PARDON BOARD RULES HAUPTMANN MOST DIE

Farm Leaders Unanimously Draft Bill Retaining AAA's 'Valid' Provisions TEXAN ANNOUNCES BILL TO BAR COURT FROM KILLING ACTS OF CONGRESS

PARTY STUDIES PROBABILITY OF PROPOSAL

LAW WOULD BE BASED ON CLAUSE IN THE CONSTITUTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—A drive to curtail the powers of the supreme court without resorting to a constitutional amendment was planned today in a meeting of a small bloc of house members.

Representative Cross (D., Tex.) emerged from the conference with word to reporters that he was "sure" he would obtain a hearing "in the next week or two" by the house judiciary committee on his bill to forbid an inferior court to pass upon the constitutionality of an act of congress and to bar the supreme court from ruling on constitutionality in any case coming to it on appeal.

One democratic chief said the party leadership was canvassing the possibilities of such a proposal.

Although preferring not to be quoted by name, he said he was convinced personally that congress had the power under the constitution to pass such legislation.

It would be based on a clause in section 2 of article 3 which says:

"In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the congress shall make."

Cross asserted:

"This would mean that only a state could attack the constitutionality of an act of congress by filing an original suit in the supreme court."

Members sympathetic with his ideas went over the Cross bill in a two hour session behind closed doors. Among them were Representative Lewis (D., Md.), Sisson (D., Wyo.), Koppelman (D., Conn.), Withrow (P., Wis.), Luckey (D., Neb.), Goldsborough (D., Md.), and Ramsay (D., W. Va.).

Lewis, who called the meeting, said the bill "appeals very strongly to those who think the republic needs a legislative organ as much as a judicial organ, and if one is to be permitted to destroy the other, the purpose of the constitution is being defeated and its terms violated."

Morgan, Revealed as Man of Moods

The Thinker—Morgan version.

"I have lost track of it in my mind."

Summoned before the Senate Munitions inquiry to tell the part that he played in financing the World War, J. Pierpont Morgan was cast in the role of a history-making money magnate, whose every tug at the world's purse strings swayed the fate of nations. Here the all-seeing candid camera records what Morgan's inquisitors and the spectators crowding the hearing chamber actually saw—a mild-mannered titan of powerful build, who restlessly smoked pipe and cigars, scratched his scalp, rubbed his chin.

NEW PROCESS TAXES URGED FOR PROGRAM

ACT SECRETLY WRITTEN WILL BE RE- VISED

By JERRY GREENE
(Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—A seven-point program centered around government-subsidizing soil conservation was approved unanimously tonight by farm leaders called to counsel with the administration on a substitute for AAA.

Authoritative sources said a bill secretly drafted two days ago in new deal quarters would be quickly revised to embody the legislative recommendations of the 100 spokesmen for the nation's major farm organizations.

In addition to soil conservation, the farm group called for retention of "valid" provisions of the adjustment act whose processing taxes and benefit payments were outlawed Monday by the Supreme court; "further expansion" of foreign markets for surplus crops; and new taxes on processors of livestock and dairy products.

Many questions went unexplained, including where the money is coming from the finance "this soil conservation and price adjustment program."

The farm leaders suggested that congress "provide adequate funds by appropriation," but added that matters "including the money question" were left "for the continuing action and attention of our ever-alert farm organizations."

Told by Secretary Wallace that they were "now building in a much more constructive way than was possible in March of 1933," when the original AAA was evolved, the farm spokesmen cheered wildly as they adjourned their two-day session.

Chester C. Davis, AAA administrator, told newsmen as he emerged from the meeting that "I think the principles in this report will do the job."

These planks were in the seven-point program:

1. Congress would empower the secretary of agriculture to provide for rental and withdrawal from commercial production of land necessary to promote soil conservation and to balance domestic production with demand "at profitable prices." Three methods for payment of cash to farmers were suggested.
2. Congress would appropriate "adequate funds"—unofficially estimated at about $500,000,000 for this year—for the soil conservation and price adjustment program.
3. "Reasonable taxes" would be levied on processing of livestock and dairy products, the proceeds to be used to "expand foreign and domestic outlets."
4. Valid provisions of the AAA such as those authorizing marketing agreements would be "retained and strengthened," and a provision for rental and withdrawal from commercial production of 30 per cent of customs receipts for expansion of farm markets would remain.
5. Marketing of commodities coming under federal control would be handled through farm cooperative qualified under the Capper-Colstead act.
6. The "American market" would

CHAIN STORE TAX PAYMENT IS ENJOINED

827 Stores Obtain Temporary Injunction to Prevent Collection in Texas.

DALLAS, Jan. 11. (AP)—Collection of the new chain store tax, scheduled to begin Tuesday, was enjoined throughout the state today.

District Judge Royal R. Watkins issued temporary injunctions in two suits filed by fifteen operators of 827 chain stores, who claimed their annual tax under the act would be $716,817.50.

The plaintiffs assert that the act is violative of both the Texas and United States constitutions, and that "the prime and motivating purpose of the legislation is the death sentence on chain store operation."

At Austin, William McCraw, Texas attorney general, said he would seek a speedy decision "because Texas must have a chain store tax, as it was a plank in the party platform. McCraw said an attack upon the constitutionality of the act had been expected."

"As to the outcome," he added, "of course that is problematical, as the bill itself was subjected to some adverse criticism even by some of those who voted for it."

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company filed one of the suits through its Dallas county manager, J. W. Cooper. The company set out that it operates 337 stores in Texas and that its annual tax under the law would be $228,519.50.

Plaintiffs in the other suit were B. H. Evers & Co., F. W. Woolworth Co., United Cigar Stores, Inc., J. C. Penney, J. J. Newberry Co., Inc., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., H. L. Green Co., Inc., G. R. Kinney Shoe Co., Melville Shoe Corp., Walgreen Drug Co., Scott-Barber Stores Corp., W. T. Grant Co., Sears, Roebuck & Co., and C. R. Anthony Co. In addition, interventions were filed by Western States Grocery company and Safeway Stores, Inc.

CABOT EMPLOYEE STRUCK BY CAR, BADLY INJURED

Clothing Ablaze, He Is Found in a Ditch

Victim of a hit-and-run driver, Edgar R. Bennett, 28, lies critically injured in Worley hospital. Bennett was found lying unconscious by the side of the pavement on South Cuyler street about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, his clothing ablaze and no car in sight.

Remaining consciousness only long enough to say, "What happened?" Bennett was still unable to make a statement last night. He suffered severe body burns, an abrasion on his skull, and bruises and cuts about his legs and hips.

Bennett was found by O. R. Clegg, truck driver who extinguished the blaze and called an ambulance. Clegg told officers he was walking east on Field street when he saw the man lying in the ditch with his clothes on fire. He rushed to his side and with water from a nearby ditch extinguished the blaze. Soon two other men arrived and assisted in carrying the injured man to the S. and S. grocery across the street.

Police, investigating the accident, found no one who saw it. Piecing together fragments of information, they believe Bennett was walking north on Cuyler street when a car hit him from behind, hurling him into a ditch. One of his shoes was found several yards down Field street.

Matches in his pocket are believed to have ignited as he was dragged by the car. Clegg told the officers that Bennett was feebly trying to extinguish the fire when he saw him first. A car passed on the highway before Clegg reached the victim, but it failed to stop.

Bennett, a resident of Pampa for several years, is employed by the Cabot Co. Mrs. Bennett told officers that her husband missed the bus and started to walk to town, expecting to get a ride with friends who usually picked him up on the way to work.

Don Conley, safety engineer for Cabot Co., assisted police in their investigation. Mr. Bennett recognized him momentarily before lapsing into unconsciousness. It was to him that Bennett made his query as to what happened. Since then he has been able only to mumble that he was in pain.

Chief of Police Art Hurst wishes to interview anyone who can offer information which might be useful in apprehending the driver of the car. The chief will be in his office all day today. He asks anyone who can give information to call him.

HOFFMAN MAY DELAY DEATH BY REPRIEVE

COURTS COULD STOP EXECUTION IN 3 WAYS

By DALE HARRISON
(Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press)

STATEHOUSE, TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 11. (AP)—The state court of pardons decided tonight that Bruno Richard Hauptmann might die for the Lindbergh baby murder.

After an all day session the court issued a terse announcement that Hauptmann's application for clemency "was today denied."

The decision ended all but the most remote of hopes for the Bronx carpenter to escape the electric chair next Friday night.

His only hope now lies either with governor Harold G. Hoffman, or the courts; and both hopes are desperate ones.

The governor might delay the execution by a reprieve—not more than 90 days—but even this power is doubted by the governor and the attorney general.

Governor Hoffman would make no comment tonight either concerning the possibility of a reprieve or the action taken by the courts.

Hauptmann's chance for further delay through the courts lay in three directions: A habeas corpus action in federal court, an appeal for a new trial to Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, the state supreme court, or the bench during the Pennsylvania trial at which Hauptmann was convicted; or a new request to the United States Supreme court to review the proceedings. This was rejected once.

As soon as the court's decision was announced, Lloyd Fisher, of defense counsel, started for the state prison to break the news to Hauptmann.

His wife sobbed convulsively. The defense attorney was best voiced by the prisoner's wife, who said:

"I don't know anything about law, but I realize there can't be much left to fight with now; but we will go on—to the end of the road."

She went immediately to the prison, sobbing convulsively outside as she awaited admission.

The court's decision was given in these words:

"The application for clemency of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, sentenced to death for the murder of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., at Hope-well, March 2, 1932, was today denied. (The kidnaping occurred March 1.)

"Under the traditional rules of the board of pardons, all members of the board and all those who participated in the hearing, are bound to hold in confidence all proceedings of the board."

This remark effectively cloaked the events that took place in the chambers of the court of errors and appeals in the statehouse annex where the hearing took place.

It had been intimated prior to the hearing that the defense would have new evidence of a nature sufficient to save the 33-year-old carpenter, but there was nothing to indicate that any such evidence was produced.

Among exhibits studied by the mercy court were the kidnap ladder down which the state charged Hauptmann carried the Lindbergh baby from its second floor nursery at the Lindbergh's Hopewell estate that March night; the ransom notes which experts said Hauptmann wrote; and mercy appeals which included a letter from Hauptmann's mother in Germany and from his spiritual adviser.

The state, whose attorney general, David T. Wilentz, personally

State Begins Drive Against Bootleggers, Open Saloons

'AT THE TOP O' TEXAS' WILL BE KPDN SLOGAN

Reno Stinson Named Winner of NEWS Contest

"You are listening to KPDN, 'at the top of Texas.'" Radio listeners will hear this sentence, and other similar ones, many times after March 1.

