US Photographed By Red Satellite

Senator Charges Nikita Assertion

By ALINE MOSBY

PARIS (UPI) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev says the Soviet Union has photographed United States military installations from "outer space," former Sen. William Benton of Connecticut said today.

In an interview, Benton said Khrushchev made the assertion during a talk in the Soviet leader's Kremlin office Thursday.

Benton said Khrushchev added in jest during the discussion that he would be glad to show President Johnson Soviet photographs if Johnson would do the same for him.

Both the United States and Russia have been launching unmanned spy satellites capable of photographing key installations.

White House spokesman said it would have no immediate comment on Khrushchev's statement.

Benton, presently chairman of the board of the Encyclopedia Britannica, flew to Paris from Moscow Thursday night.

Benton said Khrushchev urged that the United States abandon reconnaissance flights over Cuba and stick to "off-shore flights in neutral waters" or reconnaissance by space satellites.

Benton quoted the Soviet premier as saying the United States did not need the flights. Khrushchev said they were "of international concern" and that "neither President Johnson nor I want another crisis over Cuba."

The United States has been launching spy satellites from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., at frequent intervals during the last two or three years.

The Air Force normally makes only a bare announcement that the satellite is in orbit, but gives no details on its function. However, it is assumed that the United States has thousands of pictures taken from space that show Soviet military installations.

"These flights concern international law," Benton said the premier told him. "Do you need these flights? I don't think you do need them."

"If you wish and if you will stay here (in Moscow) I will show you photos of your military bases taken from outer space."

Benton said the Soviet premier then added in jest, "Why don't we exchange photos? I'll show ours to President Johnson."

The premier said, "Why don't you confine your flights to off-shore flights in neutral waters? If you go back to the United States and ask these questions you'll get the classic answer: 'Intelligence,'" according to Benton.

Khrushchev, according to Benton, said the U.S. flights over Cuba were "bigger than the United States and Cuba. They are of international concern. This is a time for sober sense to reign."

Benton said Khrushchev did not go into Soviet attitudes toward the current crisis in Laos and South Viet Nam. However, he lamented the presence of American troops in South Viet Nam and Korea, according to Benton, and said "The point is that your country does not understand the right of people to change their gov-

Make-Believe War, To End Tomorrow 'Desert Strike'

NEEDLES, Calif. (UPI) — Exercise Desert Strike, massive military training maneuvers involving 100,000 men, officially ends Saturday — in the midst of the Memorial Day holiday weekend.

The make-believe war between the fictional nations of Nezona and Colonia resumed Thursday night after a one-day "administrative break" and fighting continued for control of the Colorado River.

Another accidental death was reported, bringing to 12 the number of men killed during the two weeks of maneuvers on the desert. Twenty other soldiers died mostly in traffic accidents — during preparations for the exercise.

The latest victim was PFC William H. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilson of St. Regis Falls, N.Y., attached to Company A, 63rd Quartermaster Battalion, First Logistics Command, Ft. Hood, Tex. He drowned Wednesday while swimming in an irrigation canal near Parker, Ariz.

No Soviet Departure From Cuba Reported

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Predicted big withdrawal of Soviet forces from Cuba has so far failed to materialize, raising a number of questions in Washington.

Last April, U. S. officials were reporting that the Russians apparently planned to turn over operation of their SA-2 antiaircraft missiles in Cuba to the Cuban armed forces on or about May 1.

It was said at the time that this would permit the Russians to pull out those Soviet troops in Cuba associated with the

Test Apollo To Stay Up As New Moon

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — There's a new moon in the sky, courtesy of American rocket power.

The man-made object is the first space-going test model of the Apollo ship that U.S. experts feel, now more confidently than ever, will transport three astronauts to the moon by late 1969.

It may look small and slow. But the craft, composed of the moonship dummy and a burned out second stage rocket casing, is a pinwheeling giant 80 feet long and weighing 37,300 pounds, and it is dashing silently through space at 30 times the speed of a bullet.

The Apollo is believed to be the world's heaviest spaceship and the feat that sent it so far and so fast scored an important inaugural success for the $20 billion program that the United States is counting on to beat the Soviet Union to the moon.

The work of installing the Apollo ship in orbit around earth for the first time was done Thursday by the Saturn-1, the super rocket whose name is synonymous with U.S. space power and success. Five times previously, Saturn-1 had gone into space. Five times, it was a winner.

Thursday was the sixth, and it was the grandest of them all.

Services to Mark Memorial Day Here

Memorial day in Pampa will be observed again this year with sunrise services at Fairview Cemetery sponsored by the American Legion and VFW Auxiliaries.

Wreath-laying ceremonies will begin about 6 a.m. at the large veterans' memorial in Fairview.

Following the ceremonies members of the auxiliary will place flags on the graves of more than 500 veterans in Fairview and Memory Gardens cemeteries.

The flags will remain at the graves until sundown when members of the organizations will remove them.

Tray favors will be placed on the lunch plates of all patients at Highland General and Worley hospitals by the auxiliaries.

Most businesses in Pampa will be closed.

Both of Pampa's swimming pools will open for the season at 1 p.m.

The National Safety Council has predicted that 500 persons will die on the nation's highways.

City Officials to Observe Holiday

Pampa city employees will get an extra day off next week, according to city manager Harold Schmitzer.

Memorial Day falls on a Saturday which is a regular day off for city employees. In order to take advantage of the holiday, employees were given a choice of either today or Monday off. They chose Monday.

Shootings Reported In Florida

By United Press International — Bullets riddled an unoccupied beachfront cottage rented by Martin Luther King and a shotgun blast shattered two windows of another integration leader's automobile today at St. Augustine, Fla.

The shootings followed a midnight clash among Negro demonstrators, a group of whites and police which sent two men to a hospital.

The knife swinging, club wielding, fist slashing and dog biting melee at the old slave market in the center of the historic Florida City prompted authorities to ban further racial demonstrations.

King, who had arrived at St. Augustine Monday night to organize racial demonstrations, left Thursday with a promise to return.

A newsman confirmed reports of other Negro leaders that 19 rifle bullet holes and some shotgun pellets had punctured the beach cottage King had rented.

St. Johns Sheriff L. O. Davis said the incident had not been reported to him.

Harry G. Boyte, a white assistant of King, said he and Negro leader C.T. Vivian had stayed in the house the night before but stayed elsewhere Thursday night and left the light on "as a decoy."

Boyte also said a window in his car was shattered by a shotgun blast. Boyte said the shot was fired from a car which followed him and pulled up behind him when he stepped in front of a motel.

Negroes met this morning to discuss what action to take regarding the ban of demonstrations following Thursday night's clash.

Around 60 state, county and local police moved in with dogs to separate about 250 Negro demonstrators and 250 white taunters. The violence was confined largely to scattered fist fights and attacks upon cameramen by whites.

Irvin Gans, 43, a television network soundman from Dallas, Tex., was attacked by a white man with a knife and hospitalized with head and neck lacerations. Clifford Eubanks, a Negro, also was hospitalized with scalp lacerations.

The Negroes marched from a lodge hall to the slave market, where they were met and taunted by a crowd of whites. Officers dispersed the gathering, but groups of whites followed the Negroes as they marched back to the lodge hall, attacking them twice along the way before dispersing.

About a half-dozen cameramen were roughed up by the whites, who smashed the cameras. Several other persons were hurt.

Elsewhere, Jackson, Miss.: Rammanohar Lohia, a high ranking Indian official, Thursday was refused service twice at a segregated cafeteria. He was visiting a predominantly Negro college.

Mohile, Ala.: Two Negroes graduated from Alabama's largest high school with 798 white classmates Thursday night in the first integrated commencement exercise in Alabama.

The moisture is too late to help the wheat crop but is of tremendous value to the until-now dry and parched range land, ranchers report.

The heaviest rainfall in the state was at Wichita Falls where a cloudburst dumped 2 1/2 inches.

Other rainfall amounts for the state were Dalhart .34, Dallas .37 and Beaumont .05.

A weak cool front triggered the wave of early morning thundershowers. The Weather Bureau predicted more rainfall for the entire state this afternoon and tonight.

The forecast for Pampa called for considerable cloudiness with afternoon and evening showers.

Jackie Visits JFK's Grave With Children

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy, carrying a small bouquet of flowers, climbed to the Virginia hillside grave of the late President Kennedy today in a poignant visit marking his 47th birthday.

With her were her two small children, Caroline and John Jr. Earlier, Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy, Mrs. Peter Lawford, the late president's sister, and Mrs. Kennedy attended a memorial Mass in honor of her husband.

