.

The banquet starts at 7:30 p.m. and will be held at the high school cafeteria. Tickets are $2.50 each. An estimated 400 fans are expected to gather to pay tribute to the Harvesters, the 1957 state runners-up in Class AAAA, and their coaches, Clifton McNeely and Terry Culley.

Among the special guests will be the Harvesters, the Shockers, cheer leaders, pep band and parents and dates of the players. Also on the program will be the presentation of the Harvester basketball queen and her attendants, introducing of the team and coaches and awarding of the Hustling Harvester award.

Jon Jones, minister of the Harvester and Mary Ellen Church of Christ, will serve as master of ceremonies. Rev. E. Douglas Carver will deliver the invocation, Johnny Campbell will present the speaker and Warren Hasse will introduce special guests.

The banquet is sponsored by the sports and recreation committee of the chamber of commerce. Tickets are still on sale at the chamber office.

Special entertainment will be provided by the Maxine Milliron Trio consisting of Marilyn Myatt, Nancy Stephenson and Barbara Lunsford.

Dr. Allen, who coached for 39 years at the University of Kansas, retired from active duty with the Jayhawks last year after a college ruling forced him to retire at the age of 70. During his tenure with the Jayhawks his teams won outright or shared 31 conference championships. Twenty-four of those were won at Kansas and the others at Warrensburg Teachers, Baker University and the Haskell Indians.

His record at Kansas in 39 years was 757 victories and 224 losses. He is still over 100 games ahead of his nearest rival, Ed Diddle of Western Kentucky who won 630 games in 33 seasons. He also tops a list of 13 active coaches who exceeded 400 victories.

Allen, who has blasted the AAU and its officials for years, is a charter member of the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. In 1952 he was selected by the Helms Foundation as the basketball man of the year. He was voted into the Missouri Hall of Fame in 1953, being a native of that state.

Dr. Allen, who is an active figure in Lawrence civic affairs, was one of the founders of the National Basketball Coaches Association, was instrumental in founding the NCAA tournament and almost single-handedly landed basketball on the Olympic agenda in 1936.

PHOG ALLEN

WASHINGTON (UP) — Orlando Zulueta of Cuba has been named to replace the injured Paolo Rost of New York as Joey Lopez's opponent in a 10-round bout at the Capital Arena, April 3. The bout will be televised.

Redlegs Chill Phils, Braves Stop Yankees In Exhibition

The Cincinnati Redlegs thought they had a 20-game winner in lefty Joe Nuxhall last season, until aches and pains held him to a "jinx 13," but it looks like 220-pound "Baby Joe" is ready now for that big year.

The hefty lefty looked pretty near his best form Thursday in giving up only four hits at Clearwater, Fla., to beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2. He fanned five batters and, though he walked five, was in trouble in only one inning when a hit batsman, a walk and a balk helped the Phils score twice.

Nuxhall won without the Redlegs' famed power. A three-run third-inning rally included only an error, four walks, and a sacrifice fly.

There was glory for another pitcher Thursday — Red Murf, the Milwaukee Braves' much-travelled reliever, Murf, who won his last game with a double, made lightning strike again in the same place — and this time against the world champion New York Yankees. The Braves defeated the Yanks 6-4.

He was allowed to bat for himself in the 10th with two on and two out. Yankee Manager Casey Stengel pulled his outfielder in close, and Murf knocked one of Tommy Byrne's pitches over the center-fielder's head for another double to score both runners. Earlier, Tom Sturdivant of the Yanks had shut out Milwaukee for seven innings, bringing his string of scoreless frames to 21.

Around the other camps: Yankee ace Whitey Ford was excused from today's game because of a "tender" throwing arm, but Mickey Mantle seemed to be making progress from his injured left ankle.

Al Dark's three-run homer was highlight of Cardinals' 7-4 win over the White Sox as lefty Billy Pierce was rapped for six runs in three innings.

Lou Skizas' three-run homer led the A's to a 7-3 win over Pittsburgh, one of his three hits.

Rookie Rene Valdes of Brooklyn made another good showing, allowing only three singles in 4 2-3 innings in an 8-3 win over Washington.

Ace Frank Sullivan of the Red Sox seemed in shape, allowing the Cubs one unearned run in seven innings.

Bob Nieman's two-run homer in the ninth inning gave Baltimore a 5-4 win over the New York Giants, although the Giants still lead the Grapefruit League with a 12-4 record.

NEW YORK (UP) — Henry Nowak of Canisius has been named to the College All-Star team which will tour the country with the Harlem Globetrotters beginning at Madison Square Garden Sunday.