The slogan, "At the Top of Texas," was selected by judges as the most desirable for the new station in dry territory, Miller said.

Daily NEWS II was entered by Reno Stinson of the Cabot company, who will get the $5 prize.

Judges, who were prominent men and women of the city, liked many of the slogans submitted, but after eliminating most of them and repeating the best ones aloud, they gave majority approval to Mr. Stinson's apt slogan.

Something short was necessary because the specific use of the slogan is at the "break-ins" on programs and between numbers. At the hourly station announcements, such things as oil, wheat, plains, payrolls, and the like can be mentioned briefly.

Hundreds of slogans were submitted, many appealing in sentiment but a majority, the judges believed, would soon become monotonous. Gilmore N. Nunn, general manager of THE NEWS, expressed his appreciation of the wide interest in the contest. He studied all of the slogans and like many of them.

Evasion of Law Is Reported To Be 'Considerable'

AUSTIN, Jan. 11. (AP)—Administrators of Texas' two-month-old package sale liquor law mobilized today against bootlegging and open saloons.

Preliminary reports to C. R. Miller, liquor administrator, indicated there was "considerable" evasion of the law in both wet and dry areas. Some dealers in wet areas violated the constitutional and statutory prohibition against an "open saloon" while bootlegging was reported in dry areas.

The latest offensive was in Houston, one of the wet areas of the state. Chairman D. B. Benson said a part of the staff of inspectors would go to Galveston next and then to San Antonio.

Miller said about 60 inspectors were scattered over the state and others were being trained. Enforcement drives in both wet and dry areas were planned.

An early survey, Miller said, showed that "a lot of liquor supposed to be for export is finding its way back into Texas retail traffic" by bootlegging in dry territory. While local officers had the primary responsibility of enforcing prohibition in dry territory, Miller said liquor control board inspectors would aid them.

Inspectors found numerous violations by holders of medicinal permits in dry territory. As a result "number" of medicinal permits for drug stores and physicians licenses were cancelled, principally in northwest and northeast Texas.

Miller said results of inspectors' work indicated there was substantial violation of the package sale law by retail licensees, as evidenced by conditions in Houston.

Effectiveness of a new regulation requiring tax stamps to be affixed to individual containers, he said, gave the liquor board an additional means of checking both violations and tax evasions.

Because of misdemeanor penalties, Miller anticipated the percentage of convictions to charges would be large, noting that numerous ones had pleaded guilty.

Principal violations in wet areas, as indicated by complaints filed after raids in Houston, were sale by the drink, sale of liquor in connection with wine and beer, disregard of closing hours and days, sale to minors and delivery of liquor.

Package store permits had been issued in 92 counties to an estimated 1,600 retail dealers and 100 wholesalers. About 540 medicinal permits had been granted dry stores in dry areas.

Inspectors and other peace officers were given latitude under the liquor act in conducting raids. No search warrant was required for seizure of liquor being transported in violation of the law.

SCOUT COUNCIL OFFICIAL BOARD MEETS MONDAY

Finance Campaign to Open Here on Jan. 22

An executive board meeting of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the city hall.

This session replaces the one called for a week ago, but delayed because of impassable roads. In the meantime, the Pampa district has met and made plans for its finance campaign, which will open January 22. Persons who will work in this campaign are asked to meet with the executive board Monday evening.

C. R. Stahl of Borger, who is in charge of council financing, will discuss the campaigns in the various towns of the council while here.

Scouters of many towns are being invited to meet him. With adoption of the sustaining pledge plan, it is hoped that the coming efforts may be "drives to end drives."

But in addition to financing Scouting for this year, many other topics of administration will be talked briefly. Lloyd O'Neal, deputy regional executive of Dallas, will confer with the Scout leaders.

Meningitis Fatal To 31 Oklahomans

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 11. (AP)—Deaths in Oklahoma from spinal meningitis in a little more than a month mounted tonight to 31, but health authorities still insisted there was no real danger of an epidemic.

Only local quarantines were in force, confined generally to the homes and immediate families of those who had died of the disease. Dr. Charles M. Pearce, state health director, described the malady as "spotted" throughout the state.

A month ago Kiowa county was placed under a rigid quarantine for a week and the ban was enforced by national guardsmen. Similar quarantines of short duration were placed in effect at Yukon and Perry. Quarantines at the state penitentiary and the Pauls Valley training school for boys also have been lifted.

Three deaths during the past 24 hours occurred in widely scattered portions of the state.

At Tulsa, Paul James, 26, a clerk who moved there from Wagoner ten days ago, died of the disease. At Wagoner one death and several cases of the disease had been reported previously.

Mrs. L. J. Barrett was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday.

Man Injured, 4 Cars Wrecked in City Collision

Mud on the pavement was blamed last night for an accident in which Walter Tinkler, employe of the Culbertson-Smalling Chevrolet company, was injured and four cars damaged.

Tinkler, taken to Worley hospital, was found to have cuts about his head and body bruises. His condition was not considered serious.

C. H. Steel, employe of the Corbett-Barbour Drilling company, told officers that he was driving west on Foster avenue when the man appeared in front of his car. He set his brakes and cut across the road in an effort to miss the man but one fender struck Tinkler, throwing him to the paving. He was not run over.

Steel's car, sliding on the slippery street, crashed into the side of a car owned by George Jones, which was parked in front of the Schaffer hotel. The Jones car was skidded into two other parked machines.

While the car driven by Steel escaped with bent fenders, bumper, and broken headlights, Jones' car was more seriously damaged, both fenders being knocked down and the running board smashed. The other cars were less seriously damaged.

Sled on Landing Field Is Menace

Carelessness might have caused a serious accident at the Pampa airport yesterday. Some unthinking person left a sled in the center of the landing field, but luckily it was found before a plane struck it.

Even small obstacles can wreck planes. Articles have been found on the field before. Pilots ask Pampans to be more considerate and not leave anything on the field that might cause an accident.

Hauptmann Case At a Glance

(By The Associated Press.)

New Jersey board of pardons denies Bruno Richard Hauptmann's clemency plea in Lindbergh baby murder case after day-long session.

Hauptmann hears "very coolly" of decision from his counsel, as Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, his wife, paces outside the prison walls, sobbing. She was denied permission to see him tonight.

Stalling of Dr. John F. (Jafie) Condon, ransom intermediary, brings repercussions, but no action seen likely.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman declines comment on possibility of reprieve.

Bonus Payments For Area Listed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—Representative Wright, Patman, of Texas, announced today that more than 148,000 service men were entitled to receive $63,696,221 from the compromise bonus bill which already has passed the house.

Gray county service men would receive $235,446.02; Wheeler, $229,871.79; Hemphill, $68,525.59; Potter, $680,970.24; Roberts, $21,531.55; Carson, $115,455.61; Lipscomb, $66,678.34; Ochiltree, $77,200.28.

GAS PRICES HIKED

CORPUS CHRISTI, Jan. 11. (AP)—The Humble Oil company announced today an increase of one cent per gallon on all grades of gasoline for retail dealers effective Monday, with regular gasoline to sell at nineteen cents. The increase was attributed to the rise in crude oil earlier in the week. Humble officials said. Other major oil companies said no notice of increase in gasoline prices had been received.

I Heard...

Pampa theater-goers getting a big kick out of one part of the picture, "Red Salute," which showed at La-Roda theater Friday and Saturday. The particular incident was where one of Uncle Sam's soldiers said he came from Amarillo, and that his father owned a saw mill in that city.

That Pampa Road Runner baseball officials have applied to the Centennial commission for permission to represent Texas in a Centennial baseball series during the celebration. Since the Road Runner has been named the official Centennial bird, the Pampa team believes it should be considered if baseball has a part in the big doings.

Shadows Of The News

GLIMPSES OF PASSING AND COMING EVENTS

These coming events cast their shadows:

TODAY—Pampa Retail credit men and officers of Pampa Credit association will attend a district meeting at Amarillo, 10 a. m.

MONDAY—Kiwanis officers will attend divisional training school at Amarillo, 2 p. m. Adobe Walls council meeting. Pampa officers will meet at 7:30 p. m. M. Stinnett, Elko office, will pay an official visit to the local lodge, 8 p. m.

AFTER A WEEK of outstanding events, the calendar appears somewhat empty as Pampa individuals and organizations learn to write 1936.

Two events held much attention last week—the Jackson day dinner attended by 85 persons on Wednesday and the Kiwanis installation banquet on Friday, attended by about 150. It was the first Jackson day dinner, and a successful one.

The week brought more accidents, the biggest snow in many months, and a brisker trend of minor events. Well-soaked wheat fields heartened farmers in the face of the adverse AAA decision.

Scouters of the Pampa district met to plan a sustaining pledge drive. The council's executive board will meet Monday evening to consider plans for the year throughout the 15 counties.

The NEWS continued intensive work on arrangements for its broad-casting station, and selected a slogan for KPDN—"At the Top of Texas." Buying of equipment is under way.

Organization of the B. C. D. for this year continued, with appointment of committees by President Gilmore N. Nunn and making of preparations for a city-wide banquet on January 27. A committee is in Dallas today to invite an outstanding speaker for the occasion.

Plains oil towns decided to merge their efforts in placing an oil-agriculture exhibit at the Centennial. Of major interest to many was the increase in the price of crude oil, ranging from 7 to 12 cents a barrel and putting top to 92 cents for Gray-Wheeler crude of 40 gravity and above.

A capacity crowd in Mobeetie's gym rocking with laughter at Moose Hartman Friday. Just before the half show, Pampa was leading Quill 24-0. Referee Green under called a foul on Stoke. Green under Quill's goal. The players lined up for the rebound, and Moose picked up the ball and started to shoot when a Quill player said, "that's our tree shot," and Moose surrendered the ball. "It was just going to give them a break," he said. "They couldn't score so I thought I'd do it for them."

Processing Tax Refunds Await Court Verdict

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—Government experts puzzling over the vast financial problems created by AAA's invalidation tonight looked toward the Supreme Court for guidance in a ruling possible on Monday.

The high tribunal's opinion in a case involving Louisiana rice millers is generally expected to throw light on whether $1,200,000,000 may be open to refund to those who have paid the outlandish processing taxes since 1933.

This decision also may be one of the principal factors in determining whether the Roosevelt administration will have to request new taxes from congress in the face of the 1936 presidential campaign.

In addition, the court is looked to for a ruling Monday on cases involving constitutionality of the new deal's electric power "yardstick" program under the Tennessee valley act, as well as the Bankhead cotton production control law. Most observers believe the Bankhead legislation was doomed by the AAA opinion.

The question of processing tax repayment was presented by Louisiana rice millers who contended they were entitled to an injunction against tax collection because they could not meet a requirement of the AAA amendments that they must prove the levies had not been shifted to others before they could sue for recovery on the ground the taxes were unconstitutional.