As a crowd of tourists watched, Mrs. Kennedy knelt in front of the flickering eternal flame and bowed her head. At her side knelt her children, who appeared on the verge of tears.

After a moment of prayer, the former First Lady and her children rose and left the small, white picket fence enclosure.

As he turned to go, John Jr. reached in his pocket and took out one of his father's famous PT boat tie clasps and placed it beneath a small American flag fluttering beside the flame.

While Mrs. Kennedy and her children watched, the attorney general, his wife and Mrs. Lawford also knelt at the grave.

The visit to Kennedy's grave at Arlington National Cemetery overlooking the capital followed Mass at St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Cathedral.

Mrs. Kennedy, who wore a simple black dress and black veil, had to run a gauntlet of photographers both entering and leaving the cathedral. Also on hand were several hundred tourists who thronged the steps.

Among the high officials who attended the mass were Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon, Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Anthony Celebrezze, and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The Most Rev. Phillip M. Hannan, auxiliary bishop of Washington, a close friend of the Kennedy family, delivered the eulogy at the late president's funeral, celebrated the low Mass.

Underwriters Honor First Man of Year

John McCausland, Pampa insurance man and outgoing president of the Top O' Texas Life Underwriters Association, was chosen as the "Life Underwriter of the Year" during the Association's annual banquet last night.

McCausland was chosen as the first recipient of the award for his work in the association, civic activities and for a "superior" performance for his company.

James V. Story, insurance man from Wichita Falls, installed Myron Marx Jr. as the new president of the association, Frank Smith of Borger, vice president, and W. B. Johnson of Pampa, secretary.

Lewis Timberlake, vice president and agency director of the Western Republic Life Insurance Company of Austin, was the principal speaker.

The banquet was held at the Pampa Country Club.

Johnson's weekend will be a quiet postlude which will include a commencement address at the high school he used to attend in Johnson City and a speech Saturday at the University of Texas where he and Mrs. Johnson will receive honorary degrees.

When the President was graduated 40 years ago from the local school it was known as Johnson City High. But now it is the Lyndon B. Johnson High School and his address there this evening will have a lot of sentiment attached.

Dear Abby... It Should Be Called Nonsense, Not Witchery

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In June of 1952 I was visiting a friend who is an older woman and a member of my church. While sitting on her front porch she looked down at my hands and a very frightened look came across her face. She then proceeded to tell me that the lines on my hands revealed that I should watch out for chest and respiratory infections. Then she said I should not sing in the church choir because of this possible chest trouble. But what bothers me most is that she told me I could expect some very bad luck in the summer of 1965. I just can't shake this thought, and am walking around like a condemned woman. Should I believe her? Would you call it witchcraft?

CONDEMNED

DEAR CONDEMNED: I would call it "NONSENSE" and would put it out of my mind immediately. If you want further reassurance, visit your doctor for a thorough checkup. And ask him to give special attention to your chest and respiratory system, but don't tell him why or he might send you to a psychiatrist.

DEAR ABBY: Last Christmas my husband and I received gifts from his brother and sister-in-law, who are over in Germany. I fooled around and never did get around to writing to thank them. Is there anything I can do now?

EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: Yes. You can write and apologize for your tardiness, and thank them. Better late than never.

DEAR ABBY: Tell the woman whose neighbor shocked her by wearing flesh-colored elastic swim trunks in his yard to sun-bathe and do his gardening that I have a neighbor who tops hers. ## Expert Answers Food Questions

COLLEGE STATION—Whether to wash salad vegetables as soon as they are brought home from the market or just before preparation time is a question many homemakers ask.

Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension Service consumer marketing specialist, says she prefers to wash and trim salad vegetables as soon as they are brought home. "Drain well and store them covered until ready for use. This provides clean vegetables ready to use at a moment's notice," she explains.

The vegetables are not so wet that they make a "watered down" salad. Space is conserved when vegetables are trimmed before storing. Clean, slightly moist salad vegetables seem to "crisp" better than those left unwashed.

Mrs. Clyatt suggests that homemakers put color, flavor and texture into salads by using a variety of salad greens. Break, tear or cut greens into bite-size pieces. Add seasoning and dressing just before serving.

Salad greens now on the market include leaf lettuce, romaine, escarole, and head lettuce. Add further variety with fresh young spinach, celery, cauliflower, or carrot rounds. Radishes and green onions are plentiful and low-priced.

Other vegetables worthy of consideration this week are sweet corn, beans, yellow onions, green beans and potatoes.

At the meat counter, best buys are in the choice grades of beef. Boneless roasts, round steaks, short ribs, ground beef and liver are some of the featured meat items. Turkey and chicken may help with your menu planning, and are quite economical. Large size eggs also are good buys.

Amarillo Rose Authority Addresses Annual Dinner of Pampa Rose Club

R. C. Martini, Amarillo, was guest speaker for a recent meeting of the Pampa Rose Club hosted by Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell at the Pampa Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Radcliff assisted the hosts.

Martini spoke on care and development of rose gardens. He stated that roses need frequent rather than heavy fertilization and spraying. He added that roses should be fed before the three blooming periods and leaves showing rust or damage should be kept back. A thorough watering is necessary with each feeding. He suggested mulching with cotton seed hulls or good peanut hulls. Spraying about every 10 days and good care should give a rose an indefinite period of blooming. There is no age limit placed on well cared for rose plants. He informed the members that foreign roses are now being introduced successfully to this country. England, Spain and France offer a great variety of hardy plant types that do well in similar climate.

The program was presented in conjunction with the annual dinner and guest night.

Roses from the gardens of members were placed in a large arrangement at the speaker's table and individual tables were centered with bud vases.

Martini reminded the group that the Rose Show in Amarillo will be open from 2 p.m. until 9 p.m. Saturday and invited them to attend.

Mrs. Holloway presented the president, Mrs. Kadingo, with a package of pea seeds, asking her to plant four rows of peas — "presence, promptness, preparation and perseverance." The program vice-president, Mrs. Wilks, was given turnip seeds to "turn up with new ideas, turn up with imagination for something good and worthwhile, turn up for meetings even though the program planned doesn't materialize."

Mrs. Thornburg, second vice-president, membership chairman, was asked to plant squash to "squash indifference, squash criticism of AAUW, to squash loss of membership."

Mrs. Morrison, as secretary, I should like for you to plant some lettuce," Mrs. Holloway stated. "Let us be true to our obligations; let us be faithful to duties; let us be present with a smile on your face so that you can get a complete record of each meeting."

To the treasurer, Mrs. Wilkerson, she gave carrots to "care out rules and regulations; to care out love for one another; to care out time for each meeting so that an accurate record of all money may be kept."

To the members, she pointed out that the word "member" contains the personal pronoun "me" and that the branch "will be as strong as each of you wish to make it."

She concluded with the poem, "Kind hearts are the garden, kind thoughts are the roots, kind words are the flowers, kind deeds are the fruits."

Mrs. L. M. Harrah, charter member, was presented a corsage of white chrysanthemums and a sterling silver AAUW pin by Mrs. Kadingo, who explained Mrs. Harrah was a member when the branch was organized in January 1928.

Low 'Kill Ratio' In Viet Nam Worries U.S.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI)—American officials were concerned Thursday over figures showing an extremely low "kill ratio" in the Vietnamese guerrilla war during the past week.

U.S. military spokesmen said South Vietnamese government forces lost 135 dead while killing 150 Communist Viet Cong guerrilla fighters in the week which ended Saturday.

The figures did not include a 28-man government platoon wiped out Sunday less than 30 miles north of Saigon. Relief parties found the bodies of 20 of the men Wednesday. The other eight were listed as missing.

The "kill ratio" is the relation of government dead to guerrilla dead. Government forces usually kill almost three times as many Viet Cong guerrillas as they lose.

Government troops also lost 260 weapons, including about 20 mortars and machine guns. The Viet Cong lost only 55 weapons, including 2 of the heavier kind.

The low kill ratio and lopsided loss of weapons resulted from a number of small clashes rather than any big Communist victory.

SUGGESTIONS FOR YOUTH AND PARENTS

(Editor's Note:—The following is the first of a series of brief, informative articles to be published daily in The News. They are designed to offer aid and advice to young people as well as their parents. The series is furnished as a service of Juvenile Officer Bill Leonard and the Pampa Police Department.)

POLICE RECORDS

Any person may be arrested for commission of a crime. There is no age limit. This applies to the relatively minor crimes known as misdemeanors as well as the more serious crimes which are classified as felonies.

