Weather Binge In Texas

Three Killed In Dust Blow

United Press International
Snow. Thunderstorms. Rain. Fog. A dust storm. Hurricane strength winds.

Texas had them all late Tuesday and today. During one of the worst dust storms, three persons at El Paso were killed in the collision of an automobile and a truck loaded with sulphuric acid.

Vicious thunderstorms swept through San Antonio and Houston today, causing thousands of dollars worth of damage. None was reported injured, however.

The wind blew in gusts of up to 50 miles per hour in Houston, driving a mixture of rain and fine hail ahead of it. It wrecked two or three small buildings, stalled work-bound motorists and left broken power lines sputtering in the streets.

The thunderstorm at San Antonio uprooted trees, toppled a drive-in movie screen and knocked out windows. A woman said the winds reminded her of a tornado.

There was fog at Amarillo in the center of the Panhandle and to the north in the Dalhart area, an inch-and-a-half of snow fell.

The banks were big and wet and cut visibility to a quarter of a mile. The temperature was freezing and roads were dangerously slick.

Fog and drizzle were reported at Amarillo. The temperature was expected to drop into the 30s and stay there throughout the day.

Seventy-five-mile-per-hour winds — hurricane strength — raged the El Paso area, kicking up a blinding dust storm late Tuesday. The winds reached peaks of 50 miles an hour today.

It rained all night through North Central Texas and the Weather Bureau at New Orleans issued small craft warnings blasted from East of Morgan City, La., to St. Marks, Fla. Warnings were hoisted last night from Brownsville, Tex., to Morgan City.

It was too rough for small boats along the entire Texas Coast. The cold front that kicked up the rough weather through (See WEATHER, Page 2)

Mikoyan To Visit Cuba

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan is expected to touch off a Red propaganda spree and strengthen the Communist Party's already considerable influence on the Castro government.

This was the view expressed today by well-informed officials who said the Mikoyan visit also might lead to resumption of normal Soviet-Cuban diplomatic relations which were broken off in 1952.

American officials said Mikoyan had been given permission to fly across the eastern United States by his way to Havana, where he is due Thursday. He will be traveling in a huge Russian jet-prop TU114 which can fly non-stop from Moscow to Havana.

Mikoyan is expected to remain in Cuba several days. The Red propaganda spree and strengthening of the Communist Party's already considerable influence on the Castro government.

DeGaulle Accorded 'Dictator' Powers

PARIS (UPI) — The French Assembly today gave President Charles de Gaulle near-dictatorial powers to end the "tragedy" of Algeria and safeguard France's "liberty and democracy."

The government was expected to use the special powers almost immediately to launch a ruthless crackdown on fighting extremists who oppose de Gaulle's "self-determination" program for the revolt-torn North African territory.

At 1:35 a.m. today, the assembly almost without a murmur handed over its authority to de Gaulle and his government. The deputies, by a vote of 441-75, gave him the power to rule France by decree for one year.

The overwhelming vote of approval was expected to be reflected when the Senate acts on the de Gaulle request later today to conclude formal parliamentary action.

The only opposition in the assembly came from a handful of Communists and extreme right-wingers. Even the major leftwing party, the opposition Socialists, voted for the powers demanded by de Gaulle by Premier Michel Debre.

The government had ordered the hours after the collapse of the de Gaulle French settlers' insurrection in Algiers. It was not scheduled to convene until April 27.

De Gaulle demanded the emergency powers as the only way to clean up the aftermath of the Algeria insurrection which brought France to the abyss of civil war in the past week.

Attempts to water down the bill by the constitutional committee were rejected by Debre. The committee, aware of the already (See POWERS, Page 2)

Humphrey, already set to collide with Kennedy in the Wisconsin primary, snapped back at the Kennedy camp, meanwhile, for crying "foul" about a strategic coup pulled by Humphrey backers in that state.

Kennedy, who has urged all prospective candidates for the Democratic nomination to get into the state races, entered Maryland's May 17 primary Tuesday.

He is unlikely to have serious competition in his bid for the 24 Maryland convention votes.

He leaves Thursday on a two-day trip to Indiana and is expected to enter that state's May 3 primary.

Kennedy announced that he would decide this week about the May 10 West Virginia primary, which Humphrey has entered, but he pointed out that it falls on the same date as the Nebraska contest, in which he already has filed.

Kennedy complained again Tuesday about action of the Wisconsin Democratic Committee in changing the national convention delegate election setup. The committee cut the number of delegate votes to be elected from the state at large from 10 to 5, leaving 25 to be chosen from the 10 congressional districts.

Five weeks ago most people wouldn't have bet an avocado on the chances for Finch and his mistress. Today, the odds have swung far more in their favor.

Miss Tregoff, a 23-year-old woman with a big smile on her face after Tuesday's developments was in a better spot than the doctor who discarded his wife in her favor. Finch admitted firing the shot in the back that brought the death of Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch 33.

The 42-year-old surgeon was scheduled to describe in court for the first time the events of July 15. He will testify following the opening statement of his defense lawyer, Grant Cooper.

The state rested its case Tuesday on a definite upswing for the defense.

Israel, Syria Trade Gunfire Early Today

Incident Follows UN Move Order

DAMASCUS (UPI) — Syrian and Israeli border forces exchanged fire at dawn today and Israel probably suffered casualties, a Syrian army spokesman announced.

The incident followed Jerusalem reports that the United Nations Mixed Armistice Commission Tuesday night ordered Syrian troops to leave the demilitarized zone that has been the scene of a week of border clashes.

The Syrian announcement said: "At dawn today a Jewish patrol consisting of five soldiers was seen advancing in the direction of the El Hawi military outpost. It came under the fire of one of our ambushes."

"Most members of the patrol fell down to the ground. Shortly afterward, other Jewish forces opened machine gun fire on our forces at El Hawi outpost itself."

"It is most probable that the firing was intended to cover the retreat of the Israelis with wounded or dead."

A United Arab Republic spokesman in Cairo said:

"There are no Syrian troops inside the demilitarized zone."

Reports conflicted on the responsibility for the Sunday night Monday morning battle at Tawafik in which both Syrian and Israeli troops were killed and wounded.

Troop concentrations on both sides of the border were reported today.

The demand that Syria pull out of the Israeli side of Tawafik was given by the chairman of the mixed armistice group, Belgium's Col. Raymond Pirlot.

The truce team's action came after Israel's Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion served notice on the body that if it did not get the Syrians out of Israel would do so itself by force of arms.

Once U.A.R. troops are cleared out, Ben-Gurion promised, Israel would be willing to sit down with Syrian and truce team representatives to resolve the dispute over farming rights, which triggered the series.

Tension between the United Arab Republic and Israel continued, with both sides trading charges of troop movements and border infiltration.

Candidate Confusion In Names

Campaigns may be hot, but in several cases cause more than the usual confusion in Texas' 1960 Democratic primary.

It's all because of names. Some voters may think they're seeing double.

Here's why:

Two Robert Calverts seek statewide offices.

A pair of Ramseys are also on the statewide ballot.

In San Antonio, two R. L. (Bob) Stricklands are running for state senator.

A pair of Bill Joneses are on the ballot in Dallas for state representatives.

Robert W. Calvert is running for chief justice of the State Supreme Court. Robert S. Calvert is seeking re-election as comptroller.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey has made his bid for a sixth term, and Rep. V. L. (Bo) Ramsey has challenged Calvert (Robert S., that is) for the comptroller's job.

San Antonio officials say they may use the Stricklands' middle names to differentiate between the two. Dallas officials have not worked out their problem.

To add to the possible confusion, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey's opponent is Houston attorney Don Yarborough — no relation to U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough.

However, candidate Yarborough has a brother named Ralph and Senator Yarborough has a brother named Don.

Finch To Tell His Story Of Shooting

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dr. R. Bernard Finch, a man who had a black-haired sun-fanned wife, a 4-haired mistress and a $750,000 fortune, tells today how he shot his wife to death.

The 42-year-old surgeon was scheduled to describe in court for the first time the events of July 15. He will testify following the opening statement of his defense lawyer, Grant Cooper.

The state rested its case Tuesday on a definite upswing for the defense.

Missile Firing Boosts Ike's Defense Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The successful firing of a Titan missile took some sting out of Democrats' defense complaints today but failed to silence their criticism of the nation's overall military program.

And two top Air Force officers stuck by their warning that Russian missiles eventually could knock out U.S. striking power in 30 minutes unless American bombers were kept airborne at all times.

The officers, Gen. Thomas S. Power, head of the Strategic Air Command (SAC), and Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, Air Force research chief, were to tell senate investigators when the combination of mounting Soviet missile strength and no adequate warning would make the airborne alert necessary.

Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, also was scheduled to testify behind closed doors in the investigation by the Senate Space and Preparedness committees.

Schriever announced the successful Titan shot at the hearing Tuesday.

He called the flight from Cape Canaveral, Fla., a "major milestone" in the development of the ocean-spanning Titan, "big brother" of the Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

Gossip Turns 'Gentle Man' Into Slayer

HARTFORD CITY, Ind. (UPI) — Leonard Redden was a gentle and respected grade school principal and Sunday school teacher.

"He was mild mannered and very nice," a friend said. "But something was bothering him and he had complained of severe headaches."

Redden, 44, was disturbed about small-town gossip. He felt talk had unjustly linked him with a fifth-grade teacher, Harriet Robinson, 33, and that in some way another teacher, Mrs. Mhnie McFerren, 37, was to blame.

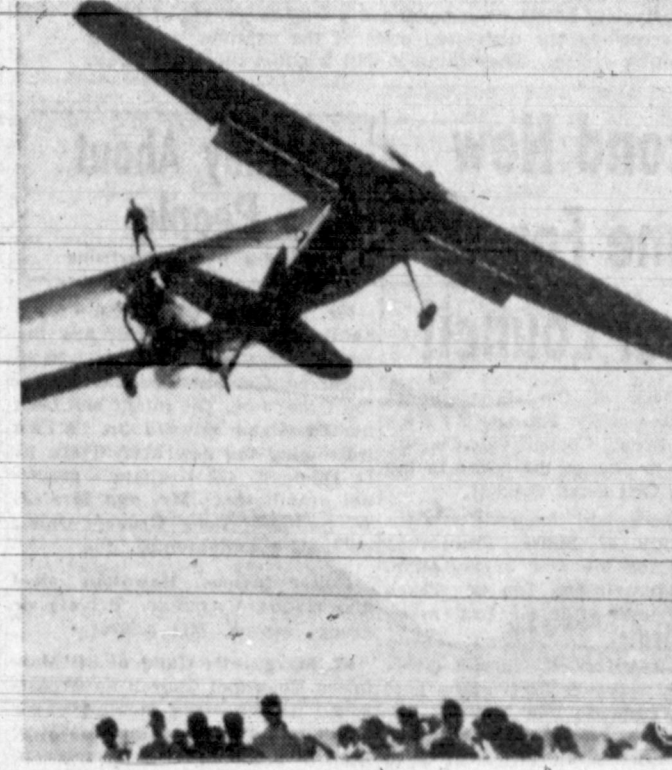

His wife, Hazel, 40, said he was suffering from a persecution complex and had made an appointment for him to see a psychiatrist Tuesday afternoon.

But even his wife had not known when the breaking point was reached. It came stark hours before the slender, dark-haired principal was to see the psychiatrist.

In 90 minutes, the two women against whom he had built up a resentment were dead and so was he.

Redden did not go to school as usual in the morning. Instead, he went to a hardware store and purchased a box of shells for his 12-gauge shotgun. Returning home, he armed himself with the shotgun and drove to the school, occupied by about 300 pupils and six teachers.

Respiratory Ills Take State Toll

United Press International
Respiratory illnesses claimed the lives of 10 more Texans Monday and Tuesday, but public health officials were still hesitant about calling the statewide surge of influenza an epidemic.

Flu has hit Texas elementary and high schools so hard that state school officials said it may force the state to revise its school appropriations formula again.

By last Friday the flu outbreak had struck in 49 counties, each of which had at least 50 cases.

The State Health Department estimated Nueces county now has 3,727 cases, Travis 2,225, El Paso 2,605, Brown 1,515, Matagorda 1,032 and Lamar 1,000.

The latest deaths from respiratory disease were recorded in Dallas and San Antonio — hardest hit so far.

Dallas city health director Dr. J. W. Bass said eight more persons died of upper respiratory ailments Tuesday sending the toll so far this season to 35. That was 16 more than the number reported by the same date in 1958, when an epidemic of Asian flu swept the city and killed 51 persons.

The peak of that epidemic struck in February.

At San Antonio, city health director Dr. J. C. Ellington reported three news deaths — raising the total number attributed to pneumonia and flu to 50 so far this year.

It was more than double the total of such deaths recorded in the previous two years — 1956 and 1959. In those two years only 24 deaths were reported.

Ellington said two-thirds of this year's victims have been elderly patients, and that the outbreak seems to be tapering off.

Dallas health officials expected the peak there to come late this week or early next week.

In other areas of the state many schools have been closed for long periods of time because of high rates of absenteeism. Some have had as many as half their students home in bed because of flu.

F. E. Hutchinson, director of finance for the Texas Education Agency, said his office has received (See TOLL, Page 2)

Booby Trap Found In Car Of Minister

ATLANTA (UPI) — A 36-year-old Baptist minister, who was aggravated by a "hump" on his back, stopped his automobile Tuesday night and found two sticks of dynamite in the upholstery of his car seat.

The dynamite was wired to go off when the Rev. J. T. Robinson pressed his foot on the light switch to turn on his "bright" headlights.

Rev. Robinson was returning to his home in Milledale, Ga., from a Bible class in Atlanta when he decided to stop at an ice cream parlor to get a milk shake and take a look at the "hump" that was bothering him.

Robinson, who is pastor of the Milledale Baptist Church and the father of three, said his habit of not driving with his bright lights on in the city limits probably saved his life.

Robinson said he was afraid to touch the wire and quickly telephoned police, who held back curious spectators.

Det. Capt. J. L. Mosely, a bomb specialist, placed an auto seat in front of him and dismantled the dynamite charge. Police said the sticks contained 60 per cent nitroglycerine. The device was taken to the state crime laboratory for further examination.

Robinson theorized that the person "who wired the explosives must have picked the wrong car."

"I can't even imagine why anyone would want to make an attempt on my life," he told United Press International. "As far as I know, I don't have any enemies at all."

Asked whether he had taken any stand on integration recently, Robinson said, "I stick to the Gospel. I have never preached any such message as that."

Generals Taken To Task

Ike Says Their Views Limited

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today sharply rapped generals and others for limited viewpoints of missile and space development. He said he still thought the present U.S. program was eminently capable of deterring an enemy attack.

The President said the missile race with Russia might be a different matter three or four years from now if American progress in the meantime came to a halt. But he told a news conference this would not happen and that in three or four years the relative U. S.-Russian position still would be about what it is today.

He said it was true that Russia was far ahead of this country in the development of a booster rocket engine for distant space and that the Soviets would be ahead for some time. He added, however, that the Saturn project showed the determination of the United States to progress. The country, he said, could look forward to a successful completion of the Saturn project.

Eisenhower said he would like to see the Constitution amended to provide four-year terms for House members so they would run at the same time presidential elections are held. He also favored amendment to give the President authority to veto specific items out of the appropriations bills. This, he said, would defeat pork-barrelling.

He endorsed the proposed constitutional amendment approved Tuesday by the Senate to abolish the poll tax in national elections and give residents of the District national tickets.

He said the United States should liberalize its laws applying to atomic information to permit this country to share with nations in which it has the fullest confidence its nuclear know-how and weapons already known to Russia.

His administration is studying a possible request for an increase of one-fourth of one per cent in social security taxes to provide greater care for the aged. No conclusion or final decision has been reached.

He said Vice President Richard M. Nixon certainly looked to him like the next Republican presidential candidate and he was not satisfied with this prospect. Eisenhower, however, said he was not getting into the business of nominating a man for the office.