SELF-DEFENSE WILL BE PLEA OF JOHN TEAL

Prisoner in 18-Year-Old Slaying Back in Lubbock

LUBBOCK, Jan. 11. (AP)—John Teal, under indictment for the slaying of Miss Evelyn Monts, in Bailey county nearly 18 years ago, told the Avalanche-Journal tonight he would plead self defense.

Teal, arrested in Pendleton, Ore., Monday by Sheriff Tom Abel of Lubbock and Jim Cook of Muleshoe, was returned to Lubbock today.

The 49-year-old suspect wept when his brother, T. Teal, met him in the jail here. It was their first meeting in about 18 years. He wept again tonight when he explained his wife, to whom he was married five years ago, would "stand by" him.

Teal readily detailed his flight after "the trouble," but he would not discuss the slaying. He declined to sign a statement for District Attorney Chas. H. Dean of Plainview. Teal denied having said Miss Monts was slain because she would not marry him.

Dispatches from Pendleton Monday noted Sheriff Abel said Monday Teal had admitted the slaying and given the girl's refusal to marry him as the motive.

The sheriff denied he had said Teal admitted a motive for the killing. Although he said the man had admitted the slaying itself freely, he said he was married to the girl at the time he was keeping company with Miss Monts, although he and his wife, whom he married in 1917 in Wichita Falls, were not living together.

Teal said he again married in 1919, in Oregon. His second wife died seven years later and he remarried five years ago, he said. He has a 19-year-old step-daughter.

Fear of apprehension dogged his steps for four or five years after Miss Monts was shot to death, Teal said.

"After the first four or five years I didn't have any fear," he said. "It just passed away."

HARVESTERS WIN MOBEETIE TOURNAMENT AND 21ST STRAIGHT VICTORY

MOBEETIE IS DEFEATED BY PAMPA 46-18

ALLISON GIRLS TAKE FIRST PLACE IN TOURNEY

As was expected, the Harvester basketball team won the Mobettie tournament and their 21st straight game last night in the finals from Mobettie 46 to 18.

In the semi-finals Mobettie eliminated Allison. The Allison girls defeated Ericson's ladies 50 to 13 in the finals. Cain from Wheeler and his sister who played on the Ericson team won the sportsmanship trophies. Wheeler's boys played third Pampa entered the finals by knocking out Groom's team 31 to 25, after Groom had led nearly all the way. The Harvesters seemed to be chock full of over-confidence, and did not look any too good. The score at the half was 14 to 14. Moose Hartman led the scoring with 10 points. Groom had lost to Pampa twice previously this season. At Groom, the local cagers piled up a big lead which the reserves could not hold. It was believed that the Pampans would trounce the Tigers by a big score.

In the Harvesters' first game Friday afternoon, they almost shut out Quail under a 47 to 10 avalanche of scoring. The score at the end of the first quarter was 15-0, at the half, 27 to 0, at the third quarter 38 to 4.

Canadian's team which won the Wheeler tournament was favored to make it interesting for the Pampa reserves but they didn't. The tall Pampa youths buried the Wild Cats under a 42 to 14 score.

Subs Show Strength

In both games, Coach Odus Mitchell sent his first team to the showers at the half, and the greatly-improved reserves took the floor, and continued the sensational shooting. The reserves scored 20 points against Quail and the starters scored 27, but the subs allowed their opponents to score six points whereas the first string permitted only four points. In the Canadian game, the starters scored 23 points, while the reserves scored 15. The first string allowed the Wildcats four points while the reserves allowed ten tallies.

Every man on the squad scored in the Quail game except Bowsher, and all hit the basket either from the free throw line or from the field in the Canadian game except Noblitt and Bowsher.

The most interesting feature of the Pampa squad's performances was the improvement of the reserves. Not three weeks ago, the subs could not hold any lead the first string piled up; now, they not only maintain the lead but increase it. Bailey, Baker, Noblitt, Kitchens, and Nix have improved amazingly. Bailey stands out among the subs in handling, hustling and passing the ball. Harold Nicholson on account of illness was unable to make the tournament trip.

The Harvesters' tournament triumphs should not be over-estimated. Admitting that Pampa has one of the best basketball teams in history, it is also true that the Harvesters have not yet clashed with a quintet of regional championship calibre.

Strong Teams In Offing

That opportunity will come several times before the district tournament when Lubbock's Westerners and Plainview's Bulldogs face the local boys on the painted court. Lubbock with victories over Shallowater and other strong teams is already envisioning a defeat for the perennial champions, Lamesa's Golden Tornado, with the Westerners in the winning role. Plainview is claiming to be every bit as good as Lubbock. It would be safe to assert that Pampa has not yet played a team as strong as Lubbock, Plainview, Lamesa or Friona. The latter school boasts the strongest quintet in the Panhandle. Last week, The Friona Chiefs vanquished the New Mexico state champions from Floyd by an overwhelming score.

Amarillo And Panhandle Play In Pampa During Week

PHILLIPS 66 BASEBALL TEAM DISBANDED; STADIUM LEASED

One of the strongest baseball teams disappeared from the 1936 picture yesterday when it was announced in Borger that the Huber Athletic association had leased Alamo stadium, home of the Phillips 66 Oilers for several years. The Phillips team from that city has disbanded.

The Huber Blackfaces, sponsored by the Huber Petroleum company, had a strong team last season. When spring practice begins, the Blackfaces will have 35 players in uniform. It has been reported that the Alamo Athletic association with option to purchase.

Concurrent with the announcement, Walter David, president of the Huber Petroleum company, stated the present stadium would be materially improved for the baseball season with the Huber nine picked to be one of the outstanding diamond aggregations to represent this city. The diamond and entire field will be sodded to make the result athletic park one of the feature spots of the city.

There will be just one principal club in Borger this year, the Phillips "66" team disbanding. A number of the former players on the team here will play with a Phillips team in Amarillo. However, no official announcement concerning the future of the club was forthcoming last night when the Sandies cagers invaded the local floor.

On Thursday evening, Panhandle's strong Panthers, red-eyed with anger and lust for revenge, will attempt to mar Pampa's unbeaten record on the local court. Panhandle suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Harvesters before Christmas and only one day after the Panthers began practicing. The Harvesters had been working out nearly two weeks at the Alamo stadium from last year back. In 1935, his quintet represented Carson, Donley and Armstrong counties in the district tournament here; also the class B schools of Gray county. His team was barely beaten by Borger which was eliminated by Allison. There were only one or two points difference in the strength of the four leading teams in the tourney last spring.

Something of the strength of the Amarillo club can be learned Thursday night when the Sandies will play Borger, and on Friday night when they will entertain the Westerners at Amarillo. The Sandies will play the Bulldogs in Borger. Amarillo won its district championship last spring, and competed in the regional at Canyon winning fourth and last place. The Sandies face a tough schedule, and in the next month will play Lubbock, Borger, Friona and Plainview.

Two reserve lettermen, Ray Cochran and Brummitt McClendon are back as starters. Jo-Jo White and Noble Hargrove were squad members last season, and they with Karl Rice and the two lettermen are the likely starting combination. Cochran, White, and Rice, were members of the state championship football team. Amarillo will play Friona, hailed as the greatest team in the Panhandle, Jan. 28, at Amarillo, and Feb. 4 at Friona. Three games tentatively scheduled included a possible contest with Lamesa at Amarillo.

The Sandies have more experienced material, as usual, than the Harvesters. Pampa has only one regular starter, Green, forward back, and two lettermen, Junior Strickland and Albert Ayer. Moose Hartman did not play last year, and Roy Lee Jones and all the reserves came up from the Gorillas.

Phillips Cagers To Play McLean Monday Evening

With a lineup composed of former college and high school stars, the Phillips Petroleum company's basketball team, wearing new uniforms purchased by the Phillips 66 Employees club, will play its first game in McLean tomorrow night, meeting the fast McLean team.

The Phillips squad has been practicing for several weeks in the LeFors school gymnasium. Coach Weston, formerly with Bartlesville, Okla., had 15 men out for the team.

Probable starting lineup will see Tip Window and Dewey at the forward positions, Slim Window at center, and Jack Bacucus and Chandler at the guard positions. Chandler is a newcomer to the team. He was a teammate of Jack Bacucus while at Estelline. Strong reserves are expected to help the team.

Sponsors of the team wish to hear from independent quintets in this section. Manager Marvin Gibson will match games. He can be contacted by phoning 9025.

The McLean quintet has an excellent record this season. Members of the team are from the school faculty and former school players.

LeFors Faculty To Play Skelly Quint Tomorrow

LEFORS, Jan. 11.—The crack LeFors Faculty basketball team will meet their old hardwood rivals, the Skelly Oilers, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the LeFors gymnasium. The game will be sponsored by the LeFors Boy Scout troop.

The Pirate Pros lost to the Oilers, 37 to 10, in December and are smarting from the defeat. The Oilers was the only team to defeat the Pros in three seasons.

Constant practice has helped the Pros until they believe they will take the visitors. The team will appear in new silk uniforms.

TRAIN AT LONGVIEW

DALLAS, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Bob Tarleton, business manager, announced today spring training of the Dallas Steers, baseball club, will start on March 9 at Longview. The Steers will train there through April 4, when they will return to their Dallas pasture.

Chevigny Named Coach for 1936

Second Round of Play in Tourney To Begin Monday

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—(AP)—University of Texas regents today reappointed Jack Chevigny as head football coach and director of intercollegiate athletics.

Leo Haynes, secretary of the board, said the regent took no action on selection of a line coach in the absence of an athletic council recommendation.

Haynes said Chevigny's salary for his third season at the university would be the same as at present, $5,000 a year. Chevigny, a former Notre Dame player, came to the university from St. Edward's university, Austin.

His Longhorn team tied for cellar position in the past season but his squad placed second in the conference race during his first season at the university.

Second Round of Play in Tourney To Begin Monday

Second round of play in the Pampa Athletic club's 14 one-rack tournament will get under way on Monday night with Lefty Cox meeting Lee McCampbell and E. C. Hooker playing Price Chapman. The public is invited to attend the games. Women will be especially welcomed. Many are attending the games.

Ralph Stine, 100-shooter, defeated Bill Crowson, 100 to 48, on Friday night and LeRoy West won from Bill Stark, 100 to 73. Stine then won from West, 100 to 61, in the first game of the second round of play.

Bucks' Schedule Lists 11 Games

WHITE DEER, Jan. 11.—With only three letter men on the squad, the White Deer Bucks are facing a heavy schedule for the basketball season.

Jan. 10—LeFors there.

Jan. 17—Goodnight there.

Jan. 21—Whittenburg here.