The importance of avoiding a police arrest record cannot be over-emphasized. These records are almost always examined when a person enlists in the armed forces, runs for public office, or applies for a civil service job or any employment that might affect our national security. These records are also usually consulted when a person applies for any of the various occupational licenses required by law. For these reasons a police arrest record may make it difficult, and sometimes impossible, for a person to obtain the kind of employment which he most desires.

Judge's Ruling Sets Precedent in Dallas

DALLAS (UPI)—U. S. District Judge Sarah T. Hughes set a legal precedent Wednesday by ruling that an indigent accused of a felony is entitled to psychiatric examination at state expense.

The ruling is along the general lines of a recent Supreme Court decision that the constitution guarantees legal counsel for all persons and that the state must pay for it.

Judge Hughes made her decision in the case of James E. Bush, 64, of Ellis County who faces a life sentence as a habitual criminal. His court-appointed lawyers argued that Bush, at one time declared insane, was entitled to mental tests paid for by the state.

Trip

Square Garden when 17,000 Johnson supporters, who paid prices scaled from $100 to $5 for seats, enjoyed a two and a quarter hour parade of talent and then heard Johnson summon them to march with him on the party's road to the future.

Highlight of Evening

The show was the highlight of an evening that began with a $1,000-a-plate dinner at the Hilton Hotel which 750 "Presidents Club" members paid to attend and to shake hands with the Johnsons, and a $100-a-plate meal at the Americana Hotel where 1,400 Democrats had a brief visit from Johnson and heard brief remarks from him.

At the latter function, Johnson said that Democrats since the time of Woodrow Wilson "have looked on politics and government as a crusade—not a chore."

"I have come tonight to ask you to join that crusade," Johnson declared amid applause. "Start working tonight for a great victory for the Democratic party next November. Give us your hand and your hearts and your help as we try so hard to keep America moving and keep our beloved nation on the march for better things for people everywhere."

Caution Urged During Weekend

Sgt. J. W. Wilson, highway patrol supervisor for the Pampa district, today called on all motorists to exercise extreme caution over the coming Memorial Day weekend.

Wilson said all available highway patrol units will be in service. They will be using all means of detecting traffic violators.

Capt. J. W. Blackwell, highway patrol commander for the Amarillo district, said that highway patrolmen over the entire Panhandle area have been alerted to be on the lookout for reckless or drinking drivers and remove them from the highways.

Last year seven persons died on the highways of Texas during the one-day Memorial Day holiday.

Marvel E. Rake Dies in Borger

A 38-year-old Pampa resident died in North Plains Hospital in Borger yesterday after suffering what was described as a light heart attack while working at the Phillips Oil Refinery near Borger.

Marvel Eugene Rake of 712 N. Wells was pronounced dead at 11:50 yesterday morning.

He was born July 21, 1925, and moved to Pampa in 1927. He was a 1943 graduate of Pampa High School and was employed by the Boman - Chase Company of Pampa.

Rake talked to attendants upon arrival at the hospital at 10:30 a.m. and appeared to be in no immediate danger. He was accompanied to the hospital by his foreman, Harold McGee.

McGee said Rake started to take a drink of water when the glands in his throat seemed to constrict and cut off his breathing. Rake dropped to the floor. He was rushed by ambulance to the hospital.

Rake was in Borger on a job for Boman-Chase. Services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Monday in Highland Baptist Church with Rev. Joe Allison, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. T. O. Uphaw, pastor of Central Baptist Church. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, under the direction of Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife, four sons, Marvel Jr., with the Navy in San Diego, Mike, Pat and Doug, all of the home, one daughter, Donna Sue of the home, and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Marvel Rake of Pampa.

Other cities on the tour include, Plainview, Midland, Dallas, Odessa and nine other cities in Texas and New Mexico.

Bringuier, anti-communist speaker, debated Lee Harvey Oswald on New Orleans radio in 1963, concerning the Fair Play For Cuba Committee of which Oswald was a member.

Memorial Day is more than a time to pay tribute to our honored dead. It is a time of re-dedication . . . to our country, our ideals, our hopes for a future assured of peace. The men who died for our country upheld these ideals . . . it is up to us to draw full meaning from their sacrifices, so they will not have died in vain.

57TH YEAR FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1964

Big George Bayer Leads Festival Open

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — The way he is tearing Speedway's acres apart, big George Bayer may finally win himself a golf tourney.

The beefy Bayer led a field of 104, including 10 amateurs, into the third round of the $70,000 Festival Open today with a nine-under-par 133 on rounds of 66 and 67.

That gave him a two-shot lead starting the day but close on his heels were at least a dozen other strong contenders for the $12,000 first place money on golf's gold dust trail.

Tied at 135 were Australia's Kel Nagle, Dean Refram, Bob

Spahn Wins Judgement on Biography

NEW YORK (UPI) — Milwaukee Brave pitcher Warren Spahn won a judgement that may set a precedent for the publishing of athletes' biographies.

Spahn was awarded $10,000 in damages by Justice Jacob J. Markowitz in New York state Supreme Court Thursday against the author and publishers of a book about the southpaw's life.

The 43-year-old Spahn had charged in a $175,000 suit that Milton J. Shapiro, the author, and Julian Mesner Inc., the publishers, had produced a book that was "fictionalized and dramatic story, fanciful and sensational in nature."

Markowitz agreed that the "Warren Spahn Story" violated the athlete's right to privacy and enjoined the publisher from further publication or distribution of the book.

The defendants claimed freedom of the press, but during the trial Shapiro admitted he had never interviewed Spahn nor any member of his family, but worked only from newspaper and magazine articles and background material.

Beat Mickey Club In Another Try

BEAUMONT, Tex. (UPI) — The "beat Mickey and win it" serial opened another chapter today with 34 other lady pros trying to finish ahead of long-driving Mickey Wright in the 12th annual Babe Zaharias Women's Open golf tournament.

Miss Wright has competed in only seven of the nine tournaments on the tour this year and in every case but one anybody who finished ahead of the blond better from California also was assured of picking of the first-place check.

It's been accomplished only three times out of seven, since Miss Wright won at Spartanburg, S.C., Alexandria, La., St. Louis and Muskogee, Okla., the last three in a row, and has picked up $8,950 en route here.

Marlynn Smith beat Miss Wright by a stroke in the Titleholders at Augusta, Ga., and that won her first place; while Betsy Rawls beat Mickey by two strokes last week in Dallas and that was all Miss Rawls needed to grab the $2,100 top money. Miss Wright finished third in her only other start, at Baton Rouge, La., and Kathy Whitworth beat her, but had to be satisfied with runner-up spot behind Sandra Haynie.

Miss Wright is the defending champion.

Industrial Softball Loop Opening

The Industrial Softball League will kick off the 1964 season Tuesday with a six-team setup, each team playing a triple round robin. Returning from last year are the Pampa All-Stars, Dave Gantz managing; Miami, with Billy Lard the skipper; Cabot, with Joe Skinner the manager; and Panhandle Packing, again led by Sunset Carson. New teams are the Pampa Jaycees, Bob Malone manager; and Humble Weathered Service, led by Jerry Wright.

The opening night schedule will have the Packers at Miami, the All-Stars vs. Humble at Lions Park at 7 p.m. and Cabot vs. Jaycees following at 9 p.m.

AL Washed Out, Colts Rescheduled

The second Pampa baseball team in two days was washed out of a game by the sudden rains that have descended on the Panhandle, as the Pampa American Legion Rebels had their opening game at Stinnett cancelled by wet grounds. The Rebels settled for a scrimmage game with the Colts at PHS field. Today's 5 p.m. practice will probably also be cancelled, with a practice called for all hands at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

The Pampa Colts' washout Wednesday night caused a shift in the schedule, the Colts rescheduling Stinnett here Saturday night, cancelling out a Rebel home opener with Palo Duro. The Colts will go with Mike Clark on the mound to start.

The Rebels will open their season then Sunday, with a doubleheader at Optimist Park against the Amarillo Sandies. Jim Arthur and Carl Harnsberger are the probable mound starters. Monday the Rebels will play at Tascosa, with sophomore Roy Harper, Buddy Hammons or Larry Daniels the starter. Wednesday night the Rebels will come home to host Woodward, Okla., with Jerry Garrison the starting pitcher. The Colts will open Tri-State League play the same night against Borger, with Jerry Glover the probable hurler.

The Rebels open district 18 play Saturday, with an afternoon game against Canyon and a night game against Perryton. Both at home, then go to Borger Sunday. The Colts will be at Umberger Saturday night and home against Amarillo Sunday.