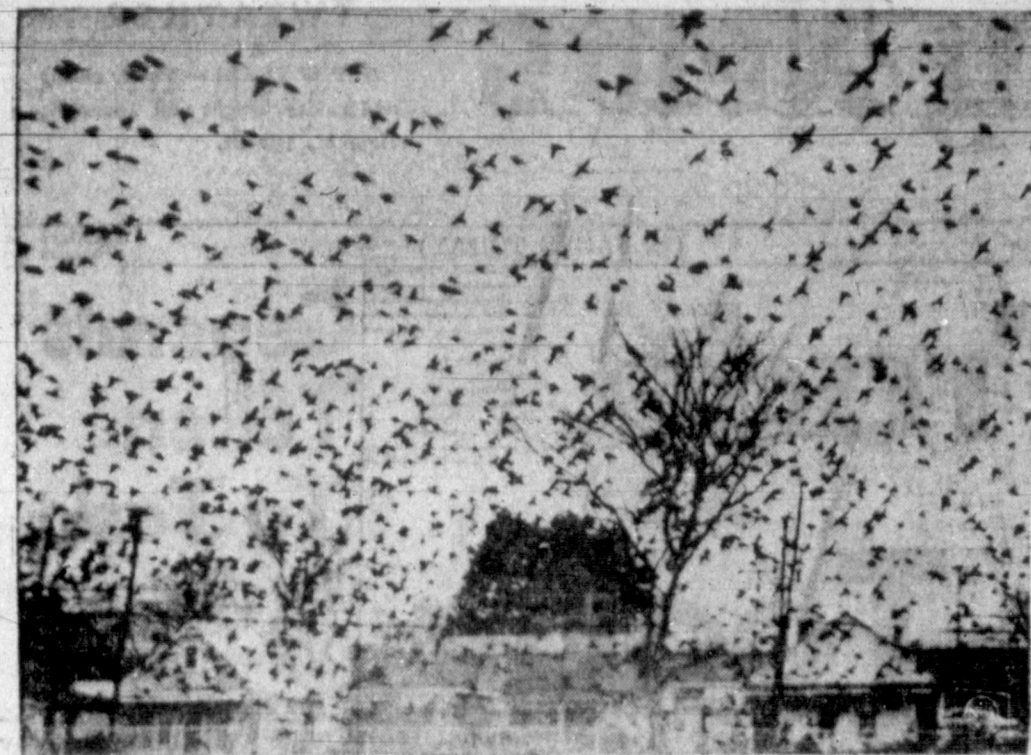

He saw no danger of widespread defeatism in this country because of Soviet superiority in certain technical fields. He said Americans should have greater faith in their system and enduring values than becoming alarmed by certain Russian developments which he feels are over-sensationalized in this country.

As he has before, the President rejected the theory of Gen. Thomas S. Power, chief of the Strategic Air Command, that there should be a 24-hour SAC airborne alert against possible surprise attack.

NEW PATROLMAN—Vernon Cawthon, recently transferred to the Pampa office of the Department of Public Safety, will work with patrolman Standley Schneider under Sgt. E. G. Albers. Cawthon is married and has two children, Janice, 8, and Jay, 3. He has been stationed in Perryton since graduation from the highway patrol school in 1958.

BYE-BYE BLACKBIRDS—Hundreds of thousands of blackbirds have taken over Elmwood Cemetery in Memphis, Tenn., but crafty city officials have planned a way to get rid of them. They intend trapping a few birds, recording the distressed cries of the captives, and then playing them back over a loud-speaking system. They think it will frighten the birds away.

Texas, meteorologists said, will thunderstorms along the coast until tonight.
Rain at Sherman included more than an inch in a six hour period today. Light rains and thunderstorms, with an occasional heavy shower, fell generally over the eastern half of the state.
The El Paso Weather Bureau said winds up to 75 miles an hour raked the area late Tuesday, reducing visibility to less than half a mile. Sheriff's deputies said the visibility may have been even less when the fiery, chain-reaction collision of three automobiles and a truck loaded with sulphuric acid happened.
Killed in the collisions were Mrs. Mary W. Morrison of El Paso and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lahr of Raiston, Neb. Two other persons were hurt.
Two cars burst into flames on impact and the third car and the truck slammed into the wreckage.
The thunderstorm struck San Antonio at 2:30 a. m. today. The Weather Bureau said the storm hit hardest in the downtown area. There were no injuries.
Winds up to 46 miles were recorded and officials estimated damage would run into thousands of dollars.
The sharp wind dumped a 70-by-40 foot movie screen at the El Charro drive-in theater in west San Antonio. In downtown San Antonio, a temporary walkway around the construction site of an addition to the Alamo National Bank was blown apart, and the wind picked up a 70 foot chunk of it, dropping it in the middle of an intersection.
Another gust swooped up an outdoor telephone booth and also set it down in the middle of an intersection.
A parking lot attendant's small office ended up on the steps of the Central Fire Headquarters.
The storm dumped .61 of an inch of rain on the city.

Epidemics tend to put schools in a financial straitjacket because money under the Hale-Atkin program is apportioned on a basis of average daily attendance. Low attendance means less money.
The Asian flu epidemic of 1957-58 prompted the Texas Education Agency to apply an "epidemic formula" which allowed administrators to consider the effect of illness on school attendance records.
Hutchinson predicted the same formula would be used again this year if the State Board of Education approves it.
"We have had lots of calls asking about it," Hutchinson said. "But schools will wait until probably May before applying, to be sure flu doesn't hit them again suddenly."

Law Separates Blonde, Negro Boy Friend

NEW YORK (UPI)—Blonde, blue-eyed Dorothy Lechner, 18-year-old freshman at Alfred University, was held on a wayward minor charge today to separate her from her Negro basketball star boyfriend.
Dorothy and Warren Sutton, 20, of Chester, Pa., were found in a Times Square movie house Tuesday night holding hands.
She had run away from her parents hours before to be with Sutton with whom she had been "infatuated" since she was a high school senior in the Upstate New York college town of Alfred. He was the university's outstanding athlete.
Dorothy, daughter of Alfred University Treasurer Edward K. Lechner, disappeared earlier Tuesday from a hotel where she had been staying with her parents. She and her mother were about to leave for a Florida vacation to help her forget her infatuation for the tall, slim basketball star.
Her parents had opposed her romance with Sutton but had been unsuccessful in keeping them apart. Dorothy told them she was with Sutton for a week over Christmas holidays while she was thought to be visiting a girl friend in Newark, N.J.
"I know mixed marriages have an almost impossible chance of succeeding," her father said in explaining his opposition.
Sutton was released by police but Dorothy was held for her parents who will pick her up today to return her home.
Her parents cancelled their Florida vacation and were waiting for her in Alfred.

The five-year rebellion by Moslem nationalists continues, and the European conspirators behind the insurrection are still loose.
The government has been rounding up known rightwing extremists for the past 10 days.
Already taken into custody are insurgent leader Pierre Lagallarde, rightwing deputy Jean-Baptiste Biaggi, and Mourad Kaouah, a Moslem Algerian deputy to the Assembly.
But most speculation is that these men are small fry, and that the men behind them are still at large.
The newspaper Paris-Jour said the "affair of the plot against the state" will be considerably extended. It predicted more arrests and tougher crackdowns on rightwing organizations.
At the same time, de Gaulle is expected to reorganize the cabinet drastically to get rid of ministers who wavered during the Algerian insurrection.

"If anyone moves, I'll shoot you," Redden told Mrs. McFerren and her startled class.
Mrs. McFerren, a teacher at the school for 41 years, began screaming, "Leonard, don't shoot me! Don't shoot me!" Redden put the muzzle of the gun to her head and fired.
The community of 8,500, 60 miles northeast of Indianapolis became a town of fear. Police closed all schools and armed guards patrolled the town, fearful Redden might be stalking the streets with his shotgun.
Several hours later, Sheriff Gil Robertson, leading a 300-man posse, found Redden's body under a fallen tree in a patch of woods about six miles from town. His car was found abandoned a mile away.
Redden had propped the shotgun against his chest and used a stick to pull the trigger.
Mrs. Redden said her husband's trouble seemed to have begun with injuries received during World War II in Pacific fighting at Hollandia and Leyte.

Dividend By Pioneer Gas

AMARILLO (SpI)—At a meeting of the board of directors of Pioneer Natural Gas Company held today in Amarillo a dividend of 40 cents per share was declared on the outstanding common stock, payable March 4 to stockholders of record at the close of business on Feb. 19, 1960.
The board also voted to submit to the stockholders at the annual meeting to be held in April a proposal to increase the number of shares of authorized common stock and to split the common stock on a two for one basis. It is the intention of management to recommend a dividend rate applicable to the split shares which will represent an increase of approximately 10 per cent over the existing dividend.
The net income of Pioneer Natural Gas Co. and its subsidiaries for 1959 was $4,672,227, compared to $3,650,568 (as-adjusted) for the year 1958. The adjustment for 1958 includes the two months operations of Empire Southern Gas Company and subsidiary acquired March 1, 1958. This amounted to $2.81 per share on the common stock outstanding at the end of 1959 compared to $2.22 per share as adjusted, for 1958.
The company's annual report to the stockholders and proxy statements will be mailed about March 19.

Carole said she had become panicky. She hid in the bushes nearby for six hours until she finally slipped away and fled back to Las Vegas where she found Finch with no memory whatsoever of shooting his wife.
"He was dazed," she said.
Whether the jury believes that story depends largely on the one that Finch tells. But there was no question Carole and Finch have moved a number of steps away from California's gas chamber.

Court Denies 'Larger' Plea

AUSTIN (UPI)—A plea for freedom based on defense of the home and the fact that the murder victim was "larger" than the defendant today was turned down by the Court of Criminal Appeals.
The court ruled that Leonard McKinney of Lufkin will have to serve five years for the murder without malice of his brother-in-law, Joseph Bogany, last March 29.
McKinney's attorneys argued that the trial court had not sufficiently instructed the jury on self defense, defense of the home and suspended sentence.
They further contended the court erred when it failed to instruct the jury on the "relative size and strength of the deceased...the deceased being a younger, larger and stronger man."
Judge K. K. Woodley said "such an instruction would have been appropriate but its omission is not ground for reversal."
The state claimed McKinney shot Bogany six times with a .38-caliber pistol after an argument at the distanter's home.