INDIANAPOLIS (UP) — Sam Hanks, runner-up in last year's Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, has been nominated to drive a new car in this year's race. Hanks, 41, was national champion in 1953 and this year's race will mark his 12th "500."

Harvester Baseball, Track, Golf Teams Face Action This Week End

Three Harvester athletic teams will represent Pampa High School in three cities and two states this week end.

The Harvester baseball team will travel the longest distance to compete. Coach Deck Woldt's team takes on Mangum, Okla., High School this afternoon in the first of their three games this week. Saturday they meet the Lawton, Okla., Wolverines in a doubleheader Saturday afternoon at 1:30.

Coach Weldon Trice's Harvester golf team left this morning for Plainview to compete in the District 3-AAAA golf tournament and the track squad will enter the district track and field meet in Amarillo Stadium Saturday.

Woldt will be without the services of four starters for the game in Lawton this afternoon. Ray Stephenson, Robert Langford, Bill Brown and Larry Cruise will remain here to attend the basketball banquet tonight. They will go to Mangum Saturday to play in the twin bill.

Righthander David James has been named to start on the mound for the Harvesters against Lawton. Other probable starters will include Benny Sparks, Merle Terrell, Bill Conway, Gary Wilhelm, Kirk Smith, John Lee and Dewey Hutchinson.

Stephenson and Ronnie Burlingame will be the starting hurlers against Mangum Saturday afternoon. Woldt will use a make-shift lineup today and will add Langford, Brown and Cruise to the starting nine Saturday.

The Harvester nine has played only one game this season, beating Borger 2-0 last week. Three other games have been scheduled but rain and snow cancelled the contests. Both Lawton and Mangum were slated for appearances here last Friday and Saturday and the Harvesters were to host Frank Phillips College Tuesday at Oiler Park.

The golf team plans to shoot 18 holes for practice this afternoon and then compete against the other District 3-AAAA teams in the 36-hole medal play meet beginning Saturday morning at the 71-par Plainview Country Club.

Pampa will shoot against Amarillo, Palo Duro, Borger, Plainview, Lubbock and Monterey. A three-team race is expected with Pampa, Borger and Amarillo. The trio finished in that order last week at the West Texas Relays in Odessa, Pampa winning by five strokes and beating Amarillo by 25.

The Harvester quartet is composed of Melvin Chisum, Lee Howard, Bill McLeod and Burt Watkins. Pampa won the District 1-AA title and then won fourth at the state meet. Borger is paced by Elgie Seamster, Vance Moxom, Elgie Seamster, Vance Moxom, David Houk and Don Howard while Amarillo's top performers are Ben Lane Jr. and Phil Mathis.

Coach Dwaine Lyon will take 20 cinder men to the district track carnival to compete in 13 of the 14 events. The meet was originally scheduled to be held at West Texas State in Canyon but the rain and snow on the track forced movement of the event to Amarillo Stadium.

Preliminaries start Saturday morning at 9 and finals are slated for 2 p.m. Amarillo's Sandies are favored to win the team championship because of their fine showing at Odessa last week.

Harvesters entered include Bill Brashers, high jump, 100-yard dash, 200-yard dash; Kenneth Keith, high hurdles, low hurdles, broad jump; Dick Barrett, high and low hurdles, broad jump; Earl Cooper, low hurdles, shot put, discus; Gene Bratcher, high jump; Clyde Smith, high jump; Freddie Watkins, high jump; Paul Brown, shot put or high jump.

Bill Kirbie, shot put, discus; Gary Matlock, discus; Alton Thygeson, 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard relay; Dickie Watkins, 440-yard relay, mile relay; Andy Epps, 440-yard dash, mile relay; Frank Snow, 880-yard run, mile relay; Denny Carmen, 880-yard run; Roy Morris, 880-yard run; Walter Hell, mile run; Bill Grider, mile run; Louis West, mile run.

City Bowling Teams In ABC Tourney Today

Two Pampa bowling teams will compete today and tomorrow in the American Bowling Congress tournament in Fort Worth's Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum.

The two squads — Friendly Men's Wear and Brown and Hinkle, Inc. — will enter the booster divisions. Three other Pampa teams — Cabot Office, Your Laundry and Tex Evans Butch — entered the tournament on March 18.

The two squads will bowl in team play tonight at 7 and they will enter singles and doubles action Saturday.

Bowling for Friendly Men's Wear will be John Kootz, Ed Myatt, Bob Baker, N. S. Hegwer and Ray Stephenson. Representing Brown and Hinkle will be Bill Ladd, Dale Haynes, Bill Murphy, Jim Clifton and John McFall.