HOBBS, N. M. (UPI) — Wranglers from six states and Canada were among top winners Thursday during the first day of the 6th annual High Lonesome Estampade.

Texas cowboys placed first in three of the six events during initial competition in the professional rodeo sponsored by the Hobbs Lions Club. A New Mexico cowboy and cowgirl took one first place apiece, and a Montana man took the sixth event.

The three-day rodeo ends Saturday.

Thursday's results: Bareback bronc riding — Norris Demaree, Miles City, Mont., 65 points; Ted Vayro, Vancouver, B.C., 57; Benny Reynolds, Melrose, Mont., 55.

Calif roping — Sonny Davis, Kenna, N.M., 14.1 seconds; Eldon Dudley, Perryton, Tex., 15.7; Ernie Taylor, Hugo, Okla., 17.4.

Girls' barrel race — Pat Marr, Tularosa, N.M., 18.1 seconds; Janet Dudley, Perryton, Tex., 18.2; Debbie Ferguson, Petersburg, Tex., 18.3.

Sporting Sidelines

by JEFF COHANE

ONE OF THE FIRST college home for the summer is the "Old Professor." Keith Gregory, the long-time baseball star arrived from TCU Wednesday evening and was out for practice with the Pampa Colts the next day.

Gregory was a Pampa High all-district third baseman in 1961, and has a long history of American Legion, semi-professional and college baseball behind him. Spending one semester at Texas Tech before transferring, the good-looking third sacker redshirted one year, and then received a scholarship for the Horned Frog varsity this past season.

Gregory was understandably disappointed this spring as he only got to play in two games, but has high hopes of starting at the hot corner for the Frogs next season.

A JUNIOR scholastically, as a senior academically, Keith is another shining example of how brains, book-learning and athletics go hand in hand. Academically, Keith is very high on TCU, despite a back-breaking scholastic course that includes a double major in English and Philosophy. His ambition is to go on to graduate school, get his MA and PhD and become a college professor.

Keith explains simply "I like learning and education, and that's where you get it." Told he would have to acquire a pipe along with his academic status, Keith smiled "I probably will have to take up pipe smoking, but I'll wait until after athletics are over."

From an athletic family, Keith's father, Harold, was a professional baseball player and has been the coach of the Pampa American Legion Rebels for three years. His brother Larry was an all-district catcher in high school and is now considering scholarship offers from Amarillo College and the University of Houston, as well as several schools that Keith has plugged. "I'd like Larry to go to TCU, it's a fine school," said young Gregory, "but he would probably be better off starting somewhere else than a school where he already has one of his family on the same team."

Gregory played two years of American Legion ball with the Rebels, then his last year with Hobart, Okla., as the Rebels did not carry seniors at the time. This will be his second year in the Tri-State League with the Colts.

THE PROFESSOR could not give an opinion on the Colts' chances this year without having seen them in game action, but thought the loop would be considerably weakened by the loss of Liberal and Woodward. "They were two of the best teams in the league and real good game attractions as well," he explained.

"Stinnett is going to be very tough with Donnie Anderson of Texas Tech on the team," opined the professor. "He was one of the best college hitters I saw this year. Tommy Lindsey of Borger impressed me more than anybody in the league last year, but I understand that after being named most valuable player at OU, he's going to go pro. Bennie Hill, Borger's left-handed outfielder also impressed me last year, matter of fact that whole Borger team did. Amarillo won the league, but they didn't have any individual standouts that impressed me as much as the ones I've mentioned."

"I think Pampa will have some standouts too," concluded Keith. "Jerry Glover will be greater than ever, according to all reports, Mike Stewart will be tops if he stays in town this summer, and Butch Crossland told me he was coming back out for the team. We'll be in there, we usually are."

'Big Joe' Signs With LA Dodgers

BORGER (Spi) — Big Joe Robinson signed a long-awaited professional baseball contract at 1 a.m. this morning with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Early this morning, Robinson finally signed with LA scouts John Keenan, the Dodgers' south western representative, and Bert Wells, the midwestern supervisor, finishing a major league signing battle that had been going on since his sophomore year in high school.

Although the bonus sum was not mentioned, reporters present estimated that the Negro all-district 3-4A hurler received $12,000 cash and a four-year college scholarship to the school of his choice. Robinson, who had been firm about taking a college guarantee with his bonus, has not chosen his school yet, but is reported leaning heavily toward Arizona State.

Robinson, reputed the fastest high school hurler in the state, and blessed with great control as well, has won 23 games and lost eight in district play in the last three years, generally pitching in at least two out of three of Borger's games, and playing a fine outfield in his spare time, leading the Bulldogs to second place in the loop almost single-handed the past two years.

All-district hurler the past two years, in his senior season Robinson had a 7-3 district pitching mark and an 0.95 earned-run average, all three of his losses being by one run. Robinson struck out 129 batters in 10 district games and 172 in 13 total games this past season.

In the outfield, Robinson, who was also all-district honorable mention there, led the team in hitting with a .358 district average, including four home runs.

Robinson will be assigned to the Pocatello, Idaho, Chiefs in the Rookie League. Other members of the loop are Caldwell, Idaho Falls and Twin Falls. Big Joe will leave June 8 or 9 for a short training period, with the league season starting June 21.

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

The Lions smeared Fannon, 8-1, and Kist toppled Hardware, 8-3 in last night's twin bill at Optimist Park.

Lonzo Gomez hurled a four-hitter for the Lions, striking out 12 and walking four. Lang went all the way in defeat. Monk McDonald led the hitting with three for four.

Davis took the Kist win with an example of control pitching, scattering five hits, but allowing no walks while striking out two. Punchy Molberg allowed only six hits and struck out eight, but was defeated by eight walks as Kist scored all their runs in the final frame. Jones had three hits, Summers had two and David Schaub belted a long triple in the decisive seventh frame.

Tonight's games, weather permitting, will have Ideal vs. Enco and Cree vs. Bank.

May's Medicine Worries League

By United Press International

Just exactly what's in those sleeping pills Willie Mays is taking?

Whatever the ingredients, they're giving the rest of the National League insomnia, and they have "relaxed" Willie on a home run course which will reach a fantastic total of 75 this season, if maintained.

Willie began taking the little capsules this spring to cure an insomnia problem of his own. Now he's a continuous b.a.d. dream for opposing pitchers.

For example, take the nightmare Curt Simmons had Thursday night. The St. Louis Cardinal southpaw was cruising along toward a five-hit shut-out with two outs in the eighth inning and a 1-0 lead.

Hits 18th Homer

Enter Willie with a teammate on first base and exit the ball into the leftfield bleachers for a two-run homer, his 18th of the season. Three Giant relievers struggled over the final two innings to protect the 2-1 victory for starter Bob Hendley (4-3), which reinstated San Francisco in first place.

Currently, Mays is 13 games ahead of the pace Roger Maris set when he hit a record 61 home runs in 1961, and he is nine games ahead of Babe Ruth's 1927 clip, when the Babe stroked 60. The NL record is 56 established by Jack Wilson of the Cubs in 1930.

Pittsburgh bumped Philadelphia out of first place with a 6-5 victory over the Phillies; Houston upset Milwaukee, 4-2; the Chicago Cubs blanked the New York Mets, 2-0, and the Cincinnati Reds and Los Angeles Dodgers struggled to a 2-2 tie in a 17-inning marathon halted after four hours and 58 minutes by the NL curfew.

One AL Game

Kansas City stopped the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, in the lone American League game scheduled.

Dick Schofield singled with two out in the ninth inning to score Jim Magliaroni with the winning run for the Pirates, who tagged five Phillie hurlers for 15 hits. Jack Baldschun (2-1) was the loser and Al McBean, fifth Pirate pitcher, won his second game without a loss. Danny Cater and Gus Triandos each drove in two runs for Philadelphia and Manny Mota accounted for two Pittsburgh tallies.

Hal Woodeshick of the Colts registered his ninth save of the season, and no-hit loser Ken Johnson picked up his fifth victory, outpitching the Braves' Warren Spahn (4-4).

Johnson and Spahn were locked in a 1-1 duel until the Colts erupted for three runs in the eighth on a walk, bunt and three singles. Walt Bond of the Colts hit the only homer, his eighth.

Jackson Blanks Mets

Larry Jackson (6-4) allowed three hits — all to Joe Christy — while shutting out the Mets, 2-0. Billy Williams hit his 11th home run to raise his league-leading batting average to .397. Galen Cisco (2-4) gave up only one earned run in defeat.