Walter Rogers Reports

Cranberry, Livestock Feed Additives Scare Discussed

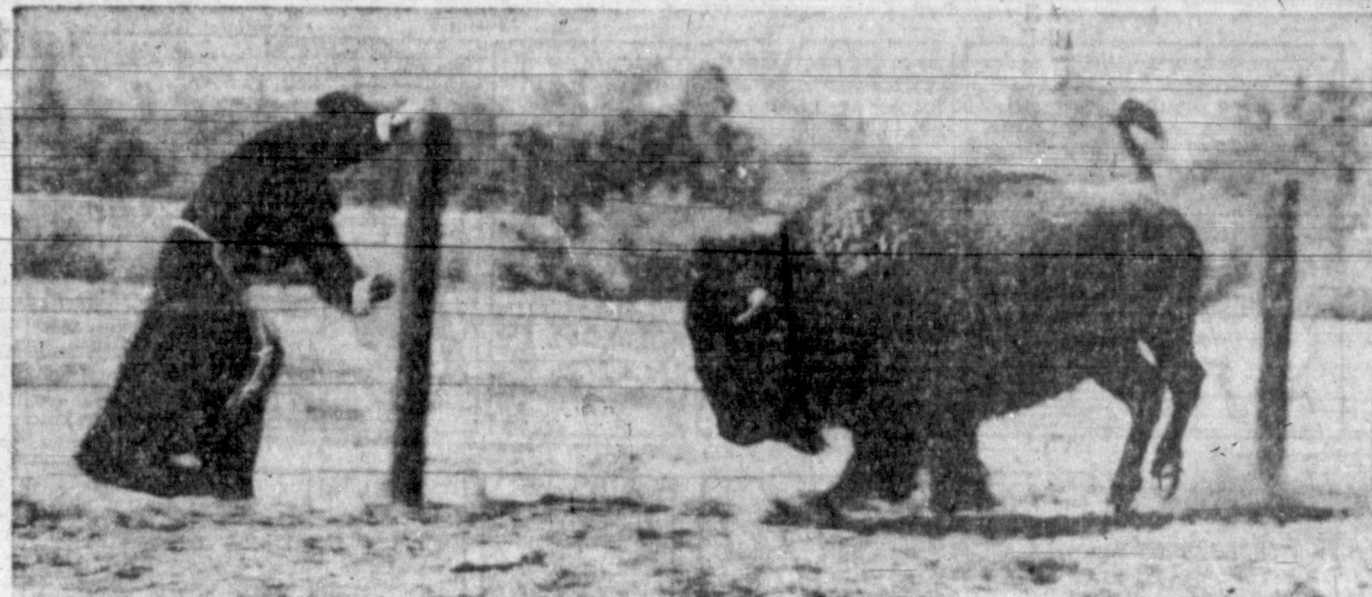

Aminotriazole and Stilbestrol

These two words have been in the news in recent months almost as frequently as Castro and Khrushchev. Incidentally, they too strike a note of fear in the minds of many.

Aminotriazole is especially obnoxious to the National Cranberry Association. It is the name of the chemical which was used by cranberry growers for spraying purposes as a weed killer. Ample evidence was in the hands of the Food and Drug Administration that aminotriazole was a carcinogen and that it was a highly potent antithyroid drug. In other words, it was a chemical known to have produced cancer in rats and to have caused abnormal growth of the thyroid gland, as well as thyroid tumors in rats. These facts were also established by producers of the chemical seeking to market it. The producers of the chemical had requested that its use be allowed so long as the tolerance was such as not to be dangerous. That is, a request was made that a tolerance of one part per million of aminotriazole on apples, pears, and cranberries should be established. However, this was not allowed, because the compound had been determined to be a carcinogen and the tumors which resulted from its use on rats had been diagnosed as various types of adenomas and carcinomas.

It was only after extended conferences between representatives of the National Cranberry Association and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare that the announcements concerning cranberries were made. There was of course a great furor because of business interruptions, but in all fairness it should be pointed out that all of the facts concerning this entire problem were known to the National Cranberry Association and, according to the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, this organization was fully advised of the decision that the factual situation should not be withheld from the public. It might also be pointed out that the Food and Drug Administration has tested and cleared a total of 33.6 million pounds of cranberries found to be free of aminotriazole. It has instituted seizure action against 39 lots totalling 325,800 pounds as of January 26, 1960. Authorization has been given packers and distributors to show on the approved lots that the same have been certified "safe" by the United States Government.

Our next word, "stilbestrol," is short for the proper word "diethylstilbestrol" and is a synthetic hormone-like substance. Hormones are chemical substances created inside the animal's body and secreted into the blood stream. They help regulate such bodily processes as growth, rate of gain, and milk secretion. On January 20, 1947, after two years of study, the Food and Drug Administration authorized the use of stilbestrol pellets in poultry. It was known at that time that stilbestrol had been shown to produce cancer in test animals by low the surface early Monday. Twenty managed to get out. One rescue worker suffocated.

Another of the "old men" among national leaders faces up to a major decision this month. He is 72-year-old President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China and the question is whether he will allow himself to be drafted for a third term.

The betting now is that he will, despite the fact that such a third term is against the Nationalist Chinese constitution and his own insistence that the Constitution must be observed.

As recently as last December, Chiang said he emphatically opposed any amendment to the constitution.

But those who expect him to bow to a draft also quote him as saying he would not "shun my responsibilities."

They reason it this way: They point out that Chiang does not necessarily have to be bound by the Constitution. They say that in an emergency situation under which the Constitution

Big Ben Tower Out of True

LONDON (UPI)—London has a leaning tower of its own. It is the 302-foot, tower topped by the famed Big Ben.

A recent check disclosed that the tower had a tilt of four inches from the vertical. The check was made after cracks were discovered in the thick masonry where an arcade joins the foot of the tower. Some of the cracks were almost two inches wide.

But a spokesman for the Ministry of Works said "there is no need for alarm — four inches out of the true in a tower of that height is not serious."

PICTURE NEWS

FLYING—Soaring off Suicide Hill near Ishpeming, Mich., Gene Kotlarek, of Duluth, Minn., seems about to glide right past spectators and cars below him to land in the distant trees. Kotlarek, 19, won the top berth on the eight-man U. S. Olympic Ski Jumping Team with his near-perfect form. His jump of 248 feet was the longest of the day.

FANCY FOOTWORK—Stepping up his training in Santa Monica, Calif., France's Alphonse Halimi looks as if he's out to win a dancing contest instead of the world bantamweight title he lost to Mexico's Jose Becerra last July. Their re-match in Los Angeles will be on Feb. 4.

LET IT BLOW—The wind may be blowing cold and hard up North, but that doesn't interfere with pretty Betty Frazee's swimming at Florida's Silver Springs. Betty is a model, an excellent underwater swimmer.

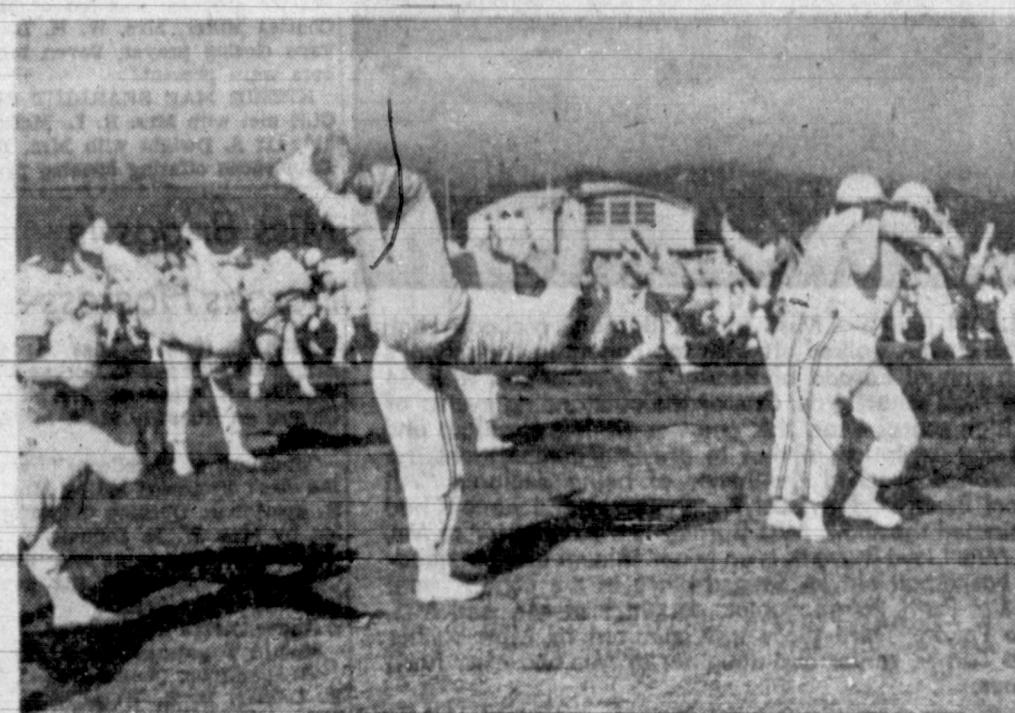

CAN'T PIN HER DOWN—For that weightless feeling, pert Janet Champion, 14, of San Diego, Calif., recommends a little exercise known as an Arabian cartwheel. Janet's part of an ice skating troupe performing in Madison Square Garden.