Jan. 24—Groom there.

Jan. 28—Whittenburg there.

Jan. 31—Groom here.

Feb. 4—Panhandle here.

Feb. 7—Panhandle there.

Feb. 11—McLean here.

Feb. 18—McLean there.

Jan. 31-Feb. 1—Canadian tournament.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Willie Hoppe, veteran New York star, all but clinched his first world three cushion billiards championship today by winning the fifth block of his challenge match from Welker Cochran, 60 to 31, in 45 innings.

Strong Quintets To Be Gunning For Harvesters

The traditional athletic rivalry between Pampa and Amarillo will be renewed here next Saturday night when the Sandies cagers invade the local floor.

On Thursday evening, Panhandle's strong Panthers, red-eyed with anger and lust for revenge, will attempt to mar Pampa's unbeaten record on the local court. Panhandle suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Harvesters before Christmas and only one day after the Panthers began practicing. The Harvesters had been working out nearly two weeks at the Alamo stadium from last year back. In 1935, his quintet represented Carson, Donley and Armstrong counties in the district tournament here; also the class B schools of Gray county. His team was barely beaten by Borger which was eliminated by Allison. There were only one or two points difference in the strength of the four leading teams in the tourney last spring.

Something of the strength of the Amarillo club can be learned Thursday night when the Sandies will play Borger, and on Friday night when they will entertain the Westerners at Amarillo. The Sandies will play the Bulldogs in Borger. Amarillo won its district championship last spring, and competed in the regional at Canyon winning fourth and last place. The Sandies face a tough schedule, and in the next month will play Lubbock, Borger, Friona and Plainview.

Two reserve lettermen, Ray Cochran and Brummitt McClendon are back as starters. Jo-Jo White and Noble Hargrove were squad members last season, and they with Karl Rice and the two lettermen are the likely starting combination. Cochran, White, and Rice, were members of the state championship football team. Amarillo will play Friona, hailed as the greatest team in the Panhandle, Jan. 28, at Amarillo, and Feb. 4 at Friona. Three games tentatively scheduled included a possible contest with Lamesa at Amarillo.

The Sandies have more experienced material, as usual, than the Harvesters. Pampa has only one regular starter, Green, forward back, and two lettermen, Junior Strickland and Albert Ayer. Moose Hartman did not play last year, and Roy Lee Jones and all the reserves came up from the Gorillas.

Phillips Cagers To Play McLean Monday Evening

With a lineup composed of former college and high school stars, the Phillips Petroleum company's basketball team, wearing new uniforms purchased by the Phillips 66 Employees club, will play its first game in McLean tomorrow night, meeting the fast McLean team.

The Phillips squad has been practicing for several weeks in the LeFors school gymnasium. Coach Weston, formerly with Bartlesville, Okla., had 15 men out for the team.

Probable starting lineup will see Tip Window and Dewey at the forward positions, Slim Window at center, and Jack Bacucus and Chandler at the guard positions. Chandler is a newcomer to the team. He was a teammate of Jack Bacucus while at Estelline. Strong reserves are expected to help the team.

Sponsors of the team wish to hear from independent quintets in this section. Manager Marvin Gibson will match games. He can be contacted by phoning 9025.

The McLean quintet has an excellent record this season. Members of the team are from the school faculty and former school players.

LeFors Faculty To Play Skelly Quint Tomorrow

LEFORS, Jan. 11.—The crack LeFors Faculty basketball team will meet their old hardwood rivals, the Skelly Oilers, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the LeFors gymnasium. The game will be sponsored by the LeFors Boy Scout troop.

The Pirate Pros lost to the Oilers, 37 to 10, in December and are smarting from the defeat. The Oilers was the only team to defeat the Pros in three seasons.

Constant practice has helped the Pros until they believe they will take the visitors. The team will appear in new silk uniforms.

TRAIN AT LONGVIEW

DALLAS, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Bob Tarleton, business manager, announced today spring training of the Dallas Steers, baseball club, will start on March 9 at Longview. The Steers will train there through April 4, when they will return to their Dallas pasture.

McLEAN MEN REPLACE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WITH B. C. D.

WHEELER CALF SHOW WILL BE IN FEBRUARY

OFFICIALS OF BORGER STATE BANK ARE NAMED

The McLean chamber of commerce, is no more, but will hereafter be known as the McLean Board of City Development, according to action taken at the annual election of officers Monday night.

Witt Springer, vice-president for the past year, succeeds Boyd Mesador as president for the coming year, and W. K. Wharton was elected vice president.

W. E. Bogan was re-elected secretary for this year.

The new board of directors includes T. A. Landers, Boyd Mesador, Jesse J. Cobb, C. A. Cray, W. W. Boyd, and Lee Wilson.

The annual banquet and installation of officers will be held Monday night, January 20, with C. O. Greene, W. W. Boyd, and Thurman Askins as the banquet committee.

The January term of the 84th district court began Monday morning at Panhandle. District Judge E. J. Picketts was absent because he has been tied up in a case at Canadian since December 15. It is not known just when the case will be completed and he will be able to come to Panhandle.

Members of the bar met Monday morning with J. Sid O'Keefe presiding and elected H. E. Hoover of Canadian special judge.

Calf Show Planned. Responding to the call for a meeting on Friday night of last week to discuss plans for the first annual Wheeler calf show, a number of farmers and 4-H club boys met in the court house to discuss plans for the exhibit. Although several Wheeler business men had been invited to attend the meeting, only a very few were present, due to other engagements.

It was decided to have the show on Saturday, February 8. This date precedes the annual Shamrock Calf show by two weeks.

Bank Officers Named. Stockholders of the proposed Panhandle State bank of Borger met in Borger Tuesday night and elected officers and directors. Four of the seven are from Panhandle.

Directors elected were: C. E. Deahl, R. L. Grimes, George F. Chow, and David M. Warren of Panhandle; Hugh Miller, L. A. Thompson, and F. M. Counts of Borger.

Mr. Miller is superintendent of the Phillips Petroleum company, Mr. Thompson, owns a news stand, and Mr. Counts is a hardware merchant.

Officers elected were: Mr. Deahl, president; Mr. Grimes, vice president, and Mr. Crow, cashier.

Papers were sent to Austin Wednesday for a charter. Fifty thousand dollars will be the capital stock of the bank, the Deahl interests and associates putting up $30,000 and Borger people the remainder with the exception of a small amount from Panhandle and Amarillo.

AAA Meeting Held. A mass meeting of dirt farmers, ranchers, and cattlemen was held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Canadian city hall. More than 60 Hemphill county men attended. This session was held following the news of the cancellation of all AAA activities. S. E. Allison, who was Hemphill county chairman of the AAA, acted as chairman. It was advised to stick together and fight for future programs. A motion was made and seconded that the body go on record favoring the sending of 20 or 25 telegrams, by individuals to Congressmen Marvin Jones, to the Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Senators Connally and Sheppard, and to Chester Davis, secretary of the Farmers' Protective League association.

AAA Meeting Held. Sponsored by Wheeler West Post No. 138, American Legion of Wheeler, a hilarious occasion is advertised for Monday evening, January 20, at the new high school gymnasium in Wheeler.

Designated as a fiddlers' convention and old-time frolic, the affair carries a list of cash prizes in two divisions. For fiddlers group, which will in reality be a contest between wielders of the resin bow, the first prize is $15; second, $10, and third, $5. A prize of $5 is also offered for the best "stunt" presented during the frolic, program, which will consist of informal numbers of wide range.

With a very small vote, denoting that interest was at a low ebb, Ochiltree voters went to the polls on Friday, January 3, and turned in a decisive majority against the legislation of liquor sales in the county. With a total of 592 votes cast, only 146 voted for liquor, 246 voting against the legal sale, thus giving the dries a majority of 200 votes, or better than two to one.

Bank's Condition Good. Reports of each of the four banks in Donley county, as made to the banking commissioner on the last day of the year, show improved conditions from two standpoints.

The deposits are larger, while at the same time the statements show that loans have decreased. The total loans of the four banks at this time amounts to $440,232.92. Deposits at the same time show a total of $996,212.25.

W. A. Miller of Colorado Springs, Colo., and E. L. Dodge of Pueblo, Colo., returned to Miami Monday of this week for the purpose of completing the securing of leases on a certain block of land in Roberts county near Miami for the purpose of drilling a wildcat oil well on the Cunningham land just west of the city limits.

C. C. Directors Named. R. T. Shindler of Perryton, a leader in civic affairs of that city ever since the town was started in 1919, is the president of the Perryton chamber of commerce for the year 1936. Mr. Shindler was elected at the first meeting of the new 1936 directors at the Hotel Perryton, Friday.

Other officers chosen were R. C. Johnson, manager of the Johnson Motor company, vice president; and Addison Cutler, assistant cashier of the First National bank, secretary-treasurer. Other directors are J. H. Woodward, manager of the Perryton Equity Exchange; Forrest Campbell, manager of the W. W. Virtue Dry Goods company; Dave Shanks, county judge of Ochiltree county; and Van W. Stewart, editor of the Ochiltree County Herald.

The first shelterbelt planting in Collinsworth county is scheduled to begin Friday, January 10, according to plans of the county commissioners.

The first planning for the county was made following the visit of E. L. Perry, state director, who visited in Wellington Tuesday, inspecting the local program, and made plans for the establishment of a 25-acre nursery in this county.

Sixty miles of shelterbelt strips will be planted in the county, affording employment for 51 men from the WPA rolls and forming three crews for the county, according to present plans. The planting must be completed in the county by March 15, 1936.

Representatives of Carson, Gray, Hutchinson, Moore, and Wheeler counties met at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in Borger to outline plans for a consolidated exhibit at the Texas Centennial under auspices of the West Texas chamber of commerce.

Work began Saturday on repairing the McLean ward school building, and erecting a football stadium in McLean.

Work on the building will include new hardwood floor in the auditorium, new stage furnishings, with floating platform, and chairs under the stage.

The long stairway to the second floor will be removed, as a dangerous hazard. A terrace with new blackboards and seats will be furnished where needed, with new lighting arrangements.

Two lavatory rooms will be furnished on the second floor, and the steel window frames will be removed and replaced with weather stripping being installed. A new roof will cover the building, built up with paper asphalt and gravel, with new coping installed.

This work will cost around $11,000 and is being done as a federal project.

Work on the stadium will consist of seats on each side of the football field with a capacity of about 1,500.