Wayne Causey drove in three runs and Orlando Pena scattered six hits to give Kansas City its first win in the last five games. Juan Pizarro (5-1) absorbed his first loss but the White Sox managed to retain their grip on first place by .030 percentage points. Pena has won six of Kansas City's 13 victories.

The Dodgers broke a scoreless deadlock in the 12th with three hits, a walk, and a throwing error by starter Jim Maloney. But the Reds bounced back in the last of the 12th to tie the game on Vada Pinson's double and singles by Frank Robinson, Leo Cardenas and John Edwards. Each team used five pitchers in the longest game of the season.

JOINS WEST SQUAD

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) — End David Parks of Texas Tech and halfback Mel Renfro of Oregon were named Thursday to the West squad for the fourth annual All-America football game June 27 at War Memorial Stadium.

Theologian Says Church Needs Radical Thoughts

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Theologian Reinhold Niebuhr said recently that churches need to do some "radical rethinking" of their approach to sex.

Few pastors would argue with that statement. They are confronted on all sides with evidence that young people are either ignorant or disdainful of Jewish - Christian sexual ethics.

But there is sharp controversy, especially in Protestant circles, about what should be done to make religious teachings a real factor in adolescent decisions about dating behavior.

Some Protestant liberals contend that the church, in order to be "relevant," must cease to pronounce a blanket condemnation on premarital intercourse.

Emphasize Love

Instead of taking a "legalistic" stand against sex relations outside of marriage, these liberals say, the church should emphasize the Christian teaching that all human relationships are to be governed by love. The real sin of casual intimacies, according to this viewpoint, lies in exploiting another human person for the satisfaction of selfish desires.

An entirely different diagnosis of the church's failure to influence the sexual codes of young people comes from Dr. Robert E. Fitch, professor of Christian ethics at the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Calif.

Dr. Fitch says it's absurd to speak of sexual promiscuity as a "modern" problem. The revolt against moral restraints on sexual appetites is as old as history.

"The only thing new about our contemporary situation," says Dr. Fitch, "is the attitude of futility among those who should be the guardians of morality. Adults who ought to be providing guidance are lost in an orgy of open - mindedness.

Ethics Forgotten

"No previous generation of young people has had such an enormous and detailed amount of information available to it concerning the scientific facts about sex. And probably none has been left so ignorant of and unprincipled as the current generation so undisciplined in their ethical essentials."

Dr. Fitch thinks that young people are rapidly becoming disillusioned with the sexual freedom which "open - minded" adults insist on giving them.

Instead of feeling liberated from old - fashioned taboos, he says, boys and girls feel that they are "losing control of their lives."

"They are having babies when they don't want them. They are getting married before they really want to. They are taking jobs before they are adequately prepared for them. This is the 'new freedom.' But freedom is precisely what is being lost - the freedom really to choose to get married, to choose to have a baby, to choose to take a job."

Guest Speaker Will Hold Sunday Service

Dr. W. Neil Record, assistant to the president of Wayland College, Plainview will speak for both worship services Sunday in the First Baptist Church. Attend The Church Of Your Choice

REVEREND WILLIAM E. WEST, RECTOR
ST. MATTHEW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

GOD'S CALL

"And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' Then said I, 'Here I am. Send me.'" Isaiah 6:1-8.

When does God call us? When we are asked to teach Sunday School, serve on a committee, help a person in distress or sing in the choir? When we see something that needs to be done? When a talent we have, great or small, is crying to be used?