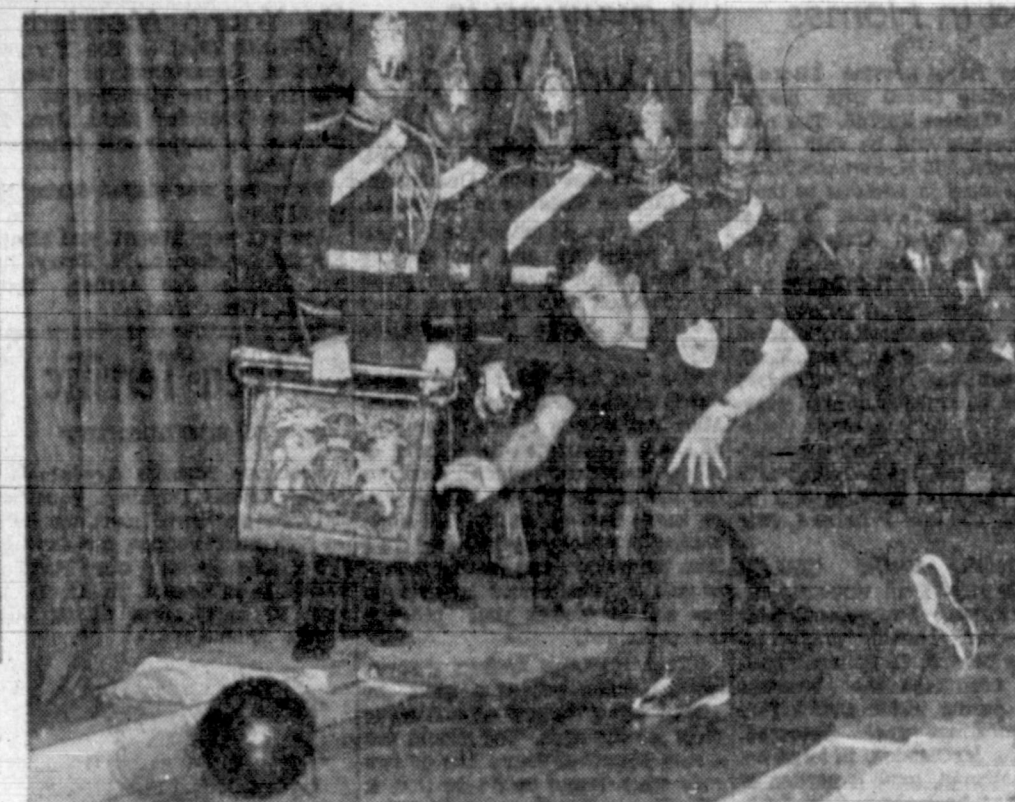

OPPONENTS, BEWARE—Actress Elinor Donahue certainly gets a kick out of fencing in Hollywood. After limbering up for a practice session with the foil, she put her newly-developed talent to work in a TV episode of "Father Knows Best." Elinor trained with Ralph Faulkner, a fencing expert.

STRIPES AHOY!—Although it suggests the traditional sailor's jersey, the fabric of this play outfit is actually silk surah, with a strikingly-striped print of black and white. Stripes vary in this pair of shorts and hip-length overshirt.

HEADING FOR A FALL—About 500 men got slammed to the ground simultaneously in a jujitsu demonstration at Taipei, Taiwan (Formosa). The thousand-man group, all members of the Nationalist Chinese Army, works in precise rhythm.

U. S. STYLE IN BRITAIN—Dannie Blanchflower, captain of the Tottenham Hotspurs, top-ranking British football team, found American style bowling to his liking in London. More than 400 members of the nobility and leading British sportsmen were on hand at the opening of the first automated tenpin bowling center in England.

SNOW TIME—A skier is enjoying the fresh snowfall that dots the landscape on Mt. Baldy, Calif., not far from Los Angeles. The newly-fallen snow turned the resort area into a skier's paradise at the 8,500-foot level, and they flocked to it.

EASY, THE HARD WAY—Dancer Arline Hunter is proving that nothing can stop a determined gal from putting on her lipstick. She's under water at a hotel swimming pool in Hollywood, testing a new lipstick that won't smudge, smear or get in the hair, no matter how deep the water.

HE LOST OUT—And off he goes as, poised in space for a second, Jimmy Jackson is just that length of time away from a crash landing near Arthur's Town on Cat Island in the Bahamas. The number one man on the American Water Ski Team, Jackson got thrown while practicing on the slalom ski. This made visible proof that even the experts get their jumps now and then.

RUNNING FOR OFFICE—What makes Bill Fisher run? The hope of attaining public office in Dallas, Tex. Fisher, 40, a candidate for county commissioner, began his campaign by running—and riding—around the perimeter of his district as a stunt to make his candidacy known. Driving the accompanying car is Bill Hickey, Fisher's campaign manager.

THIS IS THE LIFE—Following in the skateprints of the legendary Hans Brinker, Dutch youngsters are shown skating on the ice of a frozen lake in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. Other children find the conditions ideal for sled riding on the icy surface, but all of them are managing to have a lot of fun.

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Americans for Democratic Action is a leftwing sodality dedicated to numerous objectives including preventing the nomination of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson for president and, if possible, ousting him from the Senate Democratic leadership. ADA holds that Johnson as a president would be no better than Vice President Richard M. Nixon. These are hard words indeed by ADA standards, scarcely printable or suitable to be mailed. ADA indicts Johnson on charges of compromise and political opportunism.

High among the charges against Johnson is that he is an opportunist who compromises on the red hot issue of civil rights. Johnson reacts mildly to these vigorous challenges. He protests gently that it was under his leadership that the U.S. Senate for the first time since Civil War Reconstruction days approved solid civil rights legislation.

No such ever was enacted when either Franklin D. Roosevelt or Harry S. Truman was in the White House with their own choice of Democratic leaders operating on Capitol Hill. Johnson mentions that fact, too, in his mild dissent from the ADA contention that he is a blot of shame on the Democratic Party. It apparently has occurred to Johnson, although not to the extremists on either side of the civil rights dispute, that some compromise, moderation and patience plus a great deal of wisdom-jointly harnessed are required to resolve the racial issues blighting now in the United States.

With the 1957 Civil Rights Act an accomplished fact, Johnson's approach now to the problem is in the relatively low pressure area of voting rights. The question whether a Negro citizen in the South may freely register and vote is almost too hot to handle. It is not so hot, however, as the question whether white and Negro children shall attend the same schools or as-baffling as other questions relating to the intermingling of the races.

So, a year ago, Johnson offered a civil rights bill to amend and extend the 1957 act. ADA denounced last year's proposal as bogus and a ploy. The principal provision was further to guarantee vote. His bill avoided direct approach to the intermingling of the races in schools or elsewhere. The Eisenhower administration also approaches the civil rights problem via vote guarantees.

ADA northern Democrats in general, and the NAACP evidently want a direct congressional endorsement of the Supreme Court's school integration orders. Mere guarantee of Negro voting rights, even if the guarantee actually guaranteed, would not satisfy the left-wing on-civil-rights. The southern Negro is numerous, however, and given the vote he would be a powerhouse in the South. Negroes, without further support of federal legislation beyond a ballot guarantee, might vote their children into every southern school. Of this, Johnson says: "It is difficult to raise a man's status by legislation, but if you give him the vote, he can help himself."

ADA would not agree with that. Boy Blows Whistle On Addict Mom
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A 15-year-old boy called police narcotics officers Tuesday and announced: "I'm awfully sad about mother's conduct — she's using dope again."

Officers went to the home of Gladys Norman, 47, a registered nurse, where they were met by her son John. "I want my mother arrested," he said. "Here are seven 'red devils' and two 'yellow' jackets (sleeping tablets containing barbiturates) I took from her."