Asphalt Group Is Named by Roeser

Announcement has been made by H. B. Fell, executive vice president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, that C. F. Roeser, president of the association, had appointed as members of the domestic asphalt committee of the association for the ensuing year the following:

L. H. Prichard, Oklahoma City, Okla., chairman; T. M. Martin, Ed Dorado, Ark.; J. K. Mahony, Ed Dorado, Ark.; Emby Kaye, Tulsa; L. E. Kinannon, Duncan, Okla.; Paul G. Blazer, Ashland, Ky.; J. B. Arthur, Los Angeles, Calif.; J. L. Quinn, New York; E. C. Moriarty, Wichita, Kans.; L. P. Calkin, Bartlesville.

It was announced that all members of this committee are representatives of companies engaged in the manufacture of asphalt and road oils in the United States from crude oil produced in the United States.

Four members of this committee were members of the Domestic Asphalt committee of the Independent Petroleum Association of America for the past year, which committee prepared and submitted to the annual meeting of the association in November which was adopted at that meeting.

"The Independent Petroleum Association of America," said Mr. Fell, "has been actively engaged in working for the protection of the domestic asphalt industry and in bringing about the elimination of the discrimination against domestic asphalt that exists on account of the Bureau of Roads and the procurement division of the treasury department."

"The personnel of this committee assures the association officers of the most competent and constructive advice and counsel that can possibly be secured by the association in its work to develop larger markets for the products of the domestic asphalt manufacturers and to secure for them the same privileges that are enjoyed by other domestic products in public works where federal funds are expended. The accomplishment of these purposes will increase the demand for domestic petroleum and benefit producers in all oil producing states."

"I haven't seen her for weeks," he told Tala. "Fact. And now she shows up all of a sudden."

"I want a room and bath," said Allaire politely. "Southern exposure and American plan. And do you allow children?"

"I think," said Tala lazily, "I'll go to bed. I don't feel good for a thing."

"Goodness," commented Allaire, "is as a morning cloud and as the early dew—it goeth away."

"Put me down as early dew," said Tala wearily. She left the room and Allaire looked at her father, dark eyes ironic.

"Still paying tuition for night school, Ray?"

"What have you been doing lately?" he asked.

"The usual thing," said Allaire. "Theatre parties dinner dances, a few night clubs, and a lot of small talk. Got sick of it and went to shrugging. 'Gof sick of that too.'"

Well got on her string now? Some polish—your under—secretary from the Bolling Legation with white spats and penciled mustache?"

He laughed again. "Lord, what a bunch of Don Quixotes hang around her. She fills their skins with sherry and they all go looking for windmills. Don't blame you for leaving."

"Ray," she returned, "it's no better here, and don't you forget it."

"You always were inclined to be snooty." He father picked up the brandy decanter. "You're the proudest person on this green earth."

The girl in white polo coat gave an expression of a young Diana with burnished hair and a quick lithe strength. She blended in with the world of grace and rhythmic beauty represented in those gleaming tall silver cups and the pictures of clean-limbed racing perfection.

And Baburn Wask, with the early morning sun streaming on his evening clothes and the smell of brandy and that pale woman's perfume about him, seemed a natural completion to the canvas of bottles, glasses, melting ice, and ash trays.

He seemed to sense that in her cool level glance, for he suddenly made a bee-line for the nearest exit with some irritation.

"What's come over you?" he demanded. "You used to ride all night, dance all night, and pipe every man to mast for miles around. Don't try to kid me, Allaire," he requested.

"You can't put your hair in pig tails and make a bee-line for the nearest convent all of a sudden. You've raised plenty of hell in your time."

"I know," she inclined her head. "Although I hope my particular brand was never in bad taste. But I've suddenly realized what I used only to suspect—the best year of my life are going by, wasted in silly, inane motions that have no significance whatever."

She absently twined a finger in a small tangle of blonde hair at her forehead. "I want to feel worth while," she said quietly. "Does that sound like Chinese?"

"No," he said. "I understand perfectly. You'd like to be the pioneer woman traveling with her mate in a covered wagon shooting at Indians with one hand and holding her baby in the other. Very admirable, my dear. Every bored woman feels like that once in a while. Too bad there aren't any more covered wagons."

NEVER MIND THE LADY

by David Garth

Chapter 13
CONVERSATION PIECE

Allaire's father and mother hadn't cared a farthing for tradition or memory. They'd purchased the estate as a happy compromise between her mother's love of Washington society and her father's reverence for Kentucky as a more suitable location for his racing stable.

And they'd done their best to remodel it into a showplace—a long sweeping wings to accommodate more guests added to the original mansion, destroying its simplicity and solidarity; the old driveway winding its leisurely course through thick-growing evergreens, changed at great cost of money and trees into a gleaming paved double drive; the picturesque coachhouse demolished to make room for an eight-car garage. They would have to pick that one spot.

But even at that they'd failed to place the atmosphere of the old place, the way of life, the old-fashioned ways for her mother had long since retired to her home in Washington where from behind the bulwarks of her own social circle and private income she made sophisticated nose-thumbing gestures at her husband, except when some thing with social and diplomatic lure like that polo trip brought them together again.

And Allaire's tall slim father, his best polo days over, had settled down here either to break his neck in a fox hunt some day or else drink himself to death, either of which he would probably do very gracefully.

It was this same thing that gave Allaire any dignity.

In the distance through a grove of trees she could see the red roofs of the stables—smart modern buildings surrounded by a covered tannery track and adjacent to a private three-quarters of a mile exercise course.

And Baburn Wask, with the early morning sun streaming on his evening clothes and the smell of brandy and that pale woman's perfume about him, seemed a natural completion to the canvas of bottles, glasses, melting ice, and ash trays.

He seemed to sense that in her cool level glance, for he suddenly made a bee-line for the nearest exit with some irritation.

VOTE AGAINST ROOSEVELT IS GAINING DAILY

12 FARM BELT STATES SHOW A 3 TO 2 MAJORITY

The vote against the New Deal increased markedly as over 300,000 more ballots are reported in the latest tally of The Literary Digest poll bringing the total vote so far, which appears in the current issue of the magazine, to 1,688,462.

In answer to the poll question of "Do you now approve the acts and policies of the Roosevelt 'New Deal' to date?" 643,514 are shown marked "no" and 1,044,948 "yes" out of a total of 1,688,462.

The vote in support of the New Deal has declined from 46.72 per cent in the first report to 38.11 per cent in this week's tabulation.

Thirty-six States, which represent 399 out of a total of 531 electoral votes, continue to express disapproval of the Administration's policies in the latest returns. The other twelve, all southern and "border" states with the exception of Utah, still voice approval of the President's policies.

The additional ballots tabulated currently indicate a larger affirmative vote for the new deal in eleven states and a decreased percentage in the thirty-seven other states since the previous week's report. The only sharp declines are noted in New York and New Hampshire.

Mississippi and South Carolina give a 70-80 per cent majority for the new deal, while six other states give a 60-70 per cent approval and four more states show a percentage of 50-60 in support of the administration's policies.

Massachusetts is the only state registering more than 80 per cent disapproval of the new deal. The five other New England states and New Jersey are shown voting 70-80 per cent negatively. Fifteen more states are in the 60-70 per cent bracket and the balance of fourteen states are balloting 50-60 per cent against the administration's policies.

A close vote is indicated in only five states. New Mexico with a 53.96 percentage, Oklahoma with a 52.06 percentage and Florida, with 50.55 per cent against the new deal; Utah with a 54.10 percentage and Virginia with a 52.50 per cent vote in support of the new deal. All other states give over a 55 per cent majority for or against.

New England, as a section, votes more than 2 to 1 anti-new deal so far in the poll.

The Middle Atlantic states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and West Virginia, which gave the president a combined 51 per cent majority in his 1932 election, are now indicated in the poll as opposed to his new deal policies by more than 2 to 1.

The south, as a section, supports the new deal by nearly 3 to 2.

The twelve states in the farm belt show a 3 to 2 majority against the Roosevelt policies.

In the eight states of the Rocky Mountain section, approximately three of every five voters are shown registering disapproval, and the ratio of the three Pacific coast states is virtually the same.

A table of how the poll participants voted in 1932 and another upon how each state voted in the 1934 Literary Digest new deal poll, which appears in the current issue of the magazine, shows the voters' defections in detail.

"With nearly 1,700,000 Americans represented this week in the eighth report of The Literary Digest's poll of new deal strength today," the magazine states in its latest issue, "the heavy balloting shows a further increase in the majority opposed to administration policies."

BUILDING PERMITS
DALLAS, Jan. 11. (P)—Building permit figures indicated a healthy advance in new construction over Texas this week, with Houston stepping into the lead it held most of last year.

Houston had a weekly permit total of $187,951, Austin $144,463 and Corpus Christi $80,365.

NATIONAL BUSINESS SURVEY
(By The Associated Press.)
Producers and distributors in the first full week of the new year maintained the high rate of activity displayed during the final month of 1935 and in almost all cases swung well above the level of a year ago.

Retail trade with a few minor exceptions equaled or exceeded the volume of business a year ago.

Wholesalers fought against bewilderment resulting from elimination of processing taxes formerly collected under authority of the agricultural adjustment act. For a time in some markets the uncertainty spread to lines on which no such taxes were levied, but a majority of trade reports showed the untaxed items were demanded by retailers in good volume.

Industrial activity, as measured by the Associated Press seasonally adjusted index, moved a trifle higher in the aggregate from the previous week to 85.8 percent of the 1929-30 average. Five of the six component parts of the indicator advanced above the previous week. Cotton manufacturing, of course, dropped a fraction of a percentage point.

THE DANGEROUS AGE

A wonderful age—when life is an unending voyage of discovery. A dangerous age because young eyes must keep up with inquisitive minds, and three-fourths of all a child learns must come to her through her eyes! Yet many parents have never learned these simple facts about eyesight protection during the critical growing years. That over-strained during this period of development may do damage. That there are two common causes of eye-strain, uncorrected defects of vision, and improper light, that one school child in five has defective vision and that one home in ten provides enough light for eyes to read or work or play without strain.

If there are a pair of young eyes in your home, give them their chance in life. Guard them from strain by adopting these three sight saving rules: 1. Have every pair of eyes examined regularly. 2. Have your lights checked by an expert. 3. Use a standard brand of lamps, they stay bright longer, and cost less. For any lighting problem call on us. Phone 695.

MISSING MAN FOUND--TELLS STRANGE TALE

CLAIMS HE CAME TO HIMSELF LAST FRIDAY

SWEETWATER, Jan. 11. (AP)—Truman Cannon, Big Spring liquor salesman missing since December 15, was in custody here tonight following his surrender by bondsmen in two indictments pending against him in 32nd district court.

Cannon told Sweetwater officers he awoke at 3:30 or 4 o'clock on the night of his disappearance. He said he had spent that day making deliveries of liquor for his Big Spring employers on which he had collected about $800 in checks, which he in turn had cashed according to his usual custom.