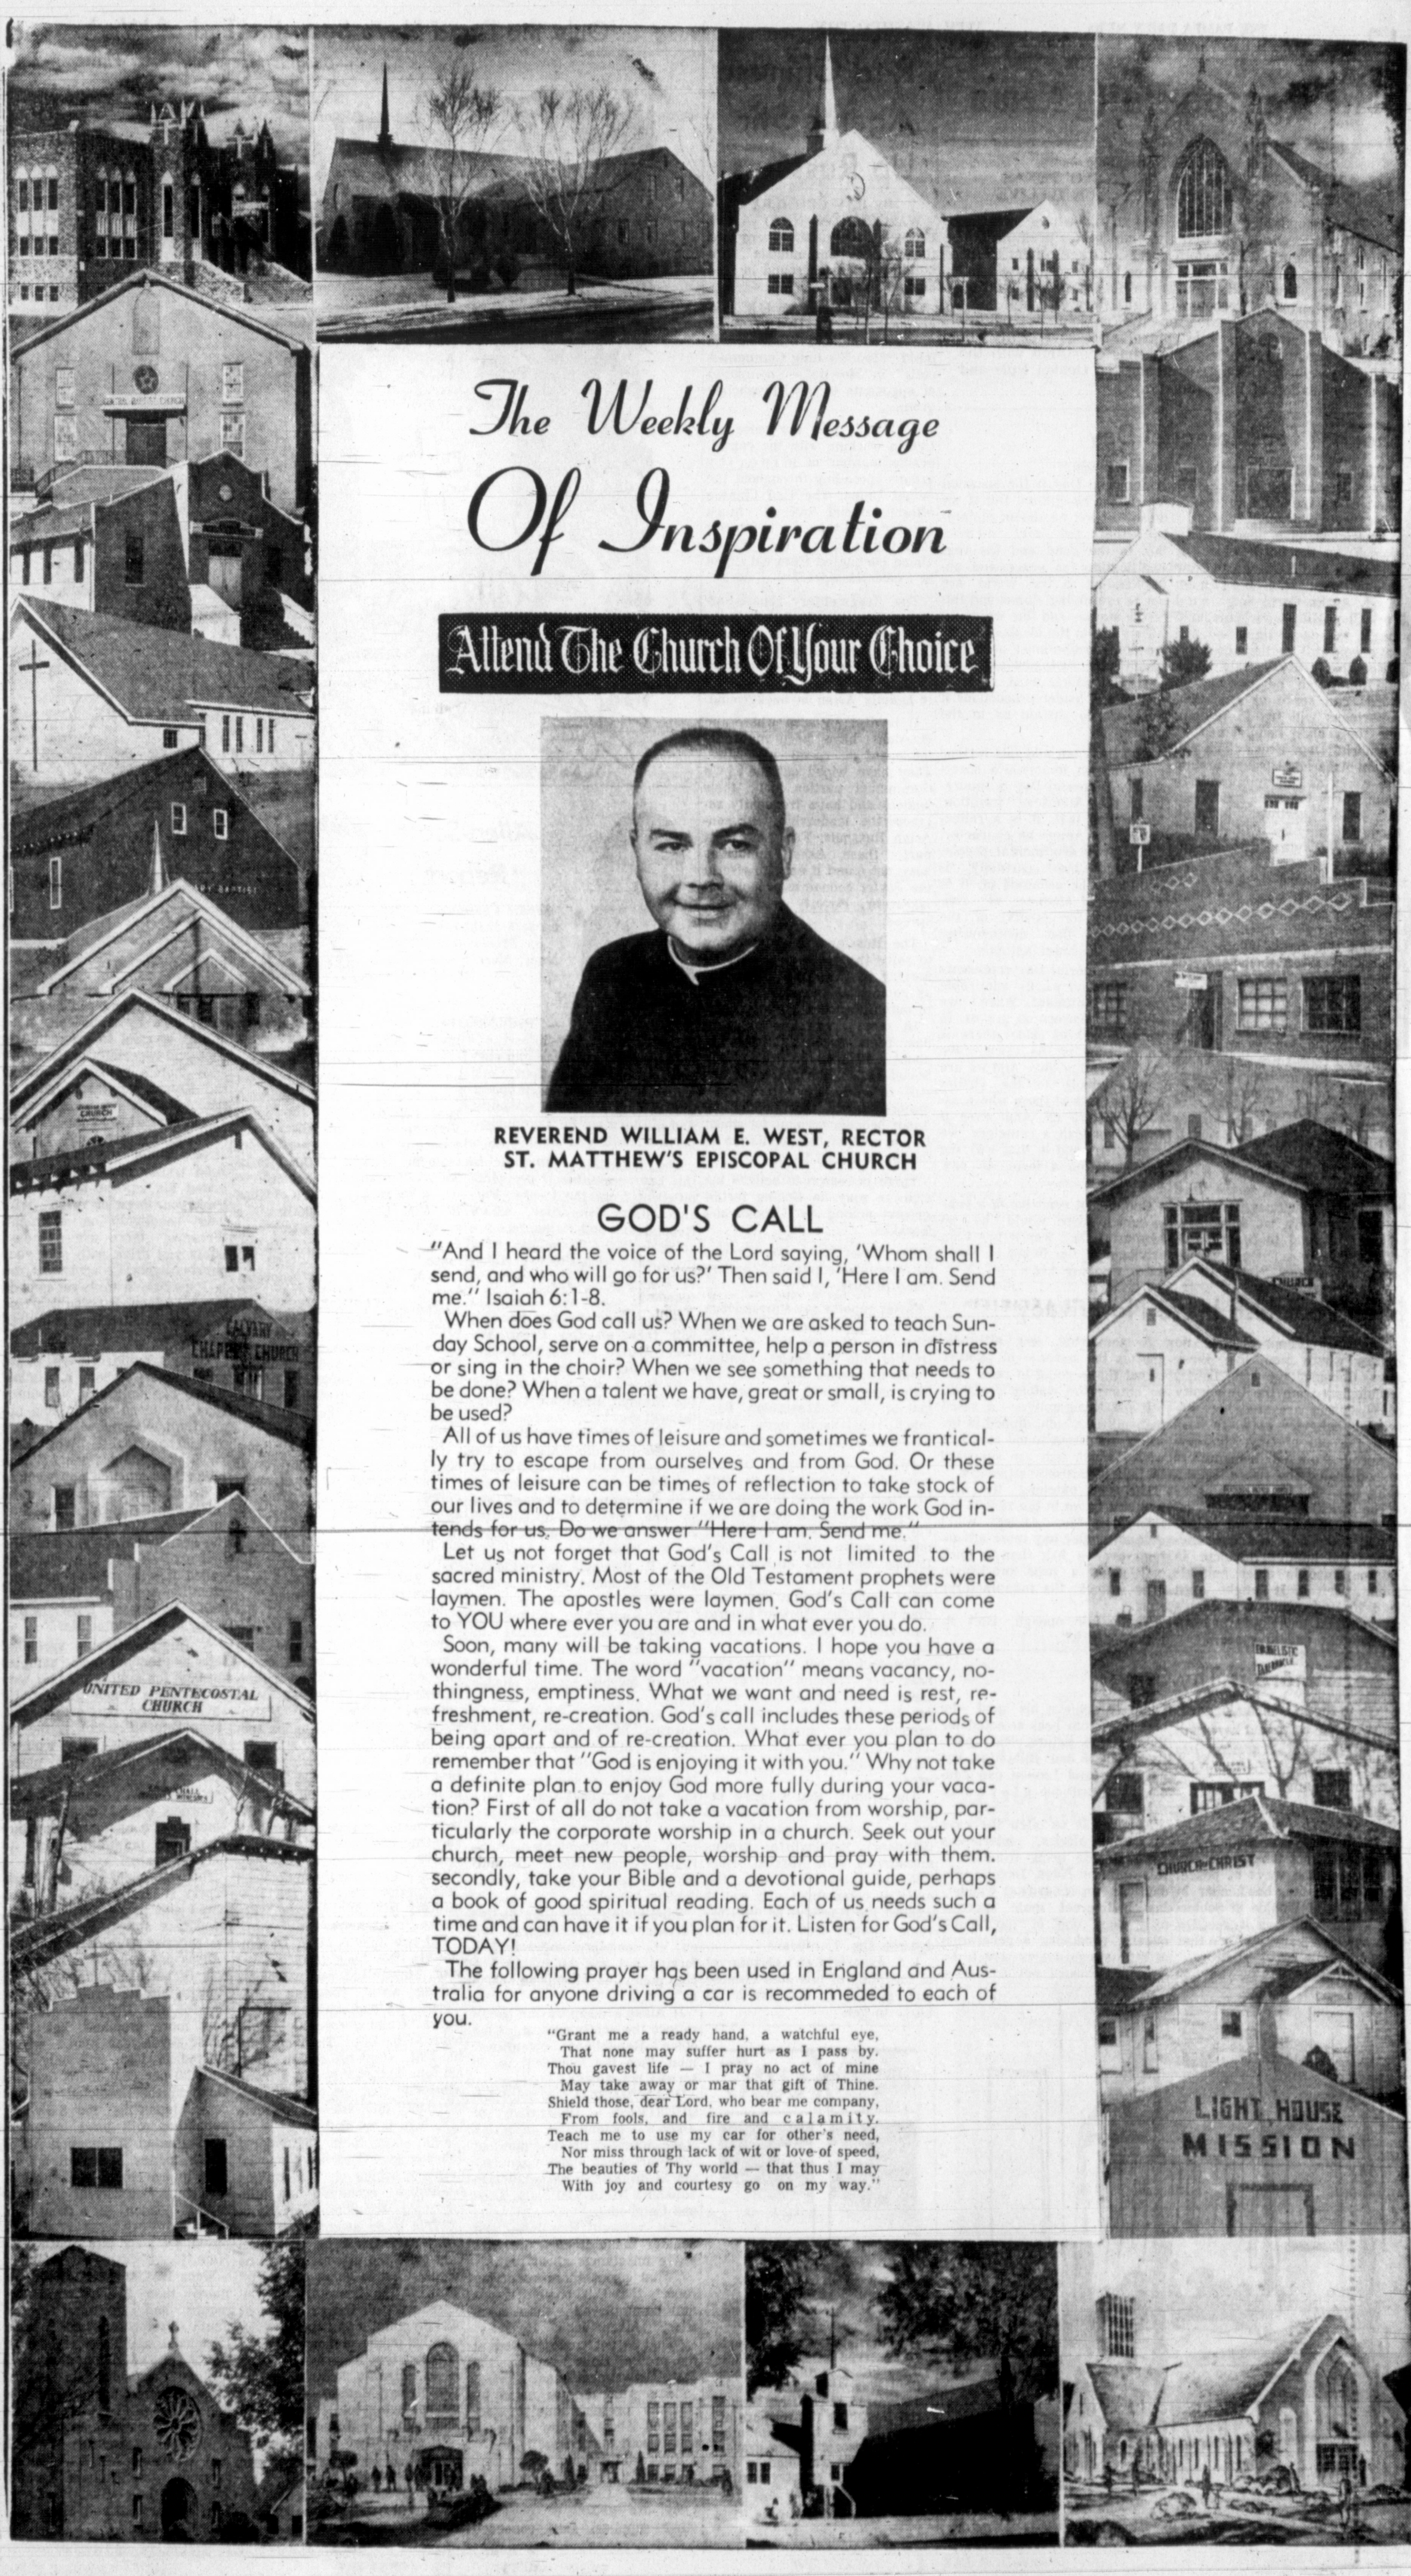

All of us have times of leisure and sometimes we frantically try to escape from ourselves and from God. Or these times of leisure can be times of reflection to take stock of our lives and to determine if we are doing the work God intends for us. Do we answer "Here I am. Send me."

Let us not forget that God's Call is not limited to the sacred ministry. Most of the Old Testament prophets were laymen. The apostles were laymen. God's Call can come to YOU where ever you are and in what ever you do.

Soon, many will be taking vacations. I hope you have a wonderful time. The word "vacation" means vacancy, nothingness, emptiness. What we want and need is rest, refreshment, re-creation. God's call includes these periods of being apart and of re-creation. What ever you plan to do remember that "God is enjoying it with you." Why not take a definite plan to enjoy God more fully during your vacation? First of all do not take a vacation from worship, particularly the corporate worship in a church. Seek out your church, meet new people, worship and pray with them. secondly, take your Bible and a devotional guide, perhaps a book of good spiritual reading. Each of us needs such a time and can have it if you plan for it. Listen for God's Call, TODAY!

The following prayer has been used in England and Australia for anyone driving a car is recommended to each of you.

"Grant me a ready hand, a watchful eye,
That none may suffer hurt as I pass by.
Thou gavest life — I pray no act of mine
May take away or mar that gift of Thine.
Shield those, dear Lord, who bear me company,
From fools, and fire and calamity.
Teach me to use my car for other's need,
Nor miss through lack of wit or love of speed,
The beauties of Thy world — that thus I may
With joy and courtesy go on my way."

Thought for Memorial Day

"He who did well in war," Robert Browning once said, "just earns the right to begin doing well in peace." Americans have done well in war. From the battlefields of Lexington and Saratoga to New Orleans, Manassas, Belleau Wood, Anzio, Coral Sea and Pork Chop Hill, Americans have fought the good fight — and have won well for their country. For this bravery, this sacrifice for which no number of words can serve as expiation, Americans will try to remember their slain countrymen on Memorial Day. Fresh flags will fly on American graves around the world as tiny memorials to young lives too soon spent. But this honest gesture, heartfelt though it may be, will not still the threat of future war and suffering.