Norman said he tried to take pills away from his mother and destroy them, but she hid the pills around the house and he couldn't always find them all. "Last Friday I tried to take some narcotics from her and we had a terrific battle. Her eyes were blackened and her jaw was bruised. I am very depressed about her conduct."

Mrs. Norman, booked on suspicion of violating the state narcotics law, contended she had a doctor's prescription for the pills. Detectives said the prescription was a year old. The boy was placed in juvenile hall.

Movie Czar Raps Film Fare Tripe

By BETTY PRYOR
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Assn., said Tuesday that major U.S. movie companies don't make, distribute or condone obscenity or pornography. But Johnston, representing nine leading film makers, said that Hollywood's self-imposed production code never was intended to make all movies suitable for the entire family.

Johnston made the statement in testimony prepared for a House Post Office subcommittee headed by Rep. Kathryn E. Granahan (D-Pa.). He was the first witness at hearings on Hollywood's self-imposed program and whether it needs toughening. Mrs. Granahan said she and other subcommittee members had received complaints that some movie ads and motion pictures were too sexy. Subcommittees aides said the complaints generally involved foreign films and U.S. movies without the Johnston Office's seal of approval.

Johnston declared that movies and advertisements approved by the self-imposed Hollywood codes are not obscene or pornographic. "The members of our association do not deal in obscenity or pornography. They don't make it. They don't condone it," Johnston said. "They believe that purveyors of obscenity or pornography in any of the media should be arrested, tried in the courts and, if convicted, punished."

Johnston objected to proposals that sex, crime and violence be portrayed "reasonably and responsibly" under the Hollywood code. He said sex, crime and violence in films did not cause juvenile delinquency. He said it was "a virulent form of scape-goating" to blame the movies for delinquency.

TO LAUNCH SATELLITE
LONDON (UPI) — Britain will launch its first space satellite late next year from an American base and using an American Scout rocket, a British space research scientist has disclosed.

Professor H. S. W. Massey said a British delegation recently discussed the project with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in Washington. He said the satellite's planned orbit would carry it over England and Scotland.

Miniature Freedom Symbols Bound For Soviet Homes

EDITOR'S NOTE: Colette Blackmore, formerly of the UPI bureau in Moscow and now assigned to UPI's New York headquarters, is covering the U.S. tour of high Russian officials.

They will probably end up on the desks and coffee tables of some of Russia's highest officials — as a reminder of a day well spent with Americans in the City of Brotherly Love. The little bells, all inscribed with the Soviet officials' names and the date of their visit, were presented to the Russian guests at a dinner in their honor given by the city Tuesday night.

Twelve miniature models of the Philadelphia Liberty Bell, symbol of American freedom, are bound for a permanent home in the Soviet Union. They will probably end up on the desks and coffee tables of some of Russia's highest officials — as a reminder of a day well spent with Americans in the City of Brotherly Love.

The Russians saw most of the city in one day. They visited Charleston, W.Va., today. They have been exposed to a great deal during the five days since they arrived in the United States for a 24-day visit. It is, perhaps, not too early to look for their first reactions to this country. Their faces and their comments show that they find America stimulating. In relaxed moments, the less inhibited of them come right out and say what they like as well as what they don't like.

What they like is the abundance of high quality consumer goods and services available everywhere here. What they disapproved of is the high price tags attached to these goods and services like housing, higher education and medicine in the United States.

The Russians have been saying to each other privately that America, wonderfully rich country that it is, would be even more wonderful if it were Communist. They longer the Soviet official stay here the more convinced he becomes that the Communist system would make a paradise out of what is already almost a capitalist seventh heaven.

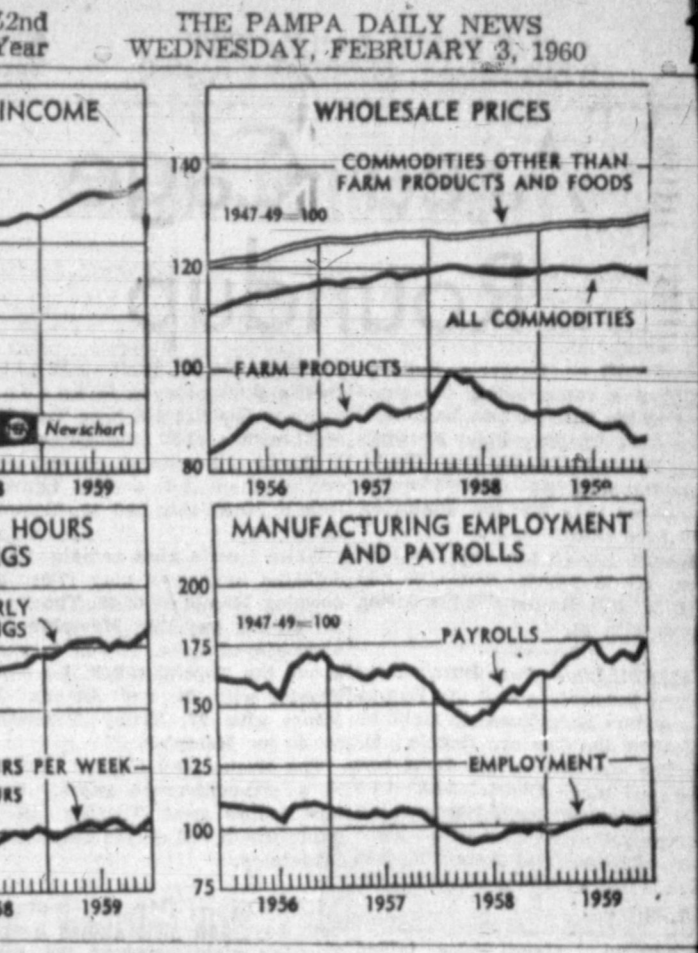

Of course the Russians don't say so to their American hosts except in jest. It would be diplomatically improper and politically unwise for a group of Soviet government officials to go around advocating Communism in America.

Dmitri Polyanskiy, head of the Soviet group, is very careful to keep ideological disputes out of his formal speeches and banquets.

"You have your capitalist system and we have our socialist one, and let's not interfere with each other," is one of Polyanskiy's favorite themes.

MONEY TO BURN — American smokers spent a record $3.8 billion dollars for tobacco in 1958, according to preliminary estimates of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (see Newschart). This was 7 per cent above 1958. Federal and state taxes amounted to 2.7 billion dollars — nearly 60 per cent of the cost to consumers. Growers' receipts were slightly above 1958, but below those of every year from 1951 through 1956.

BORGER — Borger's Bulldogs grabbed a commanding two-game lead in the District 3-A basketball race here Tuesday night by whipping Plainview 68-54. The Bulldogs have a 9-0 district mark, compared to a 7-2 for Plainview and Palo Duro.

Borger led all the way, as John Kent hit 23 points, Smith 14 and Cox 10. Bill Ramsey led a losing cause with 14.

AMARILLO — Palo Duro's Dons helped themselves and the Pampa Harvesters here Tuesday night by defeating the Tascosa Rebels, 61-47. The win boosted the Dons into a second place District 3-4A tie with Plainview (both 7-2) and left Pampa all alone in fourth place (4-5). Tascosa and Amarillo, previously tied with Pampa for fourth, are now 3-4.

LEFORS — Harry Price tallied 24 points here Tuesday night to lead the Lefors Pirates to a 55-33 victory over the Panhandle Panthers, and keep the Pirates atop the District 2-A. Kenneth Jay scored 13 for Panhandle.

In the girls game, Peggy Robinson netted 36 points to lead Pampa to a 55-39 triumph. Pat McDowell led Lefors with 36.

Friday, Lefors will be at Canadian and Clarendon will be at Panhandle.

CHILDRESS — The Childress Bobcats swapped the "outcast" Shamrock Irish here Tuesday night, 73-38, as Lyle Hamilton scored 14 points. Larry Reeves netted 11 for the Irish.

GUYNOM, Okla. — The Guynom Tigers routed the Perryton Rangers here Tuesday night, 68-12, in a non-conference basketball game. Norman Deckman hooped 25 points for Guynom, and Bill Witt tallied 12 for Perryton.

CLARENDON — The Clarendon basketball team took a pair of games from McLean here Tuesday night, as the boys won 62-48 and the girls took a 58-34 triumph.

Kenneth Housdon scored 16 for Panhandle's boys, while Kenny Williamson and Jimmy Watson each earned 13 for McLean. Marie Nichols scored 24 for Clarendon's girls, and Sandra Burnsted netted 16 for McLean.

McLean will host Memphis Friday.

Santa Clara Upsets A&M

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The University of Santa Clara scored a decisive 86-55 upset victory over ninth-ranked Texas A&M Tuesday night.