Friendly Men's Wear is currently in second place in the Pampa City League and Brown and Hinkle is in fifth place.

12.7% MORE MILES PER GALLON

With Keotane in Skelly Supreme GASOLINE

Their right... 12.7% was the average gain in gasoline mileage reported for Keotane by an independent testing laboratory. Your car may do as well or better because Keotane lets your engine operate at its efficient best. There's no more wasteful detonation (pinging) or gum-clogged carburetor trouble. As you drive, Keotane dissolves glue-like gum in carburetors and combustion chambers. Without gum to bind them, mileage-robbing carbon and lead are forced right out the exhaust pipe. It makes old cars new, keeps new ones new.

Dow Finsterwald Protects 3-Stroke Azalea Open Lead

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UP) — Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., a model of golf consistency, teed off today to protect his three stroke lead in the $12,500 Azalea Open Tournament.

Aggies Favored In Mat Tourney

PITTSBURGH (UP) — About 250 grapplers from 64 colleges compete in the 27th annual NCAA wrestling championships getting underway today. But the finals may narrow down to an intra-state struggle between defending champion Oklahoma A&M and Oklahoma.

Last year the Sooners finished only three points behind the Aggies who won their third straight title. They defeated the Aggies in a dual meet this season.

Finsterwald, who hasn't been out of the money in 46 PGA tournaments dating back to September 1955, collected six birdies and 12 pars for a 66 Thursday.

Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y., and "oldtimer" E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of St. Louis, Mo., tied at 69 after the first round.

Ed Furgol, National Open champ of 1954 from St. Andrews, Ill., pulled the surprise of the day, firing a two under 70 despite two "bad wings" following an automobile accident Wednesday.

Furgol, whose left arm is 11 inches shorter than his right as the result of an improperly set arm fracture in childhood, could hardly put on his sweater before teeing off. His physician advised him not to play, but the veteran shotmaker teed off anyway after getting his starting time changed from the morning to the afternoon because he had to appear in court.

Third-Place Chisox Made One Change

(EDITORS NOTE: This is the 11th in a series on the 1957 prospects of major league clubs.)

By LEO H. PETERSEN
 United Press Sports Editor
 TAMPA, Fla. (UP)—The Chicago White Sox have made only one major change from the club which finished third, 12 games behind the pennant-winning Yankees in 1956. They switched managers

They fired Marty Marion and brought in Al Lopez, who had specialized in finishing second with the Cleveland Indians. That change doesn't figure to make up that 12-game difference unless some of the deals the White Sox are contemplating pan out. Lopez and Vice Presidents John Rigney and Chuck Comiskey are trying to land a first baseman, a left handed hitting catcher and a fourth starting pitcher. The White Sox would like Roy Sievers of the Senators for first base and Clint Courtney, also of Washington, as the left handed hitting catcher behind the No. 1 receiver, Sherman Lollar. As for a fourth starting pitcher, the White Sox haven't divulged whom they are after.

Strong Down Middle
 With Lollar catching, Luis Aparicio at short, scrappy Nellie Fox at second and Larry Doby in center field, the White Sox are strong "down the middle." However, they are hurting at the corners—first and third base.

Unless they obtain Sievers, Lopez will have to choose between the veteran Walt Dropo, who hits the long ball hard but not often enough; and three rookies, Norm Larker, Ron Jackson and Jim Marshall at first.

 At third, Bubba Phillips, who did most of his playing for the White Sox last season when he hit .273 as an outfielder, is getting the nod over veteran Fred Hatfield and Sam Esposito, an infield reserve last year who can field but not hit.

Flanking Doby in the outfield will be Minnie Minoso in left and Jim Rivera in right. Rivera, however, is among those being offered for deal in the proposed Washington deal.

Rookie Jim Landis, who hit .429 at Colorado Springs last season and then was sent to Memphis where he had a batting average of .287, has been hitting the ball hard and probably will stick along with Dave Philley and the veteran Ron Northey as outfield reserves.

Rookie Has Chance
 Another rookie, Earl Battey, formerly of Toronto, could wind up the No. 2 man to Lollar if Chicago doesn't get Courtney.

For his pitching "big three" Lopez will have southpaws Billy Pierce (20-9) and Jack Harshman (15-11) and right hander Dick Donovan (12-10). The fourth pitching spot is wide open with Bob Keego (5-7), Jim Wilson (13-14) and Garry Staley (8-3) the leading possibilities.

Dixie Howell, once rated the best relief pitcher in the league but who slumped to a 5-6 record last year, and the 42-year-old Ellis Kinder will lead the bullpen corps with Paul LaPalme, a southpaw, also a reliever possibility.