The long, hard fight for freedom continues. While the small but bitter struggles in Viet Nam and Laos pale when placed against the great, bloody wars of history when thousands of Americans died, the simple fact remains that American lives are being lost in war.

Nearly 250 men have been killed in the jungles of Viet Nam and Laos since 1961. These few lives are no less important than the many given in larger wars.

The road to peace is long and hard; there are many bends and forks and bridges to cross. It will be ever thus, but if we are to demonstrate to the dead that their sacrifices are not without meaning, we must travel on that road to peace, always ready to surmount its obstacles. We must "begin doing well in peace." Memorial Day is the occasion for such a resolution. But if we do so resolve, we should remember that the real memorial to the dead and the real justification for peace and understanding in the world are not in crumbling stones and tottering statues and fine words. They are in the ideals of truth, freedom, brotherhood — ideals which have sustained us in the part and which must grow to nobler and bolder proportions if they are to sustain us in the future.

And, may we add this further comment on tomorrow's observance. Memorial Day is square in the American tradition. More than that, it is a reflection of the American character. We are a sentimental people. And that, most certainly, is nothing to be ashamed of. It is a source of kindness, of consideration for others, of the compassion that distinguishes us from the lower animals.

And Memorial Day represents a special and wholly admirable form of sentiment. When we place our flowers on graves, in sadness and in pride, there is an uplifting of the spirit. We are expressing love. And we are paying tribute to the virtues and dearness of those who passed on before us. And, even if we do not visit a cemetery, we remember, and in that way the dead take on a form of new life.

One cannot conceive of a year in which there would be no Memorial Day. For it is the privilege of the living to honor those who are gone.

Even Poor Fish Have No Privacy

You can't escape science, no matter where you live these days. Consider the little fishes. Biologists from the University of Wisconsin are studying the homing behavior of white bass with the aid of tiny, battery-powered sound transmitters placed inside the fishes' stomachs.

The justification for this invasion of piscine privacy is that it will contribute to understanding of the homing instincts in salmon, also in other animals such as birds. It might even lead to improvement of man's navigational techniques in cloudy weather and in space.

A somewhat less altruistic goal is the purpose of another target that's going to raise havoc among the watery denizens. It's a "fish call" — a small transmitter which, dipped in the water, sends out sound and light waves which fish are supposed to find irresistibly attractive.

However, catching the fish will still be up to the skill of the fisherman. The device won't give an angler any more advantage over a fish than a duck call gives a poor marksman over a duck, the manufacturer says.

That's fair enough, isn't it, you poor fish?

Bee, Where is Thy Sting?

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways and be wise." So the Book of Proverbs has been admonishing mankind for three milleniums.

Now, thanks to the work of a West German apiarist, it may be to the bee that men should go to learn, not the ways of industry, but the ways of peace. One Jan Lassen, bee-keeper in the village of Wolhde in Schleswig-Holstein, has succeeded in breeding a variety of bee that is completely nonaggressive.

years to achieve his goal by breeding from bees selected for their gentle nature. His "pacifistic" bees can still sting but never do, and Lassen can handle them without gloves or mask.

Alas, as is so often the case in human affairs, interlopers from outside bring trouble to this apian Eden. Despite precautions, an occasional wandering, belligerent male successfully wooed one of the gentle innocents, producing a generation of little stingers who have to be painfully weeded out.

And to my beloved children, Pamela and Geoffrey, I give and bequeath my two tickets to "Hello, Dolly!"

WASHINGTON:

Red Chinese Agents Stir Up Russians

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Evidence is accumulating here that the Chinese Communists are building an underground in the Soviet Union.

Reports reaching the U.S. government saying the Red Chinese are even making attempts to build "Mao Tse-tung Communist cells" in Moscow — composed of opponents of the Khrushchev group.

But Mao's men are more active in working with the considerable number of minority groups spreading throughout the Soviet Union. The Red Chinese efforts extend over a much greater area than the territories Red China claims the Soviet Union conquered from old China in "colonial wars."

The fragmentary reports arriving in Washington indicate the heaviest and most successful work being done by Mao's agents is in the southeastern part of the Soviet Union which is heavily Asian in background.

It is also an area where the Russians have been markedly intolerant of racial minorities. They have wiped out native Communist parties and their leaders and have frequently replaced the leadership with non-Asian Russians. For the most part, these Asian minorities have not found it easy to rise in the Soviet economic or political hierarchy. Poverty is widespread.

The Russians are attempting to solve the problem in part by moving in European Russians as rapidly as possible in order to outnumber the native people.

In some areas this program has been successful. But in about a fifth of the area of the Soviet Union, the native Asians still form a heavy part of a majority of the population. Asian peoples account for about 14 per cent of the population of the entire Soviet Union.

There is reason to believe the Chinese may be finding fertile ground among the Uzbeks and Kazakhs.

The Soviet Union has stepped up "political education" among these peoples.

Soviet reports say "mysterious agents" have been crossing from the Chinese side of the frontier into the Soviet Central Asian territories where only a little more than 30 years ago the last of the Turkestanian Basmaichi rebel bands were overwhelmed by Russian troops.

When Soviet Russian armies reinvaded Central Asia in 1918 to crush the newly independent Moslem states, the long Basmaichi rebellion ensued, continuing intermittently until the 1930s. It was effectively crushed by 1931, when the last important rebel leader, Ibrahim Beg, commander of the Moslem Liberation Army of Bukhara, was captured and shot.

The fact is that the Red Chinese are training natives of these Asian regions, and other people of the same racial backgrounds, in special schools. These Mao agents are then infiltrated into the Soviet Asian areas.

The trained Red Chinese organizers associate themselves with minority, racial, revolutionary, nationalistic groups dissatisfied with Russian rule. They whip up talk about the evils of colonialism and use it against the Russians as the Russians have used colonialism against the Europeans.

U.S. experts aren't certain yet of the aims of this Red Chinese underground or how far it is likely to get.

Allen-Scott Report

Senate Committee Balky on $125 Million Aid Urged by President for Viet Nam; More Facts Wanted

PAUL SCOTT

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank J. Markey

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is kidding himself if he's counting on quick and easy Senate Foreign Relations Committee approval of his proposed $125 million additional economic and military aid for Communist-impoverished South Viet Nam.

The backstage situation in this key committee is decidedly different from the House Foreign Affairs Committee, where Republicans and Democrats are going down the line in giving the President virtually everything he is asking for in foreign aid spending.

In the Senate committee, it will take all the President's widely-touted persuasive talents to get what he wants. As of now, it's a toss-up whether the Foreign Relations Committee will do.

At the most, the President has a shaky two-vote margin for the increased South Viet Nam funds. By the time the committee gets around to voting, sometime in June, this uncertain situation may have changed either way for the President or against him. It depends on explosive factors at home and in Southeast Asia.

The Senate committee's closed-door sessions should be unmistakable warnings to the President that he has his work cut out for him on this stormy issue.

In addition to the militant opposition of Senator Wayne Morse, D-Ore., who has been caustically blasting administration policies in Southeast Asia for weeks, Republicans have evinced challenging doubts. Their attitude differs markedly from the GOP members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee who are giving the President no trouble.

Significantly indicative of this variance is Senator George Aiken, Vt., long-time supporter of foreign aid and bipartisan foreign policy, who has been sharply critical.

If Aiken's disapproving views reflect the sentiments of the other Republican committee members, then the President is in serious hot water.

UNANSWERED CRUCIAL QUESTIONS — Illustrative of Aiken's potentially upsetting stand was his blunt grilling of Secretary Rusk about expanding the South Viet Nam conflict to adjoining North Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia.

The veteran New England Senator made it clear he has grave misgivings about that.

"What about those recurring reports that U.S. combat troops may be employed in these countries," Aiken asked Rusk.

"That is not contemplated at the present time," replied the State Department head.

"Just what do you mean by 'at the present time'?" demanded Aiken. "How much time would that cover?"

Rusk said nothing. Similarly, he was vague as to where the Communist Viet Cong are getting weapons and other supplies. Rusk conceded there is conflicting information on this.

"Isn't it a fact," he was asked, "that most of the Viet Cong's arms are American weapons captured from the South Vietnamese?" Practically every report of an engagement contains an account of the loss of South Vietnamese weapons — which we supply. So it's obvious the Viet Cong are getting a great deal of fighting equipment from us through the Vietnamese."