Frank Sobrero got the Broncos off to a 2-0 lead and the Aggies never made it up. The turning point was the starting whistle.

A&M's leading scorer, Carroll Broussard, was held to a 14-point effort as the Broncos controlled the backboards almost completely.

It was the second loss of the season for the Aggies, their only previous defeat coming at the hands of SMU. A&M currently is the undisputed leader in the Southwest Conference title race.

The victory was Santa Clara's fifth in 19 starts. Sobrero paced the Broncos attack with 26 points.

Robinson Rated High By 'Ring'

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Ring magazine resurrected Sugar Ray Robinson today and named him co-challenger for the middleweight crown, along with Gene Fullmer.

Only 24 hours previously, the National Boxing Association's latest ratings had buried ex-champion Robinson in fifth place among the contenders.

The Ring's "Ring" magazine recognized Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass., as world middleweight champion, as does New York state and Massachusetts. Pender outpointed Robinson in a title fight on Jan. 22, and was named "Fighter of the Month" by the Ring.

Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., replaced ex-champion Floyd Patterson as top contender for the heavyweight crown because of his recent victory over Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., and because of Patterson's inactivity while waiting for his return title bout with champion Ingemar Johansson.

Gonzales Victorious

BOSTON (UPI)—Pancho Gonzales, the hard-serving master of the pro courts, was still on top today as Jack Kramer's touring professionals moved to Philadelphia.

Gonzales whipped Alex Olmedo, 6-2 and 9-7 Tuesday night at the Garden, his sixth straight victory on the 65-match tour which began last weekend on the West Coast.

WHITE DEER (Sp.) — White Deer's Bucks stayed in second place in District 2-A here Tuesday night with a 49-32 triumph over Memphis. Nine Bucks scored, and two of them hit double figures. Robert McAllister had 13, Tommy Lester 11.

White Deer's girls remained undefeated in district play (7-0) by downing Memphis, 66-59. The Does led all the way, but Memphis always stayed close. Two Does were above the 25-point mark, Leona Traylor with 31 and Juanna Jo Moore with 27. Tribby Townsend hit 23 for Memphis.

The Bucks play Gruver Friday in a non-conference game, then host Lefors next Tuesday in a game which will decide the district leadership.

KELTON — Miami captured both boys and girls games here Tuesday night, winning the boys game 53-35 and the girls contest 54-41. Miami led all the way in both games.

The Miami boys and girls teams both have 5-2 records in District 11-B competition. They meet Allison Friday in Miami.

Charles Hardin was the leading scorer for the Miami boys with 11 points. Larry Anderson scored 10. For the Miami girls Jackie G 11 netted 26 points and Joan Bryant meshed 18.

FINISH IN BLACK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Washington Senators, who finished last in the American League last year, made money anyway.

It was announced during the annual stockholders' meeting Monday that the club made a profit of $7,099.13. This represented quite a gain—for the Senators—who lost money after winding up last in 1958.

Two Spoilers Hit Nation's Top Squads

United Press International

You won't find Auburn or George Washington listed among college basketball's top-ranked teams but they're dangerous "spoilers" in their own backyards.

Auburn handed sixth-ranked Georgia Tech its first Southeastern Conference loss of the season, 46-45, Tuesday night while George Washington spoiled Virginia Tech's perfect record in the Southern Conference by gobbling up the Gobblers, 105-90.

Henry Hart played one of his greatest games for Auburn, scoring 20 points and dominating both backboards. It was the Tigers' 28th consecutive victory on their home court and Tech's sixth straight loss to Auburn in three seasons.

Jon Feldman scored 32 points and Dick Markowitz added 29 in leading the Colonials to their upset victory over Virginia Tech on their home court.

Bob Ayersman tallied 34 points for Virginia Tech, which now shares first place with West Virginia in the Southern Conference with 6-1 records.

Third-ranked Bradley opened a two-game West Coast tour by outlasting Seattle 83-80, and Santa Clara surprised ninth-ranked Texas A&M, 66-55.

Mike Owens and Dan Smith each dropped in a pair of free throws in the final minute to earn Bradley its 15th victory in 16 games. Smith wound up with 20 points while Dave Mills paced Seattle with 22.

Georgia nipped South Carolina, 66-65, on a basket by John Johnson in the final minute and North Carolina State rolled to an 87-83 triumph over Virginia behind Dan Englehardt's 24-point barrage.

Notre-Dame converted 54 per cent of its shots from the field in turning back invading Canisius, 71-65. Syracuse, sparked by John Mossey's 20 points, edged Connecticut, 65-64; little Ruess Cunningham's 18 points helped NYU to a 67-56 victory over Duquesne, and Texas Tech downed Arkansas, 82-79, in other major games.

LUCKY DUNHAM fights in 126-pound open bout

Three Pampanas, 'Ex' Will Fight Tonight In Amarillo

AMARILLO — Three Pampanas and one ex-Pampian will be in action here tonight in the second session of the Regional Golden Gloves tournament.

Ronnie Morgan will meet James Rouse of Borger in a second-round 135-pound high school match; Landro Martinez will take on Lupe Rodriguez of Plainview in a 112-pound open bout; Lucky Dunham will clash with Jimmy Tijerina of Plainview in a 136-pound open fight; and Glenn Ward of Borger (formerly of Pampa) will fight Marvin Kracke of D&D Pharmacy

(Amarillo) in a 160-pound open bout from the opening bell, decked him at 1:47 of the first round and was awarded the TKO victory.

Morgan, Trent Olson, Kenny Powell and Dean Henderson were victors in last night's opening matches. Three other Pampa fighters, Gene Shipman, Johnny Ironmonger and Clark Morse went down to defeat. All Tuesday's matches were in the high school division.

Olson, the Fightingest Fighter of the tournament, lived up to his billing with a first round TKO over Lee Johnson of Dumas in a 112-pound fight. Olson went after Johnson from the opening bell, decked him at 1:47 of the first round and was awarded the TKO victory.

Powell won a unanimous decision over Sammy Gonzales of Amarillo Boxing Club in a 126-pound clash. Powell did most of the damage in this crowd-pleaser with left uppercuts and a few hard rights. Powell clearly had far the best of the last two rounds.

Morgan took a decision in a cautiously fought 135-pound battle, over James Short of Hereford. Morgan brought blood to Short's nose in the second round and landed some good punches at the beginning of the third.

Henderson carried the action all the way in his fight with Curtis Ritchie of Hereford, landing several good right-hand punches in the process. This was a 135-pound slugfest.

Johnny Chavez of Amarillo Boxing Club used his longer reach to defeat Ironmonger in a 118-pound clash. Chavez landed more punches in the second round, but Ironmonger scored with the hardest one, a long overhandright. Both fighters landed some solid punches in the third round. The decision was unanimous, but somewhat unpopular.

Rouse of Borger took a split decision over Gene Shipman of Lefors (fighting for Pampa) in a 135-pound battle. Rouse landed most of the punches in the second round and had an edge in the third round exchange.

Albert Moline of ABC scored a TKO over Morse in 1:31 of the third round, after having Morse in trouble in the second and third rounds. Moline finally dropped Morse late in the last stanza, and the fight was stopped.

Pampa came out third best among the teams fighting Tuesday night, with its 4-3 record. Amarillo Boxing Club had the top mark, 3-1, and Borger was next with 4-2. Neither team had been figured as a strong contender.

Plainview, the tournament favorite, managed only to break even at 3-3. Hereford took only one of five bouts, while Dumas was 1-2 and D&D Pharmacy of Amarillo won 0-1.

All Pampa boxers who are not fighting tonight in Amarillo have been requested to work out today at the Pampa Optimist Boys Club, beginning at 4 p.m.

Rebels Edge PJH In Thriller, 44-42

By RED GRIGGS
Daily News Sports Editor

Robert E. Lee Junior High's Rebels continued their mastery over the Pampa Junior High Reapers Tuesday afternoon — by the skin of their teeth.

The Rebels edged the Reapers, 44-42, in a game which was in doubt until the last five seconds. It was played in Pampa Junior High Gymnasium, before large groups of spirited and vocal fans from both schools.

The Rebs have now won six straight games in the Reapers in varsity games (both football and basketball) between the two schools, since Lee opened in the fall of 1958. The Reapers came closer to breaking the jinx Thursday than ever before.

Although the lead changed hands only three times, the score was tied eight times, and the largest lead for either team was six points, both teams were under tremendous pressure during the entire contest.

During the frantic final period, the Reapers lost two starters via the foul route, but still managed almost to pull it out of the fire. With seven minutes remaining and Lee leading 34-30, Randy Matson of PJH fouled out. Matson, 6-3, had been a bulwark of the Reapers' defense, though his play was not quite as impressive as it had been in the first Lee game.