Cannon said he remembered that as he drove to Snyder the night of his disappearance, the driver of another car signaled to him and that as he reached for his pistol—thinking it might be a hijacking—something hit him in the head.

His next recollection of events was Friday afternoon, at Brownwood, where he was being questioned by officers, said Cannon. He said he came to himself in the sheriff's office there when a deputy asked him if he were not Truman Cannon. Frightened, he said nothing, and upon being released, caught a freight train for Sweetwater, he declared.

directed Hauptmann's prosecution at Flemington, offered no formal opposition to the clemency plea, but it declined to join the request that he be granted mercy.

Every Move Falls Five of the eight members of the court had previously passed upon the Hauptmann case, having set as members of the state court of errors and appeals which denied his application for a new trial.

From the start Hauptmann has been in every effort to escape punishment for the nation's most widely known crime. Arrested in New York when ransom bills were found in his possession, he lost his effort to prevent extradition to New Jersey. He lost also at Flemington; in his appeal to the court of error and appeals; to the Supreme Court of the United States, and now in his appeal for clemency.

A statement by Governor Hoffman before today's meeting of the board was accepted by Hauptmann's friends as holding hope for him, but the decision tonight plunged them into hopeless gloom.

The governor had expressed the belief that the ends of justice would not be fully served with Hauptmann's execution. The young chief executive also had expressed the opinion that the sudden departure from the country yesterday of Dr. ...

Jaisie Tells All The publication during the week in a national magazine of a series of articles entitled "Jaisie tells all" indicated, the governor believed, that Condon might have knowledge of the case of value to the pardons court in its deliberation.

It was said earlier in the day that the governor would ask the attorney-general to have Condon return at once from his South American cruise. No steps had been taken tonight, however, and the attorney-general said at all times to give the state of New Jersey any information he had.

The aged Bronx schoolmaster and Col. Lindbergh—both of whom are now out of the country—were leading witnesses for the prosecution in the Flemington trial. Each of them identified Hauptmann as the man in the Bronx cemetery to whom Condon paid $50,000 of Col. Lindbergh's money as ransom. Each of them said the voice of the extortionist was "the voice of Hauptmann."

In New York, Dr. Condon's son-in-law said the 73-year-old man had told Attorney-General Wilentz he was going on the trip, and had been told there was no reason for the state to go. He said Dr. Condon had been ready at all times to give the state of New Jersey any information he had.

One of the exhibits that was brought before the court at the request of the governor was the "kidnap ladder" with its well known "10" which, the state sought to show at Flemington, was made from lumber taken from Hauptmann's Bronx home.

In mid-afternoon the governor be preserved for the "American farmer" and expansion of foreign markets would be promoted.

Final decision on the question of new taxes and similar issues was deferred for "continuing action and attention" by organized farm groups. Cash payments to farmers under the recommendations could be made by government rental of a given percentage of the cultivated acreage; by fixing a quota for the volume of products, or on a basis involving both acreage and volume.

The emphasis on the retention of the present act allocation of 30 per cent of import duties for "the expansion of foreign and domestic outlets for farm products" caused some speculation. President Roosevelt in his budget message Monday, before the court ruled on AAA, had recommended repeal of this provision.

Wallace, Davis, Chairman Smith (D., S. C.) of the senate agricultural committee, and Chairman Jones (O. Tex.) of the house agricultural committee had conferred during the day with the committee of 13 which drafted the recommendations approved by the main farm group. The governor had expressed the belief that the ends of justice would not be fully served with Hauptmann's execution. The young chief executive also had expressed the opinion that the sudden departure from the country yesterday of Dr. ...

Expert Comes to Pampa Known to THE NEWS and a few others has been the fact that from December 14-17, a New York fingerprint expert, J. W. Peletra, and an associate, Edward D. Jackson, were in Pampa in connection with an angle in the Lindbergh case.

Asked directly whether he had already prepared, Davis first said "No," but quickly qualified that with "I had better say, none that I know of."

He added: "I think this is a pretty good cross-section of what the farmers of the nation think. I was impressed with the fact that there was a unanimous vote."

GHOSTS RISE IN AAA WAKE; CONSTITUTION BECOMES ISSUE AS G. O. P. SEEKS FARM PLAN

BY BYRON PRICE, Chief of Bureau, the Associated Press, Washington.

Several important probabilities are represented by the tumbling events which have greeted the infant 1936 act at Washington: The AAA decision brings home to the democrats, much more forcibly than anything heretofore, the necessity for deciding whether to favor a constitutional amendment to enlarge federal power.

It likewise forecasts for republican leaders and candidates a season of severe ordeals as the various party groups seek to unite on some substitute plan for farm relief.

The president's annual message makes relations between the White House and organized business still more difficult—a fact which is sure to be reflected in some degree during the session of congress.

The new budget, encountering immediately the prospect of soldier bonus payments, and invalidation of the processing tax, has been thrown into a state of confusion which puts even the details of government finances into the center of the political campaign.

Should the democrats advocate an amendment, it is assumed that by its very terms it would give the federal government broader powers over industry as well as agriculture.

That might mean a break far more real than the present one between Mr. Roosevelt and organized business. It might determine the whole character of the campaign.

Although it was easy, listening to the president's annual message, to conclude that he had turned to the "left" finally, irrevocably and without restraint, some of the wisest political philosophers found room for doubt.

They recalled that in politics, as in war, there are two kinds of strategy. One general prefers to stand on a given line and fight, another relies on the art of maneuver. Up to now, Mr. Roosevelt has been a recognized master of maneuver, seeming to turn left today, and right tomorrow.

Besides, neither the annual message nor the budget message contained proposals for new legislation repugnant to business. The security markets held firm, perhaps on the theory that "sticks and carrots" will break my bones, but words will never harm me.

It is what Mr. Roosevelt does, more than what he says, which will hold the interest of the country in the present situation; and the determining question may easily be what he does about a constitutional amendment.

AID TO REPUBLICANS. By Herbert Plummer. WASHINGTON—The six-thirty decision of the supreme court which swept AAA so completely overboard makes it possible for the republicans to proceed forthwith in formulating their farm program.

G.O.P. leaders in congress weeks ago approached experts on agricultural legislation in the various farm organizations for their advice on what should be done. They were told to wait until the court had spoken on AAA.

Few of the farm organization leaders believed the supreme court would scuttle AAA so completely. There was some doubt in their minds as to the constitutionality of the processing tax, but they were confident some method could be devised to cope with an adverse decision in this respect.

It was an open secret that AAA officials had a variety of plans on tap ready for immediate submission to congress. The sweeping declaration of the majority of the justices, however, that AAA "invades the reserved rights of the states" and that "it is a statutory plan to regulate and control agricultural production, a matter beyond the powers delegated to the federal government" rendered them useless.

The absence of expressions on the part of high administration officials as to plans for the future indicate how completely overwhelmed all were by the court's decision.

Had the court gone even so far as to rule against use of federal spending power in any way that would lead directly or indirectly to a control of farm production, AAA officials were prepared.

Congress would have been asked to approve grants to individual states that enacted laws under their state constitutions, to provide uniform voluntary methods for acreage control in farming, along the present lines.

The states then would be offered federal grants just as they are given funds for road building and education now.

Spinning Wheel in Use 60 Years

MOTHER OF PAMPANS USES A SPINNING WHEEL MADE WHEN SHE WAS BRIDE 60 YEARS AGO

Mrs. Bynum Seorns Idea of Wheel as Ornament

NO DECORATION—BUT WOMAN SAW WHEEL BUILT

Seventeen-year-old Mary Jane was going to be married, and there was the most important thing that she wanted when she set up housekeeping. That was a spinning wheel.

Now that Mary Jane was a grown woman, 17 years old, and about to be married, she wanted a spinning wheel of her very own and she wanted it to be the finest spinning wheel anyone in those parts had seen.

All day long she watches woman coming and going bearing bright fabrics that have been turned out in less time than it would take her to wind a ball of yarn.

"I guess it's just such a habit with me that I can't change now," she said. "You see, I brought up 16 children, and spun the thread and wove the goods for every lick of those young'un's' clothing."

Some persons have suggested to Mrs. Bynum that she have her wheel painted in the style of those who keep such objects around for ornament, but she scorns such artifices.

"I've been working with this wheel for nigh onto 60 years," she said in her Alabama way of speaking. "Wouldn't it look pretty, a-seetin' there in the corner all gilded up?"

DOUBLE DUTY RECIPES HELP MODERN COOK

Enable a Housewife To Make Most Of Time

Menus and Recipes Prepared by Department of Home Economics Texas State College for Women (C. I. A.)

DENTON, Jan. 11.—The aim of the modern housewife should be to make the most of her time, and at the same time save effort, materials and fuel by cooking in larger quantity, utilizing the heat of one oven for more than one purpose.

If, for example, baked potatoes are to be served, why not use the same heat for one or more cooking processes? Or when stirring up a cake why not make portions of it in such a way as to give an entirely different effect?

Vary The Baking

A plain cake recipe could be divided so as to give cup cakes for one meal, a layer cake for another, a loaf cake iced and sliced for a third, and a cottage pudding would make a fourth modification.

Pastry can be baked into pie shells and stored to be used as needed or it can be canned tightly and stored in the refrigerator as baked as required.

Breakfast: Stewed fruit, cooked cereal, cream and sugar, wheat muffins and butter, coffee, milk.

Lunch: Meat pie, baked sweet

THE GOALS OF THE SPIRIT: But thou, O man of God, flee things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life.—Timothy 6:11,12.

A Texan Writes on AAA

Comment on the future of federal contracts with former AAA clients cannot be made by extension workers who were concerned with the program as its chief executives in the states and counties. The Washington agriculture bureaus, formerly the most articulate in the administration, are likewise silent. The new program must come down from the President and his cleverest advisers.

Meanwhile, republicans and democrats alike are rushing into print with suggestions. One of the first to comment in Texas was Dr. A. B. Cox, internationally known agricultural economist and director of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas. Never friendly to AAA, Dr. Cox is obscure in his plans for a substitute. For whatever interest there may be in his attitude, we quote from his speech before the Texas Agricultural Workers association Friday at Mineral Wells:

"The Supreme Court has killed what I believed to be a fundamental piece of legislation, but that has not solved the agricultural problem," Dr. Cox said.

He advocated regional agricultural planning as part of a program for betterment of farm conditions.

"From 1932 to date, the fundamental problems of agriculture have not changed other than to become more malignant," Dr. Cox asserted. "I grant you that because of dollar devaluation, government bonuses, and some other measures, most farmers, especially land owners producers of the so-called 'political crops,' are temporarily better off than they were, and that the bracing effects of these 'shots in the arm' will last for a little while longer. On the other hand, the agricultural industry as practiced in the United States is fundamentally much sicker than in 1932 because of a loss of world markets, so-called social legislation, and the stimulus of synthetic fiber production caused by attempts at artificial price boosting.