Rusk admitted this is occurring.

"SUPER-MAC'S" PROPHECIES — Definitely a factor in this sticky backstage situation is growing Senate exasperation over Defense Secretary McNamara's widely shifting pronouncements on the South Viet Nam struggle.

"Super-Mac," as critics now acidly refer to him, has covered a wide spectrum in these statements. They range from a glowing prediction in May 1962 of early and assured victory to his gloomy report to the President a week ago of a "long and hard war" and the urgent need for "more money and men."

Zeroing in stingingly on the Pentagon boss, Senator Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, who with Senator Morse has been spearheading the attack on the administration's Southeast Asia policies, spelled out McNamara's on-again, off-again record as follows:

May 11, 1962, following his first visit to Saigon, the Defense chief expressed himself as "tremendously encouraged by developments, which are most cheering and hopeful"; October 3, 1963, after a second visit, McNamara exuberantly announced "the major part of the U.S. military personnel can be withdrawn."

But two months later, December 21, 1963, back from a third visit, McNamara was no longer talking about recalling U.S. troops, instead indicated additional "training forces" might have to be sent. Then on May 10, 1964, after his fourth trip, his tune had changed to a frank admission that the war was going badly and more large-scale U.S. help is needed.

Four days later, President Johnson sent Congress a special message asking for $125 million additional economic and military aid for South Viet Nam.

"This is an astonishing record," said Gruening. "It can only raise the gravest doubts as to just what is going on in Viet Nam. If the Secretary of Defense, with all the resources at his command, can vary so widely in his public pronouncements, how can the American people be expected to know what is transpiring. Manifestly, they are not being told the whole story or the real story."

"It's time they should be, because it is their sons who are fighting and dying in this war. And it is the American taxpayers who are paying the more than $500 million it is now proposed we pour into South Viet Nam."

Since 1954, the U.S. has spent more than $3.5 billion in economic and military aid in South Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia, as follows: South Viet Nam $2.6 billion; Laos $475 million; Cambodia $375 million.

Significantly, principal Senate opponents of the President's Southeast Asia policies are liberal Democrats, such as Morse and Gruening, and Southerners, foremost among them Allen Ellender, La.; Russell Long, La.; James Eastland, Miss; Olin Johnston, S.C.

Carl DeSuzo, noted world traveler, lecturer and radio personality, tells us Americans need nerves of steel to drive in Europe and especially in Paris. He says there's no speed limit in the French capital because of the automobile explosion after World War II, and the fact the city has so many old, narrow streets; it's the only way to keep traffic moving. He also added it's against the law to honk your horn or drive with your headlights on at night. Wherever there are street lights you drive with only your parking lights. He advises: when in Paris, get a taxi, get gyped by the driver, but you'll arrive at your destination uninjured and alive.

Today's smile: Rudy Valle tells a story about a fellow whose car stalled on a country road. While he was fussing under the hood a horse walked up to him and said: "Why don't you look at the gas gauge?" The fellow was startled and went to a nearby farmhouse where he related to the farmer what had happened. The farmer asked if the horse was a black one and had a black tail. The fellow recalled it was. "Don't pay any attention to him," the farmer said, "he doesn't know anything about automobiles."

A merchandising specialist tells us sending out samples through the mail is the best way to introduce a new product. He says the next best way is the "coin return," which is the reverse of sampling. He rates mailing coupons in third place, and says contests are a poor method until a product has been accorded public acceptance since most consumers won't buy something unfamiliar just to enter a contest.

Thoughts while shaving: Easterners generally regard Oklahoma and Texas as the big oil producing states, so many will be surprised to learn that Arkansas produces 30 million barrels of petroleum annually. . . . Russia, almost three times the size of the U.S., has 40 per cent more cropland, but the latest seven-year plan, which started in 1958, will only produce 20 per cent more food instead of the predicted 70 per cent. Meanwhile, the Soviet population will have increased an estimated 12 per cent. All of which means Ivan will have a little improvement in diet. . . . Not too long ago a 30-year-old Irishman in London set a record for

Since 1954, the U.S. has spent more than $3.5 billion in economic and military aid in South Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia, as follows: South Viet Nam $2.6 billion; Laos $475 million; Cambodia $375 million.

Significantly, principal Senate opponents of the President's Southeast Asia policies are liberal Democrats, such as Morse and Gruening, and Southerners, foremost among them Allen Ellender, La.; Russell Long, La.; James Eastland, Miss; Olin Johnston, S.C.

CAPITOL EYE:

Barry Gains As Apathy Grips GOP

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, his huge delegation led largely untouched by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's Oregon primary victory, gains materially in his presidential bid from the curious condition of the Republican party in 1964.

Already well recited is the headlessness of the potent moderate wing which still opposes him. Moderate leaders not only have no horse to ride. They have no moving spirit, no guiding hand. Each looks elsewhere for signs of motion — and sees no stirring.

All this obviously is immensely helpful to Goldwater as the only candidate with both chiefs and Indians in state after state. His organizations often triumph virtually by default.

Yet his advantages do not end with this. The Arizona senator is getting substantial aid from the fact that numerous GOP professionals are not functioning as party leaders normally do in nomination struggles.

The business of nomination politics is like no other. Its lifeblood is the interchange of ideas and information. The seasoned expert has his antennae tuned to pick up every useful fragment of fact and opinion.

But this reporter, in several periodic cross-country checks this year, has noted a marked insularity among many Republican leaders. They are not operating as alert listening posts. Two western politicians conceded not long ago that they did not know the real size of Goldwater's vote in the April 11 Illinois primary. They had no idea how that vote compared with past primary votes there for Richard Nixon, Dwight Eisenhower or the late Robert A. Taft.

Few professionals reached in surveys had any notion what had gone on in recent important state conventions in Kansas and Iowa, where Goldwater and anti-Goldwater forces tangled bitterly.

A southern state chairman said in a telephone interview that his party people were all busily chewing over a national magazine's summary of Goldwater's delegate strength. Knowledgeable professionals in talking by babbling on for 133 consecutive hours. He popped off on politics, hypnotism, hygiene, juvenile delinquency and crime. He's not a politician, but his friends think he'd make a good one. . . . You'd undoubtedly heard of professional coffee and tea tasters, but a select group of government employees in the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture are turkey tasters. They eat turkey every day just to check on its texture and flavor. We'll bet they eat steak on Thanksgiving.

Headline in the New York WORLD TELEGRAM & SUN: "A Johnson By Any Other Name But Howard Just Ain't Legal." Even LBJ should remember that Howard is the landmark of hungry Americans.

Country Editor speaking: "The average wife is like a baseball umpire. They make quick decisions, never admit they're wrong, and won't admit you might be safe when you're out."

Sen. Grady Holzworth, Senate Bldg., Austin, Texas.

Earlier years kept their own scorecards.

The big Goldwater delegate potential, which is now being converted to fact in many places, was visible in early January to anyone with a good political eye and a pencil.

It took many GOP leaders more than two months to wake up to what Barry was heading for. When they finally did in late March, a sizable number, including strong Goldwater adversaries, shrugged and said: "I guess the ball game is nearly over."

Their unawareness of some 1964 political events, not to mention the history of prior campaigns, makes many easy prey to barrages of propaganda. Some are "buying" lines without realizing it.

Even with a dozen or so "high total" Goldwater delegate counts now before them, few leaders seem to be probing the figures for new insights.

All note the disparity between his high total (around 520) and his low status (15 per cent) in nationwide popularity polls, plus his defeats in contested New Hampshire and Oregon primaries.

Hardly any leader bothers to note that two-thirds of Goldwater's presently projected delegate strength (not counting California's 86) comes from the 11-state Old South and the 8-state Mountain-Southwest. President Johnson is expected to be very tough in these areas this fall.

Nominating a president is for any party an enterprise in continuous communication among professionals. In 1964, communication among Republicans is not working well. Goldwater benefits thereby.

India and West To Be Closer, Diplomats Say

LONDON (UPI) — Western Allied diplomats here said Thursday they anticipate that India will move closer to the West with the death of Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru.

Basically, India was expected to stand by its traditional policy of nonalignment with power blocs.

But the coming months were expected to see a gradual shift toward more cooperation with the Western nations, notably the United States and Britain.

Communist China's pressures in Asia and its latest push toward Southeast Asia were cited among the primary causes for the anticipated policy shift in New Delhi.

The move was expected to be cautious and only gradual so as not to upset India's friendly relations with Russia.

Wednesday said the foundations with the West were laid by the late prime minister himself, following Red China's aggression two years ago.