After Matson's foul Gordon Balch sank a free throw, giving the Rebs a 35-30 lead. A bucket by Dwight Thompson and two free throws by C. E. Cantrell cut the Lee margin to 35-31, but then with 4:45 left, Johnny Weatherly fouled out.

Raymond Nance and Jimmy Rice, who replaced Matson and Weatherly, played a creditable floor and defensive game and the Reapers refused to fold.

After a fast series of basket exchanges, however, Lee grabbed what appeared to be a safe four-point lead, 42-38, when Don Pitts drove under the basket for a crisp shot with 1:30 left. But only 25 seconds later, Dwight Thompson swished the net for PJH, cutting the margin to 42-40.

Lee took possession of the ball, with only 45 seconds remaining, but Larkin Miller immediately stole it and drove downcourt for a crisp shot. He missed, however, and Wayne Kreis of Lee was fouled on the play. He sank both his shots on a one-and-one situation, and Lee led by 44-40 with less than 30 seconds remaining.

The Reapers got still another life when Miller was fouled with 15 seconds remaining. The little guard sank both shots on the one-and-one. Lee tried to move the ball downcourt after taking possession, but the Reapers succeeded in tying the ball, with five seconds left.

The PJH cagers, who had been guard-sank both shots on the one-and-one. Lee tried to move the ball downcourt after taking possession, but the Reapers succeeded in tying the ball, with five seconds left.

hitting well on their long shots, might still have tied the game had they gotten the tip — but they didn't. The Rebels controlled the tip and held the ball until the final buzzer sounded.

Pampa Junior High had led through the entire first half, except for one time in the second period when the score was tied 12-12. The Reapers' largest lead was 12-6. They led 12-8 at the end of the first quarter and 19-17 at halftime.

Lee came back to tie it, then go ahead early in the second half. The score was tied five times in the third period, and no team led during the quarter by more than two points. The Rebs had a 30-28 lead going into the final quarter.

The Rebels then tipped the tip lead to 34-30. At that point Matson fouled out and the real fireworks began.

Kreis was the leading scorer for Dean Evans' Rebels, with 20 points on six field goals and eight free throws. Scoring was well spread for the other Lee players, as none got more than seven points. Ronnie Chase, who scored seven, fouled out in the third quarter.

Cantrell led the attack for Sam Jackson's Reapers, with 14 points. Thompson was second high Reaper scorer, with nine points.

Planters Top Lee, 33-23

Pampa Junior High's eighth graders rallied in the last half Tuesday at the Reaper Gymnasium to whip the Lee eighth graders, 33-23.

This was the first basketball victory for any PJH team over a Lee team, and the first eighth grade win over Lee in any sport. The only previous Pampa Junior High victories over Lee in any sport or grade were scored by the seventh grade football team.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Creeping Inflation" is not a one way street, notes Prentice-Hall.

Keen domestic rivalry, foreign competition, basic shifts in demand, production efficiencies and new technological breakthroughs will continue to force many firms to hold—or even to cut—their prices, the firm points out in its weekly report on business.

"Actually, you're paying less for some products today than you did 12 years ago."

Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel & Co. does not look for any further dip or extended correction from current market levels and feels that technically the list could turn around at any point now.

Selling at about 10 times conservatively estimated 1960 earnings, the stock of consolidated freightways would seem to have outstanding capital gains appeal at current levels more than 20 per cent below last year's high, according to Shearson, Hammill & Co.

The International Statistical Bureau says the less favorable automobile sales in January, although above a year ago are not a fore-runner of the trend of volume for the rest of the year. The bureau expects auto sales, both domestic and foreign to exceed 6,750,000 cars or possibly reach seven million. "It will still be the second highest total on record, and only slightly below the 1955 high."

SOVIETS MAY HAVE TROUBLE WITH ROCKETS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Pentagon speculated cautiously today that the Russians may have run into technical trouble in their first program for firing intercontinental rockets into the Pacific.

The abrupt cancellation of the test series Monday, after only two rockets had been launched, suggested that the Soviets were taking time out to correct a defect that might have developed during the second firing.

A Pentagon official said this might be the best news so far in the missile race. He noted it could mean a delay in Soviet missile production and could indicate the Russians are unable to duplicate consistently the sensational accuracy claimed for the 7,786-mile first shot.

Supporting this view, the official said, is the fact that the Soviets made no claim as to the accuracy of the second shot. The first nose-cone, Moscow said, landed 2,100

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Law Provides Order

Some people find confusing our different state and national laws dealing with the same things. In come tax laws for an example. Surely, they say, you can have no real justice, unless there is some "one best way" to do each thing — to hold property, to manage traffic, to pay taxes, or to enforce contracts.

So it bothers them. Why should Englishmen drive on the left side of the street? Why should married couples hold title under community property laws in some states and not in others?

Is law merely a man-made contraption? Is it true that like good manners much law is man-made, growing out of custom or local problems? In card games you can play many different games with one deck. You merely change the rules. But as with cards and all games, the law goes deeper than convention into man's basic needs for order, for a grasp of the part to play, for a way to settle disagreements.

Law provides an orderly way to do things so that people can make long-range plans and work together. Its rules help you to find out where you stand — your rights and duties. And last, law has binding ways of settling disputes if need be, first to keep the peace, and then win people over by dealing with them in ways that satisfy their sense of fairness.

You can find these traits of law in most groups from the most primitive to the civilized.

As man finds out more and more about himself and his world, as his experience and wisdom grow, the law may get better. For example, as the psychological laboratories find out more about man's reaction times, his fears and faults, our laws about driving, for instance, may improve.

And here is another purpose the different kinds of laws may serve. You may look upon each as a sort of experiment. Some turn out badly, and some well.

But in the give and take of public discussion, these efforts may yet bring us more nearly to the "one best way" — if any such thing exists.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A remorseful bandit Monday returned every cent of the $4,000 he stole from the First Western Bank Friday by threatening the family of a teller.

"I am returning your money I took Friday," said a note mailed with the money. "I never did this before. I'm sorry for the trouble I have caused and also sorry to have troubled the teller and his family."

A Site For Freedom

There are two major areas of human activity. One of these is the government. The other is the market place. Whatever field of endeavor a man selects for his energies and his time, he will find that insensibly he has selected the one or the other.

Circumvents Law

The matter probably will ultimately be decided in state supreme courts or perhaps in the Supreme Court of the United States. But William T. Harrison, president of the National Right to Work Committee, has written to say that the recent steel strike settlement opened a great hole in the Right to Work law provisions which exist in 19 states.

The Pampa Daily News

YOUR FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from the government. Freedom is not license. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, The Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

One Kind Of Democracy Can Be Bad, The Other Always Good
The word "democracy" causes a lot of confusion. Undoubtedly the reason is that it has two meanings.

Certainly the Founding Fathers were afraid of a political democracy. That's the reason they tried to protect the public from the unlimited rule of the majority. Amendments to the Constitution can be made "by the Legislature of three-fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three-fourths thereof."

JOHNSON-BACKERS DRIVE TO COMMIT BIG BLOC AT WESTERN DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON — The next significant development in the intensifying Democratic presidential race is coming from Senator-Lyon Johnson's camp. A carefully organized and high-powered drive will be made to garner a large bloc of convention delegates for the tall Texan at the Western Democratic Conference, N.M., February 5 to 7.

Looking Sideways

by WHITNEY BOLTON
NEW YORK, N. Y. — Don't look now, but Prohibition has inserted a tiny, explorative finger back into the door. Or will have come March 10th, next. What has happened is that the Federal agency concerned with public airlines has decreed that (a) you still may bring your own little bottle of Life Restorer onto the plane with you but the stewardess must pour for you and (b) she may use her discretion as to whether you may have any of it.

POLITICALS — Labor supporters of Senator Wayne Morse are taking soundings in California on his prospects if he should run in the primary against the "favorite son" candidacy of Governor Edmund Brown. That's what Senator Estes Kefauver, Tenn., has been told by former backers in California. They have informed Kefauver of being approached by laborites in behalf of Morse.

Those Who Talk It Know Naught About It
by HENRY McLEMORE
I wish I knew somebody from the "Ladies Home Journal" whom I could turn to with my problem. I am at my wit's end. My marriage is going to pieces over space.

Editor William Loeb of the Manchester (New Hampshire) Union leader may have an explanation of Rockefeller's abrupt withdrawal from the Granite State primary. The paper was deluged with letters favoring Rocky. But, says editor Loeb, when he sent reporters out to interview the writers, they were found to be non-existent. Then two documentary experts were called in to examine the missives. They found that they all came from the typewriter of Ralph H. Morse, Rocky's publicity agent.