 Bonus pitcher Jim Derrington must be kept. Other pitching possibilities are Jim McDonald and Joe Dahlke.

FIGHT RESULTS

By UNITED PRESS
 REVERE, Mass. — Bobby King, 172½, Everett stopped Paul Rudd, 169½, Syracuse, N.Y. (7).

SAGINAW, Mich. — Mickey Crawford, Saginaw, Mich., outpointed Paddy DeMarco, 145, Brooklyn (10).

LOS ANGELES—Jimmy Palazzopuz 164, Anaheim, Calif., outpointed Jo Shaw, 162, New York, (10).

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP)—San Francisco University, winner of the NCAA basketball championship in 1954 and 1955, today became the fourth team to accept a berth in the Oklahoma City All-College Tournament here next December. The Dons, who finished third in this year's NCAA playoffs, join Oklahoma City U., Idaho State and Denver in the eight-team tourney.

Veteran Ralph Branca Retires

By UNITED PRESS
 The dream, that really never has been clear and bright ever since Bobby Thomson hit "that home run," has ended at last for Ralph Branca.

The tall, husky righthander, who has been trying to make a comeback as a pitcher with the Brooklyn Dodgers, heeded the advice of his wife today and retired from the game at the age of 31—exactly 10 years after he became a 21-game winner and one of baseball's top youngsters.

Thus appeared to end a baseball career that will be remembered in the history of the game for just one pitch—the one Branca threw to Thomson of the New York Giants in the final pennant playoff game of 1951. Thomson blasted it for a three-run homer to win the game and the pennant for the Giants—perhaps the most dramatic single blow in the history of baseball.

Branca never regained the heights after that. He left the Dodgers for Detroit, then the Yankees, then into retirement, and finally this last comeback.

Branca was one of a number of players lopped from big-league rosters today as the teams struggled to reach the 28-man player limit by the new opening day deadline.

The Dodgers optioned righthander Bob Darnell to Los Angeles while the Washington Senators cut six men and the Kansas City E's were right behind with five released.

MID-SEASON PICTURE—Nellie Fox, Chicago White Sox second baseman, makes a regular season pivot and throw as Cincinnati's George Crowe slides too late. It was one of the first double plays of the spring, coming during Tampa, Fla., exhibition game.

Mantle, Sarni Won't Forget This Season's Spring Drills

By OSCAR FRALEY
 United Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK (UP)—The baseball spring training period is drawing to a close and, for guys like Mickey Mantle and Bill Sarni, it will be one they'll never forget.

Pretty soft, you say, to escape the wintry blasts and loll around in the sunshine while getting paid for it. But to the players this is the toughest part of the season, the aches-and-pains period which some of them don't survive.

Sarni didn't end with Mantle every day is hazardous. At 29, the Giant catcher reached the end of his baseball career when he suffered a heart attack. He'll coach, sure, but at his age you don't expect to be finished competitively.

And can you imagine Mantle's feelings when he stepped into an outfield hole and suffered a severe ankle sprain? You could feel him wondering whether he, too, had "had it."

Legs Are Fragile
 Because actually every day could be Mantle's last. His legs are that fragile. There's that arrested osteomyelitis in his shin as well as the trick knees which have been operated on twice and must be kept tightly wrapped at all times against the dangers of sudden stops and starts.

At 26, Mantle has it "made" if his luck holds. Winning the triple crown batting championship and most valuable player honors netted him a $60,000 salary this season. And, they insist, he is just getting started.

Lots of others suffered serious and painful difficulties this spring. Early Wynn can hardly walk because of a pulled leg tendon. Herb Score suffered a wrenched knee. Gerry Staley of the White Sox came back after a lip operation for a cancerous growth and Ted Kluszewski is fighting the crippling effects of a pinched sciatic nerve. Bill Skowron broke a thumb and Ray Narleski a finger.

Aches Disappear Eventually
 For most of them it's a temporary situation. The minor breaks knit and the aches disappear eventually.

Sarni will be carried on the roster so that he can obtain his five-year status but actually he has to take it easy. It's a heart-breaking case of a guy without a chance.

Mantle's ankle is healing nicely. But the club breaks into a cold sweat when it thinks of what could have happened to him. Considering the case history of his legs, it could have been the end. Pretty soft, you say? They'll be glad when the season starts.

Rangers Meet Montreal In NHL Playoffs

By UNITED PRESS
 The New York Rangers hoped the momentum generated by one of the greatest victories in their history would aid them on foreign ice today while the Boston Bruins counted on the advantages of home ice in their battles to beat the favored Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings in the opening rounds of the National Hockey League playoffs.