"The basic modern agricultural problems have developed out of the commercialization of agriculture and the fact that most agricultural products have become industrial raw materials. The beginnings of modern agricultural problems, therefore, date with the advent of the industrial revolution. It was the invention underlying the industrial revolution which made the factory system possible.

"Commercial cotton production not only paved the way for regional specialization of production in the United States, but the perpetuation of specialized cotton production or cash crop substitutes on an undiminished scale is essential to prevent the collapse of our system of production on its present scale. This cannot be done for some time, at any rate, without the restoration of foreign markets for American cotton to the extent of more than 50 per cent of our raw cotton production."

Dr. Cox described the trends of agriculture during the last several years including the mechanized or industrial revolution, the transformation from subsistence to commercial production, development of synthetic production and other phases.

"For the long pull, the greatest menace to prosperous agriculture is the trend toward synthetic production," he continued. "Already agriculture has been almost completely eliminated from dye production, and the production of paints, drugs, and other chemicals, is being rapidly lost to agriculture. Certainly over a period of years cotton production as it is now carried on in the United States has more to fear from the competition of synthetically made fibers than from foreign cotton growers.

"Surely the trend in agriculture toward greater specialized regional production to secure advantages for efficient large scale production, the production of quality products, or to take advantage of special market opportunities is greatly increasing. Modern capitalism and high standards of living are a direct result of increased production growing out of large scale, specialized production for an industrial market can now be shifted rather quickly from high to low cost producing regions. Indeed such shifts are important causes of the present distress in agriculture.

"Summarized briefly, this development has created five types of agricultural problems in addition to the ordinary farm management problems. They are: A real shift caused by increased ability to open new regions of lower cost of production faster than the markets can absorb the products; difficulties of interpreting market demand to individual farmers; competition of substitutes directly and indirectly for agricultural products such as mechanical power for animal power and synthetic materials for agricultural products; the problem of the division of national and international income in an increasingly complicated exchange economy; farmers' disadvantages arising from excessive costs of installation and operation of modern necessities, conveniences, and other equipment.

"Synthetic production of substitutes for many products grown on farms is constantly encroaching on agriculture. During the last year, the increase in the production of synthetic fibers alone was the equivalent of 250,000 bales of cotton.

"A sound agricultural policy and program for the United States must be built on the full comprehension and recognition of the nature and advantages of specialized, large scale, regional production and the special problems that go with it. Specialized regional production is founded on natural advantages and their development results in the creation of surpluses. These surpluses liquidate each other through exchange. A sound agricultural program must be concerned with opening new markets and not reducing production. A program of improving and lowering the costs of inter-regional transportation and communication would open domestic markets. A freer exchange of goods and services with foreign countries will certainly open up world markets to American cotton and other farm products."

After being rescued from drowning, and revived with a pint of whisky, a Michigan buck deer frisked off, happily. Probably he returned the next day, dripping.

There's a new movie, "The Man in the Black Hat." At the same time, news out of New York seems to pre-announce a '36 revival of the Man in the Brown Derby.

The worst fog in 10 years is reported in London, which perhaps explains why, in the cabinet, one hand doesn't seem to know what the other is doing.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Jan. 11. (AP)—The number of persons leaving the state's employ and the decline in applications for major state offices is being accepted here as a sign of returning prosperity.

Several weeks ago when the pension board announced Orville S. Carpenter, state auditor, would become executive director Gov. Allred expected a flood of applications for Carpenter's old position. To date he has had none and has no idea, he said, who he will ask to fill it. It was only after repeated urging that Carpenter accepted the post.

Ashley Glassen resigned as state reclamation engineer, an office he held but a few months, to become associated with the El Paso municipal government.

Irvin McCroskey quit as banking commissioner when a more desirable connection in private banking at Temple was offered. District Judge C. A. Wheeler gave the salary reduction ordered by the legislature as his reason for resigning after several years on the Travis county bench.

In addition there have been many changes in personnel in minor offices, notably in the attorney general's office and the railroad commission.

Although there has been a marked increase in the number of state employees accepting other employment, officials report their application lists are jammed and that there were entire office forces to quit overnight the supply would be sufficient to replace them several times.

Judge Wheeler is the second member of the Austin judiciary to resign because of legislative salary cuts. The first was C. A. Leddy who criticized the legislature in a letter resigning from the supreme court commission of appeals.

Judge Wheeler said he believed his services would be more adequately compensated in private employment.

"Since my election the salary of the office has been reduced 20 per cent," he wrote the governor. "The cost of living has increased approximately 30 per cent. The state deficit is such that no salary warrants for district judges have been paid since April, 1935, thus compelling district judges to either borrow money for living expenses or discount their warrants from one to two and one-half per cent."

PAMPA KIWANIANS COMPLETE EVENTFUL YEAR AT BANQUET

BILL JARRATT HEADS STAFF IN NEW YEAR

KATHRYN DUFFY COMES HERE WITH HER TROUPE

In one of the most gala and elaborate occasions of Pampa civic club history, Kiwanians completed a year of many accomplishments Friday evening, when their ladies and many guests were entertained and a new president, W. V. Jarratt, was installed.

Lieut.-Gov. Fred Thompson of Pampa installed the new administration after complimenting the retiring president, Guy E. McTaggart, and his staff, who included: Robert Kainer, first vice-president; Basburn Thompson, second vice-president; J. R. Roby, secretary-treasurer; and A. G. Post, Chris B. Martin, and E. W. Voss, directors.

Chris L. Woole, as first vice-president, Edwin S. Vickers as second vice-president, Mr. Roby as re-elected secretary-treasurer, and W. B. Weathered, Tom Aldridge, Lee Wagoner, Earl C. Roff, J. B. Mason, R. A. Selby, and Newton P. Willis as directors.

Given Traveling Case.

Kiwanian McTaggart was presented a traveling case in appreciation of his services and the club pianist and sweetheart, Mrs. H. E. McCarty, was given a bouquet with currency forming some of the leaves. As the group of 157 persons assembled in the dining room of the Schneider hotel, Claude Hipps and his Commanders orchestra struck up the music which continued during the meal and drew repeated applause. Personnel of the orchestra includes Jimmy McKee, saxophone; Junior McElrath, saxophone; Bob Daugherty, trumpet; Warren Neese, trombone; Pinky Powell, drums; Harry Kelley, guitar; and Mr. Hipps at the piano. It is a local orchestra.

After extending a welcome, Kiwanian McTaggart surrendered the gavel to Kiwanian Newton P. Willis, who as toastmaster introduced visitors and a number of local guests, including presidents of civic organizations. From Amarillo came Dr. Bob Younger, Edwin C. Schmeier, Bill Gilstrap, Cecil O'Brien, President Earl Scruggs of the Amarillo Kiwanis club, Warren Babb, Garford Wilkinson, and Gene Klein. LeFors visitors were Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Gilbert and Mr. Bill Leslie.

Attendance Awards.

Awards for 100 per cent attendance during the last year were given to Kiwanians Edwin S. Vickers, Ollie Deak, W. V. Jarratt, Robert Kainer, Basburn Thompson, and Chris B. Martin.

In his installation speech, Lieut.-Governor Thompson said that promotion by precept and example of a more aggressive and enlightened citizenship was a cardinal principle of Kiwanians. He swiftly outlined the progress of the nation along mechanical and social lines, into its crime and economic problems, and urged that "share the wealth" slogans be shelved and instead that Kiwanians share the obligations and sacrifices and work to make individual responsibility an acceptable public policy. He called the Kiwanis club's printed report illustrative of "one of its best years."

Outlines Objectives.

In accepting the presidency, Kiwanian Jarratt asked the full support of the membership in increasing the roll to 75 men, in bettering attendance, in attending training conferences, and in making the principles of Kiwanis effective. He said activities for the benefit of Scouts, Junior police, and underprivileged children would continue.

Following the installation, chairs were pushed back and tables removed as Kathryn Duffy presented her "Revels of 1936" from Oklahoma City. A pleasing chorus of youthful girls completed its appearance with a revival of the "French Can Can" from the gay nineties—a well executed number done in authentic costumes of the period. Regie Roth was featured in an Oriental dance and later a clever costume dance called "Indian Rhythm," done barefoot in feathers. Topping the Duffy program, however, was the tap team of Stockwell and Kargia. Gene Stockwell revealed a clever routine and unusual ability for a youngster, and was well teamed with Margie Kargia, who also appeared in a solo as a tap stylist.

Favors were placed on each table. The menu: Shrimp cocktail, soup, celery, olives, roast turkey, cream potatoes, asparagus, oyster dressing, English peas and mushrooms, whole grain corn, cranberry sauce, lettuce, French dressing, brick ice cream, coffee, mints, almonds.

Snow Is Cause Of WPA Delays

Snow and muddy grounds slowed work on WPA projects in Gray county last week, but as the week closed the sewing room, bridge, and race track were going forward.

About 185 men and women are working in Pampa and about 225 in the entire county.

WPA workers are increasing in number weekly as those formerly on the rolls return from seasonal employment.

A generally all is in readiness for starting the two WPA school additions here, but a work order is still awaited by O. L. Boyington, contractor.

New Kiwanis President Installed

FRED THOMPSON, Lieut.-Governor Fred Thompson of Pampa Friday installed W. V. Jarratt as new president of Kiwanis.

W. V. JARRATT, the local Kiwanis club. Mr. Thompson heads this district of Kiwanis.

YEAR OF MANY ACHIEVEMENTS IS CLOSED BY KIWANIANS OF PAMPA—REPORT IS LENGTHY

Officers Will Attend Training School At Amarillo

Pampa Kiwanians expended more than a thousand dollars in work for underprivileged children and in public movements, according to the annual report submitted to Lieut.-Gov. Fred Thompson Friday.

The club was active in its relations with other clubs in the Panhandle, having many inter-club meetings and visits, and helping to organize the LeFors club. It furnished programs in a number of instances.

Work with Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts was stressed. Erection of a club house for Girl Scouts was a major accomplishment. Junior police work, which has won the club wide acclaim, was continued. Members participated in golf, baseball, and other sports, attended training schools on club works, attended many conventions, and complied with all requirements of Kiwanis International. Funds were contributed to school cafeterias. A bridge tournament was sponsored to raise funds.

The club again sponsored its poultry work with boys, furnishing baby chicks and offering prizes for best records.

First aid schools promoted safety. Special committees cooperated in many public projects. Timely topics were used in the weekly luncheon programs.

Average weekly attendance was 78 per cent.