The Rangers squared their series with Montreal at one game each Thursday night with a 4-3 victory at 13:38 of "sudden death" overtime while the Bruins suffered a 7-2 loss that evened their series with the Red Wings.

The Rangers are faced with the difficult task of playing all the remaining games of their seven-game series in Montreal. They scored one of the most dramatic victories in Garden hockey history when 27-year-old wing Andy Hebenton beat goalie Jacques Plante on "an impossible angle shot."

The Red Wings bounced back from their opening loss to bury the Bruins with a scoring spurge that included a goal and two assists by Gordie Howe, the league's leading scorer. The Bruins play the next two games of the series at Boston and the remainder of the series alternates between Detroit and Boston.

"Hey, Pop! Did you know that you and Shultz are the same size?"

A Public Service Story For Those Who Like To Dance

United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK (UP)—Calypso dances to go with calypso music are on the way, and the hep set no longer will have to fit bop or jitterbug to its Caribbean beat.

I report this as a public service for all who like to dance, and in particular for college students. In talking with a group of them during a trip to College Station, Tex., for the annual Southwestern Journalism Conference, I kept hearing one complaint—"we don't have a step to go with calypso music."

So what has the college set been doing when the band swings into the current rage of the music world?

"We do bop or jitterbug," said one small, well-stacked coed from Texas College For Women. "Or we just follow the boy and let him worry," said another. "Sometimes we settle for the fox trot."

Well, it won't be long until dancers on and off-campus will be doing hip-swinging variations of the dance directly from Trinidad and Jamaica.

Three studios with branches in major cities already have begun calypso instruction. Arthur Murray studios didn't hurry to include the steps in its repertory, but a spokesman said patterns were being worked out and "will be ready in a couple of months."

Primitive Dance "Calypso is a primitive dance," said Anne Leone, who teaches teachers for Dale Dance Studios, Inc. "But our variations will be socially acceptable."

The Dale calypso is based on the box step, and four beats of music. Here's how. Step forward with the left foot on the first beat. Hold, for one beat. On the third, step to the side with the right foot. And on the fourth, bring the feet together.

Now, step back with the right foot and hold. This takes two beats. On the third beat, move the left foot to the side. On the fourth, bring the right over to join it. "It's a hold-quick-quick-hold pattern," said Miss Leone.

NEW YORK, March 29 (UP)—Some 65,000 New Jersey to Manhattan commuters scrambled for other ways to get to work Thursday as the under-river Hudson and Manhattan Railroad was shut down by strike at the beginning of the morning rush hour.

The non-striking Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers charged its members had been locked out by the railroad. Its general chairman, William Skup, said the engineers would not go back to work "until management assures us that we'll get paid for every minute we lose," he predicted "a long strike."

Five other unions stopped work at 7 a.m. after failing to reach agreement in a contract dispute after an all-night meeting. Commuters crowded alternate routes on trains and ferry boats and caused traffic snarls at auto tunnel entrances, but no serious travel delays were reported.

The Hudson tubes operate under the Hudson River, connecting Manhattan with Jersey City, Newark and Hoboken. The Pennsylvania Railroad shunted several trains destined for Jersey City into its New York terminal. Seventy-five additional buses, with a total 3,500 person capacity, were run out on several New Jersey lines. Ferries ran at capacity to lower Manhattan and many commuters drove to work, creating momentary jams at tunnel entrances but no prolonged delays.

Approximately 31.5 per cent of U. S. trucks are on farms; another 29 per cent are in the nation's 15 most populous counties.

Fish should be strung through the point of the lower lip only, not through both.

Dean, 29, a native of Plainview, Tex., currently pilots a half-hour Monday-through-Friday TV show in Washington plus a three hour live TV show on Saturday nights from capital arena in that city. As a recording artist in the country field, he has hit with such platters as "Bummin' Around" and "Freight Train Blues."

Mixup on Names He was haunted briefly by the ghost of the late James Dean when that actor died in an auto crash, but that's all over now.

"When Dean was killed, I got a flood of letters from my Washington fans," said the country artist. "They all thought it was me. 'You know, up until three years ago I had never even heard of James Dean. Occasionally, some columnist will criticize me for using his name, but it's my own and I've been using it in the business for a long, long time."

"Just the other day some New York columnist blasted me. What's his name—Hiram Gardner? But we got it all straightened out."

Dean is convinced that country music, like the country, is here to stay. "It's not only here to stay," he said, "it's going to get bigger and bigger."