Going to Amarillo. A divisional training school for officers and members of Division 6, Texas-Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, will be held Monday at the Herring hotel in Amarillo. Lieut.-Governor Fred Thompson will make introductory remarks.

Other local members who will have a part on the program will be R. A. Selby and Guy E. McTaggart. F. L. Mize, president of the LeFors club, will also talk.

The school will open at 2 p. m.

THE SAWS GO ROUND AND ROUND HUTCHINSON, Kas. (AP)—Soundproofing of the Hutchinson high school band room is requested by the band. Members say they can't compete with the buzz saws in the manual training shop on the next floor below.

ABOUT NEW YORK

NEW YORK.—Like a Valentine of long ago is this New York letter of the 1870's which inexplicably has found its way into the dossier of memos and letters deposited on this desk each a m.

One finds no key to the writer's identity, as the letter is unsigned, nor is it possible to ascertain the newspaper to which it is addressed. So, herewith this anonymous report of perhaps the first of New York columnists:

New York, Nov. 9, 1875
"More glorious weather than that we are now enjoying has not been known during an Indian summer in many years, and its beneficial effects are noticeable on all sides and in various shapes. It has its influence upon the spirits of people, and shows its power in their bright looks, vivacious conversation, and general deportment; it inspires them with a disposition for enjoyment, which leads to the opera, theatres, etc., and gives the lessees of such places a chance of making good the losses for some months sustained; and it is responsible to a palpable extent for the revival in trade which is underway and which it is devoutly to be hoped will continue henceforth to grow rapidly; for should there be no further advancement toward our old standard of commercial activity there needs must be sore and widespread distress in the city during the coming winter. Matters were bad enough among the poor eight and 10 months ago, but only a rapid progress in the path of improvement will put employment within the grasp of such a proportion of our large population as to stave off an exaggeration of last winter's ills.

"A painful sensation was caused in the city by the announcement of the loss of the steamship Pacific and all on board save one, on Nov. 4th, whilst running from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon. Though the loss of life has unquestionably been fearful, it is thought it is not so near total as Henry L. Jelly, who was picked up floating on the pilot-house of the Pacific in an exhausted condition, imagines. The Pacific was a splendidly fitted out vessel in every respect. Her boats were good and numerous, her crew well trained and disciplined, and she herself so strongly built that for her to have gone down before some of the life-boats could be manned and lowered is hard to believe. It is very likely that Jelly's report, though honest, is not full, and that he is not in possession of all the facts. There is yet hope the calamity is less stupendous than at first appeared. If subsequent reports do not mitigate it, it will be one of the saddest on record.

About 300,000 fish will be placed in City lake, southwest of Amarillo, Tex., each season after rearing ponds now under construction are completed.

Coming Monday

Matt M. Sinnett, above, district deputy grand exalted ruler of the North Texas Elks lodge, will make an official visit to the local lodge Monday evening.

FIRE LOSS IN 1935 TOTALING ABOUT 1900

SIXTY-SIX RUNS FOR YEAR ARE MADE LOCALLY

Sixty-six runs were made by the Pampa fire department during 1935, and fire losses were estimated at $1,900 in a preliminary report by Fire Chief Clyde Gold to the city manager.

The detailed report will be submitted to the city commission soon. The $1,900 estimate does not include a house fire here December 29, in which the loss of $1,000 or so will be paid this year by the insurance company involved. There also were a few losses in which no fire calls were made.

In 1934, the loss was reported as $1,200.90; in 1933, $1,207.70; in 1932, $7,982.35; in 1931, $58,960.16.

The $36,100.16 carry-over from the previous year, during which the loss was not paid.

DEMOCRATS LEAD LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11. (AP)—Democrats maintained a better than 3 to 2 lead over republicans in the registration of 85,026 voters in Los Angeles county since the start of the year. Under a new state law all voters must re-register. Registrar William Kerr said today the totals were 49,854 democrats and 30,384 republicans, with the remainder declining to state a preference, or in the minor parties.

Talks Today

Pampa retail credit men, headed by Walter J. Daugherty, manager of the Pampa Credit association, will go to Amarillo this morning to attend a district joint session of association managers and credit grantors. Principal speaker will be Vincent W. McCann, president of the National Retail Credit association, of St. Louis, Mo.

The meeting will begin at the Herring hotel at 10 a. m., with luncheon at 12 to 1:30 o'clock and adjournment at 5 p. m.

At the afternoon session, the meeting will be broken into groups as secretaries and merchants assemble separately to discuss their problems. Mr. Daugherty is president of the district group.

Vincent W. McCann, president of Texas Retail Credit Bureau, of El Paso, will attend.

Besides board and keep, recruits in Germany's new army are getting 12 1/2 cents a day.

INTOXICATION MUCH LIGHTER FOR DECEMBER

THIRTY-SIX ARRESTS MADE—14 FOR DRUNKENNESS

Officers of the police department made 36 arrests in December, according to the monthly report. Of these, 14 were for drunkenness—a sizeable decrease over the monthly average for the last year.

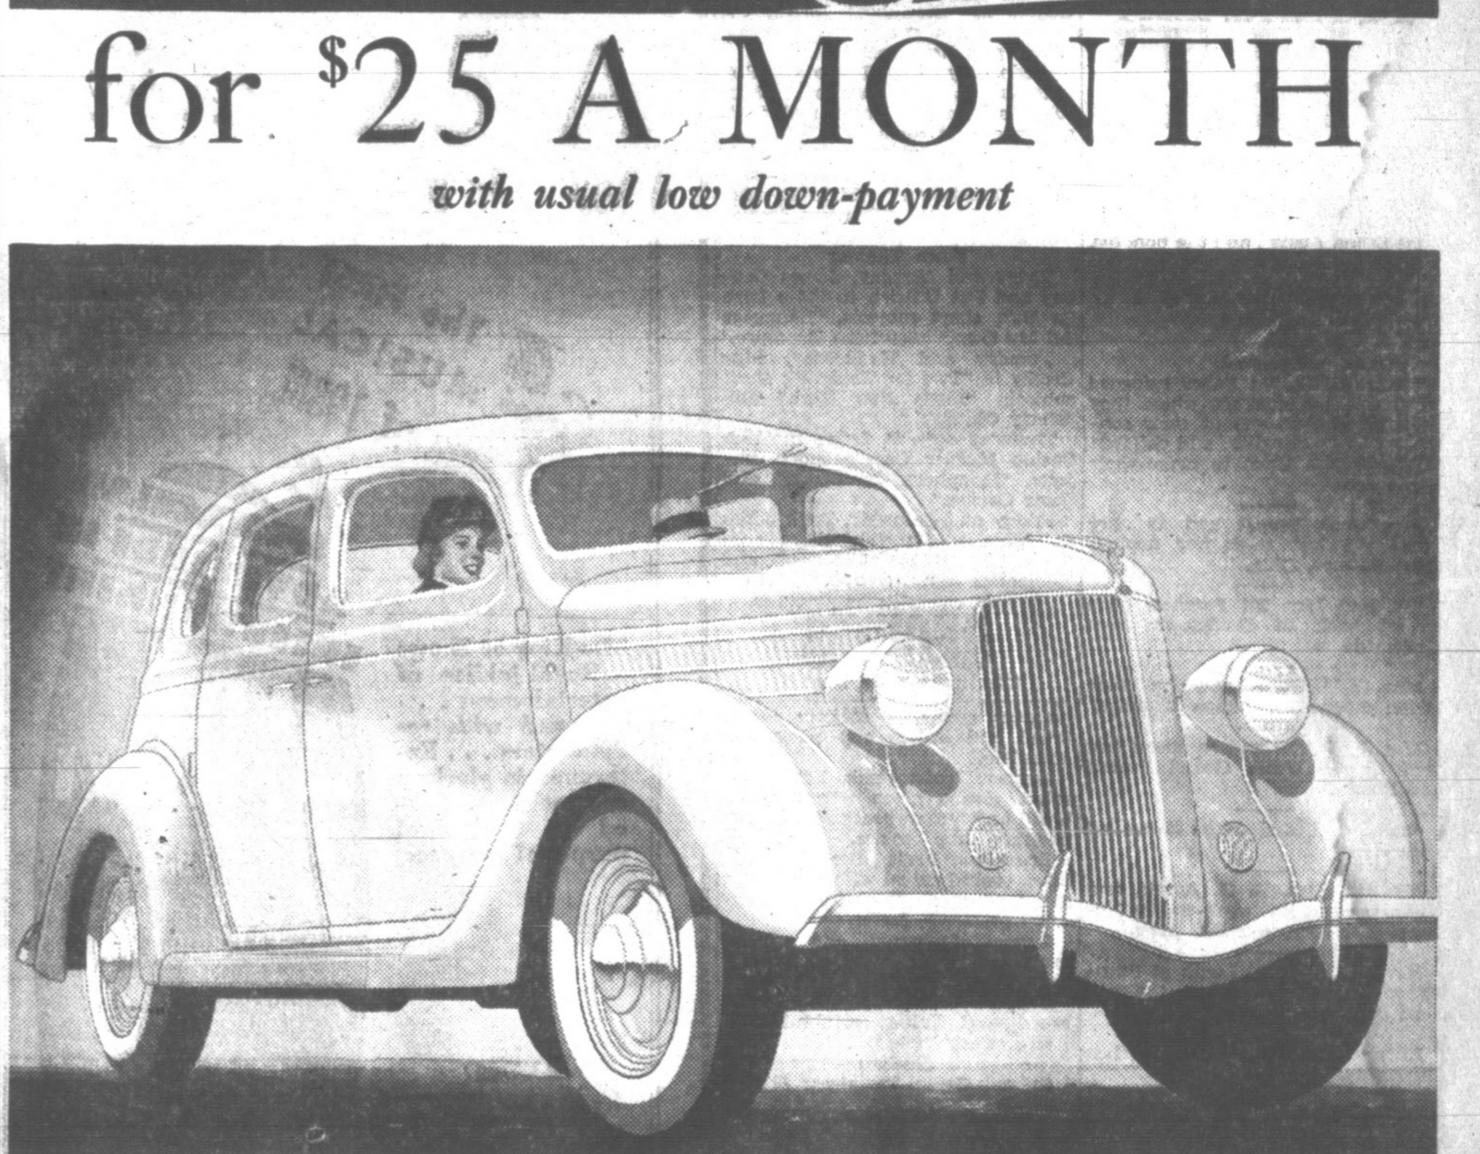

Other arrests: Vagrancy 3, affray 2, speeding 2, overtime parking 7, other traffic violations 5, theft 2. Two cases were dismissed. Fines assessed totaled $163, of which $83 was collected.

City prisoners worked 18 days and served an aggregate of 23 days in jail. Five cases were taken to higher courts.
